MASONIC OUT OF DEBT CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE CELEBRATES—The Out of Debt Campaign Committee which inaugurated a campaign last fall to clear the Masonic Temple, 1050 E. 50th Street, of debt, which amounted to $12,000, celebrated the successful culmination of their endeavor on Sunday, July 30th, at 3:00 p. m., with a special program and a symbolic burning of the mortgage at the Temple. It was a great occasion and brought to a close a very successful campaign. The committee extends their thanks and appreciation to all members of the craft and the Star chapters for the great service rendered.

McCoy Memorial Baptist Church

Sunday, August 13, will be long remembered as a day of great achievement for the Brotherhood of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church. We pride ourselves on having a group of men who are taking their place in the church as leaders. The audience looked on with surprise and amazement as the men came forward and placed their monies on the table in no uncertain terms.

Every man in the church, with a few exceptions, gave from $5 to $50. The men were in charge of the program throughout the day and we wish to commend the program committee, Brothers Long, Wilford Thompson and Ira Hill for the splendid worship, as a result of their choice of participants on the program.

We wish to thank Rev. A. A. Smith and Brother Nance for training the male group who rendered musical selections for the services.

Sunday, August 20, will be known as Women's Day at which time the women will attempt to raise more finance than the men. The final amount for both men and women will be announced Sunday night.

At the 11 o'clock hour you will hear a women's chorus and also other guest artists. The pastor will speak from the text: "Drive and go forward." Five hundred women are needed and asked to be present to help in this stupendous effort.

At 3:30 o'clock a great musical program will be featured in a vesper service.

At 7:30 p. m. the last call for the Women's Day drive will be made and the total amount of finance will be announced. Come and worship at McCoy, 802 East 46th street. Ride the "V" car to McKinley and Vernon avenue, walk two blocks south on McKinley to 46th street, and turn west on 46th.

★ AVALON USO CENTER GIVES GALA PICNIC FOR SERVICE MEN ★

ANOTHER SUCCESS FOR BEN ELLISON—The faithful, hard-working director of the Avalon USO Center, Mr. Ben Ellison, has a long time of successful events to his credit. The mammoth stay-at-home picnic which was staged in beautiful South Park on last Sunday afternoon was another such outstanding affair. Such an array of talent as was on hand to entertain the boys is seldom seen on one platform free of charge. There were the Archie Savage dancers, Mabel Scott, Marie Bryant, the Butler Kiddies, the Port Heuneme Navy Band, and many others present, and everyone gave of his very best. An enjoyable afternoon was spent by all who were present—and there were hundreds of persons there. Since returning to Los Angeles, Ben Ellison has done a marvelous job of building an organization, and has maintained a well-equipped, spacious clubhouse for the servicemen and surrounded himself by capable, gracious volunteer workers who have spared no pains to see that our boys receive the best, and are made comfortable during their leisure hours. This community is justly proud of Mr. Ellison, and the California Eagle takes this means of congratulating him upon the very fine job he has done, and is doing, in this community.

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE

A rival confrere put brass-knuckles on his portable and went to town last week in an article rapping this newsboy for being a Walter Winchell fan. He devoted much space to "Little boy Gipson, Winchell's Stooge." He tried to smear our name because he doesn't like Winchell. I won't apologize for being a Winchell fan. In fact, that's the one thing I don't mind my enemies sniping at me about. We love those attacks. It proves we're on the right side. Never in the history of the journalistic world has there been a man so deserving of all the praise heaped upon him as has Walter Winchell. He's the man who aimed his typewriter to the other side of the tracks and helped bring to justice such slimy things as George Sylvester Vierick. He's the man who first made the public aware of such phoney PUtriots as Winrod, Gerald LK Smith, Dudley Pelley and other censorable soandsos who were trying their darndest to replace Old Glory with a Japanatzi rag. He's the man who first stuck a pen in the Lindberg bubble and brought it down with a crash. He's the man who loves the president because the President loves America. He's the man who (get this, please!) warned the nation of Japanese treachery JUST FOURTEEN DAYS BEFORE PEARL HARBOR! He's the man who made a career of exposing Americans most Americans can do wtihout. He's an American, proud of America. True, he's gotten off on the wrong track a couple times—But be reminded that that is why erasers are put on pencils—everybody makes mistakes. So, our brother reporter who hates us for being a Winchell fan, should read Westbrook Pegler's column for one reason why we like reporters like Winchell!

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE

Singer (ouch, who threw that?) Frank Sinatra grossed over a million smackers last year. (And I hadda grow up to be a columnist) . . . Overheard In The Last Word: "A man who marries the second time doesn't deserve to get rid of his first wife!" . . .

Maekatha Benton is another reason so many guys find excuses to shop at Thrifty's. She's the one with the Peaches 'n Cream complexion . . . The Storque Club NY may get the same treatment as the Alabam here. They owe $185.000.000 in taxes (or have I got too many Os in that?) . . . They're saying Ethel Waters, who isn't too popular anyhow with the Central crowd, ought to get some brains and omit those personal remarks about certain people. Or at least, where she isn't overheard . . . Cpl. Baron Polan, who directs (and also hires talent for) the Jubilee programs, told Nina Mae McKinney: "I didn't know you were in town until I read it in JT Gipson's colyum." Another proof that they read the col'm in Hllywd. (Chee, mebbe Hedy reads it too, huh?) . . . Boyd Pinkston, the col'm's bodyguard (as if we need one) will leave the Hospital anyday now. He underwent a major op. (The fact that his expenses there costs twenty-five dollars a day, may have had something to do with his speedy recovery). Yak, Yak, Yak . . . Evelyn McGee's distinctive style of toying with any ballad she sings is refreshing . . . Phil Moore, who auth'd "Sheo Shoo Baby" will do a musical this fall. His own, titled "Meet Mr. Bujie." . . . Deb Bernice Garner is toting a torch for a soldier. We could tell Niecie the name of a guy who's nuts about her and it'd make her forget that guy in uniform. (Oh, fevvensakes Gipson, keep your big mouth shut!) . . . Aside to Eloise Pate, out Chi way: "Hi, chum!" . . . Officer No. 194 (the one we column-spanked a coupla weeks ago) gave a ticket to a businessman for parking his car in the alley back of his place of business, while unloading groceries. What's wrong with that guy, Capt. Walters? . . . Most of the Lincoln Theatre dolls were in the "Sweet 'N Hot" hit, and you know what beauties that show had. Wow! . . . Melville Jackson, the Sportsman, won twenty-five hundred on a horse last week. He's investing it in war blondes . . . Twentieth-Century picked up the dancesational Nicholas Brother's option, and with a raise, too! The dancers, the best duo in the biz, deserve it . . . A scandal was hushed the other morning when a Law Enforcer caught a very, very prominent married medico petting in the park with his girlfriend. He let the Doc go, but as a warning to other pettors, he asked me to print his name here. (Now he oughta known better'n that!) . . . Dancer Jean Ayers, a Nawth Clina cutie, is the newest excitement to our town. What loveliness! She oughta be in pickchas, she screens flawlessly . . . The news that Bennie Goodman will return to the Swing Kingdom was welcomed over at this desk. He's our favorite.

Anna Mae Winburn Fronts Band of Femme Swingsters

It now begins to look as tho the Lincoln theatre is serious in bringing to the public the "tops in entertainment." As if the Leonard Reed productions; together with a new and much improved Bardu Ali band; plus twelve beautiful brownskins who can dance, weren't enough, the Lincoln management has come up with the announcement that for one week starting Friday, August 18, the International Sweethearts of Rhythm all-girl orchestra, under the direction of shapely and pretty Anna Mae "Skipper" Winburn, will be presented in a star-studded show.

In order to accomodate the large crowds, the Lincoln theatre will open its doors at 2:30 p.m. every day, the picture program will start promptly at 2:45 p.m., and the first stage show will start at 5:00 p.m. There will be an eevning show at 9:30 p.m. Prices for the bargain matinee will be, adults: 30 cents including tax; children 20 cents including tax, and servicemen and women 40 cents.

In conjunction with this outstanding stage attraction, the Lincoln will also present its stage revue, featuring Tim Moore, Crackshot, Vivian Harris, Jimmie Baskette, Bardu Ali's band, and many other out-standing stage stars. Midnight ramble every Saturday night.

SWEETHEARTS OK

The news that the Lincoln management had signed the International Sweethearts of rhythm for a week engagement is the best news to come out over the ticker tape this week. On a par with the Basie boys, the Goodman guys, and others so-called greats of the swing Kingdom, the girls dish out a brand of rhythm that'll just about knock you out.

And it's your best chance to hear them before they embark on an eastern theatre tour.

PORGY AND BESS AT PHILHARMONIC STARTING SEPT. 11

With a superb broadway cast headed by William Franklin, Etta Moten, Avon Long, the Jessye Choir and Alexander Smallens conducting the symphonic orchestra, Sol Hurok and L. E. Behymer will present George Gershwin and Du Bois Hayward's immortal "Porgy and Bess" at the Philharmonic auditorium for three weeks, beginning Monday evening, September 11.

Gershwin's nationwide musical hit has toured the country twice from coast to coast and has just completed its fifth highly successful New York engagement.

"Porgy and Bess' is the saga of Catfish Row, Charleston, S. C., and concerns the tragic romance of the crippled Porgy for his fickle sweetheart, the attractive Bess, played against the colorful background of the deep south.

Matinees have been arranged for Wednesday and Saturdays. Ticket and mail order reservations now at the Philharmonic Box Office, The So. Cal. Music Co. Ticket office at 737, So. Hill Street and all Mutual Ticket offices in Southern California.

Benny Carter

DENVER, Colo. — After breaking all records here at the Rainbow Ballroom during their two weeks engagement, the Benny Carter band, featuring George Washington on Trombone, will do a string of one-nighters throughout the middlewest, after which they journey to the Nation's capitol to join the King Cole Trio and Timmie Rogers for an engagement at the Howard theatre there.

TED YATES PUBLICATIONS

Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong and lovely Dorothy Dandridge are shown here in a scene from "Atlantic City," Republic's elaborate musical which co-stars Constance Moore and Brad Taylor. Buck and Bubbles are also on hand for this musical highlight in a song-studded show. "Satchmo" plays and sings "Ain't Misbehavin'" in his inimitable style; and Dorothy and the popular team do their stuff in grand style. The cast of this Republic picture includes Charley Grapewin, Jerry Colonna, Paul Whiteman and Louis Armstrong and Their Orchestras, Belle Baker, and many other favorites.

Ex-Trumpeter Gip Thinks Louis Armstrong Greatest Trumpeter

And there I stood in front of the bandstand, marvelling in wide-eyed amazement at the intricate riffs that emulated from the bell of his golden horn. The occasion was a dance at the Elks hall last Thursday evening. The guy tooting the trumpet was Louis Armstrong, often referred to as "Satchmo."

Armstrong has been riding the popularity wave for more than twenty years. It was his trumpet-tooting that first made the nation swing conscious. Yes, long before a Goodman named Benny was out of high school. Goodman gets the credit (or blame; take your pick) for giving swing to the nation. He first popped on the musical scene back in 1936, Armstrong, back in 1932 when he recorded "Confessin'," "Shine," "Sweethearts On Parade," and other tunes with the Les Hite Orchestra, was playing then the same kind of music Goodman, James, and other swing-greats are playing now!

MUSIC BY ANY OTHER NAME, ETC.

True, it was called jazz back in those days, but Armstrong's trumpeting was even then blowing out pure unadulterated honest-to-goodness swing! How Downbeat magazine can rate the late Bix Biederbeick with Louis Armstrong makes about as much sense as our awkward city editor Lee trying to dance a ballet. Biederbeick is the only Trumpeter the music mags rate on a par with (and some say, even better than) Louis Armstrong. Oh sure, and I'm Betty Grable!

There are dozens of trumpeters around today who would make the late Biederbeick even afraid to take his horn out of its case. To name but a few: Harry James, Sonny Dunham, Roy Eldridge, and a guy who once tooted the Trumpet with the Les Hite band named Lloyd Reese. Now there was a Trumpeter!

So maybe "Satchmo" doesn't play as much flawless trumpet today as he did in the roarin' twenties. He still blows enough to out-play any of the present-day crop of Horn Tooters. And there's a bit of Armstrong in all of the Trumpeters. It's his style they imitate, and he's the daddy of 'em all!

Chatman to Rest Before Recording

Closing a highly successful tour of nearly 500 one-nighters, Christine Chatman, a blue-singing babe you'll soon be hearing plenty about one of these not-too-distant days, will take a much needed rest until September 1, before resuming strenuous one-nighters with her Decca recording orchestra.

A contractto record for Decca tucked neatly away in her pocket, the little "Bundle of Blues" will "rest" until recording time.

Top Entertainment Is Scheduled For Shepp's Playhouse

The increase of activity around the corner of 1st and Los Angeles streets is due to the fact that final plans are now under way for the grand opening of Shepp's Playhouse, elaborate and swanky new cabaret and cocktail lounge being built by Gordon H. "Shepp" Shepard, former ace Negro cameraman of Hollywood.

If you think this will be just another club, you will be convinced the moment you step inside that there is nothing to compare with it on the coast. Mr. Sheppard, who is by nature a quiet and modest man, is all but this in his ideas of a club house. He is using the knowledge obtained through 18 years of experience in the film industry to make this a place one will never forget. He is spending a small fortune and personally suprvising the work to see that everything will be just so. A group of super-fine artists are being engaged for the entertainment and this phrase of the business is under the supervision of a well-known popular showman. Contacts are also being made with local radio stations to have the program put on the air.

Many celebrities have been seen in this vicinity lately and showing great interest in developments. We may be sure that many of them will be seen regularly at the Playhouse.

There are several unusual features not ordinarily in local clubs and "Shepp" has in addition, a few surprises for the opening.

Foolhardy motorists include those who start from the curb into traffic without first being sure that the highway is clear of approaching vehicles.

Mantan Moreland Is Brightest Sepia Star On Universal Lot

Mantan Moreland has become, in five years, one of the screen's most popular Negro comedians. That he also commands a substantial, three-figured salary is attributable to the same reasons:

His friendly personality, his willingness to help the little fellow, and his natural acting ability. He is the brightest sepia star on the Universal studio lot. Well-liked by all, his easy-going disposition has won for him a host of friends.

Hailing from the creole state of Louisiana, the popular Mantan first jumped into the spotlight when he appeared in the George White Scandals of 1937. In that revue he had a leading role. Going to Hollywood a couple of years later, he made his first picture for Monogram studios.

His latest flicker is "Bowery to Broadway," with Maria Montez, Jack Oakie, Susanna Foster and a score of additional name stars.

He's headed for the top. And at the rate he's going, he'll make it in nothing flat!

Parker Berry New Love Arranger

In case you've wondered of his whereabouts, Parker Berry, one of the nation's top musical arrangers, and the main standby in the Les Hite Trombone section when that band was riding the crest of the popularity wave, has been signed as musical director for Clarence Love's Darlings of Rhythm all-girl orchestra. Touring the southland, the band is proving "box office" draw wherever they play.

Way ahead of the pack, too, is its star —twice winner of the Academy Award —Spencer Tracy!

Tracy was great in "Boys Town". He was great in "A Guy Named Joe". But he's greatest of all in this drama of a ruthless manhunt!

His portrayal of Heisler a terrible journey across a shattered land to a woman's arms and a new tomorrow—is the most remarkable of his career!

The Annual Sheriff's Show will be held at the Shrine auditorium October 4th to 9th, inclusive. Abbott and Costello, the funny men, will supply the show. Also it is said that the Screen Actor's Guild will furnish talent for the Relief Show. In case you didn't know it, the Sheriff's Relief Association takes care of its members with any cost to the taxpayers. It is a worthy cause and deserves your support. Of course, you have seen previous shows, but this one promises to top all shows presented by the Sheriff's Relief Association. So if you want escape type of entertainment, make a date now to attend one of the nights from October 4th to October 9th.

Officer Jimmy Hunt is still the crack shot of the county. Meet David Addison, strappling deputy sheriff assigned to the jail. He is most picturesque.

Saw Ford of Ford, Marshall and Jones. He was just back from a tour of Canada. He and his wife have their eye on a little business in the Bronzeville area, known city-wide as "Little Tokyo."

Maxine Sullivan is really taking the high road and not the low road out at the Trocadera. They really need such an act as her to follow King Cole and his Trio. Yep, Maxine is coming on. While Maurice Rocco is sodidly ticking the ivories over at the Clover Club. This guy can really play a piano. He has his own inimical style.

Ernest Whitman says that the film industry is going all out for war pictures. But the part that the Negro is playing in the war is seldom ever included in the scrip. Hence he, despite the fact that everyone is working these days, seldom gets a role.

We heard somewhere in Hollywood that screen writers would write in good Negro roles as per the orders of the OWI. But promises are easy to make and break.

But Johnny Weissmuller will make a Tarzan film. That will put bread in the mouths of the Central avenue Hollywood set for a few days. Bing Crosby, he has even stopped making films where he could employ a great many of the sepia actors.

Add all this to the fact, the Negro's resentment to being used as comedy relief or an attempt to type Negroes, which interferes with the efforts for recognition by Negro leaders and the Press.

The Negro looks to the film industry to tell the world that the Negro is an American citizen. And not just clowns, singers—that the Negro has a serious side the same as any other American.

Orson Welles, Olivia De Haviland and Rex Ingram as well as John Garfield are every ready to do their part to aid in the battle for true democracy.

Floyd Covington is the hardest working little fellow in this respect that we have seen. There is no court case, no meeting regardless of where it is held—that Floyd Covington doesn't attend. He is ever on his guard. Sometimes we have seen him so weary from going, going, going in the interest of democracy that he has had to take cat naps in between dull speakers.

Bits and bits. The great Duke, who has made history at Carnegie Hall with his musical tome, "Black, Brown and Beige," will write a book labeled with the same name. It will be a history of the development of his race.

Mrs. John Hawkins, wife of the chain hotel owner, was slashed several times by Willie Davis, a roomer of hers, when she requested that he refrain from being boisterous. Police are hunting everywhere for the miscreant.

This is your Officer Earl J. Morris, of the Sheriff's Department, who can be reached at 5013 Wall street, Los Angeles 11, or by telephone, ADams 7010.

Romance in White House Highlighted in "Wilson"

To many movie-goers whose only view of the White House has been in newsreel flashes of handshaking celebrities in the Executive Offices, the lovely white columned building on Pennsylvania Avenue may have seemed more like an institution than a home.

Now, for the first time on the screen, the White House has been brought alive as the scene of a great romance, a setting for a love story as powerful as its principals were illustrious. The film is Darryl F. Zanuck's Technicolor production, "Wilson," acclaimed as the crowning triumph of 50 years of screen entertainment, and now in its roadshow engagement at the Carthay Circle and United Artists theatres.

The 20th Century-Fox motion picture, in its unfolding of one of the most exciting, emotional dramas ever filmed, not only takes film fans on a Tchnicolor tour of the White House, mirroring for the first time in the movies such treasures of Americana as Lincoln's nine-foot bed, the paintings and furnishings of the famous Blue Room and the golden aura of the Grand Ballroom. It also reveals for the first time, outside of a few books of biography, the intimate details of the courtship of President Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, a romance that rocked the Capital to its granite and marble foundations.

For the same pen which was writing grim warnings to Germany in the tense days before the United States was plunged into World War I, was scratching sentimental messages to the woman who was to play an important part in history as the second Mrs. Wilson. The daily orchid to the lady of President Wilson's heart was as regularly dispatched as the routine directives to his cabinet.

It is this tender love tale and the appealing picture of Wilson as a family man and father, adored by his three daughters, which lifts "Wilson" out of the category of an historical document and makes the film a great human story of the life of a memorable man whose head might have been in the clouds of world affairs, but whose heart was ever close to the hearthside.

In the film directed by Henry King, and for which the screen play was written by Lamar Trotti, Alexander Knox appears as Wilson, Geraldine Fitzgerald as Edith Bolling Galt, Ruth Nelson as Ellen Wilson, and Mary Anderson, Ruth For Forbes as Eleanor, Margaret and Madeleine and Jessie Wilson, respectively.

Slick Chick Clicks As Harlem Goes Ga-Ga Over Lass' Lyricing

Ever so often some certain singer or musician comes along that has the critics going all out in praise of their talent. The newest singer to hit the headlines at this writing is a lovely little brownskin named Effie Smith. Effie Smith, in case you haven't been keeping up on your latest Theatrical news, is the slick chick who chirps with the Erskine Hawkins band. Her style of singing has Harlem all up in arms. And believe you me, when Harlem goes all up in arms over a singer that singer definitely has something on the ball.

A Native Gal

A California girl, the comely Miss Smith first made the headlines when she was a member of a trio of cuties known as "The Three Shades of Rhythm." They won prominence with their recording of the tune "From Twilight Til Dawn." Effervescent Effie later branched out as a single and went with the Twentieth Century Gabriel's orchestra as featured vocalist. And she's been doing all right for herself ever since.

If you haven't already heard her, you'll get the chance the week of October third. That's the week she pops in port for an engagement at the Orpheum Theatre with the Erskine Hawkins orchestra.

Marian Anderson Award Winner Signed to Record for Victor

Miss Camilla Williams, 22-year-old lyric soprano and two-time winner of the Marian Anderson award, passed two important milesstones on the road to musical success last week by signing with RCA Victor as an exclusive Victor recording artists, and making her radio debut over RCA coast-to-coast network program, "The Music America Loves Best." The ovation which Miss Williams, former school teacher, received in her Saturday night debut in the Blue Network studios in New York served as a well-earned tribute to a promising career.

A garduate of Viriginia State College, she served as music director in the school system of her native Danville, Va.

Under the tutelage of Madame Marian Szkley-Freschl, Philadelphia voice teacher who formerly starred in Opera in Europe, Miss Williams began an intensive course of study, including lessons in German, French and Italian to prepare for her operatic roles.

Within less than a year she won the annual Marian Anderson award, which provides scholarship assistance for young vocalists. When the competition was held this year, Miss Williams again emerged as the winner.

She will also appear with the renowned Philadelphia Orchestra as guest soloist in a concert during the 1944-45 season.

I Met a Great Man

By Dora Maddox

During our work as matron in a powder room at the Trocadero, a famous night club of Hollywood, Calif., I have seen great artists come and go. So Jimmie Noone made his bow at the Trocadero. We must confess that, at the time we met him, we were not moved by any greater emotion than that of meeting another musician. But very soon we discovered that Jimmie bestowed an amiability and a geniality upon the people he met that enabled him to make friends by the thousands. Of whatever race or creed, they were won by his kindly warmth of disposition.

Thus, the humble Powder Room Matron was numbered among the friends of Jimmie Noone, one of the nation's famous orchestra leaders. Truly, he was easy to meet and grand to know.

We have listened to music all our life, and our love for music has increased with the years. And so we love the great man whose musical wings unfurl and bring cheer and sunshine to a dreary world. Jimmie Noone hailed from New Orleans and made his first bid for fame with the Creole Orchestra. On, on, he went until he became one of the most famous orchestra leaders in America.

Truly, he was talented and possessed the ability to make his talent pay but, we say without fear of contradiction, were it not for his spiritual values, his amiability, his gentleness, and his consideration for others, he could not have attained to such heights of greatness, nor could he have gained such a degree of esteem and respect from the artists of all races.

He was so loved and respected that a benefit program was given at the Trocadero on August 13, and the proceeds presented to his family. The response to the sponsors' call was beautiful and something of an inspiration. Some of the most outstanding artists of all groups were participants, donating their time. The audience was made up of people of all races and all walks of life. No artist has ever been paid a greater tribute.

Much praise and appreciation are due Mr. George Goldie, proprietor of the famous club, for opening his doors for the affair. Such thoughtfulness and liberality cannot be excelled. The Noone and Teen-age programs are the only affairs of such nature that have ever been rendered at Hollywood's Trocadero.

Margaret Simms,

HULL, England. — "We made it!" beamed American Red Cross Club Director Jesse Chiles, 835 Beecher St., Walnut Hill, Cincinnati, Ohio, a bit haggard but happy, only half an hour before the official opening ceremony at a large, new Red Cross club in this seaport town.

Highligthing a varied two-hour program of music was Mrs. Margaret Simms, Negro American Red Cross entertainer known in the States as the "Songbird of the South."

THRILL TO THE RHYTHMS OF THE FRANK PASLEY TRIO . .

Traffic Deaths Are Increasing in the Central Ave. Area

Traffic deaths have increased in the Eastside area. For the 2944 period ending August 10, the Newton Street Division showed 22 traffic deaths and 518 traffic injuries. This is an increase over last year's deaths, of 46.7 per cent and the Traffic Education Unit warns motorists and pedestrains alike that strict enforcement of traffic laws will continue.

Central Avenue is the street in the area where most accidents occur, with jaywalking pedestrains and speeding drivers causing the greatest number of collisions. The Education Unit particularly desires to direct the attention of new residents to the California state laws on safe walking.

A copy of these may be secured from your local newspaper, if you are a new deliver and not familiar with all the driving regulations, you can also obtain a copy of the booklet, "Accident Don't Happen," from your local newspaper, The Urban League, 2510 South Central Avenue, or from the Traffic Division, 123 South Figueroa Street.

Policeman Sued By Arthur Houston

Arthur Houston, popular tonsorial artist and property owner filed suit through Attorney H. Richardson in the Municipal Court here on August 12th against William Watson, Police Officer of the Los Angeles Police Department, alleging that on or about March 3, 1944, when he, Houston, was in the Newton Street Jail, after an altercation with Hailey Harding, co-editor of the Los Angeles Tribune, and was being investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department he had in his possession a money bag containing $500, which he left in a room with Watson when he went out for a brief period of time. When he returned, his money bag was short $210.

DIVORCE DECREE GRANTED

On August 2, 1944, Judge Robert H. Scott, in Department 10, of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, granted a decree of divorce to Emma Blackwell of 2238 West 29th Street, Los Angeles, California, against her husband, Frank Blackwell.

Frank Blackwell brought the original action for divorce against his wife, March 20, 1944, alleging extreme cruelty.

In addition to the divorce, the court made a division of the community property of the parties and granted Mrs. Blackwell uopn her request permission to occupy a portion of the home of Mr. Blackwell, his separate property, for a period of one year from the date of the divorce.

Emma Bristow Blackwell, formerly Mrs. Emma Bristow Reed, is a registered nurse, a graduate of the Provident Hospital, in Chicago, Illinois.

Ration Board Needs Your Help

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This is a plea for help from your local War Price and Rationing Board. We are swamped with work that you are having to wait days or weeks for action on your needs. We do not like that any better, than you do, but without volunteer help, it is unavoidable as all the Rationing Boards are staffed for the use of volunteers.

You no not need to be a trained worker to help as there are all kinds of jobs to be done. All you need is the time to spend one or two mornings or hours a week at the Board.

We will endeavor to make the time given to us as pleasant as possible and you can feel that you are helping the war effort as well as all your friends and neighbors living in this area.

War Price and Rationing Board 82.5.40.

Watts USO News

Heading the outstanding events on this week's program is the Gala Mexican Bazaar on Friday, August 18. This program is sponsored by the Junior Hostesses under the direction of their new president, Miss Marie Byrd.

The Red, White and Blue Victory Ball Saturday night, August 19th, will feature Sammy Franklin and his unique orchestra.

FLOOR SHOW

One of the gayest affairs in the history of the Club was held last Wednesday evening in the form of a Cabaret Dance. Mrs. Florence C. Hockaday, dynamic assistant director, and her staff of girls decorated the social hall to resemble the famous "Troc." The floor show featured G. I.'s and Junior Hostesses.

The Talent Night Show presented by Jester Hairston and Mrs. Hockaday brought out another group of performers within the Club.

G. I. PICNIC

Concluding the busiest program week of the season was the Mid-Summer Picnic held on Sunday, August 13, at Will Rogers Park on 103rd Street under the sponsorship of the Junior and Senior Hostesses. The Los Angeles County Band was secured to entertain between 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock.

A delicious luncheon was served servicemen and hostesses.

The Soft-Ball game, featuring a home run by Mr. Kitchens (all American Tackle, Tuskegee '26 and '27) concluded the activities in the park, after which the group retired to the Club for the movie.

The staff and all committees wish to extend their sympathy to Mrs. Corine Smith, Chairman of the Operating Committee, whose husband, Mr. Roland Smith, passed away at their home on last Wednesday.

Jefferson Evening Summer School Ends After 6 Week Session

Winding up a profitable six weeks session, Jefferson Evening High School closed its doors on August 18th. Over three hundred students attended the classes in Typing, English, Elementary Review, Electricity and Radio, Power Sewing, Poultry Raising, Spanish, Arc Welding, and Machine Shop.

The regular fall term of school will begin on Tuesday, September 5, 1944 with many new classes being offered.

CLUBS—

La Cercle Charmante met with Mrs. Roena M. Savage last week. Aside from the members, those who vied for prizes for bridge were Mrs. Natalie Diggs, Mrs. Margharietta Hocker, Mrs. Annalene Phillips, Mrs. Watson, Doctor Howard Ingram, and Sergeant Plinton. Those winning out were Miss Mary Lou Phillips and Mrs. Gertrude Davis who took first and second club prizes, respectively, and Mrs. Diggs won guest prize. All enjoyed the delightful refreshments.

The Anna B. Garner Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Marie Muckelroy on 6th street. It was a business meeting at which plans were made for the recital to be given in September. Also, some work was done on the coming political campaign. Mrs. Muckelroy presided.

Mrs. Natalie Diggs of 8th street was hostess to the Cosmos Club last week. It was a business meeting in which the concluding affairs of the recent shoe raffle were taken care of. After business for the evening was finished, four hands of bridge were played with Mary Lou Phillips and Mrs. Roena Savage as guests. Mrs. Savage won the prize. The Shoe raffle, given for their charity fund, was a huge success. Mr. M. Dawkins won the raffle. Mrs. Margharita Hocker won club prize at the last meeting.

Mrs. Evelyn Glenn, Sgt. and Mrs. Beverley, and Sgt. Mike Lewis spent last Sunday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lelia Dixon of 6th Street is on a two-weks' vacation. She will spend a few days in Los Angeles and a few days in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Hillman and Mrs. Margharietta Hocker spent the day in Los Angeles last Sunday.

Mrs. Jess Warders of 8th street left on an extended trip through the East last week. She will spend a few days in Chicago, then travel on to visit relatives in New Jersey and New York. She will be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. Mabel Nolan of 7th street took her children and little Sonny Granberry, Eagle news boy, to spend the day at the beach in Santa Monica last Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Johnson of Spruce street left last week to spend a few days with her daughter and family, Mrs. Doreen Scott, in Berkely. She plans to bring little Scottie, Jr. back to visit a few days with his grandfather and other relatives in the city.

Miss Vera Harris, daughter of Mrs. Leola Jones of 8th street, has received appointment to a position in the war department in Washington, D. C. She left last Monday. We wish her much success.

Mrs. Henrietta Inghram, wife of Doctor Inghram left last week for Macon Georgia to attend a sister who is quite ill.

Mrs. Leola Jones is spending the week end in Pasadena and Mrs. Marie Hanson, her house guest, will spend the week end in Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. A. Texada of Pasadena has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Addie Elliott of I street. While in the city, she visited many old friends.

Mr. Reginald Harris of 8th street has been inducted into the army. It was not learned when he will leave. We hope it will be after the arrival of the new baby.

Mrs. Leola Jones of 8th street entertained in honor of the birthday of Sgt. Hector Gales, stationed at Base General, last Thursday night. Guests were Mrs. Virginia MacMorries, Mrs. Marie Hanson, Miss Shirley Banks, Mrs. Florence Knight, Doctor Inghram, Sgt. House, Sgt. Bowsman, Sgt. Tillery, Sgt. Elbert, and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Harris.

The boys at March field are having an outing for their lady friends Sunday afternoon at the Base.

Little Sonny Granberry entertained at a birthday party a few days ago. His guests were Clara, Popo, Claude Diggs Jr., Albert, Benny, Johnny, Teddy and his sister, Roney and his sister, John and his sister, Dano, Walter, Jimmy, Pat and his sister, Georgie, Ray, and Peta.

Many nice gifts were received and all had a good time.

Mrs. Sue Warner, Mrs. Martha Scott, and Mrs. Jessie Hurd went to Bakerfield last week to visit the brother of Mrs. Warner and Scott.

Mrs. Ethel Stevenson had as house guests last week, Mrs. Helen McGee and friends of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Beatrice White of Los Angeles and a cousin from Texas spent a few days visiting relatives in the city, the relatives being Mrs. Minnie Ruiz, Mrs. Jessie Hurd and Mrs. Ethel Stevenson.

The Christian Endeavor of St. Paul A.M.E. Church is sponsoring a skating party next Wednesday night. All are invited.

Unpaid and Unsung, War Chest Army Is on March

This writer's son has been a prisoner of the Japs since April 8, 1942. A graduate of the university of Southern California, a promising artist and an ensign in the United States Navy at 23, he was captured at Corregidor. He deserves something to eat besides spoiled fish and rice and a better place to sleep than a vermin-infested hut.

Think of this boy and thousands of young Americans like him when you volunteer in the Los Angeles War Chest Army, which has launched an all-out campaign in behalf of sufering heroes and heroines in our own and allied lands. Think of babies dying from malnutrition, think of expectant mothers pierced by savage bayonets! Think of our valiant WACS, WAVES, SPARS, Women Marines and Red Cross nurses at the mercy of war-mad beasts!

The work the War Chest leaders will ask you to do will be play compared with what American boys and girls are doing, here and overseas, to protect and preserve your liberty and mine. An army of 50,000 volunteer workers is needed immediately. Office workers, outdoor workers, typists, clerks, whatever kind of work you know how to do, will give you the proud but unsung honor of being a War Chest soldier. Hundreds of human lives have been lost for the lack of the aid you can give while this appeal is being written.

This message is brought to you through the cooperation of the Bureau of Public Service of the Los Angeles Railway.

If you have read it, let your conscience be your guide!

During the month of June, 1944, automobiles reported stolen to the California State's Bureau of Auto Theft totalled 1,233.

Crowds Attend Victory Auditorium Lectures

With scores unable to get seats, an overflow crowd gathered to hear the Lindsey-Troy series of lectures which opened Sunday night at the beautiful Victory Auditorium located at the corner of East 103 rd St. and Compton Ave.

Meetings are held each night at the Victory Auditorium except Monday and Saturday.

"The Great Battle of Armageddon and the Colored Races' Part in It," is the subject of the lecture to be presented next Sunday evening. This lecture will be illustrated by pictures flashed upon the illuminated screen.

A vaccination and immunization service for children and adults will be conducted at the Victory Auditorium on Thursday evening at 8:45 p.m. and again following the evening's lecture. Dr. Ruth Temple, City Health Officer, has this feature in charge.

The subjects for the remainder of the week are: "A Message to You from the Stars," "The Devil's Vacation," "The Battle for Bread," "Will a Man Who Has Been Married More Than Once Live with All His Wives in Heaven?"

Bakersfield USO

The 19th Street USO continues to be one of the busiest places for servicemen in this area with all facilities constantly open.

The sailors of the Naval Test Station, Inyokern, California, have found Bakersfield a congenial spot to spend their liberty leaves. At the weekly dances, game nights, and various other activities, a goodly number of the navy blue can be seen amid the khaki uniforms. Needless to say the navy men really make a diversion for the junior hostesses, as their presence adds plenty of spice to our weekly programs. Due to the successful invasion of the Inyokern Naval Test Station by the junior hostesses of the club, these young ladies will journey to Inyokern once a month to help entretain the sailors stationed there.

Our outdoor program is going along very smoothly with the large city park across the street. The USO has charge of the same under the direction of our capable associate director, Mr. Hugh Lowery. The Sunday afternoon splash parties in the Central Park swimming pool still continues to be one of the main features of our Sunday program during the hot months of July and August. Bathing trunks are furnished the servicemen by the USO club.

Friday nights, community sing, always finds a large number in attendance of both groups (colored and white), and is voted one of the outstanding events of our busy summer program.

Philadelphia proves it again

ROOSEVELT GETS YOU ACTION!

President Roosevelt swiftly and decisively settled the disgraceful Philadelphia transit strike.

It took compassion. It took wisdom. It took courage! Arrayed against the President was a group of vicious race-haters. At stake was the future of the President's Fair Employment Practice Committee which has been under the constant attack of anti-Roosevelt forces.

Philadelphia was not only a victory. It was a magnificent demonstration that the President can be relied upon to act with the fearlessness needed to assure equal rights to racial minorities. Roosevelt and Truman deserve the support of every thinking Negro. Candidates have always promised. Roosevelt delivers!

"The prompt action of the government in support of the FEPC is notice to the Negroes in the United States that Franklin D. Roosevelt still stands for freedom and democracy and that his continuation in office for another four years is the only way by which the Negro can consolidate the social gains under the New Deal." — ROSCOE C. DUNJEE, Editor and Publisher, The Black Dispatch (Oklahoma City)

"Millions of American citizens of all races and creeds will take renewed faith in the fundamental rightness of our democratic institutions as a result of the decisive action taken by President Roosevelt in this unfortunate situation." — EUGENE KINCKLE JONES, General Secretary, National Urban League.

"I am sure that Negroes and whites alike who believe in justice will indicate their approval of the course pursued in Philadelphia by continuing to give their wholehearted backing to the administration and the organized labor movement as long as they function as effectively as in this case." — CHANNING H. TOBIAS, National YMCA Executive

"The uncompromising manner in which the government settled this dispute is additional evidence of the desire of the administration to improve the occupational status of Negro workers." — ROBERT C. WEAVER, Executive Director, Mayor's Committee on Race Relations (Chicago)

"This action indicates again that the President and Commander-In-Chief can be depended upon to act promptly in opposing all efforts to split the unity of the American people."—MAX YERGEN, President, National Negro Congress

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

BY EDDIE BURBRIDGE

SHORT NOTES—In getting around town last weekend your scribe glimpsed light-heavyweight Watson Jones, who is slated to fight Fitzy Fitzpatrick, the kayo artist, at the Olympic soon, in the company of "Jumping" Joe Keyes and manager. The trio were motoring around town. A little later Roy Miller, managed by Henry Armstrong, and Major Jones, protege of Norman Saunders, were seen on the Main Stem at 43rd Street.' Jones made a great showing in his debut last week at the Olympic and local fight experts are already predicting a fine future for the 18 year old leatherpusher. Miller has also made a good ring start here. Both hail from Kansas City. Watch these kids. They are definitely going places.

CONCERNING PLAYGROUNDS this department thinks that this method of curbing juvenile delinquency is one of the best and most effective. However there is one little jarring note that enters the matter for which a very simple cure is advocated by yours truly... It is the kids that are inclined to run the streets playground conscious. If there were a group of boys formed, perhaps of the Boy Scouts, to quietly contact the errant boys and bring them into the playgrounds I do not think that it would be long before a large percentage of these so-called bad youngsters became regular visitors to our playgrounds. There are a large number of boys and girls who pass up the playgrounds as if they were plagued and I don't think that any advice by their parents or other grownups would materially affect this attitude... It will be necessary to reach them through other children, perhaps little friends of theirs who have enjoyed themselves at playgrounds and who would be able to put the benefits to be derived over much better than an adult.

DID YA KNOW?—Bobby Yeager, the hard-hitting lightweight protege of the Bert Lewis-George Tolson stable is being brought along carefully. Since he is very young it is not wise to fight him too often and Manager Lewis told this writer that that is the reason we do not glimpse Bobby oftener. What we do see of this classy youngster is plenty good, however. He and his stablemate, John Thomas, have just about got the lightweight situation sewed up around these parts . . . Lem Franklin, heavyweight fighter, who died after ring injuries recently, was 28 years old . . . Henry Armstrong hinted to this writer recently that after his battle against Willie Joyce at Frisco on August 21st he may quit the ring for good. Hank has been spending a week at a dude ranch but is back in town for a brief stay before going to the northern part of the State. According to the former triple champion he is a little tired of the game. He wants to devote more time to developing new fighters. In his fight stable he has Roy Miller, a good prospect, and young Keith Nuthall, 13 year old boxing wizard.

Louie Wise Nods Leonard

Louie Wise, 165, scored an impressive upset 10-round decision over Tommy Leonard, 171, in the main event at Ocean Park Arena Monday night. Wise, using his heavy artillery, proved to be too much for Leonard.

In the semi-windup Gilbert Whiteside, 143, scored a three-round k.o. over Speedy Cannon, 150.

Paul Lassiter, 138, decisioned Chick Laws, 137; Jack Walls, 142, tied the world's record when he knocked out Mickey Kern, 144, in 11s. of the first round; Frisco James, 164, and Billy Jones, 155, drew; Bernie Flores, 148, decisioned Clinton Campbell, 152.

Oklahoma Boxer No Match For Local Welterweight

Freddy Dixon, 147, sometimes known as the "uncrowned welterweight champion," stopped Ben Evans, 144, of Oklahoma in 1m., 53s. of the first heat of the scheduled ten-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night.

Evans was over-matched and Dixon hit him at will finally catching the Oklahoma boy with a right to the whiskers that dropped him for the full count.

Abe Roth refereed the main event.

After being floored for an eight count in the second round Art Barron, 137, came back to score a t.k.o. over Ray Vargas, 137½, in the third round of the semi-windup. Vargas suffered a broken nose, the bout being stopped on the advice of Dr. Lloyd Mace.

In the preliminaries Ray Acosta, 169, scored a surprising first-round technical knockout over Leonard Nix, 137, after Nix had been floored three times; Bobby Jackson, 130, defeated Freddy Taylor, 133; Joe Marlow, 138, decisioned Billy Tahan, 136, and Pee Wee Swinger, 124, and Stanley Jamison, 124, fought to a draw.

Jones vs. Fitzpatrick

Tuesday night, August 22nd, Watson Jones, local light-heavyweight, will meet Fitzy Fitzpatrick, the Irish kayo artist, in a ten-round bout at the Olympic Auditorium. This bout is expected to attract a great crowd as many fans are convinced that Jones is the only local fighter capable of defeating Fitzpatrick. Fitzy has scored one-round kayoes in all of his bouts here, four in a row.

HIGH JUMPER

CAMP LEE, Va.—Don Barksdale leaped to a new camp high jump record of six feet, five inches last Saturday, breaking his old mark by thre inches. Appearing in an exhibition at the 8th ASFT Regiment track meet on Lee Field, Barksdale thrilled the crowd with his easy motion and form.

NEW YORK—Albert (Chalky) Wright of Los Angeles was named the No. 1 challenger for the featherweight title now held by Willie Pep by the New York State Athletic Commission, it was announced Wednesday.

MATT OGLESBY may fight Nicholas Moran in San Francisco next month.

BOXING BRIEFS

FITZIE FITZPATRICK, Irish kayo artist, scored his fourth straight knockout in first rounds, last Wednesday night at Wilmington Bowl, when he chilled John Donnelly, 182, in 2m. 57s. of the opening round of their scheduled 10-round bout. Fitzie scaled 172 pounds.

OAKLAND—Jack Chase, 163, of Walsenburg, Colo., and Los Angeles, and Aaron (Little Tiger) Wade, 164, San Francisco, battled 10-rounds to a draw last Wednesday night.

CLEO SHANS, 133, Los Angeles, scored a TKO in the third round of a scheduled 8-round feature bout in Brooklyn, N. Y., over Paul Freschette, 132, last Thursday night.

DRUMS ARE being beat for a match here between Charley Burley, California State Middleweight champion, and Lloyd Marshall, topranking light-heavyweight boxer.

ELMER RAY, heavyweight battler, will be on the shelf for another month because of his injured elbow.

A SELL-OUT is expected at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium August 21st when Willie Joyce and Henry Armstrong tangle.

AUGA CALIENTE, Mexico.—Surprises featured the day at beautiful Caliente last Sunday, world's greatest Sunday race course. They were thrilled at the blanket finishes in most races. More wake up horses greeted the judges last Sunday than at any other time this season. It was outsiders day, although there were plenty of overlays. For instance the horse that eighteen claims were in for two weeks ago was one of the biggest overlays of the day. Kantiaka who won his last out by three lengths came right back to beat nearly the same field and paid the big price of $14, while Swell Chance also winner of his last race, paid $17. Catstar, another winner of his last start, paid the overlay price of $20.60. The shortest price of the day was Financial in the third race, paying $7. The daily-double was also a big payoff when Gatita and the favorite, Financial, was the winning combination, paying $222 while the Quiniela rewarded it's backer the sum of $51.60 when Catstar-Flying Aggie finished one-two. A number of the Negro sport fans from Los Angeles witnessed the fourteen-race program. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson, manager of the famous Morris Hotel in L. A., the noted Dr. Bailey, Norman Huston of the Golden State Insurance Co., Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Horey, owners of several gasoline service stations, also Al Ramsey was host to twelve of Hollywood's Negro movie stars. All had high praise for Caliente and the sport of kings. Generalissimo Eddie Neals announced that the Mid-summer Derby for three year olds at the one mile and one-sixteenth will be run Sunday, August 27th. This promises to be one of the best races of the year and also the crowning of the three-year old champion. Our director of personnel, Armando E. Verdugo with his soft voice and wonderful personality is tops with the swipes, jockeys, owner and big shots from Hollywood. He greets them all with that pleasant smile that he is noted for. Little Leo Haskell, known as Leo the Lion is about the busiest person in the secretary's office and has lots of responsibility on him but does his tasks well. Boss of books and mutuels, E. L. Caress gave his appreciative Negro valet and wife's maid a two weeks outing at Caliente.

Ruben Verdugo, the handsome brother of Armando, has one of the most efficient auditors staff that could be found any place. "Curley" Robinson, the Don Domo of the money room and other things can do more things at one time then any two persons. Mr. Leix, the cashier of the out tickets never makes a mistake in paying off. Bob Lavaga in charge of the programs and gates also has a good staff of employes. Caliente can also boast of an efficent police force under the direction of the Chief of Police Chato Romeras no bunko men come near the track, also to protect the public Caliente has the noted slueths Dick Chadwick, Jack Dennison and Lt. Lefty James of Los Angeles.

We also have such sophisticated persons as Jack Malley, Eli Curtch, H. E. Nelson, Andy Neals, Johnnie (Clark Gable's smile) Neals, Lee (Greentie) Cochran, English Jack, Joe Morris and others. Wesley C. Neary, the famed starter is still sending the horses away to perfect starts while Caliente is now at it's tops in racing. Judge Joe Walter, racing secretary and acting president Stewart is sure giving the public more for their money than any other track in the country. Mr. L. Glasher and Dave Callen, connoissuer of food and drinks see that Caliente has the best. Well folks I t hink that I have given you a good idea what to expect when guests of Caliente race track. So this is so long.—George.

HEAVY HITTER

Camp Lejenne, N. C.—A former professional baseball star, Marine Private First Class Benjamin F. Smith, who wife lives at 4309 St. Louis Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., still kepps his big bat booming as he leads the offensive for the Montford Point Marines, rated here as one of the best Negro nines in the country.

Hollywood Cards Olivera, Castillo

Tony Olivera, bantamweight title contender, who in the latest "Ring" magazine rankings is rated as the No. 1 threat for the crown, will meet Luis Castillo of Mexico City in the feature 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night.

Olivera and Castillo first clashed at the Legion Stadium last February with the nod going to Tony in what was considered an upset at that time. Castillo had looked like hot copy in his first two local fights, but Olivera knew too much about infighting for Luis, and the San Francisco boy won going away.

Since then Castillo has had three more local fights—all at Hollywood — flattening Florian Bibeau in one round, losing to Benny Goldberg, the terrible clutch and hold artist, and winning from Pee Wee Lewis.

On the strength of his last win over Castillo and other local fights, Olivera will be the favorite over the little Mexican this time.

Olivera's only losses this year were to Ortiz in a title fight, to Carlos Chavez in a bout where Carlos had all the best of the weights, and to Bolanos. The last came under the head of robbery.

Negro Marine Nine Wins League Title

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C.—Montford Point's Negro Marine baseball team has ended its Camp League play with a brilliant record of 22 victories against a single loss, capturing the loop championship without the necessity of a playoff.

In the first half of the schedule, they took to phonors with 11 wins and no defeats, while in the second go-around they also won 11 but dropped one, again finishing in the top spot.

Lieutenant John W. O'Donoghue of 33 Robbins road, Arlington, Mass., a former baseball, basketball and hockey player at Boston college, managed the 1944 league champions.

Leading the team on the field was Sergeant Dan Bankhead of 310 East 35th street, Los Angeles, Calif., fastball pitching ace who won 12 loop contests, lost one and saved several others in relief roles. The No. 1 hurler on the base, he boasts past experience with the Birmingham, Ala., Black Barons, Puerto Rican All-Stars and other high-ranking Negro professional organizations. He fashioned one no-hitter and hurled several games during which the opposition was held to less than three safeties.

Marine Private Has A Good Ring Future

SOMEWHERE In The SOUTH PACIFIC — (Delayed) — Marine Private First Class James E. Simmons, a fugitive from the prize ring, recently took another fling at the beak-busting profession, and, to the amazement of all concerned, is rated a real comer as a result.

This change for the better has him at a loss. It's all like a dream, he confesses. According to his story, he was known to fight fans in New York City as the guy who usually forgot to duck. Trying hard to discover the root of his success, he said, "Maybe boot camp had something to do with it. It was duck or else around the drill field."

Whatever it was, the clever light-weight is thanking his lucky stars. His latest streak shows 16 wins in as many starts. Currently one of the most promising fighters in the Southwest Pacific, Simmons has been dubbed the "Cinderella Man" by his buddies.

Jimmie McDaniel May Compete in Tennis Nationals

ORANGEBURG, S.C.—A group of tennis players representing the South Carolina Tennis Association left last week from Orangeburg for exhibition matches at Lynchburg, Va., and for the national championships of the American Tennis Association, which will be held in New York City, August 14-20 inclusive.

Players from 150 clubs in the United States will compete for honors in 11 scheduled events for the National Championships.

Dr. Reginald Weir, New York City, five times national men's singles champion, and Jimmie McDaniel, Los Angeles, holder of men's singles championship 1939, '40 and '41, and exhibitionist against Don Budge in New York City, 1940, may be competitors this year.

SLUGGER WHITE may meet Willie Joyce at the Olympic next month. It will be the rubber match and should do very well financially.

Oglesby Knocks Hudson Down Twice to Win Split Decision

Last Friday night spelled hard-luck for Eddie Hudson. After putting up a great fight and apparently breezing home to the nod on points he was knocked down in the ninth and tenth heats by Matt Oglesby and lost a split decision. This was the first of a double ten-rounder at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night. In the other ten Nick Moran, 141½, reversed a him by Joe Barnum, 139, by nodding Joe, who took a brief trip to the canvas from a right to the chin in the ninth heat.

Hudson had gained plenty points by raining a steady stream of blows to Oglesby's head and body going into the ninth round. In that session Oglesby shot a terrific right hand to Eddie's chin and down went Hudson for a count of nine. In the tenth just as the round and fight ended another stiff right put Hudson down again.

Oglesby weighed 139½ to Hudson's 134.

In the prelims Junior Washington, 159½, beat Willie Collins, 156, Johnny Gonzales, 131, nodded Danny Veldez, 131½, and Ralph Lee, 154½, scored a TKO over Bob Ferris, 149.

Regains Lead in Baseball League

CAMP LEE, Va. — Taking a pair of wins last week, the "Fighting Ninth" Regiment regained the lead in the ASFTC Baseball League race.

The seventh jumped into second place, losing the one game, and the MP's dropped into third place after losing two straight clashes—one to the Ninth Regt., the other to the QM School.

Playground Notes

By Mrs. Cilye M. Gross

The playground directors, Mrs. Carl Gross and Mrs. Eloise Jackson of Central Playground, Mr. S. McCallister and Mrs. Willa Ashford of Compton Playground and Mr. Frank Reckler, Mrs. Ethel Peyton and Mr. Bush Mansan of Ross-Snyder Playground, are getting very good results from the carefully planned summer programs which are highligted by many special events.

CENTRAL AREA

The Central Area participants are presenting some outstanding special events to climax their summer programs. Some of these events are the Pet Show on August 17th, a dance sponsored by the deputy police on August 19, a summer matinee at South Park on August 25, and a water pegeant the 'Feast of Aquaries," under the supervision of Curley Monroe, the aquatic director, on August 30.

COMPTON NOTES

At Compton Playground, the public is invited to an all day picnic and a handicraft exhibit on Sept. 1. The girls are urged to send in their applications not later than Aug. 26 for the Girl's Camp at Griffith Park from Sept. 2 to noon Sept. 4. The fee is only $3.00

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Let us remember the Pacific Tennis Tournament, Sept. 2, 3, and 4 at Ross Snyder Playground. Contact Messrs. Thornton, Edgar, Farley or Bush Manson for further informtion. Glen Wright, Ebbins Lee and Cerdon Lowe, tennis matchers in group number one, (under sixteen), will be seen in action at Manchester soon. If they are victorious, they will compete in the city finals. The Junior Division of the hard ball league under the supervision of Lee Young has won out of three games. They won a thriller from the Wolves Aug. 12, the score being 8 to 1. Be sure to see the game Saturday, August 19—Ross Snyder vs. Slauson.

NEW MEMBER

Mrs. Lilye M. Green, the new staff member, divides her time with Central Playground, 1357 E. 22nd St., Compton Playground at 5306 Compton Ave., and Ross Snyder Playground, 1501 E. 41st street.

These are your parks so the directors and your children would love to see more youth and adult participants on the programs.

Boy Scouts Get Physical Exams in Summer Camp Prep

In preparation for trips to summer camp, approximately 250 Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts from the McKinley district received free physical examination at the East Area Clinic, 903 E. 28th street, early last week.

Scouts from 13 different troops in the area extending from Olympic boulevard to Slauson and from Main street to the Los Angeles river were examined through the cooperation of Roger Willis, district scout executive, and representatives of the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Giving the examinations were Dr. Claudius Ballard, Dr. Curtis G. Carr, Dr. Wilburn Williams, Dr. Ruth Temple, Miss Theresa Dixon, R.N., Miss Georgia Boswell, R.N., and Miss Celestine Shambry.

The clinic is sponsored by the East Area Health program of the Tuberculosis Association and supported by the annual sale of Christmas Seals.

BASEBALL NOTES

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Although the Grays moved from third to first place through seven straight victories in two weeks, that same pace must be continued if the Champs expect to win the second half. The first bracket argument between Newark and the Grays should be settled by now and the Homesteaders move over to Philadelphia on August 19th, then return to Newark for a Sunday bargain on August 20th.

Those same rough riding Newark youngsters provide opposition for the Grays in Pittsburgh on Sunday, August 27th. But sandwiched in between these two dates will be the appearance of Brooklyn Bushwicks at Griffith Stadium on Thursday, August 24th.

BALL PLAYER

Marine Corporal Manuel Steward, whose wife lives at 242 Pine Street, Elizabeth, N. J., is one of the sparkplugs of the Negro baseball team at the Marine Training Base, Montford Point, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles will receive bids for furnishing all labor and material for the following work:

Kind of Work and Name of School—Re-roofing of the main frame building at the Wadsworth Avenue School.

Date of Bid Opening—September 5, 1944.

Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the Architectural Section of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 So. San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the office of said Architectural Section, upon the posting of a guaranteed deposit, or deposits, of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars for each set, which deposits will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contracts which will be awarded the successful bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION:

Foremen — All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than $1.00 per day more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices — May be employed in conformity with section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

CLASSIFICATION:	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$1.35
LABORERS
General or construction, including all laborers not herein separately classified, on all types of construction	.875
ROOFERS
Roofer	1.31-¼
SHEET METAL WORKERS
Sheet Metal Worker	1.50

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

The overtime rule establishing the rates of wages for overtime and holiday work shall be in accordance with the following:

Where a single shift is worked, eight hours of continuous employment, except for lunch periods, shall constitute a day's work beginning on Monday and through Friday of each week. Where work is required in excess of eight hours in any one day or during the interval from 5:00 P. M. Friday and 7:00 A. M. Monday, or on holidays, such work shall be paid for at 1-½ times the basic rate of wages.

The rates of wages including overtime and holiday rates above specified are subject to the effect, if applicable thereto, of executive orders of the President of the United States, and to any modification thereof and to any and all lawful orders of the President or any other authorized Federal officer or agency, in so far as the same may be applicable to this contract. In case of any inconsistency, the rates fixed by any such applicable Federal Order, whether higher or lower, shall govern.

Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him, to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on forms to be obtained at said Architectural Section of the Board of Education; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond (issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Purchasing Agent of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, on or before 2:00 P. M. on the dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and/or waive any informality on a bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles. Dated at Los Angeles, California: August 16, 1944.

TREASURES

Man is a limited, fallible being and he often has need to seek wisdom, counsel, and guidance from a higher source. Life abounds with trials and tribulations, therefore it is beneficial to hace someone to whom he can turn for guidance in times of trouble.

What a solace and relief it is when in time of sorrow and adversity, we have the sympathy and companionship of a true friend. One who understands and is sincere in their actions, feelings and advice. Someone who will not let us down, but suport us as a Rock of Gibraltar.

Value that friendship, and keep it sacred, for it is worth more than gold, and, gives us the courage to seek future contentment and happiness, Why not write Prof. Herman today about your perplexing problems?

E.K.—Dear Prof. Herman: My blessings started to pour in before I received the Prayer and Meditation Combination, so I know you have been praying for me and helping me. I also followed your advice and moved to another location, there is no confusion here and it is nice and quiet. Thanks again for oyur marvelous help.

B.F.—Will I marry at an early age, if so when? Will I ever see my brother again? Where is he?

Ans. I am very sorry but only one suestion is answered in the column. I shall be more than glad to advise you if you write in for a private reply.

A.M.—Will Ie get the money I am expecting?

Ans. It appears to me that you will be successful soon. And your financial conditions will also improve. Look forward to this change for it is what you have been expecting for the past few months.

F.M.D.—Will I marry this man I love?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that you are in love with a Sailor and are wondering if marriage will be the result of this courtship. I do vision marriage for you in the future, and there is a possibility that it will be this young man you love.

Miss D.O.H.—Will my future life be a success?

Ans. According to your Lucky stars and Guiding Planet, you are destined to be quite successful. Your Horoscope foretells many things, such as your chief faults, physical danger signals and principal advantages. Why not write for one to help you in the future?

M.M.C.—Dear Sir: I read your column each week and think it is very helpful. Will you please advise me on my problem? Will I be successful in obtaining a job at the war plant?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that you will be able to obtain the job you desire. You have the proper qualifications. All that is needed is some training which they give all employees when hired.

E.S.—Where is Tartaric Acid found?

Ans. Tartaric Acid is a vegetable acid found as the potassium salt in grapes and in other plants and fruits. It is obtained by treating the tartar deposit in wine casks with lime and sulphuric acid. It is used in the manufacture of baking powders, dyeing and printing and photography.

W.B.J.—Should I take the trip?

Ans. According to your Zodiacal Sign, a trip is indicated and I find that you will enjoy yourself. By all means complete your plans for it.

E.V.—Will I ever marry?

Ans. Concentrating upon your question, I find that marriage has only been delayed because you required certain things and principles from your mate. But, since you realize no one is perfect and every one has their good and bad points, you may find someone that will make you a good husband and bring true love and companionship into your life.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By JOHN M. LEE

Congress for a long time, and he has stood for labor consistently so he's the guy. Of course, the last that Hal Styles might surprise the boys and win again, has nothing to do with it. Also a lot of other things which I won't mention have nothing to do with it.

The folks in the 15th will just have to struggle harder and elect Styles without AFL support.

Here's Elmer

There used to be, or maybe there still is, a gag about "Where's Elmer?" I never paid much attention to it until last Friday when I got a telephone call. "I'm Elmer," a voice with a boom said, "and I understand you've been looking for me." I got across to the booming voice that I thought he had made a mistake, and was about to hang up when he said, "I just thought I'd call about goin' up to the Blood Bank on the 26th like you asked. "We snapped to attention and took Elmer's name and address. Who else will go along with us?

HELP FOR CRYING BABY

Nobody likes being kept awake all night long by a crying baby. But if your baby is fretful and restless and cries all the time because his little body is tortured and sore from smarting heat rash or diaper rash, Mexsana can help you help him.

You see Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, serves a double purpose; it relieves baby's misery—due to heat rash, prickly heat, diaper rash, itchy mosquito bites and other minor skin irritations—and thus it makes it possible for him to have restful sleep. For once his tortured skin is comforted—baby will rest quietly—which means the whole family can sleep.

For Use With All the Family

No wonder then for over 40 years millions of mothers have used Mexsana to help prevent and ease the smart and burn of diaper rash. And they find it helpful for all the family too. For Mexsana will soothe chafe on grownups as well as baby's irritated skin. It really forms a clinging coat of protection to guard irritated skin from clothing likely to rub.

Mexsana even helps prevent itching, burning heat rash. Its special base helps absorb moisture on the skin, which is often the cause of heat rash. And Mexsana contains ingredients specialists often use to relieve these discomforts. So always keep Mexsana on hand as a first-aid for all the family. You'll be surprised at how little this remarkably soothing medicated powder costs. Save even more by buying one of the larger sizes. Don't put it off. Get big family package of Mexsana.

A FAIR QUESTION

HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

Fannie Williams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower

Fannie Williams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower has been on the market for years. It is a wonderful preparation. It stops harsh and brittle hair from breaking and falling. It corrects itching scalp, ring worms, tetter and eczema, and keeps your scalp in a very healthy condition. It is not a gummy or stick grower. It leaves the hair natural and soft and the hair grows rapidly.
You can get the grower at the following places:
Dorothy's Beauty Salon, 1821 Imperial Highway, Watts.
Ethical Drug Store, 1400 West Jefferson Boulevard.
Mrs. Fannie Williams, 1749 S. New Hampshire.
Mrs. Corrine Grayson, 1247 E. 53rd St.

BAY REGION NEWS

By D. G. Gibson

BERKELEY. — After several months over sea in the combat area, Cpl. James Horton spent his three week furlough with his wife, Mrs. Clayton Mitchell Horton, in Garrison st. He came directly from Italy.

Cpl. Horton left Aug. 8 for encampment in Texas, from which place he will be recruited for further service in the armed forces.

Seventy-two vivacious junior hostesses from the South West Berkeley Hospitality center attended the promenade at historic Treasure Island Naval Base, Saturday, the 5th, which proved to be tops in social affairs for servicemen.

Chaperons for the evening were Mrs. Lillian Williams, chairman of senior hostess committee, Mrs. Leona Burgess, Miss Carolyn Carrington and Mrs. Lucille Lane.

Junior hostesses from the Linden branch YWCA under the chaporonage of Mrs. Viola Romine, Oakland, were also in attendance at the gorgeous affair.

As the junior hostesses filed in the hugs recreation center they were greeted by wives of officers, receptionists for the evening, who presented them with corsages of garenias.

The dining tables were centered with giant red and white gladioli and dahlies, while some of the smaller service tables were centered with wide bowls of floating red and white tuberous begonias, all of which combined with the glamor of the moon lit water of the San Francisco Bay made for a perfect evening.

Miss Harriet Smith is chairman of junior hostesses. Mesdames Irene and Marion LeBon are co-chairman of the house committee. Mrs. Lela Williams is director of the center.

Mr. and Mrs. Odessa Cooper, Oaklanders, were hosts at a lovely dinner party, Aug. 8, at their home, 976 60th Street, honoring Mrs. Lovertha Stelb, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Moses, nee Amelia Hunter, all of New Orleans where Mrs. Moses is a teacher in the Slyvania F. Williams school. The genial guests returning to the Cresent City.

Mrs. S. L. Patton, 1240 51st Ave. Oakland, hostessed a beautifully appointed bridge luncheon Saturday, the 29, feting Miss Alfred Mason of San Francisco. Those who greeted the honoree were Mesdames Mercedes Martin, Beatrice Pankey, Nellie Dickerson, Who won first prize, Lyda Offord, Hazel Lewis Cora Brownless. Miss Mason who won second prize was also awarded a lovely guest prize.

The luxuriously appointed home of Mrs. Marguerite Moore in Pacific St., San Francisco, wa sthe setting for an elaborate bridge party, Aug. 3 when she entertained in honor of Mrs. Texana Moss of San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. Ina Mann of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Marjorie Bailey of Los Angeles, all employees of the public school systems in their respective home cities.

Preceeding the luncheon, the luncheon, the honored guests and the East Bay contigent of guests, were entertained at a cocktail party of which Mrs. Natalie Armalin also of San Francisco was hostess at her home in Laguna Street.

At bridge luncheon, hostessed by Mrs. Ella Pitts at her lovely home on Russell Street, Aug. 6, of this city Mrs. Moss and Mrs. Baily were further honored. Here Mrs. Stella Jean Higgins, also teacher of San Antonio, Texas, co-shared the honors of the fete. Mrs. Higgins is vacationing with her husband, San Francisco businessman.

Mesdames Moss and Higgins were also further honored Aug. 10, when Mrs. Lottie Taylor, San Franciscoan, in Washington St., hostessed a cocktail party Aug. 10. Others peresnt were: Mesdames Margaret Moore, Mable Foster, Ella Pitts, Della Holman.

Mrs. Pearl Allen of San Antonio, Texas is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Henrietta Ingram of East Oakland. Mrs. Allen, who is the mother of Miss Dorothy Allen who makes her home with Mrs. Ingram, is also the sister of Walter Pitts, Sr. Mrs. Louella Green and W. Pitts is in Portland, Ore., where she is sharing her visit with him while on the West Coast. Mrs. Allen is the incentive for various social affairs.

Climaxing a gay round of social functions honoring Mrs. Ina Mann of Houston, Texas, her sister Mrs. Minnie Cubre, with whom Mrs. Mann has been vacationing in Ashby Ave., was further honored at a smart dancing party at the University of California "Y" cottage, this city, Aug. 7, when a large number of guests tripped the light fantastic to the strains of David Elmore's music.

Mrs. Mann was fetching in a beige gown, decollete, with rhinesone shoulder straps. She returned to her home city, Aug. 10, to resume her school marm duties.

Feting her charming house guests who are her cousins, Mrs. Lena D. Reeves of New Orleans, Mrs. Mary DeLuc, both of New Orleans, and Miss Lena Lowe, teacher of New Orleans who is the house guest of her nephew and niece-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Thompson on 36th St., the popular Mrs. Ponce Barrios was hostess at on elaborately planned bridge luncheon which assembled a large number of guests at her home on 889 Apgar St., Oakland. The honorees are being extensively entertained by the socially prominent of Metropolitan, Oakland and San Francisco.

Mrs. Lottie Evans in Carrison St., was hostess at a lovely luncheon Tuesday the 9th, which brought together Mrs. Anna Edwards, Mrs. Duke Whoting, Mrs. Emma Hunt, Mrs. Katherine Hunt Young and her small son.

COURT ST. USO

The 4908th Air Base Unit at the San Bernardino Army Air Base gave a picnic sponsored by the Court St. USO at Murray's Dude Ranch at Victorville on Sunday, August 6th. A swell time was had by everyone although it was a sweltering hot day.

The picnic began wtih outdoor chapel services conducted around the edge of the swimming pool. This service was conducted by Captain Waldron, Post Chaplain. A portable organ, played by the Chaplain, furnished the music for the occasion.

Many of the servicemen and girls enjoyed swimming in the cool, blue water of the pool. A few of the swimmers noticed, were: The Saville twins, Doris Salsman, Hattie Culver, Sgt. Tommie Lee, Sgt. Beverly, Sgt. Grace, Mrs. Alice Jones and many others.

Sgt. Felton was again in charge of the 'Chow." The food as usual was very good and plenty of it.

Sgt. Beverly is the Top Sergeant of the 4908th and he does everything he can to see that his men and their guests enjoy themselves at all affairs given by his outfit.

Some of the young ladies flitting about the grounds of the ranch in their colorful play clothes and enjoying the activities of the day were Bobbie Pious, Ora Lee Grant, Dorothy De Beal, Thelma Cameron, and many others. Those spotted taking pictures on horses the "Dude Ranch Way" were: Wilhelmenia and Melvina Nero, Jessie Smith, Byrdell Nicklaus and Georgetta Towler.

Everybody is looking forward to the 4908th putting on another gala affair.

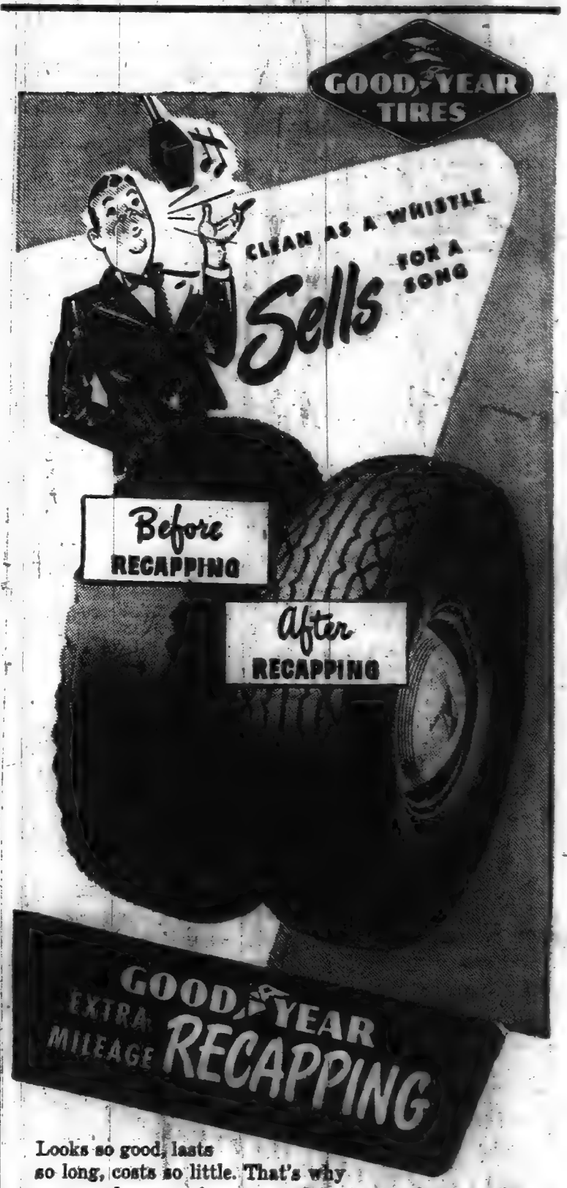
Pvt. Russell Greenfield, son of Mrs. Eva Greenfield, 1460 Duarte Road, Duarte, California.

Pvt. Louis Lloyd Pecot, son of Mrs. Clelie Pecot, 210 East 115th Street, Los Angeles, California.

African Beat Japs In Jungle Fighting



KANDY, Ceylon.—Senior British officers who have followed the course of the Burma campaign say that the men of the West African division, that has taken part in the fighting, have proved that the African infantryman is superior to the Japanese in every aspect of jungle warfare.

"The African infantryman," said one of the officers of the division, the 81st West African, "has learned how to outwit the Jap. Always his superior in bushcraft, he has learned how to beat his enemy in cunning. Recent official reports tell of many successful patrols and ambushes in which the African has fooled and killed his enemy."

Sergeant Washington Honored for Service

HEADQUARTERS, EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS. — Staff Sergeant Leland Washington, 28, 1839 East 15th street, Los Angeles, Calif., Acting First Sergeant of a Negro Engineer Company in an invasion base section in England, has the responsibility of making a disposition of his men to fill the needs of a marshalling camp where troops enroute for action in France are serviced.

A former employe of the Little Harlem Night Club before his induction in 1942, Sergeant Washington was recently awarded the Good Conduct Medal for his outstanding loyalty and excellent conduct.

THE ROUND ROBIN COOPERATIVE CIVIL LEAGUE, INC. SPONSORS the following program for its membership:

1. To the Class of Membership who desire to devote their live to self-help, thrift, character building and education, we offer three specific group divisions:

(a) 7x7x3 THRIFT CLUB is designed to create in a member the desire to be thrifty and the savings are such that the persons who so associate themselves together in this program of conservative thrift cannot possibly be better trained to understand the actual lessons of applied science of economics in creative confidence in business methods and business procedure to sustain a modern economic institution.

1. The member saves: A penny for breakfast, one for lunch and one for dinner for seven days—or one week—he then continues this procedure for seven times seven days or weeks until his savings equals $10.29. Then and only then his club members will make him a loan for constructive or provident purposes, to be repaid by him to the club in installment payment at reasonable rates of interest.

His joining fee and his dues belong to the club to create a guarantee fund for his club and increase his club's credit rating and increase the value of his own membership in the club. His Club Membership is entitled to purchase $50,000.00 worth of securities of the Round Robin Investment Company at $5.00 per share.

(b) SCHOOL FOR BETTER LIVING is designed to obtain the best talent there is in the community, among the women for the benefit of women and girls of all ages, based upon the most helpful and constructive program the women can make for themselves, under the complete supervision and control of nine women as the executive committee of the division for women and girls.

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE SCHOOL FOR BETTER LIVING is entitled to purchase $50,000.00 worth of the securities of the ROUND ROBIN INVESTMENT COMPANY—at $5.00 per share.

THE DIVISION FOR MEN AND BOYS IS COMPOSED of the same type of men as that of the women.
Nine women and nine men comprise the Executive Committee of the School.

Three women and three men shall constitute a Bureau of Marital Relations, seeking to maintain the American home on a higher plane.

Three women and three men shall constitute a Bureau of Child Adolescence, for the girls and boys between the ages of 14 and 20 years—creating such constructive programs as will best benefit that class of the membership and build character, promote thrift and be of high educational value to the members in providing the tools of citizenship when they become of age.

Three women and three men, shall constitute a Bureau of Child Guidance for the girls and boys between the ages of 6 to 14 years of age—using their best talents and doing the best things known to create in the minds and hearts of these children the desire to be honest, to long to become a citizen and how to apply the tools of citizenship to obtain an education, to be a successful business man or woman, and the honor to be classed as a Christian boy or girl and be thrifty and know its value.

(c) BIG 400 THRIFT CLUB—designed to foster and promote cooperative self-supporting big business. ITS MEMBERSHIP is composed of the quality of men and women who possess business ability, training and character. They so conduct themselves and their business relations that it is an honor to be a member of the club of such self-respecting citizens and have a common bond of association with the life of the community wherever the activities of the club are maintained, the citizens find economics applied, education maintained and applied in every device which is constructive and beneficial and provident. Its membership is entitled to purchase $50,000.00 worth of the securities of the Round Robin Investment Company at $5.00 per share.

THE ROUND ROBIN INVESTMENT COMPANY OFFERS to each of these membership divisions three things: Thrift with confidence, home ownership, investments. To the membership of the 7x7x3 Thrift Club $50,000.00 worth of its securities at $5.00 per share, the money to be deposited in ESCROW 100%.

TO THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE SCHOOL FOR BETTER LIVING, $50,000.00 worth of its securities at $5.00 per share, the money to be deposited in Escrow 100%.

TO THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BIG 400 THRIFT CLUB—$50,000.00 worth of its securities at $5.00 per share, the money to be deposited in Escrow 100%.
Life membership in each of the constructive thrift plans is as follows:

EACH LIFE MEMBER MUST PURCHASE at least 5 shares of the stock offered by the Round Robin Investment Company for the purpose of increasing the value of his club membership, in addition to the other benefits which the club provides for its members.

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BIG 400 THRIFT CLUB MUST PURCHASE 20 SHARES OF THE STOCK OF THE ROUND ROBIN INVESTMENT COMPANY, the qualifying share for ALL members and officers of the Board of Directors of said company.

ALL APPRAISERS, all directors, all executive officers and administrators are selected from the Life Membership of the Big 400 Thrift Club. Its membership is limited to 400 members and they may purchase 30,000 shares of the stock of the Round Robin Investment Company, for $150,000.00 to be able to make money in addition to what the Benefits the membership of the Big 400 Thrift Club provides for its members.

THE COMBINED MEMBERSHIP OF THE ROUND ROBIN COOPERATIVE CIVIC LEAGUE, INC., and the shareholders of the Round Robin Investment Company, have established an institutional church to create, promote and foster and maintain the highest type of spiritual and inspirational service in community life, home life and sponsoring a program for better living on a higher plane of civilization.

THIS BOND OF FRIENDSHIP WILL CREATE THE NECESSARY FOUNDATION FOR A FEDERAL CREDIT UNION FOR THE MEMBERSHIP AND SHAREHOLDER'S OF THE TWO CORPORATIONS

MANSLAUGHTER IN RIVERSIDE

Guard Held for Killing Negro at Mira Loma Depot

RIVERSIDE, Cal.—The cold-blooded shooting of Stanley Y. Beverley, Jr., a civilian employe of the Mira Loma Quartermaster Depot by William Franklin Randolph (white), a civilian guard at the Depot was termed a homicide "without suffieient provocation," by a Coroner's Jury composed of prominent Riverside business men, which heard the case on Monday of this week. Folowing the verdict of the Coroner's Jury, Randolph was arrainged before Federal Commissioner A. D. McGuire. He waved a hearing, and was ordered held for action by the United States District Court in Los Angeles. Bail of $10,000 was set on a charge of manslaughter, and after investigation by the FBI, Randolph was removed to the County jail.

The entire town of Riverside where Beverley had been born and was highly respected, showed marked interest in the Coroner's hearing which resulted from the shooting of Beverley last Thursday morning after he had punched in for work at the timekeepers' office.

DEAR AUNT CHARLOTTA:

Tonight we have heard that our army is battling on the outskirts of Paris. Today Marshal Stalin announced that the Red Army has rested for a week, that it will rest again only in Berlin.

What a big moment in history this is!

What a vast and relentless noose is tearing at the throat of Fascism!

I know that I am playing only the tiniest, most infinitesimal part in all this. Yet, I am a part of it. I am a part of the meshing of the wheels of our time, the heaving and sweating of our age; me, and the guys like me, grumbling about chow, beefing for passes to town, going A. W. O. L., ambling all night and cussing the Sergeants—but also working and fighting, we, all of us, are the muscle and the heartbeat of history; we are filling Europe with the graves of slave-masters who wanted the world for a plantation; we, not the Nazis, have become the wave of the future that nothing can stop.

All of us aren't fighters at the front, but we are just as surely a part of victory as the P-38 or the carbine rifle.

Tomorrow Paris may be free. This week the Red Army may swarm over the borders of Germany.

Remember when the Spanish Republic died while the "freedom loving" nations looked the other way?

Remember, long ago, the night you wanted to cry by the side of your radio when Haille Selassie confessed that the straw Caesar in Rome had finally defeated his prostrate people?

Remember the years when we sent our best wishes to China and our scrap iron to Japan?

Remember when decen-

The foes of the Murray-Kilgore bill, which is threatened with destruction within the next week unless an overwhelming mass public expression is made to the members of the House and the administration are pressing the advantage they won in having the sterile George Bill passed in the Senate.

Only an unceasing barrage of letters and telegrams will awaken our representatives and let them know that the American people demand an adequate guarantee of security during the post-war conversion period when there will be a lapse in employment. Write to your Congressman today and ask him to support the Kilgore Bill and to defeat the George Bill.

Gold's Celebrating 25th Anniversary

Once again it's Anniversary Time at Gold's big store at East Washington and Central avenue, but this year this time-honored event takes on added significance and importance. Despite shortages and restrictions imposed by wartime conditions, Mr. Morris Gold, president of Gold's, was determined to make this, their 25th anniversary an event that will be long remembered. As a matter of fact, preparations were made well over two years ago, a fact that will be readily appreciated by everyone who visits the store this week. California Eagle readers, we are sure, can well appreciate the fact that a silver anniversary is quite an event in the life of a business house just as it is in the life of an individual and for this reason, Gold's is making an all-out effort to justify the importance of this event.

Right from the very beginning Mr. Gold realized his responsi-

NAACP Argues Vote Registration Case

Monday evening the NAACP Citizens Emergency Committee held an important meeting at the 28th Street YMCA, at 8 p. m.

On the agenda was a discussion of a conference on post-war problems and an Educational campaign against, "rocking the boat" pending Los Angeles Railway's employment of Negro platform men.

Taxpayers Urged to Assemble Again Friday at Eagle Office

The call of the California Eagle to the property owners and taxpayers of the Eastern Section of Los Angeles to attend a meeting to protest the action of the Hitler forces in our city who seek to drive Negroes out of their homes, was enthusiastically answered last Friday evening.

Representatives of labor unions and of welfare organizations met in the front room of the Eagle building, and discussed means of combatting these forces headed up in the Property Owners Protective Association, with Carlton Dye as chairman of the organization. It was decided to appeal to the reason of these "property owners," and also to stand on the rights of American citizens to own their own homes and not to be forced out of them.

"I own a home in this section," said several men. "I'm not going to move out of it."

The metting was called by Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle. Mrs. Bass presided as chairman, and spoke of the need of firmness yet reasonableness in dealing with the situation. A committee was elected by those present, headed by Mrs. Faye Allen, to call upon the Property Owners Protective Association and appeal to their sense of fairness to desist from persecuting Negro property owners in the section extending from Slauson to Manchester Avenue and from Figueroa to Central Avenue.

LYNCHING OF MINISTER TOLD BY SON TO NAACP

NEW ORLEANS, La.—A lynch-killing of a 66-year-old minister last March in Amite county, Miss., because he hired a lawyer to safeguard his title to a 220-acre debt-free farm, has just been revealed in an affidavit sworn to by Eldridge Simmons, son of the murdered man.

Rev. Isaac Simmons was going peacefully about the business of running his farm and had no trouble until it began to be suspected that there was oil on his land. Whites then tried to "muscle in" and take his property away. When they found he had consulted a lawyer they got together a small mob and killed him in the presence of his son, who was later driven from the county.

Eldridge Simmons sent his affidavit to the NAACP in New York which in turn has asked Governor Thomas L. Bailey of Mississippi to investigate. The NAACP also has asked Attorney General Francis Biddle to examine into the possibility that Federal conspiracy statutes have been violated.

In the letter to both the Governor and the U. S. Attorney General, the NAACP pointed out "This case clearly represents a conspiracy on the part of certain individuals (named in the affidavit) to injure, threaten, and intimidate these citizens in the free exercise or enjoyment of rights secured to them by the United States Constitution."

Negro Group Forms to Build Badly Needed Housing Units

Completing plans and specifications of over half a million dollars worth of War Housing Project units, with private Negro capital, was revealed in an interview this week with James R. Chase, prominent West Side Real estate broker. Mr. Chase announced that dedicatory ceremonies for the official ground breaking for the construction of Negor housing units, to meet in a measure the housing needs of this community, is scheduled for this week.

This marks the largest single development in this city to provide adequate housing facilities financed by private Negro capital under the banners of the Federal Housing Administration.

The list of those intrepid Negroes who provided the capital to alleviate, in a measure, the housing situation of Los Angeles is composed of a cross section of our population. They are: H. D. Cook, retired principal, Sumner High school, Kansas City, Mo.; George Beavers, Jr., vice president Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company; Messrs. Dee Hodge, H. D. Ford, Jr., Howard Ford, Roy Spencer, Marshall Reed, Jr., all of the Golden State Insurance company. Pius J. Garcia, gas station owner, Mrs. H. Bradford, school teacher, William H. Pollard, labor leader, G. Stewart, Department store personnel dept., Leo DEMOCRACY IN ACTION—Thomas Allen is shown operating a Philadelphia Transportation Company trolley car in the city where a few short weeks ago thousands of the company's employees walked out in protest against the upgrading of Negro workers to platform men. Allen, whose I. Q. in the examination which earned him the promotion, was 53 out of a possible 60, has experienced no trouble in his job, and he says, "The trolley riders have all accepted me as a friend, just as though I was always a motorman. The policeman shown is one of those who have been assigned to prevent hoodlum demonstrations, none of which have been reported recently. Allen is the first one of eight Negroes who will be assigned to operate trolley cars in Philadelphia.—(Peace photo).

Thousands Pay Last Tribute To Beloved Bishop E. Driver

The funeral of the late Bishop Eddie R. Driver, founder and late pastor of the Saints Home Church of God in Christ, shall never be forgotten by the many thousands of people who thronged the beautiful church, inside and out, to pay their last respects to this great humanitarian who, like Christ, so willingly gave of his life and earthly goods to help the masses, regardless of creed or color. Hundreds of telegrams of condolence and sympathy cards and personal letters were received by his beloved wife and family from friends throughout the land.

BODY LIES IN STATE

The body of Bishop Driver lay in state on Wednesday, August 16, 1944, at the church, for the benefit of his many friends and admirers who could not attend the funeral services on Thursday. The most solemn and impressive services were conducted by the Women's Prayer and Missionary Sunshine Band of the Church of God in Christ. The body was borne to the church founded and loved at 1:20 p.m., by morticians Conner-Johnson, and remained until 1:20 a.m. Thursday morning.

The Women's Prayer and Missionary Sunshine Band was assisted by the undenominational deaconess and stewardess boards throughout the city.

BISHOP EDDIE R. DRIVER

These women all paid their highest respects to this great man of God in this sacred Honor Guard service. More than 1200 names were registered at the door. Men, women and children from all walks of life, in a steady stream, reviewed the remains of our beloved pastor and bishop. White, black, defense workers, crippled, policemen, society folk, little children, old, young, professional and business men—all were there. Bishop Driver loved everybody and did not recognize anyone as his enemy. So as in life—in death—they all were there.

The Women's Prayer and Missionary Sunshine Band, which conducted the service, was organized by Myrtle Muswenden eigtheen years ago. When the late Bishop Driver was going through his most severe test as a leader, this woman, with this organization, has stood by the late Bishop in prayer and love; he often went to them for consolation. They cy and the love of freedom seemed to have died one dark night in an alley somewhere. When the volunteers to Loyalist Spain were laughed at, jeered as a gang of crazyy radicals; and the legion of American flyers with the Chinese were denounced as meddlers, violators of "good business relations" with Japan?

For those who held the flickering candle light of liberty against the Fascist gale when all seemed lost; for those who quietly chose death on the arid plains of Ethiopia, the hill passes of Spain, the drought swept plateau of China, the crags and mountain peaks of Yugoslavia, today is vindication. This minute they died for us so that we might live it.

And tomorrow is something for us to make in the image of the proudest dream we know. Today Paris. Tomorrow, a FREE world!

Could be?

Love,

John.

Dear John,

I am passing your letter on to the readers of my column. It stimulated my hope, not only for the culmination of this war that is causing us so much blood and suffering, but also for the sort of peace we crave for ourselves and all the peoples of the peoples of the world.

We here on the home front are hoping and praying for you daily. We know that you have the courage and strength that it takes to win. So, hurry and clean up the whole sordid mess and come back to us. You know we have a big job here at home to do.

Naturally we have been shot by emotions and disturbed by fears, and in many respects some of us Americans are being terrorized over here by the same Hitler forces that are terrorizing the Jews in Europe. Our job is to break down these forces that tend to destroy Democracy.

Yes, John, there is no doubt in our minds here at home that every effort is daily bent toward victory — complete victory. And we on the home front want to know of our victories here. Of these we are justly proud, for every victory at home paves the ground over which the wheels of Democracy every day grind Fascism into the dust.

To you and all the boys over there go our most earnest prayers, our hardest labor, and our most determined efforts for a quick and lasting victory.

Aunt Charlotta.

FAMILY AND CHURCH EXTENDS GRATITUDE

The family and church are grateful to all those who came and paid such glowing tribute to Bishop Driver in his last hour, and to those who could not be present but sent expressions of sympathy; to Mother Lillian Coffee, national supervisor of Women's Work; Mrs. Adrena Mallory, president of Saints Industrial School, Lexington, Mississippi; Mrs. Charlotta Bass, editor of The California Eagle, and many other national leaders.

The funeral services began at 12:00 noon and continued until 4:30 p.m., during which time many outstanding persons made remarks in tribute to Bishop Driver, and hundreds of telegrams were read.

Sr. Bishop Charles Mason was unable to attend the funeral on account of war restrictions and traveling reservations, but sent a telegram.

The family wishes to thank their many loving friends for their beautiful floral contributions, which numbered one hundred and thirteen massive structures of floral art; and to Bishop Samuel M. Crouch, State Overseer of California, who eulogized the funeral of our beloved Bishop Eddie R. Driver. Mother Annie Driver, Pastor L. M. Driver, Dr. F. Driver, Mr. M. Driver, Elder L. R. Driver, Jr., and their families, the membership of the Saints Home Church, wish to thank each individual who appeared on the program, and for your service and prayer.

The members of the Women's Prayer and Missionary Sunshine Band wish to especially thank Pastors J. C. James, B. Stewart and L. C. Page, of the Church of God in Christ, Rev. H. M. Hi! GOOD LOOKING

That's the way every man feels when he sees a beautiful woman. But what men don't know, and what every beauty wise woman does know, is that her face powder has a lot to do with making her look beautiful. That's why Black and White Face Powder is such a favorite. It comes in 6 harmonising, flattering shades. It's easy to find the one that's right for you. Its soft magic mist texture adds a glowing freshness, feels smooth as silk on your skin. And, though it fluffs on your face, neck and arms lightly, it clings for hours. Face bright lights and sun without fear when you use Black and White Face Powder, because you know how perfectly it softens the glare. Big box only 25c at all toilet counters.

COMMENDED—Sergeant Leonard M. Grimes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Grimes, of 1148 East 43rd place, Los Angeles, was recently commended by Colonel Louis J. Rummaggi, commanding officer, in New Guinea, for his fine work in photographs secured when the "Jack Benny Show" put on a performance. Sgt. Grimes' pictures of the event were declared to be the best of any of the many which the section had seen, according to the commendation.

Sgt. Leonard Grimes Receives Commendation for His Pictures

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Grimes of 1148 East 43rd Place were very proud parents this week when they received notice that their son, Sgt. Leonard Grimes, now stationed in New Guinea, had received special commendation from his commanding officer for pictures which he took of the "Jack Benny Show" over there. The commendation reads as follows:

NBC Airs Marching Songs Of Sergeant

TUSKEGEE ARMY AIR FIELD, Tuskegee, Ala. — It is not unusual that a hobby proves to be both profitable as well as intriguing. Last week, Sgt. Philip Medley of Boston witnessed the results of his five-year-old hobby by having his two victory marching songs broadcast over the NBC network on the third anniversary program of this field. The sturdy "buck" sergeant was doubly honored here when he was also selected as "G.I. of the Week" for his outstanding service.

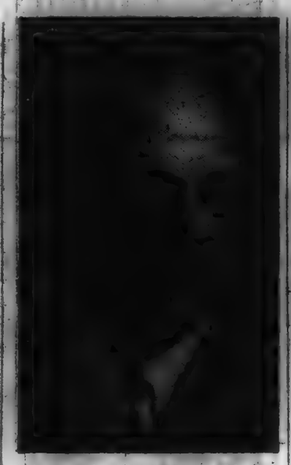
This same Property Owners Protective Association had planned holding a meeting, also last Friday evening, in the South Side Labor Temple, 7315 San Pedro St., but they were excluded by the Carpenters Local 634, A.F.L. who declared, "The Union is opposed to the principles of this organization."

A meeting was then held at 7519 Hoover St. To get an inkling of how thoroughly Nazified the Property Owners Protective Association is, one should attend just one of their meetings. Chairman Dye appealed Friday evening for a fund of $2500.00 to keep Negroes out of "white areas." One member, Mrs. Lucille Haber, told how she had sent all the way to Washington, D. C., to establish information that two women living at 5879 Crocker St. were Negroes. She could not tell for sure by the color of their skin. Three Negro families in Belvedere Gardens were evicted, another member reported. Law suits are being filed against all former owners of property south of Slauson Ave., between Central and Hooper Aves., who have sold to Negroes. Some of the property involved was first sold to Negroes more than fifteeen years ago.

Just this week Brandis Flowers, of 1405 East 58th Drive, called at The Eagle office and told how three women called at his home one night and one woman, in a slow Southern drawl, informed him, "You'd better move, or you'll get into trouble."



Mr. Flowers is married and has a family. His home is located two blocks south of Slauson Ave., between Hooper and Compton. The Flowers' family was the first colored family to move into this section, but now there are four or five others. Mr. Flowers told the "committee" who waited upon him, "This is my home, and I intend to stay."

One can scarcely imagine such conditions existing in free America. Hitler, if he knew of this—and perhaps he does—would surely rejoice. For no matter how thoroughly Fascism is beaten in Europe, it will do no good if it takes even stronger root in America. We admire the attitude of Mr. Flowers, and of all the home-owners in this section. They are the fighters in the front lines. We must uphold them. We must fight with them.

The California Eagle asks again that all property owners, taxpayers, and all who are interested in nipping this nefarious Nazi plot in the bud, to meet again in the Eagle building, 4075 Central Avenue, this Friday evening, August 24, at 7:30 o'clock.

BYRON C. HANNA — Civic leader, above, heads broad nonsectarian citizens committee sponsoring free admission Philharmonic Auditorium mass meeting Monday night, August 28, to help rescue European Jewry from the Nazi bloodbath threatened as the Hitlerites' defeat nears.

In 1941 California's officials drove 88,000,000 miles. Since that time they have reduced their mileage 27 per cent in an effort to conserve cars, tires and gasoline.

Sleepy Lagoon Boy Is Freed

Manuel Delgado, the first of the Sleepy Lagoon boys to be released from prison, spent his first free day holding his wife's hand and stuffing envelopes for the Sleepy Lagoon Defense Committee.

The Sleepy Lagoon trial of 18 months ago, which is now internationally famous, convicted 18 Mexican youths on a conspiracy charge of murder.

Manuel has been paroled to the Teamsters Union and starts work truck driving next week.

Gold's Celebrates

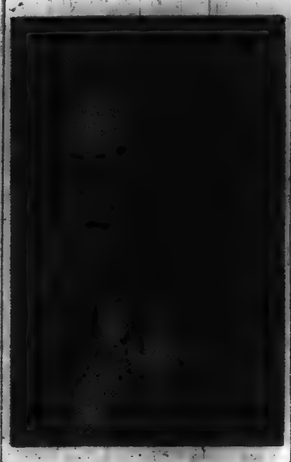
bility in all his dealings with the Public, and this responsibility and enthusiastic desire to be of service is shared by the men and women who comprise the Gold organization. And, right from the very beginning, Mr. Gold has made sound quality merchandise available to all at fair prices. Next to quality and value, Mr. Gold places courtesy as a fundamental and governing principle of this business. Mr. Gold has always insisted upon the integrity of every written and spoken word, and once made, they must be fulfilled to the letter. Thus, Gold's leadership in this community has been well earned and accounts in no small way for the tremendous popularity of the big, friendly store on Central Avenue near Washington Street, where your patronage is sincerely appreciated—in war time and in peace time.

In order to make shopping easier and more pleasant for the residents of this community, Gold's have remodeled their store, introducing what we call a "Post-War" Method of buying furniture as exemplified in Gold's 67 model rooms. Think of it, 67 completely furnished rooms, every piece perfectly coordinated. What's more, each room is tastefully ensembled by experienced interior decorators to show how each piece will look in your own home. These model rooms enable you to achieve an atmosphere of distinction that will be a source of constant pleasure, not only with traditionally fine furniture, but with objects de art, pictures, mirrors, rugs and occasional pieces. One of the purposes of Gold's model room display is to show you, even before you invest in furniture, how you can enjoy the comforts and pleasures of a home furnished in supreme good taste. We are extending an invitation to you to visit our store, spend an hour or so in our model rooms to acquaint yourselves with the service we are now offering to you. We are quite sure it will be a revelation and thrill for you and your family to see the new ideas in furniture buying.



When it comes to fine merchandise, Gold's truly takes its place with the finest stores and specialty shops in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Westwood Village and Hollywood, a fact that is only too well-known by folks who have shopped here, there and everywhere. At Gold's, in a pleasant atmosphere, you may choose the finest in men's, women's and children's wearing apparel. What's more Gold's displays are complete in every detail. It is well known that Gold's carry the very same brands as show in exclusive shops, but at Gold's, lower prices prevail because it has always been our policy to offer our friends the very finest selection of merchandise at the very lowest prices.

Because of customer-approval, Gold's were recently obliged to double the size of their jewelry and diamond department, bringing their customers greater selections and improved services. Gold's are particularly proud of their diamond department where you may shop with complete confidence. Every diamond is guaranteed to be exactly as represented and every effort is made to sell diamonds within the reach of each customer's individual needs and requirements. And when it comes to watches, Gold's can surely please you as they have a comprehensive display of Bulova and Gruen watches, in styles for both men and women. In addition, Gold's have a notable selection of women's diamond and ruby watches as well as the most reliable waterproof watches for men in the Armed Services. Then, too, there are exciting displays of costume jewelry, stone set rings, crosses, lockets and other things for personal adornment.

"This, our silver jubilee is indeed a proud and happy occasion, and one that I have looked forward to. Now that it is here, I want to thank all those who have played such an important part in the development of this store. It is you, our customers, whose faith and confidence in our values have made us the store of all the people. You believed in us, you came to us for your needs and you helped us grow in the comparatively short time of twenty-five years. Instrumental in this progress also, was the fine co-operation of all our employees. I therefore take great pleasure in extending to one and all my sincere invitation to our silver jubilee. Planned and prepared months in advance to make certain that it offers everything desired in quality merchandise, fine selections and low prices . . . this is my way of saying "thank you."

Morris Gold, President.

As a token of appreciation, Gold's are giving away large eleven inch size service plates with 23 karat gold encrusted decoration. These plates are extremely beautiful and are not for sale, but you can get one free of cost with any purchase of ten dollars or over. Purchases may be made in any department. Because of the limited quantities, only one plate will be given to each customer.

TO SERVE LOS ANGELES—A native of Brooklyn, New York, and an honor graduate from Long Island College, 1921, Dr. Thomas Roy Peyton recently opened offices at 1048 South Harvard boulevard for the treatment of rectal diseases. His preparation includes studying at St. Marks and Gordon Hospitals in London, L'Hospital St. Antoine of Paris, and two years in the rectal clinic at Harlem Hospital. Dr. Peyton was instructor in Proctology at Howard University from 1941 to 1944, and he has lectured throughout the east on cancer and rectal diseases. He was Proctologist at the Mercy and Douglas Hospitals at Newark, N. J., has written several articles on rectal diseases for white publications. He is the designer of an instrument for rectal dilation to relieve certain strictures. Dr. Peyton is married and is the father of two children, Roy Jr. and Joyce Isabel.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE

The importance of maintaining Civilian Defense organizations in case of a major disaster, such as that recently at Port Chicago, was emphasized this week by Colonel Augustine S. Janeway, Chief of Civilian protection for the Office of Civilian Defense, following a meeting of Los Angeles City War Council heads of protection services held this week at the City Hall.

Guard Held

Coleman Stowers, the driver of the automobile in which the trio customarily rode to work, Beverley rode through the gates at Mira Loma at a time very close to 7:30 after which time they would have been late. Instead of parking the car in the usual place, they stopped about 20 feet from the time clock, and hurried to punch in. Randolph, the guard, came up to them and remonstrated with them for not arriving earlier.

He singled out Beverley as Stowers drove away to park the car. Not satisfied with Beverley's reaction to his profane ranting, Randolph continued to upbraid him waxing more profane and abusive as the tirade continued. Beverley answered his outbursts and, according to Charles Hurley, the timekeeper, told Randolph he should not use "the Lord's name in vain."

UNPRINTABLE NAME

Hurley testified that Randolph called Beverley an unprintable name and Beverley turned and called him the same in return. Randolph then shot him, the bullet glancing his heart, coming out of his right shoulder. The timekeeper testified he did not hear Beverley make any threats nor did he see him make and threatening moves. At no time did the guard make an attempt to place the slain man under arrest, and at the inquest, he refused to testify.

Stanley Y. Beverley, Sr., father of the slain youth testified that his son was 29 years old, married, and the father of four children. The son lived at 2906 Eleventh Street.

Randolph, according to Captain Hicks, provost marshal at the depot, is an auxiliary soldier by virtue of his employment at Mira Loma, and as such he is subject to Army discipline and Army orders.

5th SON IN ARMY

With the fifth son, James Q. McDonough, entering the armed forces last week, Supervisor Gordon L. McDonough will have five sons in uniforms. Three in the Navy and two in the Army.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

This is summer, winter is far away,
Let us be happy. The sun is shining;
Time for playing the livelong day—
Sure, all clouds have a silver lining.
—David W. Cade.

We begin our column this week with a four-line excerpt from a poem entitled "Green Leaves A-Clatter," by our good friend and fine poet, David W. Cade, of Brooklyn, New York. We have a varied selection of Mr. Cade's poetry, much of which shows great depth of feeling and a keen understanding of human nature. We hope to print it from time to time for your enjoyment.

Since my sister and I will be taking a week-end trip to San Francisco, leaving tomorrow (if all goes according to plan), I hope to run into a budding young poet there who may offer a contribution for next week's column. If not a poet, at least I expect to run into something of interest you'll all be glad to hear about next week. So sorry that my colleague, Bill Smallwood, of the "Delightful Side" had to scoop us on this the other week.

RIVERSIDE MATRON ON TRIP

Mrs. Galena Mackey of 2674 12th street, Riverside, is visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Hamilton, in Chicago, Illinois. She expects to be gone a month. This is the first visit Mrs. Mackey has made to Chicago in more than 30 years, and she is enjoying it immensely. While there, she plans to visit with other relatives and friends in Aurora, Illinois. Mrs. Mackey is very active in the Community Baptist Church of Pasadena, the Western Baptist Convention, and is a leader in the Riverside Fifth War Loan and United Service Organization.

FELLOWSHIP ASSEMBLY "BEEHIVE" OF ACTIVITY

This writer thinks it would be beneficial for many of our readers to drop in at the Fellowship Assembly, Sixth and Gladys avenue, some Sunday, for real inspirational services. The Rev. George Garner, well-known tenor, is the very enterprising minister in charge. If you appreciate beautiful music, you can find it here. On a Sunday afternoon, between 2:45 and 4 o'clock, the lovely voices of soprano Norma Amato, tenor Louis Clements and baritone Jesse Harvey may be heard, accompanied by Meredith Williams at the console of the great organ.

A few Sundays ago, Rev. Anna McMillan, an enthusiastic worker in the Fellowship Assembly, was a co-chairman with Mrs. Mabel V. Gray at a beautiful reception honoring Dr. Alain Locke of Howard University, and Mesdames Anna Lofton, of Nashville, Tenn., Grace Thompkins Barker, Edith Posey Smith, Hazel Renfro Anthony and Bessie Gant of Chicago, Illinois, James P. Brawley of Atlanta, Georgia, and Miss Pauline Young of Wilmington, Delaware.

Serving as hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Rachaelle Pickett, Harriett Waddley, Adele Jose Weaver, Fay Jackson, Janita Miller, Carolyn Bryant, Nella Paullyn Garner, Louise Terriazzo, Bernice Cook Peterson, Irene Silverman, and Misses Edna Hurd, Ramona Still, Norma Amato and Corrine Vaughn.

SOCIAL AND OTHERWISE

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Taylor, on West 29th place, entertained with a cocktail party on Sunday, from 8 until 10 o'clock, honoring their coterie of friends.

A delightful outing for Mrs. Emma Duncan, of West 35th street, was given by her daughter, Mrs. Alena Dent, which included visits to the Palmos, the Coles, the Brawleys, Mother Beall, Mrs. Mabel Thigpen, and Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Hicks, all of Los Angeles.

Dr. Isadore Mitchell, popular dental practitioner, continues his week-end vacation jaunts down Mexico way—planing at will and 'mobiling ad libitum.

Mrs. Jenny Duncan of Dallas, Texas, who has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Duncan, will entrain for her home tomorrow. Mrs. Jenny Duncan is a member of the St. Paul Methodist Church of Dallas, and prominent in the civic and social life of that city.

Mrs. Julia Brown of Chicago, Illinois, arrived Wednesday to be the houseguest of Mrs. Victoria Rowland, of West 29th street. Many social courtesies are being planned for Mrs. Brown during her stay in our fair city.

Another distinguished Chicago visitor is Mrs. Grace Lee Stevens, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Evelyn Joliett of East 47th street. Mrs. Stevens is a national organizer for the National Association of Colored Women, an organization which is doing an outstanding work among our women.

William Henry Triggs, of 637 East 23rd street, is entertaining his mother, Mrs. Mattie Triggs, and Mrs. Ailene Wilson, of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Jonathan Sandford, popular debonair Chicagoan, continues his sojourn in Southern California and is working at M.G.M. studios. He plans to purchase a home here and bring his wife and son Westward. His brother, Arthur, who was recently honorably discharged from the U. S. Army, is also making Los Angeles his home. Both Sandfords are enterprising young men who will make definite progress within our borders.

We hear that Dr. Charles W. Hill, successful realty broker, will open a new neighborhood for you and me. Yes, this time its just beyond Western avenue, off Wilshire boulevard. Dr. Hill does get around, and between us—girls—he's a bachelor.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Sinclair White Amato of 1840 South Ogden drive is improving from her recent collapse, and that Mrs. Rachaelle Pickett of 230 North Occidental boulevard is out again, following a week's confinement at her home.

Miss Roberta Maupin, USO director at Wilmington, California, has returned from her vacation in Des Moines, Iowa. She reports a very pleasant trip.

ASIDE . . . to Leon McKenzie, now confined in the Veterans Hospital at Tuskegee, Alabama. Thanks for your nice letter. Glad you enjoy reading the Eagle. Keep your chin up. We are always pulling for you, pal.

NEWS FLASHES . . .

The Charioteers close a very successful engagement at Club Swank Hollywood nightspot and that fine young singing aggregation, the Delta Rhythm Boys, are scheduled to go into the Clover Club soon.

Earl (Father) Hines has engaged that much talked-about "Black Eagle," Col. Hubert Fauntleroy Julian, as his advance agent and publicity man. With this master salesman in tow, he ought to do all right by himself. The Hines aggregation is already booked for an engagement at the New Louisiana Club in Washington.

Socially prominent Bette Yarbrough and John Alston will be united in wedlock on Sunday afternoon at St. Philip's Episcopal Church. This promises to be one of the most fashionable weddings of the year.

Look for some interesting news in this column next week about our trip to the northern part of the state, and from now until the end of the great push, BUY WAR BONDS and do your bit to make a soldier happy. 'Bye.

Los Angeles Soldier Weds WAC in Arizona

DOUGLAS ARMY AIR FIELD, ARIZ.—Highlighting the social marriage of WAC Pvt. Lena Derricotte of Philadelphia, Pa., and S/Sgt. Hugh T. Bell of Los Angeles, Calif.

Chaplain Herman Dirks officiated at the rites, held in North Chapel. Mrs. Dirks was organist and WAC Pvt. Barziland Gardner, of Milwaukee, Wisc., sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by Major Robert T. Gilchrist, commanding officer of Section F, to which S/Sgt. Bell is assigned. First Sergeant Charles Harris of Section F acted as best man, and T/Sgt. Frank Hightower, S/Sgt. Clarence Hicks, Sgt. William F. Hawkins, and Cpl. Albert R. West served as ushers. Sergeants Harris, Hightower, and Hicks are from Los Angeles, while Sgt. Hawkins and Cpl. West come from Chicago, Ill. and Detroit, Mich. respectively.

Pvt. Dorothy D. Birkhead, Palmyra, N. J., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Pvts. Ella Mae Pamplin of Pittsburg, Pa., Lorene Ford of Kanawha County, W. Va., Doris Hill of Trenton, N. J., and Cpl. Jane Ferguson of State College Institute, W. Va.

BREAKFAST GUESTS

Guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis last Saturday morning at the San Mark Cafe were three visitors from Oakland in the persons of Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, Mrs. Coleman and Mr. William Ross. All expressed themselves as having had a delightful time. Mrs. Lewis is co-owner of the San Mark Hotel and Cafe. Mr. John Spencer is a partner in the business.

Buffet Luncheon

Mrs. A. P. Shaw of Baltimore was the honored guest at a buffet luncheon served in the beautiful home of the Misses Della and Mattie Mae Sharp, 1783 West 35th street, recently.

The guests enjoyed the afternoon reminiscing over the events of the years when the Shaws were members of the Los Angeles community during Bishop Shaw's pastorate of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church, Eighth and San Julian streets.

The flower decorations featured in the living and dining rooms of the spacious home occasioned many comments of appreciation from the guests, among whom were Miss Bessie M. Simon, sister of Mrs. Shaw; Jennie Duncan of Dallas, Texas; Mattie S. Nelson; Fannie Finley; J. E. Jackson; Viola Pollock, Nina Lott; Margaret Wall; Frances Spann; Jettie Harper, Sallie Hunt; Alice Owens; Edith Owens; Linda Miller, and A. B. Bryant.

"Auld Lang Syne" was sung by the guests as an adieu to Mrs. Shaw.

Esther Circle

The luxuriously appointed home of Mrs. Emma Bowles, 1607 E. 49th street, was the setting for a beautiful tea when the Esther Circle entertained in honor of Sister Bertha Triplett, last Sunday.

After a brief program, Mrs. Bowles as hostess, carried the guests into the garden where punch, cake, ice cream, nuts, and candy were served for refreshment.

Mrs. Ethel Stephens of Oakland, and Mrs. Nettie M. Kirkwood, school teacher of Waco, Texas, were the honored guests.

BRIDGE POINTS

By M. L. Milligan

"A clean mind is the dwelling place of the Gods." Explanation of last week's column clears up the preceding weeks' questions also.

I. The rule of 4-5-6- means if you and your partner hold: 40 to 4½ HT., you can turn one odd. 4½ to 5, 2 odd; 5 to 5½, 3 odd; 5½ to 6, 4 odd. Since each bid shows a definite minimum, you add your maximum to it and apply the above rule. Then you will know exactly how many tricks your partnership can take.

II. The pattern of the hand in conformity with safety would call for a takeout double since any of the other consideration may eventually lead to an unfillable contract.

III. This bid requires five or more honor tricks, seldom more than six and never less than 5; distributed 4-3-3-3-; rarely 4-3-3-2. However, if it is used, the doubleton must be RQ or AJ. With week before last No. 3 question apply the rule of 4-5-6 and respond accordingly.

We are well represented at the National Convention being held in New Orleans. One of the nation's best players, Mr. Ellis Veil, was absent. This is regretted by all of us. Sorry, old top, hope you and I will be on a strong team of four next year.

Yarbrough-Alston . . .

Guests Arriving Daily for Fashionable Wedding Sunday

During the preparation for the Bette Yarbrough-John Alston wedding, Sunday, numerous visitors have been arriving from the eastern and northwestern ports of the country. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Yarbrough, Sr., of Twin Falls, Idaho, formerly of Seattle, Washington, who are the parents of Bette Yarbrough, the bride-to-be. Parents of the groom-to-be, John Alston, Jr., have arrived from Detroit, Michigan. They are Mr. and Mrs. William Penn of Detroit. Miss Mimi Deering, cousin of the bride-elect, has come from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to sing for the wedding. Miss Gretchen Johnson of Seattle is expected late this week to attend the wedding and Mrs. Charlotte Hartafield Nichols has also come from Seattle to take part in the wedding.

Numerous other relatives and friends of both families are arriving from Michigan, Idaho and Kansas City to attend the event, which will be Sunday, August 27, at St. Philips Episcopal Church at 5:30 p. m.

Members of the bridal party are from Riverside, Pasadena and Seattle, as well as Los Angeles.

Miss Yarbrough, who is a graduate of U.C.L.A. and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, returned here recently from visits in the East, after completing three semesters of post graduate study at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music in Oberlin, Ohio, where she was awarded a scholarship. She has been honored with several bridal showers in the East, as well as in Los Angeles. Sunday, August 13, she was honored with a lingerie shower by Mrs. Helen Jane Stewart and last Sunday her sorority sisters feted her with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Josephine Spearman.

Mr. Alston, who also attended U.C.L.A. before his induction into the army, and who has been affiliated with the Los Angeles Police Department since he was honorably discharged from the army, has also been entertained by his friends in Detroit and in Los Angeles.

GARDEN FETE

Monday afternoon Mrs. Cornelia Edwards honored several out-of-town guests with a delectable luncheon served in the charming garden of Mrs. Wilma Chapman, who resides at 1666 East 112th street. Mesdames Leon Bruce and Frances Carrington assisted the hostess, and the twenty-five guests bidden to the affair enjoyed games and music amid sylvan surroundings.

Luncheon Party

Mrs. Nanna C. Fuller, lovely matron of Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena, gave a farewell luncheon party for her niece, Mrs. Mary Belle Hayes of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Luncheon guests included Mesdames Maude Rux, Gertrude Wiggins, Eva Williams, Belle Monk, Effie Bass, Willie Lee, Rosa B. Moore, Hortense Frazier, Edella Brown.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Fuller opened her palatial home in honor of Mesdames Grace Thompkins-Barker and Edith Posey Smith of Chicago for an informal reception.

Mrs. Hayes entrained for San Francisco Monday morning and will visit in Denver, Kansas City and Chicago en route to her home.

Ladies Social Sewing Club

The Ladies' Social Sewing Club was entertained at the home of Miss Augustine Parker, 1165 East 56th Street, on August 16, with a delicious repast.

The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Georgia L. Robinson, 1201 East 46th Street, August 30.

Officers are Miss Augustine Parker, president; Mrs. Marie Winfrey, secretary; Mrs. Georgia L. Robinson, treasurer; and Mrs. Willie B. Bennett, reporter.

MOTHERS' CHORUS

The Mother's Chorus of the 36th St. School P.-T.A. has been busy rehearsing all summer in perpatation for the coming fall term programs. The group is under the direction of Mrs. Velma Picard and Mrs. Zula Summervill. New members are earnestly desired. Anyone interested call Mrs. Velma Picard at PA. 2091.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

—Jessie Mae Brown

Child Delinquency is one of our most important problems, and I am happy to relate that Donald Derrecks is making a successful stab at clearing up the situation in the Watts Area where he is doing Social Welfare work. Don has a very strong program, and is able to help all who would like pointers along this line. He recently returned from a camping trip where he took many interacial members of his area to enjoy a bit of outdoor life. Giving up his studies as a pre-med student for awhile, he is finding this field an interesting one.

OTHER THAN SOCIAL

Les Charmantes, organized several months ago strictly for the love of art and music presented its first guest artists in recital last Sunday afternoon, with Pearl Marlowe and your humble servant as co-hostesses. The club members turned out en masse and true to the well planned calendar for the year, enjoyed the vocal renditions of Seaman Benjamin Wilbur Johnson, from the San Diego base. His selections were highly received by the members of the club. The artist was accompanied at the piano by Sarah Lumpkin, club prexy.

The Doll League Charity Club, usually connected with its outstanding annual tea, plans to come back on the scene on the 17th of September. This time it's a matinee cabaret dance, at the Club Plantation, an event certain to be a must on the social calendar. By the way, Count Basic will be right in the heart of his outstanding engagement at the club on this date, so all interested in doing his part for "sweet charity," can make arrangements for a perfect party the Sunday afternoon when the Leaguers take over. Club members are selling tickets...

HAPPY THE BRIDE-TO-BE

The bells will ring out for Bette Yarbrough and Johnnie Alston Sunday evening round five o'clock, scheduled hour for their vow taking. Bette seems to be all smiles as the big date draws nearer. Since her return from studies at Oberlin Conservatory, she has been taking up a bit of Culinary Art, and house keeping in general, preparing herself for the perfect little wife role. The UCLA grad has for the last week or two, been showered by her many friends. Helen Jane Stewart's Lingerie shower, and Alpha Gamma's Miscellaneous were among the highlights. So until that appointed hour when she leaves the single realm, the gay little AKA is all jitters and smiles.

PARTYING

Smooth cement drive way; garden furniture well arranged; music attached outside—perfect set up for a back yard party—and that's just what Myrtle Kenzie and Faye Milhouse threw last Saturday night. Their many friends, made up of high school and college sets were on hand in their back to school togs having the usual grand time. Bill Slayton and Pyrom Taylor, Joe Knight and the other gents on hand had a very gay evening with the sub debs...

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Lt. Fisher is across the blue by now, so wifey, Paulyn(Garner), is taking up residence in the East until his return... Word from the battle fields of France let us know that First Lt. Paul "Woody" Brown, Pfc. John Kinloch, and Cpl. Frank Young are seeing a bit of real action... Learned t'other day that Lt. Curtis Smith is definately alive, though a prisoner of war. Know that Ruth, Curtis' better half is over joyed as well as his many friends... See that Fred Jenkins is sporting three stripes on his navy blue uniform...

Lt. Ernie Ashford, of the Calvery, has been using up his furlough in town these past few days long lith his very attractive wife Catherine. By the way, the Mrs., spent the past few months with her better half in the dear old Southland...

Jessie Mae Milhouse is busy introducing her cousins, Bernadine and Vivian Robinson, visitors here from New Orleans. Bernadine happens to be an AKA, while Vivian holds membership in Sigma Gamma Rho ...By the way, the Milhouse girls are celebrating the arrival of a male into their family. The new commer is Joseph Cummings Jr., pride of the household...

Enoch Spann has been furloughing round town recently and is a bit surprised over the cities changes... On the UCL graduating list this summer appears the name of Arthur Trent, one of the most outstanding chemistry students on campus. The noted Alpha man has taken everything he could possibly work in before graduation... Hope Gist is also receiving her B. A.... Congrats chums... More summer campus notes have it that James O'Neal is back again, this time in the uniform of the University of R.O.T.C.... Betty Wright will receive her master in sociology in January from Western Reserves ...Just when her reurn to the city will take place, I can't say ...Rumor has it that the local girl has a special interest in that part of the country...

Took note of the new lens Ann Clay Johnson is wearing, quite "foxey" my dear... Melonee Temple is still outstanding when it comes to her current styles. The latest in white piquet trimmed in blue...The William Spencer infant was christened last Sunday at Second Baptist Church... Phylippa Jones birthdayed this month, and celebrated last Saturday with an informal soiree, at Fay Hopkins'. Close friends were invited to enjoy games, dancing and refreshments... Ysable Gray has returned from her extensive trip East... Don't forget to support the Doll Leagues' Cabaret! ! !

TILL NEXT WEEK.

Fete Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Mitchem, of 9514 Pace avenue, entertained at breakfast Saturday morning, August 19, in honor of Prof. W. A. Carter, Coffeyville, Kans., and his bride, Mrs. La Vida Erwin Carter.

Other guests were: Mrs. Viola E. Nelson, of San Antonio, Texas, teacher in Douglas High School; the Misses Marjorie and Evelyn Wooten, of Chicago, Ill., and the Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Carter, of 1583 West 37th street, nephew and niece of Prof. Carter.

The occasion was also the birthday of Mrs. Mitchem, hostess.

Mothers Social Club Activities

The Junior Division of the Mothers Social Club gave a picnic at South Park last Saturday. Miss Norma Craddock, vice-president of the Juniors, also celebrated her birthday, receiving many gifts from members. She is formerly from Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Craddock opened the regular meeting. The girls are busy making some lovely articles displaying real talent.

Mrs. Emma Kinard, president of the Mothers Social Club, arranged to have all visitors served at the picnic at which all had a grand time.

Mrs. Murphy, the chaplain of the girls, is helping them to conduct the religious part of their meetings. Mrs. Kinard is also assisting the girls in their work. She is very efficient and capable in training young people in club work. The purpose of the club is to build character and prevent delinquency, teaching the girls leadership and how to knit, sew, weave and study the Bible. In the near future the club hopes to have a hall in which the young people can meet.

The Junior and Senior divisions are taking in new members who are sincerely interested in this work. You may call ADams 7032 concerning the club. Mrs. Emma Kinard, president; Miss Zelphie Jones, secretary.

Barbecue Honors Kentucky Visitor

The small ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Williams, 2033 East 120th street, was the scene Sunday of one of the most elaborate barbecues held recently in Los Angeles. The affair held on the beautiful grounds was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hunter of Louisville, Ky., former home of the Williams.

The many guests more than enjoyed the afternoon from 4 o'clock on with barbecued lamb, chicken, cocktails, and soft drinks lavishly served by the host and hostess.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfonzo Howard and family; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Benton Woods; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and family; Mrs. John Parks; Master Sgt. Smith Washington; Mrs. Lou Moorman of Indianapolis; Sgt. and Mrs. H. B. Tapp; Sgt. and Mrs. Frank White; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Anderson of Ukiah; Lt. and Mrs. Leslie King; Lt. and Mrs. B. F. Ford.

Following the barbecue, Mrs. Williams entertained the guests with a Fortune telling party.

Bon Voyage Party For Mme. Funchess

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Morrow were hosts a bon voyage party honoring Mme. Madie J. Funchess, one of the city's foremost beauticians. Mme. Funchess left Los Angeles Monday for Dallas, Texas, where she will attend the National Baptist Convention as a delegate from Second Baptist church, when it convenes in September.

Some seventy-five friends were on hand to wish Mme. Funchess a pleasant trip, and brought scores of engaging gifts. The travel motif was aptly displayed by the arrangement in minature of a train leaving the station, behind which was a map of her itinerary fitted into a travel case. Delightful refreshments and musical selections heightened the enjoyment of the occasion for honoree and guests.

Mme. Funchess is an invaluable member of Second Baptist church, having been a trustee for several years, and chairman of finance for the monster "45 in 44" drive which cleared the church of debt. At the convention, Mme. Funchess will represent the Mission Circle of Second Baptist.

Sailor Here On Visit To Mother

William Sherman Turner, St. M2/C, is home on leave visiting his mother, the popular Westside matron, Mrs. Helen M. Woodard. He arrived Wednesday.

The local boy has been in the service for six months, finishing his Naval training course in five weeks with a fine record. Sailor Turner has made several trips to Canada. His mother is extremely proud of him.

Joel Turner of New York City, a brother to the serviceman, formerly of Los Angeles, may be here on a visit at the same time to greet his brother. He is now appearing at the Broadway Theatre in New York.

Patsy Hunter Leaves For Harlem Aug. 28

One of the angel city's most popular and beloved theatrical personalities and co-producer with Earl Robinson in the "Stormy Weather" film, Patsy Hunter, will leave for Harlem August 28th to try her luck as a producer. She staged the shows at the Club Alabam before that club discontinued its show presentations. She is without a doubt one of the greatest show producers in the theatrical profession today. Her work has won for her praise of the highest from Hollywood writers, and Nick Castle, Hollywood Dance director, suggested she try her luck in New York. That suggestion was made months ago by the Eagle's theatrical Editor, J. T. Gipson," who wrote at the time: "She has what it takes to take what Harlem's got!"

BEAT THE HEAT

Even if you're lucky enough to find a grassy spot in the shade this sweltering weather, you can't enjoy that cool breeze if you are tormented by the itching and smarting of heat rash, prickly heat, or pesky mosquito bites. But with Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, you can get relief from these hot weather miseries.

Yes, Mexsana can help you as it has millions of others. Just sprinkle it over your irritated skin and you'll be amazed at how quickly it soothes as it eases the itch of mosquito bites or sunburn. And if you're miserable from tormenting heat rash you'll find Mexsana promptly soothes the itch and burn. You see Mexsana often helps prevent heat rash as it has a special base that absorbs moisture on the skin, often the cause of the rash.

First Aid for Families

No wonder Mexsana is a favorite with all the family from Grandma to Junior. Mexsana can really protect your irritated skin against rubbing of collars, girdles and other clothing. And that goes for baby too.

For Mexsana not only guards against painful chafe irritation but it eases the sting and burn of diaper rash and actually helps prevent it. It contains ingredients often used by specialists to relieve these discomforts.

So do as millions have done for over 40 years. Keep Mexsana always handy as a hot weather first-aid for everyone in your home. It costs so little, even in the larger sizes, you'll want to get some right now . . . and help your family beat the heat of these miseries with Mexsana.

Veil, CALIFORNIA EAGLE columnist. This is her first trip to the Golden State. She is being shown a great time by her uncle Ben and Mrs. G. A. Veil and other cousins. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Veil, Mr. and Mrs. Hower Veil, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Veil, Mr. and Mrs. Murlin Veil and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wallace, none of whom she has seen since 1919. So impressed is she with our city that she hopes to return soon, maybe to live. Says she, "I shall long cherish the memories of my three weeks' vacation in the world's most talked of places — Los Angeles and Hollywood, Calif.

ON REST TRIP

Mrs. Luvenia Dones-Nash, popular socialite, left for San Francisco last Thursday morning for a much needed ten days rest. Mrs. Nash, a music teacher and organist at Second Baptist church, is also director of the much-talked-of Nash Singers.

BRONZE QUEEN

The coronation of the Bronze Queen contest winners was held Thursday evening Aug. 10th in Pasadena at Scott's Church on Mary St. The event was a highlight of the season sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Auxiliary, one of the Crown City's most progressive organizations.

GIVES DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bell of 4110 Wall street entertained with a dinner Sunday, August 13, at 4 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Louise K. Hollomon of Charlotte, North Carolina.

Many friends and several out-of-town guests shared the courtesy.

The Queen Goes A-Sewing

YOU never would guess in a million years that the smart frocks and gowns which Lena Horne displays so beautifully were made by the golden girl herself, would you? Well, we have proof that MGM's honey brown queen is an excellent designer and dressmaker. We discovered during an interview with Lena at her beautiful California home that her interests extend beyond her successful career, in many directions. Like every woman, she has a very keen interest in acquiring something new to wear. After seeing some of the little numbers Lena has designed and made lately, we're inclined to think that after she tires of the movies—heaven forbid—she might even set up her own little dress shop

However, that's neither here nor there. The important thing is that the lovely Lena has an encouraging word for all women who would like to sew for themselves and their families, yet hold back because they think they haven't the talent for it. In all probability you're like us: you don't know much about sewing, but we pass on some pointers we got from Miss Horne which make it sound easy to do.

"First," says the star, "forget all you've ever heard about sewing requiring special skill. It doesn't. Buy yourself a simple, inexpensive pattern. Pin it to the material and cut. Notch and tack the pieces together, as the pattern directs. Fit the garment on and adjust it, if necessary. Then baste it, remembering to press it as you go along so that the measurements will be accurate. Making a frock is as easy as that!"

If you have a dressmaker's form made to your own measurements, fitting and marking the hemline are greatly simplified, too. Take a mier, as Lena does, and measure the height from the floor at which you'd like your hemline to be. Don't stick to a hard and fast rule about hemline length, says Miss Horne. Take your general appearance into consideration, and remember, at whatever point the graceful line is achieved, that's the place to start turning up all around.

Now, watch Miss Horne, the smile is very important, you take your needle and thread and sew the hem by hand, using a light feathery stitch that will not show on the right side of the fabric.

Then, with the finished product back on the dressmaker's form, try for different effects. Miss Horne, as you see, has turned out a basic dress which can be changed in appearance with the addition of different accessories. Tack on a lovely collar of eyelet embroidery, or, if you have a spray of orchids handy, and who hasn't . . . tuck them into the waistline.

The only disappointing thing about our interview with the golden Horne, is that we didn't get to see her wear this one.

Pilgrim House Notes

The first party at the Bronzeville Playground was given last Saturday by Mrs. Gertrude Allen, 329 E. 1st St., to 60 children. The group was directed by the playground supervisors, Miss Katherine Boulton and Arthur Bacon.

A small luncheon was given last Monday at the DOWNTOWN HOUSE in honor of Dean and Mrs. W. J. Faulkner, of Fisk University. Dean Faulkner is spending the week at the Congregational Young People's Conference, Pilgrim Pines, Yucaipa.

Director Kingsley spent last Sunday in Pomona—at the Pilgrim Congregational Church, guest preacher, in the morning, and at a Union Service at the Presbyterian Church in the evening, speaking on "Race Relations."

AKA's Honor Soror

The members of Alpha Gamma Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority honored bride-elect Bette Yarbrough with a miscellaneous shower, Sunday, August 20th at the home of sorer Josephine Spearman.

The affair was well attended by members of the chapter, and the honoree received many beautiful and useful gifts.

ENTERTAIN SISTER

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Paxton and sisters Mrs. Mary Gordon and Dorothy Harris of 188 East 35th Street, entertained their sister Mrs. Edna Ransom of Arcadia, La., one of the oldest teachers of North Louisiana. Many friends enjoyed the evening socializing.

DEMOCRACY

By George Jefferson

It is a wonderful word isn't it? Something like the words "hope" and "heaven," in the place they hold in men's hearts. They are strong words, too, and powerful. Men fight and die for them. It is said we, the allies, are fighting for them now; the hope for democracy which is, after all, a kind of heaven on earth.

Webster defines democracy as "government by the peole collectively, by elected representatives; political or social equality," and there the dictionary stops, but not the imagination of men. They take the definition of democracy, like a bit between the teeth and make it their own. It becomes a symobl to them, encompassing their hopes and concepts, the purpose and direction of their political thinking. Multiply these thoughts a hundred million times and you get an idea of America.

It was not always so. Democratic equality, political equality, such as we know it is the result of a long evolution not yet complete. In this country's early beginning, only a few voted, the wealthy, the landowners. Later came universal manhood suffrage, the Fifteenth Amendment, women suffrage. A long time, isn't it? Over a hundred and twenty years before women could vote. We're progressing.

Look at the South! Even there we're progressing. Something new is being added. Negroes who never voted before are actually voting in the lily white primaries. The anti-Poll Tax Bill keeps cropping up in Congress pretty regularly, and every time it does, it becomes harder to stop. The men who fight it are disappearing. Reynolds won't be back next year; Cotton Ed Smith won't be back; things are looking up. Maybe if a few thousand more people in Mississippi get to vote, Bilbo will be out of a job too. Anything can happen. This is the century of the common man.

A funny thing happened last winter. John Rankin, the representative from Mississippi who was elected by around 9,000 votes, recited Invictus on the floor of the house. You know the poem, "My head is bloody, but unbowed."

He made a pretty picture as he talked, his silvery white hair cascading about his indomitable face. A very pretty picture, there was only one thing wrong with it. In the background were the other 230,000 tenant farmers and share-croppers of his district who could not vote—who live in poverty and political inequality. Men like John Rankin say "the devil with Lincoln and his principles of government of the people, by the people, for the people . . ." They say this, but it is not the end, for it is the people who always have the last word, and the people cry for democracy . . .

Open New Blood Plasma Depot Here

A new blood plasma depot for our fighting allies has been opened in the Medical Center of the Central Agency Health Foundation, 1805 South Central avenue, who have donated their space for that purpose.

"No Discrimination" is again the motto. Everyone is welcome to do their patriotic duty to those brave men of our allies who are fighting for freedom.

What's more, everyone doing his bit by giving of their blood, so that others may also live, is given courteous treatment, refreshments, and the best of care under the direct attention of competent Doctors and Nurses.

For their blood and their loss of time, about an hour, each donor is paid $4.

Everyone is urged to contribute of their blood, so that those who are fighting for freedom may live to enjoy it.

The Central Agency Health Foundation is at 1805 South Central avenue at 18th street.

Another plasma center is at 335 East Fourth street near San Pedro street.

Golden West Bridge Association

Of special interest to G.W.B.A. members and all bridge lovers west of the rockies, is the good news and great honor brought to us by J. D. Dunn for winning second place in the American Bridge Association's 12th annual national master individual game and the same J. D. Dunn and Beatrice Reeves won second in the master open pair event, according to telegrams received at the club room. Much praise should be given these two by all G.W.B.A. members.

These plays were held in New Orleans, La., August 13-19. Some or all of our players should be home this week. They are missed so much around the club room. Our plays have been small since they went away. Complete news of their week in New Orleans will be given upon their return home.

The next major event for the Pacific Coast is our second annual sectional, our most important games of the year. Winners will receive National Master point certificates. The date is some time in October. You must register in advance. The fee is $1.50 for the two events. We must have 22 pairs; don't let your association down, register now.

Evangelist Entertained

A lovely buffet luncheon was served prominent Los Angeles and Pasadena residents Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Holland in honor of Mrs. Pauline Bland, evangelist of Kansas and girlhood friend of Mrs. Holland. Other honored guests were Mrs. Dorothy Bostic, wife of Joe Bostic, Sr., radio sports announcer of New York, and Rev. and Mrs. Karl Downs and Karleene of Sam Houston College.

Assembled in their honor were Mrs. Helen Holloway, sister of Mrs. Bostic; Mrs. Ford of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Kato; Rev. and Mrs. Clayton Russell; Mrs. Lucille Bowlin and son, Brandon, Jr.; Mrs. Juanita Howard, daughter of Mrs. Bland; Mr. and Mrs. T. They, and Mrs. Jean MacMahon were delightfully entertained at a Garden Party at the residence of Mrs. Madge Andrews and husband of 4217 Zamora St., Friday evening August 11th; also a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Corine Gamble and family on the afternoon of Aug. 20th. The visitors say that the land of sunshine and flowers has no rival, and Los Angeles is an inviting place to reside.

HONORED

Mrs. Bertha Woolford was signally honored last Sunday at "A Patriotic Afternoon" given by the Lt. Col. James M. Beck Auxiliary No. 2651. Mrs. Woolford's fine portrayal of the mother, in the war film, "The Negro Soldier," was the incentive for the affair which was largely attended by fashionable society.

EDITORIALS AND COMMENT

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE

The Negro Must Paddle Own Canoe

This timely editorial is from the pen of Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., which appeared in the Aug. 19 issue of "The People's Voice."

So fraught with truth and thought provoking is the editorial, we are passing it on to our Western readers. If there were ever a time in the history of the Negro voting public when proper exercise of the ballot is important, it is now.

So fast are we nearing a climax in our war status that we find little time to realize what an important role the Negro American must play in world politics at this time. But as described by Mr. Powell in this editorial, the Negro is beginning to realize that his friends and enemies are about equally divided between the two major parties—Republicans and Democrats—and that without regard to party politics he must paddle his own political canoe.

"Polls after polls are now being taken on the so-called Negro vote. They are predicting all sorts of things, among which is a back-to-Republican swing. Many are declaring that the Negro has been driven away from the Democratic Party by the Bilbos and the Rankins and the Connallys. Some are saying that the defeat of Wallace for the Vice Presidency nomination at the Democratic convention is the last straw.

With all the polls and predictions, it is generally agreed that the Negro vote in from eight to ten states will control 221 of the 226 electoral votes needed to swing the election. A group of Negro publishers pointed out this week that Negroes may control the vote in eight of the larger northern cities, and PM pointed out that this group could decide the election in ten northern and border states.

The publishers estimated that 3,000,000 Negroes would vote in the fall elections, many of whom are war-worker migrants from the South who would be casting their first votes.

Those who see a return to Republican folds point to the stand that several of the larger Negro newspapers may take, and believe that the stand for Willkie in 1940 taken by one or two of them reflected a deflection of the editors from the Roosevelt party.

One must bear in mind that a vote for Wendell Willkie was not necessarily a vote for the Grand Old Party; for Wendell Willkie was far from a typical Republican. He was more along the lines of the New Deal. His was not a stand for states' rights and nationalism, but for more and wiser federalization and internationalism that would include the darker races as equal sharers in the world's wealth and culture.

The Negro, however, has proven himself during the last two elections as standing for liberalism and progress in human rights. There is no reason to believe that he will back-track in his thinking, for the war has broadened his vision and his experiences. Even the less literate Negroes are now looking beyond their noses.

That is saying more than the Republican leaders are doing. And the Negro is not blind to this fact. It is true that he hates the guts of the Georges and the Rankins and realizes what these folks and their ilk are about. At the same time, he is asking what the Republicans have to offer.

Not one Republican voice, beside that of Willkie, has come forward to block the tactics of the southern bourbons in killing much of the legislation that would benefit the Negro. And now, only last week, he has seen the Republican Senators vote unanimously for a post-war reconversion bill that would stifle his chances for a new lease on life following the war.

The Negro knows, without my telling them, what chances they had under the southern state's unemployment security benefits during the last depression. He realizes that he has not a chance with southern states officials to prove his need for a job at decent pay, or a decent standard of unemployment pay. He knows that he was compelled to accept jobs at $3 and $4 a week if he wanted to eat, and to work for long hour and short rations while his white brother could collect a larger dole and wait for a better job.

He knows that no Republican has risen to defend him when Rankin and Bilbo and Connally shouted about his inferiority from Capitol Hill and said that all of his cries for a decent standard of living and a chance to work at skilled jobs were merely for an opportunity to marry white women.

He knows that no Republican rose to defend him when the anti-lynching bill was at stake, and the poll tax bill was at stake. He realizes that the Republicans were too busy trying to build up a political machine by aligning with the anti-progressive southern forces to defeat Roosevelt to speak out against his persecutors.

And, further, the Negro will watch with interest the actions of those Republicans on Capitol Hill between now and election day, and will not be blinded by what his newspaper editorials may say, just as the white working classes are not blinded by their editors.

The Negro has his peculiar problems to face and to solve, and that most certainly influences his vote. But he also realizes that the solving of his problems are tied up with the progress of the country and the world, and he is not going to be fooled along this line, either.

The Negro vote this fall will not be a foolish vote, and the Republican party will have to do a mean piece of stepping to capture that vote. And I don't believe they can do it."

Hear The Voice of Humanity

The march to freedom has long been looked upon by the people who believe in freedom of life and limb as the fulfillment of the destiny of all civilized nations. This, however, was not the goal pursued by Germany under Hitler. In order to purify Germany, he said, there had to be a complete extermination of the Jews. Hence the opening scene of World War II was a wholesale massacre of Jews living in Germany.

So successful was this first step in brutality, the Nazis thought conquering the world would be an easy matter.

Weeks moved into months and months into years — Germany rode roughshod over Europe, and for a time it appeared that we, the people, were doomed to Nazi world domination.

But when all seemed lost, out of the East came the Red Army, a new type of fighters. They were joined by Americans, Australians, Canadians, and soldiers from the underground of all nations. Germany was dealt the blow that sent her shattering to her knees.

But like the snake, even though cut into parts, the head still bites. The Nazi aim in Europe now is to exterminate the remnants of Jewry, and in this nation German agents would terrorize Negroes.

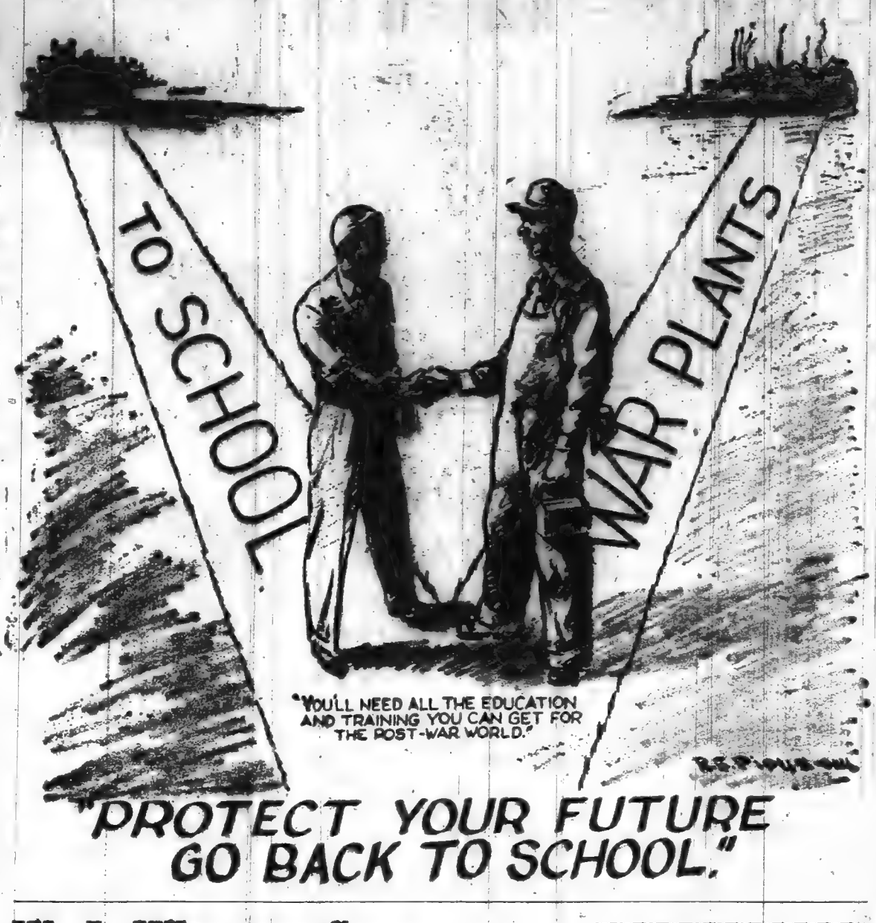
On Monday night, August 28, at Philharmonic auditorium, citizens of every faith and political persuasion will speak in mass protest against this avowed Nazi aim.

Let us, the Negro people, join heartily in this protest. Our future destiny is linked with the destiny of Jewish people, the objects of Hitler's wrath.

We must and we will defeat the Nazis in Europe. But this will not end the trouble. There can be no permanent world peace until every Jew in Europe, in America, and in the world enjoys the same sort of freedom enjoyed by other human beings. And until every Black, Brown, Yellow, or Red Man is unhampered in his movements, unrestrained in his pursuit of happiness, and unscorned because of his race, color, or previous condition, in life.

In order to stop the flow of blood in Europe, we the Black and White people of this nation who have dedicated our lives to freedom's cause must fight the Nazis in our midst to the end.

First Negroes Hired by L. A. Railway



Three Negroes, two women and one man have been hired by the Los Angeles Railway. They went into training for the position Wednesday morning, and after they become acquainted with their duties, they will be collecting fares, helping folks on and off the crowded cars, and being generally courteous and helpful to the public of L. A. as only they know how to do.

It is an occasion of great happiness to The California Eagle to be able to announce this piece of great news to its readers. We congratulate the LARY Co. upon having decided to employ Negroes for platform service. We know neither the company nor the public will be disappointed in this long stride forward toward the elimination of all racial discrimination. And we Negroes in having won this opportunity of working side by side with our white American brothers, accept the responsibility of proving our worthiness.

It was a long, hard fight in which the liberal forces of Los Angeles, both white and black, were engaged to prove to the LARY Co., to some of its employees, and to some of the riders on the street-cars of the LARY, that as American citizens we Negroes had the right to work in any defense plant, or in any industry connected with defense work such as the transportation of workers to and from their places of employment. We secured that right through the Fair Employment Practice Act and the Fair Employment Practice Committee appointed by our friend, President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

As far back as March the FEPC which met in Los Angeles at that time, cancelled the priority privileges granted the LARY because of its usefulness in transporting war-workers. But it was not until August 9 that the Committee, after hearing further complaints concerning the refusal of the LARY to obey the executive order 9346 of President Roosevelt abolishing all racial discrimination, that the Committee issued stern directives saying this order must be obeyed. The LARY acquiesced. And today we Negroes have the right to work as platform employees of the LARY, the same as any other American citizen.

It is in this way that we Negroes must work and fight our way upward, bit by bit, to the goal of "equal rights for all." Under our Constitution and our form of government we the people of the United States can have anything we really want. ANYTHING. We shall work and fight for these rights and privileges under the law. The laws are the tools with which we work and fight. President Roosevelt has given us more of these tools, designed especially for us, than any other president we have ever had. We must remember to keep this friend of ours in the White House. And in this coming election we must give him the tools to work with, too, by electing men and women to Congress who agree with him in his broad, liberal views toward humanity.

"PROTECT YOUR FUTURE GO BACK TO SCHOOL."

W. J. Wheaton Says—

Martin Dies: We mean the Dies chairman of that notorious committee that smelled so bad it left a stench in the nostrils of every decent citizen. That committee could imagine more subversive actions and uncover less than any investigating body authorized by congress. That committee was particularly active in seeking to smear any of the minority groups that sought the equality of justice. It singled out Negroes in particular. Bill Pickens, Paul Robeson and others who did not subordinate their ideas to Texas ideology were branded as disloyals and marked for the Dies axe.

Congress could not get rid of that committe but the voters could. Costello (California) and even Joe Starns (Alabama), Dies right hand man, were defeated and Dies, seeing the handwriting on the wall, got too sick to run for reelection.

75,000 Negroes Vote

Those 75,000 Negroes, registered to vote in Texas, are going to assist the decent Texans to send representative men and women to the Congress. Too bad that we do not have some red-blooded Negroes in Mississippi. All that we have from that State hold their political posts at the behes of Rankin. Truly, Senator Guffy said that tobacco chewing Negro baiter Rankin infuenced many Republicans. No! Not Republicans, but those fellows bearing the stamp. Their Republicanism is far fetched from that of Abraham Lincoln, whose ideals they profess to follow.

Housing

We had a look at the new housing project. It will house the workers evicted from slum area condemned by the Board of Health. The project is to accommodate between two and three hundred families and was financed by the San Francisco and Federal Housing authorities. This brings to mind an incident that arose at a meeting of the NAACP one Sunday afternoon. It was stated that a Negro had purchased a piece of property and that it was occupied by tenants other than Negro. A women, no doubt well meaning, but not well thinking, wanted to know why the purchaser did not evict the tenants and make place for the Negroes. She could not see that it was very poor suggestion. She had to be shown that it would not look well in reverse and that she might be one of the first to cry "Discrimination."

Presbyterian Assembly

There is a bright gleam in the sky: The religious denominations are a unit in decrying the undemocratic discriminations against minority groups. The recent Presbyterian Assembly, meeting in Chicago, placed its disapproval of racial bars and color pogroms in no uncertain terms. Dr. Coffin, the retiring Moderator, pulled no punches when he flayed the Christian churches for not being more specific in their condemnation of the undemocratic methods existing in this country which boasts of its Democracy.

"It is the Bar Sinister on the Shield of our Nation." The Northern Baptist, meeting in Long Island, was no less specific in its condemnation of the attitude of the Christian church and the nation in its racial bias. So are the Episcopal churches. They have published a pamphlet "A Better World For All Peoples" which is a gem in decrying the tenedency toward unchristian principles. All in all the fight against segregation and discrimination because of color or racial origin is rapidly becoming nonfashionable. We hope that with the help of our allies that the battle for democracy, in its true sense, will be won.

Attack

Little by little the "Beach Head" has been widened and, with that help, we can carry the attack to the enemy. We can not, must not, falter. Sincerity; Honesty; Commonsense, and unfaltering courage will assure to every minority group in the nation, full and unadulterated; without stint or equivocation, the citizenship guaranteed by the Constitution and its Bill of Rights. Then, and not till then, can this Nation, this Government, tell to the world that it not only preaches democracy but it practices it in its fullest. Yes, the challenge has been thrown to us. Our allies have spoken. Every group classed as a minority, must shake off the apathy of sem-defeat, and enter the ranks with courage and a determination to win the battle, and end the discrimination war.

Letters To The Editor

Ed. Note:-Following is a letter written by Pattis Perry —L. A. C. P. A. Chairman, in reply to an article which appeared in the Criterion.

To The Editor,
The Criterion,
1736 West 35th Place,
(Neighborhood Advt. Paper),
Los Angeles, 7,
California.
Dear Sir:

In the Criterion dated August 14th, 1944, I noticed an article which in my opinion could very well have been written in Berlin. The article pretends to speak in defense of the Negro people and our country. It neither speaks in the interest of the Negro people nor in the defense of our country. On the contrary, it speaks in the interest of Berlin itself. The article begins: "Today we are facing a dangerous and treacherous form of government if we stand by and let the CIO and the Communists run the government. We are heading for a government of regimentation as fast as we can get there. It will not be Germany who will be doing the goose-stepping, it will be the American people goose-stepping to the tune of the Communist-controlled New Deal."

PRO-FACIST TALK

According to this we are not facing a danger of fifth column elements that will incite national strikes on the street and railway lines in Philadelphia, nor those who will mobilize anti-Negro, anti-Mexican riots in Los Angeles, or those who will stand up on the flood of Congress and denounce the Negro people. Oh No! Instead we are endangered by some imaginary "Communist-controlled new deal." I ask you, is that not the language of the Dies Committee, the Ku Klux Klan, the Nazi Bund, the Silver Shirts, the Couglinites and sundry other fascist and pro-fascist elements in this country?

The writer makes a strong plea against the Negroes following the Roosevelt administration on the grounds that it is "communist-controlled." In passing, be it said that the communists have not a single representative in the United States government and are far from controlling it. For this we are denounced by precisely the fascist and pro-fascist elements who seek to control it. May we raise a few questions here? Who pray tell us, fought to advance the interests of the peoples of the United States, Negroes included, if not the Roosevelt administration.

THE RECORD

Who fought for the passage of the anti-poll tax bill? Undeniably, it was those forces that most consistently supported the Roosevelt administration. Who was it that fought for an appropiation for the continuation of the Fair Employment practices Commission? Such men as Senator Truman and other Roosevelt supporters. Who was it that fought to disenfranchise the eleven million men and women in our armed forces? The Republican Party led by Vandenburg-Hoover-Dewey forces. Who is it that defeated Resolution No. 637 which would grant equal education to the Negro and white people of the south? None other than Senator Taft of the Republican party. Who is it today that is ganging up to defeat the reconversion bill which would guarantee economic security to the men and women now in the armed forces, for all workers who are in defense work? Once again, on this and all other measures mentioned the solid phalanx of the main leadership of the Republican Party and the Southern poll-taxers.

This has been done by a coalition of reactionary Republicans and poll-tax Democrats. Democrats.

For over two hundred years the Southern slave owners used the cry of "States Rights" to perpetuate slavery. For over 70 years the dominant leadership of the Republican Party has consistently united with reactionary Southern Bourbons in betraying Lincoln's principles. Once again the cry of "states rights" unite reactionary Republicans and Southern Bourbon politicians against all America, including the Negro people. Their aim is to betray and destroy the gains the Negro people are making. United behind the cry of "states rights" they ganged up to defeat the anti-Poll Tax Bill and attempted to destroy the FEPC. Now they seek to prevent passage of the Murray-Kilgore-Truman Bill providing for reconversion and security for all

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

Ah, for the life of an officer's guest! The "life of Reilly" used to be tops. But believe me, it can't compare with this.

My trip from Harlingen, Texas, to Fayetteville, North Carolina, was not without excitement. It took three days to make it. I probably could have done better with a kiddie car. Of course, I'm not complaining about poor transportation. It's not as though they don't warn civilians. And so I was prepared to take it.

Some of the trains are empty and air-conditioned, while others are worse than cattle trains, packed beyond capacity. I thought I was on every kind the railroad companies have to offer, but the G.I.'s told me I missed one. They even have some relics from the gaslight days. I suppose I ought to consider myself lucky.

In spite of the hardships, I wouldn't have missed this trip for anything. Travelling through the South is like a trip through another country — at times it seemed like Germany.

Civilians who probably used to travel in private compartments are now travelling in coaches. Men in uniform, some of whom had never been away from home before, were enjoying the new thrill of travel. Men who had seen the horrors of war across the oceans sat silently staring into space, drinking in the quiet countryside so far from the battlefields.

Most of the passengers were Southerners. The majority of them don't like New Yorkers. I adopted Los Angeles as my home. That wasn't too bad, as far as they were concerned—but that's still the North to them.

At Mobile, Alabama, the already crowded train took on another load of service men. Most of them had to stand. I felt very guilty taking up a seat when a soldier is entitled to it. I walked back to the platform and insisted that one of the G.I.'s take my seat. That was about 2 o'clock in the morning, and I stood up until 5 a. m.

It's difficult to sleep standing up, and so I talked to the guys. While we were talking, the porter came by. Accidently he stepped on one man's foot. The man waited until the porter was further down the train and then said: "That black bastard, I ought to twist his head off. Here he is 'goldbricking' on a train while I'm stuck in the Army."

I wanted to say something, but a Southerner beat me to it. He was a lieutenant. He appeared really angry with the G.I. when he told him in his slow drawl: "Look boy, you wouldn't ever have a chance to get home or furlough if these colored folk and the white ones, too, didn't run these trains. I'm from the South and I don't like them any too well, but I sure have respect for any man fighting this war no matter what job he's doing. We've got colored troops right next to us at our camp and you wouldn't want a better bunch of soldiers."

The other fellow was quiet—so was I—the lieutenant said enough—maybe some day he'll even learn to like the Negros.

I haven't seen much of Fayetteville because I'm staying at the Post Officer's Mess at Fort Bragg. It's just like an exclusive country club: golf links, swimming pools, tennis courts and everything else to make life comfortable—for a visitor. The officers, of course, enjoy the facilities after they are through working. It's a lot nicer for them than it is for the ordinary G.I.

My girl friend stays here with her husband, who is a first lieutenant. It is a wonderful visit for me, and I'm going to hate to go home—because home will never like this.

THE PULPIT VOICE

Conducted by

REV. HAMILTON T. BOSWELL

Minister, Bowen Memorial Methodist Church

Mr. Boswell is away on vacation. Until his return this column is being written by Wm. H. Stevens, Jr., A. B., Assistant Minister of Bowen Church.

The church is becoming aware of that it must offer Christian solutions to social problems. Two great church bodies met this summer in two Southern California cities. They were the Christian Church Convention (Disciples of Christ) of Southern California meeting in Whittier and the So. California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church meeting in Pasadena. (Birch Street Christian Church 28th and Paloma, Avalon Christian are among the Negro memberships of the Disciples of Christ. Wesley, Hamilton, Bowen, Scott Memorial in Pasadena, and St. John's in L. A. are among the Negro churches of this Methodist Conference.)

These two church bodies convening in Pasadena and Whittier respectively, both passed resolutions favoring the return of Japanese Americans to their homes on the Pacific Coast. They favor their gradual integration back into their American life and place now, inasmuch as the Pacific Coast in the army's own terminology is now a "defense command" no longer, nor a "theatre of operations."

Perhaps the army forbids their return because of hostile threats by Hearst-stirred propagandists, and hostile threats by "pseudo patriotic" factions in the American Legion as was pronounced so recently in their California convention.

But there are real democratic and patriotic Californians who see grave danger of continued quasi-martial law. Such distinguished persons are President Robert G. Sproul of the University of California, Ray Lyman Wilbur, connected with Stanford University, the California C.I.O., the League of Women Voters, the Committee on American Principles and Fair Play, and segments of the church are putting up a fight against continued "protective security." Items in this paragraph are condensed facts from a pamphlet published by the American Council On Public Affairs entitled "The Displaced Japanese-Americans." (The Council's office is 2153 Florida Ave., Washington, D. C.)

Christ came that we might have life, and have it more abundantly. Christians must be concerned with enabling men and women to establish processes for "living abundantly." To deny someone the right to live in his own home is not only undemocratic, but unChristian. These two church bodies, as are other churches concerned not only with civil liberties, will pray, work and struggle to bring human justice for all mankind.

Southland vandals are destroying three times as many race signs during wartime as they did in pre-war years.

Rev. J. W. King Returns to City

Rev. John W. King, pastor of King's Chapel CME Church, 1446 West 36th place, and most popular merchant tailor, returned Monday from a much needed vacation and rest in Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he took a full course of baths in the "fountain of youth," the most famous place in the country. On his return, he had a two weeks' stay in Chicago, visiting relatives and friends. He also enjoyed looking over the Negro business section in South Chicago.

Rev. King is back now at 2030 South Central, ready to the best looking, best fitting and best wearing suits in town.

Ministers' Wives Council Notes

The Interdenominational Minister's Wives of Los Angeles and Vicinity held their Annual Breakfast in South Park recently. A large number of out-of-town visitors were present and enjoyed the festivities. A special feature this year was the addition of the members of the International Ministers' Alliance. The ministers furnished ice cream for all present. Mrs. Minnie L. Dames of Pasadena is President of the Minister's Wives and Mrs. Jean Shaw of Los Angeles was chairman of the Social Committee of the organization, which prepared and served the delicious breakfast.

The next meeting of the Interdenominational Minister's Wives Council will be held in the beautiful home of Mrs. George R. Garner, 440 North Westmoreland Street. Mrs. Garner is one of the new members of the Council.

GOSPEL SINGERS

The Jubilee Gospel Singers will be heard every Friday night at the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, 1409 East Vernon Avenue (at Ascot). Rev. S. D. Richardson is pastor.

For good singing, come and hear them. Services begin at 8 p.m.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE "THE OLD CONVENTION"

(A Play of a Thousand Laughs) At the Galilee Baptist Church, 23rd Street and Stanford Avenue, Monday evening, August 28th, at 8 o'clock.

This play has been written and is directed by Archie J. Williams, author of the church plays: "A Breach of Promise," "The City of Joy" and "Just As I Am." The Rev. E. E. Wilhite is pastor of the Galilee Baptist Church.

Rev. Zora Banks and her Quartette
of Service Men
from Camp Anza will sing at Temple of Divine Truth, 909 E. 33rd St., Sunday evening, Aug. 27, at 8 p. m. Everyone is invited.

Spiritual Advisor

Dr. John J. Masters

May be seen in person for private consultation and advice by special appointment. Call CE. 2-4534

He is leader of the Temple of the Holy Nazarene, which has been incorporated under California law. The church is located at 1139 East 51st St.

Doctor Masters was born in India. Services are held every Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and Sunday night 7:30 p.m. Circles are held every Tuesday night at 7:30; spiritual classes held every Thursday night.

Persons wishing to write to him for advice may do so by sending the letters to Post Office Box 72, Station K, Los Angeles, Zone 11.

RECITAL—On Tuesday night, August 29th, at 8:15, the Senior Choir of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 50th and Hooper, will introduce to music circles and friends, Julius A. Jackson, musician, in a recital of piano-organ music. The 19-year-old youth, student at USC who has been appointed Senior Choir Master and musical director, is expected to play an important role in the advancement of cultural and fine church music in the city. Tuesday night's program will consist of sacred and classic music. You are cordially invited. No admission.

Big Meetings Continue At Victory Auditorium

The second big week at the Victory Auditorium, corner of East 103rd St. and Compton Ave., opened last Sunday night when an overflow crowd gathered early to hear the illustrated lecture, "The Great Battle of Armagedon."

A large crowd heard the Twilight Musicale which featured the singing of the Wadsworth Vested Choir.

Large crowds have heard Revs. Harold Lindsey and Owen A. Troy each night.

"Will a Man Who has Married More than Once Live with all His Wives in Heaven," is the next Sunday evening subject.

The preliminary Twlight Musicale at 7:30 p.m. will feature Ethel Hartie Dickerson, soprano, and the Victory Auditorium Vested Choir. An educational sound moving picture will be shown, "The Eruption of Mount Vesuvius."

Health lectures by doctors and nurses are given on Tuesday and Thursday evenings prior to regular lecture. On Wednesday evenings, health demonstrations are given by the nurses. No meetings are held on Mondays and Saturdays.

The subjects for the rest of the week are: "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "Chinese Mail, A Bottle and a Pack of Cards," "Marvels of Our Day," and "How to Bridge the River of Death."

PIN-UP CONTEST AND PICTURES AT HAMILTON

The Pinup Contest, under the auspices of the Deborah Guild, will culminate Sunday, August 30, at 4 o'clock with a Vesper service which you will enjoy. There are 20 service boys of the church who are being sponsored by their many friends. Fifty-dollar and 25-dollar war bonds are being offered as prizes to the successful contestants. Come and enjoy the afternoon.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text, chosen from Isaiah, read "Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength."

A passage from Mark's Gospel reads, "Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene . . . Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, . . . And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. . . . And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; . . . they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "The highest earthly representative of God, speaking of human ability to reflect divine power, prophetically said to his disciples, speaking not for their day only but for all time: 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also;' and 'These signs shall follow them that believe.'"

McCoy Memorial Baptist Church

Women's day, last Sunday, climaxed one of the greatest days in the history of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church.

A friendly rivalry existed between the men and women. Mrs. L. McMullen was chairman of the women's program. The Sunday before was Men's day, and Mr. James Long was in charge of the men. A spiritual program was held throughout the day, morning, afternoon and evening. The men reported $1,511.16 in their effort. The women reported $2,046.48, making a grand total of $3,557.64 which was remarkable due to the fact that it was only a two-week effort. This was done on behalf of the remodeling of the church, which is a pay-as-you-go effort.

Rev. E. A. Anderson's first anniversary will begin Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. The Magnolia Baptist Church of which Rev. H. Cornelius is pastor will be in charge, being sponsored by the Sunday School, B.T.U., and the Bible Study. Thursday evening, the Pastor's Aid, Gospel Choir, and Usher Board will sponsor Rev. J. R. Henderson and congregation of the Second Baptist Church. Friday evening, Missionary Society, Senior Choir, Deaconess Board, Community Prayer Band and the McCoyettes will sponsor Rev. J. C. White of the Bethel AME Church and his congregation. Sunday at 3 p.m. the Deacon and Trustee Boards, Brotherhood, Ministers, and Church Proper will sponsor Rev. A. C. Capers of the Faithful Central Baptist Church and congregation.

REV. E. A. ANDERSON

Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Pastor E. A. Anderson will bring the message.

The public is cordially invited to worship with us throughout the week. Rev. E. A. Anderson, pastor.

Bahai's Schedule 5 Successive Lectures

Mrs. Charles Reed Bishop will present the first of a series of five lectures Sunday, August 27, 3 p.m., at the Baha'i Center, 1709 West 8th Street, when she will speak on "A New Tie with Latin America." At present making her home in Pasadena, Mrs. Bishop has traveled throughout the Americas, Europe and the Holy Land, and brings a wide experience to the platform. Mrs. Bishop will present the Baha'i view of the unity intended for this "new cycle of human power."

Ever Brewer Hudson, Mezzo Soprano Sang At Hollywood Church

Sitting reverently and attentively as the sorrowful songs and anthems of hope which form the beloved Negro spirituals thrilled them, a large audience heard Ever Brewer Hudson, talented mezzo-soprano, last Sunday at First Methodist church on Highland avenue, in Hollywood.

The prolonged applause that greeted the close of each number, expressed their sincere enjoyment and appreciation of this first opportunity to listen to this finished pupil of Madam Formosa, one of Hollywood's greater voice teachers.

Mrs. Hudson sang ten numbers, all of which were spirituals but one, a classic. She has been requested to render another recital in the near future. A date is also being prepared for her at the nationally famous Los Angeles Breakfast Club, on Riverside Drive, on a special program.

What was the size and worth of the ancient Jewish Tabernacle?—Pvt. J. M., San Francisco.

The Jewish Tabernacle which the Children of Israel built as their house of worship while in the wilderness was 45 feet long, 15 feet wide, 15 feet high. It faced toward the East. Its frame work was made of hard and close-grained acacia wood, overlaid with pure gold. The curtains were made of the finest linen dyed blue and purple and scarlet. They were embroidered with cherubs. Its value is estimated at $1,250,000.

The birth of Christ is given as 4 B. C. Why was Christ born four years "Before Christ?"—P. C., Stockton, Calif.

"When Christ was born, time was reckoned in the Roman Empire from the founding of the city of Rome. When Christianity became the universal religion over what had been the Roman world, a monk named Dionysius Exigus, at the request of the Emperor Justinian, made a calendar, 526 A. D., reckoning time from the Birth of Christ, to supersede the Roman calendar. Long after the Christian Calendar had replaced the Roman Calendar, it was found the Dionysius had made a mistake in placing the birth of Christ in year 753 A. U. C. (From the founding of Rome.) It should have been 749 or a year or two earlier. So the reason we say that Christ was born 4 B. C. is merely because the maker of the Christian Calendar made a mistake of 4 or 5 years in co-ordinating it with the Roman Calendar which it replaced." —The Pocket Bible Handbook, p. 296.

I do not have access to a Bible Dictionary where I am stationed. I would like to know the value of the followings: 1) omer; 2) reed; 3) shekel (money); 4) talent.—M. L., Long Beach, Calif.

1. An omer is 7 pints. 2. A reed is about 11 feet. 3. A shekel is worth about 64 cents. 4. A talent is worth about $1,000. As a weight it varies from 50 to 100 pounds.

How far is a days journey? A Sabbath Day's journey?—C. K., Los Angeles.

In New Testament times a day's journey was about 20 miles. A Sabbath Day's journey was about 1 mile. This was not a Biblical restriction, but one placed on the people by the Jewish leaders. The religious leaders placed many restrictions on the people such as prohibiting them from traveling more than a mile on the Sabbath or carrying anything heavier than a pocket handkerchief.

Was Moses' wife an Ethiopian? —J. P., Los Angeles.

Moses married Zipporah, a daughter of Jethro, also called Reuel, a Midianite priest, who was a descendant of Abraham and undoubtedly knew something of Abraham's God. Moses' wife is referred to as a Cushite by Aaron and Miriam. It is quite probable that her mother was a descendant from Cush. Cush was a son of Ham.

New Workers Added At Second Baptist

Mrs. Ella Mays—Director of Religious Activities. The Rev. Percy Williams—Director of Youth Activities. Rev. Williams will begin work with the church in October. Mrs. Mays will begin in November.

Mrs. Ella Mae K. Mays, formerly of Philadelphia, Penns. She is a graduate of the Baptist Institute for Christian Workers in Philadelphia where she majored in Christian Education and Social Work. In the summer of 1938 she, with Rev. Horace N. Mays, Director of Christian Education for the Western Baptist State Convention, pioneered in Christian Education work and Vacation Church School work in Western Pennsylvania for the American Baptist Publication Society and the Pennsylvania Baptist State Convention. A product of the schools of Philadelphia, Mrs. Mays was also active in the NAACP, NYA and YWCA. At present she is supervisor of auditor section in the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Mrs. Ella Mae K. Mays

Rev. Williams, at present, is a graduating student from the School of Religion of the University of Southern California, and upon completion of his thesis will have a Master's degree of Theology conferred upon him.

Rev. Williams was given his license to preach by the Rev. S. M. Malone, his father-in-law, and minister of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Pasadena, in June of 1941. In December of that same year he was ordained into the Baptist ministry by the Rev. Malone, and was elected assistant pastor of the Metropolitan church. In that capacity Rev. Williams served for more than a year. He has also served as interim Pastor for the Linclon Memorial Congregational Church for a period of six months, and for one month each, he served as guest Minister to the First A.M.E. Zion Church, and the Avalon Christian Church, all of this city. At present, is a member of Trinity Baptist church associated with Rev. J. L. Caston. His wife is the Attorney Martha Malone Williams, California's only Negro woman practicing attorney.

Worship with us Sunday. Mr. Morris Caver, a noted tenor who has spent many years abroad, will be the guest soloist. The minister will preach on this pertinent question, "Is the Conscience Really a Safe Guide?"

Pilgrim Baptist Church Holds Splendid Services

Last Sunday was a great day at Pilgrim Baptist Church, corner 45th and Wadsworth. The spirit was high and our pastor, Rev. Wade, preached a forceful sermon on "Praying for Peace in Jerusalem."

Both the senior and gospel choir are singing as never before. The senior choir sang "The Lord's Prayer," and the church was over-shadowed with the Holy Ghost.

At the evening services Rev. C. W. Nunn preached an inspiring sermon. Three members were added to the church. On Sunday, August 27, Rev. Wade will fill his pulpit as usual. His subject was "The Spirit on a Sunday Morning."

The Juniors will sponsor the B.T.U. at 5:15 p.m. They are asking all parents to be present.

At the 7:00 o'clock hour, the senior choir is sponsoring their sixth annual musical program. The gospel choir will render several gospel numbers. We invite our friends and sister churches to come and represent their birthday month. Don't forget the date—August 27. Time, 7:00 o'clock. Rev. B. W. Wade is pastor; Sister L. P. Graham, clerk.

Everygreen Missionary Baptist Church News

You are invited to attend a soul-saving campaign at the Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church, 1187 East 40th Place. The revival, which began August 21, will continue until sometime in September. Services each evening from 7:30 until 9:00.

Anyone interested in soul-saving, saints and sinners, are welcome. Come praying. We don't want any money. We want the precious hearts of men. We are praying that God may add a blessing to the lost sheep of Israel.

Rev. S. S. Hunt and Elder R. D. Browne are presiding elders. Rev. W. D. Short is pastor of Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church.

YOUNG PEOPLES' DAY AT PHILLIP'S TEMPLE

Sunday, August 27th will be Young People's Day at Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church, corner East 43rd St. and Wadsworth. The Morning Service at 11:00 o'clock will feature Rev. Charles A. Williams, Associate Minister of Peoples Independent Church of Christ as Guest Speaker. A very inspiring service is built around the theme, "Living For Jesus," consisting of songs, solos, trios and the sermon. At the Evening Service, beginning at 7:00 p.m. the unveiling of the Memorial Picture of Lt. George Kenneth Hays, former vice-president of the J-O-Y Club of the Church, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Hays, who died in an airplane crash at Birminhgm, Ala., June 12 will take place. The famous Junior Choir of Phillips Temple will sing at both services.

The Young People of the Church are seeking to raise funds for the Sunday School, Choir Loft and Departmental Structure to be added soon. The groups sponsoring this day are the J-O-Y Club, with the Junior Choir, the Junior Usher Board, the Rosebuds of Christ, Miss Virgie Marie Walker, Miss Geraldine Stuben and Miss Helen Rogers are leaders of the respective groups. Mrs. Virgie Williams, Mrs. Rosa Cobbs, Mrs. Ethel Hands, Mrs. Zada Lord, and Mrs. Ida Hill are the respective supervisors. Rev. Lane C. Cleaves, Pastor.

They helped every one his neighbor; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

Card of Thanks In Memoriams Death Notices

Mrs. Mary Johnson, wife of the late Gus Johnson to whom she had been married for 50 years, died last Friday at the age of 80. The deceased was born in Austin, Texas, and came to Los Angeles in 1916. Always a warm and understanding friend of children, she bore eight of her own, three of whom survive her. They are Monroe Johnson, Jacob Johnson and Mrs. Tommie Reeves, the wife of H. A. Reeves who for 40 years has been an enterprising business man in the community.

Funeral services were held at the Smith and Williams Funeral Parlor Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, pastor of Wesley Chapel, officiating.

The family of the late Rev. W. H. Young wish to express their sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy during his illness and death.

We shall always remember the cards and floral pieces and other expressions of sentiment coming from the various auxiliaries of Grant Chapel AME Church. May God bless you all.

Mrs. Josephine Young, wife,
Mr. and Mrs. Luke House,
Mrs. Josephine Lark,
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cowing,
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Young.

I wish to thank my many, many friends for their kindness and sympathy in the time of my recent sorrow due to the deaths of my husband and brother, Ashley Bailey and John A. Ross.

Mrs. Dora Bailey,

Dr. Ford Honored By Bethel Baptist In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Bethel Baptist Institutional Church of Jacksonville, Fla., Dr. Charles Satchell Morris, II, pastor, was jammed last Sunday by 800 persons who paid lavish tribute to the late Dr. John Elijah Ford for 36 years the shepherd of the flock. The memorial service was conceived by Dr. Morris, who inaugurated the John E. Ford Memorial Scholarship to be awarded to an outstanding young man of the church in the sum of $500.

Deacon Rufus L. Butler of Bethel was the general chairman of the Memorial Committee of ten, while Dr. Morris served as the master of ceremonies for the huge affair and introduced the speakers. The celebrated choirs of Mt. Zion and St. Paul AME churches, together with the Narcissus quartet of Second Baptist Church and both choirs of Bethel furnished the music.

Dr. Morris came to the pastorate here in June from the St. Paul Baptist Church of Los Angeles, Calif., where he was associate pastor. He is a brother-in-law of Paul R. Williams, the noted and distinguished architect of that city.

Eight Negro Posts Represented At American Legion Convention

The American Legion Department of California conducted its 26th Annual Convention last week in the Philharmonic auditorium Tuesday in the Embassy, Wednesday and Thursday. District conferences met in nearby buildings. Two thousand or more who attended were taken care of comfortably.

Eight Negro Posts were represented by Delegates, the outstanding being Benjamin J. Bowie Post of Los Angeles with eleven delegates and eleven Alternates. San Francisco's A. H. Wall Post sent its commander, Roxber Chambers and delegates William Harris and Walter White. Col. Charles Young Post of Oakland was represented by 1st Vice Commander Romie Bynum, who is also Sgt.-at-arms of the 10th District. Dennis T. Williams Post of San Diego was represented by its Commander Herman Rider and Delegates Rollin B. Smith and U. D. Simon. Commander Leroy Calhoun, Past Commander Wiliam Bigby and Delegate Ernest Hollins were representatives of State Center Post of Fresno, California.

Three other Los Angeles County Posts were in attendance, the 17th District 92nd Division A.M.F. Post, Raymond J. Smith, Commander and Delegates Carter, York, Davis and Whitemire registered. Crown City Post of Pasadena had Commander Fitzpatrick and Past Commander Randolph, participating. Fred Whitaker, Post of South Los Angeles, Past Commander Doran and Commander George Follings were voting.

At one of the auditorium entrances was the neatly uniformed Assistant Sgt.-at-arms James Lawson of O'Keefe and Herritt Post.

The 23rd District had two local veterans representing it on State Committees, Norman C. Houston, appointed to the Committee of Organization and Rules and James R. Smith to the Press and Publicity Committee.

Elected to represent the 23rd District as a Delegate to the National Convention meeting in Chicago, September 17, was Jerome Hubert. Harry Beal and De Sota Wyatt all of Benjamin J. Bowie Post were elected Alternates.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

RUMBLINGS

More clearly now you can see the pattern of the post-war attack that is to be made on labor. The proven tactic of divide and conquer is the method finally agreed upon. Unorganized labor is to be the lever which the enemies of labor and the Republican opportunists will use to pry open a schism in the ranks of the workers wide enough to build a bulwark of confused misunderstanding. Labor Unions versus non-union workers is the line up. Already hairs are being split in the attempt to prove that there is a wide and an essential difference between the man who works and belongs to a union, and the man who works and does not belong to a union. According to the propagandists whose masters fear the potential power of labor in the coming elections, union workers are fierce, demanding ogres who have illegally banded together for political action.

John M. Lee

A non-union worker, on the other hand, they say, is a good natured slob who takes the benefits of adequate pay, improved working hours and conditions and a guaranteed and protected future only because these things are forced upon him by the unionists. Left to his own devices he would hate the National Labor Relations Act, the Wages and Hours Law, the Social Security Act, the FEPC, and all of the other benefits which organized labor has fought for and secured.

They would tell you that the unorganized worker is more truly representative of labor, and that the organized worker is a menace because he insists upon bargaining for improved conditions and better wages whenever the profits of industry increase. Most unorganized workers they say, are shouting Republicans, who, given the proper leadership can go out and lick the pants off this political action business.

LABOR IS ONE

That's what they say... The truth, however, is that labor is labor and no erudite juggling of phrases and logic will change that. Whether a workingman is a member of the AFL, the CIO, the Brotherhoods, or just enjoys the benefits which these groups have obtained through long years of hard struggle, he is a part of that great mass of American people who live better, enjoy better health and have a guarantee of future security because workers have banded together and become articulate.

SATURDAY AT 11

Frankly, we will be practically alone Saturday morning when we go to the Blood Donor Center at 925 South Western Ave. The response to our continued appeal has not been too good. Reports indicate that the bank is short by 36,000 pints of its quota. That is an alarming figure, and it clearly indicates a let-down. This is one time when everybody is needed. Why not call RO. 0121 and tell them that you'll give a pint to help cut the figure down?

Soldier Injured In Fight Over Attempt To Purloin Fruit

Pvt. 1st Class Willie Roberts of the 421st AAF Squadron at Muroc, Calif., suffered stab wounds in the right side of his back, his left shoulder and the palm of his left hand last Sunday night when he and three soldier companions became embroiled in an argument as the result of an attempt by the soldiers to purloin some fruit from a stand at 3400 S. Central Ave.

As they attempted to grab the fruit, they were challenged by a man whose name was given as "Unk," and employed of Mabel Chirriant who operates the business. Both Roberts and "Unk" drew knives, and in the melee, the soldier came off second best. Mrs. Chirriant fired several shots from a shotgun, and the soldiers dispersed. Newton police are investigating the affair.

The Air Medal was awarded to Lt. Wilkins for "Meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy in the Italian theatre.

Prior to entry into the army, Lt. Wilkins was a student at Los Angeles City College.

LARY Starts School For Negro Operators

Moving rapidly to show full compliance with the FEPC order that demanded that they desist in practising discrimination against Negroes by not employing and upgrading them to the position of platform men, the LARY announced early this week they would begin a school to train prospective car operators and platform men on August 30.

At the FEPC hearing, J. Stuart Neary, Railway counsel, and P. E. Harris, LARY president, reported that the company had in its employ many Negroes whom they considered qualified to be upgraded and that they would do so as soon as possible. These men will now get their chance.

Boys' Home Starts Drive to Renovate

The Boy's Home, 915 East 50th Street, Los Angeles celebrated its Fifth Anniversary last Sunday with a tea and linen shower given at the Home. Rev. Clayton D. Russell, Founder-Director of the Home announced on Monday that the support of this anniversary celebration was very spontaneous and that the linen supply has been replenished adequately for another year.

The Boy's Home was founded five years ago by Rev. Russell and the Trustees of People's Independent Church of Christ as a part-solution to the juvenile deliquency problems of the community.

The community is being urged to support this endeavor. Donations in any amount will be accepted at all times. Certain business men in the community are being asked to take the responsibility for one room in the home.

The boys of today are the men of tomorrow and it depends on us what we make them.

SGT. ALBERT WILLIAMS and family (above), a Spanish American War Veteran who retired as Color Sergeant of the 24th Infantry in 1903. Sgt. Williams returned to the Philippine Islands following his discharge from the Army, married a native Islander, and made his home there.

His son, Mr. Alfred Williams of this city, together with his brother, Roland, lived in the Philippines with his father until 1905. At that time Mr. Alfred Williams joined the U. S. Army from which he retired in 1932. He lived in Louisville, Ky., for 10 years, and has been a resident of Los Angeles at 2033 E. 120th street for the past two years.

Mr. Alfred Williams states that it is possible that his father, Sgt. Williams, is now interned in a concentration camp since the capture of the Philippines by Japan. However, friends in this country, solicitous of his safety, hope for the best.

Shriners Hold Convention In Indianapolis, Indiana

By James A. Jackson

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—The 44th annual Imperial Council of the Ancient, Egyptian Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine entered its first business session recently at Masonic Temple, 351 Indiana Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. Persian Temple No. 46 was host to the convention.

At the conclusion of his annual address, Raymond E. Jackson of Buffalo, N. Y., who is the Imperial Potentate, was re-elected to head the Shriners for a term of three years.

The theme of the conclave was established by his annual address. He said, in part, "As Shriners, we must be in position to execute intelligently. We must also be in position to receive and properly use all new privileges and openings in industry, which have been recently, but reluctantly, given to us. We must likewise employ the fruits gained thereby to a good use."

Los Angeles was well represented at the convention.

JOE OLIVER, SR.—One of Los Angeles' outstanding and most prominent community, civic and fraternal leaders, returned to the city last Monday. He headed the largest delegation ever to represent Los Angeles at a Shrine convention. Besides being the superintendent of a branch post office he is the only Mason in the West ever to hold an executive position in Shrinedom, to which position he was unanimously re-elected for three years by suspension of the rules. Wm. Tatum, Potentate of the local, also returned with Mr. Oliver. Others who went East to Indianapolis to the convention were Mrs. Alberta Parker, Illustrious Commandress, J. W. Burton, Captain of Patrols, and Clarence Armour and are still visiting other cities. Next year's convention will be held in Philadelphia.

SHRINER—Noble Frank B. Stout, above, Illustrious Potentate of Persian Temple, was one of the Masters of Ceremonies at the recent Shrine Convention in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Anna T. Lane, L. A. Resident For 54 Years, Succumbs

Last rites for Mrs. Anna T. Lane, pioneer resident of Los Angeles, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Ward of 748 East 54th street, on August 15, were held in the Ivory Chapel of the People's Funeral Home last Friday with the Rev. Harry J. White officiating. Interment followed in Evergreen.

A native of Warrenton, N. C., Mrs. Lane had lived in Los Angeles for the past 54 years. Besides Mrs. Ward, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Mildred Bruce of Sacramento; a son, Joseph Lane, who has conducted an auto repair shop on Central avenue for several years; and five grandchildren. She was one of the earliest members of the First AME Church.

Cardenas Lauds Lagoon Committee

LOS ANGELES — General Lazaro Cardenas, Secretary of National Defense of Mexico and ex-president of Mexico, extended formal greetings and congratulations to the Sleepy Lagoon Defense Committee this week for its defense of the 17 Mexican-American boys convicted in Los Angeles in January 1943 and now serving sentences in San Quentin and Chino prisons.

War Worker Held For Murder of His Rival Lover

After a preliminary hearing filled with pathos and sensations, Elliot Kennard, 43-year-old war worker, was ordered held for murder by Municipal Judge Wilber Curtis, Tuesday.

According to witnesses, Kennard became suspicious of Nathan Wiley, who resided with Kennard at 1132 South Kingsley Drive, and suspected Wiley of going out with Kennard's purported wife, Leona Kennard.

HE CAME BACK

Kennard allegedly laid off from work August 22 and saw Wiley and Mrs. Kennard coming home about 3 o'clock in the morning locked arms. This so enraged Kennard that he engaged in a heated argument with Wiley and inflicted a knife wound that caused his death.

When Mrs. Kennard took the stand to give her vision of the stabbing Defense Attorney Walter L. Gordon Jr., objected to her testifying against her husband. It was then revealed that the woman was not married to Kennard, but passed as his wife. After being allowed to testify she said they were never never married.

ANOTHER HUSBAND

On cross-examination Attorney Gordon attempted to show that they had become husband and wife under the Oklahoma common-law. This was blocked when the woman admitted that she had a husband living in San Francisco. Defense counsel drew an admission from Dr. Frank Webb that a chemical analysis of the deceased's blood showed it contained .20 alcohol, which would indicate that Wiley was intoxicated.

Gordon declined to reveal what Kennard's defense would be, but it is believed that he will rely upon self-defense.

Instantly Killed In Collision With Truck

William Warren, 35, of 2104 Hooper avenue, was instantly killed early in the morning of August 13 when the car he was driving collided with a milk truck on Highway No. 99, two miles north of Kingsbury in Fresno County. He suffered a fractured skull and crushed chest. Another occupant of the car was seriously injured.

The funeral was held on August 18 in the Ivory Chapel of the People's Funeral Home with the Rev. P. M. Marshall officiating. Burial was in Lincoln Memorial Park.

His survivors include his mother, Mrs. Viola Wiley of 1530 East 52nd street; two brothers, and a sister of Los Angeles.

Tribune Publisher Is Assessed $2375 For Stolen Liquor

Hijacked liquor, 206 cases of it, will cost Wallace Wardell, former doorman at the Town House, $8,638.71. The liquor which was stolen by Wardell last November was the object of a wide search and endless speculation and rumors. One report named Lucius Lomax Jr., publisher of the Los Angeles Tribune, as the recipient of some of the liquor, but Lomax stoutly denied any knowledge of it.

Early this week, Superior Judge Henry M. Willis handed down a judgment against wardell, his former wife, Jean Leonard Wardell, Willie Smith, Walter Lee Holland and Maurice P. Fleming. Lomax, who was charged with the conversion of 50 cases of the highjacked liquor, was ordered to pay $2375 to satisfy the judgment handed down against him.

The judgment against Lomax comes as a surprise since his respected position in the community and his denial last fall disassociated him, in the minds of most persons, from any connection with the highjacking.

In Memory of a Friend

"Little Bo" Blackman died last week. Now there was a grand guy. Little Bo Blackman? Well, he wasn't famous. He wasn't important enuogh to make the columns. Some of you probably never heard of him. But he was my friend, and definitely a definition of the word "gentleman." On Central avenue he was well known. Outside of that district, few knew him. He was "typical" Central. Knew all the answers. Fastidiously neat in appearance. Was always flushed with money. And the only thing that wasn't "Central" about him, is that he never took advantage of, or doublecrossed a friend. When he'd pat you on the back, it was to wish you luck. Not to soften a spot to put the knife. His gay sense of humor made him welcomed wherever he went. Those who knew him loved him. He was loved by everybody because he loved everybody. It's hard to believe that his gay, laughing voice has been stilled forver. God will take care of "Little Bo," because Little Bo was a right guy. When news of Jay Gould's death made the rounds, all the bars, barbershops, poolrooms, cafes, etc. in the Negro sector of San Francisco closed its doors for twenty-four hours in memory of the grand old man of the sports. That probably won't happen on Central. (Central Avenueers being too hard hearted), but there'll be a tear in the eye of every acquaintant of all who knew "Little Bo," cause Little Bo was loved by all. Little Bo is dead . . . gone forever . . . and as one sportsman on Central said: "If there is a God in heaven, may He have mercy on his soul!"

No Tax, No Cover, No Admission, Is Alabam Policy

Harlan Leonard And a Star Revue Are Featured

Already a proven success, the New Club Alabam bids fair to become one of the most popular night spots in the Los Angeles area. Having inaugurated a new policy of no cover charge, and no tax, Curtis Mosby has restored all of the pleasure in night-clubbing. Always considered to have the finest in entertainment and music, the New Club Alabam presents a brilliant collection of stars for a fast-moving evening of gay entertainment.

Harlan Leonard

Highlighted by Harlan Leonard's top-notch music makers, the Revue which is presented three times nightly boasts such headliners as Marion Abernathy, the 3 Cuban Diamonds and the 2 Cork Dancers.

The Club Alabam has been a most on the list of the smart clientele for years. With the new policy and the calibre of entertainment which Mosby has already shown he intends to present, the future for the patrons of this favored spot looks bright indeed.

One of the appealing features of the Club Alabam is the soft, inviting atmosphere of its interior. Tastefully decorated, it still does not sacrifice charm in order to achieve originality.

Visit the New Club Alabam and join the ranks of those who are telling their friends that Curtis Mosby has again scooped the town in bringing a new policy and the best entertainment to Central Avenue.

White Way Wants Musical Comedy From Pen of Negro Writer

NEW YORK—Broadway is still waiting for that modern musical comedy from the typewriter of a Negro playwright. Aside from several ambitious but ill-fated ventures of the talented Donald Heywood, Negro playwrights haven't been represented at all in this highly lucrative side of show business—writing musical comedy. On the other hand, "Carmen Jones", "Cabin in the Sky" and others are proof that Broadway will accept all-Negro casts and that Broadway will support such ventures.

But for some strange reason, little or nothing has come up in the line of modern musical comedy from Negroes. With the door wide open, there is no excuse. There are enough Negro songwriters, composers of current hit tunes, and enough competent play craftsmen to do the job if they ever decide to do so. The Shuberts, Todd, John Golden, and many others are constantly on the lookout for such talent. What they want is the script that has something in it.

It doesn't demand razors, watermelons, numbers, bankers, crap shooters and mammies. Broadway has been educated. I'm not saying Broadway won't go to see a play or a musical featuring dice rollers, razor wielders, cotton pickers and mammies, but I think Broadway would lift its eyebrow if it knew such a play was written by a Negro.

Snookum Russell's Ork Is Goovy—It Says Here

Comic Timmie Rogers once cracked, "The most wonderful thing about Snookum Russell's music is the invention of that little gadget that makes it possible for you to turn off your radio during one of his broadcasts!"

Well, a communique that came in over the ticker tape last night from Fort Dodge, Iowa, says "Snookum Russell and his famous band are solidly sending the hepcats and hepchicks with their groovy music. Recently closed a successful engagement at the famed Chicago Grand Terrace night club, the popular Russell will return for a repeat engagement (by popular demand) to the Terrace the first four weeks in October."

That's the report we got from Snookum's press agent, and press agents never tell a lie.

Well, hardly ever.

Jay Jots Jivings On Jovial Jaunt to "Boom Town" Elsinore

By J. T. GIPSON
Theatrical Editor

"Elsinore? It's the greatest up-and-coming resort in the state!" That is the statement made by the Eagle's theatrical editor upon his return from a vacation jaunt to Lake Elsinore.

As a summer resort it has no peer. There you have the convenience of the beautiful lake where swimming is a "must" on every vacationer's list of interesting things to do. Hospitality rules supreme among the more than three hundred Negroes there. It's just one big happy family. There is a feeling of warmth in the atmosphere, and we don't mean the weather—which gets awfully hot at times. Everypne goes daily about his way nodding and speaking to acquaintances. The residents of Lake Elsinore really make you feel as though they enjoy your presence.

While there we spent an enjoyable time at the LaBonita courts (owned by two swelligent people named Anderson) as guest of confrere Halley Harding. The fact that boxer John Thomas disturbed our slumber every half-hour trying to imitate Frank Sinatra in no way affected our ear drums, or caused us to wish we were back in the Eagle office trying to get out copy on an 1890 Portable.

Seemingly everybody and his second cousin picked the same day as I to travel. The highway was congested with traffic, all heading in one direction—Lake Elsinore.

"Mayor" George Moore, who is one of the nicer guys around today) deserves a mention in this communique. And the fact that he invited us to a big platter of home-cooked Southern Fried Chicken at his home doesn't have anything to do with his getting said mention. He's just a nice guy!

Yes, everyone we met in Elsinore comes under the category of "nice guy." The friendliness of the people there is why we like Lake Elsinore.

To me, it's "Heaven, U.S.A!"

The Charioteers Win Fame Staying 'Home'

It is not unusual that THE CHARIOTEERS, one of the nation's finest vocal quartets, should also be one of the most popular. But it is an oddity that they have achieved this distinction confined, more or less, to just doing radio work from Hollywood. Ordinarily a quartet, or any other entertainer for that matter, will travel across the country making personal appearances in theatres, hotels, night clubs, etc., to win fame—but the Charioteers apparently have reversed the formula to win national popularity by staying "home."

Former Cab Calloway Ace Writes Concerto

NEW YORK—Cozy Cole, the dynamic drum star, is writing a new drum concerto, as yet untitled, which he intends to record on the Savoy label at an early date. Cozy was the composer of "Crescendo in Drums", "Paradiddle" and "Ratamaque", which he put on wax some years ago when he was a member of Cab Calloway's band.

The ace hide-beater's most recent success is his own "Nice And Cozy", just released by Savoy, which features the inimitable Cole drumnastics. The Savoy firm will soon release "Stompin' At The Savoy" by the Cozy Cole All-Stars, in which Cozy presents a spectacular new drum technique, backed by the mighty tenor sax of Coleman Hawkins.

Nite-Club Editor Spending Vacation At Lake Elsinore

Jay T. Gipson, the angel city's most widely read columnists, whose breezy "Candid Comments" appear in these pages, is about to enjoy a much-needed vacation. Forever complaining (ed's note: In a joshing manner, of course) of being overworked and underpaid-and-fed, the guys and gals on the Eagle staff decided to do something about it. As a result, they are sending their pet pin-up boy off on a nice long vacation.

"To the South Pacific," or someplace just as distant, so we can have peace and quiet around the joynt" shouts city editor John M. Lee, who was reminded by Sports Editor Edward Burbridge to "SHADDUP" with the latter realizing that the Gip's absence would result in more work for Mr. B. and Mr. Lee, since the Gip is nearly always on hand each and every week to lend a hand in getting out the paper—and may the Loord forgive me for this barefaced lie.

Anyway, the likeable little guy who knows all the answers and most of the questions about Central Avenue, will vacation visit in beautiful Lake Elsinore for two weeks.

He will write his column there. Okay, we call it a vacation, you can call it whatever you like!

"Porgy and Bess" Scheduled At Philharmonic Sept. 11-30

Sol Hurok of New York and L. E. Behymer, noted California impressario, announced a three weeks' performance of George Gershwin and Du Bose Heyward's highly successful American folk-opera, "Porgy and Bess," coming to the Philharmonic Auditorium, Monday evening, September 11 until September 30, including special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The company comes directly here from its fifth triumphant engagement on Broadway, New York. The following artists are being featured: Etta Moten, who plays Bess, William Franklin, a sensational new Porgy; Avon Long; Edward Matthews; William Coleman; the Eva Jessye Choir and others. Alexander Smallens is conducting the Symphonic Orchestra.

In 1933 this durable plot of the tragic romance of Porgy the goat man for the attractive but fickle Bess caught the fancy of George Gershwin, fresh from his triumps in the musical comedy field ("Of Thee I Sing") and the concert world ("Rhapsody in Blue").

In this saga of Catfish Row, Charleston, S. C., Gershwin saw the ideal American Folk-Opera. Under his magic touch it was set to music and emerged as "Porgy and Bess" with lyrics by Heyward and Ira Gershwin.

The musical gems of "Porgy and Bess" have become household favorites across the country. "I Got Plenty O' Nutting," "Bess, You Is My Woman Now," "It Ain't Necessarily So," "A Woman Is a Sometime Thing," are a few of the many numbers.

Mail orders and ticket reservations are being received now at the Philharmonic Auditorium Box Office, the So. Cal. Music Co. Ticket Office at 737 So. Hill Street, TU 1144 and all Mutual Ticket Offices in Southern California.

Wartime burden of freight traffic has effected changes in the loads passing over California's highways.

BIG MAGIC STAGE SHOW NOW AT LINCOLN

The American Legion held sway here last week during its State Confab. The writer who is on the committee of Homes and Farms for the Veterans attended a session of that vitally important committee. First in importance in business was getting across the story of proposition one, which will be on the November ballot. In order for the veterans to be able to get loans of $5,000 for homes or $7,500 for a farm, this proposition has to meet the approval of the public. Passage of Proposition one does not mean an increase in taxes. The state has the money. All it needs is your (X) mark.

Also, it was not foreseen, that many soldiers would be returning home prior to the war's end. The War Worker has been given priority over the soldier all down the line. We felt that the War Worker's job was to get material to the soldier. The soldier does the fighting. But if for any reason he is returned to civilian status, he must take a back seat, when it comes to Housing.

The War Worker can rent a house. A soldier cannot unless he is in War Work. Priorities are given to build brand new homes or projects for the War Worker. But the heroes of this War cannot get a priority to build. It seems to me that a little pampering of the discharged soldier is in order. Let's not make him feel that he has returned to an unappreciative state. The discharged soldier offered to give his life at fifty buck a month. The War Worker, it is true, is doing a grand job. But so are the soldiers, sailors and marines. Something should be done for them, regardless of whether they are in War Jobs. Materials should be let for them to build new homes, too. Think it over.

When a deputy sheriff comes around with some tickets to the Sheriff's Relief Show to be held at the Shrine Auditorium, Oct. 4th to October 9th inclusive. Buy a flock from him. You will see a swell Abbott and Costello Show and be aiding a worthy cause.

Man About Town . . . Earl Warren is the Governor of California. Earl Warren is a horn tooter with Count Basie.

Speaking of Count Basie his show was pretty good at the Orpheum. They held him two weeks. So he must be good. We guess the buck-twenty was to keep the hoodlums out. Thelma Carpenter sent us with "Do Nothing Until You Hear From Me."

Frank "Mule" Evans finaly was called for service. They let him out after one month and three days. Arthur Wilson, one of the better cops, has been stationed at First and San Pedro streets. His partner is the dashing Jarvis Reed. We call him "Youngblood" Reed.

Hall of Justice . . . Something new has been added. Two very charming young ladies have been added to the elevator staff of the Hall of Justice. Bob Hardon, supt., and Edward Sheppard as well as Floyd A. Watson for selecting the two lovely little ladies, Misses Mildred Carr and Estelle Barnett.

We think it was swell of those persons responsible for the fete in honor of Jimmie Noone at the Trocadero two Sundays ago. The late Jimmie Noone's tune "Sweet Lorraine" will live forever.

Mrs. Spencer Williams, the dime store heiress and wife of the film producer, visiting her brother, chain ten store owner, here, will be a one woman Chamber of Commerce for Southern California. She would like to live in the Sunshine State.

Freddie Gordon, the dapper little guy who danced around the world with his partner, Timmie, has put aside his dancing shoes. He is the husband of the gorgeous Olivette Miller, harpist. But Freddie is finished with the stage. He is a student at a barber college.

Dick Barrows, the hefty singer, who can send you with his repertaire of songs, should be in Frisco when you read this. He did a set in Reno. He dropped a card to the column.

William Franklin will play Porgy to the great Etta Moten's "Bess in the opera," Porgy and Bess" when it comes to the Philharmonic for a three week run, Sept. 11. Franklin is a real Horatio Alger guy.

He and I attended the same grammar school, Moseley, in Chicago. Was in the same classes. We were in the glee club. He could sing, "Excelsior" louder than the rest. In high school he took up the trombone. So upon leaving school he joined an orchestra. Later he did a session with Earl Hines. Then he laid his horn down and went in for opera. Now Billy Franklin is at the top in big time. Playing in a big time house, The Philharmonic, and with Etta Moten as his leading lady. Boy, that is success with a capital "S."

This is Earl J. Morris, Biscailuz little pistol toting law man, who gets his mail at 5013 Wall Street, L.A. 11 and answers to the phone number Adams 7010.

Joe Harris Says—

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—After hour nitelife particularly in this district hasn't exactly grown into "manhood" . . . In fact . . . it hasn't learned to walk yet! There are no "pin-up" girls here. It seems most of them have been "pinned-down" too long. Berkeley, Frisco's neighboring village, has a secret weapon. And that weapon is to "keep all of its lovely debs safely in Berkeley." (Too many A-W-O-L-V-E-S in in Frisco?) . . . Frisco is definitely the Windy City of the West. It's as cold as a gold-digger's heart in the month of August. It's a healthy place, tho—should be, it's so cold all the germs are froze! Glammer gal Shirley Dennis, of the "STAR TIME" show, cracked: "We came here for the winter, and we found it!"

California Theatre Best In Burg

The California Theatre-Cafe is a lovely place to spend an evening. It's the best in the burg. All it needs to hypo biz is better talent . . . Jay Gould's memory is lingering on. His fans are asking me to "take over." . . . Things I never knew till now: There are only three Negro Policemen in the Fillmore (ala Central) section of the city: Walter Threadgille, Harry H. Mallett and William Glenn . . Bill Crain, ex-angel city columnist and newsman is one of Frisco's many Negro trolley motormen, which reminds me that these Negro motormen, motorettes, conductors and conductorettes are making a fine record and look very snappy in their uniforms. (See, LARY!) . . . And up here, Jan Savitt's arrangement of POINCIANA is the next best thing to Benny Carter's. But it's still the music of Saunders King that is considered "tops" in this neck of the woods . . . Stack Allen, the tonsorial artiste, breezed into town long enough for a coupla drinks (which I paid for) and a few hello's to friends . . . That guy J. T. Gipson (the poor man's Winchell) should see luscious Bonnie Adams, a Frisco filly, for a chick who DEFINITELY oughta be in pictures. With the Gip's "connections," she could make it too! She's pretty as a little red hen under a cream-colored wagon! . . . The most attractive little bundle of personality to hit this town in moons, is an nagel city cutie named Armalona Pinkston. She was a recent visitor here, and her "big moment" at the moment is a guy named . . . (Ed's note: Name omitted by Eagle's Theatrical editor, 'cause he didn't believe it! ! ! ! ! ! . . . Lester Armstrong has the fave afterhour nitery. It jumps, jack! . . . Ford, Harris and Jones, those mad hoofers breezed into town for a week's engagement at the Warfield . . . And everybody up here wants to meet J. B. Brown (the "cool" playboy Gip's always writing about). The chicks up here think he's another Clark Gable. Ha! Ha! I told 'em it was just press agent stuff—he aint pretty at all! . . . Pargy and Bess will do "sell-out" biz here. It opens at the Opera House here the 21ts . . . And in case you think Lucky Millinder isn't serious, it's costing him $20,000.00 to get a divorce so he can make Judy Carol Lucky Millinder number two . . . Ex-Editor Skippy Buford is in-estate. So, until next time . . . Besame Mucho (whatever that means).

Lil Randolph's Stand-in Lands Singing Spot at Top Night Spot

Branching out from a star's stand-on to a leading role as featured singer in a nightclub within the space of a year, is what has happened to Pal Jackson, one of the most promising of the year's crop of new singing prospects. A radio actress of no mean ability, having appeared in a series of radio shows with the noted Jean Hersholt, the honey-voiced Pal also served as stand-in to the movie actress Lillian Randolph.

Not being content with just a stand-in job, she auditioned for, and got a job singing at a cozy club in Long Beach known simply as the Dude Ranch. There with Ernie Williams and a star-studded musical combo, the personable Pal is thrilling the crowds with her own inimitable style of toying with a ballad.

We've heard her toy with a ballad, and take it from an overworked underpaid-and-fed newsboy, her stand-in days are over.

She chirps pretty enough to hold her own with any of the so-called "greats" in the chanteuse kingdom. In fact, she is the brightest of the new singing stars to appear on the nightclub circuit in many a moon.

Committee for Unity Protests Disney's "Uncle Remus" Cartoon

The Committee for Unity in Motion Pictures, which recently gave awards to Bette Davis, Lena Horne, and to several of the motion picture studios for the outstanding contribution made to interracial goodwill, is launching a protest to ban the filming of "Uncle Remus," by the Walt Disney Studios.

The committee is protesting the filming of this picture on the grounds that it is another one of those stories which tends to degrade the Negro and show him in an uncomplimentary light. From a statement made by Caleb Peterson, Jr., young actor and singer and chairman of the Committee for Unity in Motion Pictures, the committee is in the process of incorporating for the purpose of integrating the Negro into every motion picture which depicts American life, so that the Negro is shown as part and parcel of this country.

UNREADABLE

The dialect for Uncle Remus could not even be read by many of the actors who saw the script. "Motion pictures can do more to unite this country than any source of propaganda that I know of," states Peterson. "Motion pictures showing American life are made every day, but when something comes up for a Negro to "Uncle Tom," the Negro is suddenly placed in the picture in the kind of role so many white people seem to think is made for him."

The committee is not against such roles as those of maid, butler, comedians, etc., but they desire to see a variety of roles portrayed by Negroes such as skilled workmen in defense plants, bus and trolley car operators, college students, general group scenes such as persons at meetings, baseball game, theatres, and all scenes in which general American life is depicted.

MUCH SUPPORT

The committee is getting support from many outstanding individuals of all races and creeds to fight anything that is detrimental to the unity of American life. In a few weeks, an announcement will be forthcoming from the committee in regard to its statement of policy and the names of the National Board of Directors.

Trumpet Tootin' "Tiny" Davis Rejoins Sweethearts

Hailed by Metronone magazine as "an entertainer who has everything it takes to become a success," Trumpet tootin' Tiny Davis, who stopped all the shows with her torrid trumpeting at the club Plantation with the Jimmie Lunceford band, has re-joined the International Sweethearts of Rhythm all-girl orchestra. A hep and happy hefty honey who can do more with a Trumpet than a monkey can with a cage o'coconuts, the likeable "Tiny," who by far has more personality and showmanship than anyone we've seen in this neck of the woods in ages, will feel right at home returning to this grand al-gal ork. Having played with the band (previously before cutting out on her own as a single) for two years, the trumpeterrific Tiny is more at home with the "Sweethearts" than with any other band she has played with since branching out as an act. And she has played with the best of them.

TRUMPET TOOTIN' TERRIFIC

You have really never heard a Trumpet played before until you've heard Tiny Davis toy with one. Oh sure, there's Louis Armstrong; Harry James, Roy Eldrige and others, but who's talking about those guys? We're referring to feme horn-tooters, of which Tiny tops them all. And then too, if you wanna make something out of it, she won't have to take a back seat from those gents of jive! She toots enough Trumpet to hold her own with the best of them, and the best of them won't even take their horns out of their cases when Trumpet tootin' Tiny is around.

To revert to the vernacular of sling lingo, she plays more Trumpet on acident than most Trumpeters play on purpose!

Shepp's Playhouse Soon To Open Here

With final details of decoration just about ironed out at Shepp's Playhouse, beautiful new night club and cocktail lounge soon to open at 1st and Los Angeles streets, Gordon H. Sheppard, owner has been able to concentrate on talent that will be in keeping with this swanky show place.

Mr. Sheppard has been successful in engaging Leonard Reed, popular and well known showman as master of ceremonies and producer of the show.

Mr. Reed needs no introduction to the theatre world, as he has a long record of achievements in this field from coast to coast. He started his career in the east several years ago which included a two-year engagement at the N. Y. Cotton Club in 1938. From there he went to the Grand Terrace in Chicago, the Planation in St. Louis and the Club Zombie in Detroit.

Coming to California in 1943 Leonard Reed was a headliner in the famous show, Sweet 'n Hot, in which he made a tremendous hit with local theatre fans.

Mr. Sheppard is indeed fortunate to engage such a stellar artist as producer and M. C. of the floor show which will include some of the finest performers on the coast.

Shepp's Playhouse will be ready to open early in September, so keep a sharp eye for the announcement in the local papers as this will be an affair you will not want to miss.

The Playhouse, located in the heart of Bronzeville and easily accessible to both Hollywood and the city proper, is a threat to become the Sepia entertainment captial of Los Angeles.

DISTINGUISHED GUEST

STD 2/C James H. Beason, who receives the Purple Heart on Friday of this week at the Long Beach Naval Hospital, was guest of honor at the Victory Ball held on Saturday, August 19th. Mr. Beason received his wounds in action during a naval engagement off the coast of New Caledonia.

SUNDAY PROGRAM

So enjoyable was the performance of Maud Tucker some weeks ago on the Sunday Twilight Hour Program that the servicemen requested a return engagement which takes place on Sunday, August 27th at 4:30 p.m. Mrs. Tucker will be supported on the program by a speaker and several musical artists. Mrs. Chester Jones, Mrs. Ernestine Wade and Mrs. Margaret Hairston (all members of the Hall Johnson Choir) were guest artists on the program last Sunday afternoon. The servicemen who appeared on on the program were: Pfc. Robert Adams, 3180 QM. Co. and Stm. 1/c Le Roy Farris.

NOVELTY DANCES

Both the Wednesday and Saturday night dances this week will feature unusual novelty ideas and fun mixers. Augmenting the program on Wednesday night will be vocal numbers by Miss Marjorie Day (one of the finest young voices in the city) and Mr. Ulyses Ware, young tenor.

The boys request a repetition soon of the Mexican Bazar which was held last Friday night. Prize winners of the various events were: S 1/c Joseph Smith, Bob Walker, recently discharged veteran, and Miss Mary Louise Hays, a Junior Hostess Guest.

Members of the talent group on the floor show Saturday night were: Duke Johnson, M.C., 3180 QM. Co., Bob Walker and Le Roy Farris.

"Double Crossed" Killer Gets Life

Escaping a life sentence in the State prison, by a hairsbreadth, Leonard Thomas, erstwhile defense worker of 1033 E. 57th St., was allowed to plead guilty to a lesser offense last Friday morning in Judge Walter S. Gates' Court, and after a fervent plea by his attorney Curtis C. Taylor, was released on a charge of manslaughter.

Thomas who was charged with the murder of Palzora Ballard, his asserted girl friend, was arrested on May 21, after he had slashed her across the throat with a knife and severed her jugular vein at 52nd St. and Central Ave. When arrested, he told police, according to the testimony, that he could give no reason for the cold blooded murder other than to say that the dead woman had "double crossed" him.

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

GIVE THE BOYS A BREAK!—Very often this scribe has had the unwanted pleasure of watching the fickleness of fight fans. There are several ways in which it is manifested. We'll take a young fighter who has courage but little fighting ability. If he is hit often and hard the fans will yell, "Kill him!" They can't grasp the fact that the kid is out there displaying raw courage. If this same boy lands a lucky punch and gets the upper hand the same fans will immediately swing to his side and beg him to kill the other guy. It is perfectly okay to yell your head off at a boxing match but your humble servant likes to see courage as well as fistic prowness applauded. We've seen some of the finest boxers and hardest hitters in the game show a streak of yellow a mile wide when the going became tough. These are the guys that should be booed loud and long. In the first place the principal requisite in a professional career of boxing is courage. If you've got it you've got a great chance of getting somewhere in the game. If you haven't, stay out of the ring, you have no business there because you'll never make a success out of it. I have all sorts of hope for the youngsters who enter the game armed with two important things, two good fists and courage. It is true that even a lot of the lads who have courage and two good hands may have a weak chin or tummy and not possess the ability to take it. Those are the ones that need your encouragement, not your booes, for there are many times that you'll see them go down two or three times in a fight and manage to rise again and beat the daylights out of their opponents. It must be a pretty low feeling for a fighter to be out there giving his all for the benefit of the fans pleasure to hear himself roundly booed because his chin isn't constructed like the Rock of Gibraltar. Somehow most fight fans discredit the times a game fighter come up from the canvas to give a good account of himself. They seem to think that it is a crowning disgrace whenever a fighter is knocked off his feet. It isn't the times that he is knocked down that counts but the times he comes up still fighting. Remember our own Joe Louis was knocked out by Max Schmeling but did that make him give up- Heck no! He came back in a return fight and almost committed murder on the German's body. Remember that the next time you boo a fighter.

Vera Cruz Nods Pee Wee Lewis

The record of Pee Wee Lewis for losses remained unbroken Monday night at the Ocean Park Arena when he dropped a 10-rund decision to Kid Vera Cruz, 123, who was making his Pacific Coast debut in the ring.

Tito Despaign, 140, stopped Jerry Harmon, 137, in the third round of the semi-windup. Pee Wee Swingler, 122, kayoed Nino Espensoa, 123, in three rounds, George Rooney, 135, nodded Louis Salas, 133,

Virginian Puts Local Boy Down for No Count In 6th

By Eddie Burbridge

Fitzy Fitzpatrick, 165 pound clouter from West Virginia, won a unanimous ten-round decision over Watson Jones, 163, at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night before 10,000 wild fans, but the visiting battler had to go all out to beat Jones. In previous fights here, four of them, Fitzpatrick won all by one round kayoes, but he had to go the full distance of ten heats to defeat the local youth.

The fight was fast and furious for five rounds but started slacking up when Jones apparently lost all of his fire after the fifth. Where he had been punching hard in the early rounds he started throwing paper punches from round five on. Had he elected to punch it out with Fitzy he would have probably won by a technical kayo because he had one of his opponent's eyes cut and bleeding midway during the fight. In the sixth Fitzy put Jones down for no count with a left hook to the jaw but Watson came up like a tiger and waded into Fitzpatrick with both fists to earn the round. In the seventh Jones was staggered halfway across the ring by a hard left hook to be bounced off by the ropes.

The early rounds found Jones giving as much as he took and this writer can't figure how writers on the dailies gave him only one round. He had a clear margin in four rounds due to the use of a left jab which piled up points for him while Fitzy was missing with wild rights.

In the semi-windup Eli Galindo, 124, nodded Sonny Sonny Gomez, 124½, in 6 rounds. In the four round prelims; Nolan Sharp, 182, stopped Otto Thomas, 191, in the second, Jimmy Williams, 149, scored a two-round TKO over Al Fernandez, 150, Jack Walls, 143, decisioned Chick Laws, 137, and Willie Bowen, 137, beat Joey Savidan, 137.

ORTIS VS. BOLANOS

Tuesday night, August 29, the world's bantamweight champion, Manuel Ortiz, will meet Enrique Bolanos, Mexican prospect, in a 10-round overweight match. Major Jones, sensational newcomer, the protege of Norman Saunders, will also be seen. A capacity house is expected.

BOXING BRIEFS

HARTFORD, Conn. — Chalky Wright of Los Angeles has been offered a 15-round title bout with featherweight champion Willie Pep of Hartford by the Hartford Boxing Club, the date being Sept. 19.

ARCHIE MOORE WINS

SAN DIEGO.— Archie Moore, 170, San Diego, scored a knockout over Jimmy Hayden, 165, of New Yor, in the fifth round of the main event at Federal Athletic Club last Friday night.

CROWD PLEASER—Little Joe Miller, above, who hails from way down in New Orleans, Louisiana, may not have an impressive list of victories as a boxer on the West Coast but he is definitely a crowd pleaser and always turns in a good performance.

Major Jones Shows Class In Scoring TKO Victory

In the main event of ten-rounds at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night, Luis Castillo of Mexico City, weighing 118½, nodded Tony Olivera, 121, but stealing the show was the up and coming Major Jones, lightweight protege of Norman Saunders, who serving as a substitute, scored a technical knockout over Jimmy Reynolds, 129. Jones scaled 131.

A classy preformer, Jones is the 1944 Golden Gloves champ in the featherweight and lightweight divisions. He hails from Kansas City. In his first professional fight here at the Olympic two weeks ago Major won a decesion over Torrito Ramos, a tough customer. The bout last Friday was his second pro effort. Saunders is having trouble securing fights for the lad as practically all the fighters in his weight are sidestepping the dynamic little southpaw.

Charles Kelson, ace trainer, conditioned Jones while Saunders was in San Francisco grooming Hank Armstrong for Willie Joyce.

Oglesby, Hudson Meet at Hollywood

Matt Oglesby, who defeated Eddie Hudson recently, has been training hard with his manager Tommy O'Brien, former fighter of note, for the return match Friday night at Hollywood Legion Stadium. A large crowd is expected to pack the Film Colony arena tomorrow night when Hudson and Oglesby tangle again over the ten-round route in the main event.

BASEBALL NOTES

While 50,000 fans shrelked their approval at the recent East-West baseball classic, W. A. "Gus" Greenlee, organizer of the Negro National League, founder of the East-West game and owner of the Pittsburgh Crawfords, launched a raid on the Chicago American Giants and signed four of their players on the playing field, virtually speaking.

"Mighty" McKinnis, on the mound in the seventh for the All-Stars from the West, not only thrilled the fans when he worked himself out of a spot and nipped four hits and a walk to allow only two runs . . . but also worked his way to the Crawfords . . . for hardly had he reached the dugout than he agreed to become the property of the Crawfords.

Lloyd Davenport, brilliant outfielder and pitcher also affixed his name to a contract following the game.

The others acquired at the historic Chicago meeting were Art Pennington, promising infielder, and the veteran, Robert Smith, catcher.

Kenny Washington to Participate In Forward Pass Contest Friday

The FIRST ANNUAL HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION FOOTBALL FORWARD PASS CONTEST, an invitation event, will be staged as a half-time feature of the ARMY CHARITIES FOOTBALL GAME, bringing together the Washington Redskins of the National Professional Football League and the March Field Army Air Force All-Stars, at the Los Angeles Coliseum on Friday evening.

Five of the nation's foremost long-distance passers—Indian Jack Jacobs of the March Field football team; Corp. Bill Jost of the U. S. Marines, one of the creators of Austus Football, which has proven such a popular game for American Servicemen who have been stationed in Australia, Jim Hardy, of University of Southern California, hero of the last Rose Bowl game; Kenny Washington, famous all-time UCLA back; and Bob Waterfield, of UCLA—have been invited to compete in the Helms Athletic Foundation Football Forward Pass classic, for the Paul H. Helms trophy.

The contest will be for distance only, and should present some of the longest forwarding passing ever seen in this district. Kenny Washington, former UCLA great, who is known far and wide for his forward pass achievements, will long be remembered for his Herculean 60-yard pass in the Bruin USC game in 1937. Kenny will be a leading contender to capture the Helms trophy. The real dark horse, however, may prove to be Corp. William Jost, of the United States Marines, who in an Austus Football game held in Australia last year, tossed the pigskin a distance of 76 yards.

Playground Notes

ROSS SNYDER—The outdoor facilities at this playground include tennis courts, a wading pool, horse shoe courts, two baseball diamonds, two softball diamonds, a football field, basketball court and other facilities . . . All boys or young men who are interested in football can contact Bush Manson by phoning AD. 9750 . . . The Ross Snyder vs. Manchester hardball game will be held on the Ross Snyder playground Saturday . . . The Lamp Club has sponsored several activities. The members hiked to the Avalon USO recently. They had a Weinie Roast on the playground Aug. 18 . . . A Pet Show will be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

COMPTON PLAYGROUND—Some of the outdoor facilities at this playground are courts for croquet, paddle tennis, basketball, volley ball and horseshoe pitching . . . The planned activities are progressing very well.

Jimmy McDaniels Scores TKO Over Young Aaron Perry

NEW YORK.—Jimmy McDaniels, 143½, of Los Angeles, svcored a technical knockout in the fourth round of the scheduled eight-round main event at Madison Square Garden last Friday night over young Aaron Perry, 18-year old Negro welterweight from Washington, D. C.

Referee Billy Cavanaugh stopped the bout at 2:51 of the fourth after Perry had hit the canvas three times during the vicious fight. McDaniels had gone down himself in the first round for a nine count but came back strong to knock the D.C. boy down in the third heat for a count of nine and twice again in the fourth.

Perry weighed 143½ also. 5847 persons attended with the gross gate being announced as $12,554.

AUGA CALIENTE, Mexico—Lucky W. W. (Tiny) Naylor who bought Floriban Beau just two hours before the feature race of the day saw his new acquisition win the Hinata Handicap at one mile and seventy yards in the good time of 1:44 1/5. Made four to five by Ring Master E. L. Caress after (Tiny) Naylor scratched Swell Chance, Jockey Lasswell took the son of Sun Hatter-Loswell to the front at the break and he was never headed, winning by a half length paying $5.20 for two. In the secondary feature of the day known as the Derby Trial at six furlongs was won by Six Trix who was made favorite in the mutuels by the public. Coming from off the past and catching Pass All midway in the stretch, won going away paying $4.60. This throws the Derby wide open as Pass All was the future book favorite for the Derby that will be run this Sunday. The dark horse in the race will be Court Law, also Weeson will get a big play as the Derby is at one-mile and one-sixteenth and Weeson is known for his stretch running. Value of the Derby is $3,000 added. Eight favorites out of the fourteen races greeted the judges to the delight of the form players. The Daily-Double paid $38.60 while the Quiniela with the winning combination of Last Sun-War Cadet paid $16. Something big is in the wind for Caliente as our popular director of personnel Armando E. Verdugo flew to Mexico City on business for the track. Generalissimo Eddie Nealis is again looking the picture of health after a brief but slight illness, his many friends think that he visited the fountain of youth as he flashes his million dollar smile. Johnnie Nealis, the popular brother of the Generalissimo's, and one of the best players on the lawn is undergoing a checkup in L. A. but from reports will be back on the blocks this Sunday. For the doping of Secret Flight on July 30th Trainer Goerge Reeves was suspended for sixty days and the purse given to Barging Lady who finished second on that date. A goodly number of Negro race fans were down from the Angel City to enjoy the sport of kings. Your writer entertained some of the elites in his private box. So until Sunday which is Derby Day, keep smiling, have a little fun, buy more bonds and write to the boys and girls over there.

"Hank" Armstrong Pounds Out Decision Over Willie Joyce

SAN FRANCISCO. — Making it two wins apiece, Henry Armstrong, former triple boxing titleholder, pounded out a 10-round decision over Willie Joyce of Gary, Ind., Monday night before 10,000 fans at Civic Auditorium.

Although he was the under-dog in the betting, Joyce being the favorite at 2-1, Armstrong left-handed his way to Referee Frankie Brown's verdict over the Indiana boxer. There were no knockdowns during the battle.

It was reported that Armstrong hurt his right hand fighting Slugger White a draw at Hollywood last month which must have been true because Hank used his left almost exclusively, letting his right hand hang at his side.

Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the Architectural Section of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 So. San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the office of said Architectural Section, upon the posting of a guaranteed deposit, or deposits, of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars for each set, which deposits will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contracts which will be awarded the successful bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION:

Foremen — All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than $1.00 per day more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices — May be employed in conformity with section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

CLASSIFICATION:	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$1.35
LABORERS
General or construction, including all laborers not herein separately classified, on all types of construction	.875
ROOFERS
Roofer	1.31¼
SHEET METAL WORKERS
Sheet Metal Worker	1.50

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

The overtime rule establishing the rates of wages for overtime and holiday work shall be in accordance with the following:

Where a single shift is worked, eight hours of continuous employment, except for lunch periods, shall constitute a day's work beginning on Monday and through Friday of each week. Where work is required in excess of eight hours in any one day or during the interval from 5:00 P.M. Friday and 7:00 A.M. Monday, or on holidays, such work shall be paid for at 1-½ times the basic rate of wages.

The rates of wages including overtime and holiday rates above specified are subject to the effect, if applicable thereto, of executive orders of the President of the United States, and to any modification thereof and to any and all lawful orders of the President or any other authorized Federal officer or agency, in so far as the same may be applicable to this contract. In case of any inconsistency, the rates fixed by any such applicable Federal Order, whether higher or lower, shall govern.

Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him, to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on forms to be obtained at said Architectural Section of the Board of Education; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond (issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Purchasing Agent of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, on or before 2:00 P.M. on the dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and/or waive any informality on a bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.00 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.00 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And see, if you should pay $12.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household goods—all brand new and still in out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express sincere appreciation to our many friends for the beautiful floral offerings, letters and cards of sympathy, at the passing of our mother, Mrs. Molly Lowe.

The family is particularly grateful to all.

OBITUARY OF
MRS. MOLLY LOWE

Mrs. Molly Lowe died on July 29, 1944, in San Diego, California. Funeral services were conducted Thursday, August 3, 1944, at 2:00 p.m., from Benham Brothers Mortuary, Elder Dennis Black of the Seventh Day Adventist Church officiated. Interment was at Mt. Hope Cemetery in San Diego.

For the past eighteen months, Mrs. Lowe has lived in San Diego with her son, Mr. Dennis V. Allen. Before that time, Mrs. Lowe resided in Los Angeles, since 1908. She was born in LaGrange, Georgia, January 8, 1854; was married to Walter H. Allen in 1875. To this union were born three children, two sons and a daughter. Thirteen years after the death of Mr. Allen, she married James E. Lowe of Macon, Georgia, and to this union two children, a son and a daughter, were born.

Mrs. Lowe was an exceptional person who fully appreciated "the good, the true and the beautiful in life." This was so well expressed in the ninety years of her life. Her devotion to God and her most loyal support of all the activities of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, of which she was a member for over thirty-five years, attest to this. She served in the capacity of an active deaconess for twenty-five years and due to failing health served as honorary deaconess for a number of years. Her sweet and untiring devotion will ever remain with us.

The home has lost a loving mother, the church a sincere worker, and the community a loyal citizen. Mrs. Lowe was a fine talkeress and accomplished in other ways well known to each and every one who knew her. She is survived by a daughter, Mayme Lowe Payne, and two sons, Dennis V. Allen of San Diego and Walter H. Allen of New York, N. Y.; a sister, Mrs. Emma Sherrell of Philadelphia, Pa., eight grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends, to mourn her demise.

PASSES

Mrs. Bettie Warr, a resident of the city of Los Angeles for thirty-seven years, died at 10:30 P. M. on August 22, 1944.

OH BLISSFUL LOVE!

Though Love be the greatest emotion in the human body in its elemental constituency, it perhaps is the most undefinable.

Although this thing called LOVE is nothing tangible, it reaches out and binds us in it's tenacious grasp. It is passionately emotional as well as intensely actional.

If LOVE is abused, it is courageous; slighted, it bestows favors; rejected, it is pitiful. It is like a radiant gem, giving out its splendor from whatever angle it is viewed.

Love precedes birth and outlasts death. It deifies humanity and humanizes deity. It is individually centered and colelctively extended. And if unconquered by its opposers it may stoop to demonstrate its power to conquer.

L.B.E.R.—Dear Prof. Herman: You have answered so many questions for others, I am hoping you will answer this one for me. Will my husband return home?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that your husband regrets having lost his temper and moved. He will return soon to explain, and ask your forgiveness.

LABOR SUPPORT

The labor movement on the other hand, together with the forces around Roosevelt in and out of the Democratic Party, are the only forces fighting side by side with the Negro people for all their aims and aspirations cherished by the Negro masses for centuries. And in this connection the C.I.O. has been a decisive force in the advancement of a real program for Negro rights. That is why it is hatred by all anti-Negro and anti-democratic elements in our country; and this is why the Negro people in their own interest, realizes that the only way to continue their forward advance is through the closest unity and cooperation with the whole labor movement, with all who are united behind President Roosevelt for the destruction of fascism and the establishment of a durable and prosperous peace.

The Southern poll-taxers and Northern anti-Roosevelt democrats and the majority of the Republican representatives in Congress are the main defenders of anti-Negro actions and anti-democratic disruption. It is they who are the main props of Hitler in this country. It is they that are looked to by the whole reactionary clique in America to dissemate their anti-unity program. It is these forces that the writer of the article in your paper finds himself inadvertently supporting, for he has no condemnation of them, despite the weasel-worded statement "that Negroes have their votes in their vest-pockets." This, of course, has been known for years by the Negro people and by many other sections in the country.

As for the Communists, we stand on our 25 year record as uncompromising fighters and allies of the Negro people. We are happy to gain the enmity of the enemies of the Negro people and the enemies of our country. I will say parenthetically, red-baiting like Negro-baiting, Jew-baiting, Catholic-baiting or labor-baiting is Hitler's secret weapon. Without this weapon Hitler could not have come to power in the first place—he could not have conquered all of Europe, including the German people themselves. Without this weapon, Japan could not have immobilized the United States until it was ready to stab it in the back at Pearl Harbor. And without this weapon, the pro-Hitler forces know that they cannot stop the march of progress and human liberation throughout the world.

The Communist movement in the United States stands on its record of uncompromising struggle in the interests of the Negro people. Our program today is "Jim-crow must go if America is to stand." This is a slogan put forward by our National President, Earl Browder, who has done more than any single individual in the United States to develop the respect and appreciation for the American Negro, and it did not take a war to bring him to this conclusion. This has been part and parcel of his whole life, as well as the life of the Communist movement.

Sincerely yours,
Pettis Perry, Chairman
Communist Political Association of L. A.

Mrs. R.F.T. — There are two things I want very much, how can I go about getting them?

Ans. Concentrating upon your question I find that you do not wish to go into debt to obtain these articles, and are wondering if there is any other way you might go about it. Of course you can place them in the Will Call department, and pay on them until you have them paid for, or, you might just make a special effort to save enough money in a certain period of time to pay for these things cash. You can do this, if you try.

L.L.—How may I get rid of these lumps?

Ans. It will be necessary to consult a skin specialist, and you should do this at once. He will diagnose your case and give you the proper remedy. Don't try to doctor without his advice.

PFC. H.W. — Is the information my wife gave me true? Crystal reveals the fact that your wife wrote you concerning the forth-coming baby, and you have been wondering if it is yours. Have no fears, your wife is telling you the truth. Have a little more faith and confidence in her, and your married life will be much happier.

et M.E.G.—Dear Sir: I am a constant reader of the CALIFORNIA EAGLE and find it very interesting. Perhaps you can tell me something according to my Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet. Will I ever find happiness?

Ans. Born under the sign of Sagittarius, Jupiter is your ruling Planet. You have executive power, decision, and self-control. Refined, spiritual nature, thoughtful and tender in domestic relations. You will find the happiness you so desire soon, thru matrimonial bliss. I also vision many other events in your life that would prove helpful to you. I suggest you write in for a private reply at your earliest convenience.

Miss L.P.—Which one will be my husband?

Ans. It appears to me that you have two friends, one of which you are in love with. This is the one you should have for your husband, for your Zodiacal sign designates him as your mate.

L.McC.—Will we get the house?

Ans. I vision your being successful in getting this house you have wanted for so long. I am sure you will be much happier there and more comfortable.

M.C.—What shall I do?

Ans. I suggest you stop worrying and let matters take their own course. Nothing serious will come of this situation, and the less said the better.

HELP FOR CRYING BABY

Nobody likes being kept awake all night long by a crying baby. But if your baby is fretful and restless and cries all the time because his little body is tortured and sore from smarting heat rash or diaper rash, Mexsana can help you help him.

You see Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, serves a double purpose; it relieves baby's misery—due to heat rash, prickly heat, diaper rash, itchy mosquito bites and other minor skin irritations—and thus it makes it possible for him to have restful sleep. For once his tortured skin is comforted—baby will rest quietly—which means the whole family can sleep.

Favorite With All the Family

No wonder then for over 40 years millions of mothers have used Mexsana to help prevent and ease the smart and burn of diaper rash. And they find it helpful for all the family too. For Mexsana will soothe chafe on grownups as well as baby's irritated skin. It really forms a clinging coat of protection to guard irritated skin from clothing likely to rub.

Mexsana even helps prevent itching, burning heat rash. Its special base helps absorb moisture on the skin, which is often the cause of heat rash. And Mexsana contains ingredients specialists often use to relieve these discomforts. So always keep Mexsana on hand as a first-aid for all the family. You'll be surprised at how little this remarkably soothing medicated powder costs. Save even more by buying one of the larger sizes. Don't put it off. Get big family package of Mexsana.

FOR SALE

Lovely six (6) room frame dwelling and a corner at 21st and Griffith Ave. near churches, stores, bank and carline. Just the place for conveniences. Immediate possession. Nice garage and a storeroom, suitable for beauty shop. This is a fine opportunity to own a nice place at the right price. The price is $5000, with just $2500 down and the balance at $30 per month. Will be glad to show it at any time. I have the exclusive right to sell it.

How is this? In the Rose Hill District, I have a 3 room frame house and a 4 room. One is at the corner and the other is next door to it. Nicely painted. And in a good state of repair. They sell for $3500 cash. All you need is $1500 and I will get the difference for you, and you can pay back at the rate of $30 per month at 6% per annum. The property is clear and unrestricted. Size of lots are 40 ft. x 185 ft. High and healthy location. You should see it.

Good corner contains a seven (7) room on the corner and a five (5) room stucco on the side street. Two good streets. The price is $6000 with just $2000 down, balance at $50.00 per month. The stucco is a beauty inside and looks like new. Tile in the bath and tile sink. Hardwood thruout. Seeing is believing. This is the BUY. You can live in the stucco and feel proud and rent out the front house. The big house has very large rooms suitable for roomers.

Out in Sugar Hill or Blue Berry Row, I have a ten (10) room mansion and it sure looks good and comes up to expectation on the inside unlike some. It is worth the money, the price is $10,500. All you need is $5000 and I will get the balance for you and you can pay it back at $55.00 per month. Could be a seven (7) bedroom house. Extra large basement. Go to see it. On Harvard north of West Adams Blvd. Swell location. Really show place.

Three (3) Houses on a lot contains 2-4 room and 3 rooms in the rear, big lot on 43rd Place, near Compton, all rented. Price is $5500. With $1500 down and the balance at $55 per month. Here is a chance to own an income property and also have a place to live. This is a cheap buy. See it. Of course it needs a little work. But what can you find that does not. Wade in and beautify it and make yourself some money. Try and see if you don't. Glad to show it any time. Just call up. Happy to serve you.

At Watts with two (3) rooms on it. Lot 40 ft. x 150 ft. Looks good. Full price is $2900 cash. If you have $1250, I can get the balance for you. You can pay it back at $20 per month. Interest at 6% per annum.

Hollywood Council Plan Re-employment For Returning Vets

Hollywood technicians and craftsmen—twenty-two thousand strong — are formulating plans for the re-employment of men and women in the Service now overseas and in this country when peace comes.

Acting through the recently created Hollywood Council of Guilds and Unions plans were formulated over the weekend for a program of full employment for men and women who left their jobs for war duty. A special committee appointed by the Council will also study employment possibilities in the pioneer field of television, which will be given new attention by American industry at the end of the war.

Double Funeral For Husband And Brother Of Mrs. Dora Bailey

Double funeral services were held for Ashley Bailey and John A. Ross, husband and brother, respectively, of Mrs. Dora Bailey of 4254 McKinley avenue, at People's Independent Church of Christ on Monday, August 14. The Rev. Clayton D. Russell, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Revs. A. Lively and Frank L. Peterson. Solos were rendered by the Rev. C. P. James and Mrs. Viola Williams.

Mr. Bailey, a native of Waco, Tex., had lived here 24 years. He died at a local hospital on August 6. Besides his widow, he is survived by four sisters and four brothers.

Mr. Ross, a native of Lockhart, Tex., died August 10 at a local hospital following a long illness. His survivors include two half brothers, two half sisters, and one whole sister. Both were interred in Evergreen Cemetery under direction of the People's Funeral Home.

Josh White and Ida James Implore Votes

Josh White who sings about Democracy nightly, practices it too. So does attractive and popular Ida James, another bright light of the entertainment world. Josh and Ida know that Democracy calls for canvassing—ringing doorbells and urging people to register now and vote November 7. Votes, Josh, says, mean a brighter future for your children.

Votes mean the end of discrimination in employment and the end of segregation in the United States Army. Votes, Josh says, can mean full and equal rights for the Negro people. Josh and Ida have carried their full load of the current registration and vote campaign in New York City, in addition to their highly successful night club engagements.

MARKET ST. USO

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

One of the gayest "Talent Shows" was presented last Friday by the Junior Hostess Group and the men from the Naval Base. Miss Bessie Cobb was Mistress of Cermony, featuring the group in vaudville skits, dancing, song stylists and the entire audience in an old fashioned community sing.

Sunday morn the "Big Sisters" of Market Street USO were breakfast hostesses to the Service men that remained over night and others that came in between the hours of 9 a.m.—10 a.m. The Java hour was closed by Bibical Quotations and an inspiring talks.

Last Saturday Miss B. Cobb as decorating committee made an improvised garden for the "LOVE IN BLOOM" dance. The music was by the Frontier Base orchestra.

The Ping Pong tournament is still drawing an interest among the men and the Junior Hostesses. Judging from the hot competition that is ensuing a tie will have to be played at the finals...

It's a date with the Junior Hostess to attend their "MEXICAN EXTRAVAGANZA" this Friday in the Mexican Roor, with Miss L. Daniels and her splendid Committee doing every thing to make this another Gala eve at the Boys 'HOME AWAY FROM HOME" . . .

USO Club at Bakersfield

Heading the outstanding events of this week's program was the musical recital given at the Minter Field post by the 3008th Squadron Glee Club on Monday. The special solos and the ensemble numbers were greatly appreciated by a large group of Bakersfield citizens. Cpl. Oriel Taylor is in charge of the glee club, and much praise is due Cpl. Taylor for the splendid performance of his group.

On Tuesday, August 22, the junior hostesses and chaperons will journey to the Inyokern Naval Base to participate in a mammoth party being given there for the sailors. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Eleventh Naval District Band.

Last Friday marked the successful close of the Central Park summer program which Mr. Hugh Lowery, Associate Director, had charge of. The park's closing was celebrated with a mixed picnic for servicemen and civilians. An impromptu amateur show was put on later in the eevning.

Some of the senior hostesses also helped prepare food for the picnic given on last Friday for the Shine Boys Club, in which Miss Faye Sanders, juvenile policewoman, and also junior hostesses, is in charge.

Vesper services will be held at the club on Sunday, August 27, at 5 p.m. Splendid services and program is being planned. Several numbers will be presented by the 3008th Glee club.

Dr. Louis Wirth Lauds Camp Smalls

GREAT LAKES, ILL.—"Camp Smalls is one of the experimental frontiers of American Negro life. The Negro's progress as a race has been greater than any pessimist ever expected, and this progress has also been shown in the Navy," said Dr. Louis Wirth, the celebrated Chicago educator and Associate Dean of University of Chicago Social Science Division, in his address before the graduates and guests at the Camp Robert Smalls Service School exercises Tuesday in the auditorium of Building 1911.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Staff Sergeant John R. Gibson, of 1231 Fulton Avenue, New York City, whose company delivered one of the first cargo of supplies to Russia, has been returned to this country after 18 months service with a Quartermaster truck regiment in the Persian Gulf Command.

COURT ST. USO

SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.

The outdoor program sponsored by the Court Street USO weekly is proving to be a huge success. On Tuesday night outdoor activity at 9th St. Park was featured with a dance on the tennis courts. The bands from the 4908th AAF Base Unit and 593rd Salvage Repair Company held forth with a "jam session." The 4908th Band is led by Cp. Frazier and the 593rd by Sgt. Plinton. Punch was served throughout the evening as the "maids and servicemen" danced under the huge night lights. Our thanks go to 1st Sgt. Beverly of 4908th Base Unit and Sgt. Hector Gayle of 593rd for complete cooperation in the affair.

The Friday night dances held in the Club are still going strong. The 4908th Band led by Cpl. Frazier and supplemented by Cpl. Danny McCune of 503rd and Thomas Boyd a local trombonist are "only on."

A special party was sponsored by Court Street USO for the 593rd Salvage Repair Company in the beautiful Downtown Ballroom. Sgt. Hector Gayle and his men decorated the place. Cpl. Hughes, Cpl. Russell and Cpl. Felma Baker were "busy as beavers" making ready for the festivities. Music was furnished by those "mad Kings of Jive" from the 593rd. Refreshments were served to young ladies who came from Los Angeles, Redlands, Riverside, and San Bernardino.

The Court Street USO is expanding its program every week to fit the needs of the Servicemen in this area.

NAACP Meeting

Birmingham, Ala. — Special NAACP Counsel Thurgood Marshall and Attorney Arthur D. Shores, of Birmingham, representing the NAACP, appeared before the United States District Court in the Northern District of Alabama, August 21, to argue the case of W. L. Patterson v. Registration Board of Birmingham, Alabama.

The complaint in this case was filed in August, 1942, when several Negroes presented themselves to the registrars for the purpose of qualifying for the privilege of voting. The complaint states that the Board of Registrars unlawfully combined and conspired together to prevent Negro residents of Jackson county from being registered.

The oral arguments heard on August 21 were on defendant's motion to dismiss the complaint. The NAACP has filed briefs with the courts on this motion and is also opposing a motion made by the defense to have the case tried before a jury.

RED CROSS CLUB

Cherbourg (Delayed) — The American Red Cross Liberty Club, officially opened here recently and accepted on behalf of the soldiers by Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, is staffed by three of the first Negro Red Cross workers to arrive in France.

Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary

Twenty-five years ago Sunday, August 20, Mabel and Charles Currence stood before the minister in Cleveland, Ohio, and joined in holy wedlock. Sunday, August 20, 1944 these two did the same in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. Currence is an interior decorator and is connected with Warner Brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Currence are members of Saint Philips Episcopal Church. Throughout the afternoon musical selections were rendered by celebrated guest artists.

The receiving line on this occasion included Mrs. Rose Prather, Mr. Joseph Prather, Mrs. Bertie Pinchback, Mrs. Louisa J. Taylor, Mrs. Hattie Draper and Mrs. S. W. Simpson.

And NOW ..... The CHARIOTEERS ..... "Between Friends" caught these famous artists Monday night during a performance at Ciros.

NEGROES LEAD INVASION!

Gillis, Mabel R.
Calif. State Library

IT SHOULD HAPPEN TO A DOG!

INVITATION TO SIGN—Letters on this office window a foot high spell out an invitation to white property owners to come in and sign a petition to restrict residence in the area from Figueroa to Central and from Slauson to Manchester to Negro tenants and property owners. The Property Owners Protective Association, led by Carlton Dye, is seeking to evict and exclude Negroes from this area, and the petitions which are advertised for signatures in the above office are part of the many which must be executed before legal steps can be taken by that group. Coming at a time when unity of all people throughout the world is the keynote for post war planning, the action of the Association is looked upon as an unnecessary, disturbing factor. Negro taxpayers are organized to fight the proposed ban. The next meeting will be held in the CALIFORNIA EAGLE office, Friday, September 8, at 8 p. m.

"D-Day" Combat Engineers Were 1st Units To Set Foot On French Soil

By JOHN S. KINLOCK, Eagle War Correspondent

(Ed Note: This column by Pvt. John S. Kinlock comes directly from "Somewhere in France" and was received by the "The California Eagle" from the office of the Chief Press Censor of the United States Army.)

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE—First troops to set foot on the soil of France on D-Day were Negro combat engineers.

Their jog was the battering down of Hitler's Atlantic Wall, a fence of concrete from four to fifteen feet thick—nowhere more than a hundred yards from the ocean along the French invasion coast.

Wading ashore with carbine rifles, Thompson Tommy guns, and the Army's famed "03" rifle, these troops suffered heavy casualties.

A witness of the first assault, a member of a Negro Engineer outfit, said that many barges carrying whole companies, were submerged by enemy gunfire on the wind-tossed-swept dawn of D-Day.

Local Couples Are Victors In Civic Suit Against Palladium

"Finis" was written to the civil rights case filed in the local Municipal Court by a quartette of local young people when the Appellate Department of the Superior Court decided an appeal in their favor. The case was filed by Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and Lt. and Mrs. William Brooks when they visited the Palladium Ballroom last summer, only to be ejected from the premises by a burly floor manager who called upon them to produce their birth certificates or get out. At the time of trial, the ballroom's attorneys, Zagon, Aaron and Fink of Hollywood, elected to take a jury, but after two days of trial, the jury brought in a verdict for damages for the plaintiffs, having decided that the four were ejected because they were Negroes and not because it was the policy of the Palladium to require dancers to bring their birth certificates with them.

The ballroom took an appeal from this judgment and the case was argued in the appellate court by Attorney David W. Williams, who represented the plaintiffs at the trial. After taking the case under submission for three months, the appellate court this week handed down its decision sustaining the finding of the trial jury and finding that the plaintiffs were entitled to the damages.

The case was followed with close interest by local social circles inasmuch as the plaintiffs were from prominent families. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blodgett and is the wife of a prominent insurance broker. Lt. Brooks is now in the South Pacific war area.

DEAR PUBLIC: The time has come for action. For a long time we have talked unity; now we must act the part.

The CIO and the AFL have joined forces for the election of President Franklin D. Roosevelt for the fourth term.

I do not feel that all Negro newspapers should pursue the same policy in politics or perhaps in many other ways; but at this time when the Negro's future is in the balance and we, you and I, realize that the present regime has shown greater interest in the common man than any other in the history of our time, we should certainly close ranks in our support for the re-election of our Commander-in-Chief.

My attitude at the present can easily be expressed in the language of Dr. Channing H. Tobias who voices a strong appeal for the election of the Roosevelt - Truman ticket in November, giving further evidence of the increasing non-partisan support which the Roosevelt administration is receiving among Negro citizens. There will be more such non-partisan endorsements, because the continued national leadership of the Roosevelt administration is now imperative for the welfare of all Americans.

I have had cause to study political parties and trends, and am convinced that the Negro is no longer tied to either of the major political parties because of any advantages offered to individual members of his race. The Negro now has reason to ally himself to that political party which at any time in the course of events has, by actual progress of the country as a whole, caused a material improvement of the condition of the Negro in general.

"The Republican party has been in power, with some brief exceptions, almost continuously since

L. A. War Chest Announces Goal

Harvey S. Mudd, president of the Los Angeles Area War Chest, announced this week that the minimum goal to be sought in the united appeal this fall, on behalf of 133 war relief and home front services, will be $7,613,579.

District quotas that go into the making of the total figure will soon be estimated and the East-side quota to be sought will be announced at that time, according to Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, chairman, and other district campaign leaders.

"The overall goal is about $800,000 higher than the $6,805,059 goal of last year, which was so enthusiastically over-subscribed by some 605,000 givers," says general campaign chairman P. G. Winnett.

Organize And Vote Says CIO PAC Head

NEW YORK.— CIO President Philip Murray and PAC Chairman Sidney Hillman, in an urgent appeal this week to the 5,500,000 CIO members, called for all-out political action—"the highway to victory, and full employment and a durable peace."

"We need to focus attention once again on making every worker and every member of his family a registered voter," declared Murray and Hillman. "Secondly, we need to organize our strength on a ward and precinct basis in order that the vote can be turned out on November 7th.

10,000 Delegates At Elks Convention

CHICAGO (CNS). — Approximately 10,000 delegates stormed Chicago last wek to attend the 45th annual national convention of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, which opened Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Austin, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon and also preached the regular sermon, Sunday at his own church. LARY Utilizes Full Manpower By Employing Negro Operators

Following its announced plan to utilize all available manpower to operate its rolling stock in order to alleviate the crowding and curtailed serivce on its lines, the Los Angeles Railway Company this week sent several of its cars into service with Negro operators.

The action marks an important advance in home fron unity and will result in improved transportation for workers in vital defense industries which abound in this area. While it is too early to note the complete benefits which will derive from the employing of this previously untapped source of manpower, there are already indication which tend to show that the net result will be of great service to the entire city.

Negroes operate buses and trolleys in most of the large urban and industrial centers in the nation, and their employment here comes after they have proven their ability to work with efficiency and courtesy in these other sections.

President Roosevelt Appoints Rev. Shepard Recorder of Deeds

President Roosevelt announced Tuesday the appointment of the Reverend Marshall Lorenzo Shepard of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the office of Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia. Dr. Shepard, pastor of Mt. Olivet Tabernacle Baptist Church in Philadelphia, succeeds the late Dr. William J. Thompkins who succumbed after a long illness two weeks ago.

APPOINTED TO WEST POINT—David Carlisle, 1943 honor graduate of Polytechnic High School who matriculated at the California Institute of Technology, taking a course in engineering, was appointed this week to West Point Military Academy by Congressman Tom Ford (14th district). He was elected chairman of his class by the student board of control at the Institute of Technology and presided over all meetings. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Carlisle.

In a statement to the press following the announcement, Dr. Shepard declared:

"I deeply appreciate the high honor President Roosevelt has conferred upon me. I hope to maintain the high standard of service and efficiency of my late distinguished predecessor, Dr. William J. Thompkins."

The 45-year-old pastor was born in Oxford, North Carolina, and educated at Winston-Salem Teachers College, Virginia Union, and Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, from which he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He served three terms as member of the Pennsylvania legislature and has long been a Democratic leader in his state. He has served also as assistant

The new recruits are: Wesley Slade, 18, Fresno; Eli C. Moses, 18; Earl E. Pierson, Jr., 18; Kenneth A. Shipp, 18, Eugene E. Walker, Samuel D. Johnson, 18, all of these from Los Angeles.

Matron Names Husband's White Secretary In Seeking Divorce

Mrs. Carrie S. Morrison, employed by the U. S. Post Office and residing at 1931 W. 36th Place, was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce this week by Superior Judge William B. McKesson upon her testimony that her husband, Arthur E. Morrison, packinghouse employe and grievance man for the packinghouse employes' union, held clandestine meetings in her home in her absence with Mrs. Marie Motis, her husband's white secretary. Mrs. Morrison claimed that the young lady was employed by a local union to assist her husband in his union activities, but met him on many evenings either in the home of Mr. Morrison or in the home of Mrs. Motis and that they continued these meetings in spite of the protests of Mrs. Morrison.

Stimson Praised For Lifting Ban On Negro Troops

NMU Secretary To Be Honored At A Dinner Sept. 20

New York, N.Y.—Ferdinand C. Smith, secretary of the National Maritime Union, wired congratulations to Secretary of War Henry Stimson last week on the "Historic Army order lifting the ban against Negro soldiers in army post exchanges, army buses and motion picture houses."

AN OPPORTUNITY

The telegram said that action such as this will encourage the best efforts of our Negro population. "Given the opportunity, Mr. Smith said, "our Negro people—soldiers, sailors, merchant seamen, men and women on the home front can do even greater things. This order will help give them that opportunity.

Meanwhile preparations are being made in New York to tender a testimonial dinner to Smith at the Hotel Commodore on Sept. 20 in recognition of his services to the seamen, the labor movement, the Negro people and the welfare of the common people.

Sponsored by a committee composed in part of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, the Rev. Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., Channing H. Tobias, John McManus, president of the New York Newspaper Guild, Norman Crowin, noted radio playwright and Joe Comiskey of PM, the dinner will feature entertainment by Broadway stars and testimonials from distinguished speakers.

Joseph Curran, NMU president, is chairman of the dinner committee, the vice chairmen of which are, D. Stewart Iglehart, President of the Grace Line, Herman Shumlin, noted producer, Mary McLeod Bethune, of the National Council of Negro Women and Councilman Stanley Isaccs.

Johannes Steel, radio commentator and columnist is secretary of the committee, and Capt. Hugh Mulzac is treasurer.

Dewey's Record Is Criticized by Seamen

NEW YORK—Condemnation of Thomas E. Dewey for sponsoring a vote law that prevents merchant seamen from balloting was voiced this week by the crew of the S. S. Booker T. Washington, liberty ship skippered by Captain Hugh Mulzac.

The crew adopted a resolution charging that New York and other states have discriminated against merchant seamen by denying them a vote if they are at sea or overseas November 7.

FEPC Action Halted

NEW YORK— Representative Mary T. Norton (Dm. N. J.), chairman of the House Labor Committee, announced last week on Thursday that all consideration and any further hearings of the bill making the Fair Employment Practices Committee a permanent government agency will be suspended until after election.

AMONG THE FIRST—Private Eugene Burse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Burse of 617 E. 9th St., Los Angeles, is shown (back row, second from the right), with the first class of Negro soldiers to graduate from the AAF Training Command's B-24 Liberator mechanics school at Keesler Field, Miss. Private Burse has just finished a 17-week course in aircraft maintenance and emergency operations of the Liberator bomber. His training at Keesler Field will be followed by a second phase of training at another AAF station, which will enable him to perform dual duties with a combat air crew.—(Official Photo, U. S. AAF.)

Noted Negro Nursing Authority Addresses Health Confab Here

"The American Red Cross Nursing Service, particularly through its Home Nursing program provides one of the surest means of improving Negro health, not only in the present wartime emergency but also in postwar plans for the future when many of our doctors and nurses will be home again to help."

So declares Mrs. Marion B. Seymour, asistant director of nurses at Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, D. C., now on leave to the Red Cross.

Visiting Los Angeles chapter early this week, the famous Negro nursing authority was the principal speaker at a conference of health and nursing leaders of this city. Across the nation she has been holding similar gatherings. From Los Angeles, her trip takes her to San Francisco and other points.

Veteran of the Army Nurse Corps in the last war, Mrs. Seymour was one of 18 Negro nurses in the entire corps. She has taught seven Red Cross Home Nursing classes in the District of Columbia, has given instructions to Nurse's Aides and is qualified to teach First Aid. In addition, she has supervised a group of workers on surgical dressings at Freedmen's Hospital.

During her stay in Los Angeles, Mrs. Seymour was the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Bailey, 2115 So. Hobart Blvd. On Tuesday evening she was honored at a dinner party given by Mrs. Summer Spaulding of Beverly Hills, following, which she attended the Hollywood Bowl concert, featuring the noted violinist, Jascha Heifeitz. Included in this party were the Baileys, Miss Martha Louise Floyd, director of nursing services, Los Angeles chapter, American Red Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, Thelma Patterson and Julia Hamilton.

Rev. Harten, Brooklyn Pastor, Defends Arrested Negro Boys

The Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Harten, who has been pastor of the Holy Trinity Baptist Church in Brooklyn, N. Y. for 22 years, president of the Afro Protective League and vice president of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., U.S.A., and often called a "fighting preacher," went to the rescue of a group of innocent Negro youths Tuesday, of last week. Some were arrested and held under a cloud for almost a month without sufficient evidence for conviction. Others were hurled into the Police Station on Monday, August 21 like cattle, and grilled. For the third time the case came before the Court—Tuesday.

As he has constantly done for adults and youth, Rev. D. Harten was on hand in defense of the innocent and helpless. He requested permission to address the Court which the Judge which the Judge granted. In testifying to the integrity of some of the brilliant and studious youth between the ages of 14 and 15, Dr. Harten stated: "I have known them for years. They come from some of the finest homes whose parents are patriotic Americans . . . peaceful neighbors and ideal Christians." In his closing remarks Dr. Harten told the court: "To my regret, the time has come in Brooklyn when a Negro youth is arrested on suspicion, and in nine cases out of ten, he has three strikes against him before he is given his day in court.

Negro Army Nurses Arrive in England

The first contingent of Negro officers of the Army Nurse Corps to be assigned to the European Theater of Operations has arrived in England for active nursing duty in that theater, the War Department announced.

Consisting of 63 nurses selected from various Army hospitals in the States, the unit came down the gangplant to be greeted by Brigadier General Benjamin O. Davis, America's ranking Negro officer, as they set foot on United Kingdom soil for the first time.

"During my long association with our Army," General Davis stated, "I have seen a number of firsts. The first women Army nurses were introduced to post hospitals during my period of service. You are the first colored nurses to enter upon a tour of duty in this theater. The American people expect great things of you and I know you are going to live up to all the traditions of your profession and bring honor to the service."

Nurses from California were: Los Angeles—2nd Lieuts. Edna F. Jones and Arlayne Hall; Oakland— 2nd Lieut. Catherine E. Randle; Vallejo—2nd Lieut. Winona A. M. Hibbler.

NMU President On Air Monday Nite

Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union and national Vice President of the CIO will broadcast Monday on Post War Planning from Philadelphia. Arrangements have been made to re-broadcast his talk, 10:45 P.M. over Los Angeles station KNX.

the war between the states. During all those years there has been no sincere effort to build a real Republican party in the deep South."

"Goodness knows there is almost nothing complimentary to say about Southern "Democrats"; however, it is obvious that the Negro has received more benefits during the Roosevelt regime than during all the years since the Emancipation Proclamation. If the G.O.P. has ever made any serious effort to see that the Negro and other underdogs in the South secured the ballot, the effort was so secretive that not even the Southern Negro knows anything about it."

This is the sum and substance of an observation made by a white Southern editor in "The Louisiana Weekly."

I am calling upon my Republican colleagues to join hands with organized labor and all the progressive forces to make this 1944 campaign for the election of Roosevelt a symphony so harmonious that there will be no ripple on the waves of our activities.

Negro Taxpayers To Continue To Fight Racial Restrictions

Negro property owners and taxpayers, threatened with a wave of restrictions and evictions based wholly upon race have banded together to take every possible step to defeat the un-American activities of a group of property owners in the area from Figueroa east to Central and from Slauson to Manchester, who seek to bar and evict Negroes from this area by petitioning for and obtaining restrictive agreements.

Ordered Out

Led by Carlton Dye, the group known as the Property Owners Protective Association is actively working, and already notices have been received by several Negro tennants in the proposed restricted section.

Meeting in the offices of the California Eagle, the Negro property owners voted to invite Councilmen Rasmussen, Bennett and Allen to their next meeting on Friday night, Sept. 8th, and to send a petition to the CIO convention asking for their support.

Petitions

Loren Miller, attorney, related his experiences in handling eviction cases, and he joined the group in their determination to fight. Petitions, which will be presented to the City Council, are being circulated in the area in question.

SAVE FAT, AND SAVE TIME

Fat for battlefield and industrial needs comes from both farm and kitchen. When you turn over used fat to the meat dealer, it represents a tremendous saving in cultivation and harvesting hours, expensive farm equipment and manpower.

Georgia Primary Rule Goes On Trial

Columbus, Ga. — Court action to test the validity of the State Democratic party regulations barring Negroes from participating in primary elections was instituted this week in the name of Primus E. King, Negro minister, against 11 members of the Muscogee County Democratic Executive Committee, asking $5000 damages for alleged violation of the civil rights of Negro voters.

A recent Supreme Court decision in a similar action brought by Texas Negroes resulted in a decision that outlawed the "Lily-white" primary. Georgia democrats announced at the time that they would disregard the edict. This action will determine its application to states other than Texas.

Retraction "Offered To Officer" Watson

According to a report appearing in another newspaper, the California Eagle and Editor-publisher Charlotta A. Bass are the respondents in a suit to be brought by police officer William Watson because of an article which appeared in the August 17 issue.

The only notice that the California Eagle has received of the suit is the story which was published last week. Usually a demand for a retraction is made from the newspaper in which the story appeared.

However, since it was not then nor has it ever been the policy of the California Eagle to defame, slander or in any way to unfairly reflect upon the character of any individual, the California Eagle and its editor-publisher, Charlotta A. Bass are happy to retract any reference to officer Watson which put him in an unfavorable light.

"D-Day Troops"

The coastal wall fortifications were breached by Negro troops, he said, using giant bulldozers, which charged blindly into the concrete crust of Hitler's world.

Uniform of the landing troops, both white and black, were fatigues, pistol belts, gas masks, helmets, and carbines(with 45 rounds.)

German corpses lay out in the streets of provincial towns and on the beaches around them for nearly three weeks after D-Day.

SNIPERS ACTIVE

Snipers were active in Cherbourg after the announced capture of the city.

One building, housing a company of Negro combat engineers, was submitted to intense enemy sniper fire as late as July 4. Soldiers were lying on their bunks when the German guns gave them a 100 per cent authentic celebration of America's national holiday. The next day the troops were ordered into another barracks.

AMONG THE FIRST

A veteran of D-Day-Plue-One told me today, "The German troops are tired of the war. They are happier as prisoners. The majority of them are not Germans, anyway, but troops forced into service from other countries."

Reminiscing about the first days of the invasion, he told me, "Our biggest headache was the German 88 mm. Its screaming shell tore ugly blood-shoaked holes into the first American-British advances."

"The French began to filter into Cherbourg about four days after our capture of the place. The Germans set fire to a lot of the city before they left."

"The cleverest thing I saw was a mortar hidden in a well which took amazingly accurate pot-shots at us. Turned out that a French woman in a nearby farmhouse was signalling the German gunner our position by short-wave radio."

Hi! GOOD LOOKING

That's the way every man feels when he sees a beautiful woman. But what men don't know, and what every beauty wise woman does know, is that her face powder has a lot to do with making her look beautiful. That's why Black and White Face Powder is such a favorite. It comes in 6 harmonising, flattering shades. It's easy to find the one that's right for you. Its soft magic mist texture adds a glowing freshness, feels smooth as silk on your skin. And, though it fools on your face, neck and arms lightly, it clings for hours. Face bright lights and sun without fear when you use Black and White Face Powder, because you know how perfectly it softens the glare. Big box only 25c at all toilet counters.

SISTERS IN REUNION—Shown in the picture are sisters who have met after being separated for forty-two years, at the home of one of the sisters, Mrs. Elenoar Brodnax of this city. They are: top left, Mrs. Irene Hill, of Washington, D. C.; top right, Mrs. Elenoar Brodnax; bottom left, Mrs. Ruth Occony of New York City, and bottom right, Mrs. Minnie Catlett of Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Shepard received national notice during the 1936 National Democratic Convention when he led the convention in prayer and Senator "Cotton Ed" Smith of South Carolina walked out in protest. Senator Smith, incidentally, was defeated recently by the Democrats of South Carolina.

Dr. Shepard served as YMCA secretary in New York City for one year and as assistant pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist Church in New York City from 1923-1926. He is married to Lucille Owens Shepard of Oxford, North Carolina, and has two sons, Marshall Shepard, Jr., and Samuel Augustus Shepard.

Hospital School of Nursing, Mrs. Seymour did post-graduate work at Columbia University and at Catholic University in Washington. Receiving her honorable discharge from the Army Nurse Corps in October 1919, Mrs. Seymour has served as a public health nurse for the New York City Department of Health, as superintendent of nurses at Community Hospital in Charleston, W. Va., and as health nurse and supervisor at Howard Orphange, King's Park, L. I.

WANTED: USED FAT!

Wanted: by the United States and Allies, 230,000,000 pounds of used cooking fat in 1944. Needed for medicine, munitions and essential civilian requirements. Will trade for ration stamps and cash. Please deliver to meat dealer.

Divorce Action

In answer to a question put by her attorney, David W. Williams, Mrs. Morrison testified that her husband recently took the secretary to Omaha with him on a business trip and that when the business was ended, the two then journeyed to Chicago for pleasure.

Under the terms of a property settlement, Mrs. Morrison received the Westside home of the couple and other community property as her separate estate.

Keynote Statement Is Published On Race Relations

Published this month, and the first time in full, is the keynote statement on race relations written by Lillian Hellman-Maxwell Anderson-Peter Lyon for for the Entertainment Industry Emergency Committee. Published as a prologue to William N. Robson's prize-winning radio document on the Detroit Race Riots, "Open Letter on Race Hatred," this statement and the radio script, together with Ben Bengal's moving stage piece "All Aboard!," presenting its Negro-strike out atIONh½ETAOIETAO soldier - white - soldier theme, strike out at the issue of Negro Americans with a forthrightness that is a commanding challenge.

Entertains Visitors

Mrs. Beulah Brown, prominent business woman of San Diego, and Mrs. Louise Williams, were visitors in the city during the past week. Among those who entertained for the two charming ladies were Mrs. Addie Elze, 4515½ Hooper Avenue, Mesdames Sadonia Taylor and Marie Bowder of 917 East 29th Street, who were hostesses at breakfast and bridge; and Mrs. Crystal Marshall of Wetmoreland Avenue.

A drive through our exclulve Sugar Hill colony and a sightseeing trip through Hollywood were much enjoyed.

RETURN TO TEXAS

Mrs. V. B. Hughes and little son, Robert, returned to their home in Houston, Texas, after a two months' visit with her sister and niece, Mrs. Jessie South and Daughter.

This being Mrs. Hughes' first visit to the West, she was shown many interesting sights by her many friends. On their way home, they will spend a few days in San Antonio with her mother.

Acquit Druggist On Bookmaking Charge

On August 18, 1944, E. D. Harris, proprietor of a drug store located at 2626 South Central Avenue, was arrested on charges of operating and making books at the above address.

A writ of Habeas Corpus was obtained by the client through through his attorney, H. L. Richardson, but a warrant was issued, and his client had to stand trial before Judge B. Rosenthal on August 25, 1944.

At that time, Attorney H. L. Richardson was able to prevent officers from testifying as to the similarity of handwriting on the markers to that of Mr. Harris, and also demonstrated to the Court that there was not sufficient evidence to hold the defendant to answer to trial in the superior Court.

Victory Auditorium Offers Services In Health And Culture

Scores gathered last Thursday evening at the Victory Auditorium, corner of East 103rd and Compton, to take advantage of the blood tests and vaccinations given by Dr. Ruth Temple, Health Officer for the Southeast Area of Los Angeles. This health program is a regular feature of the Victory Auditorium and is conducted in connection with the leading medical authorities of the area.

SUNDAY MUSICALE

Next Sunday evening's preliminary Twilight Musicale which begins at 7:30 p.m., will feature the singing of the Victory Auditorium Vested Chorus, The Masters' Ladies Trio, and the showing of the sound moving picture, "Let My People Live," with an all-colored cast.

The evening's lecture is: "The Symbolic Beast of Revelation 13." The Victory Auditorium lectures deal with present-day issues and their relationship to history, science, religion and health and are attracting large audiences of thinking men and women. The meetings are held every night except Monday and Saturday and are free to the public.

Subjects for the remainder of the week are: "The Five Fiery Words," "The Maiden, the Moon and the Monster," "The United States in Prophecy," and "The Seven Last Plagues."

TEXAS HOUSE GUESTS

Mrs. Belle S. Leonard of San Antnio and Mrs. R. M. Catchings of Houston, Tex., sister-in-law and sister of the Leonards, are spending a few weeks in the city. Many courtesies are being extended them by friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Pasadena, Monrovia, Santa Barbara and other points.

Communities throughout the United States were urged today by the War Food Administration to plan for a school lunch program before the opening of the school term in September.

NMA PRESIDENT—Dr. Edward I. Robinson, Los Angeles physician, was elected president of the National Medical Association at the convention held in St. Louis last week. The convention, one of the largest in the association's history, was notable for the tribute paid to the memory of the late George Washington Carver, on award for distinguished service, presented to Dr. W. G. Alexander of Orange, N. J., and the presence at the public meeting of Mayor A. P. Kaufman and Father Alphonso M. Schwitalla, Dean of the St. Louis University Medical School, who announced that the University will henceforth accept Negro medical students. Dr. Robinson is outstanding in his profession, and is active in the civic affairs of the city.

John Brackin, Jr. Is Staff Sergeant

John Brackin, Jr., has a new rating as staff sergeant. He is a former student of Manuel Arts and City College. Stationed in England one year previous to D-Day he is now serving somewhere in France. S/Sgt. Brackin has seen action in places his dad covered in World War I. He is very appreciative of the many letters received from friends. The Sergeant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brackin of East 43rd Street.

Leon W. Steward To Assist Dr. Kingsley At Pilgrim House

Leon W. Steward, executive secretary of the Glenarm Branch YMCA in Denver from April 1936 until July of this year has returned to Los Angeles where it is reported he will work with Dr. Harold Kingsley in the direction of Pilgrim House. During his eight years of service in Denver, Mr. Steward was responsible for building the Y membership to its highest point, many improvements to the building, and increase in the interest in the activities and the raising of large sums of money. He was for seven years, a member of the Board of Directors of the Adult Education Council of Denver, an executive member of the Denver branch of the NAACP, a member of the Interdenominational Minister's Alliance, of which he was an officer for eight years, he founded and was a member of the Board of Directors of the Community Vocational center, a member of the Panel on Minority Problems, director of Religious Education at Scott Methodist Church, the founder and past National Director of the Civil Rights Movement of Kappa Alpha Phi Fraternity and a member of the VFW.

LEON W. STEWARD

Mr. Steward is highly regarded as a piano teacher, many of his pupils being in great demand as soloists at church and other affairs. He studied under the personal direction of Lawse Robyn of the Chicago Music Conservatory, and for seven years at the Lamont School of Music in Denver.

WITH REGRET

His resignation was accepted with regret and only after Lee A. Moe, general secretary of the Glearm Branch had made every effort through the National Council of the YMCA to retain him in another locality.

Because of his training and experience, Mr. Steward will bring to his work at Pilgrim House an asset that will prove of great benefit to the community.

To 'Frisco we would go,
To 'Frisco, we did go:
Hi, ho, the derrio,
To 'Frisco we did go!

We liked the town quite well;
Yes, we would say it's swell—
Hi, ho, the derrio,
We liked the town quite well!

Although the place was fine,
Yes, it was very fine!
Still we would say, in the U.S.A.
There's no place like dear L.A.

Yes, the three of us, Pernella Smith, Jerry Mann, and yours truly, journeyed to San Francisco, via the Daylight, over the week-end. The trip was highly enjoyable and I won't attempt to give you the facts in detail. However, I think it might be interesting to jot down a few personal impressions here.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

If I should emphasize anything in particular about San Francisco, I think it would be the fact that the place is extremely Cosmopolitan. People, generally, seem to accept you for what you are; the color of your skin is not so important. It made us feel good to ride on streetcars which were manned by women and men of color. In the restaurants, the night clubs, etc., the same spirit seems to prevail. Everywhere we went we were treated with the utmost courtesy, and nowhere were we made to feel "unwantd."

Especially enjoyable was our visit to the California Theatre-Restaurant, one of the nicer entertainment spots. It was interesting to note the "international" setting there. It seems that almost every race was represented. All were diffused into the genial atmosphere of the club, mixing and intermingling without a hitch.

If I could wish for any part of San Francisco to me moved to Los Angeles, it would be the beautiful Golden Gate Park, in which we spent a good many hours, while there, and enjoyed them to the utmost. The park has every facility—museums, bandstand, polo grounds, bridle path, cycling, picnic grounds, ball park, zoo, and a luxurious array of growing flowers and green things, as far as the eye can reach.

We will always remember the hospitality of the handsome young auxiliary policeman, Nathan Lapkin, who was on duty in the park the day we made our visit there. Mr. Lapkin graciously posed for us while we took a picture of him astride his beautiful white horse, which reminded us so much of "Silver" of cinema fame.

Our host, Mr. Sam Morgan, took us on an interesting sight-seeing tour around the city, over the Golden Gate and Bay Bridges, and into the twin cities of Oakland and Berkeley. We also made an interesting shopping tour through Chinatown and San Francisco's downtown shopping section, which reminds one a great deal of good old New York.

Well, the trip was fine, everything was lovely—but we still claim that in all the world there is no place so beautiful to our eyes as good old Los Angeles, the garden spot of the world.

OUR EDITORS RELAX

Not to be outdone, our editors, Eddie Burbridge and John M. Lee, accompanied by Mrs. Burbridge, Mrs. Lee, and little Miss Marlene Larrieu, spent a day of relaxation in Val Verde, on Sunday. Likewise, theatrical editor, J. T. Gipson, is vacationing at Lake Elsinore.

VACATIONING IN MEXICO

Spending a delightful ten days in Ensenada, Mexico, fishing and resting, are Drs. James T. Smith, Howard A. Allen, Mr. Frank A. Harvey and Frank Harvey, Jr.

Dr. Arthur J. Booker, prominent L. A. physician, accompanied by his nieces, the Misses Joyce and Geraldine Stewart, flew to Mexico City last week. The Misses Stewart were thrilled to find that actress Myrna Loy was a passenger on the same plane, and during the trip quite a pleasant chat-fest was struck up between the girls and Miss Loy, whom they declare is a very fine person.

BY WAY OF ENTERTAINMENT

The much talked about "Anna Lucasta," which was first done by the American Negro Theatre a few months ago, has now opened on Broadway. The lead role of Anna is again being played by glamorous Hilda Simms, who scored such a triumph in the original production. Others in the cast include Alice Childress, Earl Hyman, Frederick O'Neal, Hubert Henry, John Proctor, Alvin Childress, Rosetta LeNore, eGorgia Burke, Theodora Smith, eGorge Randol, John Tate, Emory Richardson and Canada Lee (of "Native Son" fame) who will play a minor role. This play, from the pen of Philip Yordan, is expected to enjoy a successful run on Broadway. The lovely Miss Simms, in the opinion of this columnist, is definitely star material. So far as motion pictures are concerned, there is a definite place for a talented young dramatic actress such as Miss Simms, and we nominate her as a likely pioneer in that field.

From all we can hear, it begins to look as if our girl, Lena Horne, may at last be given a suitable leading man to play opposite her in a forthcoming picture. He is none other than the popular crooner-band leader, Billy Eckstein. Miss Horne, it is said, is making a determined effort to have MGM studios sign Eckstein for singing roles opposite her, and the outlook for the success of her efforts, at this date, are favorable.

Faithful patrons of Music and the Arts cannot afford to overlook the performance being given by the Archie Sacage Dance Troupe at the Embassy Auditorium tomorrow night. It will be well worth your while to look in on this accomplished group of performers.

In closing, may I send a fond greeting to Pvt. John Kinloch, nephew of our editor, Sgt. Virgil L. Mann, brother of this columnist, somewhere in France, Lt. Oliver Simmons and Capt. Charles Jones, our good friends somewhere in England, who are all doing their part to run the Nazis out of the country and bring back a reign of peace. They, and their buddies, are doing a grand job—and we salute them. Until next week, then, "cheerio."

Palode-Porterfield Nuptials

In Ward's Chapel A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon, August 13th, Sarah Emily Palode, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKay, and Cpl. Thomas Ray Porterfield exchanged marriage vows. An elaborate reception followed the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and bouffant skirt. A juliet cap held a frill of tulle off the face. She carried a white Bible with a single white orchid.

Her attendants, in pink and blue net, were Misses Blanche Porterfield and Cathryne Dow. Miss Emma Milhouse, maid of honor, wore yellow crepe. Joe Taylor was best man, and ushers were Samuel W. David and Marcus Lewis. Alvin Smith, cousin of the bride, gave her away. Flower girls were the little Misses Viola Smith and Ruthellen McNeeley. Master Lynwood Walker was ring-bearer.

The bride is a graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School, and also attended Los Angeles City College. Cpl. Porterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Porterfield of East 46th street, studied at Thomas Jefferson High School and is now stationed at Camp Van Dorn, Mississippi.

Popular Business Teacher Vacations In Val Verde

Mrs. Noreen Forney, popular and efficient business college principal, of Los Angeles and Mr. Elwood Simon and son, Gregory, are vacationing in beautiful Val Verde. Mrs. Forney, who is resting after a strenuous school term, greeted one of her most apt students in the person of Mrs. Mildred Sanders Burbridge last Sunday. Mrs. Burbridge motored to the play to enjoy a dip in the swimming pool. Mrs. Forney expects to return home soon to prepare for the coming school session at her business college on South Wall street.

Miss Lois Mann Is Given Farewell Buffet Luncheon

Three former employees and one present employee of the Woodlawn Branch Y.W.C.A. gathered for a buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. Mildred Sanders Burbridge in South Wall Street Tuesday at 1 p.m. The occasion was a gesture of farewell to Miss Lois Mann, who is leaving for her home.

Mrs. Burbridge, the attractive wife of Eddie Burbridge, Sports Editor of the California Eagle, was the charming hostess. Guests in addition to Miss Mann were Miss Sarah Elizabeth Collins, popular daughter of Rev. H. Mansfield Collins, Pastor of the Neighborhood Community Church, and Miss Carrie Ruth Williams, who composes songs in her spare moments and is presently engaged as an efficient secretary at the Y.W.C.A.

To offset the hot weather, chicken salad garnished with asparagus, lettuce and beets was served with salted crackers and iced tea. Fresh homemade peach ice cream was the delicious dessert. All expressed themselves as having had an enjoyable time.

Oklahoma Visitors Feted at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crump entertained in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Miller of Muskogee, Okla., recently. A lovely dinner was enjoyed by the honorees prepared by Mr. Crump, a former chef cook.

Present at the affair were: Messrs and Mesdames Ullery Storms, sister of Mrs. Miller, her sister, Miss Nell Ullery of Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McCollugh of Brentwood Heights, Miss Mattie C. Wiley of Oklahoma, Mrs. Laura Newman, mother of Mr. Crump, Miss Mary Celeste Storms and Miss Betty Sue Smith, formerly of Dallas, Tex.

Mrs. Miller and Miss Wiley have been attending summer classes at U.S.C. while vacationing with Dr. Griffin of Pasadena.

A delightful time was enjoyed by all. The party motored to Murray's Ranch in Victorville after dinner for a cool dip in the desert pool. The visiting teachers, Mrs. Miller and Miss Wiley were thrilled with th beauty and splendor of the ranch trip. They plan to return to Los Angeles next summer.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

A BIT OF THANKS TO YOU YOUNGER SETTERS FOR YOUR MANY LETTERS. ESPECIALLY YOU GENTS IN THE ARMED FORCES. SO GLAD THAT INFO-APPEARING IN THIS COLUMN HAS HELPED TO KEEP YOU ON TIME WITH THE EVENTS ROUND TOWN. BY THE WAY, ARE YOU SENDING MAIL TO RACE MEMBERS IN THE THEATRICAL WORLD, OR ANY OTHER OUTSTANDING POSITION THAT YOU LIKE. COME ON, DON'T LET OUR ACTORS AND ACTRESSES DOWN, IF YOU LIKE LENA HORN, WRITE AND LET HER KNOW. IF ACTS PUT ON BY LOUISE BEAVERS, ROCHESTER, OR MUSIC BY THE CHARIOTEERS PLEASES YOU, WRITE AND TELL THEM ABOUT IT. CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM IS GOOD, BUT HOW ABOUT GIVING OUT WITH A LITTLE PRAISING, BY THE WAY OF MAIL? YOU YOUNGER SETTERS CAN SET THE PACE, SO WHY NOT START NOW. FAN MAIL TO THE STARS IS WHAT A HEARTY HAND SHAKE IS TO A FRIEND. SO LET'S SEND MORE LETTERS, TAKE A LITTLE TIME OUT FROM YOUR BUSY DUTIES, AND LET THEM KNOW JUST HOW YOU FEEL ABOUT IT.

PERFECT PINCH HITTING

Cato Robinson is somewhere on foreign shores, but his charming parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson did a good job of playing host and hostess to Cato's many friends when they honored visiting nieces from New Orleans, with a gay soiree last Friday night. The affair was well attended by the leading setters of the city. Took note of the popular fighter John Thomas, who also happens to be one of Cato's cousins, and his lovely wife, Mable. The Bob Carrols (Jackie Booker), Jack Terry, who helped round the guests up for the affair, Bill Cockrell, Ruby Thomas, Roy Andrews and a certain Miss Jo (?) who seems to be taking the LAites over by storm, Jessie and Emma Milhouse, Bennie Graham, Johnnie Brewer and many others enjoying cocktails, hors d'ouvres, and good music.

Thursday night found the Alpha Frat members of the city entertaining with a very exclusive affair at popular Villa Arlington. The gents are getting back in the swing of things and are keeping that same air about themselves that has always marked them as top notchers. Frat members and company made up the guest list. The wives of the Frat brothers serving in the armed forces were brought to the affair by other members. Took note of Charlotte Nicholas (Hartsfield) here for the Yarbrough-Alston wedding, greeting old friends, Kenny Washington, coming on with much chatter about his days at UCLA, Jack Terry, Dolly Clayton, and several others enjoying the repast that was tops. According to Jimmy Robinson, several other affairs will take place in the near future.

NIFTY WEEK END PLANS

Big plans are in effect for making this coming week-end a super one in celebration of Labor day, and the opening of school. Val Verde, Elsinore, and Murray's dude ranch are highlighted spots. The AKA's on the Bruin campus have rented a cottage for the week-end, and plan to play from Friday till Monday. Faye Thompson, Renna Clarke and several of their girl friends have rented a cabin in Elsinore for several days. Jean Brown and her buddies are Val Verde bound for ten days.

Sure that part of the crowd remaining in the city will take in the fine party Eyvonne Cole is giving Saturday night at Villa Arlington. Invites were handpainted by the hostess. Sure to be perfection.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

From the looks of things around town, the Marines have definitely landed, and from all indications they rate number one with the debs . . . Vivian Stevens and her sis Ruth Mars are scheduled to be back in town by now, after a very gay trip to Ft. Huchuca where Ruth visited her better half, and kid sis, Vivian, met lieutenants by the dozens, the girls made the high spots of Mexico before returning home . . . See that Bernice Cook, my collegue, left last week for Frisco. Quite sure she'll have a natural ball . . . The J. T. Gipsons (Gert Lomax) are finding marriage life one hundred per. The Mrs. is more glamorous than ever, and I must say, the Gip is all smiles now days.

Notes from Joyce and Jerry Stewart let the gang know that they are having a wonderful time in Mexico . . . The debs will return to the city at the end of the week . . . They tell me that Lambert Green and Ameera Graham were one of the spot light couples at the Post Office Dance last Saturday night . . . Hear that Hugh Dorsey has been sent across the blue . . .

Looks like we might have a slight breathing spell before Dan Cupid runs wild again. Harriette Patterson and Lawrence Johnson plan to march down the aisle in November if Uncle Sam doesn't change his mind . . . Evelyn (Jeanie) Brown leaves Chicago for LA on the 1st of September along with her mother and kid sister . . . Wasn't Althea Warren surprised when she found out that her new stationary was stamped Alpha Kappa Alpha, instead of Delta Sigma Theta. Gloria Ford was only glad, for she being an Alpha soror, heartily accepted the stationary . . .

Overseas letter from Manuel Holeman lets us know that all is well in New Guinea . . . Gloria and David Walton will soon be celebrating that wedding anniversary . . . Lt. Edna Cunningham Woodard is back in civilian life after spending several exciting months with the WACs. She has received an honorable discharge from the service, and plans to take on civil life as a matron . . . Antoinette Marie Brown, has been spending the last week at a Religious camp, before returning to school next week . . . Hear that the Delta Tea was a huge success last Sunday afternoon.

Beauteous Marion Leopard is now Mrs. Henderson Ford, having received Sunday at a lovely reception . . . Don't forget to hear Count Basie on the 17th when the Doll League Charity Club will be hostess at the Club Plantation. Bring this week's column to a close hoping Jessie McDaniel, Emma Manuel, and Edna Robinson, who have been hospitalized will soon be up and out again with speedy recoveries from their illnesses.

TILL NEXT WEEK

Guests at Cocktail Soiree

Inspiration for an elaborate cocktail soiree and dinner hosted by the Orchids was the charming and vivacious Mrs. Jesmere Boyd. Mrs. Boyd, now a resident of Philadelphia, was a former Angeleno and until her marriage of several years ago was a favorite among the younger social set of Los Angeles, as well as being a popular member of the "Orchids;" she will be remembered by her many friends as Jassmere Brown the daughter of Helen Davis, well-known interior decorator of this city, with whom she is visiting.

The setting for the cocktail soiree' was the beautiful residence of Mrs. Louise Ritchie, which was a vertable fashion salon as an array of smartly gowned femmine guests promenaded about meeting friends and sipping cocktails. After the cocktail hour guests were ushered into cars traveling west to the Villa Arlington, and gathered around a banquet table beautifully decorated with streamers of spring flowers and crispy ferns. As we waited the serving of dinner our honored guest, Jessmere Brown Boyd, was presented with a lovely compat, a gift from the club. The presentation was made by Majorie Woods Wright, Jessmere's chum from school days.

Among the many friends and club members present were: Florence Covan, Ann Wheeler, Christine Hoard, Lena Day, Daisy Primus, Lessie Madison, Vivian Walker, Hazel Moreland, Fern Dowdy, Wilma James, Lena Kirk, Ruby Wilson Margret Cleveland, Louise Ritchie, Evelyn Mars, Mildred Bruce, Annie Wiggins, Lola Griffin, Marian Gordon, Ellen Smith, Winnona Martin, Laverne Hall, Edith Slayton, Laura Slayton, Adele Weaver, Mamie Anderson, Ramelle Bagnerise and Jaunita Mars. Out of town guests included: Elizabeth Byais of Denver, Colo., Bertha Terrell and Millie Pollard, Dennison, Texas; Jojo Wicks Carey, Wanda Wicks and Catherine Dickerson from Chicago, Ill., Bessie Johnson, Detroit, Mich., Maggie Miller and Mattie Baker, Muskogee, Okla.

Mount Ararat Court Picnic

The work of Mrs. Elizabeth St. Charles Edwards, chairman of the annual picnic of Mount Ararat Court, No. 2, Heroines of Jericho, with her committee, made their picnic, held last week at South Park, a success. At 1 p.m. a fervent prayer was offered by the Joshusa, James G. Edmonds after which the bountiful dinher was partaken of.

Mrs. Lucille Howard, Grand Juvenile Mother, served a real feast.

Barbecue Party

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Harper entertained a number of friends at their spacious home, 3765 Cimarron, with a barbecue party last week in honor of their sister-in-law and her baby, who are visiting here from Dennison, Texas. Sharing honors on the occasion were Cpl. and Mrs. Elliott Myers, the former being on furlough. Guests present included Messrs. and Mmes. Gene Slone, Suggs, Henderson, S. Thomas, Bill Earstern, J. Clayton, Pettebone, Atty. H. L. Richardson, Miss Modell Jones, and Mrs. Johnson.

Golden West Bridge Association

The G.W.B.A. members who participated in the National duplicate bridge tournament held recently in New Orleans, La., are arriving home. Viola Henry and Gene Campbell were the first to get back. They were closely followed by J. D. Dunn and Louis W. Clay, the high point winners of the tournament, both earning more than 20 National Master points apiece. Beatrice Reeves, who with J. D. finished second in the open pair master event, is also home. There'll be more news on this yearly event when all the players are home.

Next week starts a new series of plays for all our trophy plays. Don't miss them for they are interesting and entertaining. The winners of the August series will be announced next week. Wednesday, Sept. 6th is business meeting night. The president expects you to be present.

Next in importance to the National Tournament are sectional meets. All G.W.B.A. members should register to take part in our 2nd annual sectional tourney which is to be held in October. National Master Point Certificates are to be awarded winners of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place. 1054 E. 54th Street, ADams 5946.

Luncheon Honors Hattie Vickers

Honoring Mrs. Hattie Vickers of Luther, Okla, a luncheon was given by Mrs. Wm. Caldwell recently at 1531 E. Vernon Avenue. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Morris Finn and children, Mesdames Rosa Williams, Lois White of Chicago, Esther Shaw, Miss Rosetta L. Williams, Miss Anna Belle Bailey of St. Louis, Messrs. Frank White, Phillip Beadford, Isaac Murry and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Graham. Mr. Graham is home on 30 days leave from the South Pacific.

Mrs. Vickers is the sister of Mr. Wm. Caldwell of this city and Mesdames Bailey and White are visiting relatives and friends here.

VISITOR FROM BAHAMAS

Mr. Hosea Simons is delighted to have as his hous guest, his sister, Mrs. Kate Williams, who is here from Nassau, Bahamas, for the second time within a year. Her trip to Los Angeles, by plane, was very enjoyable.

To her many friends, she announces that she will be at home at 429 North Westmoreland Avenue.

Matron Gives Birth To Seven-Pound Girl

Mrs. Olive Macbeth Lee is the proud mother of a seven pound thirteen ounce baby girl, born at Rose-Netta Hospital, Los Angeles. Dr. Curtis G. Carr was the attending physician. The baby's father, Pfc. Donald B. Lee is somewhere in France. The baby is named Michele Macbeth Lee.

Mrs. Lee is the younger of two daughters of Mr. Kenneth S. Macbeth of Bakersfield, California and granddaughter of the late Arthur L. Macbeth of Baltimore and Los Angeles. Her father and Mrs. Macbeth have returned to Bakersfield after a pleasant visit as he guests of their sisters, Mrs. Lois M. Carr and Miss Hazel A. Macbeth of 1512 and 1514 West Jefferson Blvd., with whom Mrs. Lee makes her home.

HOSTESSES—The Pasadena Charity girls club who will be hostesses at Club Plantation, Thursday evening, September 14. Proceeds of the affair will go towards furnishing the day room for soldiers stationed at Sixth Ferrying Command at Long Beach.

Visits Val Verde

Miss Gloria O'Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O'Neal of Houston, Texas, spent the weeken at the Val Verde cottage of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson. Miss O'Neal is a teacher of public school music in the Jack Yates High School of Houston, and is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Soroity.

She has been attending the University of Southern California during the summer.

Many social courtesies have been extended Miss O'Neal during her stay here. She will visit with friends in San Francisco before returning home.

Returns to City

Mrs. Girtie R. Lee, popular in business, church and social circles, after an extended tour of many Eastern points, among them Baltimore, Md., where she attended the National Usher's Convention, Washington, D. Pasadena Charity Club To Give Affair Sept. 14

With net proceeds of the evening to go towards the equipping of the day room for servicemen at the Sixth Ferrying Command base at Long Beach, the Pasadena Charity Club will be hostess Thursday, September 14, at Joe Morris' Club Plantation. The Pasadena organization is composed of a group of young business women and their sponsor for the worthwhile occasion is Mrs. Ruby McKnight, member of the Los Angeles and Orange County Council of the Red Cross camp and Hospital Unit.

In the past, Mrs. McKnight has enjoyed noteworthy successes in raising funds to furnish day rooms and recreational centers for our boys at the various camps in the locale.

Morris has arranged with Count Bassie, his orchestra and his sparkling show to present a special revue for the evening. They will be augmented by the presence of a galaxy of guest stars of radio, stage and screen, who will lend themselves towards making the event a grand success.

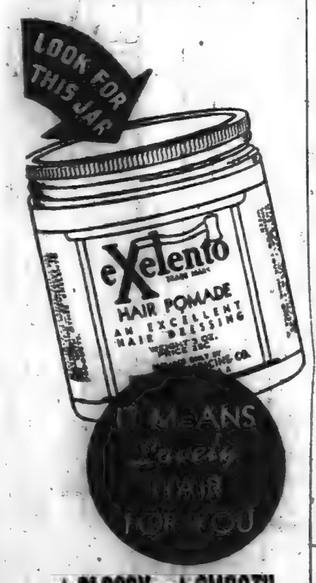
BEAT THE HEAT

Even if you're lucky enough to find a grassy spot in the shade this sweltering weather, you can't enjoy that cool breeze if you are tormented by the itching and smarting of heat rash, prickly heat, or pesky mosquito bites. But with Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, you can get relief from these hot weather miseries.



Yes, Mexsana can help you as it has millions of others. Just sprinkle it over your irritated skin and you'll be amazed at how quickly it soothes as it eases the itch of mosquito bites or sunburn. And if you're miserable from tormenting heat rash you'll find Mexsana promptly soothes the itch and burn. You see Mexsana often helps prevent heat rash as it has a special base that absorbs moisture on the skin, often the cause of the rash.

First Aid for Families

No wonder Mexsana is a favorite with all the family from Grandma to Junior. Mexsana can really protect your irritated skin against rubbing of collars, girdles and other clothing. And that goes for baby too.

For Mexsana not only guards against painful chafe irritation but it eases the sting and burn of diaper rash and actually helps prevent it. It contains ingredients often used by specialists to relieve these discomforts.

So do as millions have done for over 40 years. Keep Mexsana always handy as a hot weather first-aid for everyone in your home. It costs so little, even in the larger sizes, you'll want to get some right now . . . and help your family beat the heat of these miseries with Mexsana.

"Patriotic Afternoon" Is Called Successful

Sunday, August 20, 1944, was one that will be long remembered in the history of Los Angeles. The occasion was the "Patriotic Afternoon" given by Lt. Col. James M. Beek Auxiliary No. 2651, the proceeds of which went into the relief fund of the auxiliary to help give aid to the boys coming home wounded from this World War.

The ladies of the auxiliary, believing that flowers should be given while one can enjoy them, took the occasion to honor, publicly, Mrs. Bertha Woolford, Mother and Narrator in the war film, "The Negro Soldier."

The Lt. Col. James M. Beck Auxiliary No. 2651 wishes at this time to sincerely thank all of their many friends for helping to make their "Patriotic Afternoon" a complete success.

NEWLYWEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell T. Albright, whose marriage was recently solemnized at the Second Baptist Church, are welcoming their large group of friends to their beautifully appointed home at 537 No. Westmoreland Avenue.

Many of their friends called on Sunday, August 27th, while more are bidden for Sunday, September 10th. Mrs. Albright was assisted by her charming niece, Miss Izora Peek.

On Sunday, September 3, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Marshall are entertaining with a family party of twenty for the newlyweds.

Mrs. Albright is the former Orian Babcock of Evanston, Illinois, and Mr. Albright is a member of a pioneer Los Angeles family.

Patio Party

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Henry, gave a patio party on Saturday evening, August 26th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Robinson, 11204 Alvaro Street, Los Angeles.

The party honored Miss Patricia V. Foxx, of Pasadena, charming niece of Mr. and Mrs. Henry, and Mr. Leon Roberson of Jackson Michigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roberson.

Guests who shared the courtesy were the following: Clyde L. Royster, Jackson, Michigan; Barbara Jean Roberson, Detroit, Michigan; Corporal Grady W. Daniels, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Pvt. Willie C. Jones, New York City; Corporal Matthew Trammell, Marshall, Texas; Miss Lucille Dicky, Santa Monica.; Mrs. Hester Mosley, Houston, Texas; Miss Margaret Daniels, Miss Joyce Kennedy, Miss Bobbye Ann Berri, Miss Mary Louise Collins, Mr. Phillip James King, Mr. Patrick Duncan, Mr. Ernest Greffin, and Mr. Ronald Sutton, all of Pasadena, Calif.; Miss Joyce Davidson, Mrs. eJan Rean Kindred, Miss Louise Henry, Mr. Edward Floyd, Mr. Lawrence Owens, Mr. Fred Thompson, Mr. Lucius Thompson, Mr. Robert Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dillingham, all of Los Angeles, Calif.

During the evening, the guests were hilariously entertained by little Miss Jeanetta Henry.

STORK SHOWER

Mrs. Bonzell Hadnet, 4219 Compton Avenue, was the honoree at a delightful stork shower on Sunday, August 27, when Mrs. Del Green (Wilma Mack) entertained a group of girls at her lovely new home in Westmoreland Avenue.

Games, with prizes and favors were enjoyed during a happy afternoon and later Mrs. Green served a delicious repast.

What is true, simple and sincere, is most congenial to man's nature.

Les Petite Madames Club

The Les Petite Madames Club met at the home of Mrs. Marie Calup, 1155 East 27th Street, Sunday afternoon. She also entertained one guest, who was Mrs. Charles Arnold of this city. All the club members were present in the persons of Louise Ateman, Leverne Williams, Ruth Lindsey, Mildred Miles, Patty Ruth Mack, Thelma Jean Fambro, Willa Mae Tayler, Mary Louise Ashford.

The girls devoted one hour to business, after which a delightful plate luncheon was served by Mrs. Calup. Two hours of pokena was played, and prizes were given as follows; Guest prixe, Mrs. Arnold; first prize, Clara Bell Wofford, second prize, Thelma Jean Fambro, third prize, Louise Ateman.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Thelma Jean Fambro, 688 east 40th Place, September 10. Club reporter is Clarabelle Wofford.

Langston Law Club to Meet

Wednesday the 6th of September, 1944 at 8:15 p.m. the Langston Law Club will hold its regular meeting at the Villa Arlington, 3115 West Adams Boulevard, Attorney Marshall Denton is the host. This meeting is to be one of the most interesting and outstanding events of the season.

Attorney Charles Matthews spoke at the last monthly meeting held at Attorney Lloyd Griffith's home on the subject of "Hearsay." Attorney Matthew's experience as Trial Deputy in the District Attorney's office and his general knowledge of this subject made the discussion very informative as well as interesting. The members of the club by popular request insisted that the discussion be continued on this subject at this meeting. Hence Attorney Charles Matthews will be the principal speaker on "Hearsay." All members of the bar invited to attend. Loren Miller, president, will preside.

When the heart speaks, however simple the words, its language is always acceptable to those who have hearts.

The club plans to do many things for the entertainment of its members when it resumes its activities in late September.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President, Martha Douglas; Vice President, Marye Adams; Secretary, Mary H. Jackson; Assistant Secretary, Alice Hunt and Treasurer, Mae Robinson.

Others members of the club are: Ernestyne Smith, Ellen Jordan, Leatrice Clemons, Ruby Cooper, Rita Williams and Jeanne Rosan.

Yarbrough-Alston Wedding Solemnized at St. Phillips

Parents of Couple Arrive Here From Michigan and Idaho to Attend Ceremony

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

Charm and simplicity highlighted the fashionable ceremony in which Bette Pauline Yarbrough, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Norman Yarbrough, Sr., of Twin Falls, Idaho, became the bride of John Wilson Alston, at Saint Phyllips Episcopal Church on Sunday, evening, with Father Randolph Moore officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her father was very regal in an exquisite colonial styled gown of white satin with inset of lace bodice and sleeves. Her illusion veil was full length, bordered by lace and held in place by a seed pearl coronet. Her bridal bouquet was of white bovardia, gardenias, and orchids that gracefully hung on white satin streamers. For something "old," she carried a beautiful lace handkerchief, sent from Seattle, Washington, for the occasion.

STRIKING COLOR SCHEME

Bridal attendants: Helen Jane Stewart, Alma Peake, Corinne Jones, and Charlotte Nicholas, were dressed in snow-white gowns of lace and net, topped by dainty little white marquisette caps. Their alternate pink and blue elbow-length gloves added the dash of color to their attire that was emphasized in the pink marquisette gown with matching accessories worn by maid of honor, Anita Beverly; and the blue marquisette gown with matching accessories worn by matron of honor, Hortense Alwyne, completing the very striking color scheme. The attendants' bouquets were duplicates of the bride's, tied with blue satin ribbon. Flower girls: Yvonne Payne and Joan Beverly wore long yellow and green dresses with dainty little caps that matched those of the attendants. Master Nelson Atkins was ring bearer, in full dress white satin suit. Ushers included: Carl Petterson, Bob Edwards, Jimmy Robinson and Donald Derricks. Edwin Sneed was best man. Throughout the ceremony, Mrs. Eloise Lee sang "I Love Thee" and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Sarah Brown Edwards designed and made all of the attendants' dresses and caps.

RECEPTION HELD

Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding reception was held at Casa Raphael, where a throng of invited guests extended Mr. and Mrs. John Alston "best wishes." In the receiving line the bride's mother was stunning in chartreuse with fuschia accessories and orchid corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. William Penn, was equally as charming in white crepe gown with orchid corsage.

Reception aids included: Meloneé Temple, Dela McDonald, Villia Buskins, Mary Johnson, Hope Gist, Josephine Marshall, Mary Coleman and Jessie Mae Brown. The many gifts were were viewed on the patio of Casa Rafael.

BRIDAL DINNER

Preceeding and following the ceremony, Bette and John were feted. The Bridal Dinner party was given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Yarbrough, Saturday night, at Casa Rafael. Mrs. Dela McDonald acted as hostess at the affair. Following the dinner, members of the bridal party enjoyed dancing. Immediately following the wedding reception, the bridal party had reservations at the Club Plantation, where their after party was held.

The newlyweds, both alumni of the University of California at Los Angeles, and affiliated with the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority and Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, are enjoying a brief honeymoon, after which they will return to the city where they plan to set up housekeeping.

Dinner Given

The following members and friends were the guests of Deacon Hoover at Second Baptist Church on Thursday evening to enjoy a delicious chicken dinner. Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. McGowan, Dr. Leonard Stovall, Mrs. Nettie Jones, Ethel Burzelle, Van Buren, Ark., Deacon and Mrs. J. P. Hall Ruis, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Martin, Bessie Martin, Jessie L. Tyus, Chas. W. Jenkins, Deacon and Mrs. W. T. Simpson and W. T., Jr., Mrs. Henrietta Turner, Mrs. Eldridge Barney Wilson, Shreveport, La., Mrs. Pearl Bess, Mother Sophia Heard, Mrs. Susanna Carr Smith, Mrs. Nina Fritz, Mrs. Mary Brown, Cincinnati, Ohio, Mrs. Ike Hoover, Willis Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Henderson, Mrs. Rachel Spencer, Mrs. Violet Hoover, Mrs. Myrtle Howard, Mr. W. Gilbert and Mrs. Payne.

The tables were beautifully decorated with red, white and blue. A very interesting program was rendered with Rev. Thomas as Master of Ceremonies.

Mesdames Anna Hoover, Myrtle Howard and Laura O. Gaddis had charge of arrangements.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Bell, of St. Paul, Mrs. Viola Bessie Hill and son, Harold Wesley, left for Reno to attend the conference.

On Sunday evening at Oak Park the Women's Self Improvement Club and George Washington Carver Club with friends were hostesses to our servicemen. A very enjoyable time was had by all. Mrs. Pearl Lang is proving a "real mother" to the boys. She is ably assisted by Mrs. Minnie Scott, Mrs. Eva Buckner, Mrs. Ana White, Mrs. Viola Fagan and Mrs. Viola Prowell.

Gives Dinner

With Autumn slowly but surely creeping upon us, Southlanders are getting the most out of warm evenings by entertaining out of doors.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James Dillworth of 43rd Place were host and hostess to the Usher Board of Pilgrim Baptist Church. Mr. Dillworth has been president of the Usher Board for the past six years.

The dinner was well served on tables beautifully decorated with lovely flowers.

The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of gifts by Miss Charlotte Glover to Mr. and Mrs. Dillworth, to Rev. and Mrs. B. W. Wade(guests of honor, and to Mr. and Mrs. Dillworth, Sr., mother and father of the host, who are visiting here from the East.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE

Dies Cries—They Are After Me

The reactionary "lame ducks" in Congress—Dies, Cotton Ed Smith, Costello, Joe Starnes, Reynolds of North Carolina, etc., who have either resigned or have been defeated at the primary elections—may be counted upon to do at least two things between now and the November election.

1. Everything they can to prevent the reelection of President Roosevelt and the election of new members to Congress who will help him in his great work.

2. All the damage they can to national unity and victory. There is an old saying that a snake does not die until the sun goes down, no matter how much it has been injured. These men who are still in Congress, and who will keep their seats there until next January, are by no means dead. Their sun has not yet set. And between now and their sunset they will use their poisonous fangs to lower the morale of our boys in the army and those of us who are fighting on the home front. They will poison us with their lies as surely as a rattlesnake would poison us with its fangs, if we were not careful to stay away from it.

The CIO Political Action Committee and the Citizens Political Action Committee are the special targets of these "lame ducks," of Dies and his gang. They are raising the bogey of "Communism" against them, that old bogey that has been killed and ought to know it is dead long ago.

Listen to the wailing of Dies as he tells how the "cards have been stacked against him" in Texas by these two committees. Since the war began there have been a large synthetic rubber plant, five shipyards, and other war plants put into operation in Dies Congressional district. No. These men and women have been organized, organized by the CIO and registered to vote by the CIO Political Action Committee and the Citizens Political Committee.

"There are 75,000 workers in these plants," wails Dies, "all registered and ready to vote. And every vote would be against me and what I stand for."

Thank God for that, we feel like crying. We wish we could say that of every citizen of every Congressional district in America—registered and ready, to vote against every Dies in the country and all that they stand for. Registered and ready to vote for our great commander-in-chief Franklin Delano Roosevelt and all the men and women who will help him win the war and bring a permanent peace to this old world.

"PRODUCING FOR VICTORY—LABOR DAY 1944."

Negroes Proud to Serve

It was a proud day for the Negroes of Los Angeles when the cars of the Los Angeles Railway Company rolled out of their barns Wednesday morning and fourteen Negroes were on their platforms guiding them.

It was for this privilege that we Negroes and our white friends have been fighting for a long time. Of course we feel like throwing our caps in the air, and shouting aloud because we have won the fight.

But with our jubilation comes also a sense of deep responsibility. The eyes of all Los Angeles are on those fourteen Negro conductors and conductorettes. Our enemies, as well as our friends, are watching every move that will be made. Every word that will be spoken. Our enemies—with the hope to pick up something to be used against us. To be able to say, "See. We told you so. Blacks and whites can't work together."

But our friends, with a prayer in their hearts and faith shining in their eyes, are watching, too, knowing that the native Negro courtesy and care and thoughtfulness for others is going to win.

Hold your head high, little Negro girl! Collect your fares, direct your passengers to their destinations with the courtesy only you know how to show. Help that old lady, brother, that cripple, with the kindliness and the gentleness that seems to have been born within you. You may have nasty things said to you, mean things, things that will make your cheeks burn and your fingers itch to strike down the person who said them.

But don't do it, brother, don't do it. You are fighting as great a battle on your streetcar platform as those who are in Europe and the South Seas. You are fighting for the dignity and the honor of your race. You have won a bridgehead. You have taken a hilltop held by the enemy. Keep them. Do not lose them by one hasty word, one careless action. Keep them, hold them, and go on winning others by your high moral courage, your friendliness, your sense of humor, your native tact and courtesy.

The California Eagle congratulates you and goes with you on every trip you make. We are confident you will win in every difficult situation that may arise, win for yourselves and win for your race.

Willkie Takes Dewey to Task

Wendell Willkie, the real leader of the Lincoln Republicans no matter who their candidate for president is, severely criticized the midget-sized Tom Dewey, for his attack against the conference being held at Dumbarton Oaks, near Washington, where representatives of the Allied Nations are laying preparatory plans for a permament peace after the war is won.

Dewey's blast against the Dumbarton Oaks conference backfired so suddenly that he had to run to cover at once. In his dilemma he called upon Willkie, as a Republican, to help him out. But Willkie replied that political partisanship should have no part in this conference. The stake of world security and world peace was too great to let petty politics enter into the discussions.

Willkie certainly does not agree with Dewey in other things besides criticizing the efforts being made towards world peace. He does not agree with Dewey who oppesses adequate protection of labor during the reconversion period. He does not agree with Dewey that the Kilgore Plan of having the government aid those who can not obtain employment, is impossible. He does not agree with Dewey that the Federal government should do no planning for our future economy, but should let the large corporations and the 48 different states take care of that.

In all these questions Willkie can do an inestimable service to the American people by speaking his mind in the forceful way in which he has been doing. Being a Republican does not mean following blindly where the Republican leaders go. It means rather, like Willkie, to follow in the footsteps of Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt. And they lead us, we believe, in the path that goes to the door of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the man who will lead the world to a permament peace.

We Must Win the Kilgore Plan!

We must not give up the struggle to win the Kilgore Plan. The defeat of the Kilgore bill in the U. S. Senate does not mean that we have lost the fight.

It is the duty of our government to guarantee to every citizen a decent living, and to protect all workers who may be thrown out of jobs during the period of reconversion. This is the assurance offered by the Kilgore plan.

Labor is not a political term. In fact when you think of labor, you think of the people. We know that the George bill, in opposition to the Kilgore bill, is not a people's plan, but stands rather as a block in the path of the workers' progress.

Knowing as we do the forces that blocked the passage of the Kilgore bill in the Senate, we must double our efforts now to win progressive amendments to the George bill before the House of Representatives. Having the assurance that this is the plan of the AFL, CIO, Railroad, and Independent Unions, we double our energies and call upon our people to throw their whole strength back of these labor organizations' legislative programs, especially in their fight to bring about progressive reconversion legislation. We must fight until we win the principles of the Kilgore bill—the responsibility of our government for every citizen in the United States.

W. J. Wheaton Says—

WHERE DOES WILLKIE STAND? That is the question which is stumping the Politicos. Can his, by any chance coincide with the ideologies of Hoover; Taft or the nominee of the GOP for the presidency in either their foreign or domestic policies! Unless there is a complete reversal of his stand that, to the most casual of his followers, seems unthinkable. Mr. Willkie has virtually been repudiated by the controlling factors of the Republican party, and it goes without saying that this factor will also control the Dewey policies; which are in a measure, reactionary while the policy of Wendel Willkie, both in his oral statements and in his writing, has been Progressive. There is no doubt but that the GOP would like to woo the erstwhile Sphinx to speak, but to date there has been on indication that his vocal chords have loosed.

We have been advised from New York that the recent backfiring attacks made by Governor Dewey on Tobias, and Powell has created an adverse feeling in Harlem, and have alienated many former admirers, and deflected many votes. As we so often have said, any disagreement from the "Moss Laden Thought" of pre-Historic eras are dubbed communistic. A few more leaders with the dynamic and unpurchasable courage of Powell and Tobias will be a boon to all minority groups.

This poetic essay is contributed by Mrs. Leila Moore of San Francisco, a most talented young Matron. Mrs. Moore is a dramatic reader of merit and contributes her ability for all worthy causes. The following was given before an appreciative audience and was received.

Your face is white—and mine is black—listen my friend,
Why turn your back on me?
I went to school with your children and teachers taught,
when the Negro was set free.
I can take reading and writing, arithmetic — also a business course, foreign language or anything; Pass with honors high.
Regardless of job you advertise, I can not apply.
You shake your head and the expression on your face, reads like letters on the wall.
MY FACE IS BLACK—Your job I cannot try.
Don't you know the Lord made my brain, just as he made yours?
If this war hadn't come about, you wouldn't be using me to do all these different jobs—
BUT STILL I'M SUPPOSED TO BE FREE.
If you could find any other race to take this job I do,
You would try and put us back to scrubbing and doing things, you think we are only fitted to.
Do you know we can do any job, if we were given a chance.
We can do more than sing and cook, act a monkey for you and dance.
Just you stop and think a while; then turn your face upon your black friend and glance, if he was only given a little chance
Your face is white—and mine is black——
I did not make myself.
God put us here on earth; Said that we were brothers.
But I can truthfully say, this black man is An American.
When it comes to choosing, job or anything—
You pick all around for any other race.
BECAUSE MY FACE IS BLACK.
ABE LINCOLN Freed the slaves;
But would you call me free?
The only thing I can do as you, my friend, is to worship Christ like thee.
When it comes to fighting, Say you don't fight alone—
You call on us to help, we die, our blood we shed too—isn't really good enough for you, we offer it but it's not fit——
BECAUSE MY FACE IS BLACK.
We are real Americans, even though I can't, say we are free.
But we never get any thanks, OUR FACES ARE BLACK.
Brothers, to lock our arms and hand in hand as Christ intended us too—
No my friend, you wouldn't do this——
Are you afraid that I'm a little smarter than you, if I were given a small step, to show you what I could do?
You have chained us on all sides and we have held our heads high.
In our hearts, we know we are supposed to be Free.
You can't keep me from knowing within myself, what you're always thinking or calling me.
MY FACE IS BLACK—
Oh, Heavenly Father, they can't keep us from worshipping Thee.
Though all nations Thou hast made, shall come and worship before Thee, and glorify Thy name—regardless of what color their faces may be——
Whether black or white, red or yellow. In your sight we are as one.
And as for you my friend, before this war is over—
You and You, will remember what part the black man played, to gain his goal when done.
Yes, we will fight, Side by Side, with you—until this war is won.
Peace in this WORLD—for US a——— BLACK STRUGGLING RACE
That's what we want, regardless of what comes.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Bass:

A lot of water has passed under the bridge since last I wrote you and the events I have witnessed and taken part in have been very interesting.

When I last wrote you, I was somewhere on the broad Pacific headed for an unknown destination which turned out to be New Guinea. Since then I have traveled far and wide on this second largest island in the world and am at present sitting on what was until a few days ago, the hottest spot in the New Guinea campaign.

Things are a little quieter now and I am taking the opportunity to thank you for your very kind letter and to give you some of my impressions of overseas service.

To begin with most people in the U. S. seem to forget that we are fighting a war over here and while we may not get the headlines or carry the glamour that the boys in the Europe Theatre seem to rate, yet to us, war over here is a grim business, harder, tougher, dirtier and more dangerous than anything the boys in Europe have faced or will face.

Over there they move from one or more less civilized and inhabited place to another simflar place, while over here, when we move from one jungle to another where the mosquitoes may be larger, the snakes more deadly, the natives less friendly, the jungle more dense, malaria more prevalent, leeches much thicker and the Japs more bothersome.

Here every bush may conceal a foe, either the living enemy or the more deadly and dangerous malaria fever and yet under these conditions the men in New Guinea, black and white alike, have fought and won one of the most significant victories of this global struggle.

Part of the Job

One of the interesting things is that people back in the states are still fighting over getting Negroes into more combat units and while I cannot understand why people sitting at home should be so anxious to have others killed, I must in all fairness explain that Negro combat units are not the only ones performing stevedoring and other service duties over here.

The soldier in the southwest Pacific is an all around man performing many duties in the course of his daily activities. White combat troops, some among America's most famous infantry units have, to my personal knowledge, worked daily loading and unloading ships, working on ration dumps and performing duties which nominally are reserved for service or labor units.

Recently when my company moved to a forward area, I was left behind to bring up organizational equipment as soon as transportation was available.

When I received movement orders, I requested the Sixth Army Liason representative to furnish help to move my equipment down to the loading point and load it on the LSTs. I was given sixty men from a famous white infantry unit who, working in two shifts, performed all the work under my direction. Some of these men were from Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, the Carolinas, yet never for one moment was there one hint of resentment on the part of these men who not only cheerfully accepted my directions but swapped experiences, shared the latest news from home and in general made themselves so helpful that I for one will follow with bated breath the exploits of that particular division for I have many friends there whom I met through that one experience.

On the other hand it is unfair to Negro service troops to picture them as only doing manual labor for these men are workers and fighters. My own company has seen more action and had more lead pitched at it than many a combat unit who although overseas have not yet received their baptism of fire. A case to the point is the story of the company's activities during the past two months.

We took part in two major operations of great strategic importance. On the last of these operations the company beached immediately after the assault troops and proceeded immediately to expedite the flow of ammunition to the infantry. This was not an easy operation for during the day they were continuously bombed and strafed by enemy Zeros and bombers.

No Buiscuits

Only skillful leadership, high moral and the perfect discipline of seasoned troops prevented a great loss of life. Strafing does not sound so frightening when you read about it but if you ever see; (which I sincerely hope you do not), one Zero heading your way with bullets in all directions but seemingly all aimed at you, you will understand. Well, our boys never saw single Zeros, they came in groups of tens, twenties and thirties. One afternoon the boys were lined up for chow and they were happy as they were going to get hot food for the first time since the landing.

California Eagle Asks Why the Howl?

The CIO Political Action Committee is becoming more and more the target of the ill-timed shots fired by such reactionaries as Martin Dies, Cotton Ed Smith, Joe Sarnes, Costello, and the Hearst and McCormick press. That committee and its contemporary, the Citizens Political Action Committee, is putting forth every effort to get every citizen to register. Neither committee is trying to influence any one to register in any political party. Every one registers according to his own choice.

What can be wrong with that? Yet Dies, et al, are boo-hooing to the moon that these committees are tainted with Communism! Terrible, isn't it? The California Eagle is of the opinion that when any one raises such a howl about anything so manifestly truly American as to get every citizen to register and to vote, there must be something wrong with those who are doing the howling. No one would need to search far to ferret out the rottenness of Dies, Costello, Hearst, and their gang. Their homemade Fascism smells to high Heaven, and causes them to label true Americanism with the term Communism.

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

I sat in the office of Councilman Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., talking to his secretary, Mrs. Lilyan Jiggetts, an old friend of mine. We talked about old times—we had worked together in Harlem on many campaigns.

"Have you heard about our 'Miss Subways' campaign, started by Councilman Davis?" asked Mrs. Jiggetts. Having been away from New York and its subways for a year and a half, I had to admit I knew nothing about it.

First let me explain what "Miss Subways" is all about. Several years ago something new appeared among the advertisements in the subways. John Robert Powers, famous for his beautiful models, selected a picture each month or so, of a good-looking girl, supposedly representative of American woman hood. The picture selected would appear in the subway for the month, under the title "Meet Miss Subways."

The caption appearing under the picture usually reads something like this: "Lovely Mary Smith, Irish by birth, Mary has a throaty voice and blue eyes. This Queens College co-ed has charm, beauty and brains. She's studying to be an interpreter."

In the history of that subway feature, not once has the picture of a Negro woman appeared. Why not? That was the question asked by Councilman Davis in a letter to the New York Subway Advertising Company. That is a question many New Yorkers have been asking.

There was no answer from the company to Councilman Davis' first letter, but in answer to his second, they wrote: "apparently our editorial people inadvertently filed your letter with 'fan mail.'" Mr. R. T. Harris, persident of that company, also wrote: "It seems at least to us hardly necessary to say that we have no objection on racial grounds to any candidates for 'Miss Subways.' We shall be glad to have as many Negro young women as wish to do so apply."

Councilman Davis originally wrote to the company commending the feature and urged that Negro young women as well as women of other minority groups should be included. He stated that only in this way could the feature be fully democratic and representative of all the different racial groups within our city, whose young women ride the subways in the course of their work in support of the war effort.

From there, the People's Voice took up the campaign and requested the Negro young women of the community to send in their names and photographs. The American Youth for Democracy at their dance at the Savoy Ballroom last month selected three girls whose names were to be submitted.

So far there has only been "Mary Smith, with blue eyes and blonde hair" or "Dorothy Jones, the auburn haired beauty with peaches and cream complexion." That's not representative of the American people—especially not of New York—melting pot of the world. The 7 million people who make up New York are of every color and description, every nationality and religion, and there is beauty in every group.

It's the same old story: "We don't discriminate—BUT." Let's have more action and less words. Pictures of Negro women as well as other national minorities would be proof of their democratic belief.

How about it, Mr. Powers?

THE PULPIT VOICE

REV. HAMILTON T. BOSWELL

Minister, Bowen Memorial Methodist Church

"TOMORROW'S LEADERS" is the caption of a Y.M.C.A. poster now being displayed as a car-card in L. A. Railway trams. The poster shows a group of servicemen with their hands on the shoulders of a group of younger boys. One of these bright-eyed, intelligent younger boys is a Negro-American, "Tomorrow's Leaders."

Christian leaders too often preach the gospel without teaching techniques of translating the "good news" into the "good life". We need to practice the scales and undertones of the good life if we would acquire the mastery of transmitting the knowledge of that life into great overtones of spiritual deeds and symphonies of harmonious living with tach other.

We must begin now the plans for living in the peace to come. We must start now to prevent the seeds of disharmony among peoples that if continued to grow will result in the next war. Not in loving words and phrases, but in our own individual thinking must we sow the seeds of proper attitudes in relation to our fellowman.

Quoting from World Outlook, a Methodist publication: July '44 " . . . Ministers and Laymen from all parts of the United States met recently at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanstone, Ill., under the leadership of Dr. Ed. Soper to consider 'Racism and World Order', and the program of the church in this field.

Its conclusions were disturbing: Racism — which includes race prejudice, the philosophy of superior and inferior races, and the persecution and economic subjection of any group of people because of their color, race, language, or religion—is a social phenomenon that has grown tremendously across the world during the past century.

Racism can be traced to economic struggle or competition, but more lately a psuedo-religious or psuedo-scientific philosophy of supreiority-inferiority has developed as its justification. It may increase rather than decrease after World War II because of the expected economic struggle among nations and groups within nations.

Racism even now is sowing seed which may lead to World War III—a war which may be the races of color against the white man. Unless the 'terms of peace,' especially the economic terms, are fair and just to all men everywhere (including the losers in battle) that was it now in the making."

These negative disharmonies of living evidenced in our own community: such as denying Japanese - Americans their homes on the Pacific Coast, restricting Negro-Americans from economic and neighborhood opportunities, branding Mexican-Americans because of what they wear, persecuting Jewish-Americans because of what they eat—these disruptive attitudes bent on producing only evil in the lives of our citizens must be changed by Christian leaders to creative attitudes that will produce good actions today and tomorrow—as illustrated in the Y. M. C. A. poster, 'Tomorrow's Leaders'.

SPIRITUAL LECTURE AND BOOK REVIEW

The Rev. Richard V. Randolph, founder and president of the Society of The Sacred Seven, Incorporated, of Chicago, Illinois, is the house-guest of Mrs. E. M. Anderson, the mother of our famed radio and screen star, Eddie (Rochester) Anderson, 2008 West 28th Street.

The Rev. Randolph is author of the recently published and provocative book, "God Power In The Sacred Symbol Seven." He will give a lecture and book review at the above address, Thursday afternoon, September 7, at 3:00 p. m. The public is invited. Phone PArkway 9043.

Spiritual Advisor

Dr. John J. Masters

May be seen in person for private consultation and advice by special appointment. Call CE. 2-4534

He is leader of the Temple of the Holy Nazarene, which has been incorporated under California law. The church is located at 1139 East 51st St.

Doctor Masters was born in India. Services are held every Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and Sunday night 7:30 p.m. Circles are held every Tuesday night at 7:30; spiritual classes held every Thursday night.

Persons wishing to write to him for advice may do so by sending the letters to Post Office Box 72, Station K, Los Angeles, Zone 11.

TO ATTEND NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION — Rev. Charles M. Toney, field secretary of the Los Angeles District Association of the Western Baptist Convention, will attend the National Baptist Convention to be held in Dallas, Texas, September 6th to 9th, inclusive. Texas is his home state for his district church and pastor, by vote, Rev. A. C. Capers of Faithful Central Baptist Church, East 40th Place and Paloma street, Los Angeles.

Rev. Toney served in 1928 and 1937 conventions held in Los Angeles, California, as yell leader for the choir of 500 voices directed by Mme. Outley. He also served as special escort during the Goodwill Tour in 1935, as he was second vice president of the Baptist Ministers' Union at Los Angeles. He served well. Rev. Toney asks to be remembered in your prayers.

REV. ANITA L. EDMONDS

Rev. Anita L. Edmonds, pastor of The Universal Evangelical Church, 2503 S. Central Ave., is taking a much needed rest at the beach. The young prelate is planning a building program for the ensuing year. She is also a government worker, which accounts for the much needed rest period she is now taking.

Services will be resumed Friday evening, Sept. 8th at 8 o'clock. A great Divine Healing Service is planned.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude for the kind expressions of sympathy from our many friends and especially to the ministers, Rev. A. Glover, of Riverside, Rev. J. W. Isaac, of Second Baptist A.M.E. church, and many others for the comforting sermons and remarks on the death of our father and mother, Mr. Bates Mays and Mrs. Elvira Mays. We are deeply appreciative also of the beautiful floral offerings from Riverside, Marysville, South Los Angeles, and Los Angeles.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Psalms, and reads: "Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: . . . Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts"

"Rise, take up thy bed, and walk," commanded Jesus of the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda. "And," according to John's Gospel, "immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: . . . And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, . . . because he had done these things on the sabbath day. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. . . . The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: . . . For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth."

"God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God," writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." And she adds, "Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago."

Western Baptist Closes Sessions

The Western Baptist State Convention of California closed its session at Friendship Baptist Church, Pasadena, Dr. William D. Carter, pastor, recently. President Hampton recommended that the property now owned by the Convention be used in the future as a Baptist Center. A committee was appointed to work out details. The meeting was largely attended and much interest manifested by the delegates. Another outstanding feature was the election of Mrs. Blanche Carter of Santa Monica as President of the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Convention. Mrs. Carter was formerly director of young peoples' activities. The Executive Secretary reported the Convention holdings as in fine shape.

All officers were reelected and Santa Monica was selected as the meeting place in August, 1945. Calvary Baptist Church is to be the host church, Rev. W. P. Carter is pastor.

Church Thronged For Funeral Rites

Riverside, Calif.—Funeral services for Stanley Y. Beverly, Jr., who was fatally wounded at Mira Loma Quartermaster depot where he had been employed as a civilian worker, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the Park Avenue Baptist church.

A throng of friends attended the rites, which were conducted by Rev. L. B. Moss. Interment followed at Olivewood Cemetery.

The altar and the casket were banked with floral offerings and special music marked the services. The entire choir was present to sing several numbers. Soloists were Mrs. Eva Allen, Los Angeles, formerly of Riverside who sang "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me," and Findley Culpepper who sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Harriet Strickland and Mrs. Edna Williams were accompanists.

Pallbearers included Sterling Hopkins, Jerry Hannon, Vernon Gordon, Clayton Gordon, John Jordan and Ralph Ashton.

Arrangements for the funeral were in charge of Tillie's Funeral Home.

Stanley Y. Beverley, Jr., was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Y. Beverley of this city. He was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Alves, also of Riverside.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Connie Beverley, 2906 Eleventh street, and five children, La Gulias, Barbara Ann, Robert, Alice Louise and Frank.

Surprise Pastor

THE ORGAN GUILD of The Peoples' Independent Church of Christ, one of the groups organized two years ago by its pastor, Rev. Clayton D. Russell, surprized the pastor and church officials at the Sunday morning service Aug. 27, when this band of loyal WOMEN, through its versatile President, Mrs. Madia Bonner, presented its SECOND $500 Post War Building Fund pledge. This totals the sum of $1000 paid in by this club towards this grand project. Shortly after its organization, a $1000 Steinway Piano purchased through the alertness of its lovable Advisor, Mrs. Fannie E. Benjamin, was its first gift to the church. The work of this club extends beyond its church walls; It is sponsored through the Advisor, a high-cultured program at the Avalon U.S.O., which climaxed in the serving of an un-surpassable dinner for The Boys in Service. This club heartily thanks all those who, in the past, made it possible for their plans to mature, and with your help is looking forward to accomplish much more. THE ORGAN GUILD has learned to meet success by Trusting Our God.

Cornerstone Baptist Church News Briefs

By Bernice McGlover

Sunday, August 27, was a great day at the Cornerstone Baptist Church. It was the closing of the 8th anniversary celebration of Pastor D. C. Austin and Mrs. Austin, and the church is happy to announce that the pastor and his wife received many lovely girts, along with the sum of $368.00 in cash. $576.88 was raised for the church.

Pastor Austin, and the president of the Junior Missionary, Odessa Reed, and a Senior Missionary member, Mrs. Huggins, will be leaving on Sunday, September 3, to attend the National Baptist Convention in Tennessee. We are sending our prayers along with them.

The EAGLE BIBLE QUESTION CORNER

Conducted by
The Sweet Chariot Hour Bible Correspondence School
Address All Questions to Eagle Question Corner
4075 S. Central Ave.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

How is it that Protestants when they repeat the Apostle's Creed say that they believe in the holy Catholic Church?—Mrs. B. M., Los Angeles.

The term is not used in the sense that it refers to a particular denomination such as the Roman Catholic Church. But the term is used in referring to the universal Christian church. Originally this term was given to the Christian Church in general, but the term is now claimed by the Roman Catholic Church. In the Bible there are several books in the New Testament called "Catholic Epistles." They are the books of James, 1 and 2 Peter, 1, 2 and 3 John and Jude. They are called "Catholic Epistles" because they addressed the Church in general.

What is a cherub and a cherubim?—K. P., Santa Monica, Cal.

Cherubim is the plural of cherub. They are not angels. Very little is said about their shape in the Bible except that they had wings. Representations of them were used in the Tabernacle and the Temple.

What is the difference between the Decalogue and the Ten Commandments? — C. J., Pasadena, Calif.

The decalogue is another term used to refer to the Ten Commandments. The decalogue or Ten Commandments were given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai and were spoken in the hearing of the children of Israel at the base of the mountain. Exodus 20.

In Jeremiah 2:22 I read about fuller's earth soap. What is it? —Pvt. B. D., San Francisco.

It is a cleansing substance, probably alkalai, used by the fullers. Fullers were bleachers and cleaners of cloth or garments.

In 2 Timothy 3:3 it speaks of people being incontinent as a sign of the last days. What is the meaning of the word as used here?—G. O., Los Angeles.

Incontinent means lacking self-control. It refers in this verse to those given to unchastity and intemperance.

Were the lawyers of Christ's day the same as the ones today? J. K., Long Beach.

No. The Hebrew lawyers were explainers of the law in the synagogues and schools. They did not plead in courts, and were entirely different from lawyers of the present time.

Albert McNeil Will Resume Independent Choir Direction Sun.

Albert J. McNeil, youthful Minister of Music to the People's Independent Church of Christ, will resume his musical activities Sunday, September 3rd after a well earned four weeks vacation. With the coming of the fall season, Mr. McNeil will begin his second year as head of the music department of this historic church.

Made History

During the past year, the young musician has made local church history in his presentations, for the first time in a church in this community, of the following: Handel's oratorio "The Messiah"; Mendelssohn's "Elijah"; and most recently the colorful opera "Carmen" which was presented to an overflow audience in early July. The twenty-three year old musician has overcome indescribable obstacles to make possible the best for this community.

Besides his church commitments, McNeil is a regular teacher of music in the Los Angeles Public Schools; founder and president of the Director's Council of the Federation of Church Choirs; colleague-member American Guild of Organists; and is completing residence requirements at the University of Southern California toward the degree Master of Science in Education.

This young man as a musician and teacher ranks with the best and deserves the sincere congratulations of the citizenry.

Pilgrimage Play

The Pilgrimage Play currently appearing at the Pilgrimage Hollywood Bowl is now in its last two weeks and the public is urged to attend this great spectacle. Performances start at 8:15 p.m. Doors open at 7:15 p. m.

ATTENDS CONVENTION—Rev. D. C. Austin, pastor of the Cornerston Baptist Church, will leave Sunday, September 3, 1944, to attend the National Baptist Convention. The church recently closed a successful 8th Anniversary Celebration for the pastor and his wife.

Minister Honors Mother and Wife

The Saint Francis and Saint Pauline's Holy Mission, which is holding vesper hour at the Christian Church, 33rd and Hooper Avenue every Sunday at 4:00 p.m., was so named by Dr. W. Alex D. Venerable, to the sacred memory of his late mother, Frances, and wife, Pauline.

Friends and strangers are invited to attend these all-inspiring services. Reverends A. L. Brewer, Leo-De-LaFern, and John F. Rowe, are associates.

The Rev. George R. Garner To Sing On The Sweet Chariot Hour

Rev. George R. Garner, internationally known tenor, will be guest soloist on the popular Sweet Chariot Hour broadcast next Saturday evening, 6:30-7:00 p.m., over station KPAS (1110 kcys). He will be accompanied by Netta Paullyn Garner, concert piano artist.

The Sweet Chariot Hour broadcast is aired by remote control from the auditorium of the Sunset Avenue Church of Pasadena, corner of Sunset and Pepper, where the Rev. Owen A. Troy features the singing of the Sweet Chariot Hour. The Sweet Chariot Singers have been on the air for a year and eight months, and have the distinction of having the largest inter-racial audience on any all-colored program west of Chicago.

A preliminary program will be presented in the auditorium of the church next Saturday evening, at 6:00 p.m. This program, preceeding the broadcast, is open to the public. At this preliminary program, Mrs. Garner will appear in the role of soloist. The broadcast will immediately follow the preliminary program and is free to the public.

School Tax Drops

School taxes on property in Los Angeles county totalled $46,680,540 for 1932-333, dropped to $27,590,940 for 1933-34, with the transfer of county school support to the State treasury, and climbed to $43,537,783 for 1943-44, California Taxpayers' Association stated today, making public its current analysis of school support in California.

THE LATE MARY JOHNSON—Shown with two of her daughters, the late Mrs. Lulu Slaughter and Mrs. Tommie Reeves, is Mrs. Mary Johnson who passed away two weeks ago. Born in Austin, Texas, Mrs. Johnson came to Los Angeles in 1916 and entered into the full life of the community. A lover of children, she bore eight of her own. Her philosophy was, "God never created a life he did not provide for." Ten days prior to her passing, Mrs. Johnson celebrated her 80th birthday. A host of friends and admirers mourn her loss.

Association Meets With New Hope B.C.

The Independent Missionary Baptist Association of Southern California held their first annual meeting with New Hope Baptist Church of Wilmington, California.

Rev. Chairty of Union Baptist Church, the moderator, presided.

Pre-Convention Tuesday evening was conducted by the young people of the various churches. Wednesday morning, at 9:30, Sunday School and B.T.U., with Rev. S. L. Taylor, Sunday School president, and Rev. A. T. Hines, B.T.U. president, presiding.

Thursday, all day, was women's day. Mrs. V. V. Taylor presided.

Sunday closed with a great Mass Meeting. The theme was "The Holy Spirit and Christian Fellowship." As we met face to face, we were reminded of that beautiful scripture, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity." The members of the association are working in peace and harmony, as our moderator is rich in zeal and enthusiasm for the cause of Christ.

The essence and principles of the Independent Missionary Baptist Association is embodied in the sublime idea of the Fatherhood of God. True to this noble sentiment its deeds of charity may not be blazoned before the world, but will find a grateful echo in the hearts of needy brothers.

Visitors were our state workers, Rev. and Mrs. Pius Dean Reed, Mrs. Dyson, Miss C. Chambray, and several others.

We closed with encouraging remarks from our missionary, Rev. Alexander. The session was high in spirit and financially successful. The amount raised was $511.15. Rev. Chairty, moderator; Rev. S. L. Taylor, pastor of New Hope; Rev. F. L. Jordan, reporter.

Mrs. Charles Reed Bishop will speak Sunday, September 3, 3 p.m., at the Baha'i Center, 1709 West 8th Street, on: "THE GATE TO THE CITY." It is the second of five consecutive lectures by this noted speaker, but is the first of four important talks leading up to the subject of Freedom and the World Community. "The course," she says, "will establish the basis of the Baha'i Faith and Teachings, and will deal first with the function of religion in an ever-changing society; and proceed to discussing the nature of the spiritual power which renews society in every age." Students of religion and all who are interested in the social and spiritual path mankind is taking are warmly invited to attend. There are no admission fees or collections.

Rites Held for Rev. Wm. Young

Funeral services for Rev. William Henry Young, 11308 Alabama Street, were held from Grant A. M. E. Chapel, 108th and Compton, August 16, with Rev. F. A. Harris, Presiding Elder of the A.M.E. Church, in charge. Rev. J. Green, J. W. Price, J. F. Jones, and Luther Taylor also paid tributes to Rev. Young's career. Mrs. Feida L. Taft read the obituary, and Mrs. Blanche Woods directed the music.

REV. WM. HENRY YOUNG

Born in 1886, Rev. Young lived at New London, Conn. until 1903 when he joined his uncle at Fowler, Calif. Following his service in the U. S. Navy, while still a resident of New London, Rev. Young married and was the father of thirteen children, nine of whom survive him along with his wife, four son-in-laws, two daughter-in-laws, and ten grandchildren, one of whom is in the armed services.

During his early life in California, Rev. Young was employed both by the Southern Pacific Company and by Captain William Banning, one of the former owners of Catalina Island. Mrs. Joseph Brent Banning, sister-in-law of his former employer, related the fact that Rev. Young regularly held Sunday evening services during their camping trips. During his employment at the Southern Pacific, Sunday evenings regularly found him preaching from the northwest corner of 12th and Central. Rev. Young also published a tract which he enclosed with all his mail.

Rev. Young not only preached brotherly love, but lived it, and is remembered by many for his protest of the refusal of burial to a Negro by a Los Angeles Cemetery. Because of this action, he helped to develop Paradise Memorial Park where all people, regardless of race, color, creed, or national origin, may find a burial place. Lots were purchased there for his family. South Los Angeles Mortuary was in charge of Rev. Young's burial at Paradise Memorial Park.

Sgt. Alexander Wins Good Conduct Medal

WITH THE 93rd INFANTRY DIVISION IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC AREA.—Staff Sergeant Frank E. Alexander, husband of Mrs. Lillian P. Alexander, 1456 East 103rd Street, Los Angeles, California, has fought in several engagements in Spain before entering the 93rd Division in the present conflict. He fought with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade against the Fascist in Spain, and spent fourteen months on the front lines, during which time he was wounded twice.

Since entering the Southwest Pacific he has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal, for meritorious service and outstanding performance of duty, and the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon.

He recently became the proud father of a seven pound baby girl, and is anxious to complete his job over here and return to his wife and see the new addition to his family.

Zion Temple

Next Sunday morning, Sept. 3, will be the opening of the tenth anniversary of Zion Temple, 1315 East Vernon Avenue. This service will be a Memorial in honor of the founder, the late Bishop Sarah L. Butler after which there will be a pilgrimage to the grave of the founder. The speaker of the morning will be Rev. Eloise Alexander. There will be special church programs each night during the week. Class night will be Tuesday, Sept. 5, featuring the work of the various classes of the church also graduation and awarding of diplomas. On Saturday Night Sept. 9, in the auditorium of the church honoring the three practioners, Sisters June Jackson, Luella Johnson and Brother Horace Nesby, there will be our annual banquet. Be sure to make your reservations early by calling Rev. Louise V. Fulkhum, Adams 14801.

This will also mark the fourth anniversary of Rev. Geraldine O'Conner as pastor of the church. She is doing a very outstanding work in the church both as to the increase in membership and in a financial way.

USO Scrapbook Project Calls For Volunteers

Nexvt to letters from home, the members of our armed forces overseas and the wounded and ill war sufferers, who are recuperating in Uncle Sam's hospitals, appreciate more than anything else knowing what is going on in the world away from Jap jungles and European hedgerow hotbeds.

This yearning for pictures of familiar scenes is being satisfied by the scrapbook project of the U.S.O. Under the direction of Mrs. Irene Ranney, this U.S.O. activity is now in operationfrom a commodious file and clipping room provided on its seventh floor by the Broadway Department Store.

Mrs. Ranney yesterday issued a call for volunteer workers to help clip magazines and make scrapbooks. Anyone who can spare even a few hours weekly for this patriotic work is requested to communicate with Mrs. Ranney immediately. The project headquarters are open between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily.

This appeal for volunteer workers has been made through the community newspapers of Southern California by the cooperation of the Bureau of Public Service of the Los Angeles Railway.

The Young People of the Senior Choir of the Mt. Sinai Missionary Baptist Church, 225 South Mesa street, San Pedro, Calif., will present Roena Savage in concert on Sunday afternoon, September 3, at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Savage through preparation, much of which was made during her matriculation at USC, is one of the finest artists it is possible to present on any occasion.

For a time, she taught music at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri. The public is invited to hear her.

I wonder if the tides of spring
Will always bring me back again
Mute rapture at the simple thing
Of lilacs blooming in the rain.

Neighborhood Church Closes Its $30,000 Campaign

War of Roses Next Sunday Will Terminate Campaign

The Neighborhood Community Church, San Pedro street at 47th place, will close the financial drive, known as the War of the Roses, next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The clubs and organizations of the church will also make their financial reports, all of which will be applied on the mortgage debt on the church and parsonage.

This church was organized September 22, 1940, four years ago, by the Rev. H. Mansfield Collins, former pastor in the A.M.E. Denomination, at the Wesley Community Center with two hundred twenty-six members and has grown to a membership of over one thousand. Immediately after the organization, a large tract of land at 49th and Avalon boulevard was purchased upon which to erect a church building but was hindered by the coming of the war. These lots are still in possession of the church and plans are made to erect other buildings thereon in the near future.

One year ago last January the congregation moved to the present location, purchased and remodeled at the cost of $30,000. The debt has been reduced to $6,300 since that date and the congregation is now rallying to pay that amount Sunday, after which the church will be dedicated. Pastor Collins says he is confident that every cent will be paid at that time. Dr. Collins has been known throughout the country as The Dollar Money King of the A.M.E. Church and still proves himself the Master of Finance in paying off such a debt within one and one-half years.

The church, located in one of the most fashionable residential sections of the city is one of the most attractive and complete plants, modern in every respect, and surrounded by a beautiful lawn covered with flowers and shrubbery which gives it a distinct California setting. It has a commodious community hall for group meetings, Sunday school work, offices, nursery, etc., seven rooms being devoted to such activities. On the first floor of the hall has been set aside a private prayer room for silent meditation known as the "Sanctuary," which contains a beautifully draped altar, statuary in marble, an oil painting, life size, of Christ In The Garden. This room has been dedicated especially for prayers for soldiers and sailors, where candles burn for them each week, as well as the "Sanctuary Light," denoting the presence of God in the Church, which burns both day and night.

Beginning September 17, the Fourth Anniversary celebration will begin in which many city pastors and churches will join. On Thursday night of this present week the Rev. Mr. L. C. Cleaves of Phillips Temple will visit with his congregation at which time he will preach. This meeting is sponsored by The Daisy Lee Guild, Alene Bruner Brown, president.

At the morning service next Sunday Dr. Collins will use as his theme, "What Is Your Life." The only other service will be at the 4 o'clock hour when the report of clubs and the War of Roses will be made. Mr. Thomas Tisdale is the Duke of the House of York and Mr. E. Preston Green the Duke of the House of Lancaster; Mrs. Zelda Cleaver and Mrs. Conciella Morris are the respective duchesses.

The public is invited to all of these services.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

Contrast the smooth, unifying political activities of the CIO with the arrogant, supposedly subtle operations of certain Hollywood progressives and you've got something to think about. The CIO-PAC program is dedicated to the re-election of President Roosevelt and a House and Senate that will uphold his administration; our progressive friends maintain loudly for the same thing with heavy emphasis on full equality for the Negro. They proclaim their belief in the brotherhood of man and proceed with the utmost dispatch to work for that equality by employing the divide and conquer tactic which they profess to hate with abandon. They are particularly alert to the possibilities of the Negro press, as, luckily, we of that press happen to be also.

John M. Lee

Shrewdly, deceitfully they play one negro newspaper against the other in order to gain, what they believe to be, an advantage for their side. They refer to ordinary writers as present day "Horace Greeley's", hoping to gain a convert to their way of thinking, which happens in this instance to be the right way, but you wouldn't think so after you get on to their maneuvers.

"John The Baptist"

Some time back in my home town we had a character whom everybody called "John the Baptist". He was a stout, bluff, almost illiterate Negro who used to go down to Republican headquarters around election time and get a wad of dough and a seemingly endless supply of ten cent cigars. Fortified thus, he went into the community among his people, to tell of the merits of the Republican candidates.

He had been to headquarters and he had been annointed, or greased, by the white folks; they had called him great and a leader, and he expected the lesser Negroes to look up to and respect him. For a time, they tolerated him, but they soon showed resentment against the practice of having greatness and leadership hand-picked for them, so they formed the habit of voting against the candidates whom "John the Baptist touted. Some of them were good candidates too.

The issues in this campaign are clear-cut enough for anybody to understand. There is no need to employ cajolery and flattery to gain support. Negro voters will respond to intelligent information the same as will any other group of voters. The CIO knows this, and consequently the leadership coming from that body will be accepted without suspicion or question.

On the other hand there is room for plenty of suspicion in quarters where the approach and the follow-through are based upon a hypocritical, pseudo- social equality premise.

The disease of believing that nothing is good for one Negro unless it can be denied to another Negro is affecting too many of our brothers in distress. This election is too important to be hampered by the opinionated muddling of any so-called progressive who thinks that because he has eaten with a few Negroes, he knows the whole race.

Let's get on with the business of winning the election, and leave the business of leadership to the Negro people themselves. My plan is to string along with the CIO, they are trying to educate everybody, without showing undue preference for anybody.

Shipyard Workers Plan Action To Remove AFL Jim Crow Policy

Last Monday nite Shipyard workers met at the 28th Street Y.M.C.A. for the purpose of designing plans which will aid in their program to become regular members of the Boilmakers regular Local. The shipyarders very recently entered their first fight in the California courts, where they are striving to prove conclusively, that the Auxiliary (for Negroes only) Union policy, is a policy of racial discrimination, and that such a policy is illegal. Decisions from both the Superior, and State Supreme Courts are now pending.

Shipyard workers have previously solicited intervention by the President's Fair Employment Practice Committee, where orders issued by that agency to the A. F. of L. Boilermakers Union and Shipyard Companies calling for total elimination of racial discrimination practices and policies, are at present awaiting enforcement.

FEPC ENFORCEMENT

The shipyard production workers retain full confidence, that the President's Committee will enforce their orders in due time. In a letter sent to the Fair Employment Practice Committee this week, the Shipyard Workers Committee for Equal Participation clarified the position of the 5,000 Negro Boilermakers, as being uncompromisingly opposed to the establishment of separate union autonomy for Negroes, as such a condition, even if granted by the Boilmakers Union, would serve as a disadvantage, and at the same time, bring about no change of their Jim Crow Policy.

An energetic renewal of their campaign Monday night found the Shipyard Committee soliciting the general support of the local N.A.A.C.P. Council. Arrangements are bing made to carry the campaign to the Long Beach and Santa Monica areas, where many Shipyard workers reside. Active support has been pledged to the Committee by many outstanding leaders of these two large communities.

SWING FESTIVAL

Plans are now being carried out to stage a gigantic Swing Festival at the Elks Auditorium, featuring "Herb Jefferies" and his band Sept. 15th. The affair promises to present many attractions from the Hollywood Movie Colony. This event will be part of the Fund raising campaign. Shipyarders are invited to attend the regular meetings of the Committee every Monday night at 8 p.m. 1006 E. 28th Street Y.M.C.A.

DO'S AND DON'TS

L. A. Youth Project Picnic and Fun Night To Climax Summer Activities for Young People

A picnic at South Park Playground and a Teen-age Fun Night at the Woodlawn YWCA will climax a full and varied summer program for children and young people in the community sponsored by the Los Angeles Youth Project.

Sports, relay races, games, and singing will be part of the afternoon's program at South Park next Thursday, August 31. A special feature will be a program by the children of folk dances, plays, and songs, learned during the past two months at the different recreation centers. The attractive patio and lawn of the Woodlawn YWCA will be the scene of Fun Night and wiener bake the following night, Friday, September 1, for the Junior and Senior High age young people who have participated in summer teen-age programs.

Under the leadership of a corps of Youth Project summer workers, a greatly expanded program has been carried on during the past two months in church and community centers. Included in the activities have been: the day camp for boys at the 28th Street Y.M.C.A.; the girls' backyard camp at the Woodlawn Y.W.C.A.; a daily program mornings, afternoons, and evenings at Lincoln Memorial Church, All Peoples Community Center; and activities throughout the week at Bowen Memorial Church, Vincent Methodist Church, and Wesley Community Center. Special activities, supplementing the regular daily programs of the centers have been carried on at Nevin School Playground and the Eastside Settlement. Programs developed during the summer, and the enthusiastic response from adults and youth, it is reported by the workers, will probably mean that many activities started in the summer will be carried on throughout the year and will help to meet a much felt need for more constructive leisure-time activities for youth.

The Los Angeles Youth Project, which is financed through the War Chest, is a special project to provide greatly expanded group work and recreation activities for youth in the central, south central, and eastern section of the city. It was initiated a year ago by ten youth-service agencies: All-Nations Boys' Club, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Catholic Welfare Bureau, Church Federation, Girl Scouts, International Institute, Woodcraft Rangers, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. Results of the Projects' work have already been shown in the south central area with the decided growth throughout the past year in the number of young people enrolled in boys and girls clubs, co-ed recreation groups, athletic groups, and the summer program.

Children's Welfare Conference To Be Held On September 25th

The welfare of children the paramount concern of the entire community, hundreds of official delegates to the second Conference on Childhood and Youth in Wartime already have been appointed by civic groups in the Los Angeles area, it is announced by Olin Wellborn, III, chairman of the Conference continuing committee.

SEPT. 25

This second conference for overall planning for all children will take place on Monday, September 25th, at the Ambassador Hotel. It will start with an 8:30 breakfast meeting, continue throughout the day, with the final session at 7:30 in the evening.

Seventeen cities and more than 100 towns and communities included in the Community Welfare Federation have been invited to send delegates from their business, industrial and labor groups; churches, schools, public and private social agencies, men's and women's clubs. Representatives should be named by September 5th, Mr. Wellborn said, urging all Eastside groups who are interested in the welfare of the community's children, both now and after the war, to participate in the conclave.

By George Jefferson

There is a great deal of irony in the so-called educational campaign proposed for our newly arrived brethern from the South. It is deemed necessary to instruct these Negroes in the ways and proper etiquette to be shown in their relations with white people. No more knives, fist fights, and razors; courtesy is the order of the day.

And here is the joker—they are to take for great stone faces the integrated citizens of the community who have long enjoyed the liberal atmosphere of the city and who resent the menace of this new element.

It is admitted that colored Los Angeles was quieter, less boisterous twenty, and even two years ago, but also was not the entire city? It is one of the prices cities pay for their growth, especially such a phenomenal growth in population as Los Angeles has enjoyed.

All of the older citizens are not kind, peace loving people just as all the newer ones are not hoodlums and cut-throats. The "Avenue" was not a picnic ground yesterday and a street of iniquity today. Its scale of operations has increased, but its qaulity was always there.

Recently, I listened to an old timer talk about the "good old days." "It was different thirty-five years ago," he told me. "Go anywhere, do anything, never know you was black. Now look at it. Look at Oakland, San Francisco. They're ruining the country," he cried furiously. I only nodded, because being a comparative newcomer, naturally I didn't know what the score was.

Later, however, I began to think about his statement. I marvelled at the blind stupidity of one who could not see that by the very fact that race symptoms appeared with the influx of Negroes proved the poison to be there all along. And the solution to true race tolerance and mutual respect lay, not in a Utopian paradise where the Negro population is negligible, but in understanding the causes of race friction and its elimination. This can only be done through the complete abolition of prejudice and discrimination in the United States. So long as one Negro can be beaten and lynched in the South, we can never be completely free. The poison lies in watch, festering, waiting for its victim.

"CANDID COMMENTS"

GIPSONNET . . .
The man who knows how one should dine,
Who has the proper savoir faire,
Who knows just how to order wine,
Who handles waiters with an air.
Somehow it's always that man who
Just never has the money to.

RAMBLIN' NOTES FROM A RAMBIN' REPORTER . . . LAKE ELSINORE, CALIF.—The above Gipsonnet is another contribution to the col'm by Sis Willner . . .

J. T. Gipson

I was born in Stamps, Arkansas, but only because I wanted to be near my Mother. Otherwise, I would have preferred Lake Elsinore, Calif., as my birthplace. For a birdseye view of the town after 12 o'clock midnight, where people who never go to bed with the chickens go to bed with the chickens, because that's the only place in Elsinore one can go after 12 o'clock midnight. . . . Most of the streets are lined with tourist cabins, the most popular being the LA BONITA COURTS, which (during their vacations) housed boxer John Thomas, reporter Halley Harding and columnist J. T. Gipson—as if that's news. . . . Main Stemmers roughing it by going all through their vacations without a drink, simply because there's no place here to buy one. . . . The sultry summer atmosphere that's hotter than a Harry James trumpet chorus. . . . White downtown shopping clerks doing their best to polish forced smiles, trying to make you believe they enjoy your presence. There is prejudice here, but so little it's hardly noticeable. . . . .The town drenched with out-of-towners, bubbling out of cabins to make a bee line for the beach. . . . Damphool's grumbling that the lack of liquor will spoil their holiday. We remind them of Winchell's reminder, that in some parts of the world there isn't milk for children. . . . One of the oldest settlers here is a grand Gable-like guy named T. R. Yarborough. Thanks to him, we were able to turn out this drivel on time. Our heretofore "trusty" portable broke down in the middle of a paragraph, and we borrowed one owned by Mr. Yarborough. He'll make the headlines one of these not-too-distant days (oh fudge, not because he loaned us a typewriter, but) because of the "different type" novel he's putting between the bookends. . . . Don't be fooled, we love flattery—and this just about knocked us out: Visitors to the Lake Shore Beach are shown the table where J. T. Gipson wrote his col m during his vacation. And with a hawker, yet, pointing out where we sat! . . . Cutie strollin' down the stem, caused native Harry Wilson to crack: "She's shy and demure. Gotta whistle at her twice!". . . The fave spot to spent a summer's day (or sultry evng.: take your pick) is a beach known simply as Lake Shore. It's operated by an attorney named Dorton. By next summer he expects it to be "another Santa Monica," and at the rate of building progress—he'll make it, too! . . . Sunrise slowly pulling itself over the ice cream-colored horizon, while evening slips into something cool and blows her breath over the lake, throwing its moonlit brilliance over the many sun-tan'd bodies sleeping out under the trees. . . . "Sloppy Joe's," a bar on the outskirts of town, where the crowd goes after dark. It's Elsinore's answer to the angel city's Downbeat. Not quite, though, as elaborate. . . . One of the nicer guys in this burg is Jim Anderson, who owns the courts that housed the celebrities. His wife, Hazel, is one of the most charming and gracious women we have met in ages. She remains forever young by growing old gracefully. . . . Dinner at Elsinore Inn (the town's only hotel) was tops. There we ran into (and had an interesting chat with) Mr. J. E. Roundtree, assistant district attorney of San Diego county. Talk about a small world, he has the court across from ours—and we never even knew it! . . . Sitting around discussin' the anatomy of dames, Tommy Mullins observed: "The first thing J. T. notices about a woman is her personality." "You mean," corrected George Moore, "the first thing J. T. notices about a woman is whether or not Gertrude is around!". . . Lillian Lee Lomax (the visiting Debeauty, here with her mother) likes everything about Elsinore "but the sun." . . . Bernadine Lyons, on the staff of the L. A. Golden State Insurance Co., giving the yokels a break by strollin' down the stem in shorts and snug-tight sweater. Her loveliness gives the town class. . . . Ran into a bevy of brownskin beauts from the angel city showfront: Avanelle Harris, Cleo Hayes, Anise Boyer, Helen Davis, Lucille O'Daniel and Baby Simmons. . . . Seeing Baby reminded us of the pun she niftied our first day in town. Cleo tried to make us believe that she "got up at EIGHT o'clock this morning!". . . "Yeah," meow'd Baby, "she got up at 8, got a drink of water, and went right back to bed!". . . The loveliness and beauty of the lake and surrounding neighborhood in the evng. It makes you realize that nothing is more beautiful than nature (unless, of course, it's Lena Horne). . . . Cutie in the cool of evng. wearing a two-sizes-too-small crowded sweater, and flooring us with a quip that was born here: "Hell, I've got as much right to keep warm as Lana Turner!". . . The whispering breeze and still-like silence that falls over the town about dark, a typical "country" atmosphere. . . . What opportunity for investments! The town has no Negro barber shop; no Negro cocktail lounge; no Negro restaurant. And the one thing that would go over like a house afire is a Beer Garden (or, a community grocery store). . . . And with that, we leave you with this: "Buying war bonds is lots easier than learning how to speak Japanese!"

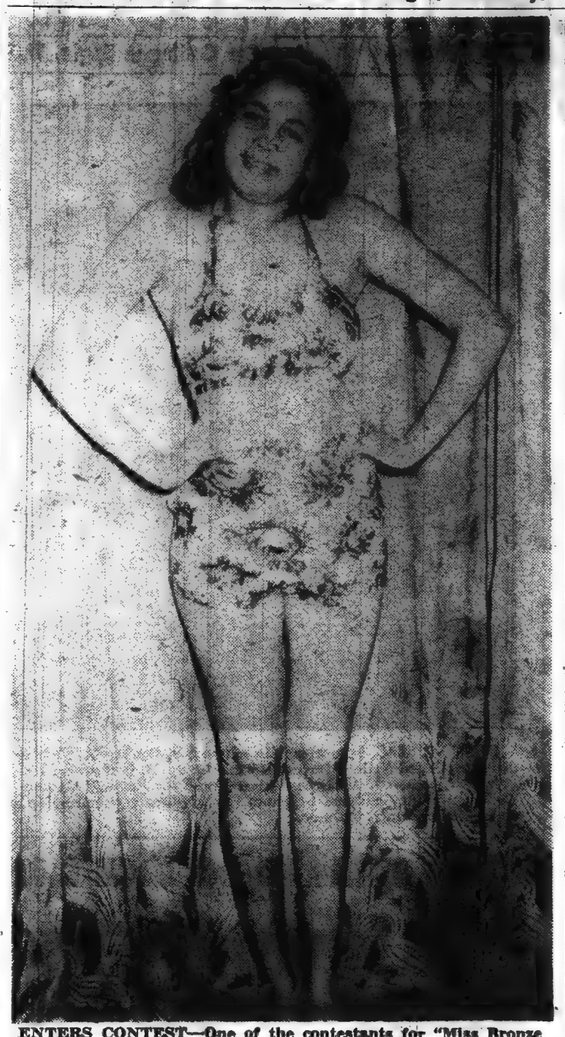
Apex Breakfast Club to Feature Solid Quartette

Roy "Sonnie" Howard and Harry Bigelow are just about ready to do it again. And what they're just about ready to do again is to present to the public one of the hottest musical combo's to come out of Harlem since Hector was a pup — to corn a phrase. The Messrs. Bigelow and Howard won't divulge the name of the Quartette (but we already konw, ha! ha! ha!) so you'll have to wait until next edition to find out. Why they are keeping it a secret is a secret we promised to keep, but take it from me, it's the grooviest, swingyest, riff-riding-rockinest group of musical madmen that ever beat out a mess o' sharps and flats!

In their first avenue appearance, the Quartette should go over like mad. Especially to all who love their swing in a pure unadulterated vein. And that's the kind of swing these cats dish out. They open next week and you'll see their name here. Until then, watch the papers.



Arlington Villa Scene of Review Set for Sunday

There will be a Musical and Fashion Review given at the Villa Arlington, 3115 W. Adams boulevard, September 3, from 3 to 7 p. m., under the auspices of Districts 3, 5 and 6 of Trinity Baptist Church. Queen candidate, Mrs. B. B. Cassell.

Louise Beavers, Olivette Miller, Dooley Wilson and Ernest Whitman are the guest stars slated to be present, the latter serving as master of ceremonies. Everyone is cordially invited to enjoy the evening with us. Silver offering.

'Winged Victory' Will Play Here

The Army Air Forces show, "Winged Victory," written and directed by Moss Hart, author of "Lady In The Dark," "You Can't Take It With You," "Once In A Lifetime," "Geo. Washington Slept Here" and other hits, opens a 3 week engagement at the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium on Oct. 9. The show recently completed a 6 months run on Broadway where it played 237 performances to over 325,000 people.

It is to be presented in 17 scenes with five revolving stages. The music has been written by Sgt. David Rose, composer of "Holiday for Strings." Proceeds from the production, which has grossed $1,047,000 to date, go to Army Charities. A 50 piece orchestra and 50 voice chours accompany this Army Air Forces production. "Winged Victory" will soon be released as a film by 20th Centry-Fox.

Archie Savage Troupe In "Danses Nouvelles"

The Archie Savage Dance Troupe, that amazing dance aggregation which made history a few weeks ago during the five highly successful performances which they gave at the Vanguard Theater in Hollywood, will do a one-night performance at the Embassy Auditorium, Eighth and Grand avenue, this Friday evening at 8:45 p. m. Members of the troupe include Camille Roane, Thomas Hughes, Monica Carter, Jayne Edwards, Ethel Washington, Charles Caballero, Roger Reynolds, James Truitte, William J. Loftlin, Dorothy Coleman, Paul and Philip Goodwin, Byron Ellis and Archie Savage.

One cannot view the success of the dancers without stopping to give credit to the director, Mr. Archie Savage, who is an artist of outstanding ability in his field. Mr. Savage, as many already know, was formerly a member of the Katherine Dunham dance troupe, and he does not hesitate in recognizing the fact that his training, under Miss Dunham, has been invaluable. What many do not know, however, is the fact that prior to Savage's connection with the Dunham troupe, he became a member of the dance company of Henry Winfield, who was the first Negro to recognize the possibilities of the modern interpretive dance. This group, which existed prior to the formation of Katherine Dunham's company, served as a great inspiration to young Archie Savage in the development of his art.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS NOTED

Mr. Savage, who was reared in New York, has many outstanding stage productions to his credit. Before connecting himself with Miss Dunham's company, in 1939, he was featured in a folk opera, "Four Saints in Three Acts," by Gertrude Stein; the Metrolopitan Opera House production of "Emperor Jones," and the highly successful play "Pins and Needles," which ran for a year on Broadway.

He was also a member of the Federal Theatre at the same time Orson Welles was connected with that organization, and enjoyed a measure of success in that capacity.

One of Mr. Savage's more recent achievements is the choreography which he did for the stage production entitled "8:40 Review."

To my knowledge Doris Spears became the first colored woman deputy sheriff. If I am wrong, please correct me. Anyway, she was appointed as a deputy and assigned as matron in the jail under Chief Fisher, last week. Officer Spears began her tour of duty immediately following her appointment.

Which naturally brings to the mind the Sheriff's Relief Association Show to be held at the Shrine Auditorium October 5th to 9th, inclusive. Just ask any deputy you see for a ticket or two. In addition to seeing a good show, you will be aiding a worthy cause. So dig, brother, dig.

THAT MAN LEONARD REED AT IT AGAIN

Leonard Reed will produce the floor shows at the Playhouse at First and Los Angeles. He is busy at this writing, getting the ladies of the ensemble in shape. The show may be opened by the time you read this. We have seen many a cafe floorshow produced by Leonard Reed.

As a matter of fact, we were part owners of Reed's "Rhythmbound" revue back in 1934. My, how time flies! Well, we took the show to New York. It went over with a bang. Maurice Dancer was Harlem's Number One columnist in the theatrical world and this writer and he were bucking for the throne. Billy Rowe was Dancer's leg man at that time. He fawned upon Dancer and this writer as tin Gods, but determined that he would ascend higher than us, when his turn came for the throne. Billy Rowe did get to the top. He did reach higher levels. Now Rowe is a top war correspondent over in Bougainville. We just had to go down memory lane—we do that everytime Leonard Reed pops up upon the scene.

PORGY AND BESS ON THE CARPET

Yes, we did it last week about Billy Franklin. Of course we have known Franklin for over thirty years and naturally when a guy like that gets to play "Porgy" to Etta Moten's "Bess" in "Porgy and Bess" it brings back childhood memories and makes you feel proud.

In last week's column, we mentioned about the fact that we were on the Farm and Home Loan Committee and National Defense of the Benjamin J. Bowie Post of the American Legion. We touched on the housing situation as it affected the soldier and his family.

Well, it seems to this writer that the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other groups interested in the welfare of the soldier certainly was asleep when it came to housing. It seems that the OPA, War Housing Centers, FHA and all other governmental agencies' hands are tied. A war worker can get a house because he is in "defense." A soldier cannot get it because he is classed along with the non-essential workers. Therefore his wife and children are not allowed to move into nice homes.

Priorities are granted to build homes for the war workers, but not the war veterans. They are not essential. At least that seems to be the attitude. Now they are fighting for proposition one, which will be on the ballot in November. The American Legion forgot that a great many soldiers are being discharged today and that a couple of million will be discharged with the collapse of Germany. They will come home and find that they cannot rent a house, unless they work in war plants. Or that they cannot build a home with the money voted to them. There are many reasons why some soldiers do not wish to work in war plants. Something should be done now for the veterans of today. Something should be done for the soldier's family of today in regard to housing.

This is your law man, Earl J. Morris, 5013 Wall Street, Adams 7010, who tells you that you should do something about housing for the guy who donned a uniform.

GREAT LAKES, ILL.—Lena Horne, exquisite star of stage and screen, graciously autographs one of her pictures for a sailor. Miss Horne, currently appearing at the Club Chez Paree in Chicago, took time out to make two appearances at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois. Swing Maestro to Bring Torrid Star-Studded Show to Nightery

An attraction hotter than a forest fire in the middle of July is the next thing planned for Joe Morris' new Plantation Club. And what attraction could be hotter than a forest fire in the middle of July except the Count of Basie's crew? Held over for two weeks at the Downtown Orpheum theatre (the first time any band has been so honored), the good Count Basie and his mighty men of music have broken all records at that show. They have just returned from San Francisco where they broke all records at a show there. They'll break all records at the Plantation. And to make a long story short, they'll break all records wherever they play.

STAR-STUDDED SHOW

Coming in with the Basie band is Jimmie Rushing, one of the country's top blues singers; Thelma Carpenter, a cute lil' bundle of loveliness who chirps a song like a song should be chirped, and Earle Warren, Harlem's answer to F—— S——. In addition, other big time acts crowded with class. It's the Plantation night club, where Tiny Bradshaw is currently appearing.

The Basie band and show comes in the week of September 7th, and you can count me in for a ringside seat on opening night. In fact, during the count's stay there, the Plantation club will be our after-hour address.

He'll wow 'em!

Former Floyd Ray Musician Is Navy Steward 1st Class

Veteran of the Marshall and Admiralty islands invasions, Donald J. Lukas, 27, of Los Angeles, former musician with Floyd Ray's Band, was honor man of the recently graduated Cooks and Stewards School class, U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

Scoring an average of 99 per cent to outpoint 43 shipmates, he earned advancement in rating to Steward First Class.

Steward Lukas' campaign ribbons and battle stars represent pre-Pearl Harbor, American Theater of Defense and Pacific-Asiatic service.

His wife, Mrs. Zula Mae Lukas, resides at 4439½ Mettler street, Los Angeles. His father, Mr. John Lukas, makes his home at 1220 Weller street, Seattle.

Billy Eckstine, Sepia Sinatra, Newest Sensation On Big-Time

NEW YORK (IPS)—When a handsome young man with an exciting baritone voice comes along with a new band that breaks attendance records, that's unusual. But, when he makes a single recording htat sells far beyond the capacity of the record company to produce it, and receives offers from Darryl Zanucks' Twentieth Century-Fox picture company and Broadway producers — not forgetting the fact that theatres are paying him prices never before paid for a new attraction—then it's pretty evident that a new star has been born. The above description applies to Billy Eckstine who comes very close even at this early date, to being "a Negro Frank Sinatra."

The 30% cabaret tax—so ruinous to night clubs — was the cause of Billy's current success. It decided him to quit night clubs where he had been working as a "single" (prior to that he had been with Earl Hines) and form his own band.

The Eckstines are heading for the Regal Theter in Chicago where they will be paid $5,500 per week and split over $17,000 —an unheard of figure for a new band.

SEPIA FRANK SINATRA—Billy Eckstine, who is fast becoming known as the Sepia Frank Sinatra, heads his own orchestra now. He was formerly with Earl Hines Orchestra.

MISS HELENE WALLACE is Washington's new vocal sensation at Club Bali. She is what every night club patron longs to hear; an artist that is new, refreshing, and her individuality is so different, as she sings right into the hearts of all who hear her.

Josh White Record Album Completed

Josh White, the outstanding guitarist and singer, who accompanies himself so eloquently, has recently completed an album of songs, which were recorded by Asch Recording Studio, 117 West 46 Street, N. Y. C.; they will be released shortly.

Josh White, a young Negro troubadour, and folk singer, brings the songs for which he is loved to the American audiences, in rich and beautiful tones and harmony.

Satchmo Plays Regal

The great Louis Armstrong, world's greatest trumpet player, currently being co-starred in Republic Pictures' "Atlantic City," has been booked by Joe Glaser for an appearance at the Regal Theatre in Chicago, for one week commencing Sept. 1st. Armstrong, who played to "standing room only" recently at the Golden Gate Theatre in San Francisco, has been co-starred with his great band in three films in the last four months. A great record, unequalled by any other Colored musical aggregation.

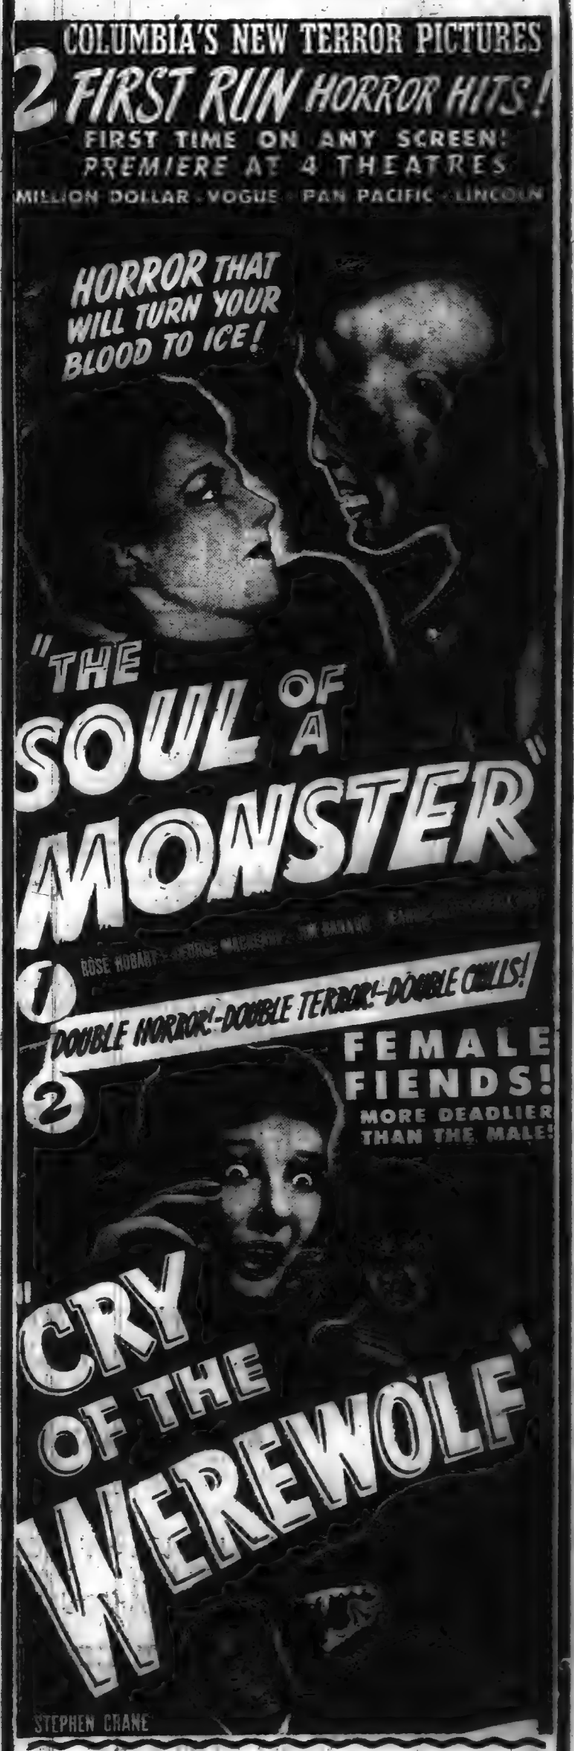
KOLAX BLAZES AGAIN



INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—The mighty King Kolax and his loyal friend Agnes brought his sensational orchestra to Indianapolis for a one night engagement and laid the Jitterbugs in the aisle. The dance fans here say that Kink Kolax has the greatest band they have ever heard.

"THE NEGRO SOLDIER"

In an attempt to counteract the unofficial boycott of "The Negro Soldier" by motion picture theatre operators, Vanguard Stage will present two additional showings on Sunday and Monday evenings, September 3rd and 4th. This showing marks the third engagement of the film at Vanguard Stage.

Athletic Plans at L. A. Port Of Embarkation Materialize

WILMINGTON, Calif.—Athletic and recreation plans at the Los Angeles port of embarkation, long in preparation, materialized last week with the official opening of a new gymnasium and the new Graves Field ball park, both located at the Figueroa cantonment of Camp Ross.

The new gym opened early in the week, while Graves Field was dedicated Saturday by Lt. Col. Harry E. Brown, Camp Ross commanding officer, the occasion being a double-headed softball game featuring the Camp Ross enlisted men's team versus the Wilmington Coast Guard Base, and the Ninth Service Command championship WAC team from Camp Ross (LAPE) versus the Long Beach SPARS.

The field was named after Cpl. Alonza Graves of the 3181st Quartermaster Service Company who built the backstop, stands, scorboard and uquipment sheds at the field.

The Camp Ross gymnasium is fully equipped for four sports—basketball, volleyball, boxing, and badminton.

Helping as the instructor is the widely-known Negro fighter, Pvt. A. Hart, for the past year one of the ten leading contenders for the heavyweight boxing championship now held by Joe Louis.

Hart also holds honors in all other sports from Xavier University, New Orleans, from which he graduated in 1937.

VACATIONING—Dr. and Mrs. Howard Allen are pictured dining together on one of the occasions before Mrs. Allen left for Peru to study and rest in the South American country. Mrs. Allen is a teacher in the public school of Los Angeles, and she is active in social and civic affairs here. Dr. Allen left the city last week to enjoy a leisurely respite from his heavy practice. He is one of the city's prominent physicians and surgeons. Mrs. Allen will return in time to resume her duties when the school recess ends, and Dr. Allen is expected to return to his office sometime in September.

Homestead Grays Will Play Games Sunday and Mon.

The initial meeting to recruit Y.W.C.A. workers of The Area War Chest Drive was sponsired by the Y.W.C.A. Volunteer Committee. Committee members made personal contacts with women in the different areas of the city and the meeting on Wednesday evening, August 23rd at the Woodlawn Branch Y.W.C.A. was of gratifying results.

The program began with the flag salute led by Mrs. Ida Scott, the chairman of the Committee of Management, Mrs. A. R. Mosely, gave a few words of greet- Mrs. Doris Houston and Miss Virginia Allen added atmosphere with music, the main feature of the evening was the speaker, Dr. Walter S. Nertzog and a pep song, the words composed by Miss Carrie Ruth Williams, was sung to give inspiration to ring doorbells. The keynote was 'Keep The Home Front Going-Through our Chest Agencies.'

Among those present were: Mrs. Idele A. Bateman, organizer of the branch Y.W.C.A., Commitee of Management members, women from various committees and new members of th Y.W.-C.A.

The success of the meeting was contributed to Mmes. Georgia Hardiman, Ida Scott, Virginia Stevens, Natelle Brewer, Cora Flood, Mary Troy, Azalea Grant, Roberta Bailey, all members of the Volunteer Personnel Committee and the untiring efforts of the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Josephine Brown.

The Girl Reserve Committee of which Mrs. Jessie Coles Grayson is chairman, sponsored a farewell bar-b-que honouring Miss Lois Hortense Mann which is to be held in the beautiful patio of Mrs. Wilma Chapman. Miss Mann is resigning the position as Girl Reserve Secretary of the Woodlawn Branch to return to her home in Alton, Illinois.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Recently Angel City Racquet Club met and completed plans and arrangements for the tourney set for September 2nd, 3rd and 4th at Ross Snyder Playground courts, 41st street at Compton. Matches begin on Saturday Sept. 2nd. Play will be between twelve noon and five p.m. Other matches are to be played throughout the next two days with finals on Labor Day afternoon.

Entry blanks are to be secured from either the Angel City or West Side Racquet Clubs since it is strictly compulsory that each participant should be in direct connection with an American Tennis Association organization.

The club extends its grateful thanks to Josephine Brown who has year after year helped secure trophies for the tournament.

TROPHY DISPLAY

The trophy committee thanks donors for the selection of trophies. They were to be on display Wednesday and Thursday August 30th and 31st at Hotel Dunbar and in the Western Dry Goods store window on Friday and Saturday. The public is cordially invited to the tournament.

Oglesby And Hudson Fight Draw

Santa Claus arrived plenty weeks before Xmas and presented Matt Oglesby with a draw after Eddie Hudson had won a decisive victory at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night.

In addition to winning the majority of rounds, Hudson knocked Oglesby down for a nine count in the seventh round and staggered him again in the ninth heat.

The bout was the ten-round main even with Hudson weighing in at 135½ and Oglesby at 137.

Senator Pepper Will Open the Democratic Campaign Friday

The Democratic campaign for Southern California will get off to a flying start, Friday night, September 1st, at the Shrine Auditorium, 665 West Jefferson Blvd., Los Angeles, with a gigantic rally, featuring an address by U. S. Senator, Claude Pepper of Florida. The announcement was made this week by Michael D. Fanning, Los Angeles County Chairman, and campaign manager for the Democratic Party in Southern California.

Staunch Supporter

"We are very fortunate in obtaining Senator Pepper, a staunch supporter of Franklin Roosevelt, and his administration," Fanning said. "We expect a full house at the Shrine Auditorium that night."

Admission will be free, Fanning stated, and, in addition, several features will be staged by Hollywood celebrities under the auspices of the Hollywood Democratic Committee. Democratic campaign headquarters for Los Angeles County have been opened in Room 20, Broadway-Spring Arcade.

"STAY-AT-HOME" PICNIC

The public is urged to join the volunteers of the Market Street USO Club at an old-fashioned basket picnic for the service men, Monday, September 4th, Labor Day, 12 to 6 p.m. The picnic will be held on the lawn of the USO Club. Plan to bring your family to have an enjoyable day. Dancing will be held in the Recreation Hall at 8:00 p.m.

HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN

Last Wednesday the Junior Hostesses entertained their mothers and friends at a lovely tea. The tea table was attractively arranged with a lace cloth and flowers supplied by Miss Ruth Jenkins. Those graciously serving were Miss Betty Davis, Miss Gertrude Walker, and Pvt. Cunningham. Dancing was enjoyed in the Recreation Hall.

BURLEY STOPS BUFFALO

SAN FRANCISCO—Charley Burley, 158½, State middleweight champion, played around with Gene Buffalo, 152, of Philadelphia for four rounds and then was awarded a technical kayo in the fifth heat when Referee Toby Irwin stopped the fight.

PLANS ARE BEING completed for the forthcoming September battle battle between John Thomas and Juan Zurita for the Mexican boy's N.B.A. lightweight title. The bout will be staged outdoors and a record crowd is expected.

Dr. and Mrs. Faulkner are on the Pacific Coast attending Conferences of the Congregational Church. They are house guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Sommerville.

MAJOR JONES BLASTS OUT WIN OVER MORELIA

CALIFORNIA EAGLE SPORTS

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE
SPORTS EDITOR

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

"I TOLD YOU SO!"—This was the keynote of several corner conversations along the Main Stem last weekend when the fight fans who collected on the recent victory of Hank Armstrong over Willie Joyce laughed at the guys who paid off. Among the jubilant winners were Lester Albert, "Baby Boy," "J. B.," and Mrs. Nellie Winslow Albert, former manicurist at the Dunbar Barber Shop. The losers in the majority, I received from good authority, were guys who have bet on Hank for years, deserting him on this fight, only to be led to the cleaners. Norman Saunders, trainer of Armstrong, who would bet on Hank if he were facing "Super-man," also had the laugh on the boys who thought that Joyce would be returned the winner. The above-mentioned Folks just about cleaned the Avenue.

"NO FAKE," said every boxing expert I talked to concerning the Armstrong-Joyce fight in Frisco. Hank just waged a hard and smart fight to emerge the winner despite an injured right hand, I was informed. The former triple champion told me that he just had it in him to beat Joyce that night and beat him he did, fairly and squarely. Rumors had persisted here before the battle that "Armstrong was supposed to win." I'll go on record as saying that I think the fight was on the up and up. Hank isn't the type that throws fights or engages in any shady deals before a fight. He doesn't have to.

WOODY STRODE, former college star, turned in a fine performance as an end on the March Field grid team which bowed in defeat, 7-3, to the Washington Redskins last Friday night at the Coliseum before 55,000 fans. Strode blocked a punt and caught a beautiful pass as his contribution to the game. During half-time Kenny Washington in the first annual forward passing contest hurled the pigskin 75 yards to walk off with first place and the beautiful trophy which went to the winner.

DID YA KNOW? — Roy Miller, protege of Henry Armstrong, turned in a one-round kayo over Cecil Johnson on the card of the Armstrong-Joyce main event bout in San Francisco. . . . Yancey Henry, 200-pound heavyweight protege of Norman Saunders, recently knocked out Gilbert Stromquist, 255, 6 ft., 8 inches, in five rounds at Nashua, N. H. . . . The daily papers are giving an unusual amount of space to praising Major Jones, lightweight protege of Norman Saunders, who fought his third pro bout Tuesday night at the Olympic Auditorium. Jones has performed in such sensational style here that his third professional bout found him a principal in a semi-windup. That is real progress for an 18-year-old kid just out of the amateur ranks. . . . John Thomas is frequently seen in his sharp new automobile. . . . They do say that Eddie Hudson was robbed in his bout last Friday night at Hollywood when Matt Oglesby received a draw with him after ten hectic rounds. Some of the dailies said that Eddie won nine of the ten rounds. While I won't go so far out on the limb to claim that much of a margin, I still believe that Hudson had a clear lead at the finish and deserved the nod.

Sensational Southpaw In Main Event At Olympic Next Tuesday

Manuel Ortiz Stops Bolanos

By Eddie Burbridge

A crowded house at the Olympic Auditorium watched Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight champion, win by a technical knockout in 2:40 of the sixth round of the scheduled ten-round main event Tuesday night, over Enrique Bolanos, to end the victory streak of the latter.

The blood-streaked towel of Bolanos came flying into the ring in that round tossed by George Parnassus to stop the slaughter.

Ortis, who scaled 123 to 125½ for Bolanos was in a vicious mood and had blasted Enrique to the canvas twice with a terrific attack before the end.

MAJOR JONES SCORES

Of interest to all fans was the workman-like-manner in which Major Jones, sensational lightweight, who is a southpaw, disposed of Jorge Morelia, 137, ringwise veteran, in gaining a popular decision in the six-round semi-final. Jones who weighed 135, blasted Morelia to the canvas three times for short counts in the second and third heats and went on to outsmart the veteran and earn an easy nod. It was announced that the Major would appear in a main event next Tuesday, his opponent to be announced later.

In two four-rounders on the card, Torpedo Reed, 141, won over Sonny Hill, 135, but the bout was called a draw and Bob Ferris, 150, knocked Jimmy Hatmaker, 142, down three times to gain a technical kayo.

IKE WILLIAMS WINS DECISION

WASHINGTON — Up-and-coming Ike Williams, 136, Trenton, New Jersey, scored a clean-cut 10-round decision Tuesday night over Jimmy Hatcher, 137, of Lake City, S. C., in the feature bout here at Griffith Stadium. Williams was in great form, outboxing Hatcher all the way.

TO FIGHT MAIN EVENT — Major Jones, sensational lightweight protege of Norman Saunders, pictured with him above, in three pro fights here has advanced to the main event class. In three bouts Jones won two by decisive decisions and one by a knockout. In the semi-final Tuesday night at the Olympic, Major knocked Jorge Morelia down three times to gain a six-round nod and earn the right to appear as one of the principals in a main event at the Olympic Auditorium next Tuesday night. Not bad for an 18-year-old boy, is it?

OAKLAND.—Gordon Croques, who was a noted figure in the Negro sports world for many years, died recently at Oakland, California. Mr. Croques established a fine reputation as a professional fight manager, having managed Jimmie McAllister and other topnotch fighters. He was a close friend of Mike Jacobs, Joe Louis and other well-known personalities in the fighting world.

The personable Mr. Croques was born in Jersey City, New Jersey 37 years ago. His parents are originally from New Orleans, La. He was a graduate of New York University and held fraternal connections with the Masons, the New York Pioneer Club and the National Sports Alliance. All who knew him held him in high esteem.

Monster Benefit Boxing Show For Duarte Rest Home Sept. 19

All-out plans for a monster boxing show to be staged Tuesday evening, Sept. 19, at the Olympic auditorium for the benefit of the Outdoor Life and Health Association's tuberculosis rest home at Duarte, were formulated at a luncheon meeting of sports writers and promoters last Friday at the Clark Hotel.

John Fowler, who heads the fund-raising drive, presided. Others present were Cal Eaton and "Musty" Musgrove, Olympic promoters, Johnny Allen and Gordon Macker, Daily, News, Halley Harding, Los Angeles Tribune, and Herman Hill, Pittsburgh Courier.

There will be an advance sale of tickets and the Olympic management has agreed to donate a generous share of the net proceeds to the worthy cause. Although the card has not yet been made, Matchmaker Babe McCoy promises a show which will be a cinch to lure fans to the huge arena. Boxers being considered as attractions are John Thomas, Turkey Thompson, Watson Jones and Elmer Ray.

ROY MILLER WINS

OAKLAND—Roy Miller, protege of Henry Armstrong, weighing 163, of Kansas City, scored a technical knockout over Bobby Castro, 160, of Los Angeles in the fifth round here Monday night.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

With a beaming smile and a nice coat of sun tan, our popular generalissimo Eddie Nealis saw a dream come true last Sunday at beautiful Caliente when nearly seventy hundred lovers of the sport of kings turned out to witness the running of the mid-summer derby. The best three-year-olds racing at the border course in years furnished the crowd with thrills and excitement from start to finish. The big thrill came from the odds on favorite Quality Bar, who coupled with Abraham, trailed by ten lengths going down the back stretch, and as the field turned for home and the money, Quality Bar still traied his field by four lengths. Then he made his move and to the fans it looked like the other horses in the field were standing still. At the eight's pole Quality Bar was now three lengths in front and won by eight lengths, becoming the champion three-year-old at Caliente. Jockey H. Lasswell was up on the winner and rode a masterful race. Tick on Time was second and Abraham third. The winner's share was $2370. Time for the mile and sixteenth was 1.46:35. One of the most perfect dead-heats ever seen on any track was in the tenth race when Joda's Joe and Carmen-Ann staged the best stretch duel ever seen at Caliente. The judges asked for three pictures, and after about 15 minutes the entire staff of judges was unable to see any advantage for either horse and the dead heat sign was posted.

Ringmaster Boss E. L. Caress took a good beating when six favorites and other well played horses found the new surface on the Caliente oval to their liking. The daily-double paid $70.20 while the Quiniela payoff was $24.80. Another goodly crowd of Angel fans were down for the derby, among the crowd were business men and women, stage and radio stars from Central avenue to the West side. Grant Edison, popular handicapper, had a big day. Alonzo Carter, a real plunger, would have murdered the book if Tick on Time had won the derby. Mr. and Mrs. needed relaxation.

By Mrs. Lillye M. Green

Fall and winter activities are now being outlined by the playground directors. The activities will be of interest to adults, teen-agers, and small children. An informal program for adults was held at the Central playground Thursday evening, August 24. Four girls, Lamp Club members, entertained the group with folk dances, original dances and tap dances. They were under the supervision of Mrs. Anderson.

The puppeteers, who constructed their own puppets, were featured on program under supervision of Miss E. Jackson.

An adult club meeting will be held at Ross Snyder play ground 5:30 p.m. Friday evening Sept. 1. For further information contact the directors at AD. 9750.

Girls' camp which was tentatively scheduled for Sept. 2 through noon Sept. 4 was postponed until a later fall date because the girls will be making preparations for the opening of school Sept. 5.

The standing in the pool guards' marathon mileage to Aug. 22 designated the following girls and young men as first, second and third places: Girls—Louise Parker- Central Pool with 36½ mi., Barbara Brewer—L. A. Swim stadium with 26 mi. and Mary Schowden-North Hollywood with 11¾ mi. Young Men—Joe Pedisich—109th Street Pool 39¼ mi., Steve Maisnic, L. A. stadium 26 ¾ mi and William Maxwell-Yosemite Pool 14½ mi.

The swimming pools will be closed very soon.

Be sure to come to your play grounds and participate in the many activities.

Claude Hodge can be seen every Sunday playing them from the Lawn. P. D. Gaines and his very charming wife were also visitors. Gaines is now night clerk at the Douglas Hotel. Steve Broody and wife, from L. A. bet them high. Eddie Haynes, San Diego sportsman, entertained a party from the east. Al Ramsey also was host to a party of U.S.O. entertainers from Chicago. Al will leave for a six-week vacation to Mexico City late in September. The ever-smiling director of personnel, Armando E. Verdugo, will receive a grand welcome on his return from Mexico City this week.

Judge Joe Walter, acting presiding stewart and racing secretary, is putting on big-time races for the fans. Wesley C. Neary was at his best last Sunday in getting the horses off to good starts. Judges James O. Cunningham, Andrew Ferguson, Albine. A. Morgan and Leo (the little lion) Haskell, know their racing. Ruben (Handsome) Verdugo, is also looking after his brother's office while he is away. Little Joe (Pica) Arce, able assistant to the big bosses, will open his Peite Tijuna Cafe Friday. It will be one of the finest in Tijuana, with nothing but the best of Spanish and American dishes, also the best of liquors. Wild game will be served in season. Good luck Joe and lots of success from your many well wishers and friends. Joe's ad appears also in this paper. Well folks, that's the news from south of the border down Mexico way where that romantic spirit gives the tired and fatigued the much needed relaxation.

FT. HUACHUCA BATTLER—The bantamweight champion of Arizona, servicemen's class, is T/5 Corporal Hines, of Fort Huachuca, Arizona. Cpl. Hines was formerly a Chicago amateur fighter, who held the golden Gloves championship in Illinois. He has fought 32 bouts since his induction, winning all of them. At Fort Huachuca Cpl. Hines is assigned to Station Hospital No. 1.

HAYNES STOPS WARE

OAKLAND — Johnny Haynes, 214, Los Angeles, kissed the canvas four times, but arose from each knockdown finally to knock out Al Ware, 225, Oakland, in the fifth round of their scheduled eight-round main event last Wednesday night.

Haynes was blasted to the canvas once in the third heat, twice in the fourth and once in the fifth. He arose from the knockdown in the fifth to smash Ware to the canvas for the full count with a right chop to the whiskers.

WATKINS WINS

Kenny Watkins, 162, stablemate of John Thomas and Bobby Yeager, scored a ten-round decision over Sgt. Gaston Miller, 165, in th main event of 10-rounds at Wilmington Bowl last Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON — It was announced this week by Promoter Joe Turner that he had signed Chalky Wright, Los Angeles, and Jackie Wilson, Pittsburg, both former featherweight champions for a scheduled 10 round bout at Griffith Stadium, Sept. 12.

OCEAN PARK ARENA fights Monday night found Nicholas Morcm, 141, nodding Ben Evans of Oklahoma in the 10-round main event, and Tito Despaigne, 141, scoring his sixth kayo in six fights over Jackie Walls, 141, in the first heat of the scheduled six-round semi-windup. In one of the prelims the classy Benny Cousins, 119, knocked out Brownie Morris, 114, in the first stanza.

Scott And Peters Are Winners In National Negro Tennis Meet

NEW YORK.—(Calvin's News Service)—The tennis players were in rare form at the annual Negro Tennis Championships at Cosmopolitan Courts last week. However, Pvt. Lloyd Scott of Prairie View, Tex., and Miss Roumania Peters of Tuskegee Institute walked off with the plum buns. They won the singles' titles.

Mrs. Lillian Van Buren of Detroit lost to Miss Peters; Scott took Pvt. Robert Ryland of Waterboro (S.C.) Air Base for an 8-6, 6-2, 6-3. Honors in the doubles for women went again to Roumania Peters and her sister Mary, when they turned back Ora Washington, of Philadelphia and Anita Gant of Washington for the doubles' crown.

Corp. Howard Minnes and Sgt. Renal Fieulleteau of Tuskegee, won the men's doubles when they defeated Charles Jones of New York City and Maurice Jackson of Washington.

A surprise treat for the fans was the impromptu speech made by Alice Marble, noted net star. Miss Marble said that in playing tennis, one could speak an international language. "Tennis may be understood by all races." The sportswoman indicated that she had given up professional tennis so that she might play with whomever she liked and whenever she liked. "Tennis is a great sport, it keeps one in trim and makes many friends for us. In fact, "she continued, "we get to know more about the other fellow's problems and understand a little better his situation."

The speaker felt after the war tennis would return to its former popularity to be enjoyed by all. "Competition is keen and when we can respect a fellow regardless of who he is or where he coems from, for his ability and finesse, then that is something in anybody's danguage."

BASEBALL NOTES

The Homestead Grays came from behind Newark's 4-1 lead last Friday night at Ruppert Stdium to win 8-4 and settle the July 2nd dispute about the first half winner. Manley's youngsters showed real fighting spirit in the first inning, after McDuffie had retired the first three Grays to face him. Watkins fanned. Burnett singled to left; Dandridge singled inside first base, Pearson fired one over second to load the bases. Harvey sacrificed to Benjamin in center, scoring Burnett. But the rally stopped there, as John Wright struck out Braithwaite.

The score was tied and untied in the third when Bell's flyball dropped safely in short center, and the "Cool One" went on to second on the retrieve. Benjamin doubled over third to score Bell; but Bankhead and Leonard left Benjamin stranded on third.

SANTA ROSA — Johnny Donnelly, Los Angeles, will meet Ken Overlin, former world's middleweight champion, when the latter starts his comeback here, tonight (Thursday), in a ten-round main event bout.

Watson Jones Faces Law Suit

When Watson Jones, Central Avenue adonis-like ring idol, stepped into the squared circle at Olympic Auditorium on last Tuesday night he met two setbacks, the first a defeat at the hands of Fitzy Fitzpatrick, and the second a law suit, accompanied by a garnishment for $300, filed by William Brown, well-known trainer and conditioner of athletes, through Attorney Curtis C. Taylor's office.

Letter Box

The cooks had done themselves proud and among other things on the menu, hot rolls and coffee. Everything was going fine when one of the boys happened to hear the rhythmic noise of the Japanese airplane motor. He looked up and there coming over the hill, less than a mile away, were thirty Zeros, with death spitting from every one of their one hundred and twenty machine guns. Quicker than you could say "Jack Robinson," the entire company led by their first sergenat were in their holes at least six feet under the ground. I leave the fate of the hot rolls and coffee to your imangination. For a time we were bombed constantly day and night and we lived in a state of always on the alert.

Things are quieter now of course but less than two weeks ago it seemed that the nightmare would never end. I cannot begin to descirbe the emotions that you feel as you lie in a foxhole at night while overhead Japanese planes roarder trying to find an opening in the terrific anti-aircraft barrage, in order to lay their eggs. A lot of us have reason to be grateful that the Japs are such poor bombers and our ack-ack outfits are so accurate.

Both Serve

I have mentioned these things because I want to impress you that there is no very great difference between the activities of the combat and service troops over here. The combat soldier, because of his longer, more detailed and specialized training, naturally bears the brunt of actual combat but the service troops who must supply him with the tools of war, often up to the very front itself, must always be prepared to defend himself and on many occasions have had to take a hand in actual fighting.

After we had detached from the parent organization, I was privileged to attend a conference on supply in company with my Commanding Officer.

We were told then, "You are no longer a non combat unit, but regular combat troops," and after their many experiences the boys understated things a little.

I cannot close this letter without telling you of the progress towards better race relationship over here. Frankly, except in very rare instances, the question does not exist. Men in forward areas who live, eat, sleep and die together in the same cause do not have time to worry about the color of one's skin.

In Dallas, Texas, even public water fountains are marked by such signs as, "White, Colored," yet many a white Texas soldier has shared my canteen with me, drinking with gusto after I had quenched my own thirst. This may not be sanitary but it is a very far cry and a great improvement from some of our southern cities. Personally I think this is one of the healthiest developments of this war and I am hoping the fine relationships established here will not cease at war's end.

Although all our officers are white, they nevertheless live with the men sharing the same dangers, eating the same meals, or rather mess, enduring the same hardships and in general, acting as big brothers in a family. Recently my company commander, Lt. David A. Cleary of Grand Forks, North Dakota, highhly recommended me for an appointment as a Warrant Officer and was prepared to back my application for entry to OCS, but at the last moment I decided that I'd prefer to remain an enlisted man and pass up the opportunity.

My supply officer, Lt. William G. Marsh, is from Maryland and we get along like two peas in a pod which as you will agree is most surprising knowing Maryland as you do.

Our other officers, Lt. William A. Donohue and Lt. Clyde L. Nelson, are from the Bronx, New York, and Green Bay, Wis., which is more or less civilized portions of liberal states.

In conclusion let me say that the colored soldier is doing his share towards winning this war, that he is doing so gladly and cheerfully, that his deeds are not recorded because white correspondents seldom write about him and colored correspondents stay too far behind the front lines to know what is going on.

He has forgotten for the time being all the hates and prejudice that plagued a fading generation.

He is looking forward to resuming his place at home and taking part in influencing the decisions for a brighter and happier world in the future.

He wants to hear more often from his friends at home and more news of what the race is doing.

He wants people at home to know that this is no picnic but the nearest thing to hell he wants to meet either in this world or the world to come.

Yes, my friend, the colored soldier is giving his all in the cause of democracy and is living, fighting, dying and hoping for that day

When man to man united
The whole world will be lighted
As Eden was of old.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Very truly yours
GEORGE E. TAIT.

A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

HIDDEN POSSIBILITIES

Oftimes we may feel our lives to be a very dull, drab and commonplace existance. Believing as it were, no special niche nor talent being granted us. However, we all have some inherit ambition or qualification that has been given us. Perhaps it has lain dormant in our minds for years.

But never fear, opportunity at sometime will present itself, and, it is then we must be prepared to take advantage of it. Buried within us lies the secret to a brilliant and happy future. For we are all of worth and value, and our Zodical variations are manifested according to our lucky stars, guiding planet and our dividuality. This may be more clearly understood by reading one's individual Horoscope. Why not send to Prof. Herman for yours today?

M.E.S. Dear Prof. Herman: I read your column every week and you are doing a wonderful job of helping people get on the right track and find true happiness and love. You can help me, by explaining whether I will ever marry?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that you are 21 years of age, and because your friends have been getting married so rapidly, you are wondering when this wonderful event will happen to you. But you need not worry, your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet, indicate marriage within the next year.

I.L.H.B. Where is the wrist watch I lost?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that you mislaid your watch, and I vision your finding it. A careful search at home will no doubt reveal it.

D.H. What can I do to get some relief?

Ans. Concentrating upon your question I find that your present condition is responsible for many of your pains and aches which are only natural to some expectant mothers. I advise you however, to follow your doctors instructions carefully to avoid and further difficulty.

C.M.Has my husband ceased caring for me?

Ans. It appears to me that the various quarrels and misunderstandings in your home are due to lack of a thorough understanding and because neither one of you wish to give in. Your husband still loves you, but is getting tired of the bickering and petty altercations you have, hence, the change in his attitude. I would be glad to help you, if you will write in for a private reply.

C. McP.—Did I do right?

Ans. It seems to me that you should discourage the attentions of this married man, since you are also married and this would only cause trouble. Yes, you did right in asking him to stop coming to your home.

N. C.—Does my husband love me? Will we go back together?

Ans. Only one question is answered in the column, due to the limited amount of space. I would be glad to help you if you will write in for a private reply.

MAN ENDS TROUBLES
LEARNS HOW TO SOOTHE HEAT RASH, PRICKLY HEAT AND CHAFED SKIN

And this man is only one of millions who have found that Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, gives wonderful relief from the misery of smarting heat rash, prickly heat, itching of sunburn and mosquito bites, and from clothing that has rubbed the skin until it's chafed and sore. Millions have learned how Mexsana soothes these skin miseries. It can help you too.

Double Action Scores Victory

Mexsana not only soothes the itch and smart of heat rash, but it actually helps prevent it. You see Mexsana has a special base that helps absorb moisture on the skin—often the cause of heat rash. And it also helps prevent painful rubbing of chafe-irritation because it forms a clinging coat of protection. It contains ingredients specialists often use to relieve these discomforts. So when you are driven half crazy by these hot weather skin miseries just sprinkle on Mexsana and feel blessed relief.

Mexsana costs very little. And with greater savings offered you in the larger sizes, you'll be able to keep a supply on hand for all the family to use. So don't wait. Today, get a big family package of Mexsana.

Honoring ardent workers in the recent national membership campaign of the NAACP, a program was held recently by the Alameda County Branch NAACP at Oakland.

The local drive was headed by Mrs. Terea Hall Pittman. Marcus Hall, concert baritone, sang with his wife, Mrs. Marian Hall, as piano accompanist, Rev. A. W. Johnson of Parks Chapel AME church, Oakland, gave the invocation.

Beth Eden Baptist church, Dr. J. P. Hubbard, pastor, took the first life membership in this area, paid in full, for which a certificate from the national office was presented. North Oakland Baptist church, Rev. A. C. Bell, pastor, also took out a life membership, with $100.00 paid in, the remainder to be paid in monthly installments.

The well-known labor exponent, C. L. Dellums, who heads the Alemeda Branch, was the principal speaker, and Kelly Williams of Los Angeles, official of the Golden State Mutual Insurance Co., also spoke. Miss Gloria Romine, brilliant pianist, played incidental music. E. S. Thomas was chairman of the program.

The Berkeley unit of the Women's Ambulance and Defense Corps of America observed its second anniversary at a banquet held recently. Major Vivian Osborne-Marsh, leader of the group, was mistress of ceremonies.

Several members of the corps received surprise promotions upon the recommendation of Mrs. Marsh. Mrs. Marsh, herself, came in for the biggest surprise when she was promoted from Captain to Major by the national office, read by Lt. Col. Belle Wallace, Regional Adjutant and Secretary of Los Angeles War Chest, who was a special guest for the evening. Other special guests included Mayor of Berkeley, Fitch Robertson and Mrs Robertson, Mrs. Carrie Hoyt, vice mayor, District Att'y and Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Captain Oaker, Commander of the Oakland unit of WADCA, Lt. Col. Ruth Allison, treasurer, Ensign Deane Wolfron, Editor and Mrs. E. A. Daly of The California Voice, Lt. Col. Pregall, Public Relations Officer of Camp John T. Knight, Oakland, Dr. Louise Hector, president of Berkeley School Board, Mr. Taylor, Representative of Service Hospitals Welfare, Inc., who was presented a $130.00 check by the Berkeley unit to furnish a solarium for service men in a local hospital, Mr. Porter, secretary of the Berkeley War Chest, Major Carrie Schlanger, Mrs. Z. Owelsy of the Berkeley Gazette and Mrs. D. G. Gibson representing a group of national Negro weeklies. Lt. Lottie Schaeffer and Lt. Leon F. Marsh, drill instructor of the corps, presided at the guest table. Pfc. Dora Palmer, soprano, sang with Pfc. Ethel Terrell, pianist, as accompanist, who also played incidental music during the evening.

The August meeting of the Native Daughters of California, was held at the residence of Mrs. Irene Richard and plans made for the annual formal in September.

Following the close of the meeting, Mr. Richard showed motion pictures of vacation trips taken before gas rationing days. Mrs. Beatta Sims is the secretary of publicity.

All armadas of the past have been dwarfed into insignificance by today's convoys of troops and supplies Uncle Sam is sending to rid allied lands of the scourge of Hun and Jap.

Convoys stretch from the factory workers' doorsteps to the soldiers in the foxholes.

Day and night we carry the home-front soldiers who prepare these cargoes. The thoughts and efforts of OUR home-front soldiers—our railway and bus workers—are centered on the success and security of the shipyard and factory workers.

Steam is up! We must not keep the black gangs, the crews, the captains on the bridges waiting. They MUST get there.

YOUTH MARCHES ON

ELOUISA BROWN

TRIBUTE TO YOUTH

SARGEANT ALGNARD JOHNSON

By CHARLES EDWARDS
National Youth Leadership Academy Commander

An American returns, and through to the soul, a great American youth is Sergeant Algnard Johnson, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson of 622 East 37th street, Los Angeles. I was honored to serve as his commander in the youth Leadership Academy, at which time Cadet Johnson won the respect and admiration of every boy in the academy.

All of the highest honors obtainable were headed his way for his excellent efforts in leadership. When a greater task was put before him by the nation in whihc he lived, true to his colors Private Johnson put all he had into this new life, an extremely tough job for a boy.

Being the great boy that he was, he did not remain long at the bottom of the Army rank, for they, too, like us discovered the qualities of leadership in him, and to rank of Master Sergeant he was elevated in a short time.

Within a few months he saw the battle fronts of Europe. If there was one thing that characterized him it was his modesty; he envied no man, his gifts or his prosperity, but unostentatiously endeavored to do his own work faithfully.

He has now become an undisputed leader of America, for no greater price can be paid than to face death for a nation. No man can, no matter how old, no matter what education, can have just claim to possess more qualities of leadership than the 18 and 19-year-old boys who have the strategic job of leaving home before their lives have rightfully begun an set upon the task of sticking together and figuring out a way of fighting an enemy who threatens to destroy the foundations of a government. Leaders, too, they say are born. One is inclined to this belief when he regards nature's contribution to the I.Q., the physique, the talent or abilties, all of which are a part of the personality.

"The great are near; we know them at sight. They satisfy expectations and fall into place." And so we say to the young man who wears the Purple Heart, the injured youth who has returned to his home, a nation respects and honors you, for YOU are the

In character, in manners, in style, in all things, the supreme excellence is simplicity.

—Longfellow

Miss Elouisa Brown, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Brown of 717 East 32nd street, Los Angeles, an example of what to do, how to do it, and what to become, has been properly set in motion by this 2-yrea-old girl, who after taking advantage of the unusual opportunity to make high wages during a war, in defense industries, has successfully looked after the so-called "rainy day" by becoming the sole owner and operator of the beautiful little "Cafe Elouisa," located at 3329 South San Pedro street.

The clean, healthful atmosphere makes it possible for the young people as well as the old to enjoy themselvesetaoin to enjoy the wholesome, well cooked breakfast, lunch and dinners that are offered from 6 a.m. to 12 p.m., and for the after-party crowds on Saturday and Sunday they remain open all night.

It makes one's heart jump with enthusiasm just to stand by the side of the road and watch the youth of the race, march forward in a blaze of glory. Elouisa wants all of her friends to stop in and see her. And for all of mine drop in most any night and for a few minutes you will, no doubt, find "Edwards" enjoying a big dish of the most delicious pure ice cream that I have ever tasted, and getting a bit of inspiration to help to encourage youth to "Go ahead, kid's, go ahead."

Pull up a chair next to mine there anytime and I'll be glad to tell you about it. To the adults for me, go by and encourage the kids, to the youth, as I said before when you see me there, pull up a chair and I'll show you real inspiration.

In eastern lands they talk in flowers, and tell in a garland their loves and cares.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Holden in South San Bernardino gave a party for the senior choir of St. Mark's Baptist Church last week. Delightful refreshments weredel lightful refreshments were served. Attending were; Miss Alice Little of Oakland, who was visiting her brother, Allan Little, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. McDowell and daughter, Mr. Tom Freeman of Redlands, Mrs. Willie Jones, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. H. Hollaway, Mrs. O. Woods, Mrs. Imogene McMurray, Mrs. A. Wise, Mrs. Ida Rayford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Mrs. Rayford and Miss Hill gave readings from Dunbar.

Mrs. Ethel Stevenson of Pennsylvania Avenue entertained at a Chinese luncheon in honor of Mrs. Theresa Anderson of Berkeley, Calif. Her guests were Mrs. Alberta Lee and Mrs. Naomi Raibon.

Sharing honors for the social calendar of the week was the bridge luncheon given by Miss Marylou Phillips. Guests at this party were Mrs. Jessie Mae Fountain of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Melvina Venables of Los Angeles, Mrs. Tomie Wilson of Los Angeles, Mrs. Bell Felix, Mrs. Willie Gordon, and Mrs. Wilhelmenia Anderson, all of Riverside, Mrs. Mattie Deere of Cleburne, Texas, Mrs. Margharlete Hocker, Mrs. Natalie Diggs, Mrs. Florence Hilsman, Mrs. Hattie Downing, Mrs. Analene Phillips, Mrs. Nan Washington, Mrs. Josephine Blakely, Mrs. Catherine Beverley, Mrs. Loretta James, Mrs. Love, and Miss Florence Robinson. A delicious menu was served. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Hocker and Mrs. Nan Washington, who took first and second respectively.

Parties in the making are by Shirley Banks to be given Thursday night, if her mamma gets home; and by the Paine boys who plan a house warming next Saturday night in their new home on 6th street.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Muckelroy of Spruce street are entertaining their niece and children, Mrs. Theresa Anderson, Little Roena and Junior, of Berkeley, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson of Spruce street are enjoying the visit of their little grandson, Leroy Scott, Jr. of Berkeley, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George Venables of Los Angeles spent several days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and family on Harris Street. Little Richard and Carroll are here, too.

VACATIONING

Mrs. Vanie Little, who reports the news for Temple Baptist Church, is spending her vacation in Los Angeles with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Diggs spent the week end in Los Angeles.

Last Monday Mrs. Hattie Downing and son Orville, Mrs. Lelia Dixon, and Mrs. Gertrude Davis spent the day in Los Angeles.

Mrs. McDowell of South San Bernardino has been taken to Loma Linda Sanitarium for an operation.

CLUBS

Mrs. Florence Hilsman was hostess to the Cosmos Club last week. Her guests were Mrs. Roena Savage, Mrs. Lorraine Butler, and Miss Marylou Phillips. A delightful repast was served and prizes were won by Mrs. Margharlete Hocker, who won first prize and Mrs. Magnus Reed took second.

The Anna B. Garner Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Obera on Central Avenue last week. There were many in attendance and plans for the coming recital were concluded. Mrs. Leona Cade joined the club.

This week the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Saville on Waterman avenue. At this meeting tickets for the recital were distributed among the members to sell. We would like to appeal to our citizens to support this effort one hundred precent. We ask this not because Mrs. Savage is a member of our race, but because she is a San Bernardinian. If one of the members of the club cannot contact you, go to the auditorium the night of September 23rd and buy your ticket then. It will be at the high school auditorium on 18th and E streets. Let's show Mrs. Savage that we, her home folks, appreciate her talent too.

The Anna B. Garner Study Club wants to keep before the minds of our Negro citizens the urgent need for a club house and recreation center for our youth. The need is becoming greater all the time. Vote and rally to whatever effort is advanced.

Lt. Gov. Fred Houser will be in this area soon, and when he comes to this city, let's all go out and hear what he has to say. If you haven't voted in the last two major elections, be sure to register. See Mrs. Grace Mabra on Harris street.

Alston-Yarborough Wedding

THE NEWLYWEDS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson Alston Jr., beam radiately at the camera, immediately following the close of the beautiful wedding ceremony at the St. Phillips Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by Father H. Randolph Moore.

Up to the minute in the very last detail, were the principals in the Alston-Yarbrough Wedding Party. The bridesmaids were dressed in white, with alternating pink and turquoise accessories, while the maid and matron of honor were gowned in pink and turquoise, respectively. The men were smart in full dress suits.

Mrs. Alston, the former Bette Yarbrough, was a stunning bride, dressed in a trailing gown of white satin and lace, with a long flowing illusion veil, trimmed with lace, and wearing a tier crown of sea pearls. (See story in Social pages of the Eagle)

Shown in the above photo with the bride and groom are the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman N. Yarbrough, Sr., of Twin Falls, Idaho; and parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. William Penn, of Detroit, Michigan, who journeyed to the West Coast to attend their children's wedding.

Negro Aircraft Fighters Among First On French Soil

Ed. Note: Pvt. John S. Kinloch, war correspondent for the California Eagle, sends his official version of the landing of Negro troops. This story written especially for the California Eagle has been sent by official U. S. cable to leading newspapers throughout the country. .

John S. Kinloch

CHERBOURG—This is the story of the first Negro troops which landed in France on D-Day, the 320th Anti-Aircraft Balloon Barrage Battalion. They landed at 10:30 on the morning of invasion, among the first Americans to set foot on the soil of Hitler's Europe in this war.

They landed fighting.

In three-man teams, they lugged ashore huge U.S. Army barrage balloons, in addition to their own gas masks and carbine rifles. They debarked from the same LST boats that bore the initial wave of our infantry. And in the first blood-drenched hours of battle, their balloons accounted for two German planes.

They fought their way onto the beaches. Many of died, many more were shattered for life in the few minutes of attack. And some, like Pvt. Roosevelt Avery, of Haswell, Va., escaped death miraculously standing between Cpl. Brooks Stith, of Norfolk, Va., and Pfc. James L. Simmons, of Marble, Md., Peery sustained only cut fingers when a German 88 mm. shell killed his comrades, ripping Stith literally to pieces.

Since D-Day, the battalion has been officially credited with 22 German planes caught in the bomb-laden cables of its deadly "flying fish." This does not include the scores of enemy aircraft frightened upwards into effective AA-fire range by the presence of the balloons.

The battalion today protects immense stretches of the Normandy coast from low altitude bombing attacks and enemy strafing. Among its charges is the huge port city of Cherbourg.

FAST THINKING SERGEANT

In the first disastrous hours when our men hor tly didn't know whether their invasion of Hitler's front yard would stick or not,—when U.S. soldiers wondered "if there'd be enough living left to bury the dead," and history stuck its head in the sand, scared to look—S/Sgt. Albert B. Crawford, 29, of Alabama, a platoon leader of the battalion's A battery, thought fast, acted cooly, and saved more of his men from almost certain death.

In the midst of chopping machine-gun fire and the screaming death-knell of the enemy 88's, Crawford directed his platoon to advance only in the tracks of tanks and other vehicles. When his men arrived at that spot, usually inevitable, where the machine had been blown sky-high, he ordered them forward on the trail of another vehicle until it, too, struck a mine. In this way, he inched the best part of his platoon safely onto the beachhead, turning the fatal path of our destroyed machines into a mine-cleared road for his own and following troops.

Three-men teams brought in balloons flying at "close haul," about 100 feet off the ground. Special light-weight winches were used to make possible the handling of the baby blimps by such small crews. The men debarked about 150 yards from shore in four feet of water. Despite heavy losses, their weapon was put into almost immediate action. The balloon cable is equipped with a TNT bomb, which nestles almost directly under

SUPREME COURT REVERSES RACE RESTRICTIONS CASE

c.a.b.

FOR the past three weeks a group of Eastside property owners have been holding meetings in the California Eagle Building. The object of these meetings is to establish a better understanding of our property rights, to create a better race relationship with our white neighbors, and to combat a disgraceful campaign of deliberate race incitement which has spread to all sections of Los Angeles.

This type of Fascist inspired campaign saw its beginning in October, 1943, with the announcement of a meeting to be held in the American Legion Hall on Imperial Boulevard to block the opening of an unrestricted housing area in Watts. The most recent flare-up was the "call to arms" issued by the Property Owners Protective Association headed by Mr. Carlton Dye, according to newspaper reports. This latest residential restrictions' fit seems to have bordered on the idea that the Central Avenue District was the only section where Negroes should live.

What we are witnessing in this matter of residential restrictions is a terrible conspiracy engendered by a handful of conscious Fascists. This fact was brought out in a recent report of a meeting between County Regional Director, Langdon W. Post, and a group representing the residents of Willowbrook, which surrounds the territory adjacent to the then proposed Palm Land Homes (Cal. 4781) Housing Project wherein this same Fascist group moved in and announced that unless the project is all white, "We are going to have a race war which we do not want; it is inevitable; there will be bloodshed."

This race restrictions campaign is being fostered by a little group out to destroy unity in our war effort, disrupt the American home front, and blast President Roosevelt's effort at Dumbarton Oaks to join with the other al-

Pasadena Residential Dispute Finally Settled

Negro Property Owners In Palisades Tract Now Permitted To Live On It

Victory over sustained efforts of Pasadena property owners to enforce a race restriction clause in a deed in the Palisades tract was achieved last week when the State Supreme Court reversed decisions of the lower courts and held that the Negro owners of certain property in the tract could live on it.

"The Pasadena Star-News" in reporting this all-important decision stated. "In reversing the decisions of the lower courts the supreme justices took cognizance of the fact that 34 of the lots in the same tract were not restricted, and the 'character of the neighborhood had so changed since the restriction agreement of 1927 was made that any attempt to enforce such restrictive covenant would be oppressive and inequitable and would have no other result than to harrass or injure the defendant without benefitting the plaintiff."

This case has been in the courts for several years. It was in 1927 when 35 property owners of the total of 69 in the tract agreed to restrict use of their property to white residents until Jan. 1, 1950.

Later Ross and Helen Raines, Negroes, purchased one of the restricted lots from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winsell, Caucasions. Thereupon, an injunction was sought in Superior Court by Hazel Fairchild, William Easterbrook, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodwin and other property owners to prevent the Raines from occupying the property.

The Superior Court upheld the deed restriction agreement and granted the injunction. The case was then appealed to the District Court of Appeals and again the injunction was sustained .

Justice Roger J. Traynor made a statement which local attorneys labeled as "sensational"

NOW OVERSEAS

Four California Negro servicemen are among those overseas with the U. S. Air Forces according to releases received by the CALIFORNIA EAGLE. They are: S/Sgt. Manuel Bray, 998 E. 34th St., and Cpl. Clinton Williams, 1341 E. 23rd St., Los Angeles, Sgt. Bill Williams of 230 E. 31st St., Long Beach, and Pvt. John Wilson, 1707 Fifth St., Santa Monica.

MECHANIC CLEARED

James Myers, auto mechanic and garage owner, of 4274 Hooper Avenue, was acquitted on two charges of burglary after a trial without a jury before Judge Goodwin Knight, of Department 42 of the Superior Court, last Thursday morning.

Myers was represented by Attorney Curtis C. Taylor.

ACQUIT DEFENSE WORKER

Mrs. Annie D. Adams, shipyard worker, was acquitted in Dept. 28 of the Superior Court of Los Angeles by Judge Harold B. Landreth this week of assault with a deadly weapon after trial before the Court.

The charges grew out of an alleged altercation which took plase at a party given at 1233 East 33rd Street.

HOME ON FURLOUGH—Cpl. William Aldridge, 222½ E. 47th street, the husband of Mrs. Thelma Porter Aldridge, enjoyed a furlough at home recently enroute to Greensboro, N. C., where he has been transferred.

He is with the Army Air Forces, was previously stationed in Fresno and recently completed specialized M. P. training in Louisiana. He was entertained by relatives and friends during his stay.

6 L. A. Sailors Begin Training

LARY Employment of Negroes Will Assist Transportation

With 25 conductors and motormen now in training by the Los Angeles Railway Company for the operation of streetcars and busses, the community feels that the transportation situation will soon be alleviated.

Efforts to meet the manpower shortage which threatened a serious tie-up of public transportation were launched early in 1942 by the Los Angeles community under the leadership of Rev. Clayton D. Russell whose persistent efforts were brought to fruition by the recent hearings called by the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee. Only this week Rev. Russell responded to calls to refer eligible men to the Railway Company for training.

The most recent development in the situation is the prick which the War Manpower Commission has given to any ideas which the present employees of the company may have of leaving their jobs because of the hiring of Negroes. Orders were given that the Employment Stabilization Program in force in Los Angeles, a critical labor shortage area, is to be strictly adhered to; and no person leaving his job for discriminatory reasons is to be allowed to work on any other job. With twenty-five men in training and three Negroes actually operating streetcars, no reports of any man leaving his job was received.

These photographs show colored troops in combat areas enjoying the motion picture industry's 16-mm gift films, distributed to all combat areas by the Army Overseas Motion Picture Service. Top: Part of a colored GI combat unit' assembles early to view a 16-mm program. Their reserved seats are "Mother Earth." Left, center: Typical GI-Joe looking at a film drama somewhere on a far-off fighting front. Right: Colored trooper in a mixed audience of our Armed Forces sees one of the 16-mm comedies, always popular on battle-fronts. Bottom: A mixed group, including colored GIs, heads for one of the open air theatres to witness a 16-mm film show. Each carries his own reserved seat.

Ending of Segregation By the War Department Praised Highly

NEW YORK.—PAC and Negro leaders this week lauded the War Department action ending segregation in post exchanges, buses and motion picture theatres. All agreed that the order moves the Negro soldier one step nearer the rank of a full-fledged fighting man and is another move in President Roosevelt's drive to smash Jim Crow. Their wholehearted endorsement of the action came as a rebuttal to the message from Governor Chauncey Sparks of Alabama to the President protesting that the Army order "breaks down the essential principle of race relationships in the South."

Sidney Hillman, PAC chairman, stated, "Now that the War Department is taking steps to ban segregation in its post exchanges, transportation facilities and theatres, the day when we shall hear the death knell of all forms of Jim Crow in our armed forces cannot be far distant. The Army order clearly indicates that so long as President Roosevelt remains in office, the Negro people's steady forward progress will continue unabated. The President's actions speak louder than the pious promises of Republican candidates."

'WELCOME RECOGNITION'

Lester Granger, executive secretary of the National Urban League, termed the anti-Jim Crow order "a welcome recognition of the Federal Government's responsibility toward the men and women who wear the uniform of the United States Army."

In a wire to Secretary of War Stimson, Ferdinand Smith, secretary of the National Maritime Union (CIO), stated that the 85,000 NMU members are "enthused and inspired" by the order.

George L-P Weaver, director of the CIO Committee to Abolish Racial Discrimination, hailed

"America First" Proposal to Sterilize Jews Stirs Protests

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Proposal of a resolution calling for deportation of all Jews and sterilization of those remaining in America and adoption of a resolution only slightly less violent, calling for a vast public investigation of "Jewish influences in America," at the national convention of Gerald L. K. Smith's "America First Party," in Detroit late Wednesday afternoon, immediately prompted a demand by the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League for triple governmental investigation of Smith's "Party" and the creation of strong legal penalties. The League's demand was based also on the understanding that a parallel resolution affecting Negroes, would probably be passed by the "America First" group. The "sterilization" resolution was initiated, according to reports, by a former Nazi Bund leader who is one of the Chicago delegates to Smith's "Convention."

"We have long known that Gerald Smith and his misnamed publication The Cross and the Flag, as well as his fake America First "Party", were doing an effective job of propaganda helpful to the Nazis and other enemies of the United States. Since this afternoon's resolution, the Smith group stands condemned by its own admission as one of the most extreme, as well as most active, exponents of Nazi ideologies in America. We cannot afford to let this sort of

7th Annual CIO Convention Pledged to Support FDR

Convening at a time when post-war planning and reconversion are at the point of their greatest significance, the Seventh Annual convention of the California CIO met in a four day session at the Friday Morning Club from Thursday morning to Sunday night of last week. Presided over by President James Thimmes, the sessions took positive action on such matters as Political Action, the repeal of the Hatch Act and the Smith Connally Act, Full Integration and Opportunity for Minorities, Revision of the Little Steel Formula, a Reiteration of the "No strike" pledge, and unsualified support of the Roosevelt-Truman ticket with emphasis on a supporting House and Senate.

Over six hundred delegates representing one hundred and thirty-one locals met in what Los Angeles Council Secretary-Treasurer, Phillip Connelly called, " the workingest convention ever held by the state CIO." Visitors filled the section reserved for them throughout the convention.

SENATOR PEPPER

High spot of the convention was the address of Senator Claude Pepper, (D), Florida, who stated, "The recipe for prosperity is to have a nation working steadily at good jobs with pay." Striking out against the reactionaries and the disturbers of unity he said. "There are those who would divide the worker, and the soldier, but the accomplishment of American working men and women will live forever."

Referring to the Commander-in-Chief who led the conversion which astouned the world and enabled the United Nations to put the Nazi's on the defensive, Senator Pepper said, "Dewey said it couldn't be done, but there was a president in the White House who was able to conceive of the might of American production." The Senator paid tribute to the CIO for Holding aloft the light of good

OPEN DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS

Democratic Headquarters are now open in the California Eagle Building, 41st and Central Avenue.

Come in and let's talk over how to best support our President, Franklin D. Roosevelt. We must win the war and establish peace in the world.

lies in an international organization to preserve peace in the world.

It is our duty and responsibility to ferret out this handful of Fascists who seek to disrupt our unity and retard our progress. This campaign of residential restrictions based on race hatreds is not a threat principally to Negroes, but also to all minorities. It is a threat to the heart of our country's ability to continue the war against Fascism. Left alone it will undermine the whole structure of our democracy. And if permitted to spread it may become strong enough throughout America to fortify the elements of defeatism and reaction in our midst to the end that our chief purpose of winning the war and establishing a permanent peace may be defeated.

We understand that Mr. Carlton Dye, who is backing this latest race restrictions move, is a political figure in this community. He will no doubt seek to represent the people in some governmental capacity sooner or later. We sent Mr. Dye a communication in good faith asking him and members of his committee to meet our committee at a round table discussion where, perhaps, we may reach an amicable understanding.

To date, Mr. Dye has not favored us with an answer.

This Friday evening we are extending an invitation to the three Councilmen that represent us in the City Council to attend the meeting. They are Councilmen Bennett, Allen, and Rasmussen. And we are urging all property owners to be present at the California Eagle Building, Friday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Sunday I strolled along Central Avenue from East 25th to East 41st Street and I observed other than residential restrictions that should engage the property owners attention.

Yes, we want a better understanding with our white neighbors whose sons fight side by side with our sons on the battlefronts of the world. We know that these neighbors have not risen spontaneously to oppose the democratic way of life guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution. It is this way of life for which we, even as our sons, fight.

Invasion Troops

the balloon. When a plane strikes this light cable, it pulls the bomb-laden wire along with it—to instant doom.

ALL COOL, CALM

In paying tribute to his men's cool efficiency, Negro 2nd Lt. Maynard Ivens, of Seattle, Wash., painted a telling picture of the battle-scene. "Wreckage of all kinds," he said, "was strewn over the beach—trucks, tanks, guns. Worst of all were the bodies, which you ran into every ten feet. Even in your foxhole, the man next to you might turn out to be a corpse. Shells were always falling 20 to 30 feet from you. Every moment your last. But the men kept coming."

TYPICAL STORY

Typical of the stories most men in the battalion can tell is that of Cpl. John Russell, of Philadelphia, Pa. "Our landing craft," he says, "made three attempts to come in, but was driven back each time. On the fourth try, we made it. As soon as we hit the beach, we took cover. We weren't scared. But the night of D-Day we thought we would never see morning. We thought that the Germans would throw everything that they had at us that night. They only sent over one plane that I saw, and it dropped a few bombs up and down the beach. One of our barrage balloons took that plane down.

VETERANS

Today the men are veterans. They have lived for weeks in fox-holes. They brag that their fox-holes were the most swank on the beach-head. They were spacious, one of them being dug out for a kitchen with a width of ten feet, covered by the fuselage of a shot-down balloon.

Now most of the men live in former German pill-boxes. Four-man crews are on 24-hour duty with each balloon, living together at the balloon sight. Their living qaurters are attractively arranged in what were to be the unshakable outposts of the Nazi Empire.

One tastefully appointed pill-box home, occupied by Cpl. LeRoy Bynum, Philadelphia, Pa.; Cpl. Jerry Thomas, Lynchburg, Va.; Pfc. James Green, Miami, Fla.; and Pfc. Oscar Jones, Yazoo, Miss., is running a lively sideline: cleaning and pressing.

AND LAUGHTER, TOO

The battalion is not without its humorous memories. There was the night when a guard twice halted an unseen prowler, then sent a bullet crashing home, and steak was enjoyed the next day at chow.

Best story, however, boasts such heroes as the battalion's executive officer and its medical officer. Both took cover one night in a fox-hole. Too late they discovered it was a latrine.

FORWARD TO VICTORY

The men look forward to our swift-mounting victory, and they are inordinately proud that where their balloons blow, Hitler's Angeles fear to tread.

Segregation Ban

War Department order as "an example of courageous action by the administration."

Edward Dudley, speaking for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People: "The recent War Department order banning segregation in army camps with respect to post exchanges, threatres and on-the-post bus transportation is one additional step towards alleviating a great deal of friction presently existing on military reservations. This order moves the Negro soldier one step nearer that of full-fledged fighting man."

ELIMINATE FRITION

Max Yergan and Vito Marcantonio, speaking jointly on behalf of the National Negro Congress and the International Labor Defense:

"There is no question but that this order will contribute greatly toward eliminating the friction and resentment which Jim Crowism nurtures and develops in both white and Negro armed and civilian personnel.

Nature pleases, attracts, delights, merely because it is nature. We recognize in it an Infinite Power.—W. Humboldt

"SWEETHEART"—Miss Anne Gray, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the "Sweetheart" of the month at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. As the sister of Cpl. Frederick Gray of the 333rd Ordnance Battalion, she was selected by that unit. Miss Gray is a student at Duquesne's School of Music, Pittsburgh.

CIO Convention

Harry Bridges won an ovation when he led the convention in unanimous, voluntary pledge not to use the strike weapon for the duration. The convention acted unanimously on a resolution addressed to Attorney General Biddle asking that deportation action against Bridges be dropped.

The report on minorities was presented by Matt Crawford, secretary of the committee in the absence of chairman Revels Cayton, who was summoned to the bedside of his sister who is seriously ill in Chicago. Cayton, along with local Council secretary-treasurer Philip Connelly, Oliver Boutte of the NMU and John Dial of the Shipyard workers was elected to the state executive committee. The minorities Committee, by act of the convention became a permament arm of the CIO.

DINNER SATURDAY

Saturday night, the delegates and visitors were entertained at a dinner at the Park Manor. Through the efforts of Albee Slade, CIO Education Director, Earl Robinson, Gene Kelley, Hollywood star, Sir Lancelot, Calypso author and singer and Abe Burrows, humorist and author of Duffey's Tavern were among those who entertained at the dinner. California Eagle editor - publisher, Charlotta A. Bass was among the number of distinguished guests who were present at the dinner.

Organization of Western Union and the Los Angeles Times were set as outstanding activities for the ensuing year. Political action, pointed toward the election of the Roosevelt-Truman ticket, passage of legislation in the sense and spirit of the Kilgore Reconversion Bill and full integration and equality of opportunity for all minority workers were named as first considerations for every CIO member.

CONNELLY DECLINES

James G. Thimmes and Mervin Rathborne were elected state President and Secretary-treasurer respectively without opposition, Los Angeles secretary-treasurer, Philip Connelly, declining to accept the nomination tendered him for Rathorne's position. The convention closed Sunday night after passing by acclamation a resolution expressing confidence in the leadership of Sidney Hillman, PAC chairman. Next year's session will be held at Oakland.

Free To Choose Our Companions Says President's Wife

EVERGREEN, ALA.—Attempts of disrupters and protagonists of white supremacy to put Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt on the spot went for naught, when the First Lady made her position clear in a letter to an Alabama housewife this week.

Replying to a request from Mrs. Catherine Stallworth of Evergreen for her view on Negro problems, Mrs. Roosevelt said, "Much that is said about my attitude has been distorted and exaggerated. In this country we are completely free to choose our companions and no one has any right to interfere."

The President's wife pointed out her belief that Negroes should have four fundamental rights; an equal opportunity for employment according to ability and at equal pay, an equal opportunity for education, an equal opportunity for justice before the law, and an equal opportunity to participate in government through the ballot.

destructive propaganda continue for a moment longer in the midst of kind of all-out war which our soldiers and sailors are fighting today," declared Prof. JAMES H. SHELDON, Administrative Chairman of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, in announcing the League's action.

$5000 Fine

The civil rights provisions of the United States Code (Title 8, Chap. 3, and Title 18, Sec. 51) provide that persons conspiring to deprive other persons under the jurisdiction of the United States of their civil rights, may be subject to penalties of up to $5,000 fine and ten years of imprisonment, and automatically become "ineligible to any office or place of honor, profit or trust created by the Constitution and laws of the United States."

L. A. AIR PILOT

Negro Barrage Balloon Unit Only Such Outfit In France

WITH U.S. FORCES IN FRANCE—Floating gently in the air like lilies in water, but not so gentle with German aircraft, are the "Flying Beer Bottles" of the 320th Anti-aircraft Artillery Barrage Balloon Battalion, the only Negro unit of this type in the world and the only balloon unit in France.

This battalion, which operates its balloons at low altitude, has completed one of the most important missions of the war—that of preventing strafing and dive-bombing of exposed Allied troops and supplies on the initial landings June 6, and thereafter until the beachheads were established.

Tribute to the success of it's mission are the mountain-high supplies dotting the coast of Normandy and the tremendous initial foothold the Allies made, which consequently assured the ultimate success of the invasion.

The bomb suspended just below the balloon was classed as "secret" until D-Day. One "JU-88" has been officially credited to the unit, also two "possibles," as a result of enemy contact

Originally conceived as a static coastal defense, this unit conducted extensive experiments in England in reducing the weight of the base and with various types of winches, also, in running balloons up from moving bases, such as jeeps, tanks, and the like.

Pvt. Johnson Serves In Combat Support

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND—Pvt. Joseph Johnson, husband of Mrs. Laura Johnson, 1150 E. 40th Pl., Los Angeles, Calif., has been serving in the European Theater of Operations for 12 months with the Combat Support Wing, crack trucking organization of the Air Service Command.

Carrying equipment and supplies, gasoline and ammunition from "Port to Fort," soldiers of the Combat Support Wing are contributing a vital service in the all-out battle against Nazi tryanny.

Cotton Textile Work Offers Opportunities

With cotton textile lagging, the industry has been faced since May 1 with a need for hiring nearly a quarter of a million workers by November 1 in order to expand its output to meet fully the estimated demands for cotton products, the War Manpower Commission said today.

The industry requires an increase of 28,500 in its total work force by November 1, as compared with May 1, and about 210,000 replacements over the same period, on the basis of the 7.7 per cent separation rate for April. Thus a total employment of 238,500 additional workers is the goal for the industry for the six-month period.

Restriction Reversal

wherein he stated, "Race restriction agreements undertaking to do what the state cannot must yield to public interest in the sound development of the whole community. The trial court should therefore be directed to make findings as to the housing facilities available in the district occupied by the Negro population and to determine whether there is need for additional housing that would justify an expansion of the district by the absorption of the restricted area."

If no petition for a rehearing is sought, the case will revert to Judge Frank Collier's court, the point of origin.

John Howard Lawson Will Present Lecture series

John Howard Lawson, noted writer and historian, author of the screen play Sahara, will present a series of 4 lectures entitled "America's Tenth Man—The Role of the Negro in the Growth of American Democracy" under the aegis of the Peoples Educational Center and the sponsorship of a prominent group of community leaders, starting September 26th at the Independent Church of Christ, 1025 East 18th Street.

Meeting at the home of Thomas L. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles Chapter of the NAACP, a group including Mrs. Fay E. Allen, Faustine Johnson, Laura Slayton, Floyd C. Covington, Rex Ingram, Charles Edwards and William Wolff, planned this series.

Sponsorship of what promises to be one of the outstanding cultural events in the community is rapidly growing and includes Rev. Clayton D. Russell, pastor of the Independent church of Christ; Charlotta A. Bass, editor of the California Eagle; Revels Cayton, chairman of the CIO Minorities Committee; Dr. Frank C. Davis of UCLA; also John Allard, R. Stanton Avery, George Bradley, Robert Clark, Rev. S. Martin Eidsath, Willis J. Hill, Dean E. McHenry M. William Pomerance, Stanley Schaffer, Dr. Flora Murray Scott, Eva Shafran and Ralph D. Winstead.

Negro Transport Co. Under Fire

WITH U. S. FORCES IN FRANCE—With a bag of forty-nine German prisoners, and incalculable heroics under fire in combat to its credit, a Quartermaster Troop Battalion has been in the front lines adapting itself of the new chores imposed by the super-blitz our U. S. forces have unleashed on enemy units facing our armored and infantry spearheads.

By force of circumstances, the success of the break-through of the German lines that started at St. Lo in Normandy and is now ending its final stages in Brittany, depended entirely upon the success of the mission of these Negro truck drivers. Without realizing the importance of their mission these soldiers, who drive trucks like cowboys ride horses, went into battle untested, untrained, and came out with the praises of every commander ringing in their ears.

The commander of the 22nd Infantry Regiment, whose Third Battalion rode the "Glamor Wagons," as the drivers call them, said: "Not one flinched. They carried out their mission with as much courage and ability as the best front-line troops. I'm proud of them."

Besides being the first time that the Negro troops had seen any front-line action it also was the first time that a tank-truck assault team, as a spearhead, had been used in France.

Bill Lowe of A. Y. D. Arrives Here Thursday

Mr. Bill Lowe, Northern California Vice - Chairman of the American Youth for Democracy and resident of Berkeley will be honored this week-end when he arrives in Los Angeles to play host to the many affairs the Southern A. Y. D. will present to him. He will arrive here Thursday from San Diego where he spoke to the A. Y. D. clubs of that city.

Thursday night he will speak in San Pedro, Friday night he will be host at a reception given in his honor by the prominent Dr. P. P. Cobbs, youth and community leaders will be on hand. Saturday, there is a special party for him. Sunday he will be one of the judges at the Annual American Youth for Democracy Sports Carnival to be held at Rancho La Chienga Park.

Monday morning he will leave for the bay region to resume his duties as Vice-Chairman.

Mr. Lowe is one of the Negro executives in the A. Y. D., a new national interracial youth group.

The Solid Fuels Administration for War this week made four pre-winter suggestions to civilians on fuel saving as it reiterated a warning that all household fuels are expected to be scarce this winter.

National Housing Committee Acts On A Post War Program

With a huge postwar home-building boom in prospect which will convert the present fringes of cities into new residential subdivisions, the National Committee on Housing yesterday made public the results of an extensive study of methods of avoiding the evils and economic loss which have followed past building booms.

Through Mrs. Samuel I. Rosenman, chairman, the National Committee on Housing announced the publication of "Neighborhood Design and Control, an Analysis of the Problems of Planned Subdivisions," which not only surveys past experience but indicates the steps which can and should be taken now to avoid a repetition of wildcat speculation in land and the sprouting of poorly planned and quickly deteriorating sections.

Negro Women Voters Have Important Duty

NEW YORK—"Negro women may play the decisive role in the November elections," said Mrs. Verda Barnes, CIO Political Action Committee Women's Division director, here this week.

"With many of the men overseas and some of these finding it difficult to exercise their constitutional right to vote, "Mrs. Barnes asserted, "the importance of the women's vote is greater this year than ever before." She said that before the war there were 10 per more registered Negro women voters than men.

Nurses Association Supports Fight for A Permanent FEPC

Because the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses believes that the fight for a Permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee is a fight for Democracy and that the economic future of the Negro nurse is closely related to such a movement, Miss Charlotte K. May, R.N., as a representative of the Organization will testify at the Senate hearings on the bill for a Permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee on August 31, 1944.

EASTER PRESIDENT

Miss May is President of the North Eastern Region of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses and President of the Freedmen's Hospital Alumnae Association of Washington, D. C. She has long been to the forefront in working for the advancement of the Negro nurse.

The National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses is represented on the Executive Committee of the National Council for a Permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee.

Venereal Disease Up Among Teen Agers

Teen-age veneral disease has increased 85% since 1939 and has become Los Angeles' most complex health problem, Dr. George M. Uhl, city health officer, reported recently.

In women, one of every five gonorrhea cases and one of every seven syphilis cases newly-acquired is now a 15-19 year old girl, while one of every seven gonorrhea cases and one in every ten syphilis cases in males is a 15-19 year old boy.

Fish Available, And Low In Price

Fish, an excellent source of animal protein, is now abundant and reasonably priced. Mackerel, Rose fish and the Whiting varieties are in greatest supply along the Northeastern seacoast. Crowded cold storage facilities and a limited labor supply to handle this year's big catch are forcing a large proportion of the fish normally shipped to the Midwest to be marketed on the East Coast.

Traffic Deaths In The Newton Area Are Growing Alarmingly

Although the rest of Los Angeles has a traffic fatality record of only 4 per cent above 1943, up to August 8, the Newton District shows a 40 per cent increase for the same period. Twenty-one persons were killed and 514 inqured in traffic accidents during this period in the Newton area, says the Traffic Education Unit of the Los Angeles Police Department.

Pedestrian violations continue to be the outstanding cause of injury accidents, followed closely by drivers who fail to stop for pedestrians. As four out of five traffic deaths occur in the night time, the Education Unit warns pedestrians to be extremely cautious and to wear something white, or carry a newspaper which will be an aid in reflecting their presence on the street.

SHERIFFS SHOW

Lou Costello, Sheriff Gene Biscailuz and Bud Abbott perfect plans for production of "Sheriffs Annual Show" at the Shrine Auditorium, October 4 to 11. The famous comedy team will produce a star variety bill and for at least two performances will "double in brass" as masters of ceremonies and stars in fun sketches.

HEADS LAW SCHOOL—Scovel Richardson, member of the Lincoln University (Mo.) School of Law faculty since the school's opening in 1939, was recently named dean of the school, succeeding William E. Taylor. For the past year and a half Richardson has been on leave to serve attorney in the Price Division of the OPA. The School of Law, located in St. Louis, Mo., opens its sixth year in mid-September.

Open French and Spanish Classes

The most practical, livable kind of French and Spanish is now offered to the Los Angeles public in "daily doses" of actual Conversation, which began the day after Labor Day, at two convenient centers, one in Hollywood and one in downtown Los Angeles. The downtown location, the Cambria St. School between Seventh and Eighth Streets and between Union and Valencia, will offer classes on Mondays and Wednesdays throughout the fall and winter, beginning Wednesday, Sept. 6.

These classes will be conducted free of charge under the sponsorship of the Adult Education Department of the Los Angeles City Schools, and the Los Angeles County Parks and Recreation Department. Any adult resident of Los Angeles or vicinity is eligible to attend. Registration will take place on Tuesday, Sept. 5, at Plummer Park, Hollywood, and on Wednesday, Sept. 6, at the Cambria St. School in downtown Los Angeles.

Immediate Action On FEPC Asked As Aid To Negro Workers

NEW YORK, N. Y.—To end the Negro worker's position as "the last hired and the first fired," the CIO Political Action Committee today pledged vigorous support of legislation for a permanent FEPC.

IMMEDIATE ACTION

In telegrams to Sen. Dennis Chavez, Chairman of the Senate Sub-Committee on Education and Labor, and Rep. Mary Norton of the House Labor Committee, PAC Chairman Sidney Hillman urged that Congress take immediate action to adopt legislation calling for a permanent FEPC with full statutory powers.

Hillman congratulates the Senate Sub-Committee, which opened hearings today on a bill to make FEPC permanent. He stated, "It is urgent that a bill be reported out as quickly as possible during this session of Congress and enacted into law."

Frail men and women are doing good work in foundries, particularly where little or no brawn is required—and they are sticking to their jobs—the War Manpower Commission reported this week.

New Classes Planned For Jefferson High Adult Education

Announcement was made today by Mr. Robert H. Presley, Principal that the Jefferson Evening High School will have many new classes beginning on September 5th, 1944. These classes include Upholstery, Income Tax Reports, Public Speaking, Real Estate Law, Community Singing, General Science, Personal Grooming, Bookkeeping, Ceramics, and Body and Fender Repairing.

EMPLOYMENT AIDS

Several of these classes will be on a vocational level and are being planned so as to aid the members of our community in obtaining employment when cancelling of war orders will close down some of the aircraft plants, shipyards, and other war industries.

Besides these new classes, the school is offering its regular classes: Poultry and Egg Production; Shorthand; Typing; Technical English and Literature; Elementary Review; Custodial Engineering; Electricity and Radio; Radio Mathematics; Radio Repairs; Power Sewing; Auto Mechanics; Spanish; Algebra and Geometry; Chorus; Harmony; Piano; Voice Culture; Home Nursing; and Women's Physical Education.

Due Process Denial Charged In Georgia

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Calling the sentencing to electrocution of three young Negroes, Fred Lane, James Davis and James Williams, in a closed Gainsville, Florida, courtroom surrounded by armed militia and a mob of would-be lynchers a denial of due process of law, Dr. George Marshall, Chairman of the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties, wired Governor Holland of Florida recently, urging him to stay execution and to thoroughly investigate the case.

The wire also urged the Governor to investigate and bring to trial the would-be lynchers who attempted to obstruct justice.

It used to be TABOO for girls to discuss this kind of help

Many a girl has suffered from cramp-like pain and other distresses due only to periodic functional causes simply because that was a subject people didn't talk about.

Nowadays, thousands of women rely on the 2-way help of CARDUI. Started 3 days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI should help relieve purely functional periodic pain. Used as a tonic, it often perks up appetite, increases the flow of gastric juices, thus aiding digestion and thereby helping to build up strength and resistance for the time it's most needed.

CARDUI may help you. A 62-year record says it's worth a trial.

MRS. GARNER ENTERTAINS

Mrs. George Robert Garner, Jr. entertained with a luncheon party last Saturday honoring Mesdames Julia Brown, L. Vera Poole and Catherin Dickerson of Chicago. Enjoying the beautiful town house atop Nob Hill and lunching with the honored guests were Mesdames William Gilchrist, Victoria Clay Rowland, Irene Wilbert, Mary Jane Cooper, Walter J. Bryant, Anna Lofton, of Nashville, Tennessee, who is a houseguest of the Garners, Miss LaVaughn Poole, Miss Diane Dickerson. For good measure, Mrs. Garner included in the party, her husband, the Rev. Garner, two of his close friends, Attorney Earl B. Dickerson, of Chicago, Rev. Walter J. Bryant, and Mr. Clinton George Woods, also of Chicago.

DANCE PROGRAMME DELIGHTS

The Archie Savage Dance Troupe turned in a very splendid performance at the Embassy Auditorium last Friday night. Due for special commendation are Byron Ellis and Philip Goodwin, and one of newest of the newcomers to the group, Jayne Edwards, shows real promise. It seems to us that the troupe definitely has promise of a very bright future.

We spotted Attorney and Mrs. Vince Monroe Townsend, Attorney Crispus Wright, Calvin Bailey, Cleo Haynes, Nine Mae McKinney, and LaVaughn Martin, among the lookers on.

SOCIAL DOINGS...

It was a lovely birthday celebration the Carr family gave for the family heir, Cleveland Carr, Jr., on his 18th birthday. Among some of the guests present were Tommy Simmons, Althea Jones, LaVaughn Martin, Frances Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph King, his sister, Dorothy Carr, and many more. The honored guest received many useful gifts.

A SWANK SEMI-FORMAL, attended by all the social debs and their escorts, was given by popular Yvonne Cole at the Villa Arlington Club on Saturday last. This was one of the season's outstanding social events.

Energetic Mary Lou Rosser will sponsor another one of those unique "People's World" parties at her home, 805 East 43rd Street, Saturday evening. If you want to enjoy an evening of fun, drop by and bring your friends.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Myrtle Robinson, wife of Abie Robinson, sports editor of the Sentinel, is spending her vacation with her mother in San Mateo.

Mr. Ted Thomas was a weekend visitor at Lake Elsinore, where he spent a restful holiday.

Miss Norma Amato, soprano soloist at the Fellowship Assembly, All Nations Foundation, will return to her post on Sunday, after enjoying a delightful vacation at Val Verde.

Captain Alex Boldin and his comrades from Ft. Hauchuca have shipped out for parts unknown, to play their role in the great fight for freedom.

Glad to see my favorite beautician, Mrs. Hortense Johnson, is back in her shop, following a long illness.

THINGS WE LIKE ...

The very cultured, refined manner in which the Delta Rhythm Boys always play their cinema roles.

The kind of men who are not afraid to speak out in behalf of freedom and equality for the race, such as Dean William H. Hastie, former Civilian Aide, and A. Philip Randolph, International president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

Unassuming, attractive young women such as Mildred Hampton, secretary in the real estate office of Walter Gordon, Sr.

Persons of the nordic race who are sincere in their preachments of democracy for all... so that they are not afraid to say so... we cite two examples, to-wit: Mrs. Irene West and Ted LeBerthon.

All the peoples of the world who are rising up against the powers of darkness and crying out for a beautiful, free world in which we all may live. In closing, I'll say, lets join forces with them, and together march to victory! Bye.

GARDEN PIANO RECITAL—The students pictured above were recently heard over KPAS. They are to be presented along with other students of Miss Ruby Lyle, young Pianist-Teacher of Los Angeles in a Garden Piano Recital at her studio home Sunday afternoon, September 10, at 3:00 p. m., 3830 Wall street. The seudents shown with their teacher, Miss Lyle, are, seated from left to right, Shirley Ann Brown and Nancy Windom. Standing, left to right, Spencer Cooper, Dickey Velasco and Carl LeRoy. Other students who have had the opportunity of being heard over this station within the past year and who will also be heard on program are Ardelia Moore, Bobbie Butler and Shirley Stevens. Offerings acceptable.

PROMINENT CHICAGOAN—A recent visitor to our city was Mrs. Marguerite B. Clarke, a teacher of voice in the Chicago City Schools. She spent five weeks as the house guest of Mme. Mozelle Te Outley. Mrs. Clarke possesses a fine contralto voice and is in great demand as a soloist. She is an active member of the Pilgrim Baptist Church.

Visit Tia Juana

Crowning their brief vacation here with an unusual treat, Miss Louise Franklin, of 852 E. Adams street, was host to a quartette of her relatives in a weekend trip to Tia Juana, Mexico. All are prominent residents of Kansas City, Kas.

They were Thos. Thatcher, of the widely known Thatcher Undertaking establishment, Mesdames Myrtle, Quintella, and Carmen Thatcher. All enjoyed themselves immensely, and will return shortly singing the praises of California, Mexico and Hollywood.

Two of their most exciting experiences were the horse races at Agua Caliente, and the Combates del Toro, or bull-fights in the famous arena at Tia Juana.

Visits Los Angeles

Miss Myrlin M. Hall of Texarkana, Arkansas, and one of the popular young teachers at the Nevada County Training School, Rosston, Arkansas, spent a most delightful week at the hospitable home of Mrs. Mildred Allen, 315½ El Monte Street, San Gabriel California. Mr. W. F. White of Richmond, California, was also a guest of Mrs. Allen.

Both Miss Hall and Mr. White enjoyed sightseeing in Pasadena, Hollywood, Beverly Hills, Alhambra, Santa Monica and the Angel City.

Luncheon Given

Miss Yvonne Maddox entertained at luncheon Sunday afternoon honoring Miss Thadeus Ross, who is leaving for New York, Mrs. Ruth Loupe, who is joining her husband in Tuskegee, and Miss Doris Lee Thomas, who is leaving for the North. Guests included Miss Geraldine Barnum, Wrenna Clark, Orshid Oliver, Elaine Ross and Winifred Smith. Mesdames Gloria Howard, Roslyn Huntley and Lecontine Russell. Each honored guest was presented a going away gift by the hostess.

Visits Mother

Mr. Adolphus Johnson of Washington D. C., was the house guest of his mother, Mrs. Lillie Johnson of 1104 East Washington Blvd., for ten (10) days. His short visit was a busy one. Mrs. Margaret Scott, aunt, was hostess to the family with a well-appointed dinner party ably assisted by her niece, Mrs. Christine Hall and friend, Mrs. Calvin Jones.

Mr. Johnson was shown many sights of Hollywood, Bel Air and Westwood, ending with a beach party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Dillard of 49th St. He enjoyed the beautiful services at The Independent Church with his nieces Misses Elizabeth and Alice Burley who are sisters of S2/c Adolphus Burley of the U. S. Navy Training School at Great Lakes, I... Mr. and Mrs. John Hall feted Mr. Johnson and friends with a theater party at the Grauman's Chinese with supper in their 53rd St. home. Our guest expressed himself as having a most enjoyable trip to the coast and looking forward to returning with his family in the near future.

Through the first six months of 1944, the home service units of Los Angeles Chapter, American Red Cross, handled 122,134 cases—an average of 20,355 per month—involving problems of servicemen and their families, reports filed this week at Chapter headquarters disclosed.

Semi-Formal Dancing Party Given for Young Socialite

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

In a setting of hanging ivy and beautiful dahlias, popular Yvonne Cole was honored by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Augustus Cole, with a Semi-Formal Dancing Party at fasionable Villa Arlington. The honoree, a recent graduate of Compton Junior College, received her many guests in a billowy white chiffon gown, strikingly trimmed with a large red rose at the waist line and tiny rose buds, falling the full length of the skirt. Large gold spanish combs in her becomingly coiffed hair, and a white gardenia corsage worn on her shoulder completed her garb.

The Arlington was the scene of much gayety, as the elite of LA's Younger set sipped punch, munched on sandwiches, and danced from nine o'clock until one, to the latest and best recorded music. Yvonne's mother, the well known Lorenzo Jordan Cole, hostessed the affair in a delicate pink, softely drapped gown, set off by two orchids. Assisting Mrs. Cole, was Mrs. Chauncey Tate.

A wooden guest book, featuring leather lacings and a black panther, was artistically made by the honoree. On its pages appear the names of out of towners: Faye Houtman, San Diego, Charles Sims, Tuskegee, Yvonne Mason, New Orleans, Frederick Hubbard, Section Base, Santa Barbara, and Joffrey Roberts, Ft. Hauchuca.

Local guests included: Berkeley Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. John Alston(Bette Yarbrough), Mr. C. DeMille Price, Arthur Cummings, E. F. O'Kelley, Dorothy Dent, Romona Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Barker, Sgt. Dixon and Marilyn Warren, Jessel E. Reid, Marilyn Williams, Marjorie Golden and Samuel Marlowe, Eura Dell Porter and Ike Adams, Rose Brown, Patrick O'Rhine, Yvonne Cummings, Jean Carrol Cummings, Robert Brewington, Clara B. Fentress, Charles Robertson, Maxine Clark, Edwin Sneed, Marcella Monroe and Hayward Miller, Anita Monroe Williams, James O. Chick, Lenord Huchman, Consuelo Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph A. Collins (Vera Rieras) Rose Rieras, Frank Goldberg, Heroldine Browning, Horace Preston, Bettye Griffin, Winifred Allen, Terry Brown, Walter Durham, Betty Gipson, Roy Hart, Joe Walker, Gwendolyn Harris, Virgil Earl, Paulette Dejoie, Parker Kenner, Maethilde Kenner, Arthur Trent, Vivian Staton, Phyromn Taylor, Freddie Harold Weaver, Deloris Hollins and Henry McBee, E. Yaynne Bryant, Emily and Richard Hickman, DeVere and Lena, Jack Terry, Josephine Taylor, Roy Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, Tressie Jones, Pfc. Elmore H. Pierce, George Jefferson, Bertie Hathway and Cal Bailey, Vance Jones and Anita Hippard.

Golden West Bridge Association

Clarence Ennis, president of the G.W.B.A. and the charming Mrs. Ennis, arrived home a few days ago from the national tournament held in New Orleans. They also helped to bring honor to the West Coast in winning a special event, a mixed pair team of four, the last event of the tournament.

Mr. Ennis also won the first event, a sweepstake game. Dr. A. L. Wallace, one of the pillars of the G.W.B.A. and C.B.C. is home, too, after a month's stay in Chicago. May Denton, G.W.-B.A. vice president and hubby Henry Denton, the most valuable person around 1054, are home, erasing our list of absentees.

The scores of our August series are still incomplete.

Register now for our 2nd Annual Sectional. The 1943 champions Louis W. Clay—Gene C. Campbell, are out to repeat. Are you going to sit idly by or do you accept their challenge?

The Fri - September series started off with a bang. 16 pair played. The winners, Louisa Roan-Agnes Beal, N.S. Dr. A. L. Wallace-Beatrice Reeves tied with Dr. Darthula Matthews-Ellis L. Veil, E.W.

Attend and enjoy some or all of our plays, Sunday, Tuesday, Friday, at 1054-56 E. 54th Street. ADams 5946.

California is now classed as the most rapidly growing and the third most populous state in the Union, exceeded only by New York and Pennsylvania.

Entertains 12 Guests

Last week Mrs. Lillian Moore, ably assisted by her lovely mother, Mrs. Gertrude Charles, entertained 12 ladies with a delicious "Brunch," honoring the Misses Edna Ezell, teacher of Dallas, Texas, Gladys Wells, talented singer of Mexico City and Miss Minnie Smiley, teacher of voice and choir director of Houston, Texas.

Other ladies present were: Mesdames Naomi Hooker, nina Mallory, Martha City, Obelia Teel, Ida Countee, Misses Marie Prentice and Mecie Harris.

All expressed themselves as having had an enjoyable evening.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

"THE WAND'S" WOMEN'S ARMY FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE), ADDED ITS NEWEST CHAPTER LAST WEEK, WHEN MAJOR GRACE B. STEVENS, RECRUITING OFFICER, ORGANIZED THE FIRST GROUP OF THE ORGANIZATION. CHARLESETTA STRANGE IS CAPTAIN OF THE NEW GROUP WHICH CARRIES THE NAME OF ATTORNEY MARTHA WILLIAMS. OTHER OFFICERS INCLUDE: MYRTLE RILEY, FIRST LIEUTENANT; RUTH WEEMS, SECOND LIEUTENANT; MARCELIN FOSTER, CHAPLAIN; EVELYN LEONARD, MASTER SERGEANT; SADIE WEEMS, TECHNICAL SERGEANT, AND JACQUELIN FULCHER, FIRST SERGEANT. "THE WANDS" AR TAKING A VERY IMPORTANT PART IN THE PRESENT DAY SITUATION, THEREFORE EVERY WOMAN AND GIRL IS ASKED TO JOIN. SUNDAY AFTERNOON FROM FOUR O'CLOCK UNTIL SEVEN O'CLOCK, A RECRUITING TEA IS BEING HELD.

Still keeping in line with the War Effort, members of Sigma Chapter of the AKA's made their second visit last Tuesday to Birmingham Hospital, to do their bit toward cheering up recuperating service men. The coeds took cigarettes and spent several hours playing games and entertaining the men. Benzell Graham, Basilius of the chapter, Gloria Roberts, Virginia Prince, Kay Hartsfield and others made up the group that was taken to the hospital by Red Cross station wagon. Understand that monthly trips will be scheduled by the club members.

HILARITY REIGNS
KINDA GROOVEY TOO

Doings last week-end were on so much time, it's rather hard to choose highlights . . . Chatter concerning the Yvonne Cole party have it that she made a charming hostess, and that the many debs were beautifully gowned in the latest creations. My Friend Friday, took special note of Clara Fentress in a net eye catcher, Connie Monroe in a breath taking white backless gown, Roy Andrew and Jack Terry, dancing with visiting lovelies, Bette and John Alston making their first appearance since they spoke their vows. Ramona Robinson chatting with old friends, and the loveliness of New Orleans visitor, Yvonne Mason. Friend Friday chalked this up as a perfect affair . . . Saturday also found Alpha Gamma members headed for that well planned Val Verde Week-end, where they enjoyed roughing it for a few days. The swimming pool, and club house were time monopolizers during the whole trip. Mary Coleman, Alma Peake, Jo Spearman, Emma Milhouse and Josephine Jordan long with Helen Jane Stewart, had a gay time, getting that perfect tan on the deck of the pool. Gloria Ford and Jessie Milhouse took snap shots by the dozen. Other week-enders at the popular spot included Donald Derrecks, Bill Cockrell, Laura and Johnnie Brewer, Bernice Hester, Theron Kirk, Barbara Carter, more and more and then some. On Labor Day proper, Jessel Reid, Florine Brown, Nancy Lewis, Maethilde Kenner, Lambert Green, Paulette Dejoie and every other Angelino was on hand enjoying the fun making.

MEETING THE PEOPLE

Sunday afternoon, younger setters attended a reception honoring Mrs. Clotial Newman, an Alpha Woman, visiting here from Texas. Jackie Carol, the honorees' cousin, headed the receiving line, and made the intros, to the popular Los Angeles circles.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Lt. Bill Johnson is scheduled to be home on furlough at the end of this month. Has done a bit of studying at Yale University . . . Maurice Page is back in the air again. His broken arm is healed so he is up with the rest of the Tuskegee flyers . . . Vance Jones is in on furlough, looking one hundred per in his army get-up. At the close of this leave, he enters the Paratroopers with a will to do big things. By the way, Dan cupid played his part perfectly, for Vance placed a sparkler on Anita Hippards finger that calls for a second glance. Understand that wedding bells will ring for the couple following the war. Good luck and happy landing in your new field, Vance old boy . . . When the Mariners made their entry into town, t'other week, Luke House, andG rnell Burwell's brother were greeted with open arms and partied to the last degree . . . Received word from John Kinloch last week, and from the trend of the note, the fox holes are doing their part as far as keeping him safe is concerned . . . Hear that Carl Alexander and LeRoy Beavers will be taking in the highlights round town soon on a little leave . . .

Joyce and Jerry Stewart didn't arrive home on scheduled time because their plane was grounded, however, they should be in next week . . . The YMCA lads are raving about the charming Irma Gilmore who is the secretary there now . . . Jane Criner is suffering a broken ankle, so she'll kinda be out of circulation for a week or two . . . Speedy recovery kiddo . . . None other than the Walter Goodlow's are infanticipating 'round December (Lillian Cornish). By the way, Alice Cornish Andrews' son is now seven weeks old, and the picture of health . . .

Paulette Dejoie is doing big talk about giving up S.C. for Howard University, the popular coed will have her mind definitely made up in a few days . . . Mary Pollard and Hariette Kelley will be Bruin bound in October . . . The Panelogue out on the UCLA campus has ten race members this semester, instead of the usual two. The group will meet new members on the 12th at dinner . . .

Lt. Lowell Stewart is seeing to it that wifey, Helen, gets a trinket from each stop. Latest is a leather purse the flyer picked up in Africa, and cameo ring and gloves purchased in some quaint little shop in Rome . . .

CUPID SCORES

The rumored engagement of Connie Monroe and Elmer Roberts is true, Announcement was recently made at a social gathering . . . Homeward bound, is Naomi Davis after spending several months in New Orleans. Plans at least a two week stop over in LA before heading for home in Frisco . . . Thomasina Ayres celebrated her birthday with a luncheon last Sunday afternoon. Many happy returns . . . Helen Maupin's niece, Deloris Bell, leaves the fair city this week-end for her home in Massachusetts. She plans to enter Cornell University this semester. If all goes well, Jessie Mae Milhouse will complete her summer studies by receiving her B.S. degree in Sociology from UCLA.

Present Tea and Fashion Show at Villa Arlington

On last Sunday afternoon a very brilliant tea and fashion review was presented at Villa Arlington in Adams Building by Mrs. Essie Fincher, prominent West Side civic worker and U. S. Thompson, the internationally famed entertainer. The affair was given in collaboration with Mrs. Beatrice Cassell and was for the benefit of the parsonage fund of Trinity Baptist Church.

The membership of the church has been divided into several geographical districts. Mrs. Cassell is a district candidate for the title of "Miss Trinity." The candidate was winner of an award offered by the church last year in connection with a war bond campaign for the building fund. That award included a trip to the National Baptist Convention at Chicago. This year she attended the convention of her own accord, the sessions of which are being held in Dallas, Texas, this week. After the convention she will visit friends and relatives in Missouri and Michigan. Mrs. Cassell is the wife of Paul H. Cassell, one of the city's more successful building contractors and church officials.

Hostesses for last Sunday's affair were Mesdames Lela Cooker, Letha Cutore, Theodore Washing, Thelma Faye Dawson, Clara Edwards, Lena Minor - Phillips, Misses Johnson and Hazel White. Participating in the fashion review and program were the Westfield sisters, a vocal group; Norris Stokes and John Dix, baritones; Ella Mae Graves and Althea Warren, sopranos; Andrew Green and James Warren, pianists; Roberta Jackson and Marjorie Day. Models included Mylan Stroop, Katherine Foster, Devorg Allen, Diane Campbell, Bernice Floyd and daughter, Autrie Jean.

PLANES HOME—The attractive Mrs. Loraine (Nicky) Shelton, above, after spending an enjoyable vacation for one month here departed for her home in St. Louis by a TWA plane this week. Mrs. Shelton was a guest of the Regal Hotel while here and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Slayton, 354 E. 51st street, during her stay. She is the daughter of Mrs. Eva Gray of St. Louis and the wife of Edgar Shelton of the same city.

Doll League Benefit Dance

Sunday, September 17th is a date you have from 4-8 p.m. to dance to the music of Count Basie with the Doll League.

If you haven't been able to contact any of the members of this well known organization you can secure your ticket at the Dunbar Lounge. This should be done early as this popular group of young women have a tremendous following. Mrs. Flo Ware is the president, and you will remember that Laura Slayton founded this worthwhile organization many years ago. Since that time this group has done highly commendable charity work in the community.

Stages Luncheon

In her elegantly appointed home, 384 North Michigan Avenue, Pasadena, Mrs. William M. Gilchrist had a luncheon party honoring Mesdames Julia Brown, L. Vera Poole, Teresa Hardin, Catherine Dickerson, and daughters, LaVaughn Poole, Muney Marie Hardin, and Diane Dickerson, Chicagoans all, and Californians Mesdames, Irene Wilbert, Lucille Duncan, Victoria Clay Rowlands and Miss Mary Lou Mims.

The details of the exquisitely dressed dining table made the luncheon one of the most beautiful social occasions of the present season. Mrs. Gilchrist, ever thoughtful of her intimate friends, divided the profusion of flowers throughout the household with her friends and carried a huge basket of flowers to Mr. Felix Woods, Pasadena's grand old man—devotee of humanity.

Texas Visitor

Mrs. Sallie A. Cotton of Houston, Texas was a visitor in Los Angeles this past week.

Mrs. Cotton who is a teacher in the city public schools of Houston, is very prominent in religious, social and fraternal organizations as well as civic organizations.

Because of the many pressing engagements claiming her attention elsewhere she was unable to spend more than a week in Los Angeles.

She left aboard the Day-Light Limited for Oakland. While in the City she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, her brother and his very splendid wife.

HOLD MEETING

Lumpkin Sr. of Los Angeles repeated their vows again at five o'clock sharp in their home, 1846 East 52nd street. The beautiful ceremony was conducted by the Rev. F. D. Jordan of First AME Church, Los Angeles. The house was decorated with lovely gladiolas and roses. Music was played by the two daughters, Miss Sarah Lumpkin and Mrs. Cornelia Scott. Mrs. Lillian Moore and Mrs. Augusta Glover rendered lovely selections. The receiving line included Mrs. Rosetta Barnum, Mrs. Magalena Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Troy. Acting hostesses included the following friends: Mesdames Virginia Johnson, Hallie Randall, Artisha Jordan, Minnie Tucker, Nancy Lewis, Bozzaline Meggeran, Henrietta Andrews, Ruby Brooks, Mary Harris, Helen Love, Virginia Kimbrough, Birdie Lott, Myra White and Miss Doris Thomas and Miss Isadore Steward. Three hundred guests were present, including the couples' six children, one of whom is 1st Lt. Theodore G. Lumpkin Jr. who is now serving in Italy. Many beautiful gifts of silver were received.

Before buying ANY laxative, consider these 3 Questions

Ques. Does it make any difference what laxative you buy? Ans. It certainly does; most people prefer a laxative that is satisfactory in action but thorough in results. Ques. How can you know what laxative, when taken as directed, will give prompt, thorough relief? Ans. One simple way is to ask for Black-Draught. Ques. Is Black-Draught economical? Ans. Very! Only 25c for 25 to 40 doses.

Black-Draught is purely herbal. It has been a popular-selling laxative with four generations. Many say the new granulated form is even easier to take. Caution, use only as directed.

Pasadena Charity Girls to Give Benefit at Plantation Club

With a steady advance ticket sales reported, the Pasadena Charity Girls night at club Plantation next Thursday evening looms up as a complete success, according to Mrs. Ruby McNight, the sponsor. Net proceeds will go towards the furnishing of a day room for servicemen stationed at the Sixth Ferrying Company Base in Long Beach. A squadron of 100 men from the post will be present as guests of honor. Hollywood personalities in the persons of Ben Carter, Clarence Muse, Louise Beavers, Ethel Waters, Nina Mae McKinney, and Rex Ingram, have promised to lend a hand towards making the evening a success.

INFORMAL CENTER

Not to be confused with other types of recreation centers such as canteens, P X's, and USO clubs, the day room is an informal lounging center, usually located adjacent to the company barracks where the men can drop in during any brief respite from duty, day or night to relax. Telephones, soft drinks, cigarettes, and the cheering notes of a juke box are close at hand.

No visitors are entertained in the day room but rather is the place a sort of home at camp for men who wish to relax and enjoy themselves without thoug enjoy themselves without of formality or dress.

RED CROSS HELP

Usually the equipment and other embellishments which go to brighten up the room and make it home like and comfortable are furnished through Camp and Hospital service of the Red Cross, and other patriotic women's clubs and auxiliaries.

HELP FOR CRYING BABY

Nobody likes being kept awake all night long by a crying baby. But if your baby is fretful and restless and cries all the time because his little body is tortured and sore from smarting heat rash or diaper rash, Mexsana can help you help him.

You see Mexsana, the soothing, medicated powder, serves a double purpose; it relieves baby's misery—due to heat rash, prickly heat, diaper rash, itchy mosquito bites and other minor skin irritations—and thus it makes it possible for him to have restful sleep. For once his tortured skin is comforted—baby will rest quietly—which means the whole family can sleep.

Favorite With All the Family

No wonder then for over 40 years millions of mothers have used Mexsana to help prevent and ease the smart and burn of diaper rash. And they find it helpful for all the family too. For Mexsana will soothe chafe on grownups as well as baby's irritated skin. It really forms a clinging coat of protection to guard irritated skin from clothing likely to rub.

Mexsana even helps prevent itching, burning heat rash. Its special base helps absorb moisture on the skin, which is often the cause of heat rash. And Mexsana contains ingredients specialists often use to relieve these discomforts. So always keep Mexsana on hand as a first-aid for all the family. You'll be surprised at how little this remarkably soothing medicated powder costs. Save even more by buying one of the larger sizes. Don't put it off. Get big family package of Mexsana.

Pastor Is Feted

Miss Vana Walters, 901 East 115th Street, Blodgett Manor, gave a beautiful dinner for her very dear friend, the Reverend Anna McMillan, honoring the occasion of her brithday on Monday evening. The dinner guests included Mrs. Anna Lofton, Nashville, Tennessee, Mrs. Netta Paullyn Garner, Mrs. Lillian Clementi, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amato, Miss Marietta Canty and Messrs. Jesse Harvey and Lewis Clementi.

On Sunday evening, the Reverend McMillan entertained the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, honoring the Reverend George Garner and Professor Hugh Fisher Lewis of Chicago, son of Mrs. S. L. Lewis, 1055 East 42nd Place.

Among those enjoying the elaborate buffet supper were President C. W. Hill, Secretary William Perry, C. P. Johnson, New York, N. Y., Dr. R. P. Williams, Messrs. Albert Maddox, William Nickerson, Jr., Irving Smith, Horace Clark, Oscar D. Stokes, Cecil Davis, Roy Williams, Clarence Muse, Harry Mercer and Granville Norman.

Harison Dercant, Philadelphia, Penn.

The dance Wednesday evening was given in honor of the 52nd Defense Bn. The Jitterbug contest held during intermission was won by a Marine, Cpl. J. Wilson, Jr. and Miss Hattie England, Junior hostess.

HORACE WILLARD GROUP

On Sunday afternoon, September 10th, the Twilight Hour Program will be in the hands of the capable Mr. Horace and his group of radio performers. Mr. Willard will present an original radio play and the public is cordially invited to attend this presentation. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Los Alamitos Naval Quartet and Pfc. Robert Adams.

NASH SINGERS

The popular Nash singers under the direction of Mrs. Lovinia Nash will represent the Watts USO Club on a program at Camp Ross, Wilmington, on Friday September 8th. Composed of some of the ablest individual artists in the city and conducted by Mrs. Nash, organist at 2nd Baptist Church, this distinguished group is assured of a brilliant future. Mr. Jester Hairston will supplement the program with a short sketch on the Negro in the biulding of California.

LABOR DAY PROGRAM

On Sunday afternoon September 3rd, Mr. John Fowler, Chairman of the Program Committee was guest speaker of the Twilight Hour Program. The music was furnished by a group from the Hall Johnson choir. Solos by Mrs. Ernestine Wade and Mr. Chester Jones; the duet from Porgy and Bess by Mrs. Margaret Hairston and Mr. Alvin Brantly were most enthusiastically received. The closing number was the famous Sextet from Lucia. Miss Florence Cadrez, secretary of the musicians' union, accompanied by enfire group in all the numbers.

To Give Punchett

The Attorney Martha Williams chapter of the Wands Women's Army for National Defense invites all women, young and old, to the Wand's Recruiting Punchett on Sunday, September 10, 1944, at the home of Mrs. Nora C. Owens, 697 E. 41st Place, from 5:00 to 7:00. The chapter bringing in the most recruits will receive an award.

This is the first youth chapter of the Wands organized by Major Grace Lee Stevens, national recruiting officer, during her recruiting campaign here on the Pacific Coast.

Young women, come out and join the Wands, a civilian group, and show the world that the civilian youth are out for victory and a lasting peace.

COURT ST. USO
SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.

SAN BERNARDINO — The Monday night dance at the San Bernardino Army Air Base was well attended by the Junior Hostesses from the Court Street USO, Mrs. Claudia Clausell, the Senior Army Hostess at the Air Base, is anxious that the girls attend these functions and plans special dances for their enjoyment and entertainment. Come on girls to the USO to catch the bus for the Air Base Dances each Monday night ! ! !

Tuesday night a group of twenty five Junior Hostesses were transported in G.I. style to Camp Hahn for a dance sponsored and given by the 4510 Q.M. Truck Company. The girls reported a nice time and are ready to go back once more.

Wednesday night another twenty-five girls were taken by bus to the Ontario Army Air Base for a party sponsored by the Base Unit there. The girls reported a lovely evening of dancing and other entertainment. 1st Sgt. Grizzette of the Base Unit expressed his pleasure that the girls responded so anxiously and well to their efforts and promises another gala evening forthcoming in the near future.

Our thanks this week go to the Junior Hostess Group of Court Street USO for its responses this week. Many of the girls went on all of the three trips to the camps this week. Most of the hostesses felt rewarded for going by the excellent fun provided for them. Keep it up girls! !

Farewell Luncheon

Miss Carrie Ruth Williams of East 54th Street, entertained with a lavish farewell luncheon honouring Miss Lois H. Mann, former Girl Reserve Secretary of The Woodlawn Branch Y.W.C.A. and Mrs. Carrie Goodlett-Vaughn, cousin of the hostess who is departing for her home in Omaha, Nebraska after having spent four weeks in the City of The Angels.

Miss Williams is well known in civic and social circles and is the office executive of The Woodlawn Branch Y.W.C.A. and is a popular member of the younger set.

In addition to the honoured guests were Miss Sarah Elizabeh Collins, Mrs. Jean Wright Riffe, Mrs. Mildred Sanders Burbridge, Mrs. Mary Ann Elliott, Mr. Freddie Banks, of Omaha, Nebraska and Mr. Joseph Collins. All expressed themselves as having had an enjoyable afternoon.

Waldens Serve Steak Dinner at Labor Day Garden Party

Labor Day afternoon at the palatial home of the Waldens, 2100 Portland Street, steak dinners were served in the gardens and the patio to some twenty odd guests who enjoyed barbecued charcoal baby beef steaks three inches in thickness.

To quote one of the guests, the Rev. George Garner, he said: "No, I have never been to such a feast of steaks in all my travels, and I have never seen so many steaks privately served and so neatly consumed—I really thought beef was off the list since World War II started."

Others enjoying the individual steak dinners were Messrs and Mesdames James Gray William H. Rowan, Eudell Harris, Blakeley Edwards, Frank Hammonds, Rev. and Mrs. George Robert Garner, Herman Hill, Mrs. Lillian Clementi, Mrs. Ida Hudson, Mrs. Anna Lofton, Nashville, Tenn., Miss Hortense Love, Chicago, Illinois, Miss Doris Clark, Mr. Oscar McMullen and Mr. Gene Rogers.

At twilight, a soiree in the music salon was enjoyed by the dinner company, presented by Hortense Love, brilliant soprano, and Gene Rogers, piano virtuoso. Both artists charmed their drawing room audience beyond the degree of superlatives

VISITING TEXAS

Mrs. J. W. Bailey and niece, Della Joseph, left last week for Dallas, Texas where they will attend the National Baptist Convention. While in the state, they will visit Marshall, Houston, Beaumont, and other points, returning to Los Angeles late in October.

Town and Gown Club

Mrs. Bertha Collins was the lovely hostess to the Town and Gown Club recently at her swank apartment on E. 52nd st. at 4 o'clock. Business was briefly discussed with the President presiding. At the close of the meeting, special guests arrived, this being a joint celebration of birthdays for mesdames Bertha Collins, Marion Banks and Mattie Taryin, members of the club.

After serving the guest cocktails, the charming hostess took the entire party to the Last Word where tables were beautifully decorated and dinner was served, pictures were made and birthday congratulations were offered. The party journeyed on to the lovely home of Miss Marion Banks where other guests arrived and dancing was the feature of the evening. Many beautiful gifts were received by the honoree's, Mattie Tarvin, reporter.

Spoiled produce condemned by fruit and vegetable inspectors in Los Angeles' wholesale markets during the last fiscal year totaled 8,756,000 pounds.

Frat Social

Alpha Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity enjoyed its first social festivity scheduled for the year last Thursday, August 31, 1944, in a very colorful party, which was closed to members of the fraternity and their company, held at the beautiful Villa Arlington.

From nine 'till two, this fellowship was set to continuous fascinating strains provided for by the musical genius of the charming Miss Richie Dell Archia and intermittently by the most select of recordings.

Assorted sandwiches, hors d' heuvres and other excessories were deliciously prepared by caterists and served with a variety of beverages.

The very warm personality of Villa Arlington's hostess, Miss Carrie Collins, served to enhance the party's tone, yet the zenith of the occasion was not reached until the singing of the fraternity hymns.

Garden Party

Recently Mr. and Mrs. John H. Watkins entertained with a very beautiful garden party in their lovely patio. The soft light and subdued music, combined with the fragrance of the many flowers, enhanced the scene beyond description.

The ladies were smartly attired in the latest summer fashions. Earlier in the afternoon, Mrs. Watkins entertained her home town club (The Paris Texas Club). She was ably assisted by her sister, Mrs. Charlie Spears, in receiving and seeing that the guests had an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Watkins, the charming hostess, was formerly Magnolia Pickens.

Handkerchief Shower

The Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority gave a lovely handkerchief shower for Soror Lewis, national president of the undergraduate chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho, in the home of Soror Gloria Smith, 214 Alvarado Street, Saturday evening, Aug. 26. Soror Lewis was accompanied by Soror Gardner. Both young women are visiting from St. Louis, Missouri.

Presentations were made by Basileus Sadie Weems. Guests present included Soros Nicie Mann, Sadie Weems, Veralee Brown, Gladys Chapman, Ida Buggs, Juanita Johnson and Gloria Smith. Soror Ollie Green of the graduate chapter, and Mrs. Sadie Weems, mother of the Basileus, were also present. A delightful social evening was enjoyed by all.

ENROUTE HOME

Mrs. Ida Bell Thomas, of Memphis, Tenn., en route home was the charming guests of Mrs. Della Lonon, 1314 East 17th Street. While in the city Mrs. Thomas was entertained at dinner, tea, and a trip to Long Beach. Mrs. Lonon is a former resident of Memphis.

Love for mankind is the elevator of the human race; it demonstrates Truth and reflects divine Love.

Immediate Family Attend Leopold-Ford Marriage

By Jessie Mae Brown.

The former Marion Leopard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leopard, is now the bride of Henderson Ford. Ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening, August 23, 1944, at 8:00 o'clock with the Rev. Clayton Russell of Independent Church officiating. Only members of the immediate family were present. Following the marriage a lovely dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Ford received their many friends at an elaborate Wedding Reception Sunday, August 27, 1944 from 3:00 o'clock until 7:00 o'clock given in honour of the newlyweds by the bride's parents at 1937 South Hobart. Mrs. Ford was beautiful in an ultra smart afternoon dress of white crepe semi-drape with lace bodice. Accessories were chrystal earrings, necklace and white orchid corsage. Mrs. Henry Leopard, mother, was stunning in gray afternoon dress with orchid corsage. Mrs. Lottie Martin, sister, wore gray also with orchid corsage. Mr. Henry Leopard and son, Rudolph, completed the receiving line.

Assisting were: Lillian Leopard, Marguerite Singleton, Lois Thompson, Eunice Hutchison, Janet Le Straps, Marion Jackson and Mrs. Joseph Rouse.

Mrs. Ford, native daughter, is a member of Independent Church, Doll League Charity Club and is an employee of the Southern California Telephone Company as a Commercial Teller. Mr. Ford, son of Mrs. Maggie L. Ford of Mansfield, Louisiana, is owner of a Cleaning and Pressing Establishment. Many courtesies have been shown this popular couple, and they will be at home to their many friends on September 18, 1944 at 1104 E. 47 Place.

Visits Husband

Mrs. Elmer G. Wilson of Yoakum, Texas, is visiting her husband, Staff Sgt. Elmer G. Wilson, who is attached to the quartermaster corps at Yermo, California. Sgt. Wilson has seen service in North Africa, Sicily and Italy.

Mrs. Wilson is also visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lee, proprietors of the W. L. Lee Shoe Hospital on Central Avenue.

Roosevelt Is Needed To Win the Peace

Not only the election of our leader, Franklin D. Roosevelt, but of a strong Democratic Congress, or at least a Congress whose members agree with President Roosevelt, is absolutely necessary to insure a lasting peace. This fact was stressed again and again by Senator Claude Pepper in an address Friday evening at a meeting in the Shrine auditorium which was the opening gun of the Democratic campaign for the November election.

Senator Pepper constantly drew parallels between conditions today and those of 1918 at the close of the first World War. Then a senate opposed to President Wilson refused to ratify our joining the League of Nations. And as a result we have the present war.

"Isolation can only lead again to war," the Senator warned. "Hidden away in the Republican Party platform is a paragraph which will make agreements between nations, seeking postwar adjustments, virtually impossible."

Speaking of the postwar period, Senator Pepper predicted that there will be a gigantic development along the Pacific Coast. "Alaska, Soviet Asia, China, urma, Indo-China, the Indies, Australia, New Zealand—all these great areas beckon to our Pacific Coast. But the Pacific Coast and the West—and indeed my South—can not grow and develop unless there is a government in Washington friendly to their progress."

"Under President Roosevelt the West has had the greatest growth in its history. But you turn the government in Washington over to the old guard of the Republican Party and you will see your public power given to private interests. You will see your growing industry dwindle away, and your commerce strangeld.

"The only way to make the nation prosper is to make the masses of the people well off. Private industry should carry the burden of unemployment, but the government must be the guarantor of the nation's prosperity."

Alfred W. Robertson, vice-chairman of the Democratic State Committee, in his opening remarks warned of the need of registering and voting. "Only 49% of those who could register, have already done so," he said, and told how just one vote in the U. S. Senate in 1918 turned the tide against the League of Nations. "That one vote may be said to have caused this present war. Any one who does not register and who does not vote, especially in such a crucial election as this one will be, is not fit to be an American citizen."

Orson Welles, famed motion picture star, also stressed the need of reelecting Preident Roosevelt if we are to have a lasting peace. "If Roosevelt was needed to win the war, he is needed one hundred times more to win the peace," he declared. "We should shout this from the housetops, and continue shouting it until every one hears."

Every part of the program emphasized the urgent need of continuing President Roosevelt in office and the election of a liberal Congress if there is to be a lasting peace following this war. A play staged by the actors' unit of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, a song and skit, "Let's go out and ring doorbells," by Marilyn Hare and Al Hammer—all urged every one to be on his and her toes to prevent another catastrophe such as followed the conclusion of the first World War.

C. I. O. Example of Democracy

Closing a convention session in Los Angeles, attended by some five hundred delegates, the great C.I.O., the workingman's organization, moved up another notch in setting the pace for democracy in action.

At this C.I.O. session every man from the lowest scale workman to the highest, had a voice in matters that shape the policy of the organization.

Our metropolitan newspapers and the Peglers tell us that Sidney Hillman, the moving spirit of the C.I.O., is no good.

Well, if Hillman is no good, all we can say is, "God give us more 'no good' men of the Hillman kind."

For the first time in the history of this nation, this great industrial organization has welcomed the Negro worker to become a full fledged member of its family, and by so doing has released him from his economic chains, and guaranteed to him economic and industrial freedom.

At the convention there was no "You sit here and I will sit there." The C.I.O. is the living, moving spirit of Democracy. It asks only that you do your part.

We realize some of our Congressmen resent the presence of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee in the presidential campaign, and have sent up a great howl about the money that will be spent by this committee in the election.

While the big boys have not touched the race angle in connection with the C.I.O., we are quite sure that the organization's policy of free and equal participation in all affairs of the C.I.O. is resented by the people who would keep this nation the property of a few while the masses, especially the minorities, scramble for the crumbs.

A New Proclamation Signed

When Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation that broke the shackles from four million slaves, the stroke was truly more significant but not more impressive, coming at this time, than the action of the State Supreme Court when it reversed decisions of the lower courts and held that the Negro owners of certain proeprty in the Palisades tract could occupy it.

Iin the matter of residential restrictions in and about Los Angeles the Negro people have been getting some rather rotten deals from the courts. America, the land of the free and the home of the brave is foremost in such undemocratic treatment of groups of the dark hue.

The Pasadena N.A.A.C.P. was right in the front in the fight to win this case, and the Los Angeles Branch is cheering it as well as Justice Roger J. Traynor who was not afraid to speak his opinion in open court defying the white supremacy bugaboo.

This decision is a move in the right direction, and unless the American people change their policy of making different laws (unwritten) for Negroes, the Nazis will come out of this war with a profit that will not benefit our government and our nation.

Shall We Abolish Poll Tax

By S. Fisher

On December 17, 1939, the Tribune-Herald of Waco, Texas, published an editorial entitled, "Punitive Legislation." The editorial states: "Texas hears the new session of Congress in January will be swamped with punitive measures, those designed to harass the administration of those designed to exploit votes through appeals to sectional or racial prejudice.

"There will be the Champions of the Wagner bill, seeking to buy Negro votes in northern states through the demagogic bulldozing of the South. Not merely the destiny of America could stop these selfish agitators from pushing their bill out this election year.

"Advocates will trot out a companion bill to destroy the right of states to levy a poll tax as a condition for voting, even though this penalizes Texas schools about $1,250,000 a year, and even though it flaunts the sovereignty of the states."

Under a dictatorship it is taboo to take issue, but in a democracy we can take issue with an editor and discuss issues in an intelligent manner. I will not try to defend Senator Wagner. His record as a reform legislator in the United States Senate speaks for itself. I will, therefore, confine myself to the poll tax issue in the editorial mainly. I believe a bill to away with the poll tax is one of the greatest reforms for the South from a liberal and democratic point of view. How many citizens are entitled to vote in the State of Texas? And how many can pay a poll tax in order to vote? How many people, dear editor, had voted in Waco in the last two city elections? I will show figures a little later. The editor wanted his readers to believe that a bill to do away with a poll tax means to buy Negro votes in the northern states. In a democracy where the minority of citizens, I mean whites, are deprived of their vote because they are not able to buy a poll tax, not to speak of Negroes; I am inclined to believe that the minority who buy the poll tax in order to vote are doing it at the expense of the majority who cannot vote. Why say that the Wagner bill will buy votes in the Northern States when you, gentlemen, have continuously done the buying and want to continue doing it forever? Why keep the majority of citizens in a democracy subjected — deprived — of their right to vote, due to the fact they are poor and cannot afford to pay a poll tax? You call that democracy?

Now let us see whether to do away with a poll tax will be for the best interest of the majority of citizens of the South. A few weeks ago I spoke once to an editor about elections in the state of Texas. He said. "We never had yet a real election in this state." I asked him why? He answered, "The majority of the people cannot pay the poll tax."

In the Emancipator of December, 1943, which is edited in San Antonio, Texas, the editor, Professor Granbery, one of the best scholars and liberals, shows in an editorial how fifty congressmen in the South were elected and their black record in the House of Representatives. He states:

"After all, gentlemen of Congress, in the last analysis you're not to blame. You do really represent U. S. We sent you there, and we keep you there. We had every reason to know what you were before we sent you, and we have found out more fully since you have made your disgusting record. If that record is disgraceful, ours is the disgrace. But, gentlemen, won't you share our sense of shame even just a little?

"Yes, we sent you, but by what votes? Fifty poll tax Congressmen were elected by from one to four per cent of the people of their districts. Here is a Representative from South Carolina who received one per cent, also, Cox of Georgia—one per cent. In 1942 the average vote cast in Congressional elections in poll-tax States was three per cent of the population; in non-poll tax States — about twenty-five per cent. In the 1940 presidential election only twelve per cent of the population voted in poll tax States; in others forty-three per cent. The small vote in southern States is mostly due to the fact that the results of general elections are usually taken for granted; the Democratic primaries, from which Negroes are excluded, constituting the real election.

"Here's democracy for you! Good old American Democracy! Hitler and Tojo are about whipped; let's begin on the home job!" (See the Emancipator of December, 1943—Page 4).

These figures speak for themselves whether poll tax should

YOUR RED CROSS DOLLARS MAKE THIS SERVICE POSSIBLE!

The Home Service Department of the Los Angeles Chapter American Red Cross is the connecting link between our men in training and combat zones and their families here at home. This link has been made possible through the money you gave at the Red Cross War Fund Campaign this Spring.

When personal or family emergencies occur, the Home Service Worker of the Red Cross is always at hand to lend assistance. Sometimes that assistance is money to meet a family crisis. Othertimes it is locating a lost relation, providing medical attention for a soldier's wife or child, or arranging a furlough for a boy to visit a dying mother.

Through the money you gave your Red Cross the ties of home reach all servicemen and women wherever they are. The greater their distance from home the greater is their need to feel the strength of those ties.

W. J. Wheaton Says—

GOP CAMPAIGN

The opening campaign of the GOP's seems to have got off on the wrong foot. The greatly advertised forensic barrage proved a dud. That is, as far as any logical results. In the first place, we heard the Governors say one thing over the air and read, what they should have said, or, what the Boys at the National Headquarters told them to say in the news. It seems as if the Governors shied from the stereotyped manuscript, and as Governor Warren puts it; placed their own interpolation. Of course: We understand why some of our lesser lights "Parrot" the boilerplate ideas of the RNC, but for that group to tell the GOP governors what to say seems ridiculous. But then it really is for want of something logical as witness the assinine charges made by a Republican member of Congress who stated on the floor of the House that those ships of war could best have been used in fighting Japs in the South Pacific, and that a government bomber had been transformed into a Plane De-Luxe to transport Mrs. Roosevelt on her tour for the Red Cross.

POOR FALLA

And they even put that poor Pootch, Falla, on the gridiron. Falla, not being able to autograph his name, was beset by a lot of souvenir hunter Gobs and denuded of his scotish locks, was destined to fit in the political picture as having been lost on the Aleutians and was'n't missed until the ship docked at Bremerten, where upon; a destroyer was sent back one-thousand miles to search for and bring him back. It is needless to say that each and every one of those charges were false and without doubt, they could not be swallowed by the most ignorant jungle dweller. But to even think that such should be made by a person elected to make the laws under which we are to be governed, is to say the least, reprehensible, inasmuch as he is guilty of creating false impressions. If that is the manner of campaign that the National Committee is going to wage: There will be Dewey drop that will vanish under the sunrays of public opinion.

STATES RIGHTS

Our Negro orators, who are espousing the cause of the GOP; In their effort to create an emotion refer to the great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln. If that immortal soul were alive today, it goes without saying that he would repudiate the ideas and ideals of this present day crop who wear the label which he so nobly upheld and made the name "Republican" one to conjure with. Did he believe in "States Rights?" The war between the States is the answer. Yet: Our friends of the GOP's, coordinating with the Rankins; Bilbos, and Talmages would give back to the states which they represent the power to say who shall and who shall not exercise the right of franchise. The first thing that they would seek to accomplish would be a reversal of the decision of the United Supreme Court granting the right of franchise to Negroes in the State of Texas. Many other of the Bourbon States are carefully watching the trend of events and seeking a loophole. It is to be hoped that Californias Governor will study well the effect which universal adoption of the relegation of unlimited power to the States would tend to strengthen the chains of restricted citizenship now binding the (political) limbs of Negroes and whites in the south-land. A casual study of Alexander Hamilton . . The founder of the nations financial system . . will be a convincing argument, that as the nation grows in its strength more power will rest in a centralized government. Bureaucracy like Communism makes a very good political slogan: That is, when nothing logical can be brought forward in the plea for party recognition. And that is the position of the Republican party today.

POST WAR PLANNING

Candidate Dewey told Secretary Hull that the meeting being held at Dumbarton-Oaks for the purpose of planning for future peace should include the smaller nations who are on the side of the Allies. If Mr. Dewey thought to confuse the Secretary of State (Hull) he had another guess coming. An immediate invitation to Mr. Dewey was extended for a conference. Did he accept personally? He was too busy to leave Albany; although he had travelled half way across the continent for a political confab with "26 Republican Governors." He sent his Foreign Policy Advisor John Foster Dulles. If Mr. Dewey sought to make a political issue of that Conference he was frustrated by the astute Hull, who is determined to keep "Peace Planning" from being a political foot-ball. President Roosevelt has stated that the planning for a post war peace should not become a political issue, because of its far flung implications. Too bad the followers of the Elephant can not find something beside the person affairs of the President and his immediate family, and the pooch Falla, upon which to base their claim for national power, and the right to claim the suffrage of the voters.

THE CARPE DIEMS

That bunch of female pulchritude, the Matrons and Maids of the Cahpe Diems, held open house, August 27th when the public was given a chance to witness and hear a resume of their activities. The witness was given by a young service man who lauded the members of the Club for their part in entertaining and wholesome service, given so unselfishly, in warding off the nostalgia so common to the young recruits first time from home. They have ventured in the field of practical politics, and even went so far as to prepare a voting machine to exhibit the working of machine voting. They have been active in the inaisting of recent and new voters to register and if personally seen to their registration. The charitable work of the young ladies have been done without any ostentation and it takes a "professional snooper" to ferret their many charitable deeds. Any one daring to make public their charitable work would be banned socially and might possibly be drummed out of the city. At any rate: Those Dames and Damselles are the TOPS! ! !

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

I met a Southern girl on my trip who "felt sure that all Northerners are free from prejudice." I wonder what she would say if she met some of the people I know!

An old friend of the family was passing the neighborhood, and learning that I was in town, came up to see me. The usual greetings were exchanged and the usual questions asked. His greatest concern was for my father, his friend for many years. Everybody wonders how my father can sit at a sewing machine for eight and nine hours every day of the week, sewing clothes for the Russian children, while he is not in the best of health. It's no secret—he just has a "will to live" to see the end of this war, and that "will" gives him the strength to do his share towards that end.

My father's friend and his family had lived in the neighborhood where I am visiting, for many years. I was surprised to learn that he had moved, because he had owned the home he lived in. He told me the story of having lost the house and how the new owner had hounded him to move. It was the same old story I had heard in Los Angeles.

He finally found a very beautiful apartment, but there was a hitch to it. In New York, as well as L. A., there are people on a waiting list for every vacant apartment. That's where the black market comes in.

This man, who has a son in the Armed Forces, saw fit to patronize the black market. In order to get the apartment on the Grand Concourse, he had to pay the manager $50.00 in addition to the $85.00 for the first month's rent.

He is an old man, and I was brought up to have respect for older people. But it is difficult to respect anyone who is weak enough to throw up his hands and say "there was nothing else for me to do."

We argued about it. I explained the reasons for the OPA and showed him how he could take advantage of it. He would not listen. He would not see the harm he was doing to his son in the service by supporting the black market. He said "everybody is doing it" and he was not going to be an "exception."

The relative I am visiting put her two cents in too. Although she would not connect it with the war—she said "it has nothing to do with the war, but it's wrong anyway"—she felt that it was not fair for someone to get rich on another's misfortune.

When the man thought he was just about beaten in his argument, he pleaded: "What do you want me to do? The only other place I could have gotten an apartment was in a Colored neighborhood. There I wouldn't have to pay anymore, but I will not live among the Colored people."

My relative—a Negro-hater of long standing — at that point changed sides. She now joined the visitor against me. Of course no one can win an argument when they are on the wrong side of Democracy. Even Hitler is finding that out. They shouted, raved and ranted, but not once could they give their reasons. Who can give a valid reason for their race hatred?

"Black people are horrible," said my relative. "I don't know how you can be friends with them—I wouldn't even touch them. I would pay a thousand dollars for an apartment rather than live with them."

That person will not even learn from this war. There are others like her. Those are the people we will have to pass laws for, like they did in the Soviet Union. This same woman has had the opportunity to learn better. The person who taught me, tried to teach her too . . . our father . . she is my sister! But she closes her mind.

THE PULPIT VOICE

DEMOCRACY'S MODEL

The second largest city in the state of Oregon is a housing project abading 40,000 immigrants from the various sections of the country. Vanport is situated some four miles from the city of Portland, Oregon. It is located in the near vicinity of the Kaiser shipyards where the majority of its occupants are employed. The uniqueness of Vanport is not that it is the only housing project in that area, for there are numerous others. Neither is it particularly outstanding because of the quality or comfort of its housing units. The significance of Vanport is fornd in the type of social and racial relationships which have resulted among its diversified peoples. The majority come from the deep South, both colored and white, from those centers wherein tension is at its worst among the two racial groups. Yet in the city of Vanport these same peoples are neighbors living together with a minimum of friction. Naturally, the next question automatically implies itself, especially, in face of rising racial tensions in other defense areas. Why is it that such can happen there in marked contrast to much failure in harmonizing racial differences elsewhere? Certainly this question cannot be answered in its entirety, but some feasible explanations can be offered.

Much credit must be given to local leadership which has been ever alert to every development in the policy of the Vanport management. Led by the militant editor of the "Peoples Observor," William McClendon of Portland, the movements toward anything jim crow has been courageously exposed. In the inner circles of local civic organizations the strong voice of Rev. Clow, Portland Baptist minister has denounced and fought the advent of Southern discrimination. As the recognized outstanding Negro citizen of the State of Oregon, Dr. DeNorval Unthank has repeatedly stood out against segregation in any form. To say that there is absolute unity even among Negro leadership is false. But on the issue of segregation and discrimination from their various approaches they are united. Conditions at Vanport is evidence of what unity of protest can do. Credit must also be given to the Portland chief of Police and Portland's Mayor for the very wise decision of placing Negroes on Law enforcement bodies and the like. Last but not least is the Housing management itself who often was fighting behind the scenes against K.K.K. forces long before the issues were known by the public. All in all in most instances the Housing Authorities throughout the coun Authorities throughout the country have evidenced a progressive spirit in contrast to most government agencies. This child of the new deal is just another reason why I shall vote for Roosevelt.

VANPORT'S POLICY

In Vanport there is no obvious segregation of residents. Negroes live in every quarter and section of this massive project. The only segregation is natural, such as John Brown who wanted a unit next to his friend Jos Morris. In this manner there are cloisters of Negroes families but upon examination they are all related or were former friends in other cities. The Police department is composed of colored and white officers, who are cooperative and united on Law enforcement despite the color of the offender. Perhaps the most contrasting thing about Vanport with other cities is its School system. Here Negro and white teachers are employed without proportion and teachers are placed not with regard to the color of the students. One colored teacher with whom I talked had a class in which there were only five colored and the remaining twenty were white and Indian. I can hardly imagine the PTA in Los Angeles allowing such a thing to happen here. In fact most Negroes in Vanport at first did not send their children to school as they were waiting for the colored schools to open, you can imagine their surprise upon discovering the truth. So it is that Vanport is something new in American society, it has had the courage to put into practice many feature of Democracy which defeatists of both races have said were not possible. It stands today as a monument, gigantic and great above any other social project of its kind and numbers in the entire Northwest region.

WHAT VANPORT PROVES

First of all Vanport proves that the fears and caution of most leadership in interracial movements are but so much hunk, or but reflections of their own prejudices and bias. Vanport proves that people, all people, regardless of whether they are southern crackers or Mississippi darky field hands, will respect straightforward leadership even in defiance of tradition or habit. Perhaps its greatest revelation is that the common people of both races are not the source of prejudice and hatred, for their mutual circumstances make them all too conscious of their similarity rather than difference, but that the strife when it does exist is imported by exploiting groups, economic, social and political who seek their own gain at the expense of the common man both black and white. Someday throughout the country these simple folk will join hands as they have in Vanport and woe be to uncle Toms and Bilbos and their numerous carpet-bagging cohorts; The words of the modern prophets, Dubois and Wallace again prove true, for who can doubt, even now that this is the century of the common man.

Pilgrim Baptist Church News

Rev. B. W. Wade, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church, 45th and Wadsworth, did not attend the National Baptist Convention and filled his pulpit as usual Sunday morning. Mrs. M. Wade, Dad Mosley and Mother Ferguson were delegates from the church. Rev. Wade's subject Sunday was "The New Birth." Text: John 3:1-10. He told us Jesus taught the lesson new birth to Nicodemus. He said, "the new birth is what we will have to have to see God's fact in the Kingdom." The Junior, Senior and Gospel Choirs sang.

The first Sunday the Juniors sang, and everyone should have heard Vernice Lonanx, the leading soprano and the Hollaway sisters. They sang "Yes, My Jesus Cares," and "It is Well with My Soul." There were several additions to the church, and two were baptized.

The B.T.U. and B.A.U. had Worker's Conference at 4:30 and Sunday at 7:00 p.m. was testimony and communion service. All seemed to have had their spiritual strength renewed.

We wish to thank everyone for coming out to the Sixth Annual Senior Choir Day. We had several calls saying they enjoyed the program, and we raised a total of $616.17.

The Gospel Choir is having their request program September 10 at 7:00 p.m., and Brother Henry Markham informed us that this would be extraordinary, so don't fail to come early and get a good seat.

Sorry time will not permit our telling you about our weekly programs, especially the Bible Class every Tuesday evening by Rev. Bell.

You are urged to come early Sunday morning as both choirs march in at 10:45 o'clock. To get a good seat in the auditorium you will have to be on time. See you Sunday morning. Mrs. Rowena Lawrence, reporter.

Hamilton Methodist

The Senior Choir of Hamilton Methodist Church, E. 18th St. & Naomi Ave., is celebrating its annual Choir Day, Sunday, September 10, 1944. This day will mark the 21st anniversary under the direction of Mrs. Helen D. Wortham, who has served so faithfully and well. The morning hour at 11 o'clock, will feature an "Hour of Remembrance," for those members who have passed, and a special sermon by the Pastor, Rev. S. M. Beane. At the 3:30 hour the Choir will present eight of the finest choirs in the city in a mammoth musical feast, which you cannot afford to miss. Bring your friends and enjoy this rare occasion. The following choirs and their directors will be present:

Trinity Baptist ....Mrs. M. Hoard

Historic 3rd Baptist Church Sets Pace In San Francisco

By Mrs. Mayme McNeely.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Historic Third Baptist Church, with an unprecedented growth, has set the pace of our denominational churches. More than 700 persons have been added to the membership for the fiscal year. This shattered the record of any year of our 92-year history.

LEADER

CHRISTIAN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION — An Autoblography—Dr. Daniel G. McLorin, the founder, shown above, was born in Boston, Massachusetts, October 15, 1899, and was taken to the Dominican Republic, a Latin-American country, by his parents where he received his education and was graduated as Doctor of Medicine in 1922 at the University of Santo Domingo.

He attended the Tropical Medical school in Saint Johns, Porto Rico, and practiced in the medical profession in many Central and South American countries. He took post graduate work in France and Spain, and studied in other fields in London and Russia.

He returned to this country in 1932, took up his medical practice in Atlanta, Georgia. He then moved to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1934 where he resided until 1942 when he was called into the Medical division of the United States Army Air Corps and remained in the service until June, 1943, when he was released in Utah.

Dr. McLorin is a member of religious, social, civic and fraternal organizations including the N. A. A. C. P. and the Urban League. He is the Founder of the "CHRISTIAN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION," incorporated, a new national organization for the purpose of the development of the educational, institutional, social, and economical security for the good of all the less fortunate American citizens.

When this organization receives the cooperation of the people according to the outline of the plan, it will eliminate many of the crimes, discriminations, segregations, intolerances, and other evils which are caused by economic insecurity.

The organization is wide in its scope, and is worthy of consideration and cooperation. No joining fee, no membership dues are required. It is interracial, interreligious, and nonsectarian.

Literatures of this organization are circulating throughout the city giving further details concerning the system.

Dr. McLorin is planning to conduct a series of street lectures throughout the city.

Under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. F. D. Haynes, who came to this field 12 years ago, found only a working membership of 150 persons. Today the membership roll stands at more than 1800. Finding the church in debt upon his acceptance of pastorate, it can be proudly reported that all debts have been liquidated and the financial report at the close of the fiscal year showed a bank balance of $16,000. Under the pastor's guidance, the following organizations were born: The Art and Culture Club; The Junior Church; Inspiritional Chorus; Men's Chorus and The Brotherhood. An expansion program has become necessary because of the magnificent growth of the church.

The Third Baptist congregation is now expecting to come into ownership of one of the largest edifices in the West.

For a number of years the Third Baptist Church has been one of the leading contributors to Missions in the State of California.

The whole membership is most enthusiastic about the goal of $50,000 set for this fiscal year. At least 95% have pledged their financial support and seem to mean it.

Re-appoint Rev. Jordan

The Southern California Conference which just closed reported a total of more than $13,000.00 for Connectional purposes which include the upkeep of the general church; a pension fund for ministers; scholarships for Christian Education; contribution to the American Bible Society; for Mission purposes, etc. Eighth and Towne's share in this contribution was nearly $5000.00, and for the first time in the history of the Conference $1000.00 was given by the Missionary women for the mission preachers of the Conference. Rev. Frederick D. Jordan was reappointed pastor of the First A. M. E. Church, 801 Towne Avenue, and will preach the opening sermon of the Conference year on Sunday.

Third In Baha'i Lecture Series This Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Charles Reed Bishop will speak Sunday, September 10, at 3 p.m., at the Baha'i Center, 1709 West 8th Street, on "THE LAW FOR THE NATIONS." This is the third in a course of four lectures covering the groundwork of the Baha'i plan for world reconciliation and a lasting peace. She says in part: "The source and origin of the Baha'i Faith lies in far distant Persia, if it can be said that any spot is distant then measured by air travel.

TWIN FOUNDERS

However, Persia, in the year of 1844, was remote indeed from the center of gravity of civilization. None the less, the appearance of the Bab and Baha'u'llah the illuminated beings who because the twin founders of this movement appeared there and not in the accident. The movement which they originated is still working towards the reconciliation of nation, races and religions as a necessary foundation for the unity and ultimate peace of the whole planet.

The rise of this prophetic expression in modern times and in the east can be rightly understood only if we remember that every true religion has come to birth in the orient, and that the east has ever been the horison of spiritual light.

Gala Soiree at 1st A. M. E. Zion

The women of the historic First A. M. E. Zion Church will present a "Gala Soiree" Sunday afternoon, September 10, 1944, from 3:00 to 7:00 o'clock, at the beautiful Los Angeles Church Federation Center, 3330 West Adams Boulevard.

Many top artists will participate in this outstanding program, the proceeds of which will go to benefit the Women's Day, which is September 24. Neighborhood Church Pays Off Mortgage

The Neighborhood Community Church, founded four years ago by The Rev. H. Mansfield Collins, closed the mortgage drive last Sunday afternoon in a most successful manner and was able this week to pay the entire mortgage made little more than a year ago. The cost of the property, located at San Pedro Street and 47th Place, one of the fashionable residential sections of Los Angeles, including an eight room modern parsonage, was $22,500. The repairs and decorations made an obligation of more than $30,000; of this amount all had been paid recently but $6,390 and on last Sunday this entire amount was raised and the church made free from debt. The day's receipts brought a total of $7000.30 from the following sources; The War Of The Roses, $3,383.10; Report of Clubs and Organizations, $3,265.20; Public Offering, $353.

The closing of the campaign was marked with great enthusiasm as the various reports were made amid tremendous applause and sincere rejoicing. In the reading of the reports as the figures were read that told the amount had been raised Pastor Collins halted the reading and began singing "How I Got Over, My Soul Looked Back and Wondered How I Got Over;" this was a signal that victory was assured, the line had been crossed and the sudden outburst of rejoicing told the story which made the dream a reality, when the reading of all reports was resumed the above amount had been placed on the table.

The War Of Roses, the membership financial drive, was headed by Thomas Tisdale, the Duke of the House of York with Zelda Cleaver The Duchess and Buredene Lowry the secretary, E. Preston Greene the Duke of House of Lancaster with Concilella Morris the Duchess and Chrystine Davis Ingram the secretary with captains serving on each side. Pastor Collins asked each House to report $1500. Duke Tisdale reported $1618.65; Duke Greene reported $1764.55. The Drive which was set up eight weeks ago was patterned after one of the historic wars of England with each House designated by the white and red rose, respectively.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the report of two clubs which turned in over $1000. The Loyal Sons and Daughters, Stella Saunders president, reported $1022; The Boosters Club, Dollie Lemmons president, $1605. Both of these clubs reported $1000 last year also. Several clubs made partial reports two months ago which was applied on the mortgage debt. The final report was as follows: Boosters Club, Dollie Lemmons, pres., $1605; Loyal Sons and Daughters Stella Saunders, pres., $1022; Collins Utility Club, Ethel Jones, pres., $500; Strangers Club, Mable Johnson, pres., $400; The "1940" Club, Buredene Lowry, pres., $390; Senior Choir, Gladys Allen, pres., $250; Sunshine Club, Edna Billings, pres., $158; The Sunday School, Frances Driver, supt., $150; Rosetta B. Green Missionary Soc., Amelia D. Collins, pres., $100; Stewardess Board No. 1, Almedia Johnson, pres., $100; Usher Board, Chas. E. Grose, pres., $100; Gospel Choir, Margaret Shelton, pres., $75; Pulpit Guild, Issie Brown, pres., $75; Help Thy Neighbor Club, Ella Mae Anderson, pres., $40; Daisy Lee Guild, A. Brunner Brown, pres, $30

Dr. Collins and members are jubilant over the outcome and plans will be made shortly for a real community program for the church that it might meet a dire need in the community, giving the city a seven day a week christian program in that locality. When asked concerning the splendid closing, he said, "This is one of the grandest days in my entire ministry of thirty-five years, my 'V' (vindication) Day; It is nothing short of a miracle that a church of four years can assume a mortgage of $30,000, and within twenty months pay it "off." We have made history this day comparable with that of any similar group of our people in the Nation. We now have our feet on solid ground and will do a worthwhile service."

Dr. Collins will preach Sunday morning from the theme, "The Need of Vision and How It Is Realized." The annual 'Old Fashioned Basket Dinner' will be held in the afternoon at South Park following the morning service. Music by The Sons of David Orchestra. The Fourth Anniversary will begin Sunday the 17th and continue one week.

Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, Isreal Missionary Baptist Church, 4501 Compton Avenue, cordially invites all to attend usual Sunday services. Pastor Higdon is speaking on "The First Article of Faith."

At the Sunday School hour, Deacon Julian Smalley, the capable superintendent of the school, will make his annual address, after a recent educational trip to the National Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Congress. "Enjoy your religion at Israel." Rev. H. D. Higdon, pastor; Virginia Jones, reporter.

Victory Auditorium Lectures Continue

Decidedly different from the usual type of religious meeting, the Victory Auditorium gospel and health lectures continue to attract large crowds to the beautiful canvas auditorium located on the corner of East 103rd St. and Compton Ave.

A very special Twilight Musicale is being arranged for next Sunday evening to introduce the fifth big week at the Victory Auditorium. This preliminary program which begins at 7:30 p.m. will feature the showing of the sound moving picture, "The Bible in a Warring World." The musical features will include selections by the Sweet Chariot Hour Male Sextet which has been heard over station KPAS on the Saturday evening broadcast of the Sweet Chariot Hour. Owen A. Troy, Jr., youthful violinist, and Charles Dickerson, pianist, are other attractions.

Meetings are free to the public and are held every night except Monday and Saturday evenings. Preliminary health lectures are held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The childrens' Story Hour is conducted on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6:45 p.m.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new Introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

The other Sunday I heard a preacher talking about the various proofs of the genuineness of the Bible. He said archaeology suported the Bible. Could you explain a little more about archaeology."—Mrs. M. L. Blythe, Calif.

The term "archaeology" is a bik ford used by Bible students to refer to the writings, architecture, customs, as shown by their inscriptions, monuments and relics, of the ancient peoples of Babylonia, Assyria, Egypt and the like.

Take, for example, the Euphrates Valley in ancient Assyria, This is the area where the Bible story begins. That country is now rotted with mounds which are the ruins of ancient cities, including the first cities ever bhilt.

And it is interesting to note that Nimrod, the grandson of Ham, was one of the first builders of cities and the first man to establish a kingdom.

In most cases these ancient cities are marked only by mounds. The ancient cities were built of brick. Refuse was thrown into the streets or dumped over the walls. Houses when repaired would be brought up to the street level. When abandoned, or destroyed in war, and afterwards re-occupied, the ruins, instead of being cleared away became the ground-level and base for the next city built above.

Henry Hampton Halley in his "Pocket Bible Handbook" states this concerning the method of building one city on the ruins of the former one: "Being composed of brick, which would be partly broken and disintegrated, it would form quite a firm base for the city above. The new city would thus bury beneath itself the rubbish and relics of the previous occupation.

"Thus the mounds grew higher and wider, city on top of city. When finally abandoned, the brick, beaten by the rains, disintegrated; a coating of earth formed; and, covered by the sandstorms of the desert, these mounds have concealed within their bosoms the secrets of the life and civilization of the people who successively inhabited them.

"Some of these mounds are 100 feet high, and contain the remains of as many as 20 or more cities, each city a definite distinct stratum of its own, containing the implements, pottery, rubbish, records, and various relics of its people. Digging in these mound ruins, in recent years, archaeologists have gone to the bottom, to the very first cities, and have brought to light the long forgotten past, and uncovered things which in a most remarkable way confirm, supplement or illustrate the Bible."

Famous Silver Tones Quartette To Sing at Zion Hill Sunday

In a special musical program featuring gospel songs, the famed Silver Tones Quartette will appear in person this Sunday afternoon at the Zion Hill Baptist church, 1319 E. 22nd Street. Under the auspices of that church's Missionary Circle club, the Silver Tones will appear along with other guest quartettes. Festivities will get underway promptly at 3 p.m., and there will be no admission in price, just a silver offering.

Under the direction of the noted Gospel singer, Mr. Charles Hopkins, the Silver Tones are known throughout the country as the greatest of the gospel singers. They have appeared on many radio programs, and the news that they will appear at Zion Hill is welcomed by their many fans and followers.

A former musician himself, the Eagle's theatrical editor, JT Gipson, stated that the Silver Tones are "one of the finest musical gospel groups in the country. And the singing of Charles Hopkins rates an Orchid."

A capacity crowd is expected. The date is Sunday, September 10. The place is Zion Hill Baptist Church, 1319 E. 22nd st. The time is 3 p.m.

All are cordially invited to attend.

South Solarium In Van Nuys Hospital Made Possible By School Of Christ

South Solarium, Ward 16C, at the mammoth military hospital in Van Nuys, today has been officially adopted and sealed by the School of Christ, S.P.G., through which countless donations and subscriptions from patriotic Los Angeles Negroes were made when various organizations were approached to carry out this important part of the hospital's life.

Mrs. Ellie H. Matthews, president of the School of Christ turned over to American Red Cross the check representing the total subscriptions. Accepting for the Red Cross was Mrs. Helen Jones, chairman, Camp and Hospital Service of the Los Angeles chapter.

Now located in new headquarters at 1001 East 27th Street, corner of Paloma, the School of Christ offers comprehensive phases of Christian leadership.

Youth's Day at Pasadena Church

Youth's Day will be observed all day next Saturday at the Sunset Avenue Church of Pasadena, corner of Sunset and Pepper, when they will have charge of three services that day.

Sabbath school beginning at 10:00 a.m., will be conducted and classes will be taught by young people. Owen A. Troy, Jr. will be the superintendent. At the preaching service, speakers will be Eric Ward of Los Angeles and Pfc. Warren Harrison of Pasadena. The youth choir will furnish the special music.

The Wadsworth Church Young People's Society of Los Angeles will present a program in the afternoon at 3:30 p.m. The large number of youth visiting from surrounding cities will remain for the Sweet Chariot Hour which is broadcast from the Sunset Avenue Church by remote control at 6:30 p.m. over KPAS. A large number of the youth of the church are regular members of the famous chorus which is heard weekly on this popular broadcast.

Contralto In Recital

The many admirers of Ann Hunter, well known Contralto, will be delighted to know that this fine singer is to be presented in recital by the Senior Choir of First A. M. E. Church on Tuesday, September 25th, 1944, in the Church Auditorium, corner of 8th & Towne Avenue.

Close So. Calif. Annual Conference Of African Methodist Episcopal Church

The Southern California Conference which closed its Twentieth Annual Session at Ward Chapel last week, Rev. J. W. Price entertaining pastor, held its most successful session. Five new churches were reported, several new parsonages and hundreds of additions to the memberships of the various churches. A total of more than $13,000 was raised for all purposes. This money is allocated for Mission work both in Southern California and in Africa, Canada, South America and in the Islands where the African Methodist Episcopal church does Mission work; a portion also goes for Christian Education, for the American Bible Society the Federal Council of Churches, the support of Douglas Hospital and for the general upkeep of the church.

All of the churches in Los Angeles and vicinity with one exception were reported out of debt. The following appointments were made by Bishop N. W. Williams, at the final session which was held at First A.M.E. Church, 8th and Towne Ave. on Sunday afternoon. First A.M.E. Church, Rev. Frederick D. Jordan, Ward Chapel, Rev. J. W. Price, Grant Chapel, South Los Angeles, Rev. D. C. Stephenson, Bethel, West-side, Rev. J. C. White, Emanuel, Rev. J. W. Conquest, St. Mark, Rev. L. W. Minor, St. Stephen, Rv. B. A. Radcliff; Allen Chapel, San Bernardino, Rev. T. A. Patterson; St. Paul, San Bernardino, Rev. J. L. Boyd; Riverside, Rev. J. L. Clover; Monrovia, Rev. C. H. Reaves; San Pedro, Rev. H. L. Harden; Duarte, Rev. E. L. Johnson; Long Beach, Rev. C. B. Clements; Santa Ana, Rev. J. E. Buchannon; Val Verde, Rev. E. J. Wiley; San Diego; Rev. A. K. Quinn; El Centro, Rev. E. B. Vaughn; Imperial and Brawley, Rev. B. E. Edwards; Indio, Rev. H. C. Scandrick; Calexico, Rev. Manning.

Out-of-town visitors to the conference were Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Bryant of 15th St. Church, Oakland, Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Hawkins of Berkeley, Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Childress of Sacramento, Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Johnson of Oakland, Mrs. C. D. Toliver, wife of the pastor of Bethel, San Francisco, and Dr. Fred A. Hughes, recently elected Editor of the Western Christian Recorder, one of the official publications of the church.

Negro Battalion Has A Perfect Record for "O" Blood Donations

HEADQUARTERS, EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS — One company of a Negro Engineer Battalion in England, engaged in vital construction work, has volunteered 100 per cent in the drive to secure "O" type blood for treatment of battle casualties.

With the campaign still in progress, the Battalion as a whole reached the 72 per cent in voluntary subscriptions to become one of the leading units for blood donations in the invasion "take off" base section. Thte Battalion is commanded by Colonel Edward W. Howe, of Route 2, San Antonio, Texas.

Relief Association Plans for Service In Post War Period

The Economic Relief Association, which under the guidance and leadership of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reeves, has been accomplishing the two-fold purpose of aiding the needy in the community and salvaging vital war materials, plans to intensify its program so that it can be of greater service during the post-war period.

Conversion of industry, one of the difficult adjustments which will follow the war, will create a gap between employment and unemployment. The Economic Relief Association plans to use its storage space, its facilities and the experience it has gained to do its share to help employment during the lay-off period.

Returning service men who will need a period for adjustment will find the Economic Relief Association a welcome ally. Provisions to teach planting and horticulture are made in the Association's Nursery.

REAL SERVICE

During the years that Mr. and Mrs. Reeves have been engaged in business here, they have planned for the day when they could offer the service which is provided by the Economic Relief Association. They will be happy to explain further about the Association.

The home plant is at 27th and Compton Blvd.

Systematically-planned saving for post-war family needs and a "happier Tomorrow" was recommended by the Office of Economic Stabilization this week as a means of combatting the danger of wartime inflation.

DEMOCRACY

By George Jefferson

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt is the luckiest man who ever lived. You don't believe it—well, then you haven't kept up with the Republican campaign slogans. They even have facts, charts and graphs, public opinion pools and the valued counsel of Messrs Hoover, Landon and Dewey to substantiate their belief.

"Oh, Roosevelt, they cry, how lucky you are! Lady luck, smile on us just once. Can't you hear them, their voices moaning, gnashing their teeth in righteous fury. Kind of like Max Schmelling in his second fight with Joe Louis. Yeah! Joe was lucky all right, and so is Roosevelt, at least so say the Republicans. So let us mention a few of the causes of their worry over the President's phenominal success with a rabbit foot.

The first case they cite is his election in 1932. If it were not for the depression, they wail, that man would never have entered the White House in the first place. He was lucky enough to run for office during the most crucial economic crisis in our history.

Then in 1936, they point out despairingly, we would have beat him that time, but the country was coming out of the depression. Banks were not failing any more, business was getting better, jobs were opening up, and the soup lines disappeared, and people worked on the WPA when they couldn't find work. There came Social Security, Unemployment Compensation, the Wagner Act and the National Labor Relations Act for the benefit of labor, and the CCC and the Nya for the youth of the nation. That year he was lucky enough to carry 46 states out of 48. We're just in bad luck, the Republicans cried piteously.

Oh, Roosevelt! Roosevelt! how lucky you are.

Doesn't your heart go out to them, those poor well meaning Republicans. Why they're for a permanent FEPC, against the Poll Tax, but don't ask them to actually vote for these issues; that's carrying a good thing too far. They're with the Negroes, so let well enough alone. Besides they're too busy getting mumbo—jumbo to change their luck.

Now all of you know the third time is the charm; after all, luck is luck, but it can't last forever. So they found a man, a good man, Wendell Willkie. He was a man of stature and importance. He stood for something and today he stands a symbol of all that might be good and fine in the Republican Party, but he just wasn't lucky enough, I guess. Or maybe the people thought he would be only used by those who trusted to luck and chance, who never changed their views, or adapted their thinking to the needs of the people. They still wanted to return to the good old days. They still believe that if the war had not come they would have defeated Roosevelt. They did not stoop to think of the cause of the war and interpret them; to try and pursue a successful war and find a peace the people of the world have cried for through history. They trust to luck, blindly, and in doing so they fail. For the people whoever they are and whatever they are, cannot afford to take a chance. Luck is for those who can afford it, we cannot. Lasting peace is the insurance against the future. Roosevelt is a guarantee of that peace. Yet I still hear the wail of the old guard, blind even at the end.

Oh Roosevelt! Roosevelt! luck is a fortune. Stay away from him Father Abraham.

Still as one wonders over the future, the happiness, prosperity and promise of the realized hope that is America; the thought comes, that perhaps Roosevelt is lucky to be president after all, and also are the people.

Nature's first and last lessons teach man to be kind, and even pride should sanction what our natures need.—Mary Baker Eddy

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

California CIO

The Seventh Annual Convention of the California State CIO closed last Sunday night with a session that was given over to consideration of the post war conversion period and the report of the Minorities Committee, State Minorities Director, Revels Cayton headed the committee which turned in the report which showed, more than any other, the scope and development of the CIO. The progress made by the CIO on the question of integration of all minorities into the full CIO program is outstanding primarily because of the manner in which it was achieved. None of the "hush, hush," handle with care technique, so dearly loved by the scientific progressives, who have a theory on this business of race relationships, was allowed to prevail. The Negro worker moved in and up in the CIO because of his appreciation of and contribution to unionism, and his acceptance by his brother workers came about for the same reason.

John M. Lee

A PEOPLE'S GATHERING

Notable in the convention was the complete absence of the usual amenities to make the Negro brother feel at home. It was a gathering of people's representatives, and every delegate found common cause in the business presented. Through the effort and agreement on important current and post war problems, more progress on the question of minorities was made in the four days of the convention than has been accomplished throughout the entire war period by the chest thumpers and sobbing hypocrites who professed to be consolidating the Negro people behind the war effort.

POLITICAL ACTION

It is not too difficult to understand why the Negro voter is responding to the Political Action leadership of the CIO. Demonstrably, the CIO is sincere and determined in its program to provide present and post war security for all workers. It is evident from the benefits that have come to all workers who have enrolled under the CIO standard that the policy of honest service rather than lip service is, in the final analysis, the strongest hope for the future.

ENEMY WEAPONS

What Revels Cayton and his associates have done on the minority question can not be considered as a special effort on the part of the CIO to lend a hand to the unfortunate few. Rather the CIO recognizes that discrimination and segregation are weapons of the enemy which can be used to undermine the labor movement. The CIO, unlike George Robert's Bee in the Story of the Bull and the Bee, is up and doing. It is not lying down to rest and gather strength so that it can strike a good, strong blow; it is striking that blow now.

TRUE STORY

Recently we persuaded a friend of ours to donate a pint of blood to the Red Cross. Admittedly, it took some doing, our friend using the old segregation dodge as his strongest point. However, he succumbed to our persuasion and gave up his blood. On the way home, after a long silence, he said, "You know what I discovered after I had made my donation?—I realized that I was afraid and had used the segregation practice as an excuse to hide my fear." The next time he'll find it much easier to do.

Hal Styles Is the First Congressional Candidate of Radio

Hal Styles, Democratic nominee for Congress in the 15th Congressional District and famed for his depression-time "Help Thy Neighbor" program, is the only known radio commentator ever to run for public office. A veteran of World War I, Hal has been cited by many organizations including the American Legion, Treasury Department, and the County Board of Supervisors, for his dontributions to less fortunate humanity.

THRICE HONORED

The Governors of California, Oregon and Washington, as well as Mayors of 29 Pacific Cities, thrice dedicated a HELP THY NEIGHBOR WEEK in his honor. (1938, 39, 40). World traveled, (he has visited 51 countries he has a keen appreciation of human needs, as evidenced in the fact that during the depression his human interest program located jobs for 29,702 'neighbors'.

Hospital Committee Meets Friday Night

The General Chairman has called a meeting of the Interracial Hospital Committee for 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, September 14, at the YMCA, 1006 E. 28th Street.

The purpose of the meeting will be to complete organization, committee appointments, and hear reports of progress since our last meeting. It is likely that the Site Committee will be prepared to report.

Tragedy Strikes Twice In Same Week

Tradgedy struck twice and in a similar vein last week when Mrs. Beulah Scott Bradley and Mrs. Ozenetta Burdette Louns, cousins, were found dead in their respective homes. Mrs. Bradley, who lived at 1540 E. 33rd Street had been ill for two days prior to the discovery of her bady by a roomer in her home last Saturday.

Mrs. Louns, who lived at 1548 E. 52nd Street, was dead when discovered by a neighbor last Monday. Both the deceased were natives of Austin, Texas and had resided in Los Angeles for about twenty years.

They were the neice and second cousin, respectively of Mrs. Lillie P. Gresham of 1447½ E. 23rd Street.

Crippled Man Is Hit-Run Victim

James Smith, who resides at the Alan Hotel, 236 E. 2nd St., and who is employed at a shoeshine stand at 3rd and Main, was struck by a hit-and-run driver on Sunday night at 2nd and Los Angeles. Smith, who has a wooden leg, suffered injuries as well as the breaking of his artificial limb. He was admitted to the General Hospital on Monday. Police are searching for the car which is reported to be a Dodge convertible.

WAR CHEST APPEAL

Inter-Faith Council of leaders of Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and all religious groups of the community will gather next Wednesday, September 13th, at noon in the Ebell Club to plan all-out support for the War Chest appeal. War Chest Sabbath has been set for October 6, 7, and 8 as various congregations assemble.

Baptist Young People Hold Summer Conference at Pacific Palisades

The above pictures tell a story more vivid than words. A dream was finally realized when the Western Baptist State Convention and the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society sponsored the first Young People's Summer Conference in the history of the Western Baptist State Convention.

Picture No. 1 shows the tweny-two boys who attended the camp with Rev. Horace N. Mays, Camp Director, on the extreme left. Picture No. 2 is a scene of the young people grouped around the recreation tables with the spacious dining hall directly behind them. Picture No. 3 shows the seventy girls who attended. Picture No. 4 shows the young people in the amphitheatre where the chapel and vesper services were held. Picture No. 5 shows the faculty and counsellors. Reading from lft to right on the front row they are: Mrs. Felice Mason of the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church of Los Angeles, who taught handcraft and who was also a girls' counsellor; Mrs. J. W. Coleman of Pasadena, who was a girls' counsellor; Rev. Horace N. Mays, Director of Christian Education, Dean of the Summer Conference; Mrs. Ella Mae K. Mays, wife of the Dean, who was a girls' counsellor and instructor. Mrs. Mays taught a special course on "Problems of Christian Youth." In the second row reading from left to right are: Mrs. S. A. Williams, wife of Pastor S. A. Williams of the St. Paul Baptist Church of Los Angeles, who was a girls' counsellor and an instructor. Mrs. Williams taught Course 315.9b "Youth and the Liquor Problem" and also headed the Dispensary; Rev. Frank James, Missionary-Evangelist for the Western Baptist State Convention, who was a boys' counsellor and an instructor. Rev. James taught Course 512a, "How Jesus Developed Leaders"; Mrs. Marie Sheffield, General Supt. of the St. Paul Baptist Church Sunday School of Los Angeles, who was a girls' counsellor and son leader for the Summer Conference; Rev. W. P. Carter, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Santa Monica, and Executive Secretary of the Western Baptist State Convention, who was Boys' Vice-Principal and an instructor. Rev. Carter taught Course 312b. "Understanding Ourselves"; Mrs. Blanche Carter, President of the Women's Convention of the Western Baptist State Convention, who was Girls' Vice-Principal and an instructor. Mrs. Carter taught Course 315.5b. "Preparing for Marriage and Home Life"; and Mr. Eugene Allen, President of the BTP Convention of the Western Baptist State Convention, who was a boys' counsellor and Director of Recreation for the camp.

Headed by the Convention's Director of Christian Education, Rev. Mays, the conference held from August 25-31 combined wholesome Christian recreation with guided study as six accredited Leadership Training Courses were offered by the faculty and one hundred and eighty First and Second Series Course cards were issued.

The gateway to deeper devotion and radiant Christian living was provided by the inspiring chapel services led by the faculty members and the never-to-be-forgotten sunset vesper messages so ably delivered by the Rev. Emmett F. Parks, Minister of the Roger Williams Baptist Church of Los Angeles.

Never before had such a venture been undertaken and California Baptists can well afford to be proud of their achievement. From thirty churches throughout Southern California came ninety-two chosen young people, leaders in their churches. For six days history was in the making as these Junior-High and Senior-High age young people sat under trained Christian personalities in one of the most far-reaching projects ever launched by Baptists. Pacific Palisades will live forever in the memory of the young people of the Western Baptist State Convention because it meant to them the dawn of a new day.

At the close of the final vesper message the Rev. Emmett F. Parks called for testimonies and sixty-eight young people rose to their feet. Two young girls were definitely converted and have joined Baptist churches. The influence of this initial experiment and its effect upon the lives of Baptist youth can only be measured in terms of its spiritual value to them. This is but the beginning of a great tradition and it is hoped that each summer will witness hundreds of young people throughout Southern California coming together for the purpose of working, studying, playing, and living together that the Church of Jesus Christ may advance through Christian youth.

Philip Murray Urges Congress To Act Wisely On Reconversion

EDITOR'S NOTE: President Philip Murray of the Congress of Industrial Organizations sent a letter on reconversion legislation to all Members of the House of Representatives: Part of the letter follows:

My dear Congressman: The members of the House of Representatives will have an opportunity to stand up and be counted on one of the most important pieces of legislation in this session, and one of the last to come before the 78th Congress, the reconversion bill. In the Senate debate, and in the debate so war in the House there has been a bold attempt to obscure the issue, and to persuade the country that this bill is a "selfish grab." Coming as it does on the heels of two other bills, one on termination of war contracts, and one on disposal of surplus war plants and properties, this attempted confusion is cynical in the extreme.

The American people understand that the real issue on reconversion is "jobs for all" after the war. They know that such a program can only be brought into being and carried through by the combined efforts of all groups in the conutry, industry, labor, and agriculture working together. They know that the cry of "states' rights" is merely a smoke-screen to hide the efforts of certain reactionary and die-hard groups to return this country to "business as usual" after the war.

In the emergency period ahead, it will require the most skillful handling on the part of government, with the support of industry, labor, and agriculture, to convert from present wartime production levels to a peacetime economy, while maintaining full use of our new-found productive capacity. This calls for a Production-Employment Board.

GEORGE BILL INADEQUATE

The House Ways and Means Committee majority has deliberately cut out of the George Bill all reference to a representative advisory committee. And any unbiased observer will agree that even the advisory committee as written into the George Bill is inadequate to handle the job ahead. Such a cooperative undertaking as the Production-Employment Board should have every support of Congress and the executive to enable it to make its major contribution to national demobilization.

It can be predicted now that if this bill passes in the form in which it came from Committee, the 78th Congress will have left a legacy of trouble for the 79th Congress and for the country, which will have to clear it up in 1945. Sooner or later adequate legislation on this problem of reconversion will have to be passed by Congress.

I urge all members of Congress to give serious consideration to the amendments now being offered by the dissenting members of the House Ways and Means Committee and supported by numerous other members of Congress.

Sincerely yours,
Philip Murray, President.

California Heroines of the Templars Hold 19th Conclave

The Pacific Grand Guild — Heroines of the Templars Crusade of California and its Jurisdiction, met in their 19th Conclave Saturday, September 2, at Masonic Temple, 1050 E. 50th Street, Grand Princess, Mrs. Estelle E. Houston, presiding.

A full representation from each Guild in the Jurisdiction was present and submitted reports showing a healthy condition throughout the State. The enthusiasm and confidence expressed by each delegate gave promise of greater success in the future of this branch of Free Masonry.

Owing to war conditions, no conclave having been held in 1943, the address of the Grand Princess Captain covered a two-year period of activities, and outlined the work for the present year.

One of the high lights of the Session was the report of Past P. C. Annie Jones, delegate to the Inter-national Grand Guild held in the City of Buffalo, New York, 1941, where she was elected International 1st Lieutenant.

The following Officers were elected and installed:

Gr. Princess Captain—Estelle E. Houston, San Francisco.

Gr. Asst. Princess Captain—Emma Jennings, Los Angeles.

Gr. 1st. Lieutenant—Maggie Fields, San Francisco.

Gr. 2nd Lieutenant—Vivian Graves, San Francisco.

Gr. Recorder—Dora Gamble, Los Angeles.

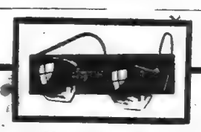
Gr. Treasurer—Justina L. Ross —Oakland.

Gr. Commissary—Lucille Howard, Los Angeles.

Gr. Asst. Commissary—Nancy Walton, Los Angeles.

Gr. Cross Bearer, Frances Christian, Berkeley.

Gr. Chaplain—Bessie Prentis, Los Angeles.



Gr. Sentinel, Lola Spencer, Los Angeles.

Gr. Lecturer—Elizabeth Brow

Committees: Foreign Correspondence, Annie Jones, Los Angeles. Art—Emma Jennings, Los Angeles. Ways and Means — Lucille Howard — Los Angeles.

Grand Royal Advisor — Sir Knight, J. Thomas Norris, Los Angeles.

The Guild was a guest at a barbecue dinner given by Pacific Grand Commandery, Knights Templar whose conclave was being held concurrently.

Count Basie Opens at Plantation Club Tonight

CAN'T SEE FOR LOOKING

THE GLAMOROUS LEONARD REED, THE WONDER BOY, WHO HAS THRILLED CAFE SOCIETY for 12 years by producing scintilating cafe opuses, will premiere a gala cafe revue at the pretentious "Shep Playhouse" at First and Los Angeles Street in downtown Los Angeles come Friday night. In the past, the "It Boy" has always put class into every revue. His revues on a miniature scale, has often made one think of the lavish revues of the late Ziegfeld. His picture numbers with a bevy of lovely looking girls, who can really dance, has proved a sensation where ever he has presented his cafe spectacles.

But the great Leonard will have a setting for his high class revues. "Shep's Playhouse" is beautiful beyond words. It is liking walking in a dream. The bar is half a block long, mirrored, with artistic nudes posed delectably in champagne glasses, illumined by indirect lighting. On the West Wall muraled brownskin nudes adorn, while aqua-marine-colored silks flow from the walls. In beauty, the interior decorations of Shep's Playhouse is like several pages from the Arabian Nights or the luscious settings of the harem of the Caliph of Bagdad. On the top floor are private rooms for exclusive parties. These exquisite quarters will in truth, really be conducive of "playing."

Leonard Reed will star Pha Terrell, handsome hunk of brown, who with Andy Kirk set a new high with the tune "Until the Real Thing Comes Along." Moonfaced, "Pretty Boy" Bardu Ali, who rose to fame as the baton waver for the late Chick Webb and Ella Fitzgerald, may well turn into the Sinatra of ork leaders. The chicks will find themselves in a dilemma in the plush surroundings of Shep. Plus the electrifying music of Bardu Ali. This enhanced by the toasted colored Adonises. Leonard, the butter-toasted Bardi Ali, the golden-toasted and Pha, the mellow-brown toasted. Take your pick, slick chicks.

Then "Wonder Boy" Reed, has engaged from Reg. C. Marshall, that new reputed singing sensations, the Sepia Tones. Three gorgeous, fine ones, who will sing you right into the mood. Then along will come the great Marie Bryant. La Bryant is a bundle of personality. When the mellow, fine Marie dancers, she thrills you. When she sings, she sends you and when she torso twists she - - - - - - - ummmmmmm.

Ran into Tiny Bradshaw at First and San Pedro. He says he will soon leave Joe Morris' swell Club Plantation and one night it back to Harlemto do a stand at the Appollo and then to the Rhumboogie in Chi. Back in the early days, when this scribe was on the column throne, his manager reprinted "Grandtown" and used it to plug Tiny. Well Bradshaw is at the top now... and still going forward. Tiny got the name "Tiny" because he was tiny. He topped the scale at less than 115. Now they call him "Tiny" because he has a big bay window in front and weighs nearly 200. Dr. Frank Zoar, the reducing expert, should grab off "Tiny" and bring him down to a size the chicks would love.

Two people believed in Floyd Ray. One a man, the other a woman. Paula Moray, the woman, his wife in fact as well as name and Reg. G. Marshall. Floyd has caused them both many heartaches. But here's hoping that Floyd's stint in the army has taken the glint off of him. And he comes through with flying colors for Paula and Reg. Marshall.

Street Scene... William H. Pollard, union chief, conferring with Tom Anderson of Oakland anent union biz. Henry Brown, playboy and estranged hubby of Ethel Cross of Frisco is in town—he "can't see for looking." George Jerome Jamison may become a pistol packing papa and laying down the law.

Man about town. Big Joe Gibson has handled his badge in to Sheriff Biscailuz and took one from the Chief of Police of Riverside. Joe is the first sepia to become law and order in Riverside. Riverside with a colored cop is getting into the big time class.

In the bars. Corp. Elihu Sloane, singer and Sgt. Greene sight seeing on Central avenue. Ralph Butler, platoon sergeant of the Marines, played it hard at Gene Sorrall's. Then there was Patsy Hunter dashing down a cocktail on the fly.

Buster Griffin, a new comer and comic has teamed with Tiny McClure and will be agented by Ben Carter. Bob Johnson and his beautiful wife, Naomi are carrying out the heritage of the west. They have a small plot of ground on the edge of the city, where they keep livestock, more as pets, than commerical. They own a gorgeous palamino horse, hogs, etc. Gomez es mi amigo.

Thelma "Happy" Johnson, who used to be our secret agent in Milwaukee is now in Los Angeles. So watch out. She did a hitch with Ivie Anderson's shack and is now dickering with Lovejoy.

We are most grateful to Edna Rosalyne Heard of the Santa Monica Heards for telling us of that splendid group, who recently sponsored the Jimmy Noone benefit at the Troc. It was a fitting tribute to a swell music and it was grand to think of his widow in a practical way. The Jimmy Noone affair was sponsored by the Musician's Congress of Hollywood, a national organization, whose membership includes some of the world's most distinguished musicians and composers. This group recently sponsored the Leopold Stokowski concert at the Philharmonic, with Rise Stevens as soloist and Orson Wells as narrator. Let's hear you again Edna Rosalyne Heard.

Basie Band Best In Swing Land Raves Editor GIP

Earle Warren and Thelma Carpenter Featured Singers

Joe Morris' penchant for presenting to the public the truly tops in entertainment, is one of the strongest reasons for the increasing popularity of Los Angeles' coziest nitery. Just about evrything a nightclub fan could ask for will be dished out on a swing platter tonight, when the good Count Basie and his band take the bandstand at the Plantation club for the beginning of a four weeks engagement, that will most assuredly go down in night club history as the hottest and grooviest thirty day stint ever played on the Nightclub circuit.

NO DISCRIMINATION

It's great to know that Count Basie has been signed to a club that doesn't practice racial discrimination, thus giving the many Basie fans an opportunity to hear one of America's greatest dance orchestras, and the greatest of all modern day exponents of the boogie woogie swing style.

The Basie band must be heard in person to be fully appreciated. Unquestionably one of the best bands to come out of the swing kingdom in ages, it boasts the names of some of swingdom's leading exponents of riffs. Lester Young, Joe Jones, Buddie Ttate, Dickie Wells, to name but a few. And then, as if that weren't enough for your money, there's the super-fine blues-shouting Jimmy Rushing, plus the velvety-voiced Thelma Carpenter. And for the bobby sockers, there's saxophonist Earle Warren who out-Sinatras Frank.

TWO SHOWS NITELY

The two-times-nitely floorshow will feature those two mad characters of comedy, Pork Chops Paterson and Jackson Shorts Davis. And other acts. But the magnet that will draw the hepcats and hepchicks is Count Basie. His piano playing is excellent and could be listened to for hours without tiring. That goes for his band, too. They play mostly on the jump side, but it is also a band whose playing doesn't give you cauliflower ears. Their playing makes conversation, while dancing, possible. Our one and only complaint with the band is that we don't hear it often enough. We will tho, starting tonight. In fact, the club Plantation will be our after-hour address.

And in case you're a first-nighter, and wanna be in on the first note that's blown your way, call JEfferson 9688 for reservations. "It's nearly a sell-out," says Matre de' Julius Crouch, "and after 8:30 tonight, there will be no more reservations taken."

But then, a Count Basie engagement is worth going to even if you have to stand!

I know. I know. I'll have a ringside table. That's right, and you'll have a ringside report on the Count's opening in these pages next time we go to print.

Lee Young's Combo Keeps Downbeat Club In Groove

Swing fans welcomed Lee Young with open arms in his Downbeat debut, and he is pleasing Harold Stanley and Elihu McGee's cocktail lounge patrons mightily.

With Gerald Wilson on Trumpet, the combo really shines. It's a versatile crew, with several fine soloists. But it's Lee Young's fine Krupa-styled drumming and Sinatra-like crooning that makes the chicks reach into their bag for spelling salts.

The combo shapes up as a first-classer, and would (even in its beginners stage) out-play most of the combo's drawing down four figure salaries on Broadway and in Hollywood.

SEEKS TITLE IN THE MISS BRONZE BEAUTY CONTEST—Geraldine Lung, who is being sponsored by the Eastside House of Music, 5123 S. Avalon Blvd., in which over a hundred bronze beauties from all over California are competing, to be held on the stage of the Lincoln Theater, Friday Night, Sept. 21, 1944.

Hepsters In Swing Concert to Keep Long Hair Fiddlers Going

In one of the most peculiar series of "jazz concerts" in the city's history, Henry King, Phil Harris, Tommy Dorsey, Harry James, Kay Kyser, and other "name" bands, performed at the Philharmonic Auditorium in a special concert series to raise funds to keep the Los Angeles Philhormonic orchestra in existence.

According to columnist Dave Dexter, "Actually, hardly any jazz was performed. The bands played straight, commercial dance music."

All publicity and promotional material, however, pointed up the "swing" and "jive" angles. The Philhormonic finances were in such unhealthy shape that it was feared the orchestra might have to be abandoned. Then the dance bands got busy, the kids paid their dollarsto hear them, and the longhairs were able to plan on a 1944-45 season.

Longhair conductor Alfred Wallenstein, who conducts the Philharmonic orchestra, was solidly sent by the swingsters!

"Let's Go" Plays To Servicemen

CAMP LEE—"Let's Go," an all-star, all-colored revue from the hot spots of Harlem, is the current USO Show to move into Camp Lee for a five-night stand with admission free to servicemen.

The show opened at the Thomas Jefferson Theater, Sept. 2, moved to the ASF Regional Hospital on the 4th and 5th, up to Theater 5, Sept. 6, and back to the Carver Bowl, Sept. 7.

George Watts will MC the show and is himself a sensational gag artist. He has played theaters all over this country and Canada and has had success as a singer and dancer.

Niteclub Editor Swoons Over New Slick Chic Chirp

And when I reached into my briefcase for smelling salts and found I'd left them home, I simply swooned into a dead faint. That's after hearing a gal named Connie Williams sing. The lights were soft. The curtains were drawn, and I was finishing my second scotchand-soda. We were in Miss Williams' apartment. We had heard so much about this chick who chirps with class, that we decided to run up to her place to hear her sing. And that's exactly what we didn't do anything else but.

Her three brothers were among those present, with about ten other people. So all we did was listen to her sing. And people, take it from a guy who wouldn't lie to thirty-five thousand readers, this chick tinsel-tonsils' a mean vocal. She wanted me to use my "influence" to get her a job. After I use my "influence" to get myself a job, I'll do what I can for Miss Williams. She's too great to be running around "unsigned."

Remember the name, Connie Williams. You'll soon be hearing plenty about her one of these days.

Mabel Scott Is Featured In Club Plantation Show

Restrained husky-voiced thrush Mabel Scott, who registers heavily without need for body contortions at the mike, has been signed as intermissionist entertainer at the Plantation club along with the Count Basie band and show. She is best of local crop of gal singers.

A nice-looking chick who fairly radiates personttlity and appeal, really thrills the crowd with her throaty torchants.

Clara Lewis, a localite, is Mabel's accompanist.

Fiddler Who Made Star-Dust Famous To Organize Ork

I took a run up to the musician's Union the other day to interview Secretary Paul Howard, and who should I run into but Edgar Hayes and his beautiful wife. Don't tell anyone you haven't heard of Edgar Hayes, or you'll be listed as a boob. But for the few boobs in the audience, we'll tell you a paragraph or two about the amazing Mr. Hayes.

"STAR-DUST"

He's the handsome, ever-smiling-gent who won recognition with his super-fine arrangement of the Hoagy Carmechiel hit "Star-Dust." Then he was the leader of a band known simply as "Mill's Blue Rhythm Band," later to be known as Lucky Millinder's Band. Now he is being featured nitely in a nitery in Riverside, "Sommerset House."

When I could take my eyes off of his beautiful wife for a second, and pay attention to what he was saying, I learned that he was contemplating the organizing of a nineteen piece band. Being a musician whose musical ability I respect more than somewhat, we assured him of complete cooperation in the press agentry of any band he organizes. Who knows, it may be a chip off the old "Blue Rhythm Band" block, and how those guys could play!

"Stop That Villain!" Is New Air Show

"Stop That Villain!" a new kind of audience participation program which, unlike others, makes it difficult for contestants to win, made its nationwide debut over Station KNX Wednesday, Sept. 6, at 8:30 p.m., e.w.t.

The villain will ask the questions and will do everything possible to confuse and mislead the contestants. He will toss out false clues in an effort to make participants wind up in "jail," a huge wooden cell in the broadcast studio in which all who miss their answers will be locked up.

The only assistance contestants will get will be in the form of musical clues from the orchestra of Joe Reichman, the Pagliacci of the piano, and the Dubonnair quartet.

Offers Finest in Drinks Food and Entertainment,

The Cobra Room, 300 East 1st Street at San Pedro, is easily the most luxurious and well-appointed club on the West Coast. Newly opened just about two weeks ago this wonderful spot has been filled to capacity ever since and is fast becoming the rendezvous of Los Angeles smart set.

The popular Earl Griffin, host of the club, announced that he had received a wire of congratulations from film star, Lena Horne, who wishes the club every success. Some of the outstanding stars seen recently as guests at the club have been, Louise Beavers, Herb Jeffries, Rex Ingram and Harry Nicholas of the famous Nicholas Brothers dance team.

Jams sessions have been inaugurated at the club by Mr. Griffin who states that they will continue every Sunday from 3 P. M. to 7 P. M. Last Sunday guests listened to Red Callender's quartette which features Jack McVea, tenor, Charlie Blackwell, drums, Garland Finney at the piano and Red Callender on the bass. There will be a different aggregation heard every Sunday.

Besides the fine liquors and mixed drinks dispensed at the Cobra Room some of the finest food on the Pacific Coast can also be obtained at this beautiful spot. Chef William Murphy of New York City and only recently of the Mirimar at Santa Barbara personally supervises the fried chicken, ham, s teaks and rabbit which come out of the Cobra Room kitchen. Roast Beef is a specialty and if you like this dish come to the Cobra Room where you'll enjoy the finest you've ever tasted.

On your next night out make the Cobra Room a MUST on your list. There you will find the acme in drinks and food to be enjoyed in the finest atmosphere heretofore seen on the West Coast.

Zutty Singleton To Be Featured At Cobra Lounge

It's about time some eastside club grabbed Zutty Singleton and his swingsational musical combo for a stint at their spot, and the club getting the orchid for turning the feat is the beautiful Cobra Lounge in Bronzeville.

HOT COMBO

Zutty, for the benefit of the hepsters who claim to be but aint, is the Drummer man who for many years was the main standby in the Louis Armstrong band. He walks away with every drummer's poll in every musician's contest. And he has one of the hottest musical combos heard around these parts in ages.

Athletic Director In Mediterranean

In addition to his other duties in the 366th Service Squadron, Pfc. Raymond W. Bailey, of Los Angeles, California, has the responsibility of Athletic Director in the Squadron. Recently, Bailey took a swimming team which he had formed from outstanding swimmers in the Squadron, to the Allied Swimming Meet held somewhere in Italy. The swimming meet was entered by contestants from all over the Mediterranean Theater and many professional swimmers and divers were on hand for the contest. Although the 366th Swimming team did not win in the meet, they presented plenty of competition in the abilities of Arlester Boykin and Raymond Bailey in the 100 Meters Free Style. Both men displayed splendid form and ability in their races and each took a third place in his heat. John Edwards displayed a number of fancy dives which won for him third place in the diving competition and he also swam the 300 Meter Free Style.

Sgt. Arlester Boykin, Los Angeles, California and Cpl. John Edwards, Evanston, Illinois, are now helping Pfc. Bailey in the planning and forming of a Tennis Team to take part in the Tennis Tournament in this area.

Bankhead, Pitching Ace, Now Hurls for Camp League Nine

By Marine Corporal Ernie Harwell

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C.—Marine Sergeant Dan R. Bankhead, former pitching ace of the Birmingham Black Barons, is now hurling for the top-notch Montford Point Negro nine in the camp league.

Bankhead, son of Mrs. Aria Bankhead, of Empire, Ala., is a swimming instructor, but he has found time in his off-duty hours to establish hismself as one of the finest hurlers in the Marines.

It was on Bankhead's strong right arm that the Montford Point nine rode to a title in both halves of the league season here.

Highlight of Bankhead's 1944 season was the no-hit, no-run tilt he fashioned a few weeks ago against the 13th Anti-Aircraft Battalion. Last year he hurled two "on-nothing" games.

The speedballer comes from a baseball family. His father, mother and sisters are rabid fans. His brother, Sam, is a shortstop for the Homestead Grays, while his brother, Fred, stars at the same position for the Memphis Red Sox.

Dan himself, began his baseball career as shortstop in the Birmingham Industrial loop. However, he had such a shotgun arm that he was spon transferred to the mound.

In his first season, 1940, Bankhead captured 23 victories against only one loss. The following year he hurled in Puerto Rico and was named to work in the All-Star game there.

In his professional lifetime, Bankhead faced the great Satchel Paige three times in hurling duels and won all three tilts. He joined the Marines in the spring of 1943 and has risen rapidly in the ranks.

After the war is over, Dan is going back to his love—professional baseball. And experts at this camp predict that he will eclipse the feats of even Satchel Paige.

CLERKS TURN IN FINE JOB AS SALVAGERS OF WRECKED PLANES

ITALY — The "Armchair pilots," those soldiers who sit at desks and pound typewriters and sort papers, came into their own when a group of administrative clerks of a Fifteen Air Force Command all-Negro service group were plucked from their offices and set to work in the salvage yard of an advanced airbase to reclaim parts from smashed-up planes urgently needed to put other aircraft back into the air.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

Agua Caliente, Mexico—After a gala two days of the best horse racing seen in many months at beautiful Caliente, featuring many upsets and a disqualification of an odds on popular favorite, the steeds on Generalissimo Eddie Nealis' Race Course down Mexico way will rest until this Sunday when racing secretary Judge Joe Walter will arrange another card of twelve or more races for the lovers of the sport of kings. It was form players day on the Sunday card, but Monday's session went to the longshot lovers. Only two public choices reached the winning wire on Monday. The biggest upset in many months was in the Festive, an allowance affair for the three year olds and upwards. Par Play made a 2—5 shot in the mutuels and who looked like a winner, failed badly and finished out of the money. She finished fourth.

The winner was the longshot Mystic Miss, Atlantic City was second and Flitterverse third. The winner paid $20.40. That faithful son of Universe, My Universe, was the first favorite to win on Monday's card—known as the Labor Day Handicap — at one mile and one-sixteenth. Paid only $3.60 for two. Little Jockey C. Beckmann stole the riding honors by bringing three home in a row! Many Negro fans were present for the two day card. Coming from Los Angeles and Long Beach and Pasadena. The noted Negro attorney, Willis Tyler entertained a party from the Angel City. That popular director of racing and presiding steward, George W. Shilling, again took his place in the stand and received a great welcome. The judge is about the best liked racing official in the country. We are very sorry to learn that Ruben (handsome) Verdugo, brother of the director of personnel, Armando E. Verdugo is ill at the Scripps Hospital in La Jolla. His many friends are pulling for a speedy recovery. Johnnie (the Clark Gable Smile) Nealis was again on the block and received many hand shakes.

Andy Nealis, another brother of our popular Generalissimo, nearly saw his only horse gather a purse when he was leading in the stretch and then suddenly race wide to finish second. It was a bad break for gentleman Andy. Boss E. L. Caress layed good prices on the Sunday and Monday card. Alonza Carter, the boy plunger of San Diego bet one grand on Denti Sunday. He saw the horse win, only to be disqualified. The comely Helen Hamilton of San Diego also was host to a party on Monday. They beat the races. As time goes on Joe Hernandez, who handles the public address system at the track, is getting better. Among the Negro sport fans that played hosts to out-of-town visitors were: James Baker, Eddie Haynes, Alonzo Carter, Claude Hodge, Grant Edison, C. Jones, Al Ramsey, Mattie Sommerville, Reccie Young, the Boyds sister of stage and radio fame, and many others. So long, George.

BRIDGE POINTS

By M. L. Milligan
Certified Master Teacher

98% of all bridge players use the Culbertson System, the scientific value of which has withstood the acid test of time and competition. The student who learns the fundamental principles retaining a flexible and observant mind, can hold their own against the rapid fire barrage of strategic, physic, or the normal bids of the average, or novice, with impunity. "Knowledge is not power, but the ability to acquire and apply it—is." Contract Bridge is strictly a scientific game, all elements of luck cease to exist after the cards have been dealt.

Therefore, the player who knows and can apply the principles governing opening bids, raises, rebids, takeout bids, the rules of 8, 11, 4-5-6, 2-3, X plus 1, Q92, along with the laws anent symmetry, equations and psychology, is a master, and many of their bids to an average or novice is like speaking Latin to the unlettered.

Clinton Park Outstanding FHA Project

HOUSTON, Texas. — Clinton Park is still one of the outstanding FHA projects. Although there were some delinquencies in mortgage payments, these apparently came about through misunderstanding on the part of owners who had been called to military service as to the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act. These misunderstandings were quickly cleared up and all the properties are now on a current basis.

The entire subdivision shows very little evidence of wear and is being maintained in a highly satisfactory manner.

Negro Soldiers Aid Cold Storage Plant Emergency

WILMINGTON, Calif. — Small details of soldiers from Negro service units at Los Angeles port of embarkation almost daily have been aiding local cold storage plants and industries over emergency periods when war production had been imperiled by labor shortages, according to Lt. Col. Harry K. Brown, Jr., commanding officer of Camp Ross.

Letters of appreciation have been received at the port from firms in whose operations the Army has a definite interest, for the help the soldiers have given.

698,911 Negroes Are Serving In the Army

WASHINGTON, D. C. — There were 698,911 Negroes serving in the Army on June 30, 1944, the War Department announced today. This indicated an increase of 34,845 above the February 29, 1944, total of 664,066.

The announcement revealed a shorp rise in the number of Negroes assigned to overseas theaters, with other principal increases occurring in components of the Army Service Forces.

Since August 31, 1943, the Army had accepted 116,050 additions to its Negro personnel.

Area Hospital Needed For Maternity Cases

Dr. P. Price Cobbs, head of the committee seeking appropriate hospitilization for citizens living in the Eastside-Central Avenue area, pointed out the xceedingly difficult time expectant mothers residing in the area experience in getting ambulance accomodations in urgency emergency instances.

The East Area Community Hospital committee, is forging right ahead with its plans to erect an ultra modern 100 bed hospital here in this district, which will include maternity ward, institutional clinic, emergency surgery, and accomodations for resident physicians, nurses and internes.

Music Arranger Held By Nazis Tells of Life in Prison Camp

NEW YORK.—"We learned to live in hell and got used to it." These words summed up the experience of Maceo Jefferson, music arranger, who arrived here recently from France where he, an American, was interned in a Nazi civilian prison camp for two and a half years. Mr. Jefferson, who is now employed arranging scores for a number of outstanding orchestras, had made his home in Europe since he went there with the famous Lew Leslie's "Blackbirds," starring the immortal Florence Mills.

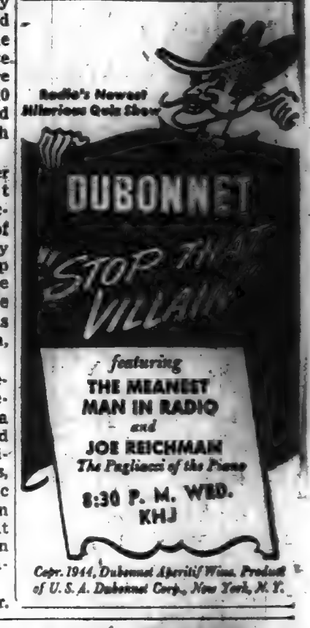
In an interview this week, Mr. Jefferson explained that he was among the American prisoners exchanged for German prisoners, and came over on the last trip of the Gripsholm. He does not know how he happened to be chosen as one of the lucky ones, for he left many of his comrades behind in the prison camp.

The musician was in France when America declared war on Germany and was incarcerated in Frontstlag 122, about 70 miles from Paris. During air raids on this area, three colored prisoners, close friends of Jefferson, were among those killed.

Between 1100 and 1200 civilian prisoners were imprisoned in the camp, among which were a good number of Negroes, but there was no racial discrimination, the musician said. Although civilians, the internees seemed to have had no more privileges than if they had been military prisoners of war.

He said they were guarded by German soldiers, kept behind barbed wire and six machine gun nests were perched above the camp grounds. They were permitted to have visitors for 10 minutes only, every 15 days, and had to talk to them through mesh wire.

Having been taken prisoner early in the war, these first groups suffered from lack of recreational facilities, and, of course, the food was merely something to eat. They had soup once a day and herb tea once or twice. A common food like oatmeal was a treat. It was served every Friday afternoon, he said.



After days of inertia and boredom, recreational material, began to arrive from America through the War Prisoners' Aid of the YMCA, he explained. Musical instruments, baseball sets, punching bags, other athletic equipment and books. The men had to fill in the trenches that had been dug by the French in order to make a baseball diamond.

Since the beginning of Mr. Jefferson's incarceration, supplies have been sent more frequently and plentifully through the organization of the War Prisoners Aid.

MARKSMANSHIP RECORD

SACRAMENTO AIR DEPORT, McClellan Field, California—A new marksmanship record for Sacramento Air Service Command military units was established recently as 98.3 percent of the McClellan Field's Negro squadron qualified on the rifle range at Folsom.

Of the group shooting, 12 men fired expert; 58 were scored as sharpshooters and the reminder registered marksman.

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

A DIRTY TRICK—It was pretty rotten for one of my fellow scribes, on another paper, of course, to insist that the California State Athletic Commission investigate the age of Major Jones, one of the finest little prospects ever to grace these Pacific shores. The commission acted on this man's suggestion and finding the boy younger than the 18 year limit, revoked his license. This means that the Major will not be allowed to fight in California rings for approximately two years. So, the fans were denied the privilege of seeing a bright fistic prospect, a boy who spent two years in the amateur boxing ranks to provide himself with the experience for his chosen profession, has been set back a couple of years and is thoroughly discouraged, and his manager has been deprived of a means of living. Add that to the fact the boy in four pro fights here had demonstrated such brilliancy in the ring that he had advanced to the top and was scheduled to fight a main event at the Olympic Tuesday and had to be pulled out, and you get a pretty sordid picture.

This writer isn't blaming the commission for stopping any inexperienced boy from fighting who has not attained the age of 18. However, we think that the rule should not be followed through for boys with ample experience. Henry Armstrong boxed with Major Jones a year and a half ago in St. Louis and told this scribe that the kid was more than able to take care of himself then. In his fights here it was the other guys who had to look to their health because the Major was perfectly capable of taking care of himself while knocking the daylight out of his opponents. Why should this writer pick on Jones? Lane Hale is reputed to be 17 years old and he was fighting here long before Jones showed up. Why didn't this fellow have Hale investigated? He has been rushed much too fast for his years and experience. Or if we want to try the Nordic race why didn't he have Art Arregon investigated? This baby-faced kid cannot be over 15 or 16 and he's still fighting. In two years Jones has won the lightweight championship in the Golden Gloves A.A.U. meet. In 1944 he won both featherweight and lightweight titles. There wasn't anything more he could learn as an amateur. He had the ability and the class of a pro. He could lick veterans like Jorge Morelia with ease. He was capable of taking a punch. What more can you ask of a fighter? The lad was so broken-hearted when he heard of his misfortune that he went into the alley behind the 43rd Street gym, sat on a box and cried his eyes out. He had a reason. He asked persons around him, "What have I done this man? I don't even know him. Why should he do me a thing like this?" He could visualize his dream of success in California blown into nothingness for no apparent reason. He cannot fight again as an amateur because he has turned pro and he can't fight as a pro because somebody didn't like the way he combed his hair.

I didn't get this story from anyone secondhand. I happened to be in the athletic commission office with Major Jones and his manager, Norman Saunders, when Willie Ritchie, the Chief Inspector, was asked who had ordered the investigation. He told us. Another Commissioner, a Mr. Smith, also named the same man—Halley Harding of the L. A. Tribune.

Regarding the ability of Major Jones, CHARLES KELSON, noted fight trainer said, "This boy has everything required in a boxer. He is a clever boxer, a puncher with either hand and his coolness under fire reminds me of Joe Louis. He can box rings around veterans of long standing and really was headed places. I am extremely sorry that this had to happen to Jones. He was our best lightweight prospect since John Thomas started climbing." . . . HENRY ARMSTRONG said, "Major Jones was perfectly capable of holding his own with any fighter his weight, and I mean ANY fighter. I don't see why this fellow would do this to the kid." . . . COMMISSIONER SMITH of the Athletic board stated, "Jones is one of the best southpaws I've ever seen."

There you have the reason why you won't be seeing Major Jones in action in local rings for some time. It wasn't the Kid's fault.

Robles Defeats Robleto

The aggressive Roy Miller of Kansas City, Mo., protege of "Hammering" Henry Armstrong, found himself lacking in experience sufficient to cope with Kenny Watkins, left hand artist of the Lewis-Tolson fight stable, and wound up on the short end of the ten-round decision at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night before a small gathering of the fight faithful.

Watkins scaling 164, with Miller coming in at the same figure turned in a magnificent boxing performance, using a stiff left jab to the face coupled with hard left and right hooks to the body to capture a decisive nod, winning seven of the ten heats.

In a companion ten, Jorge Robles, 115, of Mexico, pounded out a blistering decision over the ever-trying Ceferino Robleto, 114½.

Art Aregon, 131, stopped Henry Zamora, 131, in the first stanza of the scheduled four-round semi-final. Other fours found; Torpedo Reed, 138, and Sonny Hill, 136, battling to a draw, John Tijernia, 136, scoring a TKO over Al Valdez, 137, in the fourth, and Ignacio Villa-Verdes, 155, decisioning Billy Jones, 150.

TITLE BOUT TUESDAY

Next Tuesday night, September 12, at the Olympic Auditorium, Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight champion, will defend his title over the 15-round distance against Luis Castillo of Mexico City. A capacity house is expected. Matchmaker Babe McCoy is busy arranging a classy supporting card, rounding up the best fighters available.

Johnny Flynn Defeats Lane

BALTIMORE.—Johnny Flynn, 213 pound giant Rochester (N.Y.) heavy, won a split 10-round decision over Larry Lane, 199, of Trenton, (N.J.), in last Thursday night's inaugural card of the new Arena Athletic Club.

Officials were divided in opinion after the bout was over.

Second Annual Postal Alliance Golf Tournament September 22

Announcement was made this week that plans have been completed for the Second Annual Postal Alliance Golf Tournament to be held this year at Sunset Field Public golf court Friday, September 22, on the number 2 court.

Prizes will be given in three flight, qualifying to be by handicap. "A" flight will play 36 holes. "B" flight 36 holes, and "C" flight 18 holes.

Invitations have already been mailed to prominent golfers throughout California. Entry Blanks must be in the hands of the Tournament Committee not later than midnight, September 15. Any additional information may be secured from any of the following members of the committee: Samuel Drake, 1622 West Jefferson, RI. 8072—Jerry C. Baldwin, 943 East 41st Street, AD-9064 — Mouton J. BOXING BRIEFS

BOBBY YEAGER, classy protege of the Bert Lewis-John Thomas fight stable, has been signed to box Jimmy Hatcher on Sept. 29 at Hollywood Legion Stadium.

JOHN THOMAS is being groomed carefully for an expected 15-round outdoor championship fight against lightweight champion Juan Zurita sometime in the near future.

GILMORE FIELD will be the scene of a monster outdoor show featuring Carlos Chavez versus Manuel Ortiz, the bantam champ. Also on the same card John Thomas may fight Al (Bummy) Davis in one ten and a heavyweight brawl will hold another ten spot. The show is scheduled for late this month.

TURKEY THOMPSON has been signed to meet Al Hart of Washington, D.C., now instructing boxing at Wilmington, on Sept. 19 at the Olympic Auditorium. The Turk is now in hard training for the bout.

JIMMY BROOKS, classy local middleweight, has been spending a 14 day furlough here. He is stationed at Fort Warren, Wyoming.

MAJOR JONES, clever young southpaw, having been gypped out of a chance to make a living in California, caught a train for his home in Kansas City, Mo., this week. The Major had his license revoked when an investigation disclosed that he was not yet 18 years of age.

Jack Chase Chills Larry Anzalone In 1st Round at Hollywood Legion

Jack Chase, 160¾, former California State middleweight champ, last Friday night knocked out Larry Anzalone, 157, of New York City, in two minutes and thirty seconds of the first heat of the scehuled 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium.

Anzalone was floored for seven first and a little later for Referee Benny Whitman's full ten count.

SCORES KAYO—Jack Chase, above, former California State middleweight champion, last Friday night scored a knockout in the first round of the scheduled ten-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium, over Larry Anzalone of New York. Chase seems to be regaining the form he displayed when he ruled his division in this state.

The six-round semi-windup ended in a knockout win for Frankie Augustian, 154½, over Lane Hale, 160. The fight was even until the final round when Frankie caught Hale on the ropes and dropped him with a short right hand for the full count. Only 30 seconds in the bout remained.

In the preliminaries Tino Leon, 137, won the decision over Chick Laws, 136; Augustine Rodriquez, 114, defeated Benny Cousins, 113; and Stanley Jamison, 124, boxed a draw with Anicito Madrid, 128.

Willie Collins, 160, won the nod over Alonzo Williams, 155, in the special bout.

Bobby Claus vs. Paulie Peters At Legion Fri.

Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night will feature a 10-round main event bringing together Bobby Claus and Paulie Peters of San Francsico. In three fights here Claus kayoed Chito Hernandez, drew with Lige Drew and lost to Jimmy Doyle.

The prelims will feature: Kid Vera Cruz against Eli Galindo in the six-round semi-windup, Pete Diratos and Eddie Vitratos in another six and George Fulton vs. Jimmy Smith and Tommy De Oro vs. Freddy Maes in two fours.

The card promises plenty action.

Bobby Yeager Stops Linarez

WILMINGTON.—Bobby Yeager, classy stablemate of John Thomas and Kenny Watkins, weighing 138 pounds, scored a four-round technical knockout over Carlos Linarez, 137, in the scheduled 10-round main event at Wilmington Bowl last Wednesday night. Yeager fought his usual slam-bang battle which found his opponent finally wilting.

The semi-windup saw Spider Gelig, 118, gaining a T.K.O. over Tippy Larson, 120, in the third session.

BASEBALL ✦ NOTES ✦

Gus Greenlee plans to organize his Pittsburgh Crawfords thoroughly this season, arranging for a barnstorming tour through Canada before the season ends and then to ship the whole outfit to Cuba to play in the winter league. This will provide his players with year-round employment, at salaries far superior to what they would get at the prevailing scale on rival clubs. Greenlee said he is also thinking seriously of sending his team on a goodwill tour through South America from Venezuela through Brazil and into the Argentine.

Greenlee's gold and reputation has already successfully wooed star players from the rosters of the Homestead Grays, the Baltimore Elite Giants, the New York Black Yankees, and the Chicago American Giants. He intends, he says, to take every player he can get his hands on who can make the grade he has mapped out for them—to play on the Negro club that will oppose in a season or two a picked club of white players from the Major Leagues in an annual test of who can play the better brand of baseball.

Playground Notes

By Mrs. Lillye M. Green

A mothers' club was organized at the Ross Snyder play ground Friday, Sept. 1 with Mrs. Hazel M. Anderson as president.

The winter and fall activities went into effect Sept. 5. All adults, youths and small children are invited to the playgrounds to participate in the activities. For further information contact the directors.

Mr. S. McCallister will succeed Mr. Keeler as chief director of Ross Snyder playground, Mr. Direaux will succeed Mr. Giles of South Park and Mr. Gerald Lansdowne a new staff member will become a director at Compton playground. Mr. Keeler and Mr. Thompson will become chief directors of other playgrounds.

GRID HOPEFULS

CAMP LEE.— Football made its 1944 debut here last week when Coach Ray Bedard's first call for candidates on Lee Field.

Ranginf in all sizes from lightweights to heavyweights, the grid hopefuls engaged in a short workout at which Lt. Bedard explained his plans to give Lee a strong Football squad.

TURKEY THOMPSON, above, leading California heavyweight, has been signed to meet Al Hart, Washington, D. C., heavy, in a ten-round main event bout at the Olympic Auditorium on Tuesday night, September 19.

Kenny Washington Gets Okay To Play With Frisco Clippers

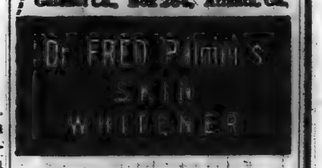
Kenny Washington, former U.C.L.A. All-American, received the okay from Commissioner Jerry Giesler of the American Professional League permitting him to play with the San Francisco Clippers last Sunday.

Giesler's decision was made despite protests from William (Big Bill) Freelove, owner of the Los Angeles Mustangs, who got Washington in the draw, but had not yet signed him.

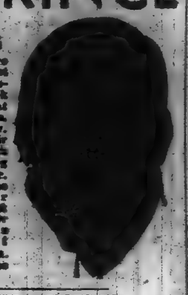
The edict followed a meeting of the league's executive committee, and was made "to not disappoint the public and in the interests of fair play," Giesler said.

Geisler said time was too short to justify his decision, but that "everybody will have a chance to have his say," including Washington, the Clippers and the Mustangs.

Plan "Touch" Grid League



At a meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. last Friday a Youth Athletic Association was discussed and plans made to form a "Touch" Football League for this district. Representatives from the L. A. Youth Project, the city schools, the Playground Department, several churches, fraternal and civic organizations attended.



A committee headed by Wesley Lyons of Carver Junior High School was appointed to complete the plans. The league schedule will be published very soon.

Donnelly Loses To Ken Overlin

SANTA ROSA.—Ken Overlin, former middleweight champ, 173, won an easy 10-round decision over John Donnelly, 180, of Kansas City, Mo., last Thursday night. It was Overlin's first bout in a comeback campaign. He hasn't fought in two years. Donnelly was given a neat boxing lesson.

ROSCOE DUNJEE — Editor Roscoe Dunjee, of the Black Dispatch, who for thirty years has been in the publishing business in Oklahoma City, was last Thursday elected the fifth president of the National Negro Business League, in 44th annual session, Birmingham.

Editor Dunjee has had a long life in public service. For many years he was president of the Oklahoma State Business League, which he organized and was very active in relief work during the 10-year depression.

The editor is a member of the executive council of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, was one of the Organizers and secretary of the Oklahoma Interracial Commission, and is at the present time vice chairman of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare.

The new president is known all over America for his militant stand taken for civil liberties, and for many years has been a national director of the NAACP, and state president of the Oklahoma Conference of Branches, NAACP.

The other presidents of the National Negro Business League in the order of their tenure were. Booker T. Washington, founder; Robert Russa Moton, C. C. Spalding, Dr. J. E. Walker.

Annual Urban League Conference Slated For Columbus, Ohio

The National Urban League, an interracial agency for social service among Negroes, will hold its annual conference at Columbus, Ohio, September 28-October 3. This conference, which has made a significant contribution to better living in America for more than thirty years, will bring together representatives of management, labor, government, and social service organizations.

TRIPLE PROGRAM

The major emphasis of this five-day conference in Columbus is sounded in this slogan: "Victory-Peace-Security." Some of the Nation's best known speakers will share in this program. The leaders of the study commission have been chosen on the basis of constructive work done during th war years.

Letter Box

1903 U.W.
Camp Robert Smalls
Naval Training Station
Great Lakes, Illinois

Dear Mrs. Bass:

Well at last I have completed the course for Yeoman. Out of a class of 34, 29 finished on Tuesday the 15th. 17 were advanced to Yeoman first class, and three were advanced to Yeoman 3rd class. I am now Seaman first class.

Only 20 per cent of all Naval enlisted men qualify for service school, and only about fifteen per cent finish. An even smaller per cent make an advancement in rating.

I hope that you have been able to use some of the information received in the Great Lakes Bulletin which I have been sending. I have some more information which may be of interest to your readers when I get time to write it up.

A friend of mine who was at the graduation may comment exercises to you, s I am not allowed to do so, since Iam in the service.

May you continue to do your fine work in behalf of our cause and for humanity. I wish that you could have been here.

Sincerely,
William S. Lindley, S 1/C

Dear Mrs. Bass:

Mother reminded me yesterday of how thoughless I have been in not writing to you before now. I promised that I will stay in contact with you in the future. We are really comrades in arms fighting on different fronts. Whenever I begin to feel annoyed at the time it is taking to finish this fight, I am forced to remember how much longer and how much more remote the finish of your fight. Everyone who knows you is proud of your brave record.

I have tried very hard to keep the faith that you and so many others placed in me. I have tried in many ways to equip my men for the fight we expect of them after this fight.

Mrs. Bass, there is so much work to be done in our group. There is no starvation so devastating as that of education. I have helped teach grown men to write their names, and later on, simple letters. They hunger for learning but so many seek the easy road. They do not have the mental discipline to dig for the roots and are not patient enough to see their slow progress.

I started an arithmetic class and was doing quite well when we moved and the company was split up. The spark was kindled in a few cases, and I now have five men taking Army Institute courses, and two taking college algebra by correspondence from Berkeley. I have forced myself to improve also and am squeezing in a few more of my credits toward graduation that this time may not be wholly lost.

There is no cure for monotony like an active mind. These few men come over to my area whenever they need help and the progress is really an inspiration.

I have not seen any action yet, but I believe that my men and I are ready to make a good showing. Tell all who know me that I am well and am still doing my best.

Yours for a double victory,
Arnett Hartfield

No Wonder They Call Him "The Luckiest GI Joe In The Army"

SOMEWHERE in the Southwest Pacific—Corporal Thomas Suggs of Los Angeles, California, on duty in the Southwest Pacific, claims the title "Luckiest G.I. Joe." Among the soldiers in his organization, he holds the record of letters received in one day. The Mail Orderly sounded off with his name forty-one times, forty-one letters for Cpl. Suggs, thirty-nine from the same addressee. A record in any soldiers language.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duggs, 4218 Aldine Street, St. Louis, Missouri, and husband of Mrs. Roberta Suggs, Cpl. Suggs was inducted into the service in 1943 at Los Angeles, California.

He is a graduate of Charles Summer High School, Los Angeles, California. Prior to induction he was an art student.

611th Port Company In Service 2 Years

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA.— A second anniversay, marking completion of two years of arduous work at a New Guinea base, was celebrated recently by the 611th Port Company of the 394th Port Battalion Transportation Corps, U. S. Army with a dinner at the famous Red Cross Papuan Club.

Twenty-four months to the day these men had loaded ships carrying bombs and supplies to the forward areas of the New Guinea battle front, with such efficiency that they earned the commendation not only of the War Department but from the skippers of the ships as well.

HIDDEN POSSIBILITIES

Ignorance is based on the "lack of understanding." If one would analyze situations, circumstances and conditions, and see them with a kenner insight, they could visualize necessary adjustments in their everyday existance to bring about hapiness and contentment.

Drifting needlessly on the sea of life, will eventually wreck your ship on the rocks of poverty and discontentment. Prof. Herman, may be able to awaken your real inner self in using inteligently, the powers and inherit ability that may lie hidden within. Let him give you his free opinion on your problems in this column. Write him today.

H. M. W. Dear Prof. Herman: I have been keeping up with your column for quite sometime and thought I would write you myself. Can you give me any information concerning my money?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that your money was stolen. But your mistake is in telling people what you have and where it is. You must not confide your personal business with all of your friends. In the future, refrain from discussing such matters with anyone.

I. P. H. Does he love me or the other girl?

Ans. Concentrating upon your question I find that your friend is in love with you. Dismiss your doubts and suspicions, if you wish to be happy and enjoy this association.

WORRIED. My husband and I have been married about 2 years, but we have decided to part just before he went into the service. Will we ever go back together again?

Ans. My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals a reconciliation for you and your husband if nothing else intervenes before he returns. As you know he is overseas, and you must not build your plans too high.

M. S. Will I be successful in farming this year?

Ans. It appears that you will be quite successful in farming this year, your motive is a good one, and if necessary you can always secure aid from the government. Write to the department of Agriculture in Washington for advice and help.

E. W. Dear Sir: I have just recently purchased your Hindu Charm Bag and because I have faith in you and your products, I know it is going to help me. One of your customers recomended your works so highly that I just had to try you out. Thanks for the kind letter, I shall endeavor to follow your advice.

O. F. C. Which of the two men shall I marry?

Ans. It seems to me that you would find happiness with the carpenter you know. The other man, whose occupation is a pullman porter, is very nice but not a reliable sort of person.

A.L.B. Will I be able to get a job in a plant?

Ans. Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate a change in your luck for the better. And I also vision your getting the type of work you so desire. For information concerning your lucky days, I suggest you write for your Horoscope.

S. C. Will I make the trip I have in mind?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that you will get to go to St. Louis, this fall and find steady employment.

Mrs. M. L. W. Will I ever get my wish?

Ans. I suggest you consult a good women's specialist for information concerning your having children. Don't give up hope, your future looks interesting and I am sure it will be full of surprises.

Poll Tax

be abolished. The former hillbilly governor, O'Daniel, of Texas, was for the abolition of poll tax before election, just as he was for $30 a month pension. When he was elected he forgot both promises. Today "Pappy" O'Daniel is a United States Senator. He was elected by the buyers of the poll tax and not by the people of Texas.

The editor, also, pointed out Texas schools will lose $1,250,000 a year. My answer to that is: Tax the Oil Companies. Why send their profit to the east while operating in Texas? Why should the poor pay taxes and not the rich?

These facts are an indictment against the southern gentlemen from Martin Dies to Tom Connally, who sit in Congress and Senate. Did those southern representatives of the people ever expose the oil and gas interests? Did they ever call for an investigation by Congress against these companies? Why? But when it came to the wage and hour bill, they fought against it. When it came to the Wagner Bill N.L.R.B. they opposed it. And, when it comes to a bill to abolish poll tax, the race question is again in the editorials of the newspapers. Although it may be for the best interest of the majority of citizens, the editorial writer went a little too far when he said that the Wagner Bill to do away with a poll tax means "bulldozing" the south, and "selfish agitators" are trying to scare the Southern people. I think it is the editorial writer who is trying to bulldoze the Southern people when he warns if poll tax is done away with in the south, democracy and the rights of the states is gone too. It is just the other way around. In a democracy all citizens have the right to vote, and specifically stated in the Constitution of the United States. Yet a minority decides the desetiny for the majority of people and you call this democracy?

If this state of affairs is not remedied in the near future our Country will face Fascism, Nazism, and eventually the Totalitarian State. Is this what we are fighting for?

Dr. William H. Gray Elected President of Florida College

Jacksonville, Fla.—The recent election of Dr. William H. Gray as president of Florida A. and M. College is being regarded as startling evidence of the recognition now accorded Negro leadership by progressive elements in the South.

Dr. Gray at 32 becomes the youngest land-grant college president in the country. That the State Board of Control and the State Board of Education would select this young and dynamic personality to head the educational program for Negroes in Florida implies that new recognition is being given to ability and merit.

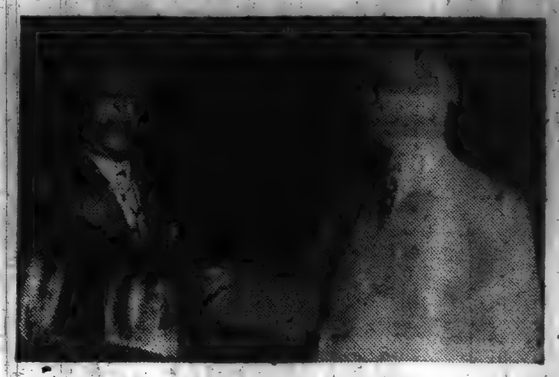
Although Dr. Gray has had a rich background of educational experience, having served as college professor, principal of the demonstration schools at Southern University, and for three years as president of Florida Normal and Industrial Institute at St. Augustine, the selection of such a youthful leader to this responsible position evidences a definite break with southern traditions.

Negro Service Unit Sidelight

French Invasion Coast — The startling ease of the Southern France invasion gives rise to two opinon trends: (1) that the Germans are about ready to fold, and (2) that the Nazis may try Anzio strategy.

One sidelight involved a colored service unit, which, with poised carbines, leaped from a landing craft into knee-deep water, and scrambled up the beach with one of them shouting:

"Okay, Master Race! Here comes some guys from Missouri!"



He cursed his luck when no Nazis appeared about and then joined his unit and moved off to his assignment.

Invasion generally working according to plan. Troops and equipment pouring in.

No Relief in Sight

NEW YORK (C).—Granted that the jitterbugs are here to stay, the nation's teachers are trying to refine it nonetheless. According to Dorothy Donelson, convention manager of the Nat'l Assn. of Dancing, a lot of the violent gymnastics have been taken out of the dance but many a teacher over the country is suffering from fallen arches trying to figure out mild substitute steps.

Approximately 789,539,380 V-Mail letters have been transmitted to and from American men and women in the armed services overseas, the Office of War Information reported this week on the basis of information from the Army and Navy Postal Services.

HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?
Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

Fannie Wililams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower

Fannie Williams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower has been on the market for years. It is a wonderful preparation. It stops harsh and brittle hair from breaking and falling. It corrects itching scalp, ring worms, tetter and eczema, and keeps your scalp in a very healthy condition. It is not a gummy or stick grower. It leaves the hair natural and soft and the hair grows rapidly.

You can get the grower at the following places:
Dorothy's Beauty Salon, 1821 Imperial Highway, Watts.
Ethical Drug Store, 1490 West Jefferson Boulevard.
Mrs. Fannie Williams, 1749 S. New Hampshire.
Mrs. Corrine Grayson, 1247 E. 53rd St.

Detective Spencer of the 77th Street Police Station is investigating the case. The deceased resided at 11008 Willowbrook. The Senior Mr. Rogers works as a ship scaler.

Negro Marine Unit Fights In Saipan

SAIPAN, Marianas Islands—(Delayed)—"Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition" became an actuality here when a Negro Marine unit including two men whose ambition it is to enter the ministry and who conduct religious services for the unit moved in with the assault troops to set a record in unloading artillery shells for the front lines.

The Negro Marines suffered their first battle casualties of the war when one was killed and four were wounded. They were thrown into front line fighting when Japanese threatened American lines and knocked at least one Jap machine gun out of action and killed several of the enemy—the first Japs sent to their ancestors by Negro Marines in this war.

Members of the unit stacked the "big stuff" in neat rows and dived into over-regulation foxholes when the Japs pattern-fired the beach with mortar and artillery shells.

"I haven't got time to think about anything but the Lord," said 19-year-old Private Edward H. Seals, son of Mrs. Emma Calhoun, 1728 Germantown Street, Dayton, Ohio. He explained that this was prompted by the crash of a Jap plane,—bested in a dog-fight with Naval aircraft—50 feet from him the night of D-day.

"I prayed night and day after that," he said.

The Negro Marines set what Second Lieutenant Howard E. Tucker, son of Mrs. J. E. Deardorff, 1236 Fifth, East, Salt Lake City, Utah, a platoon leader, believes to be a record of unloading several thousands of tons of ammunition in 38 hours.

Besides the two prospective pastors, Private First Class Fred Washington and Private First Class Augustus Witcher, the unit contained a former professional boxer, a dance band leader, several defense plant workers, a former electric washing machine salesman, and others with a wide variety of pre-Saipan occupations.

"I'm very pleased with the way they worked," said Captain Louis P. Shine, son of Mrs. Frances Shine (no street address), Osage, W. Va., unit commanding oficer.

Said the 26-year-old Guadalcanal veteran:

"I was plenty scared myself. We'd dig in our foxholes when the firing got heavy. Sometimes the men were almost completely buried in showers of sand.

What Is Music?

By GILBERT ALLEN

What is music? The answers are as many as the experiences music gives us. Musical authorities do agree that music is a succession and combination of tones arranged according to the laws of melody and harmony.

Music, like many elements in our lives, is best defined by what it does. Poets describe music as the language of the soul. Artists tell us that music is the expression of the inner emotions. Philosophers relate that music is kin to religion, both offer refuge from the world of reality.

For the lonely soldier, music brings consolation. For the weary war worker, music brings relaxation and rest for a tired mind and body. For the civilian music offers escape from a tense every day world. For the minister, music vitalizes the spiritual life of the church.

"Music is essential to harmonious living. It has the power to create new moods, dispell doubt, fear and uncertainty and substitute faith, hope, and courage. Music is an inspiring manifestation of man's triumph over all adversities."

Pvt. Collins Is At Keesler Field

KEESLER FIELD, Biloxi, Miss.—Pvt. Leroy Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Collins of Blythe, Calif. started his recruit drill this week in the Basic Training Center at Keesler Field, a unit of the Army Air Forces Training Command.

He will undergo several weeks of orientation, gas mask and bayonet drill, camouflage and physical training, and rifle firing. He then will be assigned to duty or sent to a technical school for special training.

MP DETACHMENT DOING FINE JOB IN LONDON

HEADQUARTERS EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS—In London, the world's largest city, white and Negro military police patrol the streets, and operate the radio patrol jeeps together in perfect harmony!

The MPs assigned to London walk their beat in pairs, one white and one Negro soldier, and they are exhibiting a fine spirit of commraderie under this arrangement.

Negro Marines Do Their Bit in Guam

By Sergeant Harold A. Breard, of 801 Auburn Avenue, Monroe, La., a Marine Corps Combat Correspondent, formerly of the Monroe News-Star and Morning World.

GUAM (Delayed)—Negro Marines are helping reclaim Guam for the United States.

The Negroes are getting in their licks against the Japs by "passing the ammunition." They landed under heavy enemy mortar fire a few hours after the assault waves hit the beaches.

Some were assigned to shore parties during the initial stages of the battle. Others worked the front lines, muscling cartridges and shells to the fighters.

One of the former was wounded by a mortar fragment the first night.

Later the Negroes were assigned to duty at ammunition depots established on the island.

Six-Day Week Helped L. A. County's Budget

There has been a decrease of 455 in the number of County employees on June 30th last as compared to March 30th, County Supervisors were told at their session Tuesday.

According to Supervisor Gordon L. McDonough, had it not been for the installation of the 6-day week the county would have had to employ 1,159 additional workers to do the work that is now being done by county employees on the 6th work day.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The beautiful gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scotland in Redlands was the setting of the annual scholarship tea given by the Phyllis Wheatley Unit of the W.P.S.C. The spacious patio was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Many friends and out-of-town guests were in attendance. A very interesting program was rendered. It included an address by Mrs. Ethel Hackley Butler. Mrs. J. A. John, Mrs. Arthur Gage, and Mrs. McElroy, president and precint chairman of the Republican Clubs in this city, gave interesting talks. Several Republican candidates, also gave short talks. Mrs. R. A. Wagner, chairman of ways and means and acting hostess, had arranged a repast of delicious refreshments that were enjoyed by all. Mrs. J. E. Muckelroy, president of the Anna B. Garner unit, poured tea at one of the tables; Mrs. R. H. Boyd, presdent of the Riverside unit poured at the other table. She was assisted by Mrs. Nana F. Green and Mrs. M. E. Jackson, Mrs. Betty Hughes was on hand giving very efficient service registering guests. Mrs. Robert Burton, in her very unusual manner, received and welcomed the guests. Mrs. H. G. Freeman was program chairman.

Earl Canson and Donald Williams were honored by a party given at the home of Elder and Mrs. Bontemps Saturday night. Earl, a June graduate of Loma Linda High School, will enter college at Pacific Union in Angwin, California. Donald, a student of Loma Linda High school, will continue his secondary training at Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama. The boys will be leaving some time this month.

Miss Shirley Banks entertained a large group of friends at a house party last Thursday night. All the socialites of the younger set were in attendance. Delicious refreshments were served.

CLUBS

The Anna B. Garner Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Alice York on J Street last week. A new member was taken in in the person of Mrs. Dorothy Debeal. Main discussion centered on the coming recital at which Mrs. Savage will be presented. Mrs. Saville presided in the absence of Mrs. Marie Muckelroy who was in Los Angeles attending the A.M.E. Conference.

We are happy to note that Mrs. Charlotte Obera of Central Ave. is convalescing nicely.

Mrs. Mary Alice Sneed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Freeman of Redlands, reports that her husband who is in the service, is confined to a hospital in Texas. We hope that it is not serious.

VISITORS

Mrs. Eva C. Bronson, of Lemoore, California, is spending a few days in our city visiting friends. She is on her way home from an extended trip to Chicago and cities in Michigan visiting friends.

Mrs. Julia Roberts, of Los Angeles, is the guest of her daughter Mrs. Saville on Waterman Avenue. Mrs. Roberts will spend several days with her daughter and family.

Mrs. Theresa Anderson, of Berkeley, who, with her children has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Muckelroy of Spruce street, left for home Friday.

BAKERSFIELD

The Golden Leaf Dramatic Club awarded a scholarship to Miss Virginia Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, one of Bakersfield's most outstanding families. A lovely program was rendered with closing remarks by Mrs. E. N. Austin, president of the club. The program was given at Mt. Zion Church.

Mrs. C. B. Howard is visiting friends in Reno and the Bay area.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Green of Mt. Zion Baptist Church left Wednesday for the National Convention. An appreciation meeting was held last Tuesday evening honoring the senior president of the Missionary Society, Mrs. G. A. Jackson. An interesting program was rendered.

Mrs. P. L. Winters, guest soloist and Mrs. Emma Drisdon, were guest speakers on the program. A love offering was presented Mrs. Jackson, who will leave for the National Convention convening in Memphis, Tennessee, September 6th to 10th.

The Rev. R. A. Clinton, pastor of Cain A.M.E. Church, was appointed again to serve the people of Bakersfield. His members and many friends are happy to have him return. Miss Rither Camp, delegate to the conference, is happy to know the church went over 100%. The conference was grand.

Kindred tastes, motives, and aspirations are necessary to the formation of a happy and permanent companionship.

Telephone Company Receives Award

A certificate of appreciation for loyal and patriotic service was presented to the Southern California Telephone Company last week by Colonel S. W. Stanley, signal officer of the Ninth Service Command, at ceremonies in the executive offices of the company.

Vice President George M. Jess accepted the certificate on behalf of all company personnel.

UNIONS The Wagner Act guarantees collective bargaining. Through NLRB and WLB, equal pay for equal work was established; this enabled Negroes to secure more adequate food, clothing and recreation.

JOBS Roosevelt job lines replaced Hoover bread lines. The Fair Employment Practice Committee was established to end discrimination in employment. Now 1,500,000 Negroes work in war plants.

FARMS New Deal agencies such as Farm Credit and Farm Security helped the small farmer, including more than 175,000 Negroes. Special help was extended to farm workers to become farm owners.

BUSINESS Under Roosevelt, business recovered from the Depression. Negro-owned small businesses sprang up by the thousands. Between 1933 and 1939 alone, Negro-owned retail stores increased 30%.

HOMES Negroes occupy more than one-third of the government-built, low-rent housing projects constructed since 1932. HOLC and FHA helped people to buy their own homes.

EDUCATION The NYA trained youths for jobs. The government built countless schools and made grants to Negro colleges. Negro enrollment in high schools went up 126% between 1930 and 1940.

HEALTH Through New Deal agencies, Negroes have received better medical care. The Negro death rate dropped from 16.5 per thousand in 1930 to 13.9 per thousand in 1940.

HILLMAN HITS DEWEY ON RACIAL BIAS STAND

On the Sidewalk

c.a.b.

MAYOR Fletcher Bowron was called together a group of citizens in the City Hall Tuesday afternoon at 3 p.m. to plan our Victory Day Celebration. The gathering consisted of a fine cross section of citizens representing all walks of life.

While it was agreed by all present that we should have a Victory Day Celebration, most of the representatives felt that it should not be a rabble rousing demonstration. Even if Germany is knocked out of the war tomorrow, victory is not complete until Japan is on her knees asking for mercy and for forgiveness for her sins perpetrated against China and the civilized world.

In the opinion of THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE this war is not ended until every vestige of race friction is removed from the escutcheon of our Constitution. Roosevelt, Stalin, and Churchill, the great triumvirate, have stood together—not on the sidelines—but in the middle of the fight. They see, as we do, the old world struggling to hold on but close on its heels the new world is a'borning. No, not by political juggling, or by fear of hard times in the post war period will the people turn 'round in their thinking. They know that with the death of the old regime there will be great suffering, and sacrifices must be made; but they are willing to pay the price in the homeland even as our soldiers and nurses are laying down their lives on the battlefields of Europe.

The people know that this is a people's war and they will fight until victory is won. They realize that when the nation in its making needed a father,

REVIEWS NAVY RECRUITS—Bishop J. A. Gregg of Kansas City, Kansas, with Commander Daniel W. Armstrong, Assistant Recruit Training Officer, reviews a company of Navy recruits at Camp Moffett, U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois, during his visit here last week. To the rear of the bishop is Rev. A. Wayman Ward, Chicago, Illinois, who was also in the reviewing party. The noted prelate, who has visited the bases and camps of fighting men throughout the world, was making his first tour of a Naval establishment.

Councilmen Heard In Fight On Restrictive Covenants

The status of the City Council in determining where Negroes may live was discussed by Councilmen Rasmussen and Allen before the meeting of the Property Owners Association at the California Eagle Building last Friday evening. The Councilmen came at the invitation of the Association to discuss with the property owners the origin of restrictive covenants and rights of the citizens affected.

Council Rasmussen referred to the Annual Report of the City Planning Commission for the year 1943 for statistics regarding the distribution of Negro residents in Metropolitan Los Angeles. This report, he stated, disclosed the fact that although the greater concentrations of Negroes appear to be in the Southeasterly portion of the city, Negro citizens are by no means restricted to this area.

NO POWER

Just how far the City Council can go in either imposing or causing restrictive covenants to be lifted was also discussed. The general opinion was to the effect that the City Council has no power to determine where Negroes may live.

The Property Owners Association, organized to find methods of combating the proposed restriction of Negroes from areas bordering on Central Avenue, is formulating plans for action and invites all property owners, Negro and white to join with them on Friday evening, Sept. 15, at the California Eagle Building.

Pasadena NAACP Mass Meeting Sunday To Celebrate Race-Restriction Victory

PASADENA.—There will be a giant mass meeting and rally Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. at the Scotts Methodist church, 55 Mary street. This meeting and rally is in celebration of the victory in the Raines Restriction case. That the NAACP has been fighting, and with the cooperation of those persons that believe in the four freedoms and democratic rites to all.

The case was carried to the supreme court where the body ruled in favor of the defendants. Thanks to the untiring efforts of Atty. Lester Peterman who represented the NAACP and the Raines in the case.

On Sunday Attorney Peterman will tell how the case was won in the supreme court. Also on the program to speak that day will be Mr. Louan Carter, famous radio drama producer and director whose studios in Hollywood are second to none for production of all types of plays. He will speak on the opportunities now open to the Negro in radio to those that are prepared. While in Pasadena he will also look for prospective trainees.

Also on this program will be a surprise speaker on current events and happenings in the community. A large crowd is expected to be present. As the NAACP programs are limited to one and a half hours.

Sailor Killed By An Angry Bartender

Aben Johns, U. S. Navy, stationed at the Naval drydock at San Pedro, lies dead today because pistols are a dime a dozen, and the law seems to be looking the other way. Johns was shot in cold blood Tuesday night in a bar at 5403 Central avenue by Thomas Contee, 51, a bartender.

Contee, who lives at 4426 Towne avenue, engaged in an argument with Johns over the payment for a bottle of beer. When Johns did not respond to verbal persuasion, Contee came from behind the bar, drew his gun, and shot the sailor. Contee is charged with murder; Johns is dead, because few men stop to reason when they have a pistol in their pocket.

Robert Minor Speaks On October 22nd at Shrine Auditorium

Well known here, Robert Minor, vice-president of the Communist Political Association, will address a mass meeting at the Shrine Auditorium, October 22, as part of a West Coast political tour in which he will stop off here for three days.

The veteran Marxist of many occupations—he was a leading cartoonist on America's major newspapers before joining the Communist movement — is well-known to the West Coast. He started his career in Texas of old pioneer stock and was the first secretary of the Tom Mooney Defense Committee.

NOW SERVING OVERSEAS—Sgt. Richard H. Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Cannon, 4173 Compton Ave., is now serving in the U. S. armed forces somewhere in the South Pacific. He is the husband of Mrs. Bertha Eddins Cannon, also of this city.

Police Commissioners Seek Authority for Stronger Discipline

The Board of Police Commissioners, meeting in regular session last Tuesday, took steps to correct the fault in Section 202 of the City Charter which completely deprive the Board of authority and withholds from them the right and power to suspend, remove, or otherwise punish any officer or employee of the Police Department for any misconduct, dereliction of duty or other offense.

New York Governor's Record Under Fire

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y.—In a blistering attack upon Thomas E. Dewey's record as governor, PAC Chairman Sidney Hillman told delegates to the State CIO Convention here Saturday that the GOP presidential nominee had completely dodged the issue of racial discrimination. At the same time Hillman asserted that Dewey's "interest in the affairs of the nation and of the world seem to have awakened simultaneously with his ambition to become President." He accused the New York governor of currying favor like the late Warren G. Harding with both the isolationists and the internationalists in the Republican Party.

Hillman charged that Dewey "disregarded both the findings and the proposals" of the State Committee on Discrimination in Employment. Rather than take action on the proposals, the PAC chairman asserted, Dewey secured adoption by the state legislature of a bill providing that "there should be another committee to study the findings of the previous committee."

NO SEAT!—NO VOTE!

Hillman pointed out that the States' Rights doctrine endorsed by Dewey and the GOP would place the future of Southern Negroes in the hands of state legislatures "in which no Negro

Men Held for Murder Of Nathan Rogers, Jr.

Fred Billingslea, 51, a transient, was arrested this week and charged with murder of Nathaniel Rogers, Jr., 16-year-old employe of Western Pipe and Steel, who was found on the sidewalk last week in front of 1717 East 103rd street, his jugular vein severed.

Billingslea claimed that he stabbed Rogers in self defense after the youth had removed his shirt in preparation to carry out a threat to beat him up. The knife, Billingslea said, was given to him by Mattie Baker who was present during the argument, which reportedly was over a woman in which both the victim and the accused were interested.

★ With Our Troops in France ★

This story is from the Pen of JOHN S. KINLOCH, Special War Correspondent for The CALIFORNIA EAGLE and the American Press.

With American Forces in France—The last time I saw Paris was eight hours ago.

I got there in a convoy of trucks guided by battle-hardened Negro drivers out rounding up prisoners held in places nearby.

When you read this, our possession of the city will have slipped into weeks, maybe a month or so.

But today, August 28, 1944, we are living through the first week of the liberation of the capital of France. Ticking past now are the first few hours in four endless years that the Germans have been unable to boast of "our Paris."

Fifteen hundred days ago, in marched the Nazis, little Jim-Crow signs tucked under their arms to tack up in the fashionable clubs of the Montmartre: No Jews! No Negroes! Forty-eight months ago Hitler declared that his occupation of France was to save the French people from "negroization."

And now, the herrenvolk, Jim-Crow signs, Aryan

Baby Girl Born To Attorney and Mrs. Griffith

Attorney and Mrs. Thomas L. Griffith, Jr. are the proud parents of a baby girl, Lisa Jane, born Sunday, September 10th at 12:30 a.m. at the Methodist Hospital of Southern California. It is their third child. Both the mother, Portia Hoyles Griffith, and the baby are doing fine and are expected home soon.

PRESIDENT 10 YEARS

The father, who is relinquishing out his tenth year as president of the Local NAACP, has achieved an enviable record in cementing racial relationships and building the strength of the organization. Recently through his leadership, the membership drive went over the top with a record of having raised $500 more than has ever been subscribed in a similar drive on the Pacific coast.

The NAACP chairman enjoys the full support of the entire community leadership, and he has been successful in his practice, one of the most notable of his recent cases being the settlement before trial of the suit brought by white and Negro employees of the Pacific Sound Company against the South Seas Cafe in Hollywood for refusal to serve the mixed group.

Washington came forward. When greed bred slavery in the new nation that was conceived in liberty, and the people were hopelessly divided, and the nation was about to be destroyed, Abraham Lincoln came out of the depth and saved the nation.

America has grown up; Europe has grown old. The Fascist tyrant grew big and strong. He looked out upon the nations that surrounded him and concluded that in his own strength he could destroy all.

Things have changed since Washington and Lincoln's time—the world must be redeemed; the call went out—Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the man who was acquainted with suffering, answered. He realized that he was not undertaking an easy task. He knew that the race hating epidemic that had broken out in Germany had its roots in every part of the world and that his and our nation was seriously endangered.

The first meeting of the trinity was called. Said they, "This is not a one-man job; we, Stalin, Churchill, and Roosevelt, must work it out together. This mighty combination has worked; it is still working. To remove one link of this chain would be equivalent to tearing out part of the foundation of Westminster Abbey.

So let us as a nation be not disturbed by political bombast at this time. With our prayers, tears, and faith triumphant o'er our fears let us march on with Roosevelt leading until victory is won. Then all the Americans of every race, color, and creed, and all the peoples of the world will join in one Victory Day celebration.

Kinloch's Report

supremacy and all, have turned their tails and fled, lying and cheating to the end, proclaiming Paris open and then shelling and bombing it.

Only yesterday their snipers attempted to assasinate Degaulle on the city streets.

Yes, the Nazis are stumbling backward across the slashed and bleeding face of the land they stole, a grey, poisonous slime receding steadily to the borders of the Reich—and beyond.

These are the first hours of a new, free Paris. This moment is the bat of an eye-lash between eras.

I hitch-hiked my way to the city. Out chasing a story, there's no difference between a guy from Army Public Relations and any other newspaperman in these parts. You take what you can get and you are damn glad to have it.

In war, nobody can find anything. The prisoner concentrations we were to locate near Paris didn't appear to exist. Our trip ticket was scrutinized by at least one fifth of the MP's in France. Still no prisoners. So we went searching—by way of the Champs Elyses and under the Arc de Triumphe.

It was dawn, and a hesitant silver light slithered across the grand boulevards and cobble-stone side streets. Early as it was, people were out in great numbers.

The morning sprawled, yawned and suddenly let out a whoop. As though someone had pressed a button, the sun burst into view and with it all the rest of the population of Paris.

A great city freshly liberated is like a bride. It is flushed and gay and wants to be kissed. The villages and one-whistle-stops may take the thing calmly, but not a town like this.

Grimy and dirty as we were, a dozen times our trucks were stopped by people who wanted to shake our hands, wave the tricolor in our faces and plop enthusiastic kisses on both sides of our cheeks.

An MP told us that this had been going on for four days, even while snipers infect some sections and the war has scarcely moved to the outskirts of town.

But finally some dolt gave us the correct directions to the prisoner concentrations and we headed out of the city, with people on every street corner waving us on . . .

Yes, the last time I saw Paris her heart was young and gay!

I guess that is an experience which ought to brighten up Kinloch's Corner in this war a little bit. Don't you agree?

Give my love to everybody quite worthy of it. Keep the major hunk for yourself.

Second Annual Conference On Childhood and Youth, Sept. 25

Delegates to the second Conference on Childhood and Youth in Wartime, scheduled as a one-day conclave on Monday, September 25, in the Ambassador Hotel, many of whom attended the initial Conference two years ago, already are expressing their enthusiasm over hearing the announcement that Miss Charlotte Whitten, child welfare consultant of the Canadian government, will again be one of the outstanding speakers here in youth problems during war years.

THRICE DECORATED

According to Glenn A. Armstrong, executive secretary Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association and program chairman of the Conference, Miss Whitton, who was the keynoter at the initial Conference, will be the headline speaker of the closing session of the one-day meeting, which starts at 7:30 p.m. She is a recognized authority throughout the world on child welfare and has been decorated three times by the Kings of England for her outstanding work.

Another outstanding speaker, who will open the Conference, is Dr. Leonard Mayo, Western Reserve University, who is president of the Child Welfare League of America and one-time director of the child care division of the United States Committee for the Care of European the keynote address at the breakfast meeting in the Ebbassy Room at 8:30 a.m., stressing "Look to Our Youth, for They Are Our Future."

PANEL CHAIRMEN

Acting as panel chairmen for the Conference discussions will be Dr. Robert A. McKibben, All Nations Foundation; Dr. Raymond McKelvey, Southern California Council Inter-American Affairs; Mrs. Kendal Frost, board member of Children's Bureau, and Mrs. Maynard Toll, president Family Welfare Association. Chairman of the resolutions committee will be Mrs. Rollin Brown, chairman of the City War Council's committee on Childhood and youth.

Mayor Fletcher Bowron will be honorary chairman of the Conference on Childhood and Youth in Wartime, which is being sponsored by the Council of Social Agencies, Community Welfare Federation, Coordinating Councils, City Board of Education, County Board of Education, City War Council, County War Council, California Youth Authority and Parent Teacher Association.

Love and Hinds Operate Seaside Service Station

Don Love and Kenneth Hinds, both well known throughout this community, are operating the Seaside Service Station at 51st and Main.

Don has been in the insurance business here for the past seven years and Kenneth has been handling coin operated machines. Both have had considerable experience in service station operation. Their station is the only Negro operated service station on Main street and is a picture of cleanliness and efficiency. The boys have some new ideas for the operation of this station and they are going to put them into effect as soon as possible. In the meantime they ask their many friends to drop in and see them and look over their complete facilities. In addition to handling Seaside gasoline and motor oils, the boys will have complete automotive maintenance, tires, tubes, batteries and accessories. Also, car wash and polish.

They have only been in their new location for about two weeks and they have already begun to show what hard work and good ideas will do in producing business.

the west side and in the Little Tokyo section.

The fear that school children, victimized by these racketeers whose only desire is to grow rich, will spend their lunch money to play the numbers, and that gang warfare will break out over the competition between rival outfits, has prompted Lawson to raise his voice against them, which he says he will continue to do until they are run out of town.

Despite the cold-blooded manner in which these number racketeers contribute to the delinquency and break down the morale of young boys and girls, they have asserted that they will continue operating regardless of the cost or consequences, according to Lawson.

Pointing out that the men who run the numbers racket are dangerous and will stop at nothing to make it possible for them to continue in their unholy trade, the radio commentator stated that he is fully determined to expose their robbery through the press and over the air.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Wounded in action recently on the European front was Sgt. Louis M. Lacassie, whose mother, Mrs. Annie Lacassie resides at 246 East 27th Street in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Beulah Arnaud Granted a Divorce

Mrs. Beulah Arnaud, well known civic worker was awarded a meritorious divorce on the grounds of mental and physical cruelty in Judge Kaufman's Court last week, after the judge had ordered a portion of the evidence which had previously been stricken from the record, restored.

Mrs. Arnaud is the mother of four children, all of whom are well known in the city. Reginald Arnaud is an officer in the army, Dorothy Arnaud Lee is a member of the younger married set, Paul is awaiting induction into the army, and Muriel is a student at Foshay Junior High School. Much credit is due Mrs. Arnaud for her outstanding work in the community.

Man Charged With Murder

Finis Arbuckle, 695 E. 21st st., was held to answer on a charge of murder following a preliminary hearing last Thursday afternoon, by Judge Leroy Dawson. The accused man is charged with the murder of Don Castleberry, discharged soldier, in front of a Central Ave. cafe on August 24th at 21st and Central Ave. Arbuckle confessed that he did commit the crime, but that he did so because the dead man and another man had held him up at the point of a knife several hours before and robbed him of a small sum of money. He was ordered to appear with his Attorney, Curtis C. Taylor, in Dept. 40 on Sept. 25th for plea.

may sit and for the election at which no Negro may vote."

States' Rights, he said, is the one issue on which Dewey has taken a clear stand. He said the Governor had made it "abundantly clear" that he favors the curtailment of the use of Federal power and that he believes that health, education, living standards and working conditions are primarily a concern of state and local governments.

65th Anniversary

Eagle to Give Attractive Book As Premium With Subscriptions

The California Eagle is happy to announce that the attractive little volume, "Stories From the Working Man's Book," by Marian Inglewood, is to be a part of the campaign for the 65th anniversary of The Eagle. It will be given as a premium for every cash subscription for one year to The Eagle.

"Stories From the Working Man's Book" are stories from the Bible, interpreted from a working man's point of view. These stories are not told in any ecclesiastical tone. There are no high-sounding phrases or words. The language is simple, so that any child can understand them, but at the same time the interpretation is so new and realistic that adults will enjoy them as well.

"Stories From the Working Man's Book" should be in the library of every working man. This little volume will help make real the new world we are creating, the world where there shall be freedom from want and from fear, the very Kingdom of Heaven, so Marian Inglewood says, which Jesus taught when he was upon the earth.

Discontinuance of the use of the one-point blue tokens, effective October 1, was announced last week by OPA Administrator Chester Bowles.

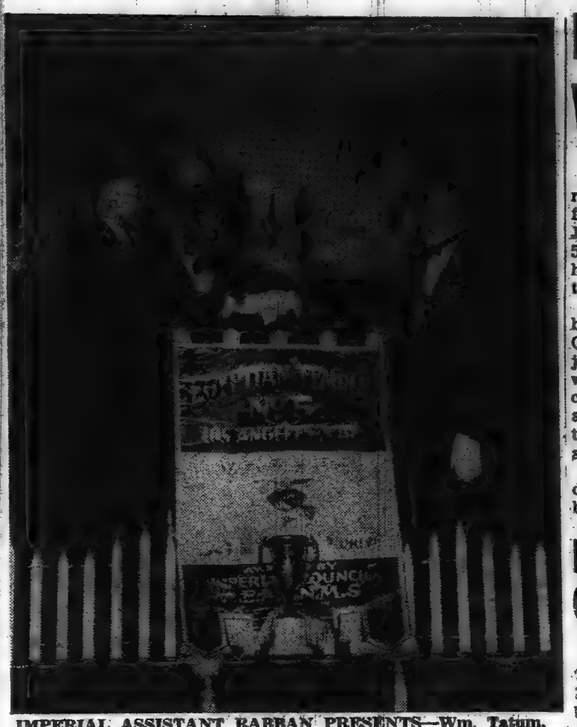
Helps Construct China Lifeline

PASADENA—Corp. Robert M. Carr, son of Mrs. Florence R. Carr, of 932 Cypress avenue, has for the past seven months been stationed along the Ledo road, lifeline to China which Brig-Gen. Lewis A. Pick's engineers are forging across the north-Burma mountains. Carr, who attended Pasadena Junior College, was employed by the Kaiser Ship-building Corp. of Richmond, Calif., prior to serving with the Armed Forces. Carr is authorized to wear the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with one Bronze Star.



People's Committee, Mobilization for Registration Opens

A "Get Your Neighbor To Register" mobilization, concentrating on wives, husbands, neighbors, sweethearts and friends will be launched on Sunday afternoon at the Roosevelt Headquarters, 41st and Central, in the California Eagle Building. Launched under the auspices of the People's Committee for Political Action of the 62nd Assembly District, the campaign will be non-partisan in scope and purpose, having for its goal the registration of every possible eligible voter in the district.

Every one is invited to attend and become a part of the drive. Supper will be served at 5:00 p.m. and an interesting program will be offered.

With the closing date just two weeks off, the People's Committee is redoubling its efforts to achieve a full registration.

IMPERIAL ASSISTANT RABBAN PRESENTS—Wm. Tatum, Potentate of Egyptian Temple, is shown receiving a Banner and Loving Cup from Imperial Assistant Rabban, Joe Oliver, in the presence of over a hundred Nobles who gathered at the Masonic Hall last Saturday night to greet the delegates who had returned from the recent convention in Indianapolis, and to hear their reports. Presented to Oliver at the convention in tribute to Egyptian Temple for having sent the most neophytes over the hot sands in the past ten years, the Banner and Cup further distinguish Egyptian Temple, which is the largest unit in the Domain. Joe Oliver, the only national officer ever to come from the west, was rewarded for his efforts by being elected for three instead of the usual one year. Much of the success of Egyptian Temple is due to the efforts of Oliver and Past Potentate, Clarence Armour. Next year's convention will be held in Philadelphia. Left to right, those shown in the picture are, Joe Oliver, Imperial Assistant Rabban; Past Potentate Clarence Armour and Wm. Tatum, Illustrious Potentate.

Negro Women Lawyers of State of California

By ZEPHYR M. RAMSEY
(Of the California Bar)

For several months, friends of mine have asked me to publish an article clarifying information concerning the number of Negro women who have been admitted to the California bar. I am not sure that I have complete data on the subject for the flow of race women into the legal field in California, as in other states, has been slow and at such intervals that often a new member has been heralded the first and given fanfare to that effect.

Such was the case with me when I was admitted to the California bar in 1930 and opened offices in the New Elks' Building on Central avenue in Los Angeles. While it is true that I was the first race woman to open an office and engage in private practice in the state of California, I was not the first to be admitted to the California bar. Unfortunately, the words "first" and "only" are too often used at random and denote limit rather than progress.

The facts, so far as I know them to be, are these: Miss Virginia Stephens of Oakland, California, a graduate of the law school of the University of California, passed the state bar examination in 1928 and was the first to be admitted. Miss Stephens was, at the time, secretary and business manager of the famous Stephens Cafe, owned an operated by her father in the city of Oakland, and she continued in that capacity until his death a few years later. Following her father's death, she practiced for a period in the law offices of Attorney Bussey of San Francisco. She is at present employed by the State of California at Sacramento.

I was the next, being admitted in Los Angeles in 1930. While engaging in private practice in the Elks' Building, I passed the United States Civil Service examination for attorneys and accepted a position in the Public Assistance Division of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration at Washington, D. C. After a number of years in the federal service, I have returned to California and am practicing in Los Angeles County with offices in Pasadena.

Miss Tobiatha Anderson of San Francisco, a graduate of the law school of Howard University, passed the state bar examination in 1933 and opened offices immediately in San Francisco. Her untimely death in 1936 ended a promising career with a number of unusual cases to her credit. Miss Anderson, according to my records, was the third to practice law in California.

Fourth, and off to an excellent start, is Mrs. Martha Malone Williams of Los Angeles. Mrs. Williams was admitted to the bar in San Francisco in December, 1943, and opened offices in Los Angeles in January of this year. She is at present located in the National Title Building in downtown Los Angeles.

These are the women, personally known to me, who have been licensed to practice law in California. There are four in number. All have been practitioners.

Institute On Music Opens at UCLA Today

The Institute on Music in Contemporary Life, sponsored by the Musicians Congress and the University of California at Los Angeles, will be held September 14th—17th on the Los Angeles campus of the University.

At the Writers Congress held last October, the necessity and desire for close collaboration between writer and musician was expressed in several panels such as THE FEATURE FILM, MUSIC IN WAR and SONG-WRITING IN WAR.

LAWSON-CHAIRMAN

In addition to Emmet Lavery, who will address the opening session, some of the writers participating in this important Congress and who will speak on subjects closely related to the work of writers, will be Paul Green, who will talk on MUSIC AND ITS ALLIED ARTS IN A DEMOCRATIC CIVILIZATION; John Howard Lawson, who will act as Chairman in the forum on MUSIC AND THE OTHER ARTS; Arnold Marquis and Cal Kuhl, who will speak in the forum MUSIC ON THE AIR; Vladimir Pozner, whose paper will tell the fascinating story of a songwriter in Nazi Germany; and James Hilton, who will address the final session on THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE INSTITUTE.

DOLL LEAGUE DOES IT AGAIN!

Charming members of Doll League Charity Club were guests of Mrs. Clara Taylor, for Sunday morning breakfast, at her beautiful home. This club will act as hostesses Sunday afternoon for congenial Joe Morris at his famous Club Plantation, at which time Count Basie will be featured. Louise Beavers of stage and screen note is sponsor of this organization, and Laura Slayton, popular clubwoman and civic leader, is founder-advisor. If you wish to see the elite of the Angel City, plus a galaxy of stars, you will be there . . . AND I DO MEAN YOU.

FETES HUSBAND ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary Jural of 1373 East 18th street entertained some forty guests in honor of her husband, Saul Jural's birthday Sunday afternoon. The affair was lovely in every detail. The party was a complete surprise to Mr. Jural, and as he walked in the door of his home, he was unexpectedly greeted by a host of friends, while a phonograph record played "Happy Birthday to You." Always the perfect hostess, Mrs. Jural had prepared all sorts of palatable dishes for the occasion. Starting with cocktails and hors 'd ouvres, the evening was topped off with a delicious ham dinner, and ice cream and cake for dessert. Many lovely gifts were opened by the honored guest, and the greeting cards were read for the enjoyment of all. This was indeed one of the most delightful birthday parties it has ever been my good pleasure to attend. Everyone who was present will bear me out.

"BETWEEN FRIENDS" GETS A SCOOP

Lena Edwards and DeVere, the photog, editors of the rotogravure section of the California Eagle, are ever on the alert for news. They were on hand at the grand opening of Count Basie's band at the Club Plantation last Thursday evening and took some very exclusive photos of many Hollywood stars who turned out en masse to greet the Count.

VACATIONS END

Returning to their homes and businesses again, after enjoying wonderful vacations in various spots are Dr. Howard H. Allen, Dr. A. Thomas King, Mrs. Vassie Reese; due to return in the next few days are Eloise Plicque, secretary to Dr. Allen, who has been visiting in Chicago; and Mrs. Hortense Allen, his wife, who has been studying in Lima, Peru. Real estate man, A. P. Dourousseau, and family, should be planing in from Mexico City soon . . . ditto . . . Jerry and Joyce Stewart. Mrs. Ora Causby, busy real estate woman, spent a very restful weekend in Elsinore, from which she has returned quite refreshed.

ODDS AND ENDS . . .

Mr. Sylvester Johnson, of Chicago, distinguished baritone and member of the Nathaniel Dett Club, is the houseguest of Mrs. Ella Pughsley on East 45th street.

Miss Gloria Mims of Pasadena, popular younger-setter, will entrain on Saturday for Chicago, with her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Dickerson, where she will spend the winter. This makes the second, in a trio of former Pasadena J. C. coed chums to part and go their separate ways; the first being Paullyn Garner, Jr. The third and last remaining one, Dorothy Prince, is still at home with her grandparents, the Prince's, pioneer Californians, who live in Kensington Place.

Well, my dear readers, the column grows lengthy again, and so I must save the other good things for another time. Thanks, so much, for taking time out to read these notes. 'Bye.

Give Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Adams of 3416½ Walton, were host and hostess to a delicious dinner party honoring Mrs. Ora Marion and small daughter, Ida Marie, of Dewey, Oklahoma, Mrs. Ida Palmer of Kansas City, Kansas, and Mrs. Allen of Chicago, Ill.

Other guests included Mrs. Mary Warren, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell and Mrs. A. C. Capers, wife of Rev. A. C. Capers. Mrs. Allen is the mother of Mrs. aCpers. Mrs. Ora Marion is the sister of Mrs. Mary Warren, and Mrs. Maxwell.

Mrs. Marion also expects to visit San Diego, Richmond, California, and Portland, Oregon, before returning home.

Veterans Have 60 Days To Choose Between Jobs

A veteran who wishes to change from a former civilian position does not need a certificate of availability from the U.S. Employment Service and may take any postion he likes. This freedom of choice extends for 60 days from the date when he accepts initial civilian employment.

Susie A. Edmonds Is Back In City

Miss Susie Anita Edmonds, 1251 West 36th Street, arrived home Thursday from a delightful visit in Little Rock, Arkansas, where she was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Edmonds.

Many social courtesies were extended the charming Miss Edmonds during her six weeks sojourn in her home city. Civic and social leaders were lavish in their entertainment of their hometown girl, who has become one of Los Angeles' outstanding business women.

Homecoming with Miss Edmonds was her brother, the Reverend William Edmonds and his son, Cornelius, of Baltimore, Maryland, and her two sisters, Mrs. Mary Lee Bryant, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Lulu Edmonds Brown, of Chicago.

Mrs. Treopa Graveley, assistant principal and dean of girls, Dunbar High School, and Mrs. Cleo Jackson and Mrs. L. L. McDowell, both teachers in the city schools, elaborately entertained for Miss Edmonds. Reverend and Mrs. Wiley Edmonds, uncle and aunt, respectively, of Texarkana, Arkansas, were hosts to their niece for a week's sojourn in their very beautiful home.

Delightfully refreshed from her vacationing in the Southland, Miss Edmonds will resume the executive direction of her catering company.

Pasadena Girls Club Guests of Club Plantation

Club Plantation will be the scene of one of the largest crowds of the season tonight, Thursday, when the Pasadena Club girls are guests of honor of genial Joe Morris and his ace attraction, Count Basie's orchestra.

Proceeds of the gala affair will go towards furnishing and equipping a day room for soldiers stationed at the Sixth Ferrying command at Long Beach.

Servicemen from the various camps all over the southland have indicated they will be present. Advance ticket sales to the general public have likewise been most heartening, according to members of the sponsoring organization.

As an added treat, Etta Moten, star of Porgy and Bess and several members of the cast have promised to be present to assist in making the evening a grand success.

Orange Blossom Club Meeting

The Orange Blossom Club and its auxiliary of Daughter Elks met last month in the beautiful Rumpus Room at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Kimbrough, 1420 E. 49th Street with a large group in attendance.

At the close of a lovely meeting a delicious supper was served by Mrs. Kimbrough, th hostess. The next regular meeting will be held on Friday night, September 22 at the home of Mrs. S. P. Johnson, 834 E. 28th St.

On the sick list: Mrs. Ella S. White, the club's persident and her husband, Mr. George P. White. Both have been confined to their home but are improving nicely. We club members wish them a speedy recovery.

Les Petite Madames Club

Mrs. Thelma Jean Fambro entertained her club, the Les Petite Madames with a formal dinner party at 688 E. 40th Place Sunday. A very delightful dinner was served.

Guests present were: Mesdames Clotelia Nelson, Gertrude Arnold, Messrs. B. Simpson, E. Skogg, Ateman, A. V. Wofford, Ashford, Taylor, P. Williams and Miles. Club members are Mesdames Louise Ateman, Leverne Williams, Ruth Lindsey, Mildred Miles, Patty Ruth Mack, Marie Calup, Willa Mae Taylor, Mary Louise Ashford and Clara Bell Wofford.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Ruth Lindsey at 720 Wilshire Blvd. on Sept. 24.

Fifth Avenue Club

Mrs. Delia Porche of West 36th Place was hostess last Sunday afternoon to the Fifth Avenue Club for their regular business meeting. Last month the club gave their first annual picnic in Griffith Park. The outing was a grand success attended by over one hundred guests.

The club calendar includes many interesting events for the rest of the year. Mrs. Pauline Stokely is president and Mrs. Edna Lawrie, reporter.

TO RE-WED "HER JOE"—Lovely Dorothy Ridgell-Cook returned to St. Louis this week after spending a ten day vacation in Chicago with her popular ex-husband, Joe Ridgell. After the two were honored at many social and night club parties, they decided to re-marry on Christmas Eve in the "Windy City." After a whirlwind courtship the couple married in 1942. Mrs. Cook is the daughter of Mrs. Rachel Cook of 4353 Ajdine street, St. Louis, Mo., while Mr. Ridgell is one of the sportsman and a Regal theatre official.—(PPNS).

The George Harrises Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, 275 West Washington street, gave a garden dinner Friday evening honoring Mrs. L. Vera Poole and her daughter, Miss LaVaughn Poole. The garden presented a very gay festive atmosphere with the right coloring of Far Eastern lanterns, soft lights and the scent of night blooming Jasmine and honeysuckle. Assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Loretta Grant and their son, the Reverend Lloyd Calmore, Mr. and Mrs. Harris received the guests via the drive entering the garden.

The dinner legion included the Rev. and Mrs. George Robert Garner, Rev. and Mrs. Walter J. Bryant, Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Ford, Messrs. and Mesdames Roy Turner, Van Williams, Herbert Lampkin, Columbus Brent, William Gilchrist, James Woods, Nelson Foster, R. Vaughn, William Corry, Fletcher Smith, S. Frierson, Homer Rowan, Ernest Griffin, James Edwards, W. Gillem, Sherman Overr, W. D. Edson, L. G. Groner, O. Bishop Gregg and Other Dignitaries Visit Naval Center

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Sept. 7.—Bishop J. A. Gregg, the noted Negro prelate of Kansas City, Kan., Presiding Bishop of the Fourth Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and several other church dignitaries were visitors to the huge U. S. Naval Training Center, here, last week.

The bishop, who has visited Army camps and bases in many sections of the world was making his first to a Naval establishment. The other members of the visiting party included Reverend R. A. Adams, Presiding Elder, Kansas City, Kan.; Mrs. Mary Scott, Chicago, Ill., and Reverend A. Wayman Ward, pastor of Bethel A.M.E. Church, Chicago, Ill.

Lilac Girls Meet

Mrs. Velda Thompson played hostess last Friday to the Lilac Girls Club. The meeting was called to order by the persident, Mrs. Anna Washington. Gratitude is expressed by the members to all who helped make the barn dance a success.

A lovely repast was served and three changes of bridge played. First prize went to Mrs. Anna Washington, second, Sarah Cage and third, Mrs. Freda Meyers. A lovely evening was enjoyed by all.

Teacher-Librarian Departs for Texas

Mrs. Willia M. Beavers of Wichita Falls, Texas, sister of Mrs. Verdie V. L. Donald, and Dr. E. L. Langrum, returned home Tuesday afternoon after spending the summer in the Golden West. She attended the Summer Session at USC, taking a course in Library Science. Mrs. Beavers is a teacher-librarian in the Washington High School in Wichita Falls.

Eastside Settlement House Activities

Special Summer activities at Eastside Settlement House were varied and well received by the community. Among the special events, aside from the regular activities, were two Day Camps, several educational tours, a melon feast, and Singspirationals. This series of special events were very fittingly closed with a picnic at Lincoln Park recently. The many children and adults in attendance enjoyed sports, relays and the usual activities included in such outings.

Activities for children, ages 6-16, include classes for beginners in piano (limited as to number enrolled) groups, clubs, crafts and recreation; adult activities include music (limited as to number enrolled), knitting, sewing, discussion groups, and a community choral group. For information a call ADams 9939, or visit the Settlement House at 1219 East Adams Blvd., Leola Wilson, President; Nettie B. Reese, Executive Driector, and Irma Ramsay Clark, Group Worker.

Texans Leave City

Mrs. R. M. Catchings, sister of Mrs. E. B. Leonard, and Mrs. Belle S. Leonard, sister-in-law of the Leonards, departed for their homes after several weeks of vacation in our city. Mrs. Catchings, who is a teacher in the city schools of Houston, Texas, reports a most enjoyable visit with her mother Mrs. Dora Maynard. Mrs. Leonard is treasurer and ardent worker of Saint Paul Methodist Church, San Antonio. The many guests who ca tonio. The many guests who came to bid them farewell the evening before their departure surprised Mrs. B. Leonard with beautiful gifts for her birthday. Delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

Mysterious Nine In Gala Picnic

Members of the Mysterious Nine Bridge Club of Long Beach entertained their families and friends on a picnic last Sunday at the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith at Corona. The party assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Howard and went in a group, arriving at the ranch about 10:30 a.m.

Dinner was spread on the spacious front lawn of the ranch at noon, after which games and contests for prizes in which all participated continuously until 5 o'clock. The group left for their homes after having had a most enjoyable outing.

Many of the guests were from Los Angeles. Mrs. Calloway of Minden, Louisiana, who is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Enos Calloway of Long Beach, was also a guest. Mrs. Katherine Howard is the President of the club and Mrs. Dorothy is Secretary.

Cocktails And Dinner for 20

Mrs. Pearl V. Coker of 1962½ Central Ave., entertained twenty guests at cocktails and dinner Sunday evening, Sept. 3rd at the Villa Arlington, honoring mesdames Bell S. Leonard of San Antonio, Texas, and R. M. Catchings of Houston, relatives and houseguests of Mr. and Mrs E. B. Leonard.

After dinner coffee was served in the salon, while Mrs. Velma Wood Williams played a group of Chopin numbers. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Leonard, Alonzo Allen, R. I. Smith, Willie Williams, the Campbells, and others.

Dinner Party Is Given for Guest From Crescent City

As a farewell to Mrs. Loutensa Arnett, prominent business and church woman of New Orleans, La., Mrs. Bertha Thomas, 1146 E. 46th Street, was hostess at a Southern fried chicken dinner on the eve of Mrs. Arnett's departure for home. Refreshing drinks were also served.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mason, Mesdames Gladys Hart, Janie Champine, Helen Smith, Messrs. Henderson Porter, Robert Blunt, Theodore Smith and others.

Mrs. Arnett spent an enjoyable vacation in Los Angeles. Her daughter is Miss Evelyn Arnett of New Orleans, a social service worker. They reside at 1208 LaSalle Street in the Crescent City.

Honor Dr. Leonard Stovall With Testimonial Dinner

A cross section of the city's most active citizens paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Leonard Stovall at a dinner, which was sponsored by the Business Men's Unit of the Outdoor Life and Health Association. Business, professional, laboring and sporting men pledge their support to the Durate Rest Home by subscribing $1149 toward the payment of the $10,000 mortgage.

Fred Roberts, chairman of the arrangement committee, introduced John Fowler, the master of ceremonies. The guest speaker was Hal Styles, the man who sponsored the famous "Love Thy Neighbor" program. He promised to give the Outdoor Life and Health Association $1300 worth of radio time to help the drive.

Among the other speakers were Ted LeBerthon, Judge Stanley Mosk, L. G. Robinson, Dr. H. C. Hudson, L. M. Blodgett, Dr. C. C. Harwell, and Mrs. Fannie Williams, sponsor for the Assistance League.

A benefit prize fight will be held at the Olympic auditorium on September 26, and all are urged to help sell the tickets.

The sum of $1149 was subscribed by the following: Rich Baker led with $121; L. G. Robinson, $100; Dr. H. C. Hudson, $100; Captain Taylor, $105; Dr. Jeff D. Fowler $102; L. M. Blodgett, $130; Dr. C. What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

The Panelogue out on UCLA's campus is one of the most recent clubs organized for the creation of racial unity. For the past year or so, the organized members held panel discussions for Fraternal, sororital, civic and political organizations, pointing out and answering questions for creating racial unity. Representatives of minority groups and religious denominations make up the club. In the past, the Panelogue membership included three or four members from each group. Ernie Mae Maxey, Ouida Pruit and Connie Fortiet, qualified public speaking students ably represented the tan toned lads and lassies of the campus. This semester finds the organization increased in number with a program for doing bigger and better work. Understand that panels will be held at the different High schools over the city. Newest additions to the organization include seven Negro students.

ROUND TOWN AGAIN

Cpl. Horace Clark Jr. left his G. I. residence in Camp Pickett Virginia, to spend a two week furlough in good ole L. A. The very lovely Beverly (Horace's better half), arrived in town with her hubby and enjoyed oodles of feteing. Horace departed last Wednesday for Pickett, but the Mrs. is remaining in the city, on "Blue Berry Hill" with the Clark Sr's in order to wait the arrival of the expected bundle of joy sometime 'round November . . .

Also dashing into town last week was Phyllis Hoxie. The popular deb evaded her top ranking position at Fort Ord and graced L. A. with her pleasing personality. Looking only too fine, new hair style, same dimples and flashing smile, she gaily told tentative plans for taking in South America next summer, if all goes well. Hey now ! ! Angelinos must travel.

Sgt. Douglas Van Vactor, of the Military Police came on the local scene last week-end to spend a three week furlough before returning to his station. Has no fear of being sent across the blue, for time to come . . . Chaplain, Jessie Moses made another quick stop in the city before returning to his station before crossing the blue for the second time. Must say, the young Chaplain wears this uniform with that added bit of verve.

PARTYING

Highlight on last week's partying front was the Surprise birthday gathering, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mouton gave for Stanley Coleman, running buddy of their son Edward Jr. who is now doing his part for Uncle Sam. The affair was strictly sub deb, with the top knotchers of the high school crowd on hand, strictly enjoying several hours of solid jitter bugging. Mrs. Mouton proved to be a very gracious hostess to the group of young guests . . .

Highlight for this coming week-end is the much discussed Doll League Cabaret Dance. According to chatter, Younger Setters and all other setters plan to be on hand in large numbers to see what Count Basie has to offer from four till eight Sunday after noon, as well as to do their bit of philanthropic work . . .

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Barbara Lambert has, for the past week, been seeing what Frisco has on the Ball. Quite sure she had an all reet time . . . Juanita Humber returned to the city last week, after spending her vacation from the P. O. with hubby who is stationed up north . . . Evelyn Weems Brown is back from Chicago, and plans to remain for the duration. Has lots to chat about . . . latest addition to Uncles service are Joe Terry and Arthur Loggins, who are in training with the Merchant Marines on Catalina Island . . . By the way, hear that Frank Saunders will not be seeing his Angel City pin ups soon, for the expected furlough has been put off. So it's Florida and more Florida for the gay gent . . . The added sparkle in Esther Hargroves eye is due to recent good news of her brother's military merit some where in the South Sea Islands . . . Margaret Potter is bound for Wilberforce to get her last few credits that will complete her college career . . .

Edward Deason has purchased a site on Arlington, near the Villa. Understand, building plans are scheduled for next month . . .

Josephine Spearman is taking her first stab at practice teaching during the last few weeks of the University's summer session . . . Word from Seaman William Phillips who misses the old gang. On completing Boot Training he has big chances for entering "School of Military Proficiency" . . . Josephine Marshall and Ann Clay Johnson are making definite steps toward receiving their degrees from UCLA at close of the Summer session . . . See you at the Doll League . . .

TILL NEXT WEEK

ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Galloway are spending their vacation at Lake Elsinore this year. For two weeks they will enjoy the features of this popular resort.

Thrifty Housewives Stage Fall Opening

The beautiful patio of the Woodlawn YWCA was gay with lovely flowers as the members of the Thrifty Housewives Literary and Art Club assembled with their officers for the ensuing year in a most impressive manner, giving each officer a thorough understanding of her work.

Mrs. Susie Mingelton, retiring-president who has served two very successful years, thanked the club for their cooperation and presented the gavel to the newly installed president, Mrs. Hattie Chamberlin, who made a very inspiring address outlining her work for the year and appointing her committees.

Mrs. Celestine Shambry entertained the group with several piano numbers. The out-of-town guests were introduced, Mrs. Winfield of Baton Rouge, La.; L. Scott, New Orleans; W. R. Carter, New York; Bessie Maynard Catchings, Houston Texas. Los Angeles guests were Mrs. Clara McCaplin, Dorothy Clay, Celestine Shambry and John Fowler. All made encouraging remarks ending with the club mother, Mrs. Dora Maynard. Mrs. Mary Grimes responded to the guests in a few well chosen words. Mrs. Mary Wright, Sunshine chairman, presented flowers to the newly installed president. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Nicie Mann and her committee.

African Town Gets A Daily Newspaper

LONDON.—Thanks chiefly to a 33-year-old African clerk, Mr. E. D. N'Jie, there is now for the first time a daily newspaper in Bathurst, the capital of Gambia. The country has a normal population of 200,000—about 14,000 of them in Bathurst—and this total has been greatly increased by the arrival in the colony of servicemen from all parts of the world.

The three original Gambia newspapers came out no more often than once every two or three weeks. When Gambia assumed a key position on the sea and air routes, the Director of Education decided that the news should get around to the population daily.

Carl Winter's Radio Series Aired Weekly

"Interpretation Please!" presented as a public service over KMTR, this Tuesday, September 12th, contained vital information on the "whys" and "hows" of registering for the coming national elections before the registration deadline of September 28th.

Carl Winter, commentator on this program, pointed out that September 28th was the last chance for every citizen to become qualified to cast his vote of confidence in our Administration's leadership to victory and enduring peace.

He will return to the air in "Interpretation Please!" this coming Tuesday, September 19th, 9:45 p.m. KMTR (570 kc.) and every Tuesday thereafter. For copies of broadcasts, write Carl Winter care of KMTR.

Los Angeles and other Southern California service station operators may accept detached A-12 gasoline coupons during the next two weeks, the Office of Price Administration said this week.

Unusual Parent Gives Boy Scouts $155 In War Bonds

At Pilgrim House, 120 N. San Pedro last Thursday night a Cub Pack and Boy Scout Troup were honored by an interested parent to their unusual achievement. And incidentally the boys of Pilgrim House attending were so impressed by the blue uniforms of the Cubs and the kaiki of the Scouts that they are completing plans for a group of their own.

BONDS AND STAMPS AWARDED

The Pack and Troup honored were the 129th from Wardsworth School, Joseph A. Hines Sr., 2729 Glassell, scout master, and Mrs. Sally Pratt, 1037 E. 27th St., was the interested parent. She presented eight of the lads with $155 worth of war bonds and stamps. Boys so rewarded were; Clifford David, Richard Swader, Lazarie Bobo, Henderson Pratt, Jr. Johnny Sparks, Arnold Branch, Willie Moore, and Curtis Watkins.

AN UNUSUAL PARENT

A further word about the real hero of the occasion, whom many parents might well emulate. The $155 worth of bonds and stamps plus the $18.16 she spent for the hot dogs, ice cream and punch was earned by Mrs. Pratt who rented space in the store at 2203 Central Ave. on Sept. 1 and 2, made many articles with her own hands and sold $173.16 worth of goods at a rummage sale—almost single handed. Dr. Harold Kingsley, Director of Pilgrim House appears eminently correct when he refers to this act of Mrs. Pratt as an excellent example of "parental love, Christian conduct, and good citizenship in action."

Dr. A. C. Johnson Opens Private Detective Agency

Dr. A. C. Johnson, realizing the service he can render to the community and his thousands of friends, through scientific, fair and impartial Private Investigation has obtained his State License No. 2097 under his name and the firm name of "All American Detective Agency."

Dr. Johnson, Chief Consultant, will engage in General Investigation, Process Serving, Independent Adjustment of any Claims, Private Patrol and Guard Service, Personal Surveys and other activities to protect the Rights of the People. Any problems confronting your daily or private life will be handled in the utmost secrecy.

Dr. Johnson's study of Police Science at U.C.L.A. and legal study under John Hill, teacher of law, made him a valuable asset to the Bureau of Investigation, Los Angeles District Attorney's Office. In resigning from the above Staff he was forced to leave many fine friends, made during his close association in the office. He deeply refretted severing official connection with District Attorney Fred N. Howser, whose friendship has been expressed through deeds for our group at all times. Mr. Howser gave Dr. Johnson a fine letter of recommendation, which he treasures as a reward for services as a Detective Investigator.

His office in Los Angeles will be located at 1557 West 37th Place; call Republic 0418 for consultation on any matter concerning your welfare.

Brown-Jones Wedding Ceremony

Friday, September 8, 1944, at 9:30 o'clock, Miss Hazel Brown of 2244 West 29th Place, Los Angeles, became the bride of Chief Steward Merchant Marine Calvin Ray Jones of San Francisco, who is the son of Charlie Jones of San Diego.

It was a lovely ceremony solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sexton, 738 Harrison Street, San Francisco.

The bride was given away by Mrs. Herman Sexton. She wore a becoming dressmaker suit of gold with which she wore a matching blouse, a brown Corda hat and other brown accessories. She pinned on a corsage of brown orchids.

Herman Sexton, of the Merchant Marines, stood with the benedict as best man and Mrs. Herman Sexton was Matron of Honor.

Young lady, does an old TABOO prevent your knowing this help?

In less enlightened days, women didn't discuss these things. Now, it's different. If a woman suffers from periodic cramp-like pain and other purely functional distresses, she tries to learn how to help herself.

Thousands of women praise the 2-way help of Cardui. Taken as a tonic, it usually peps up the appetite, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, thus aiding digestion and thereby helping build up energy and resistance. Started three days before the time, and taken as directed, it should help relieve much purely functional, periodic pain.

Try CARDIU. A 62 year record says it may help!

Lieutenant Oxley On the Job

"Our government is concerned to see that Negro workers now on the West Coast will have jobs in the post-war period," said Lieutenant Lawrence A. Oxley, outstanding Negro and Federal Employment Service Specialist, as he left Los Angeles after a six weeks' assignment to study the non-white job patterns on the Coast.

Lieutenant Oxley told the WMC Regional Management-Labor Committee and six West Coast State Manpower Directors, that the "post-war goal of full employment is menaced by the uneven distribution of non-white workers, since it is just in those industries where Negro workers have been clustered that the greatest dumping will occur."

"Unless all responsible persons in the community unite now to do their planning, with the full understanding that lack of jobs is the fertile soil in which racial tensions mature, the failure in constructive leadership will destroy far more than any, hopes for the future, which racial minorities may have."

The visit of Lieutenant Oxley has served to sharpen the interest in this vital problem of Negro employment which the United States Employment Service has felt for some time. He was accompanied in his survey of conditions along the West Coast by Stanley V. White, Minorities Program Representative of the Twelfth Regional War Manpower Commission.

Lieutenant Oxley commented on the part that restrictive housing has played in aggravating the problem of assimilating the newcomers, and noted that the effort of returning American-born Japanese to reclaim the "Little Tokios" now crowded by a war-swollen Negro population may create an appalling crisis that could extend far beyond mere housing.

He warned that the pre-war population on the West Coast must settle down to making common cause with the immigrant Negro, and both white and Negro leaders must work together for civic unity.

Lieutenant Oxley will return to Washington by way of Chicago and Cincinnati, where he will address gatherings of federal and social agencies.

From Sixteen to Sixty

It just doesn't make sense to say that the present administration has made paupers of Negroes.

When before in the history of this country have you ever heard of Negroes making anything other than whoopee?

Now they are making ships and planes, causing the sparks to fly high in the sky as they weld and rivet. They are making what it takes to win the war and to bring forth a new world, a world in which men will be brothers under and on the skin surface.

We are contributing and we are receiving benefits.

What about ship captains, ship christenings, war correspondents, army generals, air pilots, members of FEPC, etc.?

And pray tell us, did you know that the average wage paid to women was $16.00 per week, and to Negro women often less, until the present administration started building, what we did not have, an army and a navy, including all Americans of whatever race or color in its building program?

Yes, my fellow Americans, those of you who were receiving $16.00 are now getting $60.00. You paid taxes out of that $16.00, but you had nothing left. Now you grumble because you can't keep all you earn.

In our opinion the government is operating on a perfectly sane basis. It is keeping the money circulating.

To say that the government has made paupers of the Negro people is the vilest sort of campaign propaganda.

Everyone who wants to work and earn a living may do so, and that certainly has not always been true.

President Roosevelt has so conducted the affairs of this nation that no longer are Negroes paupers and beggars, but beggars—period—are forgotten men on the streets of our cities. They exist no more.

There is a Bible quotation which reads something like this: Every one that thirsteth, let him drink of the water of life freely.

In our present set-up the same may be applied: all those who will work may earn and satisfy their temporal needs.

An Agreement Signed Against Discrimination

President Roosevelt's Committee on Fair Employment Practice and the War Policy Division of the United Automobile, Aircraft, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (C.I.O.) have signed an agreement to settle all complaints of discrimination in any plant in which the union has a local, Malcolm Ross, FEPC chairman, and R. J. Thomas, U.A.W.-CIO president, announced recently.

This agreement is the first negotiated between FEPC and any union. It provides that the War Policy Division of the Union cooperate with FEPC's regional offices in investigating any discrimination and any complaints which may come to them.

"The pact is a great step forward in the American trade union movement for the right to work for all men regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin," declared Mr. Ross.

A Bridegroom On a Wedding Cake

While we do not believe that personal appearance should make any difference whatever with any candidate for office, the way Alice Roosevelt Longworth described Thomas Dewey, Republican candidate for president, is so apt that we can not help but pass it along.

Said Alice, daughter of "Teddy," "Who wants to vote for a man who looks like a bridegroom on a wedding cake?"

No, it is not because Dewey looks like a two-bit wax figure on a wedding cake that we do not intend to vote for him. It is because he has just about as much intelligence, and would act about as wisely as one of those little figurines in the affairs of the nation and of the world, that we shall not vote for him. We want a strong, stalwart figure—a man of wisdom, of intelligence, of understanding. Such a man is President Roosevelt. For such a man all intelligent citizens, black and white, will vote.

An Outstanding Event

We doff our hats to a young preacher, the Rev. Horace N. Mays, for successfully putting over a job this season, that means good for the young people of this community.

We often hear fancy speeches about building morale, but seldom is there any real action behind the speeches.

Last week we ran a picture of a large group of young people and a group of religious-recreational directors at the Pacific Palisades in a summer conference. It was the first time anything like this has happened in our midst, and demonstrated a keen knowledge of what is needed to guide and direct our young people properly in the wholesome development of their characters.

So we doff our hats to the Rev. Mays for his foresight.

Negroes To Have Bank

From the Deep South it was recently revealed that the Birmingham Negro Business League is working on the establishment of a Negro Bank for Birmingham. Mr. W. H. Hollins of the Hollins-Shores Realty Company, speaking for the BNBL declares this statement is erroneous. He asserted that the BNBL has the new enterprise committee which is composed of Mr. W. H. Hollins Chairman, Atty. A. D. Shores, and others working on the organization of a Savings and Loan Company instead and further avers that they are merely awaiting the go signal of the State Authorities and the organization will become effective in the near future.

W. J. Wheaton -Says-

AN OLD THEME

NATIONAL POLITICS: If one follows closely the speeches of candidate Dewey, and, we may add, of Gov. John Bricker, they will find nothing of a constructive matter. First: They dwell, in principle, on the age and health of the President. "The tired and age worn Administration in Washington" is one of the principle themes of their oratory. If you can remember back that far the health of the President was also a popular theme against his election in his first campaign. That was eleven years past. Since then he has brought the nation through one of the most disastrous depressions and shouldered the responsibilities of a Global War, and as we write is now in conference in liquidate the forces of one of the nations most treacherous, and fanatical adversaries.

LIVING IN THE PAST

The orators of the GOP's live in the past. They go back to happenings of a past decade to present arguments that have no bearing on the present events, and they give only vague promises for the future without the giving of any concrete plan to bolster the promise. Indeed, all of the promises are as vague as the sop given, to catch the Negro vote... in their political platform. A careful study of candidate Dewey's Philadelphia speech, gives a very good idea of his follow ups. The Louisville, Ky. speech was a political Dud, and all of the bolstering of the partisan press can not make it otherwise. Even in Kentucky it was met with a silence and lack of enthusiasm which forbodes GOP defeat in that border State.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEGRO VOTE: The Republicans are working on theory that most Negro votes will revert to Dewey because the Democratic vice-Presidential nominee hails from Missouri. Let us have a look at Senator Truman's vote on the two measures so vital to minority groups. He voted for the enactment of the anti-Poll Tax measure. His vote for the repeal of the Poll Tax was consistent as was his vote for cloture, which would have brought the Bill for a vote on the Senate floor. Contrast the votes of Senator Truman with the votes of some Republicans, and then make your deductions.

CONSISTENTLY RIGHT

You will find that Senator Truman has consistently voted for the right of the citizens regardless of his race color or national origin. He will not prove a John Nance Garner, who, although inoculated with the Texas virus, was impotent in the administration of President Roosevelt. We feel confident that the majority of the Negro votes will go to the Party which, in spite of such fanatical racial baiters as are produced in some of the states south, has had the courage to proclaim and enact and enforce laws giving fair play in the economic and industrial life of the nation.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Let us take a look at the Negro vote in some of the pivotal states. States which will, probably, decide the result in this presidential election. According to the latest calculations, and a careful survey, it has been stated that the eligible Negro vote in the following states are: New York, approximately, 571,000; Pennsylvania, 470,000; Michigan, 208,000; Illinois, 387,000; Ohio, 339,000; Missouri, 224,000; California, 64,000. These are conservative figures. Yet they show the Negro voting strength in the several, key states. Strenuous efforts have been and now are being made to register the eligible Negro vote, and that vote will prove a potent factor in the decision of the national and congressional elections. On the question of congressional elections it is evident that the legislators elected should work in harmony with the executive branch of the Government. Legislators should be elected to that end.

POST-WAR

The years following the end of this Global Conflict will be fraught with many diverse and complex questions pertinent to the future peace and welfare of the world. There can be no room for reactionary politics. To that end a careful study should be made of the voting records of present and aspiring candidates. In the Fourth Congressional District of California there is a contest between the incumbent (Tom Rolph) and his opponent, former Congressman (Frank N. Havenner). The voting record of the incumbent has not met the full approbation of his constituents and there are somewhat dubious about his retention in office. Havenner, on the contrary, proved, by his votes as a former legislator, that he is in full accord with the progressive ideas of the present administration. His vote on legislation for the advancement of the welfare of labor groups are in evidence. In fact it was the activity of concentrated industrial monopoly that defeated him for re-election.

FAIR AND ABLE

The voters of the District have decided to send him again to Congress and have given to him the nomination on the Roosevelt ticket. While the same interest which caused his defeat is again using every means to defeat him. The rank and file of the voters who believe in fair-play for all, regardless of their social standing, are doing their level best to send him to Congress where he will be a strong advocate for the "Four Freedoms" and a tower of strength in upholding the plan of a future peace and an advocate of the abolition of measures restraining the rights of minority groups. Frank N. Havenner believes in and exemplifies his belief, that the full rights of citizenship should be accorded to all regardless of "race, color or national origin." As member of the State Railroad Commission he has given a strict unbiased, judicial opinion in all matters, whether affecting corporations or the smallest industrialist. BUT YOU MUST REGISTER TO VOTE. SO REGISTER BEFORE SEPT. 18th. BE SURE.

RAILROAD DRAMA

A railroad trip is similar to reading a current novel, for either it is filled with excitement and interest or nothing but hours of boredom and dreariness. As in a novel, the characters are the units involved in the plot and they are either greatly admired, pitied or disliked for their cunning or shrewd behavior. So it is with the people in the car in which you travel.

As in the most novels it takes some time for the characters to reveal themselves to the eager reader because of the time essential in discovering their relationship to the others; likewise do fellow travelers undergo this same process as they feint and cover up until the bars of individual isolation are let down as each seeks in some way the fellowship of others. The mediums of friendliness are many. For men the smoker is generally the place where each feels moved to make an expression of congeniality. For women it might come through a comment on a baby or child; this seemingly being a common tie among women. Also in various other ways, sooner or later the characters discover each other for better or worse.

Sometimes such travelers' fellowship can be of such interest and excitement as to never be forgotten and also is there the other extreme. My analogy breaks down at this point for unlike a book when found uninteresting, the reader can put it back on the shelf; a traveler is stuck with his trip until he reaches his destination.

RAILROAD CHARACTERS

The leading or rather supervising character in every Pullman car is invariably the Pullman porter who is no longer a menial servant grinning for tips and handouts, but generally modest, courteous and respectfully friendly. It is he who sets the stage for the trip drama. Aware of the comfort of his passengers, the porter finds the strategic moment to inquire of his passengers as to their wants or comfort. In fact, the very manner in which the porter impresses the passengers can determine the passengers' friendliness toward each other.

The introductory remark of one passenger to another often is a comment on the porter. This dignity of position on the part of the porters, we believe, is because they are no longer afraid of their jobs, due to a strong union, the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

Union men are without doubt the best workers because they have won for themselves the right to be a part of the enterprise rather than a tool. Because of the social consciousness of Labor Unions, the union man can represent the highest and most informed attitudes toward social questions. This is especially true in the case of the Pullman porter. Whereas, he does not use his car as a soap box for the propagation of social views, still when confronted by mischief minded passengers, his retorts are such as to win respect for himself and all that he represents. As little as it may be recognized, it still is true, that the Pullman porter is one of the best emissaries of the race.

THE IDLE MIDDLE CLASS

Almost on every train there is represented among the passengers, the idle, so-called middle class. Generally these self-admired individuals are the ones to first open car wide discussions on the war, politics and other current issues. Seeking to first attract attention so as to display their acquaintance with national and international problems and then pose as irrevocable authorities.

So it was that a long haired retired violinist in our car made his bid for recognition. His comments rather merited him to be termed "idle minded." But of course all knew this but him. "Roosevelt," he said, was responsible for every thing wrong with the country and the world. "It's time the real Americans were back in the saddle," he cried, as though to convince everyone of his statement. Finally, the brother decided to take a poll of the car to prove that Roosevelt was unpopular. Considering me a republican because of my race as he later stated, I was summoned to serve as teller. Directing the poll with assurance of his attitude and position, he continued to utter his anti-New Deal statements. By the time the votes were collected, with an air of victory the old man began the count.

As chance would have it the first ten votes were republican. Elated over this early lead, the Deweyite smiled with an unsuppressed joy. At that moment his day was complete, but getting back to the count, which became overwhelmingly pro - Roosevelt until the last was counted, the old man withered like the fading petals of an orchid when touched by human hands.

So it was that when human minds conscious of the feats of the New Deal touched the hope of this Republican traditionalist, it, too, withered and faded away. Taking his defeat sorrowfully, the man of yesterday with fallen shoulders retreated to his seat and buried his eyes in his book entitled, "Great Men of Yesterday." Silence ensued, a silence as though of respect to the dead.

Once again I became aware of the roaring of the wheels underneath the car as the train rushed across the open spaces of track. Our silence was interrupted by the porter as he informed a passenger that the train was on time. Then it was my wife and I agreed that not only was the train on time according to its schedule, but in the jargon of the street, it, too, was politically on time.

✦ AS I SEE IT! ✦

By Jeanette Cohen

"Unity" is a word that has come into play a great deal during this war. It's a good word and has a great meaning. Some people are just learning its meaning—and some people—well I won't go into that.

There's a place though where that word has meant a great deal for the past fourteen years. It is a summer resort in the Berkshire mountains. It's name is "Camp Unity." You may or may not have heard of it, but it is an ideal spot. I know—I have spent many vacations at the Camp—and I am now spending ten days here.

It is difficult to describe the beauty of this Camp in mere words. A poet could do more justice to it. The entire place is built on the side of a mountain. At the bottom is Lake Ellis, which affords the campers the most wonderful swimming and boating facilities. Right on the edge of the lake is a tremendous Casino, where at least a thousand people may enjoy dancing, games, carnivals and entertainment put on by the social staff.

Down around the lake are all the sports facilities—handball, baseball, volley ball, tennis, horseshoe pitching and ping pong. Also, for the enjoyment of the campers, there is a large general store and canteen. This place is usually jammed between 10 p.m. and midnight, with people having a midnight snack (although I don't know how we can do it after the delicious food we consume in large quantities during the day). People sit around the porch of the canteen playing chess, Chinese checkers and various games.

Half way up the mountain is the dining hall—a spacious place seating from 700 to 1,000 people. The waitresses and busboys, Negro and white, are all union people, receiving union wages and do not have to depend on tips. In fact, the guests are not required to tip anyone in the dining room.

Living here is practically in the rough. There are bungalows for two and a few for four people—set in rows ranging all the way up to the top of the mountain. There are several washrooms at convenient spots so that no one will have too far to go.

These are all mere details—important ones, it's true—but the most important part of Camp Unity is the policy of the management—a policy that carries out the meaning of the word "Unity." It can be described in two words—True Democracy. There is no one barred from this Camp because of color, religion or political belief. There is no segregation within the Camp (outside of the segregation of male and female in the bunks) unless of course people are married. My bunk mate is a Negro woman—and so it goes throughout the Camp. There are people of every nationality—Negro and Chinese.

I spoke to Joe Lillard this morning. He has been an employee here for six years. Joe Lillard, if you remember, is that famous Negro football star from the state of Oregon. For several years he was sports director at the Camp. This year Lillard is in a sort of managerial position. "Just what do you do," I asked him. "My official position," said Lillard "is the manager of the linen room—and in charge of all maintenance workers, but actually, I take care of many things. I am the go-between in any issue brought up by the campers."

When I asked Lillard whether he has had much trouble in the way of prejudices among the campers, his answer was: "Outside of one incident about three years ago when a couple of visitors objected to Negro and white mingling in the Casino and the visitors were asked to leave the Camp, there has been nothing like that since then."

If it works here—why can't it work everywhere! That easy to understand. It's the law in Camp Unity — and everybody must abide by it—that's the way some people learn. While the people are here on vacation, the educational program of the management keeps them constantly alive to conditions surrounding them in the country. The management of Camp Unity believes there is no vacation from the problems facing us, especially during this war period. All the entertainment put on, has some social significance. There are skits showing the dangers of racial hatred—the danger involved if even one American is negligent in casting his vote in the coming elections for the administration that will carry us through to Victory—they sing the songs of our nation, and the songs of the United Nations.

There is no escaping reality—even on a vacation—at Camp Unity. The winning of this war is the most real thing we have to face today—and Camp Unity is doing everything it can to keep us aware of that fact.

THE FUTURE OF THE • AMERICAN NEGRO •

By ISRAKIAH TURNER

As I sit and ponder, the thought which is foremost in my mind is the future of the American Negro. I, being single, have no children of my own; however, I do have nieces and nephews; so naturally I'm thinking about their future and the future of my fellows.

I wonder what will be their particular course in life; I wonder what post-war days will have in store for them—if the four freedoms will have a definite bearing on their lives—if the democracy which I and thousands of other Americans, both black and white, have been called from our homes to the very ends of the earth to defend, will reign in the strictest sense of the word. I am wondering, too, if that same democracy, which we Americans have made an all-out effort to maintain, will guarantee to us the pursuit of happiness which is the Creator's gift to all men. I cannot help wondering whether in the post-war days the men and women who are destinies of tomorrow—these fellows of mine who are unprejudicely fighting, working, praying and investing their savings in war bonds, will be guaranteed by these things a share in America. I am wondering, if the American people who claim to be champions of liberty, after we have preserved it elsewhere in the world, will let it be the guiding light of our government here, or better still, should we clean our own house first and then aid our neighbors?

I realize the magnitude of these things I am wondering about; however, these are the things which are very dear to me because America is mine also; my rich inheritance comes from this fact, my fathers with their immense suffering, toil, fighting, blood shed, and pain helped to make America great; so naturally I desire to see America's greatness last—that is why I am proud of the fact that I can give my share—be it ever so small.

I want not only the continuation of the American way of life, because that way is sometimes strange; that way sometimes has been unkind to me only because of my color. But I want also, an America that will abide by its constitution—one that will not tolerate racial discrimination and prejudices.

I want an America that will cultivate and cherish freedom, democracy, and liberty, and extend those God-given privileges to all! that will grant to all its

MAMA DEAR

September sixteenth, nineteen-forty three,
One year ago today, God sent an angel to carry little Mama away.
The sun was sinking low at six P.M.,
I heard the angels singing this beautiful hymn—
Swing low, sweet chariot, coming to carry me home . . and
My Father is rich in houses and land.
These are some of the songs my mother sang
As she went into the promised land.
Yes, the sun was sinking low when God said
"Come my loved one, we must go," and on the trumpet sound
He said, "Dear, here's your crown. "Ah, Mama dear looked so sweet
As the angels rocked her to sleep.
Sleep on, sleep on Mama dear . . . Altho we wish you were here.
For we loved you so dear, but God loved you best
He carried you to heaven to rest.
Oh yes, to rest.
Mama dear, I can hear your sweet voice singing
Jesus Lover Of My Soul . . . Jesus Saves, Jesus Saves,
As you went into your grave where the beautiful flowers lay.
We shall see our own again, there is no death,
There is no night. The loved one passed beyond our sight.
Is living in eternal light, removed from care and pain.
And some day in a fairer land, we shall hear the voice
We shall touch the hand, and with lifted hearts which understand,
We shall see our own again.

Victor Hugo Greene In Alabama Recital

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., (SPA) The Rt. Rev. D. Ward Nichols, Bishop of the ninth Episcopal District in the A.M.E. church is slated to play a capital part in the successful presentation of Victor Hugo Greene in recital at the Masonic Temple here Sunday, September 24.

The Bishop is to cap the recital with an address to the thousands of African Methodists and general public on matters pertinent to Negro life. This is expected to be one of the greatest and most impressive appearance of the prelate in Birmingham. Thousands are expected to be in attendance to see him and the celebrated artist of "Green Pastures," Victor Hugo Greene, in this duplex recital.

Spiritual Advisor

Dr. John J. Masters

May be seen in person for private consultation and advice by special appointment. Call CE. 2-4534

He is leader of the Temple of the Holy Nazarene, which has been incorporated under California law. The church is located at 1139 East 51st St.

Doctor Masters was born in India. Services are held every Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and Sunday night 7:30 p.m. Circles are held every Tuesday night at 7:30; spiritual classes held every Thursday night.

Persons wishing to write to him for advice may do so by sending the letters to Post Office Box 72, Station K, Los Angeles, Zone 11.

TO SPEAK SUNDAY—Mrs. Vivian Osborne Marsh, prominent in church, civic, educational and club circles in Los Angeles, and one of the most important women in the Southland, will be the principal speaker at the Women's Day Services at the First A. M. E. Zion Church this Sunday morning at 11:00 p. m. The Rev. P. M. Marshall, pastor, promises that the women of his congregation will present a program that will long be remembered.

MUSICALE CHAIRMAN—Mrs. Mrs. Hazel Whitaker Moore is chairman of the Five o'Clock Musicale to be presented by the women of the First A. M. E. Zion Church on Sunday afternoon, September 24, at 5:00 p. m. Featured on the program will be Olivette Miller, celebrated harpist, in recital assisted by the Celestial Women's Choir of 75 voices, directed by Gilbert Allen. The program will be given in the church auditorium at Pico and Paloma. Admission will be $1.20 including tax. The Rev. P. M. Marshall is pastor of the church.

Rev. P. Williams in Pulpit of Avalon Christian Church

Rev. Percy Williams has, for the past three Sundays, been filling the pulpit at Avalon Christian Church, during the absence of the minister, Rev. Baxter Carroll Duke, who is away on vacation.

Rev. Duke attended the National Negro Christian Convention which was held in Kentucky and before returning to the city will visit in Indianapolis, where he pastored before coming to Los Angeles, and with his mother and relatives in Topeka, Kansas. He is expected to fill his pulpit on Sunday, September 24.

The members of the church were greatly benefitted by Rev. Williams' presence and his sermons were very helpful. A special invitation is extended the public to worship with us this Sunday.

Calvary C. M. E. Church

Sunday marks the closing of a two weeks meeting at Calvary C.M.E. Church, corner of Glorietta and Kirkwood Streets, which has been conducted by the Rev. Mrs. Annie Thompson. Her profound, forceful and inspiring messages, have attracted great crowds. You will do well to hear her while she is under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

Rev. Thompson will deliver her closing message Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. She will then journey to Louisville, Kentucky.

Rev. E. V. Banks, minister of Calvary, and the church, welcome you to all services.

Bishop Bray Is Buried

CHICAGO—The nation mourns the loss of one of its most distinguished clergymen, the Rt. Reverend James Albert Bray, who passed last week in Chicago. The Bishop died suddenly while addressing a district conference in Wrightsville, Arkansas. The funeral services were held at St. Paul's C.M.E. Church, Thursday, September 7th, with distinguished characters of every walk of life attending, including the Mayor of Chicago, Edward J. Kelly. (PPNS)

"Ataloa" Sings Sunday at Trinity Baptist Church

"Ataloa," Chickasaw contralto, who is at present Art and Craft specialist of youth activities of the Church Federation of Los Angeles, will be presented by the Choral Ensemble of the Trinity Baptist Church, 3500 South Normandie, in concert and lecture, Sunday evening, September 17, 1944, at 7:30 o'clock.

Ataloa is a nationally known representative of the American Indian, and has been hailed as an artist, philosopher, educator and humanitarian by the Washington Star of Washington, D. C.

She has poise, culture, and a charming personality, combined with a rich contralto voice. A graduate of the University of Redlands where she took her A.B. and Columbia, N. Y., where she took her M.A., she further pursued her studies under a scholarship from International Institute and a research fellowship from the Rockefeller Foundation in comparative education.

This is another of the third Sunday evening features and opens the fall program of the church. The pastor, Dr. Caston, returns to his pulpit from his vacation this Sunday morning.

Mrs. Virdes Shortridge is the directoress of the ensemble which is sponsoring this program. You will not want to miss this rare opportunity.

Liberty Divine Temple Notes

We of Liberty Divine Temple, 5514 South Central Avenue, wish to thank our many friends who came to the temple last Sunday night. To those who were not present, you missed a great treat. The temple was packed. The play, symbolizing the cross, was beautifully portrayed.

We also wish to announce that our pastor will be home with us after a much needed vacation, Sunday, September 24. We will also have a program. You have been to the Temple, we invite you to come and see the changes we have made. To those who have never been, we invite you to come and see what it is like. A great welcome awaits all who worship with us. Watch this paper for future announcements.

Rev. H. L. Morgan is pastor; Rev. A. Bassett, assistant pastor; Mrs. Reed Williams, reporter.

Women's Day

The Rev. Susie Rinsey will preach the Women's Day sermon at Philips Temple C.M.S. Church, Santa Monica, Sunday morning, September 17th at the 11:00 A.M. Services. Her text will be, "The Way Of The Lord More Perfectly," from which she will take her subject, God's Way versus Man's Way.

Silvertone Quartette At McCoy Memorial Sunday

The Silvertone Quartette will be rendering an outstanding program, Sunday afternoon, 3:00 p.m., at the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, located at 802 East 46th Street, near McKinley.

Many other noted artists, and Mr. Hopkins, will sing.

Rev. E. A. Anderson is pastor of the church. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Pilgrim Baptist Church Holds Inspiring Services

Rev. B. W. Wade

At Pilgrim Baptist Church, 45th and Wadsworth, Rev. B. W. Wade challenged the devil Sunday at 11 a.m. services. His subject, "Christ's Sacrifice Weapon," 2 Cor. 8, 1, 16. He said that 90% of every christian wants God's blessings but they are not willing to sacrifice. Both Senior and Gospel choirs sang the evil spirit away. Eight were added to the church roll and 10 candidates for baptismal.

The Young Women's and Men's League met at 4 p.m. Sisters Shepherd and Billingsly entertained the B.T.U. at 5:15 p.m. Since returning from the Congress Sister Lombard, directress, has a new program and the B.T.U. is taking on new life.

We pause to pay tribute to Henry P. Markham, young director of the Gospel Choir and his accompanist, Vernice Lomax. A large crowd Sunday at 7:30 p.m. witnessed the make believe radio request program.

Sister Ana Kellery of Chicago announced, Sister Mamie Griffin, leading soprano, the Gospel Choir rendered several spirituals. Guest soloists were Mesdames Brown and Moore of Morning Star Baptist Church and Mrs. Countee sang a solo.

Henry P. Markham held his audience as he sang, "Talk About A Chile That Do Love Jesus." Rev. Walker gave the closing remarks. The choir sang, "My Desire To Do God's Will."

Our weekly program includes; Bible Class every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., Rev. Bell, teacher. Prayer services every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The pastor asks all to attend. For Southern hospitality meet Sister R. Andrews, president of the Seniors Missionary at 2 p.m. every Thursday. She greets you warmly. This society gives aid to the sick and distressed. Don't forget Sunday school at 9 a.m. Brother Brown, supt. and Sister Taylor are doing great work. Rovena Lawrence, reporter.

A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

A friend of mine says that there is no Bible proof supporting the 25th of December as the birthday of Christ. Is my friend right?—Pvt. J. J., Los Angeles.

Your friend is right. The Bible does not give the date of the birth of Jesus. In consulting reliable commentaries and Bible dictionaries, you will find that the custom of celebrating the 25th of December as the birthday of Jesus did not begin until about the fourth century. Permit us to quote the following:

"It is a historical fact that early Christians did not commemorate the birth of Christ. Clement of Alexandria, A.D. 215, mentions some who designated the 20th of May as the day of our Savior's birth. Others regarded the 19th or 20th of April as the birthday. Oriental Christians in the third and fourth centuries kept the 6th of January as the day of the Savior's baptism and birth. The twenty-fifth of December was solemnized in the fourth century in the West, as the birth-festival, and this day came soon to be looked upon as the day of birth. The latter day is not supported by the circumstances of the case. The census or registering, which was taking place at our Savior's birth (Luke 2:1-4), and which made it necessary for every man and woman to repair to the homestead of the family, thus occasioning long and innumerable journeys, would hardly be carried out in mid-winter. Neither is it probable that the shepherds would then be "abiding in the field, keeping watch over the flock by night."

"According to Talmudical writers, the flocks were brought in from the fields about the beginning of November, and driven out again about March. Greswell in his Dissertations upon the harmony of the Gospels, endeavors to show that our Savior's birth, baptism, and death were each at the time of the passover. This theory commends itself to the pious heart, but it is after all only a conjecture. It is enough for us to know that the inspired writers did not record the day of our Savior's birth, and it is well to leave it where Holy Spirit has left it."—A People's Commentary, The Gospel of Matthew, by Geo. W. Clark, D. D., p. 27.

See the International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia under the heading of Jesus Christ and see the section of "The Date of the Birth of Jesus,55 for further information on this subject.

Third Baptist Church Services

Sunday was a high day with the Third Baptist Church, formerly known as the Bethel Baptist Church, which is located at 1210 East 41st Street.

The Sunday School was largely attended. The pastor, Rev. George E. Anderson, delivered a soul-stirring sermon at 11:00 o'clock, from Matthew 5:11-12. The subject "Rejoicing in Tribulations." Our membership has been greatly increased since entering into our new building. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

'44 Negro Handbook Available This Month

The 1944 Negro Handbook, compiled and edited by Florence Murray, will be off the press this month, it was announced last week by the publishers, Current Reference Publications, New York.

The book, which is a manual of current facts and figures on Negroes in the United States, will cover the years 1942 and 1943. Among the outstanding features is its chapter on the Negro in World War II. It includes lists of war heries, ships named for Negroes, aviators killed in line of duty, and statistics on all branches of the armed forces, the Red Cross, the USO and other war organizations.

DEMOCRACY

By George Jefferson

Since reconstruction days one of the peculiar characteristics of Negro political activity has been its seeming meekness in voting the traditional Republican ticket, both in local and national elections. The majority of Negroes were Republicans, as were its leaders, and could be depended upon for their vote and support. The usual procedure was, just before the election date, to call a large mass meeting in the Negro district, where huge quantities of hot dogs, hamburgers and barbecue were given away. Leaders, such as Roscoe Conkling Simmons, were engaged to speak, and they traveled far and wide during election years, gathering in the harvest of votes.

This was a wonderful system and worked with undeniable success until the Democratic leaders thought of a better idea; how about fixing it so people could eat, and also buy their own food, instead of going to a big mass rally every two or four years. This proved to be a much better idea, because people can get mighty hungry between elections. And besides, no matter how many whiskers you put on Herbert Hoover, he still didn't look like Lincoln; and Thomas Dewey is already on record as favoring lifetime jobs for Hoover and Landon, since their advice would be invaluable to the nation. Of course, there might be some stubborn, die-hards who disagree with this brilliant suggestion, but they are all radicals, and are New Deal Democrats—or something.

However, we started out talking about Negro Republican leaders and today, any such topic must include Edgar Brown of the National Negro Congress. It was brother Brown who condemned the Democrats after their failure to advocate a permanent F.E.P.C. and abolishment of the poll tax in their platform. The Republicans did this, so Brown asserts the 6,000,000 members of his organization will support Dewey. Yet this is a joke, for a Democrat—Roosevelt—established the F.E.P.C. in the first place, and Dewey has already asserted his intention of accepting those parts of the Republican platform he judged advisable, and rejecting others. What is to keep him from rejecting the principle of Negro rights? What a strange contradiction in the words of the two men? Yet there are stranger things still. Edgar Brown claims 6,000,000 members, all for Dewey; yet there are not 6,000,000 registered Negro voters in the U.S.A. How strange? Figures don't lie, but something is amiss somewhere. Are Negroes in hiding, so the Bureau of Census can't find them, only seeing the light of day at Edgar Brown's beck and call? Do they have draft cards? Where are their ration books? They must be there because Edgar says they are. And Edgar Brown is a "Negro leader" 1932 model.

One last item, however, should clear up the situation about Edgar Brown and reveal him as—(the reader may insert his own descriptive adjective). Brown now claims to have polled 1,000,000 service men and asserts that 80% of them are for Dewey. Again the figures take a turn of their own—the adding machine must be broken. Unofficial estimates do not place Negroes in the service at more than 800,000. There are 200,000 missing. Where are they. A.W.O.L., deserters. It is even against the federal law to ask a soldier how he is going to vote, though he be your son, or brother. And Edgar Brown has asked a million of them. You have to give him credit, he is a leader of the first water. Nothing phazes him, figures, the law, truth,—its all the same, dollar a bottle, two for a nickel. We should be proud of him. He is a reminder of the past, the dead, hungry, cold, miserable past, that must be completely stamped out.

Returns From Vacation

Doctor Jonathan L. Caston, popular pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, 3500 South Normandie, will return to his pulpit this coming Sunday morning after a month's vacation. His sermon topic will be "The Mercy of Blood." Long a favorite of church-goers in Los Angeles, Dr. Caston returns fully refreshed after spending two weeks camping and fishing, to resume the phenomenal progress which has characterized his leadership at Trinity.

He writes that he would like all Los Angeles to hear this Sunday morning message. Visitors are especially invited. The music, always superb at Trinity, will be furnished by the Choral Ensemble of the church. An overflow crowd is expected and you will do well to come early, according to the officials of the church.

BAHA'I CENTER LECTURES

Mrs. Charles Reed Bishop, world traveler and lecturer, continues with the fourth in a series of 5 lectures being given at the Baha'i Center, 1709 West 8th St., on Sunday, September 17, 3 p.m., when her subject will be "THE COVENANT FULFILLED."

Sin-Killing Griffin to Speak Here

You are invited to come and hear the gospel messages which will be delivered by the noted Evangelist, Sin-Killing Griffin, Sr., 2d, of Shreveport, Louisiana, who will be speaking at the Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church, 1187 East 40th Place, corner of Naomi Avenue. The services began on Tuesday, September 12, 1944, and will be conducted nightly.

Rev. W. D. Short, pastor of Evergreen Baptist Church, recommends this as one of the most outstanding religious meetings to be held in the city of Los Angeles, as Evangelist Griffin is a powerful preacher. Rev. Griffin's office headquarters are located at 1738 Weinstock Street, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Large Youth Group Active At Lincoln Congregational

Lincoln Congregational Church has the distinction of having one of the largest Colored youth groups in the city. This group consists of about eighty active members, which represents outstanding students in our communities. Their intercultural gatherings, varied activities and interesting discussion groups are many. Each Sunday at six such youths as Reginald Armstrong, Harlan Leonard, James Tavlor, Charles Carpenter, William Slayton, Price Cobbs, William Glenn, Arthur Lewis, Leola Beavers, Evelyn Fuller, Jane Johnson, Wildena Hefflin, Yolnade Stovall, Constance Scruggs, Geraldine Barnum, Betty Shaw, Marjorie Garrott, Betty Jean Tucker, Alverta Jackson, Elaine Broady, and many others are busy arranging worship and discussion material that keeps the interest of this large group.

During the summer many of its members attended camp at Pilgram Pines. Dean Faulkner of Fisk University was instructor at the college camp last week.

The area rally meeting held at Western Knolls Church was for the electing of new officers. Harlan Leonard was elected Boys' Vice President, which was quite an honor.

Rev. L. E. Galloway can justly be proud of his work with the youth of this city.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

This quotation from Proverbs will be the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Matter" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston: "Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven."

Matthew relates that after Jesus had fed the multitude in the desert place, he "constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, . . . And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid."

A citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, reads: "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. . . . Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws. His acts were the demonstration of Science, overcoming the false claims of material sense or law."

TO LECTURE AND SHOW FILM—Paul Hoefler, famous explorer, lectures with his new adventure film hit "African Cavalcade" at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre, West 8th Street at Lucerne, Los Angeles, on Wednesday evening, September 27, 1944, 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. Alexander

Mrs. Humes

A great revival will begin Sunday, September 17, 1944, at 11:00 a. m. at the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, 1400 East Vernon Avenue, and will continue each night, except Saturday.

Evangelist J. A. Alexander, of Los Angeles, formerly of St. Paul, Minnesota, will be speaking, and Mrs. Humes, a great gospel singer, will be singing each night. Come and bring your friends.

Bring the sick to be prayed for. Jesus Christ heals today. He is our healer. Bring the sinner. Bring your unsaved loved ones. "Come and let us reason together, saith the Lord." Rev. S. D. Richardson is pastor of Mt. Sinai.

Lectures At Victory Auditorium Continue To Attract Large Crowds

With scores of late-comers unable to obtain seats, the fifth week of the Lindsey-Troy lectures opened at the Victory Auditorium, corner of East 103rd and Compton, last Sunday evening. The interested audience remained until the conclusion of the unraveling of the mystery number 666 which Evangelist Lindsey explained in astounding detail.

In the preliminary program which began at 7:15 p. m., two educational sound moving pictures were shown. Music was furnished by the Victory Auditorium Vested Choir, the Sweet Chariot Hour Boy's Sextet, Mrs. Birch, soprano. Also Owen A. Troy, Jr., youthful violinist, delighted the large audience with his playing.

Meetings are held each night except Monday and Saturday evenings, and are free to the public.

Next Sunday evening's lecture will be one of exceptional interest. The theme is "God's Answer to Evolution." Preceding the lecture there will be another Twilight Musicale which is always a musical treat. Among other attractions will be the playing of the Troy Instrumental Trio.

Oxley Declares Post War Jobs For Negroes Is a Vital Issue

"Our government is concerned to see that Negro workers now on the West Coast may have jobs in the post-war period," said Lawrence A. Oxley, Senior Technician of the National War Manpower Commission's Bureau of Placement, as he left Los Angeles after a six week assignment to survey non-white job patterns on the Coast, during which he obtained a full picture of the difficulties which California and the Northwest face in the coming conversion period. Lieutenant Oxley, outstanding Negro and Federal Employment Service specialist, told the RMC Regional Management-Labor Committee, jointly with six West Coast State Manpower Directors, that "the post-war goal of full employment is menaced by the present uneven distribution of non-white workers in our wartime economy, since it is precisely in those industries where Negro workers have been clustered to do their home-front war job that the greatest 'dumping' will occur."

"Unless all responsible community elements join to do their planning now, with full understanding that job insecurity is the fertile soil in which racial tensions mature," Oxley said, "the failure is constructive leadership will destroy far more than the prospects of the racial sincrities here."

VITAL QUESTION

The visit of Lieutenant Oxley has served to sharpen the interest in this vital aspect of employment felt by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, which has been stimulated to develop a program of leadership to advance the widest integration of qualified non-white workers into West Coast employment patterns.

He was accompanied in his survey of conditions in the Puget-Sound, Portland-Vancouver, San Francisco Bay, and Los Angeles Metropolitan Areas, by Stanley V. White, Minorities Program Representative of the Twelfth Regional War Manpower Commission. Together they vrought the message of the need to abandon an "ostrich policy" to over a hundred WMC employment officials up and down the Coast.

CRISIS EXPECTED

Oxley commented on the part that sharply segregated and restrictive housing patters have played in aggravating the problem of assimilating the newcomers. Scoring housing authorities for their compliance with local prejudices, he noted further that the effort of returning American-born Japanese to reclaim the "Little Tokios" now crowded by a war-swollen Negro population that "will not go back where they came from," may create an appalling crisis that could extend far beyond housing, to all forms of community maladjustments.

"No great migration of our race to Northern urban centers has ever gone into reverse," Oxley told reporters from the Negro press, "and there is no reason to expect that this wartime movement of colored workers to the Coast will prove an exception."

COMMON CAUSE

He warned that the pre-war colored population on the Coast must settle down to making common cause with the immigrant Negro, and both jointly with the white and inter-racial leadership working toward civic unity, and currently alarmed over the ominous prospects foreshadowed by the present drift.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

Two Short Weeks

It occurred to me when I sat down to write this stint that all the words I have been writing will weigh considerably less than their actual worth if, during the next two weeks, more eligible citizens are not encouraged to register. At this point it is no longer a question of what has been done, but rather, what must be done to build a post war world with the same cohesive strength and representation of the people as is shown behind the war effort. Those who have been leading and carrying the people's program since the early days before the primary elections have traveled far and fast—albeit, it seems to me, a little too fast. It is time now to go back to the beginning.

John M. Lee

We must go back because somehow we have failed to get across to impressive numbers of eligible voters from poll tax states that there are not any poll tax requirements to meet in order to vote in California. We must go back because we have not made the value of the FEPC, the WLB, the acts and measures to control prices, and the succeeding fight for minority rights, plain enough to be understood by far too many people.

Two Ways of Life

We must go back because we dare not go forward into the election until we have established in the minds of every citizen that the issues in the election are not whether or not Sidney Hillman is a communist or of foreign birth; we must impress upon them that this is a contest between two ways of life.

We must go back because only we dare to go back so that the majority of the American people will go to the polls in November with a clear understanding of that contest between two ways of life, and the privilege to vote for either one.

The Same Leaders

We must go back and enroll every man and woman between now and November 28th; we must go back to the early thirties and point out that the Hoover-Dewey leadership has been with us before, and with it came the depression. We must point out that the Hoover-Dewey forces recently ganged up on the Murray-Kilgore Reconversion Bill because they have not yet learned to think in terms of the masses of people.

We must go back into the Congressional Districts, like the Fourteenth and put strength behind the campaign of Helen Gahagan Douglas. We know she will support the fight against the Poll Tax; that she will favor adequate provisions against enforced unemployment during the reconversion period; that she will support the Roosevelt-Truman leadership in the interest of all of the people. We must go back to Helen Gahagan Douglas, for, from representatives such as she, will come the future strength of the people's leadership.

We must go back to that house where no one answered at the last visit, and tell the facts—; we must go back so that the people can go forward with a mighty surge on November 7th.

The Need Is Still Great

Unhappily, the casualties on the battlefront do not grow less as the goal of complete victory over the axis comes nearer. Only on the home front has there been a lessening of the sacrifices that are needed to achieve this victory. Thousands of boys must bleed for every mile of Axis territory the United Nations gain in the march to Berlin.

Unless that blood is replaced, many of those boys will die. Unless we give the blood, (painlessly,) they will have to die. Why not call the Blood Bank and make an appointment now to give a pint? The number is RO. 0121.

Relief Association Has Post War Plans

The Economic Relief Association, at 27th and Compton Blvd., is planning to intensify its program so that it can be of greater service to returning service men.

Under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reeves the Association has been aiding the needy of the community and salvaging vital material for the war. Following the close of the war there will doubtless be a period of unemployment. During this period the Economic Relief Association plans to use its storage space, its facilities, and its experience to do its bit in aiding those who have no work. Provisions have been made to teach planting and horticulture, among other things, at the Association's nursery, and Mr. and Mrs. Reeves will be happy to explain their plans to all who inquire.

USO Service Centers Used by 3,000,000

Visits to the USO service centers by men and women of the armed forces increased from 1,000,000 monthly last year to 3,000,000 this year, Henry W. Pope, national director of services to Negroes, New York, announced last week.

The USO has increased its centser which cater exclusively to Negroes from 118 last year to approximately 300 this year. More than 2400 paid professional and non-professional Negro workers are employed at the centers, and some 75,000 persons, largely women, have volunteered their services.

VICTORY AUDITORIUM SPONSORS HEALTH PROGRAM—Above Dr. Ruth Temple, Assistant City Health Officer, gives blood tests and vaccinations as a feature of the Southeast District Health Association's program of health betterment. Health lectures and health demonstrations are weekly features of the Victory Auditorium lectures which are held at East 103rd Street and Compton Avenue.

PISTOL PACKING PAPA

The sage and witty Jerome Hubert, one of the mainstays of the Ben Bowie Post of the American Legion along with Harry Beals, the grand old man with a cane, are on their way to Chicago as delegates to the Legion Confab to be held there next week. Arthur McClannahan, retired L.A.P.D. man, may don one of the badges of Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz. Atty. H. Leonard Richards, new Ben Bowie Commander of the Legion, reminds one of a judge, when he raps his gavel for order at a hot Ben Bowie session. Leslie Holmes, vice commander, and co-owner with his wife of Vi's Chickenshack, is pondering whether to sue the Government over alleged brutality at the hands of an M.P. during his enlistment. Thumbnail description of George W. Burleson, tough adjutant of Ben Bowie, human dynamo.

It is a pleasure to note that the Masons are honoring the late Lamented Fats Waller, by organizing several Masonic lodges named Thomas Waller. In most cases the members are composed of musicians and theatrical people. Great stuff. Other groups follow suit and name your organizations after worthwhile people.

Have you seen that man, Zutty Singleton, beat the drums? He goes simply crazy. He merges the savage, primitive ritualistic with modern jive and provokes "war whoops" from his Listeners. He is the guy that made Chicago's "Three Deuces" famous, the birthplace of the "Downbeat mag." He is taming the Cobra men and women as well as the vipers at the Cobra Room. Earl Griffin is the suave host. The above is not intended as an offense against Lee Young, who taught Mickey Rooney and other film notables to beat the drums. Lee is at the "Downbeat." Lee Young is great. But Zutty has held the title "The Great Zutty," for years.

The Count Basie invaded Joe Morris' Club Plantation and the joint rocked, pitched, leaped and bucked like one of the wild mustangs of Bob Scott, Raymond Hunter, Rip to you, and Bob. Johnson's Palamino.

During intermissions the lovely, dynamic Mabel Scott, chocolate-colored comedienne-singer, thrills you with her repertoire. We like the one about "every little dog having his day." Clara Lewis beats the mahogany for her.

But the guy with a smile, a mile wide at this spot is Julius "Stuff" Crouch. Stuff is an ambassador of joy. He has the ability to charge you three bucks for a fifty cent drink and make you think you are getting a bargain. That's how tactful he is.

Harry Bigelow, the papa who went off to the seven seas with the merchant marines and wound up with Sonny Howard as co-owner of the Apex, have imported the Four Blazes.

Sammy Franklin ork played Saturday at the Spanish Grand ball in Lincoln Park. Twas a grand gesture on the part of all concerned. Sammy Franklin has used the Bing Crosby technique on the road up. That is giving other artists a break on the same program: Esta Bueno!

STREET SCENES . . . The stately Anita Grant, with her lovely head of prematurely gray hair, dashing to and fro seeking priorities for a client. She is in real estate, ye know. Then there was the natty, polished Asworth T. Singleton, whose bosses are Bob Hardon and Floyd A. Watson of the Hall of Justice. Dashing about in a sleek station wagon labeled KWKW-1430 Kilocycles was Edward James who now Al Jarvises The Cooper Caravan, a radio program, featuring Duke Ellington, Count Basie and King Cole Trio every day at 2. They boast that is the longest radio program, written, announced and produced by Negroes. THEY, being Edward James and Cecil McIntyre. Two wide awake lads. Watch them.

Have you got your ticket yet, for the Sheriff's Annual Relief Show? It will be held at the Shrine Auditorium Oct. 4th to 11th inclusive. The show is being produced by Abbott and Costello. Get your ticket from any deputy-sheriff you see. See a good show and help a worthy cause.

RENOVATING . . . If you like gossip here is the latest on those who have agreed to disagree. The Giles, Mary and Gus, have gone phtttt. They have filed as well as Milderd and James C. Whitaker or have you heard that Temp and Gertie Hill are as far apart as the Atlantic and Pacific Ocean and Gladys and Quincy Mitchell are like the North and South Poles. Far Apart.

The divorce mills grind on and the lawyers get fatter and fatter when swell people like Louis and Ladell Richmond have to tell their troubles to the judge. "Till death do us part" has been forgotten by Mary Lee and Jesse Anderson.

UOPWA Organizes First Sweethearts of Servicemen's Club

"Your activities for our servicemen's welfare are exactly what the UOPWA feels is necessary for all unions to undertake today." With these words Helga Weiget, International Representative for the United Office and Professional Workers, CIO, officially launched the first union sponsored Sweethearts of Servicemen club in Los Angeles.

The initiation of SOS by UOPWA took place Friday, September 8, at the Biltmore Hotel. Greeting the gathering of seventy white collar women were Marilyn Hare, popular young star of "Meet the People," and a new SOS member; Mrs. Howard Sessions, of the Red Cross; and Lt. Woldenberg, recruiting officer for the WACS.

EXTENSIVE PROGRAM

In outlining the work which a union sponsored SOS club might undertake, Elaine Rose, Los Angeles SOS director, told of what the already existing clubs are doing. Two major projects of the group are furnishing a day room for one of the veteran's hospitals, and sending 800 Christmas gifts overseas before October 15. The girls, wives, sweethearts, sisters and friends of servicemen, are also busy knitting, writing letters, visiting hospitals, helping their "G.I.'s" vote, and learning about rehabilitation.

Young women who are interested in joining this UOPWA sponsored SOS may inquire by calling MU. 1071 or MI. 9891.

Germany's Defeat Is Not the End for Us Says Nominee Styles

Hal Styles, Democratic nominee for Congress in the 15th district, today issued a warning to Americans to not take the defeat of Germany and her satelites as a signal for widespread celebration.

"The collapse of Germany should not inspire demand that our boys return immediately on the premise that the war is half won, since Germany and the liberated countries will require a vast policing force until a tenable peace is obtained, and even after," he stated.

"Japan will be no pushover, and troops released from the European theater must be rested or supplanted by others for action in the Pacific theater so that the "knockout punch" can be dealt more quickly.

CPL Ivan Houston of The 92nd Division Writes from Italy

An intent listener to the recent welcoming address to the 92nd Division in Italy by Lieutenant General Mark Clark, was Corporal Ivan Houston, son of Norman O. Houston, insurance executive. Mr. Houston has just received a letter from his son who is a melber of the 3rd Bn. Headquarters Company, 370th Infantry.

THRILLING SPEECH

That young Houston was thrilled by the General's speech that has been printed nationwide, a copy of which he enclosed in his letter, can be attested by his comments which we quote below:

"I have enclosed a copy of the speech delivered to us by General Mark Clark of the Fifth Army. I was there when he gave the speech and found him a truly remarkable spectacle. He is very tall, of good build and has hawk like features. If there ever was an ideal General it is truly he. He makes as fine a speech as you can read."

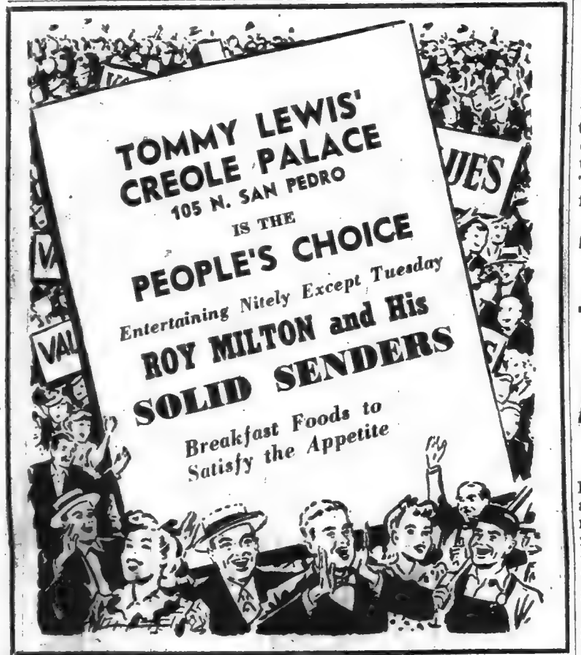
Leadbelly and Moorehead's Ork To Play at CIO Dance Saturday

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15. —The spirit of Mexican Independence will live again Saturday night at what promises to be the most exciting of the regular Annual Trade Union Dances for the Daily People's World, to be held at the CIO Building, 5851 Avalon Blvd. The ten CIO locals sponsoring the dance have chosen the motif of Mexican Independence for their theme, and have invited members of the Mexican Community to participate. Honored guests will include Johnny Matuz, Manuel Delgado, and Manuel Reyes, recently-paroled boys of the notorious Sleepy Lagoon case.



Entertainment for the occasion is headlined by the famous Negro singer of folk tunes, Leadbelly; Lee Wintner, the well-known baritone who recently soloed at the Hollywood Bowl; and Sue Remos, one of the city's best known young dancers. Music will be provided by Baron Morehead's orchestra.

One of the features planned for the dance, which will be crowded with surprises, is a strolling movie cameraman who will circulate through the crowd, taking pictures of both the audience and the program. These films will be available to local unions who wish to show them. The CIO unions which are jointly sponsoring the dance include the United Electrical Workers No. 1421, Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, No. 700, United Furniture Workers No. 576, I.L.W.U. No. 26, UOPWA No. 9, Utility Workers No. 132, Newsboys Union No. 75, and SCMWA No. 246.

Tickets for the affair are available at the union offices, as well as in the office of the Peoples World, 2nd and Spring streets. Odmission is 60 cents, including tax; and a block of tickets is being given to the Avalon U.S.O.

Red Callender to Bring In Combo Along With Scott

This Attraction Is Made to Order For Swing Fans

Mabel Scott has the kind of voice that press agents usually refer to as being the kind that most assuredly knocks one out. In case you haven't heard Mabel's tinsel-tonsiling, you'll get the chance beginning Tuesday night when she comes in as the featured attraction at the beautiful Cobra room in Downtown Bronzeville.

SHE SINGS TOO

Mabel jumps like mad when really wound up. Her vocals are clean and full-toned. And the best that I can say about her singing is that her style of toying with a ballad sends shivers down your spine. And then too, her shapely anatomy is so beeyoooo-tee-ful that you almost forget to listen to what her voice is singing.

She'll be a welcomed asset to the cozy Bronzeville nitery, and as if the sultry-styled singing of La Scott weren't enough, there's the swingy rhythms of the Red Callender Trio. Callender was the featured Bassist on the Dorothy Donegan recordings. This attraction is made to order for the swing fans!

'Porgy and Bess' Thrills Crowds At Philharmonic

Last Monday evening Manager L. E. Behymer opened his fall and winter season at Philharmonic Auditorium with Cheryl rCawford's production of George Gershwin and Du Bose Heyward's American folk-opera "Porgy and Bess."

This attraction will run until Saturday evening, September 30, including special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

A capacity audience greeted this splendidly staged attraction and applauded most heartily the various artists: Etta Moten, who played Bess, William Franklin in his role of Porgy, Edward aMtthews, William Coeman, the Eva Jesye Choir as well as Alexander Smallens who conducted the symphony orchestra.

"Porgy and Bess" is a saga of Catfish Row, Charleston, S. C., and concerns the tragic romance of the crippled Porgy for his fickle, but attractive Bess.

The famous songs, "I Got Plenty O'Nutting," "Bess, You Is My Woman Now," are among the unforgettable highlights of this great musical attraction.

Tickets and reservations for "Porgy and Bess" at the Behymer Box Office, Philharmonic Auditorium, MU 1983, or at the So. Cal. Music Co. Ticket Office, 737 So. Hill St., TU 1144, Los Angeles, and all Mutual Ticket Offices in Southern California.

LOVELY HOSTESS—Lovely Ethel Water, famed star of radio, stage and screen, will be hostess to the youths of the Boy's Home, 915 E. 50th St., at the Sheriff's Show to be given at the Shrine Auditorium, October 4th to 11th, inclusive. Miss Waters, always a willing humanitarian especially when underprivileged children are concerned, graciously welcomed the opportunity of making possible an evening of entertainment for the boys. Her purchase of tickets served a dual purpose; that of affording enjoyment to needy youths as well as supporting a worthy cause.

Proceeds from the show will be used for the relief of officers who may become disabled and to aid families of those killed in the performance of their duties. "Surely there cannot be a more worthy cause to contribute to than that of helping our fine Deputy Sheriffs who are doing such a splendid job in these abnormal chaotic times," said Miss Waters when recently interviewed by Deputy Whitney. It was explained to her that because of the hazardous work in which law enforcement officers are engaged the premiums on insurance policies, covering them in carriers, is almost prohibitive and precludes their carrying insurance in these companies.

Hence the Sheriff's Show, whose purpose it is to offset this deficiency. Among the personnel of the Sheriff's Office are many Negro Deputies, who as Sheriff Biscailuz has stated, "are all doing a fine job."

Local Club to Donate Proceeds Of Dance Benefit to Red Cross

In a gesture, that is destined to go down in Angel City social history as one of the finest ever made, the Eleven and One social club, a newly organized group of young Los Angeles business and professional women, met Friday last in a special meeting at the home of Treasurer Miss Jaunita Adams, 4161 Naomi Street, and proposed to sponsor a monstor dance benefit, the entire proceeds of which will be given to the American Red Cross for the purchase of Christmas gifts for our boys in the Armed forces overseas.

MUSICIAN'S UNION COOPERATES

Joe Morris, popular owner of the Plantation night club, has promised the use of his club for the gala affair. Mr. Edward Bailey, President of Musician's Union number 767, contributed to the worthy cause by giving the official okay for the Count Basie band and other Musicians to appear. Count Basie, currently appearing at the Plantation club, stated in an interview with an Eagle reporter that "I'll be more than glad to appear with my band, and you can count on me for full support."

With Wednesday evening, September 27th, set as the date for the benefit, more than a hundred stars of stage, screen and radio have been contacted and agreed to be on hand to do their bit. Among those scheduled to appear are: Nina Mae McKinney, Maxine Sullivan, Lee Young's band, Mabel Scott, Marie Bryant, Herb Jeffries, Lillian Randolph, Ernie Whitman, Al Jarvis and scores of others.

In a statement made by Lawrence LaMarr, President of the Negro Press Bureau, Theatrical editor J. T. Gipson, of the California Eagle, quoted Mr. LaMarr as saying: "It's a fine gesture. One to be proud of. And the members of the Eleven and One club will get the full cooperation of this department.

The newly organized Eleven and One club is truly a credit to the social circle of Southern California. It's about time Los Angeles society produced something which can do more than pour tea out of a cup. And here is a club that will definitely sail stratispheric heights in a blaze of glory.

Members of the Eleven and One club are as follows; Celeste Moore, President, Jaunita Adams, Treasurer; Ida Hereford, Secretary; Ethel Smith and Delores Sutton, reporter; Jaunita Truitt, Business Manager; Patsy Braggs, Heddie Brown, Rosa Harris, Lois Galloway, Christine Raynon and Helen Revels.

Columnist JT Gipson is the club's advisor.

Newsreels Screen Keyboard Darling

Dimpled darling Philippa Schuyler, "the teen age tot" whose concert playing piano stylings is the sensation of the nation, has been filmed by American Newsreels in observance of the completion of her new orchestral composition, "Manhattan Nocturne."

Scored for a 100-piece orchestra, the symphony has attracted nationwide attention.

Cozy Cole May Organize Own 16-Piece Band

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Cozy Cole, whose spectacular drum specialties are among the leading features of Billy Rose's "Carmen Jones" at the rBoadway Theater, is mulling over the idea of organizing a big band of his own when the show closes. Should he embark on a band-leading venture, Cozy would have the backing of one of the largest agencies in the business.

Cozy has been wary of turning maestro in these uncertain times. However, he has expressed himself as willing on the condition that his bookers would guarantee him a location spot with airtime for an initial build-up, and a reasonable number of good theater dates. Once these difficulties are ironed out, the dynamic drum star would be ready to get going with a full 16-piece organization.

Hailed as the "world's fastest swing drummer," Cozy's box office value has sky-rocketed to a new high in the past few months.

"African Cavalcade" at Wilshire Ebell Theatre

"African Cavalcade," Paul Hoefler's new adventure travelogue with which he lectures at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre, West 8th at Lucerne, Los Angeles, Wednesday night, Sept. 27, has been acclaimed in New York and Chicago as the most exciting jungle film since the Martin, Johnson and Frank Buck sagas.

Hoefler, noted American explorer, first achieved fame by discovering the Ubangi saucer-lip women and showing them in his motion picture, "Africa Speaks." He also authored the best seller book of the same title which became so popular it was published in 17 different languages.

His latest offering is a colorful cavalcade of tribal and wild animal lore photographed on a recent trek across French Equatorial Africa, Belgian Congo, Tanganyika, Kenya, Abyssinia, Somaliland, Sudan and Egypt.

Tickets are now on sale at the Wilshire Ebell box office, where reservations may be made by phoning WYoming 7095 or WAlnut 5414, and also at the Southern California Music Company, 737 South Hill Street, phone TU. 1144. It is adviseable to secure seats in advance.

The Wilshire Ebell Theatre may be reached by taking the Wilshire, Crenshaw or Olympic bus.

Highlights of "African Cavalcade" include new scenes of the Ubangi women, lion hunts, devil worshipers, elephant herds, giant Nandy warriors, white rhines, Ituri forest pygmies, camel caravans, hippopotamus, antelope, Muchison Falls and celebrated Nairobi symphony orchestra of 36 native drummers.

WAXES RECORDS

Langston Hughes, noted Negro poet, has recorded a number of his poems for the ASCH RECORDING STUDIO, 117 West 48th St., N.Y.C. Release dates will be announced soon.

Meade Lux Lewis, King of boogie-woogie, has also recorded a group of his own selections for ASCH.

JOHN M. LEE, GAG MAN!

City Editor John M. (for Mean?) Lee, the col'm's slave-driving but hardworking "boss," gave a few of us convulsions the other dyem with this quip: "At a recent CIO meeting," he said, "the speaker was praising the Women of America. Praising them as being behind the men behind the guns that's dealing a death blow to the Nazis, a drunk in the back every few minutes would interrupt with a 'H'ray for the women! . . . "And," continued the speaker, "it's the women who deserve the credit. They slave. They have left their homes to take defense jobs to help lick the axis." . . . "H'ray for the women!" came a shout from the drunk . . . "And in fact," went on the speaker, "Women are managing busses. Driving street cars, and doing just about everything a man does." . . . "H'ray for the women!" came the voice from the back of the hall . . . "Yes," yes'd the speaker, "there is very little difference between a woman and a man." . . . "H'ray for that little difference!" quip'd the drunk . . . Betty Jean George, our favorite deb, being whistled at by the wolves when she came into the Eagle office to see her Uncle . . . Speakin' of progress, the Musician's Union (the spacious bldg at 1710 S. Central Av) is owned entierly by the members themselves. As President Edward Bailey retorted: "We owe nothing but a gas and light bill!" . . . The Angel City Press club is about to make an important announcement. We'll print it here . . . The studios are missing a good bet in overlooking actress Bertha Dyer Woolford. She played the part of "the mother" in the Negro Soldier film. A handsomely attractive woman, whose charm and graciousness makes her a favorite over at this desk, she is another reason why we say talent scouts are dopes. They let such a valuable piece of property as Bertha Dyer Woolford run around "unsigned." Hollywood just doesn't make sense. . . .

BASIE BAND TO BLOW AT BENEFIT

The benefit Wed. evng Sept. 27 at the Plantation will be the town's biggest yet. It's being sponsored by a newly organized group of Los Angeles Business and Professional women known as the Eleven and One social club. The entire proceeds will go to the American Red Cross for the purchase of Christmas gifts for our boys in the armed forces overseas.

Draws Raves As Top Trumpet and Trombone Stylist

Has Best White Band in Swingdom Says Editor Gip

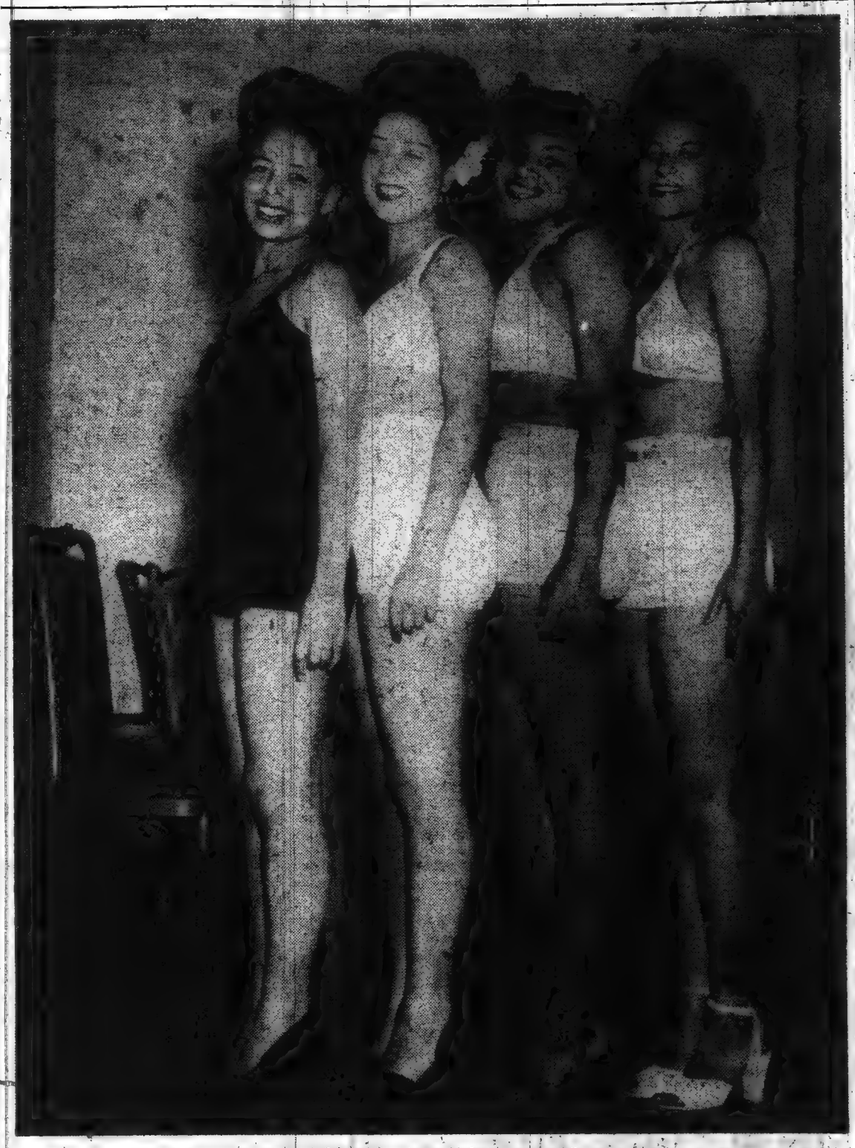
If you've heard his recording of "Memories Of You," you'll know why the critics rate Sonny Dunham as one of the top ten Trumpeters of the nation. We'll go the critics one better, we'll rate his playing over Harry James', Roy Eldridge's and even . . . yes, even Red Allen's! He's the best swingsational trumpeter in the profession today, if you ask me and even if you didn't.

IN PERSON TONIGHT

News that the popular White star, who also plays a mean Trombone, will appear in person tonight is welcomed over on Central avenue. If only for the reason that he has a horde of fans on our side of the tracks. Just concluded a six week run at the famed Palladium ballroom in Hollywood, the Dunham dispensers of downright solid swing have one of the best white bands in the country today.

You can count me in on this date tonight. The place is the Elks hall. Dancing will get under way promptly at nine o'clock.

Father of Blues Publishes Book



W. C. Handy, the grand old man of music often referred to as the "Father Of The Blues," is the author of a newly written book titled "Unsung Americans." Immortalizing the great Negro Americans in song, it also contains short biographical data of outstanding Negro artists. Men like Frederick Douglas, Dr. Geo. Washington Carver, Bert Williams, and others.

BLUES SINGER

When the box-office-record-smashing Christine Chatman Orchestra winds its way through the states of West Veirginia lovers of good music will have an opportunity to see and hear the versatile lady of song, known as "Maye Belle," Blues singer.

These four lovely girls are just a few who will be seen in "Miss California Bronze Bathing Beauty Parade" on the stage of the Lincoln Theatre, Friday night, Sept. 22, 1944. Left to right: Charlene Spivey, 1383 W. 36th Street; LaVerna Madrid, 1753 Exposition Blvd., who are being sponsored by Chick's All Nite Cafe, 1883 West Jefferson; Kensadie Hill, 114th Street (Watts), sponsored by Alex Lovejoy's Breakfast Club, Central Avenue, near Vernon; and fourth Queenie King, of 2423 South Central Avenue, who is being sponsored by Prince's Sport Shop, 111 South San Pedro, near First Street. There will be $100 in bonds, three loving cups and many other prizes to the winners. Stars from screen, radio and stage will be the judges of this contest. Contest is still open to all girls from 16 to 25. You can enter by appearing at the Lincoln Theatre nightly, between 7:00 and 9:00 and ask for Mr. Ted Merriman.

Basie Band Sends Hepsters at Joe Morris' Plantation Club

By J. T. Gipson

Current show which premiered at the Plantation Thursday of last week, is just about the hottest to hit this neck of the woods in ages. Outstanding item is the Count Basie band. They had the opening night hepcats and hepchicks literally rockin' in rhythm. The new show is colorful and distinguished for its good showmanship.

Taken as a whole, it represents what is probably the best night-club attraction in Southern California.

Band opens with the familiar Basie trademark, "One O'clock Jump," after which a lad known ismply as "Shorts" Davis takes over the microphone and emcees nicely in a smooth and easy manner. Lad also clicked solidly with some mighty torrid tappin'. He's no Bill Bailey or Bill Robinson (what dancer is?) but he's definitely best of the crop of hoofers now appearing on the coast.

ANOTHER SINATRA?

Earle Warren, Harlem's answer to Frank Sinatra, had the chicks swooning all over the place when he sang "I'll Be Seeing You." On ballads this handsome hunk o' muscles has a swaying style that clicks with the fems. He also toots the Alto in the saxophone section. Another act worthy of praise is Patterson and Jackson, who bill themselves as "600 pounds of comedy." They live up to their billing. Boys have an act crowded with class. They sing and dance and do comedy to perfection, and their takeoff on the Four Ink Spots is as near perfect as any takeoff on the Four Ink Spots has a right to be. They, as they say in hep lingo, had 'em laying in the aisle!

Working enthusiastically and looking pert and pretty, Thelma Carpenter sang to two encores in a voice as soft as the glow of alter candles. Her torchanting catches and holds the crowds attention.

TOMMY DORSEY PLAYS

As a special feature of the evening, a group within the band known as the Kansas City Seven, came down from their respective chairs in the bandstand to beat out a couple of torrid tunes. The surprise of the evening being when Tommy Dorsey, seated at a ringside table with Pat Dane, Dave Rose, Buddy Rich, and Gloria DeHaven, came out on the floor, borrowed a trombone from one of the boys in the band, and blew up a mess o' sharps and flats. From the applause extended him, they loved the Sentimental Gentleman of Swing!

Joe Louis and Billy Rowe to Open Public Relations Office

Joe Louis is going to throw publicity instead of punches after the war. With the news coming out of Hollywood that the heavyweight champion of the world will open public relation offices on the strip with NY columnist Billy Rowe, the general consensus along bettors row is that Louis had planned all along to enter a new field after the duration.

According to Variety magazine, postwar office will represent Negro actors on stage, screen and radio. It's the same set-up columnist Phil Carter, Earl Griffin and Alyce Key attempted.

Rowe, one of the better writers now on overseas duty (as a war correspondent) was a frequent visitor to the Carter, Key and Griffin firm. And the champ's bosom buddie saw great possibilities in an office representing Negro actors of the stage, screen and radio.

COTTON PICKERS CAPTURE SOUTH

Just like Grant took Richmond, LeRoy Hardison's Carolina Cotton Pickers have captured the Solid South, on this their annual tour of that section.

They play the Dragon Ballroom, Mobile, next Friday. They then move to Tallulah and Monroe in Louisiana; Jackson and McComb, Mississippi and Shreveport, Louisiana.

Birmingham Black Barons to Clash With Homestead Grays

By C. W. Posey

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Arrangements for the 1944 World Series were completed last week. The series will be between Homestead Grays, representing the Negro National League and Birmingham Black Barons, representing the Negro American League.

The series opens at Birmingham, Ala., on Sunday, September 17th. Both clubs then move to New Orleans, La., for a night game September 19th and return to Birmingham, Ala., for a night game September 21st.

The competing clubs then come north, playing at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, on September 23rd. The next day, Sunday, September 24th, they are at Griffith Stadium, Washington, D. C. Should a seventh game be necessary, it will be played at Shibe Park, Philadelphia, on the night of September 29th.

No players in the armed forces will be permitted to play in the series. Only players who were on each club on August 10th, are eligible for the title series.

Four umpires, two from each league, will conduct the whole series. Umpires will rotate for each game.

The same playing rules which govern the White World Series will be enforced in the 1944 Negro World Series.

The contesting clubs have posted $1,000, forfeit, as a guarantee that they will live up to the agreement signed by both parties.

As no action was taken at the Joint Meeting in Chicago on August 14th, to cover a World Series, each club agreed to an Arbitration Committee consisting of Sam Lacey, Washington, D. C., Frank Young, Chicago, Ill., and Wendell Smith of Pittsburgh, Pa.

CROWD BOOS, BUT SATCHEL PITCHES ON—Satchel Paige, who winged for the Birmingham Barons against the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Clowns at Wrigley Field in Chicago, got the most tremendous and consecutive boos, it was said, that he had ever encountered during his baseball career. Paige hurled the second game for the Barons, who won 6 to 4, but was only allowed on the mound four innings of the exhibition contest, and was allowed 5 hits and 3 runs. Despite the fact that he fanned three and walked one, boos after boos greeted his every turn.

LARRY LOVETT, claimant to the heavyweight title of Florida, who holds a win over Elmer Ray, is coming to California the West Coast.

Set Sept. 15 Deadline for Postal Alliance Golf Meet

With a long list of amateur golfers from throughout California already entered in the second annual Postal Alliance Golf Tournament, prospective contestants are reminded that entry blanks must be filed before midnight Friday, September 15.

The tournament is sponsored by the Los Angeles branch of the National Alliance of Postal Employes and will be played Friday, September 22, at the Sunset Field Public golf course, over the No. 2 course. Prizes will be awarded in three flights, qualifying to be by handicap. "A" flight will play 36 holes, "B" flight will play 36 holes, and "C" flight 18 holes.

The tournament committee is composed of Mouton J. Cooper, 314 East 48th street, Adams 7729; Samuel Drake, 1622 West Jefferson boulevard, RE. 8072; Jerry C. Baldwin, 943 East 41st street, AD. 9064. Entry forms can also be secured from Jimmie Devoe at the Baldwin Hills Driving Range, La Brea at Cranshaw.

BASEBALL NOTES

It took over 40 minutes to play the two innings pitched by Satchell Paige against Homestead Grays at Washington, D.C., recently.

Something should be done to hurry these games, especially the night games.

It seems that Colored Umpires do not know the rules of baseball, or are too timid to enforce them. If they read the Rule Book, they will see that a pitcher is prohibited from rubbing the ball in his gloves or on his uniform. He is also prohibited from bringing the resin bag in contact with the ball. He is permitted to put resin in his hands.

Another Rule: All baseballs should be given to the umpire in charge before the game starts and have him rub the "shine" off the balls, and then see that they are deposited in a box in the ground near home plate for use in the game. As the umpire needs the balls, he gets them from the box in the ground.

This will do away with the dilatory habit of tossing new balls around to infielders before they are put into play.

We have found it a habit of Negro American League players to "rush" umpires around. Antics of this kind cost Negro National League players $25 for the first offense. Umpires should notify the "home clubs" to deduct and send the money to the League Treasurer, citing the offending player or players.

Ann Hunter In Recital

Ann Hunter, popular and talented member of the Choir at 8th and Towne Church will be presented in recital on September 26th, in the Church Auditorium.

This gifted singer whose contralto voice surprised and delighted those who heard her in recital in 1942, and who always pleases in her many appearances with the famous 8th and Towne Choir, is, like many contemporary artists, the product of a religious background. She has received encouragement from the Churches she has served so faithfully with her melodious voice.

Burley Retains Title By TKO Win Over Chase

SAN FRANCISCO.—Hard-hitting Charley Burley, 157, Pittsburg, Pa., kept his California State middleweight title intact by stopping Jack Chase, 159, Los Angeles, in the 12th round of a scheduled 15-round bout Monday night. Chase was knocked down three times before Referee Frankie Carter halted the battle.

It was a nip and tuck affair until ended. Chase was ahead on points at the climax due to his clever boxing. From time to time he shook Burley up with hard left hooks.

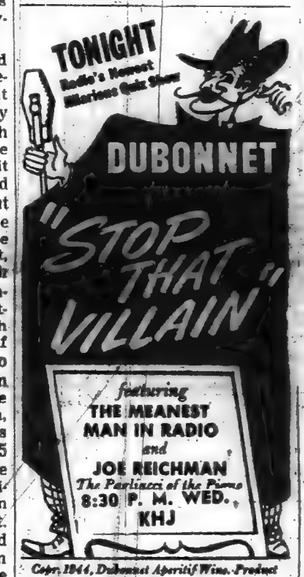
In the 12th heat Burley dropped Chase with a flurry of stiff right hand punches for a nine count. When Jack arose he was dropped again from hard rights for a count of seven. He got up only to be knocked down again and was on hands and knees when the fight was stopped.

Burley won the title from Chase during the early months of this year.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

AUGA CALIENTE, Mexico.—Like the invasion on D-Day was the way the form players nearly annihilated all the books of Boss E. L. Caress last Sunday when nine favorites greeted the winning circle of Generalissimo Eddie Nealis' famous Caliente race course. They started in the first race on the twelve-event program arranged by racing secretary, Judge Joe Walter. From then on to the seventh race the favorites ran like trained pigs. It was just like putting money in the bank and then going and drawing it out with interest. When the sixth's favorite won the cry from Eli Crutch, Andy Nealis, Al Brown, Lee (Greentie) Cochran, Jack Malley, Dennis Gorman, and Johnny (Clark Gable) Smile Nealis was heard calling for more money to payoff, and out came the runners with bags full, while long lines were waiting in back of the payoff windows.



Then came the eighth race and the second choice Alan was returned the winner of this event which didn't do the books any good. Right back in the ninth another rush was made to the books and the form players lit on Gold Sun who was favored by the fans and paid $6.80, but the real blow that nearly made the books weep was when the improved Carmen Ann, 6-5 shot, won the tenth race. The eleventh gave the books a slight breathing spell when the outsider Atlantic City was first to reach the wire in the feature event of the day, paying $10.60. Altho there was quite a play on him by those in on the coup. In the last race of the day, the 12th, saw the fans unbuckle their belts and set it on Ferdelance, 6 to 5 favorite, who won by three lengths. Thus ended the annihilation that the books had taken from the first race to the last. Ringmaster Boss Caress said after a hard day, I've never seen anything like it and yet some people say that Caliente is not a formful track. Well, they (meaning the public) picked them and I paid off. Yes, you did Boss, and with a smile. A foul was claimed in the first event but the eagle eye of the master official, Judge George Shilling, didn't agree with the jockey's claim.

With the fall meeting now in progress Caliente will offer some stake events for the best horses on the grounds. This Sunday the fans will again enjoy twelve or more events. So until then sport fans, keep smiling, have a little fun—buy more bonds. So-long and good luck . . George.

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

I am in receipt of a letter from a Dr. Earl Gould, D.C. of Los Angeles who rakes me slightly over the coals regarding my column of last week concerning Major Jones, a boxer suspended by the California State Athletic Commission recently because he hadn't attained the age of 18 years. Here is the good doctor's letter in full:

DEAR EDDIE:-

I don't know you but I read your piece every week and I think you write a good piece, but in this Major Jones you are all wrong and sloppy wet. Major Jones had his license revoked not because he was a bright prospect but because he was only 16. Law is law and it should be enforced. The decision is better for him, better for the fight game and better for the ones who like the fight game.

Why make a racial issue out of it. Or make a trial of the Nordic Race. Shame on you.

Major Jones did not get gypped out of anything. His life was made secure. Let the kid get an education. He is just a baby. I have seen too many "bright" prospects (?) land in the "booby hatch" walking on their heels. Why go overboard on the young kid. I could name at least 10 local boys who could beat him. In my opinion. You are wrong and thank the Commission they had brains enough to make him quit fighting in the State of California.

Yours truly,
DR. EARL GOULD

DEAR DOCTOR:-

In answer to your letter first let me agree with you in the fact that you don't know me. Without any attempt at bragging I'd like to give you a little of my background as a writer of sports, particulary inasmuch as fights and fighters are concerned. I have been writing sports for 25 years. I have written for the PITTSBURG COURIER, CHICAGO DEFENDER, ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS, LOUSINA WEEKLY, LOS ANGELES SENTINEL and various magazines to name a few publications. When Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis toured the South some years ago I arranged for his trip to New Orelans, La., being in Chicago at the time of his departure. I have worked as publicity man for two well-known fight promoters, Lew Diamond and Lew Raymond. I first started inter-city matches among the amateurs in New Orleans by yearly bringing a picked team of simon-pures to fight Chicago Golden Gloversin that city under the promotion of Eddie Plique at the Savoy Ballroom Arena. On one of my teams was Richard (Young) Polito, who later came out here and made a fair name for himself. Another boy was Herbert Williams, who holds the lightweight title now in Uncle Sam's army. As a fight manager I brought Wesley Farrell from Los Angeles where he had been fighting prelims and in three weeks he was a main eventer clearing a thousand dollars every Friday night. I also managed Wild Mexican Pete who came with Farrell to me from Denver, Colo. When Henry Armstrong dropped into New Orleans he picked me to write his life story and I came out to California with him in 1941. That is how I happen to be here. My experience should give me some knowledge of the game.

Back to Major Jones I think that you missed the boat by a country mile. In the first place my write-up wasn't an effort to discredit the California State Athletic Commission for enforcing its laws. The theme of my saga was the fact that another writer would bench this kid for reasons not yet clear. Of one thing I am sure. It wasn't tender sentiment regarding injury to the lad's health. You can bet your last kopeck on that. It might interest you to know as I so carefully pointed but which entirely escaped your attention that Major Jones wasn't any ordinary kid. Once in every decade an exceptional fighter comes along. Henry Armstrong was one, Joe Louis another. They are far advanced when they start in the game because they have a wealth of natural ability. Whether you believe it or not, Major Jones is such a kid and in his case I'll tell the Commission that it is a silly law that halts a budding career such as his. Your statement that you could name ten fighters here that could beat him is also silly. I certainly would like to hear you name them. It is evident that you must have been writing from hearsay. You couldn't have seen the boy in action and make such a wild statement.

The law you mentioned is a good law, in certain cases I approve of it but do I have to write it in letters a foot high on a blackboard that it shouldn't apply to a fighter that has had over two years or real experience as a golden glover against the toughest competition to be had in these United States and emerged a champion two years straight? If you think that a boy fighting as an amateur doesn't have to fight hard, then Brother you should sit in on a few Abe Roth's shows every Wednesday night at Hollywood. Jones had just as much chance to become punch drunk in the amateur ranks as in the pro grame if he continued as an amateur after two years of it. Suppose for an example that you had studied your trade until you had completed the course, asked for a license, started getting a fine practice and some busybody came along and had your license revoked? How would it feel to sit around for two years twiddling your thumbs and deprived of a chance to ply your trade. You don't have to answer that. I know you wouldn't like it. As far as being young is concerned it isn't a handicap, it is an asset. The future of the entire world is centered in its youth. As far as being a pro is concerned let us take little Phillippe Schuyler, 12 year-old Colored pianist. At nine she was giving concerts. Now at the ripe old age of 12 she is still giving concerts and composing symphonies. In many other fields you'll find children with exceptional ability that are so far above other children of their age that their tender ages are not to be considered.

Last but not least let us take your statement that I tried to make a racial issue of the matter. That is one thing I never did Doctor, for the simple reason that white people look the same to me as any other race and I personally think that I am equal in intelligence and ability to any person white, yellow or red that walks the earth. I think that any person writing on anything who brings the racial issue into the matter is suffering from an inferiority complex. I was just citing another case of a youngster fighting around here who seems to be definitely under age. The fact that the kid happens to be white has no bearing on the matter. Personally like Major Jones I think that Art Arregon is an exceptional fighter also and should be allowed to continue.

In conclusion I'll say again that Jones was gypped. Not by the California Athletic Commission but by a law that should be modified to some extent in cases of his kind and by a fellow who went out of his way to stop a brilliant youngster from advancing in his chosen profession. If Major Jones had been allowed to continue fighting you would have seen a lot of guys punchy all right but they would have been the opponents that faced the clever little southpaw. He was too clever a boxer to get hit often enough to affect his mentality. Only fighters that let opponents pound on their heads in order to get in a punch or two are likely to wind up jumping every time they hear a street car bell.

Yours for clean sports,
EDDIE BURBRIDGE

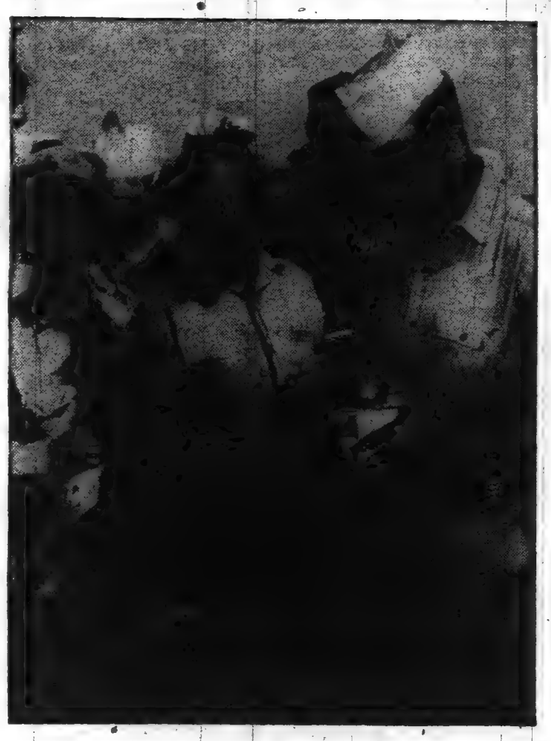
NEW YORK—Jimmy McDaniels, Los Angeles welterweight, 146, earned the right to meet either Henry Armstrong or Ray "Sugar" Robinson on Nov. 3, by winning a unanimous ten-round decision over Ralph Zannelli, 144½, Providence, R. I. at Madison Square Garden before 7468 fans last Friday night.

9 GAME SCHEDULE

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala.—A schedule of nine football games will be played by the Golden Tigers of Tuskegee during the current season it was announced here this week by the Committee on the Regulation of Athletics at the Institute.

Brilliant Halfback to Appear Here With San Francisco Team

America's greatest football player returns to the local gridiron wars for the first time in two years on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 17) when All-American Kenny Washington plays for the San Francisco Clippers against the Los Angeles Wildcats in Gilmore Stadium.



Former star halfback of the University of California at Los Angeles, Washington has played a few professional games for the Hollywood Bears, then coached by the now Major Paul Schissler of the Fourth Air Force eleven, but after injuring a leg seriously early in the 1942 season he turned in his uniform and joined the Los Angeles Police Dept.

"The greatest player who ever lived," said Major Schissler of Washington at that time.

Washington made his American league debut in the opening game at San Francisco where befofe some 10,000 fans in Kezar Stadium he received ragged support from a newly organized and unready team and dropped a 20-9 game to the league leading Hollywood Rangers. Coach Mike Pecarovich is reported to have strengthened his team considerably since that game, and with the boys having had a chance to practice a couple of weeks with Washington—which they didn't have time to do before the Ranger game — Pecarovich believes that he is ready to give Gloomy Gus Henderson's outfit a terrific battle.

Henderson himself agrees with this premise on the theory that any team having Washington in its lineup has the equivalent of a six-man backfield. "The former UCLA Negro is even today, after two years of retirement, one of the three best players in America," Henderson said here last week.

There are several star Negro players on Henderson's Wildcat eleven. Outstanding among them is Charles Anderson of Ohio State, All-Western Conference end in 1939-40. At the other end is Clem Hooks of Santa Barbara State, who outplayed every lineman on the field when the Wildcats tied the San Diego Gunners 7-7. An alternate wingman is Jack (Ripper) Thomas of Wiley who has never had a touchdown scored around his flank. An ace of the backfield is fullback Clarence Mackey, UCLA skitterback who is rated the fastest open field man in the league.

WILD SCRAMBLE FOR JOE'S AUTOGRAPH—Staff Sgt. Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, autographing "short snorters" as he visited Fleet Air Wing 15 somewhere in North Africa. The sergeant is reported to be on the way to America. —(PPNS).

BOXING BRIEFS

CLEVELAND.—It was announced from this city Tuesday that the Lloyd Marshall, Duration light-heavyweight champion, and Jimmy Bivins' boxing card scheduled for Sept. 21 has been canceled. While training for the bout, Bivins, who hurt his hand recently, opened up the lacerated knuckle wound on his right hand.

MATT OGLESBY may meet Frankie Martin at Oakland next month.

SAN FRANCISCO.—In the six-round semi-windup on the Burley-Chase boxing card Monday night, Alonzo Williams, 157, Los Angeles, lost by decision to Charley Catos, 161, Oakland.

NEWARK, N. J.—Dom Merritt, 209, Cleveland, won by a TKO in the fourth round over Jimmy (Shamus) O'Brien, 175, Philadelphia, Monday night.

BALTIMORE, Md. — George Kochan, 167, Akron, O., Monday night nodded Howard Bennett, 174¼, Baltimore (10).

CHICAGO. — Chuck Hunter, 149½, Cleveland, kayoed Jimmy Hunt, 150, Chicago (1), Monday night.

MATT OGLESBY, hard-hitting lightweight, is in training again following a two-weeks layoff due to an injured hand.

SAN DIEGO—Junior Washington, 156, San Diego, won a close 10-round decision over Alonzo Williams, 156, San Bernardino, last Friday night.

Peters Scores TKO Over Claus In Fifth Round

In a bar-room brawl at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night, Paulie Peters, 151½, San Francisco, won by a fifth-round technical knockout over Bobby Claus, 149½, Buffalo, N. Y. The boys had been slugging it out furiously for four rounds when in the fifth of the scheduled ten-round main event, Peters caught Claus with a terrific right to the chin, putting him down for a count of nine. Referee Abe Roth, going to the corner of Claus during the rest period, stopped the bout after viewing about six cuts all over the face of Bobby, inflicted by Peters slashing fists. Claus had been bleeding profusely.

In two six-rounders; Eli Galindo, 122½, nodded Kid Vera Cruz, 121, and Pete Viratos, 149, and Eddie Cerda, 148, drew. Two fours found George Fulton, 167, beating Billy Smith, 158, and Ivan Jones, 129, nodding Tommy De Ora, 123.

Decision of Joyce Over Slider Booed

OAKLAND, Calif.—Last Wednesday night Willie Joyce, 140, Gary, Ind., won an extremely unpopular 10-round decision over Chester Slider, 143, Fresno, Calif., before a large gathering of fans.

Referee Billy Burke's decision in favor of Joyce was lustily booed for five minutes after the battle. Joyce fought a running battle most of the way and went down for a no-count in the 10th heat.

AL HART BATTLES TURKEY THOMPSON

Tuesday night, September 19, Al Hart, 225-pound heavyweight, who starred at Xavier University of New Orleans, making his letter in football, basketball and track, will meet Turkey Thompson, leading West Coast heavy in the 10-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium.

Hart has beaten Lee Q. Murray, who recently defeated Thompson in Madison Square Garden, Eddie Blunt, Lorry Lane, Clint Conway and others. He holds a draw with Joe Baski and kayoed Wallace Cross.

Proving his speed despite his weight, Hart has run the 100 yard dash in 10.2.

Manuel Ortiz TKO's Castillo

Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight champion, weighing 118 pounds, scored a technical knockout in 2:30 of the fourth round of a scheduled 15-round title fight over Challenger Luis Castillo, 118, to retain his championship at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night. After Castillo had his left eye ripped open and was bleeding badly in the fourth, Referee Mushy Callahan called Dr. Lloyd Mace into the ring who ordered the fight stopped.

In the 6-round semi-final Willie Johnson, 169, scored a clean-cut kayo over Ray Acosta, 169, in the third heat with a terrific right cross to the jaw. Acosta was still out after the ten count.

In the fours; Trini Ortiz, 119, brother of Manuel, won a slugging bee over Joey Sanchez, 118, Julio Franco, 137, nodded Sonny Hill, 135, and Jimmy Williams, 147, decisioned Jackie Cooper, 154.

Ike Williams Winner of Split Decision Over Sammy Angott

PHILADELPHIA—Ike Williams, Trenton, N. J., lightweight and outstanding challenger for the crown, last Wednesday night won a split 10-round decision over Sammy Angott, former lightweight titleholder in an action-filled bout before 11,568 fans at Shibe Park. The crowd paid $34,251.62. Williams scaled 136 to 140½ for Angott.

After being outfoxed in the early going by the 28-year-old ex-champion Williams turned on the heat in the late going to grab the verdict. In the early sessions Ike could not solve Angott's looping left to the face, and was no match in the close going, but he took charge in the last four rounds to swing one judge and the referee to his side.

"Sugar" Robinson Booked In Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill. (C)—Number one welterweight Ray (Sugar) Robinson is slated to knock it out with Sgt. Lou Woods of Camp Grant, Illinois, at the Chicago Stadium, Oct. 27. The Sergeant, a boxing instructor, and Ray will go 10 rounds.

Augustain Meets Roman Starr at Hollywood Fri.

Frankie Augustain, club-fighting middleweight, back recently from New York where he made a hit with fans, will battle Roman Starr, Choctaw Indian, in a 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night.

Starr is a willing mixer, as is Augustain, which should provide plenty action for the fans Friday night.

Matchmaker Charley McDonald is busy lining up an attractive brace of preliminaries.

Thornton and McDaniels Take Singles Titles In Net Meet

The Pacific Coast Championship Tennis Tournament got under way Sunday, September 3, when matches began at 9 o'clock in the morning on the Ross Snyder playground courts. Jimmie McDaniels of Los Angeles beat Harold T. Mitchell of Oakland in the finals of the men's singles.

McDaniels victoriously took the title in three sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-0. This is the third title McDaniels has won this season.

Mrs. Eleese Thornton finally trounced Mrs. Eoline Thornton, by whom she has been beaten for years, for the crown in the women's singles, scoring 6-3, 5-7, 8-6. An upset came in women's doubles when Alma Oliver and Eleese Thornton bowed to Miss Tena Qualls and Mrs. Cecil Ramirez. However, Qualls-Ramirez were trumped by Mrs. Gwendolyn McDaniels and Eoline for the women's doubles title with a score of 6-3, 6-2.

Mixed doubles matches began the afternoon of Sunday and were completed on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock on Exposition Park courts. Mrs. Eoline Thornton and Harold T. Mitchell defeated Mrs. Eleese Thornton and Frank Johnson with a score of 2-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Slick Stock and Chalky Graham battled Alfred Bland and Frank Johnson in the finals of men's doubles. At dusk the match was called off until the following Sunday at 3 p. m. The scores were 14 all. It was decided among the players to start the match all over and the final score was 6-2, 6-2, 6-3, with Stocks and Graham, winners.

The California Eagle donated a trophy for the mixed doubles.

UNDER PRESSURE

Heartaches, disappointments, trials and tribulations should give us the proper incentive to press onward to future happiness and contentment. Even as the boiler fires in the hold of a mighty ship give force that moves the piston, drives the engine, and propels that great vessel across the sea.

We are living in days of undue pressure, but do not become discouraged. The exepriences you have during these war days will bring the real value of life to the front. The pressure helps us to understand the trials of others and should make us more sympathetic and understanding.

E.E. Dear Prof. Herman: May I thank you for your kind information and advice. I certainly appreciate it for you solved my problem. You are right when you say everyone needs a friend or someone they can confide in, and I have found you to be just the person.

J.K.F. What will be the outcome of my decision?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that your decision has been a good one and you will be more satisfied now that you have definitely made up your mind what you are going to do. Look forward to the future, for it holds many interesting events.

Mrs. E.F. Do either of the men mean matrimony?

Ans. Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate your entering into another marriage within the very near future. I am willing to help you with this matter if you will write in for a private reply.

R.L.C. What shall I do?

Ans. There is no need to worry my friend, the worst is now over. You are on the road to recovery and all that is needed now is for you to rest and follow your doctor's instructions. Patience are also required, as it takes much longer to recuperate.

C. W. Will we ever meet again?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that you live in different cities but, I also vision your meeting again in the near future. You will both attend a social of some kind that will bring about this meeting.

W.B.S. Dear Sir: I am a constant reader of your column and wish to get some advice from you. Is my husband unfaithful?

Ans. It appears to me that you are accusing your husband of a certain woman, but since you have no definite grounds I want to be sure. My suggestion is for you to dismiss your doubts and suspicions and have a little omre faith in him. Also try being a better companion, in this manner, I am sure you will find your marriage life more successful.

L.B. Should I move, or remain here?

Ans. My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals a change in location next year, but at this time I do not recommend your making any moves.

S.F.D. What should I do?

Ans. It would be wise to listen to your father, and obey him. For he has his reasons for suggesting to you to remain away from this man. Perhaps you can rpove to your father that this man's intentions are strickly honorable as time goes on and he remains a perfect gentleman.

A.B.C. Will I get the job I am applying for?

Ans. Your lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate your being able to obtain this job, just be patient. You are fully qualified and I see no reason why you should not be successful in getting it.

American Negro

sons of all nationalities the same rights.

I want an America which will believe in the motto that united we stand—divided we fall; I want a truly great and undivided America.

I want an America to which I may return and marry the girl of my choice and God will bless us with the great blessing of parenthood, to be able to send my sons or daughters to school and give them the best education that my position may afford, according to their ambitions. I want them to be able to choose their careers and maintain their goals, that if they strive hard enough they may make a name for themselves in the world in any field.

I want to rear them without the fear of osctracism and the fear of Dr. James Crow. I want them to act as men and women and as American citizens regardless of where they may be, whether North, South, East, or West. If they have earned the high respects of being good citizens, able to exercise those privileges every where.

I want them to enjoy the fruits of democracy to its greatest extent, to believe that the four freedoms is a reality—not merely a by-word. I want them to reap the benefits of democracy to live together with Americans of all colors and creeds in perfect harmony-the same as I am serving with Americans now.

I want them to have the convictions that all men are created equal. These are some of the questions which I'd like to ask of White Americans because these are the thoughts that are passing through my mind.

Am I asking too much when I ask for the privilege of being represented at the peace table?

Am I asking too much when I ask for the privilege of sharing in the victory after the shooting is over—the same as I'm sharing in the fighting now?

These things which I ask may seem to be too great a demand, however, for me to be the things all loyal Americans deserve and earn at a very high cost; (when I say high I mean just that, misery, suffering, bleeding, anxiety, heartache, pain and death.)

May I ask this question—are not I and my fellow black Americans proving ourselves loyal and sincere to this country of ours? Are not we making an all-out effort to preserve democracy in this great land of ours?

It seems to me as if we're proving in this crisis the same as we've done in every other crisis that our country has faced. So, as a natural course, those things of which I dream should be made possible through the cooperation of all Americans.

As I write, tonight is Christmas Eve and my thoughts are carried back to that time when God made men the gift of His Son, which is the only promise of lasting peace—and I think of the angels song, "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men." As I think, I pray that by the time another Christmas comes, peace will have come to our home land again.

I pray that with the return of peace there may be a new insight, a different outlook, a deeper understanding between Americans of the term race; I pray for a completely united America, an America free from racial strife and foolish traditions which teach that one American is better than another; I pray that democracy will hold full sway in our national life. I pray, too, that beneath the hands of the Almighty God we may continue to be loyal and sincere and true to this rich country of ours and that America under the guidance of God may always remain the land of opportunity. May it always be great and continue to grow greater, becoming a shining light to the world, that men who have democracy as their foundation, freedom as their level, faith as their square, truth as their guiding light, and the Almighty God as their architect, Author and Finisher of their trust and faith, have built and will continue building the world's greatest country.

ALL LINES LEAD TO Victory

Straight to the Axis heart go block buster bombs. Literally, of course, they don't go piggy-back by street car. Fast as our streamliners are, they're not speedy enough for the actual delivery. Super fortresses take care of that part of the necessary job.

But . . .

Those block busters actually do get off to a good start by street cars and coaches . . .

Those bombs for the fighting fronts are built by civilian soldiers on the home fronts—workers who depend upon street cars and coaches to get them to their jobs on time. We will not let them down. We will deliver these people who deliver the goods. For every transportation employee has dedicated himself to victory—striving day and night to make doubly sure that the Los Angeles made bombs reach their destination without delay.

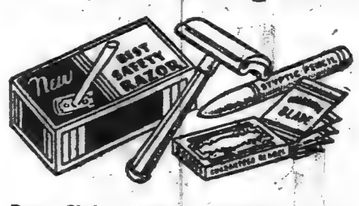
A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?



Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

A. A. GITTENS

It is sold, the property advertised last week at 3734 W. Adams, is now off the market. But, I just listed a 9 family apt. at 3800 W. Adams. This is a gorgeous place, 6 years old. It has 5 double apts., 4 single apts., and 9 garages. This is the best money can buy. Income is $425 per month unfurnished. This must be a cash deal which is $39,000.00. You can borrow at least $20,000 on it. Please investigate this. Also have a 14 room stucco at 2081 W. Adams, full price $20,000. This requires ½ cash and the balance $150 per month. Several other furnished and unfurnished 6 and 7 room homes on Second and Third Avenues.

My constant plea is—be your own landlord. Buy real estate and bonds and you won't go wrong.

Fannie Williams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower

Fannie Williams Excelsior Guaranteed Hair Grower has been on the market for years. It is a wonderful preparation. It stops harsh and brittle hair from breaking and falling. It corrects itching scalp, ring worms, tetter and eczema, and keeps your scalp in a very healthy condition. It is not a gummy or stick grower. It leaves the hair natural and soft and the hair grows rapidly.

You can get the grower at the following places:

Dorothy's Beauty Salon, 1821 Imperial Highway, Watts.
Ethical Drug Store, 1490 West Jefferson Boulevard.
Mrs. Fannie Williams, 1749 S. New Hampshire.
Mrs. Corrine Grayson, 1247 E. 53rd St.

38th Commencement Held at Biggers Business College

On last Monday evening, eight o'clock, a vast audience assembled in the Auditorium of Biggers Business College to witness the graduation exercises of this noted and historic institution. Orations were delivered. A very fine historic sketch of the college was given by Attorney Clarence A. Jones, which was an inspiring review of the works of President Biggers and his school. Rev. J. D. Gordon delivered a very thrilling and interesting address. He spoke principly of the accomplishments and noble achievements of Prof. Biggers, paying a great tribute to the fruitful works of the Institution. Diplomas were presented to the following graduates: Maurice Carter, Lenora Johnson, Ella Daniels and Aurora B. Greeley.

VISITORS

Mrs. Letha Johnson of Needles, Calif., has been the house guest of Mrs. Terrio of Spruce Street for the past week.

Mr. Harry Whittaker, nephew of Mr. Tom Andrews, and now living in Los Angeles, and Pvt. Adolphus Thompson of Victorville were the week end guests of Mrs. Jimmie Mitchell of Spruce Street.

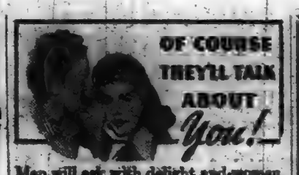
Nelson Patterson, now one of Uncle Sam's Marines, was home on a three-day pass last week. Aside from his family, all of his friends were glad to see him and to note how well he looks. The service has made him grow up. We wish for him all possible success.

Rev. Reese occupied the pulpit at St. Paul A.M.E. Church last Sunday. The Rev. J. L. Boyd has been transferred to the Arizona Conference and will pastor the church in Tuscon. We will miss him, but wish for him all possible success. Rev. Boyd has done great work in this community and has won the hearts of many.

Shriners Meet Here at Mosque

Recently 100 Shriners assembled in the Mosque at 1050 E. 50th St., Los Angeles, Calif., to resume activities after two months vacation.

The highlights of this meeting were the excellent report from our Potentate Noble William Tatum, who gave in minute detail of every bit of action at the 44th Annual Convention just closed in Indianapolis, Ind.



Egyptian Temples high ranking. Noble, Joe L. Oliver, was elected for a three-year term as assistant Robin of the Imperial Divan.

BAY CITIES

The Mothers' Charity Club, a unit of the state federation resumed its fall activities when Mrs. I. D. Reid, of Ward st., was hostess at a novel birthday party Labor Day. Guests contributed toward a war bond for the benefit of Fannie Wall Children's Home and Day Nursery, Inc. Oakland. Mrs. M. C. Netherlands is president of the organization.

Special guests present included Mesdames Ada Hawkins Jackson, past state president, Ruddick, and Newsome, the last named of Houston, Texas.

Miss Idell Vertner of Seattle, Wash., spent two weeks in these parts vacationing with her mother, Mrs. Delphine Anderson in Ashby ave., and visiting friends. Miss Verner is the executive secretary of the Seattle branch YWCA.

Men will ask with delight and women with envy, what makes you look so lovely. Let them guess. Don't tell them how much the right shade of face powder has to do with adding to your good looks. Black and White Face Powder has been a great favorite for years. 6 flattering shades from which to choose yours. See how perfectly it blends with your skin, adds a glowing freshness all its own. Black and White Face Powder's soft "magic mist" texture makes your skin feel smooth as velvet to the touch. And although it fluffs lightly on face, neck and arms, it clings for hours, softening the effects of harsh lights and shadows. Big economy sizes only 26c at toilet goods counters everywhere.

NEW YORK—Here's a sailor who's politically hep. He's Seaman 1/c James Vincent Spruill, who turned the tables on PAC Worker Trudie Behrle when she started to give him "hows" and "whys" on voting. James not only knew the voting regulations but was carrying the PAC program in his hip pocket. Together they're reading, "The best way to repay our servicemen and women in part for what they are doing today, is to attain the goal of full employment and thus assure them of jobs and security upon their return to civilian life."

Balloon Barrage Battalion Downs 22 Nazi Planes

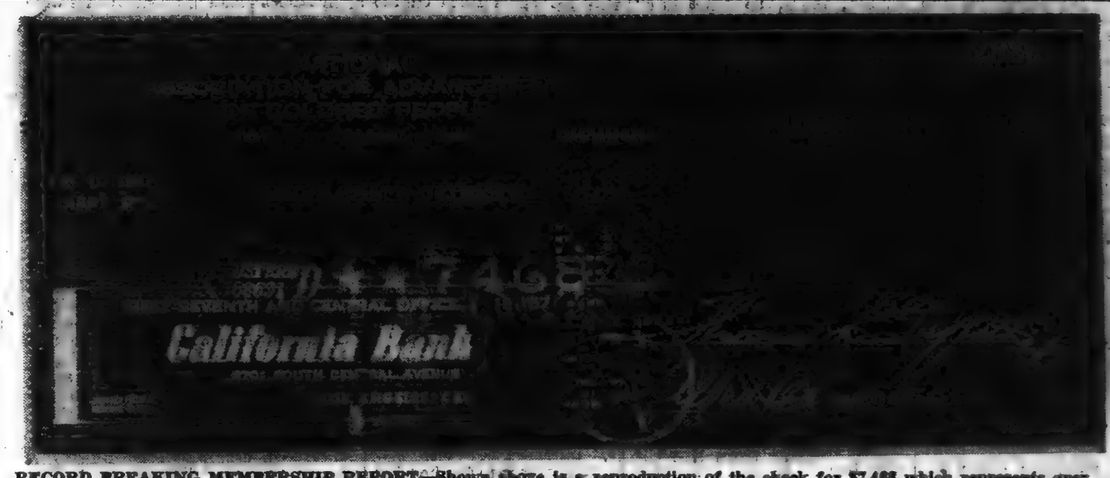
By John S. Kinloch
(California Eagle War Correspondent)

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE—Clip this. Save it. Stick it betwwen the pages of the Family Bible and let it yellow with age. But never lose it.

Inevitably, there will come a day when some walking delegate of the Ku Klux Klan will sidle up to you and observe that Negro troops in this war served only as laborers.

First, you spit in his eye, and, second, you belt him soundly across the head with and handy lamp-post. When down, kick him briefly 'til the toes show signs of dropping off, then find yourself a comfortable perch somewhere in his mid-section, whip out the old clipping and read this off:

THE ROAD INTO FRANCE WAS PAVED WITH THE BLOOD OF NEGRO TROOPS



In the first wave of our assault, colored combat engineers and crewmen of a fighting barrage balloon battalion stuck their big toes firmly into the front door of Hitler's Festung. Europe.

Giant bull-dogers banged into the concrete walls that were the picket fence around the Nazi world. They tore the mangled gaps through which the first bloody tumult of our advance poured. They charged into a deafening thunder of fire from the nightmare German 88's. In many places, combat engineers were the first ashore. Infantry had been blown into bits or down to Davy Jones Locker.

One of the truly great stories of this war was the assault of a Negro barrage ballon battalion at 10:30 on the morning of D-Day. With three men assigned to a balloon, these troops waded ashore, blimps flying scarcely one hundred feet over their heads and protecting the whole seething attack force against low altitude strafing and bombing. Casualties were heavy. BUT THE BALLOONS CAME ASHORE, blanketing the sky with protection for all the troops under them. In the first few hours of operation on French soil, the Battalion had two German planes to its credit, and shortly thereafter the score sky-rocketed to 22.

As I write this, three Negro Artillery outfits are zeroed into one of the great Nazi-held seaports of France. Their withering fire has brought commendation from all superior officers and higher

RECORD BREAKING MEMBERSHIP REPORT—Shown above is a reproduction of the check for $7,468 which represents over 10,000 new members who were signed by the local NAACP in the recent National Membership Drive. A record was set in this campaign, the captains and workers having raised more money than in any drive of this organization on the Pacific Coast. The check is signed by Thomas L. Griffith Jr. and Albert Bauman, President and Treasurer, respectively of the Los Angeles branch of the National Association for the Advance of Colored People.

THE NEGRO people realize their roll in this war's drama. They realize that their part in it is to help to abolish slavery all over the world.

"Negro leaders, like all minority leaders, are traditionally Guerilla tacticians. Thy avoid, when they can, a hopeless struggle against the unified forces of opposition."

I have listened and read carefully after Governor Dewey since he announced his candidacy for the office of president. To date, I have heard nothing from him that impressed me with his fitness to head our great nation. Envision our future should Dewey become president.

Across the continent, wending its way from New York to California comes the Dewey Caravan. In the center, moustache and all, sits Dewey surrounded by some of my good Republican diplomats, representatives of the financial world, reporters and cameramen. Why, Westbrook Pegler was surprised to discover two real live, vibrating, Negro reporters among the number; and wonder of all—Pegler discovered that these Negroes were civilized and decent.

But with all these assets, Mr. Dewey is not able to tell us, the voting people, just how he is going to help to make the world a better place for all.

Governor Dewey started his campaign with a severe attack of New Deal Indigestion; and, to date, he has belched accusations of every kind against the Roosevelt Administration. One cannot believe what he hears from Mr. Dewey as he drives his caravan across the Middle West humming on to California, where he will make a

L. A. Negro Air Pilot Shoots Down First Enemy Plane

15TH AAF IN ITALY—Second Lieutenant William H. Thomas, 25, P-51 Mustang Fighter Pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Thomas of 1432½ W. 36th St., Los Angeles, California, shot down his first enemy aircraft, a FW-190, while protecting heavy bombers over targets in Southern Germany.

Lieutenant Thomas is a member of the first All-Negro Fighter Group in the Army Air Forces. It is commanded by Col. B. O. Davis, Jr. Formerly, the group flew convoy and patrol missions with the Coastal Air Force. It is now a part of the 15th Air Force and flying as escort for heavy bombers.

Lieutenant Thomas' formation intercepted some FW-190s in attempt to attack a formation of bombers. The highly maneuverable P-51 proved far superior to the not too aggressive enemy fighters.

No Conspiracy To Mutiny Says Navy Chaplain At Port Chicago

(Reprinted from P.W.)

TREASURE ISLAND, Sept. 18.—Lieutenant Commander J. M. Flowers, navy chaplain, today exploded the argument of Lieutenant Commander Frank Coakley, judge advocate, that 50 Negro sailors, on trial for mutiny for refusing to load ammunition after the Port Chicago explosion, had participated in a conspiracy to mutiny.

Flowers, chaplain at the Naval Barracks ammunition depot at Mare Island where the mutiny occurred, told the court martial in the biggest mass trial in Navy history that the accused men were respectful, obeyed their petty officer, and told him they would do any other kind of work except load the ammunition.

Flowers said that on the day of the mutiny, three weeks after the fatal Port Chicago explosion July 17, in which more than 200 of their fellows had been killed, he was ordered to talk with the men. He said they told him they were afraid and did not want to handle the ammunition. Several of the men asked if they were not entitled to survivors' leave, to which he answered he didn't know.

"Some of the men had tears in their eyes," he said, "and the general sentiment was that "You can fight back in foxholes but not here."

Flowers' statement coincided in some respects with previous testimony that the men had not refused to obey other orders, but

Helen Douglas To Speak Sunday At Masonic Hall

"Support Pres. Roosevelt for Victory abroad and Security at Home" will be the subject of a talk by Helen Gahagan Douglas at a Southeast Political Rally to be held in Masonic Hall, 1230 E. Florence Ave., (near Hooper) on Sunday, Sept. 24th at 6:30 p.m.

Widely known on her record of activity in the interests of the common people of our country, Mrs. Douglas is a candidate for Congress in the 14th Congressional District.

The CIO Rubber Workers Union at the Goodyear plant, sponsoring the meeting, has a membership of several hundred Negroes and takes this special means of inviting all Negroes to be present at this meeting and hear the talk of Helen Gahagan Douglas. Also included will be a short talk by Superior Court Judge Stanley Mosk and a brief interval of entertainment. Light refreshments will be served and the admission is free.

UNA In Big Mass Meeting Protest Housing Bias

By D. G. Gibson

RICHMOND, Calif.—The United Negroes of America of Richmond, Calif., staged a big mass meeting recently in protest against discrimination allegedly practiced by the Richmond Housing Project against Negroes by persistent refusal to house Negroes.

The meeting, held at the Brotherhood hall in Fifth st., found the militant William H. Brown, the main speaker, who is the organizer and chairman of the UNA, giving the historical background of the movement, including its purposes, accomplishments and its future outlook.

A seven-point resolution, setting forth many evils to which Negroes here are forced to submit, was adopted by the body. Flanked by a delegation of 100 members of the organization, Mr. Brown presented the resolution to the Richmond City Council at a conference, Monday evening, Sept. 11, when a representative of the Richmond Housing Authority was also present.

The resolution charged that Negroes were being denied ac-

Reward Waiting

Mrs. W. W. Calvert of 1320 S. Burlington, whose phone number is DRexel 9893, is anxious to contact the three young men who assisted her mother when she was injured by a Pacific Electric Trolley Car at Venice and Hill, near the Fraun Wiggins Trade School on July 21st at 11 A. M. The boys were so helpful and considerate, one having first aid until the ambulance arrived, that Mrs. Calvert wants to give them a reward.

IN HIS FOOTSTEPS—Hoping to take up where her brother, a war casualty, left off, Frances Anna Foster, 1308 Newton Street, enlisted in the Women's Army Corps this week. Private Foster is now at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for basic training after which she will be assigned to the branch of service, the type of job and initial station of her own choosing. Mrs. Foster's brother, Marmon Jones, a member of the Coast Guard, gave his life in defense of his country, and his sacrifice inspired his sister to carry on the fight. She was born in Seattle, Washington, and attended Garfield High School there. She formerly worked as a mail and order clerk for the WPB in Seattle. Her husband, W. M. Manley Foster, is overseas with one of the invasion armies in Europe.

Gen. Davis Gives DFC to Negro Air Heroes

HEADQUARTERS, 15th ARMY AIR FORCE, ITALY—Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, commanding officer of an all-Negro Fighter Group of the 15th Army Air Force in Italy, and three other Negro air heroes, were presented with the Distinguished Flying Cross Sunday, September 10, by Brigadier General Benjamin O. Davis of the Office of the Inspector General, the War Department announced.

The ceremony, described as stirring and attended by Lieutenant General Ira C. Baker, Commander-in-Chief, Mediterranean Allied Air Forces; Major General Nathan Twining, commander of the 15th Air Force, and Brigadier General Dean C. Strouther, commander of a fighter wing, was held before a formation of the entire fighter group and 15th Air Force band which were drawn up in review.

Distinguished Flying Crosses also were presented to Captain Joseph D. Elsberry, 114 West Washington Boulevard, Langston, Oklahoma; First Lieutenant Jack D. Holsclaw, 2301 W. College Avenue, Spokane, Washington, and First Lieutenant Clarence D. Lester, 5329 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Acquitted Of Assault

George Joseph Keller, former employee of the Army Air Base in Los Angeles, had charges of Assault with a Deadly Weapon dismissed against him in Montebello Township last week, after hearing before the Justice of the Peace of that court.

The charges arose out of an altercation between Keller and a Mexican. Attorney H. L. Richardson represented Keller.

YOUNG MATRON PASSES

Taxpayers Form Permanent Group To Fight Restrictions

Recognizing the need to continue its work against restrictive clauses and discrimination against Negro residents in certain sections of the city, the committee which has been meeting on Friday nights in the California Eagle building voted to become a permanent organization last week. California Eagle editor-publisher, Charlotta A. Bass, was elected president, with Miss Lorraine Mathieu and Mrs. H. A. Reeves, named as secretary and treasurer, respectively. Bessie W. Simon, Mrs. Mary Michener, Mrs. Sadie Louise Davidson, Mrs. A. M. Brown and John Dial comprise the executive committee.

Particular emphasis was placed on the case of Henry Laws, 1235 E. 92nd Street, who had owned the lot at that address for twelve years. Three years ago he built a home on the lot, and he lived there until he was notified that because of the restrictions in that section, he would have to vacate. Court action sustained the notification, although no time has been set for him to vacate.

TO ENLIST COOPERATION

The committee voted to refer the case to the churches, the NAACP, which took action in the case on a previous occasion, and the Urban League. The committee will raise funds to assist in the expense of carrying this and other cases to the highest courts. All property owners and taxpayers are requested to attend the next meeting which will be held in the California Eagle building this Friday night. The area in which the proposements of restrictions are at present active extends from Figueroa to Central, and from Slauson to Manchester.

Sacred Recital By Porgy & Bess Cast

Assata Marshall, Edna Walker, Eulapel Riley, and John Marshall, stars in the Porgy & Bess Show, will be presented in Sacred Recital, Sunday, September 24th, 4:45 to 6 p.m., at the Hamilton Methodist Church, E. 18th St. and Naomi Ave. Each soloist is an artist in his or her own right, and are members of the famous Eva Jessye Choir, which is so well known from coast to coast.

You are urged to hear them. Admission free. Silver offering. Nelle Plant of the same company will be the guest soloist for the 11 a.m. service.

Another Scottsboro?

Three Negro young men have been sentenced to death in the electric chair in Jacksonville, Fla., for the alleged rape of a white woman. They are: James Williams, 26; Fred Lane, 19; and James Davis, 16. There was only a brief two-hour trial, bristling with the lynch spirit as state militia highway patrolmen crowded into the courtroom armed with rifles and tommy guns while an angry mob howled outside.

Gov. Spessard L. Holland, who previously appealed for adequate protection during the "trial," said he intended to prevent Florida's name from being stained by a lynching and that he expects the sentence to be carried out as quickly as the law provides.

Labor and other progressive groups, however, say the case has all the earmarks of a Scottsboro frameup. They are rallying to the support of the defendants believed to be the victims of those who wish to prevent the Negro people from gaining full equality in the war.

Wins Case

Mrs. Selina Rudd, residing at 926½ East Olympic Boulevard, and whose husband is now in the armed forces of the United States, obtained a judgement last Friday in the Superior Court before Judge Emmett Wilson for the amount of her equity in a 1942 Buick Sedan which she had turned over to a white man by the name of Harold Stone on the 21st day of February, 1944.

AME ZION CONFERENCE

THE AME ZION CONFERENCE STARTS WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27TH, 1944, AT BROWN TEMPLE CHURCH, 1201 EAST 43RD STREET, LOS ANGELES. THE CONFERENCE WILL BE IN SESSION UNTIL OCTOBER 1st. CHARLOTTA A. BASS, EDITOR-PUBLISHER OF THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE, WILL DELIVER THE ADDRESS OF WELCOME ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

strong appeal for the nation's labor vote.

Labor has not always felt towards the Negro as it does today. There was a time when Negroes, right here in California, played the scab role in the labor movement. But the great workingmen's organizations came to an understanding within themselves. They could not shake off slavery from the white workers and leave the colored workers in chains.

These labor unions on the whole have welcomed Negro workers into their ranks. Of course, there are some, like the Boilermakers, who insist upon discrimination; but with the C.I.O. and many of the A. F. of L. locals on the job against such practices of discrimination and segregation, they are on their way out. And, no doubt, the Political Action Committees will have a great deal to do with their elimination.

At a meeting of the State Industrial Council last week at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. it is said that the Council was stopped dead in its tracks when 1,000 delegates representing 1,000,000 workers participated in a spontaneous half-hour demonstration following a unanimous vote endorsing President Roosevelt for a fourth term.

A message from Governor Dewey, Republican Presidential candidate denouncing the C.I.O. Political Action Committee as a "labor front" and challenging the abiltiy of PAC chairman, Sidney Hillman, to "deliver" the labor vote received a demonstration that was a direct contrast to the one given Roosevelt.

Negroes, even sweet little Crystal Byrd Fauset, who are supporting Dewey for President, are blind to the benefits received from labor and incidently, the present administration.

Who is making the fight against Jim Crow in Greater New York and Northern New Jersey? Not Mr. Dewey—he is busy runnining for President, none other than the C.I.O.

Who initiated the Fair Employment Practices Committee, Federal Housing, Unemployment Insurance, and many other measures for the well-being of Americans as a whole.

Who recognized the one-third—ill-housed, ill-clothed, and ill-fed—and set about to remedy the situation?

There is only one answer—ROOSEVELT!

The election of Thomas E. Dewey would mean backtracking twelve years to Hoover and the promised chicken that never materialized in every pot. No, Mr. Dewey, labor heard you before you spoke. Labor is on the march, and no pleasings, or threats by you will stop it.

Breakfast Club Proprietors Say Ordinance Discriminates

When the City Council recently amended Ordinance 28.16, directed against breakfast clubs and which barred any place which operated between the hours of 12 midnight and 6 in the morning from conducting business unless by special permit, Roy "Sonny" Howard of the DYER— DYER—.. m.... llord-va-: Apex Breakfast Club on Central Avenue was one of the first to be arrested charged with its violation.

Protesting the ordinance on the claim that it is discriminatory, a group of breakfast club owners appeared before the Police Commission Tuesday, represented by Attorney Walter L. Gordon, Jr. They were: Tommy Lewis (Creole Palace); William "Honey" Murphy (Outskirts Club); Co-owners Roy Howard and Harry Bigelow (Apex); J. P. Brown (Zombie), and Jack Keeling (Red Front). Also attending was Edward Bailey, an official of the Musicians' Union.

After a persuasive argument by Attorney Gordon the Commission voted to reconsider the applications of those present whose previous applications had been denied and ordered that no arrests be made until it had again ruled on the applications.

In one of the highlights prejudice was injected into the meeting when Capt. Florenson of the Police Department, it is said, asked Tommy Lewis of the Creole Palace if he allowed Negroes and Whites to sit together in his club. Tommy replied in the affirmative, stating that he did not discriminate against any person or persons.

No complaint has been made against Mr. Howard yet. He is charged with violation of the ordinance but is out on bond. It is quite possible that in view of the new developments he will soon be cleared.

cess to the housing facilities, and were denied employment with the Housing Authority. It asked for the dismissal of the executive director of the Housing Authority and two others of its employees, whose attitudes toward Negroes are unfriendly.

The resolution further charges that families of service men, now overseas, have been evicted when the families had no place else to move; and that Negroes were forced to live under most untoward conditions, sometimes 10 to 12 people sharing a one-bedroom apartment.

The closing thought of the resolution referred to the increased Negro population since 1942, a 10% to 20% of the total population while receiving less than 6% of the housing facilities. A meeting between the UNA and the Housing Authority has been appointed in further attempt to iron out the existing problems charged by the organization.

38 Years of Service To Agriculture Ends

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Richard T. Epps, colored sub-professional worker in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Animal Industry, retired on August 31 after completing 38 years in the Department.

Mr. Epps, who had served under three bureau chiefs, and incidently, nine Secretaries of Agriculture, entered the Department in 1906. His work was that of carefully bottling and sealing veterinary biological products. These products, including vital tuberculin, are used in the control and eradication of livestock diseases.

No Conspiracy At Port Chicago

expressed reluctance to handle ammunition after the Port Chicago disaster.

PREJUDICE CITED

Meanwhile, local Negro leaders continued to point to extenuating circumstances which they feel should be taken into account by the court martial.

Mrs. Irma Lewis, beautician of Oakland declared that "The Negroes over here are up in arms about this and the reason is this: We concede the fact that a superior officer's command is to be obeyed but we know that prejudice exists in the Navy. These men have all served to load those ships that were blown up in Port Chicago and their nerves are shot to pieces. This work of loading is work for stevedores and we mothers want to know why these loading crews are all Negroes."

Said Reverend C. D. Tolliver, San Francisco minister:

"We feel that it is unfair that Negroes should always be assigned to the dangerous tasks. These jobs are not limited to one particular racial group."

Mrs. E. Ridley, member of the "House of Ruth" organization stated that "our people have had to fight for this country and yet we constantly come up against Jim Crow policies that make us wonder what we are fighting for. If Negroes are trained as seamen, why can't they be seamen? Why are they limited to laborers' jobs no matter what their qualifications are?"

headquarters. But the greatest tribute is that of the infantry.

Ordinary fighting men understand better than anyone else the value of accurate artillery fire. It tears up deadly enemy machine gun nests, silences the guns that are chopping down your comrades right and left. The noice of a big 240 mm. pounding away into the night is one of the sweet melodies of a battle to the grimy, battle-worn infantrymen who are pushing the borders of freedom forward mile by mile day by day.

You can lay in a fox-hole and listen to the heart-beat of the three big guns, knowing that everytime they throb there are less of the enemy out front waiting to blow you six ways from the middle.

The infantry around those three Negro artillery units love 'em. Time and again their fire has zeroed dead into the heart of machine gun concentrations, enemy assault formations and all his supply lines.

Negro Signal Construction Companies have laced the United States Army together in a tight unity of huming phone wires, often in the midst of battle and death. In all kinds of weather, even when it's raining bullets, the boys of this outfit take to the phone poles, stringing a net-work of communication between many of the war's most important command posts.

Sepia gasoline companies follow our motorized Army to the front lines—and beyond. Here is what the Army's official newspaper, "Stars and Stripes' has to say about these units: "We often refuel and rearm tanks even while fighting. That takes guts. Our Negro outfits delivered gas under constant fire—damned if I'd want their job. They had what it takes."

It is supposed to be lowly labor, the job of Port Companies, the stevedoring arm of the United States Army.

But what about unloading freight and cargo upon which the outcome of the battle for a continent may depend in the midst of a wailing sirens, bombing attacks and ack-ack fire?

This has been the work of Negro troops in France.

This report is only a fraction of the true picture.

The real story is an epic, written in blood.

Hannegan Asks Republicans to Cease "Foreign-Born" Attacks

NEW YORK—Charges that Republican campaign speakers are injecting racial prejudice into the election were voiced by Robert E. Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, this week. Hannegan, pointing out that Republican spokesmen are repeatedly referring to Sidney Hillman, CIO Political Action Committee chairman, as "foreign born," termed this "a clear injection of racial prejudice into the campaign." "This is not an attack upon one man," Hannegan asserted. "It is an attack upon all foreign-born American citizens."

He declared that he was glad to see that Herbert Brownell, GOP national chairman, had joined him in a statement to the National Conference of Christians and Jews pledging to keep racial and religious prejudices out of the campaign.

CALLS FOR REPUDIATION

"In view of his statement, I call upon Mr. Brownell to repudiate the statements and speeches of Republican orators, to repudiate this type of propaganda, these racial prejudices," Hannegan stated.

Marquis Childs, widely-circulated columnist, warned in his column of September 15 that "the smear attack directed at Sidney Hillman is essentially un-American." He termed the anti-Semitic attacks on Hillman "playing with the fire of racial hatred."

SUPERVISOR McDONOUGH GETS ANOTHER GRANDSON

Gordon L. McDonough, the Third, arrived in Los Angeles at the Good Samaritan Hospital last Friday at 5:30. His father is Lt. (j. G.) of the U. S. Navy and is somewhere in the South Pacific on a destroyer.

The new arrival is the second grandson of Supervisor and Mrs. Gordon L. McDonough.

You Do Not Have to Pay a Poll Tax to Register and Vote

Democratic Party canvassers, working for maximum registration of voters in the 65th A. D., recently reported finding four families in a low income area who hadn't registered because they thought they had to pay a poll tax.

The four families had come to California from poll tax states, the canvassers reported. Two were negro and two white. All were under the impression that you had to pay a poll tax in California to vote. Since they were all able to meet residential requirements, they were immediately registered.

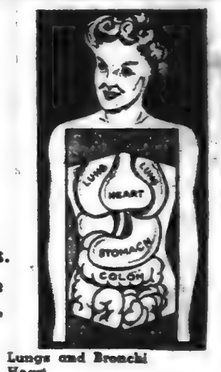
Praised By WFA

WASHINGTON, D. C.—West Indies workers — Jamaicans, Bahamians, Barbadians and British Hondurans — were highly praised here last week by Brigadier General Philip G. Bruton, director of labor of the War Food Administration, and Bernard Kofsky of the War Manpower Commission for the contribution they have made to the war production program in the United States.

CPA Concentrates On Registration

Bringing experiences from an intensive non-partisan campaign to register Los Angeles voters, elected club delegates will gather at the First County Convention of the Communist Political Association.

Coming close to the September 28 registration deadline, the Communist Political Association Convention will discuss the best ways and means to concentrate the last four days on registering, especially the thousands of new war workers in Los Angeles County.



The Convention will discuss the problems involved in winning "unconditional surrender" of the Axis, and in building post-war security in Los Angeles as a vital product of America and the world.

Delegates will elect officers and a county committee to serve as leadership for the Communist Political Association during the coming year.

Attorney Gordon In New Offices

Beautiful new streamlined offices located at 4104 South Central avenue have been opened by Attorney Walter L. Gordon, Jr., one of the most successful young lawyers on the West coast. Attorney Gordon was formerly located at 4701 So. Central Avenue but an ever increasing clientele forced him to secure larger quarters.

The newly decorated and well-furnished office was filled with a profusion of flowers sent by well-wishers Wednesday with more floral tributes arriving hourly wishing success to Attorney Gordon in his new location.

The young attorney is the son of Walter L. Gordon, Sr., prominent West Coast real estate broker.

Grand Matron of Order Visits L. A.

Mrs. Frances M. Burleigh of El Centro, Calif., was in the city last week on official business for the Grand High Court of Heroines of Jericho.

Mrs. Burleigh reported a very interesting meeting of the Heroines at the session held in July at Oakland, and has many plans she hopes to accomplish this year.

The officers elected and appointed at this meeting are: Mrs. Frances M. Burleigh, Most Ancient Grand Matron; Mr. Hayden Sisson, Worthy Grand Joshua; Mrs. Leola B. Wilson, Deputy Grand Matron; Mrs. Mary McAdoo; Mrs. Ohma Warner, Junior Grand Matron; Rev. J. H. C. Redd, Grand Deputy Joshua; Mrs. R. Beatrice Sellers, Grand Treasurer; Mrs. Minnie G. McCoy, Grand Secretary; Mrs. Marie Sheffield, Grand Senior Attendant; Mrs. Elizabeth Dotson, Junior Grand Attendant; Mrs. Anna Vokes, Grand Outer Gate-KGeeper; Mrs. Lucille Howard, Grand Juvenile Matron. Mrs. Burleigh was highly entertained while in the city.

L. A. Flight Officer Is Commissioned

TUSKEGEE ARMY AIR FIELD, Ala.—Flight Officer Edward E. Manley, former Los Angeles City College student, was recently commissioned from the Aviation Cadet Corps at the Tuskegee Army Air Field. The army pilot was a member of the armed forces more than three years before he received appointment to the Aviation Cadet Corps. He is the son of Mrs. Naomi Howard of 5421 Staunton, Los Angeles, Calif.

F/O Manley is now undergoing transition training at this station.

Brother and Sister Are Reunited After 30 Years

The lone survivors of a large Vicksburg, Mississippi, family, who had been widely separated for nearly thirty years, were reunited when Mrs. D. B. W. Prowell crossed the continent to visit her brother, the well-known Claude McKinney of 1723 Central Avenue.

Bidding the old home town a fond farewell to seek new fields and larger opportunities, one went East; the other, heeding old Horace Greeley's advice, was lured to the enchantments of the West.

Mrs. Prowell, and her husband, now deceased, went to Philadelphia, Pa., where they established a small business. By astute organization, wise planning and anticipating the needs of an ever-increasing trade, Prowell's Lunch Box soon became famous throughout the city and surrounding communities. Firmly grounded in the business life of the city and the commercial world, Mrs. Prowell became identified with the church, fraternal, civic and cultural affairs of that throbbing cosmopolitan city. She became the first woman elected to the Trustee Board of Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, and was for many years the treasurer. A member of Keystone Temple No. 448, I. B. P. O. E. of W. and Loyal Past Daughter Ruler of the Council. She is an ardent member of the N. A. A. C. P. and was in the forefront of the 1944 drive just closing, when she departed for Los Angeles.

Upon her arrival here she was warmly greeted by Mrs. McKinney, who for nearly forty years has faithfully supervised the domestic destinies of a large household. Considerable time was amazingly devoted to getting acquainted with the array of McKinneys, most of whom were very young when last she saw them, as well as the many she was seeing for the first time. This visit has given her an opportunity to know all the children and grandchildren, except the only son, Claude, Jr., who is with the army, stationed at Camp Ellis, Ill.

Intrigued with the great open spaces of our beautiful city and its environs, she has been on a steady go, visiting many sights of interest abounding here. She has traversed the vast orange kingdom and expansive vineyards to the Victorville desert where Mr. and Mrs. Goler Banks are ranching. She has just returned from a scenic trip to the Bay region in the north, whence she had been guided by Mrs. Emma Kate Pettiford. In all, she has enjoyed the thrill of her busy life.

Keenly alive to the many interests of her people, observant of their activities, Mrs. Prowell is of the opinion that Los Angeles and the Golden State of California are all these appellations imply; a veritable Garden of Eden of opportunity and a land of promise. She envisions a great people being reborn here at every morning's sunrise, and that their achievements are only limited by their vision.

She will bid us adieu very shortly, carrying lively scenes and joyful experiences of the great West, which will serve as a bulwark to her spirit, and song in her heart, of a bright and happy land.

LECTURES WEDNESDAY—Paul Hoefler lectures with his new jungle film travelogue "African Cavalcade" at Wilshire Ebell Theatre, Wednesday night, September 27, 1944.

Hal Styles Has the Endorsement of 70 Large Organizations

Hay Styles, Democratic nominee for Congress in the 15th California district, finds "politics" much more demanding than professional broadcasting. Conducting a daily program ("Let's Face Facts," 2:30 p. m., also "Young America Speaks," Saturday, 8:45 p. m., "Lest Ye Forget," Sunday, 3:15-45 p. m., all on station KFWB, is a time - filling task in itself. But now that he is a candidate for Congress, he is called upon for luncheons, speaking engagements, conferences and all the other things that go with the job of running for office.

Hal Styles

OVER 100 SPEAKING DATES

Since Primary Day, May 16th, Hal has addressed 27 organizations and expects to fulfill over 100 by election day, November 7th. Already 70 organizations have endorsed him, including the American Federation of Labor, Railroad Brotherhoods and Congress of Industrial Organizations. Staunch supporter of labor, he is vigorously opposed to Proposition No. 12, the misnamed "Right of Employment" measure!

According to Belgian War Relief, member agency of the War Chest, Belgian airmen with the R.A.F. now number more than the entire Belgian air force when the Germans invaded Belgium in May, 1940.

John Howard Lawson In Lecture Series

The Negro's vast contribution to the growth of American Democracy is the subject of four lectures by John Howard Lawson, prominent writer and historian, at the Independent Church of Christ, 10025 East 18th St., which begins Tuesday, September 26, 8:15 p.m. The Tuesday series was given under the auspices of the Peoples Educational Center.

Titling his lectures "America's Tenth Man," Mr. Lawson will discuss the background and bring forth little-known truths regarding the real struggle against slavery. He will discuss the lives and historical contributions of such Negro figures as Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglas, Harriett Tubman, W. E. B. DuBois.

Mr. Lawson is author of the screenplays "Sahara" and "Action in the North Atlantic" and he has just completed the script for "Counterattack" which Columbia Studios is now shooting. He is at present working on a book on American History.

Sponsors of the lectures include Fay Allen, former member city Board of Education; Ardelia Anglin, chairman California Federation of Colored Women; Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell, Trinity Methodist Church; Floyd Covington, executive secretary Urban League; T. L. Griffith, L. A. chapter National Association for Advancement of Colored People; Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins, 62nd district; Rex Ingram, noted stage, screen and radio actor; Rev. W. Randolph Moore, St. Phillips Episcopal church; Rev. Clayton D. Russell, Independent Church of Christ and Charlotta A. Bass, Editor of the California Eagle.

EDITED BY
JESSIE MAE BROWN AND BERNICE COOK

HELPING DIRECT THE WAR CHEST APPEAL to be made in Watts is Mrs. Faustina N. Joinson, right above; shown conferring on volunteer enlistment of team workers with one of her co-coloneis, Miss Anne McPherson, Watts Playground director. Her heavy duties as manager of Hacienda Village and Imperial Courts keep her from taking sole responsibility this year, but, always active in civic endeavors, she is "carrying on" as usual.

Jeff High P. T. A. In 1st Session

The first meeting of the year of the Jefferson High P.T.A. will be held Thursday, September 28, in the cafeteria of the school at 2:30 p.m. The subject for the day will be "Health," and will be discussed by one of the outstanding doctors of the community and Mrs. Gjertrude Smith, health teacher at Jefferson and health chairman of the association.

The community is invited to the meeting, especially to meet the new principal, Dr. Paul Fisher, who comes to us well recommended.

Members of the executive board of the association are attending a health study class, conducted by Dr. Ruth Temple. The study group chairman, Mrs. M. A. Christopher, is responsible for this splendid class.

Everything for Your Household Needs

The new Benson's Furniture Store, 4801 South Broadway, has many good bargains in new and used furniture which every homeowner should see. There are many of the most modern pieces, attractively designed, as well as Colonial and period styles from which to choose.

With each bed you may purchase comfortable innerspring mattresses. The store also features many lovely patterns in rugs and floor coverings.

You may purchase for cash or terms. Everything is arranged for the convenience and benefit of the customer. Just drop into Benson's Furniture store any day and ask to see our beautiful styles at bargain prices. The manager, Mr. Benson, and his salesman, will be happy to serve you.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

Your cheeks as tender as a round, ripe peach,
I longed to press with lips of burning zeal;
Rain greedy kisses on your rosebud mouth,
And crush your pulsing form close to my breast;
Oh, surely, 'tis not sacrilege to view,
Thus worshipful, a mortal sweet as you!
—Harry Levette.

This week's poetic contribution comes from my good friend, Harry Levette. Levette, as most of you know, is the West's oldest national press scribe, being an accredited member of the Associated Negro Press. He is about to publish a book of his original poems which I'm sure will be good reading for everyone. The above few lines are taken from his poem entitled "An Easter Pagan." Thanks, Harry, for the lovely selection of poems you were kind enough to share with me.

VIRGINIA ROSEMARY GITTENS FETED

The guest book registered one hundred and fifty names at the lovely semi-formal party given on September 14, 1944, at Music Town, in honor of Virginia Rosemary Gittens' 17th birthday. Mrs. Ruth Gittens, mother of the honoree, was assisted by Mesdames Irvine, R. Gentle, E. Shaw, L. Crouch and L. Bufford. Virginia, a senior at Poly Hi, received many beautiful gifts, most unique among which was a gorgeous basket of flowers with seventeen one dollar bills fastened to the flowers. This was a gift from her father, the well-known real estate man, Aubrey A. Gittens.

BENEFIT GRAND SUCCESS

The Doll League Benefit at the Club Plantation, Sunday afternoon, was a splendid affair. The house was sold out to "standing room only" and everyone enjoyed a wonderful time. Miss Louise Beavers, actress, and advisor for the Doll League, was introduced, as well as William Franklin, and several other members of "Porgy and Bess" cast.

Thelma Carpenter, female songstress with Count Basie's band, is one in a million . . . she is not only charming and personable, but she can really SING. Her offerings were very much appreciated. No need to say anything about Count Basie, himself. We know that he is always superb.

LET'S NOT FORGET

It is good to see that girl friends, wives and mothers are not forgetting about the boys over there. There is a general hustle and bustle now as Xmas packages are being prepared to send to the boys. Let's not forget a one of them. BLESS THEM. By the way, fellows, you might help the girls out by sending along a note suggesting some of the things you would really like to have, and need.

WELL . . . HELLO!

To Sgt. James A. Davis, somewhere in Italy . . . yes, I am the person you know, and my sister is the one you know. It is really good to hear from you, my friend. Often wondered where you were. Glad you enjoyed the column, and I am relaying your greeting, herewith, to your friend, Marshall Reed, of the Golden State Life Insurance Company. Write us again, won't you?

To Jackie Bauchmann, in Hawaii . . . it seems that you keep so far ahead of me, I can't catch up. First, thanks for the pin-up picture of you and Lillian. Say hello to her for me. And also thanks for the other beautiful souvenirs of the romantic land of sunshine and flowers.

HERE AND THERE . . .

Roy "Snake" White, the musician, and a few friends, dropped in on his sister, Maude Esther White, Saturday evening, to help her celebrate her birthday in a big way. The party, though completely unplanned, turned out to be a humdinger. Belated birthday greetings, pal!

Ralph Matthews, editor of the Baltimore Afro-American, arrives in the city as a member of Governor Dewey's campaign party.

Mrs. Fay McGriff will be the honoree at a baby shower Sunday afternoon.

The much talked about Committee for Unity in Motion Pictures is now a bona fide corporation, the name being changed to the Interracial Film and Radio Guild. At a meeting, Monday, the Board of Directors was officially set, and Caleb Peterson was elected the executive director for the organization.

Another newcomer, fine, athletic type of he-male, is Vascoe Revels, of Shreveport, La., whom we learn, on good authority, will make his home in Los Angeles . . . he's unmarried, girls, so crowd, but don't push.

Among the members of the Porgy and Bess troupe was my good friend, Bill Smith, whom I'm glad to welcome back once more. His best friend, Bill Woolfolk, formerly with the cast, is missing this time . . . I believe that we lost him to Uncle Sam.

In closing, may I remind you that we must work harder now, than ever, to bring a lasting victory, and secure an acceptable peace. Don't stop yet . . . we've still a way to go. BUY BONDS, and write your SERVICE MAN. So long!

Gladys Collier and Ruby Winston Join Womens Army Corp

Two Los Angeles Negro women who decided to make the change from civilian to military life are Ruby M. Winston, 1339½ West 35th street, and Gladys L. Collier, 9622 Alabama street. Both women will be assigned to the Army Air Forces upon completion of basic training.

"Because I think it is my patriotic duty" is the reason offered by Private Winston for joining the WAC. Her husband, Sgt. Frank L. Winston, is at an Army Air Force camp in Mississippi. A former student at Prairieview College in Prairie, Texas, Private Ruby was last employed with a manufacturing plant in Burbank.

Spending the greater part of her life in Chicago before moving to Los Angeles, 21-year-old Private Collier has worked as a file clerk with the United States Treasury branches in Washington, D. C., and Chicago. She has been actively associated with the Chicago Inter-student Catholic Action Society and is a former Girl Scout.

Art, aviation, hiking and volley-ball are diversionary interests of Enlistee Collier, who hopes to do administrative work in the corps.

Returns to City From Convention

Mrs. Beatrice L. Prentice, wife of the Reverend F. H. Prentice, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 50th and Hooper Avenue, returned to the city last week, after an extended three months' trip which carried her to Birmingham, Ala., Little Rock, Ark., Topeka, Kansas, Des Moines, Iowa, Kansas City, Kansas, and Dallas, Texas, where she attended the National Baptist Convention just before returning home.

While in Little Rock, and Topeka, Mrs. Prentice was the guest of her husband's sisters, Mrs. Mattie Simmons and Mrs. Anna Brown, respectively. In Kansas City, she visited with Mrs. Elizabeth Ballew, long time friend and co-worker in the field of religious education.

Mrs. Prentice was joined in Dallas, by the Reverend F. H. Prentice, who also attended the National Baptist Convention.

Monthly Achievement Awards To Members By Phi Beta Sigmas

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Los Angeles chapter, in inaugurating a monthly award is indebted to its president, C. W. Hill, for his theme, "Sigma Monthly Achievements Awards."

At the last Chapter meeting, the fraternity agreed to accept the president's idea and make it an integral part of their Bigger and Better Business Program.

Harry W. Mercer, editor for the local chapter, was appointed to note the efforts and activities that embraced the principles of Sigma, and present to the members their awards.

The certificate will be known as the George Washington Carver Achievement Certificate, and will be given to members of the fraternity who are cited for outstanding civic duties during the month.

The awards were as follows:

To William Nickerson Jr., president of Golden State Life Insurance Co., and Dee Hodge, superintendent of agents, for their company, writing more than one million dollars worth of business in a single month.

To Clarence Muse for setting a record among Negro picture players, for participating in five pictures during the month.

To Harry W. Mercer, for his untiring efforts in securing payments on the local chapter's life membership in the N.A.A.C.P.

To Albert Maddox, owner of the Maddox Realty Co., for playing a major role in the Fifth War Loan Drive, and for his great work in making it possible for the erection of a 200 bed U.S.O. dormitory for our gallant men of war.

To Clarence R. Johnson, as head of Operations for the National N.A.A.C.P. Drive, for successfully putting over a tremendous program.

To J. Robert Smith, for successfully making arrangements for Sydney P. Dones to obtain audience with the Republican candidate for president, Thomas E. Dewey.

To Attorney Curtis Cavielle Taylor, who against almost unsurmountable odds, obtained for one of the brothers the chance to further extend his efforts in the business and civic life of our growing city. Those assisting Attorney Taylor in this beautiful gesture were William Perry, O. P. A. investigator; Dr. J. Lyle Caston, pastor, Trinity Baptist Church; E. S. Brown, Harry W. Mercer, and Albert Maddox.

7 L. A. Negro Women Serve As Nurse Aides

Seven Los Angeles Negro women are serving as Red Cross Volunteer Nurse's Aides in civilian and military hospitals in this area, Chapter House nursing officials disclosed this week in filing a nursing report with San Francisco Area office.

These women, serving without compensation, give at least one day a week in assisting with chores assigned in understaffed hospitals and, as several military leaders state, "are doing a grand war job on the home front."

In addition, Dr. Ruth Temple of the City Health Department serves Red Cross as a member of the Home Nursing committee, while Miss Mildred Blount, nationally-known hat designer, is a member of the Camp and Hospital committee.

BRIDE AT 71—Madame Sul-Te-Wan, veteran Hollywood actress, and Antone Ebenthure were married on August 21, 1944, in Tiajuana, Mexico. Mme. Sul-Te-Wan's manager, Mr. Bicker, his sister and several other Hollywood friends motored down to Mexico to witness the marriage of the happy couple. Madame Sul-Te-Wan, who has been called one of Hollywood's greatest dramatic actresses by D. W. Griffith, may appear in the story of her own life for Monogram Pictures, who are contemplating the screening of her life story. The story is now being written by Fanfare Magazine. Madame, who is 71, and looks 51, was recently entertained at the Hollywood-Roosevelt Hotel by Mr. D. W. Griffith and his wife, this being the first time she has seen him in twenty years. Although Madame Sul-Te-Wan gives Mr. Griffith the credit for her success in pictures, he refuses to take credit for "making her." Rather, he says, she was already made, her only gave her the chance. Pvt. Onest S. Conley, son of Madame Sul-Te-Wan, now stationed somewhere in New Guinea, says that his mother should live to be one hundred now. The groom, Antone Ebenthure, of European descent, is an interior decorator by trade. The couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

Busy Bees Give Social

The Busy Bees Fellowship, a young people's organization of the Magnolia Baptish Church, gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Martin, 3405 So. San Pedro Street. Many interesting games were played, and a delightful repast was served.

Among those present were Pastor and Mrs. H. C. Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Travelers, Messrs. Joseph Clarke, Jimmie L. Reason, Norris Gragg, Virgil Body, Harold Wagner, Cerillous Atkinson, Samuel Vance; Mesdames Beatrice Mason, Fatina James, Geraldine Scates, Fannie Mal Goins, Gertrude Allen, Gertrude Fulcher; Misses Juanita James, Vera Mae James, Margaret Allen, Geraldine Fisher, Dorothy Fisher and Helen Stewart.

Miss Gracie Lee Scates is president of the Busy Bees; A. M. Martin, Jr., is secretary, and A. M. Martin, reporter.

Town and Gown Club Gives All-Day Picnic

The Town and Gown Club entertained recently with an all day picnic at South Park. Miss Maxine Sullivan, Service men, and others were special guests. Various games were participated in during the day. The group also enjoyed the program featured in the Parks entertainment area.

Miss Sullivan, being discovered by the entertainers, was finally persuaded to give a number which brought forth loud cheers and applause. A delightful dinner was spread by the members. Mrs. Vereachi Lockhart is Pres., Mattie Tarvin, reporter.

POINSETTA CLUB GIVES PICNIC

On a recent Sunday afternoon, more than 100 guests were entertained by the officers and members of the Poinsetta Club in a picturesque garden at 76 West Mountain Street, Pasadena.

Games were played and a delicious southern barbecue dinner was served. Everyone proclaimed a good time.

To Present Roena Savage In Recital

On Tuesday evening, October 3, the Behymer Artist Bureau presents Roena Savage, lyric soprano, in recital at Wilshire Ebell Theater.

While studying at the University of Southern California, Miss Savage won the distinction to represent Los Angeles in the California Eisteddford Contests with highest average by which it had ever been won. She was also the winner in the "grand finals."

Miss Savage accepted a position on the music faculty of the Lincoln University, remaining there four years during which time she sang with various symphony orchestras as well as in a series of broadcasts, featuring French, Negro and Spanish folksongs and in opera recitals. She also was soloist for the 20th and 25th anniversary meetings of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History held in Chicago.

Her local recital promises to be a very interesting one.

Denver Visitors Leave for Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins, of Denver, Colo., left for home last Sunday morning after a very pleasant week in San Diego as the guests of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William R. LeNoir.

The Perkinses were lavishly entertained while in the city. On Monday night, Mrs. Frances McDonald was the hostess, as Mrs. Perkins renewed old acquaintances with persons who knew her formerly as Mrs. Claribel Parker. On Thursday evening, Mrs. Maud Hicks entertained with bridge for Mrs. Perkins in her lovely home.

The very fitting climax to a delightful week of pleasure was the gorgeous bridge and po-keno party on Saturday night with Mrs. McDonald again as hostess and Mrs. Lydia Stackfield, late of New York and aunt of Mrs. McDonald, sharing the role of honoree.

At bridge the honors and first prize were won by Mrs. Rosa Little, with Mrs. Cuney White as runner-up. Mrs. Rita Jordan captured first place at po-keno and Mrs. Etta Varner second. The honored guests received magnificent gifts from the hostess and Mrs. Perkins received an appropriate "bon voyage" gift from Mrs. Cuney White. The living and dining rooms were profusely decorated with seasonable flowers from the garden of Mrs. Jewel Hopkins and a thought gift of Mrs. Cuney White.

Mr. Perkins spent the last evening as the guest of Mr. Ray Frazier at a well appointed "stag party."

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will spend several days in Los Angeles and San Francisco on the return trip to Denver.

SADIE LOUISE ENTERTAINS—The above photo was taken at the gala party given by the hair stylist, Sadie Louise Davidson at her beautiful home, Sunday evening, September 17, in honor of the newly organized Hair Stylists' Guild. There were all sorts of appetizing foods in abundance, salads, assorted cold meats, drinks, and garnishes of every description. Sadie Louise, as always, was the perfect hostess. Officers and members of the Hair Stylist Guild are as follows: President, Sadie Louise Davidson; vice president, Catherine Pierson Carr; secretary, Velma Anita Houston; corresponding secretary, Katherine Teague; treasurer, Nola Hill Simmons; business manager, Euzerella Hardy; chairman of Ways and Means, Anna Mae Davidson; and Genevieve Moore, Dorothy Woodson, and Ella La Blanche.

What's Doing— In The Younger Set

—Jessie Mae Brown

The mighty Bruins and Trojans meet Saturday afternoon in their first football classis of the season. (Rah! rah! rah!). Regardless of a gridiron victory or defeat, the University students have made plans for a combined Football Prom at Villa Arlington which will be a grand celebration for the first game between the two institutions. Representing the two schools, cardinal and blue will be used in the colorful decorations adorning the rooms of the Villa where the cross-town revelers will dance to the latest and best recordings.

The event is being sponsored by the UCLA University club, and is strictly a closed affair for on and off campus students and their company. Bids to the prom may be received from club prexy, Althea Warren, 1570 W. 37th Street and from Irma Gilmore, at the 28th Street YMCA, on showing of student body card.

HIGHLIGHTS

Must say, the fashionably dressed crowd supporting the Doll Leaguers in their most recent effort, was right in line with the opening of Fall Fashions. Black dresses with glitter trims of sequims, high utrban and low fisherman hats, elbow length gloves and the latest in bags were all over the crowded club. The Leaguers took the limelight with their gracious attitudes as hostesses in clever blue pinafores. Financially and other wise the affair was on the "rolling ball." This marks the seventh or eighth year that the Leaguers have been organized, and Sunday evenings' affair showed that the club is still going strong.

Saturday afternoon round four o'clock, chatter and gay laughter sounded from Boswell home on east 28th street in a manner only natural for the neighbors to think that "Bobby" and "Chuck" were throwing a little gathering for their many friends. But it wasn't like that at all, for Chuck is still Lieutenant somewhere on foreign shores, and Bobby is also serving the country on foreign soil. But it so happened that Mrs. Boswell invited a group of their girl friends and school chums over to luncheon, honoring Flora Gladman and Rosalyn Jordan, visitors from San Jose. She was assisted by her daughters-in-law, Elinore and Carol.

Between hen party chatter and enjoying the delicious luncheon, took note of Melonee Temple, Josephine Spearman, Mary Johnson, who seemed to be enjoying life in general, Joyce Stewart bubbling over her recent and exciting trip to Mexico, the handsome hombres etc., Bette Alston, Helen Stewart, and Sis Taylor (Mrs. Clifton Russell) talking over married life, Jane Criner, looking chic in check, Nita Hippard, Marilyn Williams, Corinne Jones, getting a good laugh over the games, Ann Clay Johnson and Jessel Reid admiring the prizes won by La Alston, Russell, and Johnson. Flora and Rosalyn depart next week for home town...

ADDRESS.....

NEGROES IN THE LABOR MOVEMENT

By Ferdie A. Finch
UAW-CIO No. 148

An address to the workingmen issued by the National Labor Union just prior to the Chicago convention in 1867 embodied the resolution of the congress and spoke of labor's abiding interest in the question of Negro labor. It conveyed the message that it was labor's concern to be interested in the status of the Negro as a workingman and especially in the part the Negro was to take in advancing labor's cause.

"Negroes," the address declared, "are four million strong and a greater proportion of them labor with their hands than can be counted from among the same number of any other people on earth. Can we afford to reject their proffered co-operation and make them enemies? By committing such an act of folly we would inflict injury upon the cause of reform than the combined efforts of capital could accomplish.... So capitalists North and South would foment discord between the whites and blacks and hurl one against the other as interest and occasion might require to maintain their ascendancy and continue the reign of oppression."

The National Labor Union approached the question with caution, and stated that it could not avoid the issue and advocated unity of Negro and white.

"What is wanted," it urged, "is for every union to help inculcate the grand ennobling idea that the interests of labor are one; that there should be no distinction of race or nationality; no classification of Jew or Gentile, Christian or infidel; that there is one dividing line, that which separates mankind into two classes, the class that labors and the class that lives by others' labor."

We are pleased to announce that Friday nights are again like the old Friday nights but regret that Tuesdays have slipped to Tuesdays of old. Sunday night plays are well attended. This duplicate is fascinating. Try it and you'll agree.

Julya Ashery and Julia Scott won the tri-August series of plays. The September series are being hotly contested. Lewis Woods—Margaret Hale lead with more plays to go closely followed by Louisa Roon—Agnes Beal and Dr. A. L. Wallace —Beatrice Reeves.

We remind you again to register for play in the year's most important matches, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 14-15. The G.W.B.A. 2nd Annual Sectional. They are pairing up fast, don't be left without a partner.

Though he didn't attend the Nationals in New Orleans, Ellis L. Veil was unanimously re-elected as vice-president of the Great American Bridge Association, Inc.

Family in Reunion

The reunion of the King family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Blocker, 900 East 24th street, September 3, was quite an elaborate affair. All living members of the family were together for the first time in ten years. Mrs. J. A. King, widow of the late Rev. R. H. King of Houston, Texas, and mother, was happy with her group around her. The son, Rev. John W. King, pastor of King's Chapel on West 36th place, well known business man and tailor; Mrs. Lenora King-Blocker, wife of James Blocker and mother of Juanita Blocker-Banks; Mrs. Willie King-Cook, school teacher in the city of Houston, Texas; and Mrs. Sara King-Madison, the daughters. The latter is residing in Los Angeles while her husband is overseas.

Life-long friends of the King family made the occasion pleasant with presentations and gifts, among which was an exquisite basket of flowers from Mrs. Helen Davis, and a forget-me-not token from Mrs. Enola Chism.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Minnie V. Smiley, directoress of B. B. Tabernacle choir, and Miss Essie Taylor, both of Houston. Before enjoying a buffet supper, the guests enjoyed and participated in the making of recordings. Those singing were: Mmes. M. Smiley, Obelia Teel, Eudee Sapp, Celia Henry, Madam Countee, Mr. Longress, and King's Chapel Gospel Singers. Accompanists for the evening were: Mmes. Edith Boswell, Eva Mosely, Hattie Hopgood-Brooks, and Mrs. Sapp's niece.

Thursday morning Mrs. J. A. King and Mrs. Willie King-Cook entrained for Houston, where the latter will resume her position in the city schools.

The joys of heaven will begin as soon as we attain the character of heaven and do its duties.

Sisters Entertain Theatrical Cast

Miss Gladys Wells and sister Olive Ball were hostesses at brunch last Tuesday honoring the cast of Porgy and Bess. Tables were sta up throughout the spacious Wells home, and guests enjoyed delectable viands in great variety. Both the sisters are accomplished singers, and Miss Ball has won acclaim as an actress. She is currently on tour with the Porgy and Bess company, and the party served as a reunion between sisters and mother, as Gladys resides in Mexico three-quarters of each year.

Daughter Elks Auxiliary Meets

The Auxiliary Club of the Daughter Elks met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Virginia aGskins, 1169 East 40th Place, with a large attendance, the Orange Blossom Club attending as guests. A lovely supper was served by Mrs. Gaskin.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Marion Studavant's home, 1231 East 47th Place, on Oct. 19, 1944. Mrs. Ethel Brown, reporter.

Returns Home.

Miss Imogene Tennyson returned to her home in Kansas City after spending the summer in Los Angeles visiting with her aunts, Mrs. Corinne Cunningham and Miss Olva E. Ellison.

Miss Tennyson is the daughter of Mr. L. W. Tennyson who is one of Kansas City's leading builders and contractors. While here, many lovely social affairs were given in her honor.

Barbecue Luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Casmon entertained with a barbecue luncheon in their spacious gardens, 1431 West 37th Place, in honor of Mrs. Mabel Foster of Berkeley, California, and her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Cherry of San Francisco, California. Sharing honors with Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Cherry were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Workcuff of Santa Barbara, California, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Casmon, and Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins, of Denver, Colorado, houseguests of Mrs. Louise Beavers Clark.

Mrs. Foster was gowned in a beautiful black dress with a touch of soft blue at the neckline, with black accessories, topped with a gorgeous Silver Fox coat; Mrs. Cherry wore all black, with black accessories, while beautiful Sable furs draped her shoulders. Mrs. Workcuff was dressed in a soft black and white dress with black accessories, and Mrs. Perkins in a beautiful two-piece brown dress with brown accessories, and lovely brown Fox furs. The ladies were charming.

Eighty-two guests enjoyed the afternoon playing various games, including ping pong, badminton, tripoley, pokeno, and bridge.

Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Irene Beize, Ruth Gittens, Mandell Winfrey and Juanita Henderson.

Young lady, does an old TABOO prevent your knowing this help?

In less enlightened days, women didn't discuss these things. Now, it's different. If a woman suffers from periodic cramp-like pain and other purely functional distresses, she tries to learn how to help herself.

Thousands of women praise the 2-way help of Cardui. Taken as a tonic, it usually peps up the appetite, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, thus aiding digestion and thereby helping build up energy and resistance. Started three days before the time, and taken as directed, it should help relieve much purely functional, periodic pain.

Try CARDIU. A 62 year record says it may help!

Negroes Mutiny at Port McArthur

Fifty Negroes who had endured the horrors of the explosions and fire at Port Chicago last July are being court martialed for mutiny because they refused to handle ammunition that was being loaded on a naval vessel on August 8 in San Francisco Harbor. While some of the men gave the excuse that they were afraid after the ghastly experience last July of seeing 327 of their fellow seamen lose their lives in a blast which rocked the countryside for miles. This refusal to obey orders on the part of the men has been construed as mutiny for which the penalty is death. However, to view this act on the part of these fifty men as a fear to face danger is, to our way of thinking, to entirely miss the point.

Every soldier and sailor now in this war knows that war means death, and we have never seen any Negro soldier who has expressed the slightest hesitancy to do his duty because the carrying out of that duty might result in his death. We are sure this lack of hesitancy to face danger has been brought about, not by the blind following of orders, but by the realization on the part of the men that no matter what the danger involved, their particular duty had to be done right then, and it had to be done by them.

The Army and Navy have gone to great lengths in this war to give the men in the armed forces a clear understanding of the meaning of this war and the part each man must play in it. It has done much to make the spirit of cooperation a real living thing. Even when the Negro troops have been doing work which has been segregated for them alone, they have realized that that part of the work must be done; or the "show" could not go on.

This, we feel, has not been true in the case of the Port Chicago situation. The Negro sailors there have not been made to feel that they are a part of a dangerous job and that there contribution to the war made nightly on the docks at Port Chicago is a valiant one. The Negro sailors at Port Chicago can see no connection, we are sure, between their being accepted into the Navy and trained as seamen and used as longshoremen with nu indication that they will ever have an opportunity to make any other contribution.

The danger, as well as the glory, in this war must be shared. Digging the black bodies of their comrades out of the debris of the explosion was an experience these boys, who were only saved because it was not their watch, will never forget. These boys are almost as much casualties of this war as if they had been killed in the explosion. They are experiencing a psychological reaction to something they cannot understand: what it means to build a world separately to live in together.

We are sure that there is no question of loyalty involved. For them it was a mere matter of knowing where loyalty lay. Somewhere, somehow, the spirit in which this war must be fought has not been instilled in these men. It was with immense pride that they took the oath to give their last full measure of devotion to the fight to establish democracy throughout the world; democracy that means fighting together, living together, and dying TOGETHER.

Social Equality Will Come of Itself

Social equality between the races, according to Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the President, is something that is to be dealt with on a personal basis, it is something that will be brought about of itself when all Americans, black and white, have "equal opportunity for employment according to ability and at same pay, equal opportunity for education, justice before the law, and participation in government through the ballot."

This is the form of equality that both Mrs. Roosevelt and President Roosevelt have been fighting for during the entire Roosevelt administration. Both have played square in stating the case. Both know, as every intelligent person knows, that people choose their friends on the basis of similar tastes and cultures, not on a basis of color. What those "white people" of the South fear is that the Negro, granted equal opportunity for employment, equal education, and equal opportunity and responsibility in our government, will rise very quickly to the same level as the best educated and most cultured of the white race—and so, of course, there will be real friendship established between the members of the two races and in that way—social equality.

Social equality, per se, has never been sought by the Negro people, for it is not something that can be established by an edict of any kind. It is truely a personal matter, so truly growing out of friendships that it would be impossible to bring it about by law. No one wants to be told who his friends must be, just so no person wants to be told who his friends may not be. It is only freedom to choose his friends and evaluate their friendship without coercion one way or the other that is asked and being fought for. True freedom of this kind—equality of opportunity, of the right to live together, struggle together, and enjoy the fruits of the struggle together is being founded in America today. Once these freedoms are firmly established in our American way of life, there will be no question of the fear of social equality, for as long as there is no obstruction in the path, "water will seek its own level."

The Republican Party Set-up Causes Deep Concern

California Republicans have always played the game of politics according to the old rule of "bossism."

Great preparation has been made for the coming of Governor Dewey. Even the Negro Republicans, for the first time they say, have been organized and are ready to function in such fashion as will throw California's Negro support to Dewey.

It is passingly strange, but true, that our California Republican constituency, those who boss the game, have never been able or willing to grant the Negro an intelligent rating. One cannot help but observe in this present set-up, the absence of any part to be played by the Honorable Frederic Maderson Roberts.

As a Republican, Mr. Roberts is a standpatter. He has never wavered in his support of the Republican Party in the state. It is needless to say that his firm support has caused him to make many personal sacrifices.

As a Republican representative Mr. Roberts served as State Assemblyman for eight years, and his conduct as Assemblyman always reflected credit and honor on his party and race.

Just how the Republicans in the state hope to corral the Negro vote by sacrificing Frederick M. Roberts is an enigma inviting study and thought. The Republican Party in the state had better wake up and realize that the Negroes are no longer Lincoln's children. They will be lead by their own leaders and "all right sort" leaders, but no longer will they be bought and sold at the political auction block.

Economic Council's Post-War Plans

The Economic Relief Association, operated at 27th and Compton Avenue, and managed by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reeves, is not a segregated organization.

Over a period of years it has been sponsored by the Black American Salvage Company.

The Salvation Army and The Goodwill Industries are charitable organizations. They have and are still rendering a fine service in the interest of misguided individuals, and persons who have not been successful in shaping their economic affairs commensurate with their needs.

But the Salvation Army, while founded on religion, has practiced segregation in many of its rescue and recreational centers against Negroes, despite the fact that it solicits the general public, including Negroes.

The Economic Relief Council has helped all races, colors and creeds, pledging its support to the needy in this community. Its post-war program, one of the largest yet undertaken, is already underway.

"V.D. RESPECTS NEITHER RACE NOR RANK-STAMP IT OUT."

W. J. Wheaton Says . . .

A CONTRAST: It is well known, indeed a fact, that California, in its application for admission into the union of states met with streneous opposition from the slave holding states of the South. Among the foremost of the objectors was the State of Georgia. In looking over some of the historical events of that era we came upon one of great interest. It shows in strong contrast the difference, or should we say, the distinction, between communities one with intolerant bias the other imbued with the spirit of Freedom. In debating the question of admission, Senator Berian (Georgia) vigoriously opposed the admission of California. He doubted the claim of the State that it had the required population of 121,000. "California might became a financial liability," he said. Contrast the national standing of the California and Georgia today. California, with a population of from 8 to 9 millions and rating as fifth in the wealth of the nation, and Georgia, the state shackled by racial hatreds, biased and intolerant minds, encumbered by the disfranchising Poll-Tax, stands 24th.

GEORGIA IS STAGNANT

Georgia in its effort to keep in subjection, and subjugant a group through economic and political submersion, has remained a stagnant, moss covered pool. It has failed to respond to the call of PROGRESS. It will so remain until the virus, now so obvious, has been liquidated. The vicious ideals of the Berian era are still in evidence, and, sorry to say, have and are, attempting to sow the poisonous weed in California. Invoking the great name of Star King and the valiant men and women who kept this Golden State free from the slavers lash and sent it as a bright and shining star in the constellation of the Union! We must be vigilant and wherever the Hydra-headed monster of racial intolerance shows itself beat it back. To that end we need tactful and courageous leadership that will not compromise, a leadership that can not be bought or lured into apathy through honeyed promises.

POLITICS: The presidential campaign is well underway. Candidate Dewey is on his swing around the circle. Governor Bricker is telling the folk what the GOPs are going to do in the "saving of the country." But neither he, or any of the GOPs tell us how they are going to do it. The sponsor for candidate Dewey — Herbert Hoover — also made promises. "Two chickens in every pot, and prosperity just around the corner." The two chickens never materialized and prosperity got tired of peeping and vanished entirely. We listened to the weekly speech of the Congressman from Ohio. We hope that you did also. For want of a subject he rehashed that old bromide of the battle cruiser and the Fleet which accompanied the President on his trip to Hawaii, and the thousand mile trip to the Destroyer on the hunt for Falla. Now every one knows that those things never occured and that they were the ebullition of an imaginative mind. Yet this gentleman, elected by the people to enact laws for their government radiaed to the public things which he knew, or should have known, as untruths. And so it has been all along the line. Like the decayed and obsolete Moss Backs, they live in the past. They go back a decade for happenings which have no bearing on the present nor relation to the future. Mr. Dewey thought to create an issue when he suggested that Gen. McArthur be given supreme command in the Pacific. "He, McArthur, being no longer a political menace to the Administration, and having proved his ability to accomplish wonderful things with a minimum of military material should be honored with a full generals title." said Dewey. Or words to that extent.

A DUD

If he thought to create an issue there, it proved a Dud. That had been settled by the Military heads long ago. The campaign speeches all hark back to the period "33" when the sponsor of Mr. Dewey left the nation in one of the worse depressions of all time. The campaigners never give thought to that period and what methods, some of them drastic, had to be taken to lift the nation from the "Slough of Despond" caused throught the ineptness of the administration preceding this present Administration. When this Administration came to power it was confronted with numberless soup kitchens, and lines of hungry and desperate men. Able bodied men unable to find a job were selling apples and pencils on the corners. Farmers and home owners were fighting the law and defying eviction. Banks were having a holiday. In fact the country was in such a chaos than a less stronger will than that of Roosevelt would have been incapable of the task. In two years the depression had been minimized. Soup kitchens disappeared, as did the apple and pencil vender. Banks resumed their activities and depositors were given the assurance that their deposits would be secure.

SUPPORT ROOSEVELT

The Portland Oregonian, a journal that went "all out" for Wendell Willkie, has given its support to Roosevelt. In substance it says that Mr. Dewey knows little about foreign affairs and of domestic affairs... Less, as a prosecutor, Mr. Dewey gained fame, but it takes more than the prosecution of gangsters and dishonest politicans to cope with the serious problems that will confront this nation when the cannon cease to roar and the process of stabilizing a chaotic world and establishing a lasting peace, an enduring peace, are at stake. The cry "Let's have a change" is too vague. A change without reason is courting national suicide, and up to the present Candidate Dewey has shown no reason for the change. He has not shown presidential calibre. If we do not want to experience the events following Post War I, it will be well to trust to the wisdom of those who know what it is all about. They having battled it, conquered it, and placed the nation on a sound and stable economic basis...

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Bass:

For some time I have wanted to express myself on a subject every American Negro has been duly concerned with for many decades — that is our Bill of Rights. I do not mean the Negro Bill of Rights, but the American Bill of Rights, supposedly applicable to every American.

Ever since I have been able to sensibly understand, I've been constantly told that as an American I have, or am supposed to enjoy certain privileges and freedoms, yet from that very time I have been denied a greater part of these privileges and freedoms.

Some few years ago this country, my country, called upon me to serve as a soldier fighting against the enemies who are trying to deny the whole world of the very things that I, as an American, am supposed to enjoy. When I answered this call, I was not quite certain of the cause I would be fighting for. It seemed impossible to be whole-heartedly behind a cause when my own people were being denied their rights.

Ever since I came into the service, certain prejudiced actions have been practised against me, leaving me with a greater confused state of mind about my patriotic duty. Now, Mrs. Bass, I am young and do not understand all of the things of life, but I do feel that I ought to be able to understand the simple truth. I see it every day, everywhere. It makes me feel useless to the cause in which we seem to have no part.

Nevertheless, I do feel that I owe something. I have enjoyed some of the things that America is noted for. I went to school in Los Angeles, and enjoyed the privilege of free education. I tried to show my appreciation of it by doing as well as I could. I enjoyed freedom of religion, and I even appreciate the neighborhood and the neighbors among whom I lived, the city's entertainment and recreation.

I realize that all the things I enjoyed are depreciating in value elsewhere in our country, and I am well aware of the actions to which we have been too often subjected. That is just why I am confused.

I am overseas and I wonder day by day if the cause of my fight, the very fact that I am fighting will be appreciated by America? Whether a change will come in the present attitude, and whether America will really be for Americans?

You see, I feel that if I am willing to pay for the privileges I have enjoyed even in the face of the freedoms we've been denied, ther should b some greatly noticable reward for it, and that reward should be a really democratic America.

That's what I'm fighting for now and I'll never quite fighting, or rather, the other millions of "me" will never quit fighting until this is established.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

Life can be beautiful! That is not just a fairy tale or just the name of a radio program. People who work for Electronic Corporation of America at 45 West 18th street, New York City, can vouch for that statement.

While I was in Los Angeles I saw an advertisement in a trade magazine which caught my eye. The advertisement did not sell any tangible item — it sold DEMOCRACY! It was the Electronic Corporation of America that placed the ad condemning all forms of discrimination and asking for unity in an effort to help win the war.

Today I visited that war plant in New York. I will not forget that visit for a long time.

I was ushered into the office of Mr. Murray Daniels, plant manager, who was surrounded by people taking up various matters with him. A shop steward asked Mr. Daniels about the wages of a new employe. I couldn't tell just what it was about, but I did hear Mr. Daniels say: "Would you like to call your union office and find out whether that is correct?" The shop steward's reply was indicative of the excellent relations existing between labor and management in that company. He said: "Never mind. I'm sure if there is a correction to be made, you'll take care of it."

In spite of all the interruptions by workers taking up problems of "oscillators," "tips," "new employes" and "old," I managed to get the story of Electronic Corporation of America. The whole story would take more than this column, but I'll try to give you the highlights.

Mr. Daniels called in Mr. Carl Bristel, publicity and public relations man. As I spoke to these two gentlemen I could see the wonderful pride and confidence in their attitude—pride, because they are Americans, and confidence because they know that democracy can work.

Knowing that there are some people not having had the experience of working with Negroes, Puerto Ricans and other minorities, who might express their displeasure at this new experience, I asked Mr. Daniels how such problems are handled. With a very definite tone he answered: "First of all we hire people according to qualification and not by color. We have a ship committee, a labor management committee, a production for victory committee, entertainment, library, safety and other committees. We have boat rides, theatre and dinner parties—all at the expense of the management. When we have a dinner party we take our people to places where Negroes have never gone before. Our policy is made clear to everyone. We have a radio program once a week. A Negro woman employee spoke one night on racial unity. We have all topics discussed.

Mr. Daniels added: "We not only have mixed groups working in our shops, we have Negro engineers—members of the Federation of Architects. Engineers, etc. There were several people who came to us and stated their objection to our policy. We asked each one to stay a week to see how it would work out. No one has ever been fired—not one has ever left our employ, because of prejudice.

The incentive is great for workers in that plant to improve production for the war effort. For any suggestion accepted, the worker is paid one-third of any savings on time and materials for the entire run, of that job. The health of workers is of primary importance to the management. Hospitalization, medical care and insurance policies for worker and family, is provided at the expense of management. Milk is distributed free to all those who care for it during their rest periods in the spacious solarium provided for their recreation.

Mr. Carl Bristel assured me that all this was possible because of the harmonious relations between Labor and Management. The United Electrical Union-CIO met no resistance when organizing that plant. Mr. S. J. Novick, president, and his colleagues were in favor of it. In fact, Mr. Bristel expressed his dissapproval of the Jack & Heintz plant in Cleveland, Ohio —the plant so well advertised in the movies and newspapers as the "ideal" plant in the country. "They are anti-Union," said Mr. Bristel. "We do not believe in patronage towards our workers. We do not treat our people as serfs. We would rather deal with them through their representative unions and give them what's coming to them without feeling we are doing them a favor."

The Electronic Corporation of America has received many letters from business men all over the country who believe in a square deal for labor and harmonious relationship in their plants. Mr. Bristel believes that the sooner more of the plants in the country practice Democracy, the sooner will we win the war on the Home Front as well as on the Military Front.

THE PULPIT VOICE

For Interracial Tolerance

(Excerpt from a speech of Rep. O. K. Armstrong, in the Missouri House of Representatives, March 30, 1944, opposing an amendment that would have barred a doctor of Japanese descent from practicing in the Missouri State Sanatorium.)

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

I rise to oppose this amendment. It would bar an American doctor of Japanese descent from employment in our State Tubercular Sanatorium. Why does the author of this amendment seek to do this? He admits that Dr. Fujikawa was born in the United States. He does not accuse him of disloyalty. But, he says, surely we need not employ a Jap. He expresses his hatred of this race.

This raises a question far beyond the simple matter of whom our state will employ in its institutions. The question is whether we shall discriminate against a man because of his race, or whether we shall lift our voices here and now to defeat this glaring evidence of racial intolerance. Mr. Speaker, this amendment would stop Dr. Fujikawa from administering his healing arts merely because he is descendant from Oriental parents. The sponsor says we must be on guard against the Japs. Yet while we debate this question, Japanese - American soldiers are on guard for us—battalions of them fighting bravely wth our troops in Italy! If we prevent a man from pursuing his honorable profession because his parents were Oriental, we would be starting something we could not stop. We would be fanning coals of racial prejudice that might burst into raging flames.

Already we are distressed by outcroppings of interracial friction. Already we hear it said, "When this war is over, we'll put the Negro back in his place." Where, Mr. Speaker, is the Negro's place? In this land of freedom, his place is at whatever level he proves himself worthy to stand. We have a Negro member of this House, from St. Louis. Mr. Kenswil has served quietly and without offense to anyone. He has been an industrious member of the committee of which I have the honor to be chairman. I now say publicly what I have said many times in private conversation, that this man has served ably and well not only the people of his race, but all the people of Missouri. I say to you that there is room in this great state for law-abiding citizens of both the white and colored races, and we should cooperate to banish interracial discord.

Already we hear in this country mutterings and threats against the Jews. We are told that they must be made to suffer after this war. Would barbarous methods, borrowed from tyrants who have plunged this world into strife, solve any of the problems which concern members of this race, in this nation or beyond its borders? Would we advance the causes for which our boys are fighting and dying, by any anti-Semitic demonstrations?

Mr. Speaker, this illustrates how easily the passions of war arouse interracial hatred and ill-will. Let us guard against them. Let us not punish the innocent victims of the war for the crimes of those who are the enemies of freedom. Let us realize that the common man is the victim of war everywhere. As our forces fight for freedom, let us resolve that victory must bring freedom not only to those who fight with us, but to the peoples of Germany, of Italy, of Japan, and wherever else tyranny tramples upon the rights of mankind. Mr. Speaker, there can be no world peace unless it be founded upon the principles of justice, mercy and understanding among all peoples. Let us then deny that the implication that white Americans are the super race. Grateful as I am for my heritage I cannot take credit for having been born a white man. And if I were a Japanese or the son of any other race, and could be born in this land of liberty, I would thank God that I am an American citizen.

(The following is a note written to Dr. Charles F. Boss, Executive Secretary of the Commission On World Peace of the Methodist Church, by the author of the above speech, denoting the victory over racial prejudice.)

The fight was on whether we should bar a Japanese-American doctor from employment in our Tubercular Sanatorium. Dr. Fujikawa was employed there some weeks ago. One of our bitter-end haters of all things "Jap" resolved to throw him out. I took him on, and we licked the proposition clean.

New Program at Eighth And Towne Launched

The new Conference Year marking the opening of the second quadrennium of the administration of Rev. Frederick D. Jordan at the First A. M. E. Church, 801 Towne Avenue, has had a most auspicious beginning. On last Thursday evening one of the largest Church Conferences assembled to set up the new organization. Mr. Paul R. Williams, internationally famous architect, and a trustee of the church, made a preliminary report on the proposed community house which the church has voted to build next year. The pastor announced that several thousand dollars of pledges have been received on the effort up to that time. Additional pledges were made by members present at the meeting.

Several organizations in the church included Stewardesses, Deaconesses, Missionary Society, and Prayer Bands were enlisted by the minister in a Personal Evangelism Campaign to culminate on the first Sunday in October in the fourth annual observance by the church of World Communion Sunday. Some changes were made in the Official Staff of the church which included the following: The election of Mr. Antonio Santos and Dr. Charles A. Jackson to the Trustee Board; and of Mr. James W. Clayton as Treasurer of the church succeeding Mr. William H. Gamble. New members appointed to the Steward's Board include Mr. Henry Green, Mr. Clarence Jones, Mr. Wm. Martin, Mr. T. S. Botts, Mr. Bernice Murrell.

The sermon topic announced by Rev. Jordan for the Morning Service this Sunday is, "On Being A Crusader." The guest soloist for the service will be Mr. Norris Stokes.

The entire church is heartily supporting the Senior Choir in the presentation of their contralto soloist, Miss Ann Hunter, in recital on next Tuesday evening. No admission fee is being charged and all are invited.

Magnolia Missionary Baptist Church News

The Magnolia Missionary Baptist Church, their pastor and officers, are thankful and happy for the success of the spiritual service and the addition of seven new members to the church. We also wish to thank the sponsor, Rev. John Hopkins, and his loyal friends and pastor from the Huntington Park Christian Church for the success of the dinner which was served on the church lawn, 5134 Towne avenue.

The public is cordially invited to worship with us at all times. Rev. B. L. Matthews is pastor; Myrtle Poliach is church clerk.

Boy's Home

The Boy's Home Guild members of the People's Independent Church of Christ wishes to thank all members of the church, and friends who so graciously helped to make the linen shower such a success.

Wesley Senior Choir to Sing

The Wesley Senior Choir invites you and your friends to their first musical of the season. This coming Sunday, September 24, at the vesper hour, 7 p.m. sharp, in the main auditorium at Wesley Methodist Church, Eighth and San Julian streets.

The choir will be ably supported by the Wesley male melodic chorus, directed by Florence Evans, also by some of the city's best artists in vocal, violin, piano and saxophone solos, featuring such artists as Margaret Hairston, Bernice Peterson, Ever Brewer Hudson, James Warren, Jr., Emmerson Scott, Jesse L. Reid, Louis Brown, and Elizabeth Garrott.

Unique attractions will be readings by tiny Jonnie Elizabeth Hall, child wonder, and whistling solos by Norvell Walton, also the Independent trio selections with Albert McNeil, Dorothya McNeil and Marguerite Chapman will lend merit to what promises to be a very fine occasion.

Florence Cadrez and Mary Overstreet will ably accompany the soloist.

The Wesley Choir, under the direction of Lucille Blayechettai-Huley, will render several selections. Florence Evans, organist. David Denton, choir president. Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, pastor.

Second Baptist Church Program

SPECIAL SERMON

"When Johnnie Comes Marching Home," this will be the topic of the sermon at Second Baptist Church on Sunday morning.

Do you have a son, husband, sweetheart in the armed services of your country? Have you thought of the many problems the end of the war will pose for us? Have you envisaged the difficult days which lie just ahead as we try to readjust our lives to returning war veterans who have been taught to kill, to hate? What of the day when we shall have to revise our scale of living downward? This whole problem will be presented in the message Sunday. Don't miss it.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

If you did not go to Dallas, don't worry, just come on to Second Baptist where the minister will Dramatize the Convention Thursday, 8 P. M. No admission.

SECOND A.M.E. CHURCH
Corner 43rd and San Pedro Place
Rev. John E. Isaacs, Minister

The Pastor, Rev. J. B. Isaacs begins his third year's work at Second A.M.E. Church under very favorable condition. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted him on Sunday and listen to a very interesting and inspiring address on "Short-Cuts" versus "The Long Way." There were three accessions and one convert. The choir under the leadership and direction of Irene Prince rendered inspiring music for the service. Several new voices have been added to the singing group.

The auxilliaries are in progress of reorganization; A new Usher Board has been organized and will greatly contributed to the effectiveness of the services. The new Deaconess Board is being headed by Sjster Cornelia Woods. The New Trustee Board is elected and prepares the budget for the ensuring year.

Next Sunday Presiding Elder Frank Harris will make his first official visit in the new conference year holding his first Quarterly meeting.

World Communion will be observed on Sunday October 1st., with the Pastor Rev. J. B. Issacs officiating. You are invited to partake of this Communion at Second A.M.E. Church.

CHURCH SCHOOL RALLY WEEK

Church School Rally Week services will be held at Hamilton Methodist Church, E. 18th St., and Naomi Ave., beginning Sunday, September 24 and continuing thru the week with services each night during the week. At the morning hour the pastor will deliver the sermon from the subject "A NEW CHANCE." At the 7:30 hour the young people of the Methodist youth Fellowship will present a drama entitled, "The Five Freedoms." Special features each night during the week. Sunday, Oct. 1, will close the week, with participation in the world wide Communion Service at 11 a.m. and the Installation of Church Officers at the 7:30 hour.

"Porgy" To Sing At All-Nations Church

The Fellowship Assembly will have as guest soloist Sunday afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock, the celebrated William Franklin, baritone soloist and one of the stars of the Porgy and Bess Company. Distinguished actors and actresses and the singing stars of the company, together with the chorus and choral ensemble, have been invited to worship Sunday afternoon with the Fellowship Congregation, All Nations Church, 816 East Sixty Street. The public is invited to be present.

To date, the Fellowship featured services have been perhaps the most outstanding in the annals of church history. Remember the presentation of Alaine Locke, the Bach Foundation Singers, Dr. Arthur Leslie Jacobs, Dr. Walter G. Mudder and Dr. James P. Brawley, and a host of other notables.

Sunday afternoon, October 8, the Nash Singers will appear in concert for The Fellowship Congregation. Mrs. Alena Brawley Dent is chairman, with Mesdames Ernestine Davidson and Tony Mae Holland, assisting.

Musical Fiesta

Faithful Central Baptist Church of Los Angeles, California, Rev. A. C. Capers, pastor, can record in historical records a very beautiful and outstanding Musical Fiesta given in behalf of the choir.

The nine beautiful young ladies chosen as queens were beautifully donned in formals most commanding and imposing. With their kings and attaches attired also in beautiful formals most befitting for the occasion. The contest among the queens for the crown was a heated, but friendly one.

The following ladies were the chosen queens: Estelle Brown, Christine Diggs, Maude Sweeney, Myrtle Smith, Ethel Mae Lewis, Mable Mays, Alberta Wells, Addie Price, Ester Espree.

Mrs. Addie Price who raised $106 won the queenship, and was crowned queen by Mrs. Nellie Capers.

Miss Selina Allen, pianist, and Brother Alfred Young, president of the choir, spared no pains in making this occasion a great success. Net receipts were $602. A large crowd witnessed the program.

Address All Questions to Eagle Question Corner
4075 S. Central Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new Introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

I understand that the Negro race descended from Ham. Through what line of his descendents do we come?—Pvt. J. J., Muroc, Calif.

In Genesis 9 and 10 we are given the origin of races. In the 18th and 19th verses of the chapter we read: "And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan. These are the three sons of Noah: and of them was the whole earth overspread."

Then in Genesis 10:6-9, we read: "And the sons of Cush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Ramamah; Sheba, and Dedan. And Cush begat Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord."

All the sons of Ham except Canaan established themselves in Africa.

Most Negroes descended from Ham through Cush. One writer has compiled the following historical facts: "The land of Cush is Ethiopia. 'Of the four sons of Ham, time has not at all hurt the name of Cush; for the Ethiopians, over whom he reigned, are even at this day, both by themselves, and by all men in Asia, called the Cusites.'—Josephus. 'The word Cush is, in Authorized Version, for the most part translated by Ethiopia.' This is also the translation in the Vulgate and Septuagint, and 'by almost all other versions, ancient and modern. The German translation by Luther Mohrenland, which is equivalent to Begroland, or the country of the blacks.'

"Ethiopia lay immediately south of Egypt, but with no definite limits. Abyssinia and the Soudan are the modern names of portions of it. Herodotus says of it: 'Where the south declines toward the setting sun, lies the country called Ethiopia, the last inhabited land in that direction. There gold is obtained in great plenty, huge elephants abound, with wild trees of all sorts, and ebony; and the men are taller, handsomer, and longer-lived than anywhere else.' And in another place he says of them, 'The Ethiopians . . . are said to be the tallest and handsomest men in the whol world.' This agrees with Isaiah 45:14: 'The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sayeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine." — "Empires of the Bible.

Nimrod, the mighty hunter, the grandson of Ham was a very mighty man. In Genesis the tenth chapter we are told that he was the founder of the first kingdom on earth. "And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar."

Dr. Pettigrew Will Head Sunday Meeting

Dr. Julian Pettigrew

A religious mass meeting of great importance is called to meet at Taborian Hall, 1041 E. 41st Place, Sunday, September 24, at 3:00 p. m. by the New Church, The United Church of Christ, (Undenominational, Inter-racial, with a Back to God Program), Dr. Julius D. Pettigrew is the minister and founder. This is God's "Called Out Church" which comes forth with a definite and specific God-given program, with which to lead off in an effort to rescue our lost and sinking world from the grip of Satan. Its program offers a real, workable solution for the world's problems, including the problem of our delinquent youth in the future, which is in itself a great and serious menace in the life of the world.

Dr. Pettigrew will answer the following great and vitally important questions at this meeting:

1. How did the Church let the world get out of her hands and get into its present awful condition?

2. What must the Church do now to change this awful condition in the life of the world for the better?

Every Christian and interested person in this city, regardless of race or denomination, should hear this wonderful, illuminating and God-sent message. Come one, come all. You will not regret it.

BAHA'I CENTER

Mrs. Charles Reed Bishop will speak Sunday, September 24, 3 p.m., at the Baha'i Center, 1709 West 8th Street, on "FREEDOM AND THE WORLD COMMUNITY." In this concluding lecture of her series, she deals with the ideal relationship of the free individual to the community life.

Revival at Mt. Sinai

A great revival is now in progress at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, 1409 E. Vernon Avenue, of which Rev. S. D. Richardson is pastor. The mmeting is being conducted by Evangelist J. A. Alexander, a great preacher. Also hear Sister Humes, a great gospel singer, who is furnishing music for the soul-saving meeting.

We are inviting all Christian soldiers to join us in helping win sinners to Christ.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The church is now in an effort to serve the needy families of the community. If you have any second-hand clothing, or other articles which you can spare, kindly contact us, CEntury 20249, and we will be glad to have the articles picked up or you may deliver them to the church, corner of 41st and Ascot Avenue. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Sweet Chariot our Celebrates Saturday

Before buying ANY laxative, consider these 3 Questions

Ques. Does it make any difference what laxative you buy? Ans. It certainly does; most people prefer a laxative that is satisfactory in action but thorough in results. Ques. How can you know what laxative, when taken as directed, will usually give prompt thorough relief? Ans. One simple way is to ask for Black-Draught.

Ques. Is Black-Draught economical? Ans. Very! Only 25c for 25 to 40 doses.

Black-Draught is purely herbal. It has been a popular-selling laxative with four generations. Many say the new granulated form is even easier to take. Caution, use only as directed.

Zion Hill Pastor is Welcomed Home From National Convention

Rev. Grant Harris, beloved pastor of Zion Hill Baptist Church, was welcomed home with open arms last Sunday by the many members and capacity-filled church who greeted his return from the National Baptist convention held in Dallas, Texas. The pastor returned by air, and his description to the congregation of his first flight through the clouds, was indeed a highlight of the morning. A soul-stirring message was delivered by the pastor Sunday last, in which he took as his subject "Man's Flight Thru Time and Space." It was one of the most forceful sermons ever delivered.

An afternoon program was also held in observance of Men's Day. The guest speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Griffith, of Louisiana.

Highlight of the evening services was the report from the Pastor on the National Baptist Convention. Listening to Rev. Harris' report, all the moving drama and spiritual force of the session was brought out so vividly that it seemed we were sitting in the convention hall.

On next Sunday, Young Peoples day, guest speaker of the morning will be the Rev. Charles Hampton, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, of San Diego.

A record crowd is expected. Come early to get your seat. Zion Hill church is located at 1319 E. 22nd Street.

"Miss Bethlehem" Of 1944 Crowned

The Fourth Sunday in last month was a day of rejoicing for one of the members of the Bethlehem Baptist Church, when Mrs. L. Wormley was crowned the Queen of Bethlehem. Mrs. Wormley with three other young ladies, Miss Wilma Palmer, and Mrs. Corrie White, were in a contest. The one raising the highest amount over $10 would be Miss Bethlehem. Mrs. Wormley brought in the amount of $125. She is superintendent of the Sunday school and the leading bass singer in the choir.

This affair, which will be held annually, was sponsored by the Senior Choir of the church under the direction of Miss Onie Houston. Rev. C. J. Hall is the pastor. Mrs. H. Tryon is president of the choir.

Pilgrim Baptist Church News

The Rev. B. W. Wade, moderator of the Providence Baptist Association, left Saturday, September 16, for Bakersfield, California, to organize a Baptist Church, which Rev. W. G. Muckelroy will pastor.

Rev. G. W. Washington, Jr., occupied the pulpit at the 11:00 o'clock services. His subject was: "God's Grace," taken from the text, Acts. 30:24. The spirit was high, as Rev. Kirkaptrick, the guest soloist, sang for invitation, "Jesus is Tenderly Calling."

Highlights from the National Baptist Convention, which was held in Dallas, Texas, were given by Mrs. Maggie Wade, wife of the minister, and Dad Mosley. Mrs. Wade stated that the convention's greatest assets are spiritual. The monies raised are re-invested for the purpose of carrying out the great commission, at home and abroad. She stated that she gained great inspiration after listening to the report of Dr. C. C. Adams of the Foreign Mission Board, which was the greatest demonstration and manifestation of the Holy Spirit in the convention.

The new president, Sister Boatee, served the Women and Mens Leagues refreshments at 4:30 p.m. The B.T.U. had a very interesting program at 5:15 p.m.

The Senior Choir is inviting the public to come out on September 21, at 7:30 p.m. for a great musical feast, under the direction of Mrs. Emma Alley.

Don't forget the weekly program. Bible class, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Prayer service, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, the president, Sister R. Andrews is asking all members and visitors to be present at 2:00 pm. to hear Sister Maggie Wade complete her report. See you at 9:00 a.m. Sunday School. Rowena B. Lawrence, reporter. Christian American Association Convenes

Unit 1 of the Christian American Association met Wednesday, September 13, at their new meeting place at the Community Center on 43rd and Avalon. A very enthusiastic meeting was held with the following new officers elected: Mr. A. P. Durousseau, president; Mr. J. A. Rencher, vice-president; Mr. Ernest McNorton, general secretary; Miss Elsie M. Bennett, recording secretary; Mr. W .F. W. Robinson, treasurer and chaplain; Mesdames Mary Gary and Katie Hicks, sick committee.

A membership drive is now on the way for all who wish to become members of this organization, as well as to help to bring about a better relationship among our group. Mrs. N. B. McLorin, reporter.

Rev. Henderson Opposed Racial Fallacy at Baptist Convention

Highlight of the National Baptist Convention which met at Dallas, Texas, from September 5 to 10, was the Fourth Annual Message delivered by the Rev. D. V. Jemison, Convention President. On the subject of Race Relations, Rev. Jemison expressed as his opinion the belief that "the southern Negro and the southern white man have got to work out their problems with each other without interference on the part of anybody."

The southern white dailies played the remark up as a rebuke to both the Negro and white northerners, and attempted to distort the statement into a reflection of the attitude of the masses of Negroes since Rev. Jemison, as head of the convention represented multiple thousands throughout the United States.

REV. HENDERSON OPPOSES

However great opposition to his point of view developed, and was given articulation by the Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Los Angeles. Rev. Jemison, later, publicly withdrew his assertion, and when it was proposed that the convention suspended its rules and re-elect him by acclamation, the Rev. Dr. Henderson stood alone and opposed the motion. He was roundly booed and hissed, but he stood determined in his opposition.

So much disagreement developed over the resolutions presented, they were all tabled without final action. The women of the convention reported $35,000 while the men reported $39,000 to make a grand total of $74,000. Next year's session will be held in Detroit, Michigan.

The Neighborhood Community Church Fetes Anniversary

The Neighborhood Church, San Pedro Street at Forty-Seventh Place, is celebrating its Fourth Anniversary this week with an interesting program each night. On Friday night The Christian Reformed Church, from whom the church properties were purchased, will join in the Mortgage burning. This promises to be one of the high lights of the anniversary week, an elaborate ceremony is being prepared which will prove most interesting to all church lovers. Rev. S. Struyk, pastor of the Christian Church, will deliver the message after which the burning of the mortgage will take place. This service will be a service of rejoicing for Neighborhood for it speaks of the cancellation of a debt of $30,000 assumed twenty months ago. The public is invited.

Sunday the anniversary sermon will be delivered by The Rev. S. M. Ellison of Kansas City, Kansas at eleven o'clock. At three o'clock Rev. A. W. Ross of Pleasant Hill Baptist church will have charge of the service and at seven o'clock Elder W. L. Taylor of Grace Church of God in Christ.

The week of service will close on Monday night with Rev. Raymond Henderson of Second Baptist bringing the closing message.

In order to accomodate the public dinner will be served in the dining hall Sunday afternoon.

First Anniversary Of King's Chapel Will Be Feted Sunday

Sunday, September 24, 1944, is the first anniversary of King's Chapel C. M. E. Church, and we have the honor of being the youngest church in the district; yet, we are happy to be a part of that great Christian chain which links men's hearts together for God.

We will be honored at our noon services with a message from Rev. Mrs. Fulghum of the Los Angeles Bible Institute. At 3:00 p.m., the Rev. L. C. Cleaves of Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church at 43rd and Wadsworth, will bring us the message with his two choirs. We expect all our friends to be present to lend their moral and financial report.

Rev. Henderson Returns to L. A.

Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, pastor of Second Baptist church, 24th and Griffith, graced his pulpit Sunday morning after two weeks in Dallas, Texas, where he attended the National Baptist Convention.

CONVENTION REPORT

On Friday evening, September 22, Rev. Henderson will dramatize the Convention. Some indication as to the nature of the event was given the over-flown audience Sunday morning by Rev. Henderson when he stated that he hoped never again to listen to fifteen-minute prayers that reached only the ceiling or to rabble-rousing preaching that stirred only the emotions of the people without touching their intellects.

The community is invited on Friday evening to hear a full report of the activities of the convention.

Women's Day to Be Celebrated At 1st AME Zion Church Sunday

This Sunday will be celebrated as Women's Day at the First A.M.E. Zion Church, Pico and Paloma, the Rev. P. M. Marshall, pastor. The women of the church have planned their activities with the firm resolve that this year's annual day will be the most successful in its history. Mrs. Vivian Osborne Marsh, prominent and leading figure in the California State Order of the Eastern Star, will speak at the 11:00 A. M. services.

A choir composed entirely of women singers will render special music, and outstanding soloists will be presented. A cordial invitation is extended to all the women of Los Angeles to attend the services at First AME Zion and share in this never-to-be forgotten program.

Mrs. Hazel Whittaker Moore is the efficient General Chairman and Mrs. Maggie Sheppard is the General Secretary of the day. Mrs. Jessica Marshall is the General Program Chairman.

Signs Of The Times

No matter how hard you try to think beyond Sidney Hillman, and get into the meat of the campaign, you find your thoughts drawn back to him as though some powerful, magnetic force were operting to keep your mind focused on him, and you wonder why? You ponder for a moment, and then you know the reason. Sidney Hillman is the symbol of the times. He is the target for today, and every day, until the wrath of the American people shall sweep them into oblivion, of every America firster, every Jew-baiter, Negro-Baiter, Labor-Baiter in the soul and body of the Republican party. Make no mistake about it, there is a race issue in this campaign, and it is the strongest weapon the Republicans have revealed thus far. However subtley they try to veil their true purpose behind the attacks on the CIO's Political Action Committee, they deceive no one; whatever they say, it stands out plainly that they are opposed to Sidney Hillman, the Jew.

John M. Lee

A NATURALIZED CITIZEN

Kyle Palmer, writing in Sunday's Times opens his weekly regurgitation of his boss's predigested slop with this gem of weasel-worded baiting: "—a naturalized citizen named Sidney Hillman has become an exceedingly important factor in the 1944 presidential election." Palmer labors rhetorically, and not too logically to establish that because Hillman is foreign born, he represents a "genuine," (as opposed to Palmer's and other Republican's, subtle), menace to American principles. After weakly admitting that "what or who Hillman is is not important," Palmer goes on to cleverly inflame the biased mind by pointing out that, "what he represents IS important."

UNLIMITED POLITICAL POWER

The Los Angeles Times has never missed an opportunity to throttle a minority group. Witness its fairly recent attempt to create another "Zoot Suit Incident," by distorting a report on the arrest of a Mexican youth into a "mollycoddling" charge against the police department. What it does to an ordinary report on an infraction of the law by a Negro is only too well known. What the Times accuses Hillman of attempting to do is the very thing that it has been trying to achieve for years; "—to use unlimited political power to further his political, social and economic plans."

ALL MINORITIES

When the Times lashes out against Sidney Hillman, it is sadistically enjoying the satisfaction of whelping the bare backs of every Negro and foreign born worker in America who dares to vote against the Hoover-Dewey Combination.

Yes, Sidney Hillman is a Jew! We might as well face it now; because he is a Jew, we members of what the Times calls, "a small minority" will have an added burden to carry in the coming election. We shall have to work hard enough to not only elect the Roosevelt-Truman ticket, but we've got to pile up votes—hundreds of thousands—as a mass protest against the race-baiting of the Los Angeles Times and the many publications and individuals whose line it is following.

"FOREIGN-BORN" CITIZENS

It is only a short step between persecuting a "foreign-born" Jew and an American Negro. That step must not be taken. The way to prevent it is to repudiate the Times and its rotten policy; repudiate it by following the leadership of Hillman, the Jew, Hillman the American citizen, to the end that our Country, which owes so much to the labor and sacrifice of its "foreign-born, naturalized citizens, and the Negro whose slave labor laid the foundation for its greatness, will grow greater and less ashamed.

LABOR IS AN ISSUE

Labor is an issue in this campaign. Sidney Hillamn is the leader of Labor's forces. Labor is the people, and the people want Roosevelt; they'll get him too. That's what has got the "loyal to the king" boys on the Times sitting up nights trying to think up new ways to race-bait with fine, college English.

THE WAR IS STILL ON

Even though there are those who see in the winning progress of ours and our allies' armies the signal to disrupt the unity achieved here at home, the war is far from over. There will be many long months of fighting and bleeding before our boys come home to stay. Until that day, we must keep the blood bank well supplied. Make an appointment today to save the life of a soldier who risks getting wounded because he has faith which makes him believe that you will give back every pint of blood he loses fighting for your freedom and security.

NEW YORK—Capt. Hugh Mulzac of the S.S. Booker T. Washington and Ferdinand C. Smith, National Maritime Union secretary, complete plans for a coast-to-coast speaking tour in support of President Roosevelt. During the six week trip, opening in Pittsburgh September 23 and ending in Philadelphia November 2, Capt. Mulzac and Smith are clarifying campaign issues and emphasizing the importance of registration and voting. The trip includes engagements in Pittsburgh, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Los Angeles, Seattle, St. Louis, Louisville, Chicago, Buffalo, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

99th Pursuit Squadron Flyer Home After Flying 93 Missions

Lieutenant Robert Diez, of the 99th Pursuit Squadron, who piled up an amazing record of 93 missions over enemy territory in Sicily, Salerno and the Anzio beachhead, and who holds the Air Medal, awarded for one of the two FW 190's he brought down, has been assigned to a station at Santa Monica to await reassignment. Many of the missions which Lieutenant Diez flew were in support of the British 8th Army. The 99th engaged in the highest type flying that a fighter pilot can do—close support dive bombing and strafing, acting as an air artillery for the infantry.

Many times it was necessary for the fighters of the 99th to fly 125 miles to drop a bomb on an enemy gun position. Despite the fact that they were working in stange territority, the flyers hit the targets with regularity.

In an interview with a CALIFORNIA EAGLE reporter last week, Lt. Diez attributed the splendid record of the 99th flyers to their daring, unorthodox technique, and the High-spirited competition that has been built up in the squadron. "We had to be accurate and on time."

ACCURACY AND TIMING

"For instance," he pointed out, "we might get a call to knock out an enemy bivouac position at 10:52. That didn't mean 10:55. Maybe we'd have to fly from somewhere around Naples to a position about 20 miles outside of Rome. We'd have to get there, find the target, and knock it out on time because the Infantry would start moving in on time. A half a mile out of the way, and we'd bomb our own troops."

Lt. Diez, who posed for the Negro Aviator Poster that is being used in the current war bond drive, is a native of Portland, Oregon. He attended Portland High School and the University of Oregon where he was a member of the track team, specializing in the 100 yard dash. Prior to his induction, he played the bass violin in the Portland Symphony and taught sculptor, painting and arts and crafts at the Portland YMCA. He is married to the former Ruby Butler also of Portland.

GI Christmas Mail Due Now

Millions of American soldiers will be spending their first Christmas overseas this year. Millions more will be observing their second, third, and in some cases even their fourth yuletide in some foreign port. During that season they will be looking forward anxiously to your gift, a token of the link that binds homefront with battlefront.

The Army Postal Service advices that overseas Christmas gifts must be mailed between September 5th and October 15th. Christmas cards may be sent at any time during or after those dates but they must be mailed in sealed envelopes.

PILGRIM HOUSE HAPPENINGS...

At last! The kiln—about which you have heard so much—and for which Dr. Glen Lukens has worked so hard—is here in Pilgrim House, purchased by popular subscription.

We invite all of our faithful friends and donors to the formal opening which will take place Tuesday afternoon, September 26, at 4:00 p.m.

A demonstration of the work will be given by Dr. Lukens personally, assisted by Joel Fluellen.

VESPERS

Sunday Vespers will begin October 1, 1944, at 5:30 p.m.

Lincoln Memorial Church takes the first Sunday Vesper.

Pilgrim House is deeply grateful to Rev. Lloyd E. Galloway, Pastor, Mrs. Marie Frederick, Choir Director, and to all of the members of Lincoln Memorial Church for starting the Vesper Season.

Governor Dewey Arrives Here For Rally at Coliseum Friday

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Republican party candidate for President and Mrs. Dewey arrive here tomorrow from San Francisco. Gov. Dewey will be principal speaker at a gigantic rally arranged for tomorrow night in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. John S. Barcome is chairman of the Republican County Central Committee and is in charge of the arrangements. Film director-producers David O. Selznick and Cecil B. Demille are in charge of gigantic talent show which has been aranged for the broadcast over a national hookup along with Mr. Dewey's speech.

According to Attorney Ivan J. Johnson III, chairman of the Executive Statewide Negro voters Committee for Dewey and Bricker, in a statement issued through committee headquarters manager, B. B. Bratton, Negro voters will play a larger role in major politics during the weeks of the coming November election, than at any other time in history. Bratton pointed to the prominent positions Negroes have already been able to jockey themselves into.

NEGRO PRESS REPRESENTED

Abroad the Dewey-For-President special are two outstanding Negro members of the press. Mr. Dewey demonstrated his earnestness in fair dealing when he invited the two reporters to accompany his party on its swing around the nation. Ralph Mathews, representing the Afro-American of Baltimore, Md., and Julius J. Adams, representing the New York Amsterdam News, two of the nation's leading Negro papers, are the top two men. Members of the local press through the Angel City Press Club, plan to fete the visiting newsmen Friday night.

Looking Up

By W. H. JOYCE

Some time ago I saw this thought expressed: "If the outlook is not bright, try the uplook, set things right." There seemed to be such good metaphysics in the epigram that the truth of it has stayed with me all this time. When the outlook is not bright, we may know that we have been looking out too much, giving ourselves too much external appearances. Possibly we are discouraged and looking down. The solution lies in looking in, not out; in looking up, not down.

Fellow citizens, I am also looking forward to paying the balance of the indebtedness on the Outdoor Life and Health Sanatorium at Duarte, Monrovia. May I pause here to emphasize the word MUST. Webster defines it as essential requisite, and we must raise $10,000, the balance due on the sanatorium.

I have been selected to raise $100. I have given $50 to start the list. Will you kindly phone me to come and get your subscription. Any amount you choose to give will be appreciated. You can send a check to W. H. Joyce, 1655 West 35th street, Los Angeles 7, Calif. Or phone PArk-for your kind subscription. Very way 0992. Will give you a receipt sincerely, W. H. Joyce.

TENNESSEE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Boyd of Nashville, Tennessee, are visitors in the city and are the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Talamantoes of 10343 Anzac Avenue.

Mrs. Talamantoes is the sister of Mr. Boyd. Many social courtesies have been planned for the distinguished guests, prominent citizens of Nashville.

VET WISHES TO SEE FRIENDS

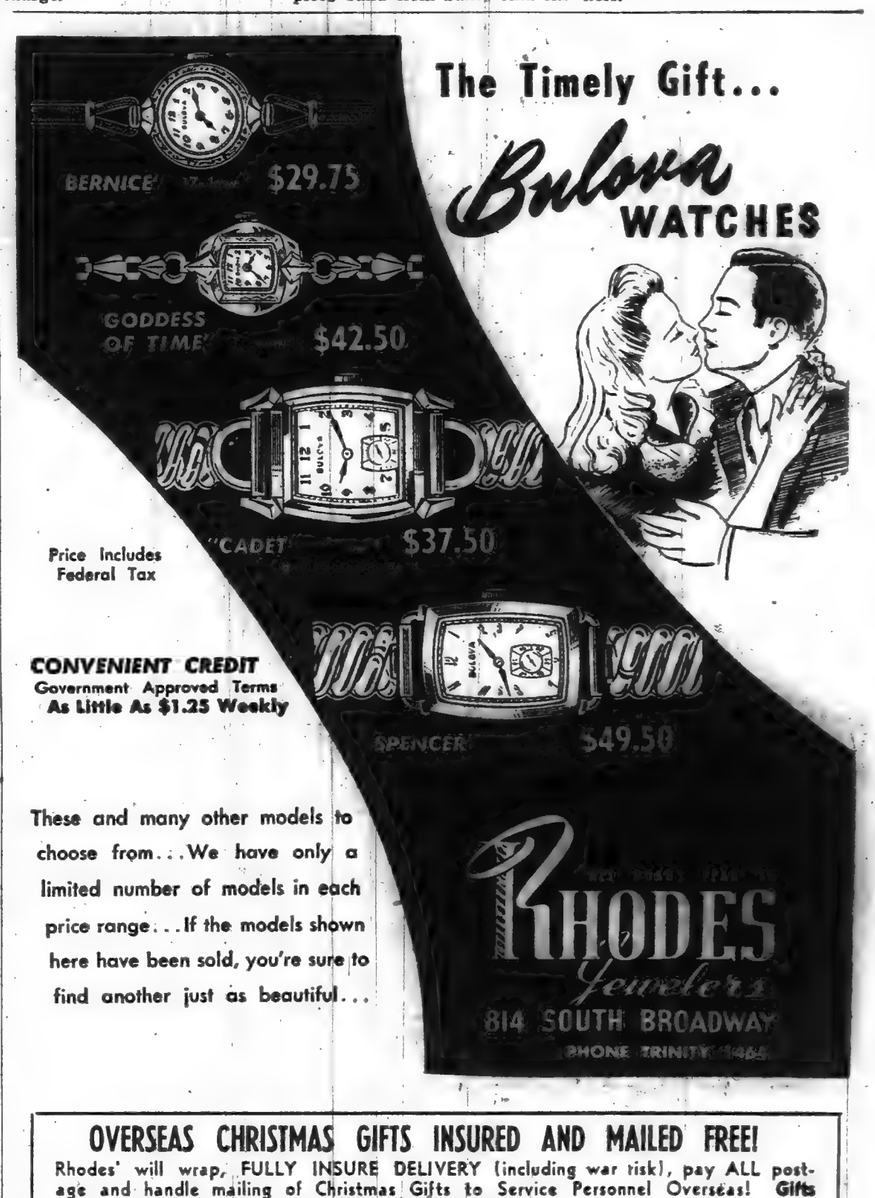
1st Lt. Robt. (Puck) Johnson, formerly of Troop K, 10th Cavalry, now retired, is hospitalized at Sawtelle Veterans Administration Hospital where he would welcome visits from his friends. Lt. Johnson came to Los Angeles from Oakland August 9.

Arrest Man On Assault Charge

James Childs, 4861 Compton avenue, was arrested and charged with felonious assault upon complaint of Robert Collier (white) who was allegedly beaten into a state of semi-consciousness on September 8 at 23rd and Central avenue. When Childs appeared with his attorney, Curtis C. Taylor, last Monday morning in Division 4 of the Municipal Court, it was announced that the victim was so severely injured and in such a condition that it was impossible for him to be in court and the matter was continued to October 2. Childs denies the charge.

Plans Set for Huge War Chest Rally at Shrine Auditorium

War Chest volunteer leaders and workers from the Eastside will join those from 45 other neighborhood communities and 34 neighboring cities and towns associated in the Los Angeles Area for the forthcoming united appeal for $7,613,579 on behalf of 133 war and home front causes, at the huge Rally planned for the Shrine Auditorium a week from tonight, September 28, at 8:00 oclock.



The meeting is to be the final spark plug in the recruiting of the 50,000 volunteers needed during the appeal in the 750 square miles of the Los Angeles Area War Chest. At least 900 workers are needed in the Eastside campaign alone, according to Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, district chairman.

The motion picture industry has taken over the entertainment program for next week's Rally and galaxy of stars are offering their services. Among the first were Gracie Fields, English singing star; Ray Bolger, comedy star and dance in MGM pictures; Don Ameche of screen and radio fame, who will be master of ceremonies; Rise Stevens and John Charles Thomas from opera and concert stage. Name bands also will be on the program, with the 70-piece band from Santa Ana Air Base, directed by Lt. Frank E. Kirby, giving the martial touch.

Eastside campaign headquarters have now been set up at 1029 East Vernon Avenue, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Smith, staff representative.

Announcement Of Removal

W. J. Williams, proprietor of the Sunnyland Service Barber Shop, 4163 S. Central avenue, who operated his business 13 years on Central avenue, announced this week that he is moving into his own building at 3607 South Western avenue, and will be pleased to serve his patrons and friends there in the future. His motto is "It pays to look well. Mr. Williams' son is associated with him in the business.

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

Jon Hall will undergo the surgeon's blade in a plastic surgery attempt to remove the scars inflicted in the T. Dorsey fracas.... When nobody's looking, Slam Galliard (he auth'd "Flat Foot Floogie") will get a medical discharge from the army.... A scandal was hushed the other ayem when the wife of a prominent citizen was arrested on a side street by vice squaders.... Don't miss the immense show at the Plantation club Wednesday evening, Sep't 27th. The Eleven and One club will use the coin to purchase gifts for armed servicemen overseas. Clarence Muse will M.C. the show.... The Wm. Bradfords are 2'ing. He's a columnist on a Frisco sheet. Ha! Didn't think columnists were capable of doing anything else but turning out a col'm!.... A ringsider heckled Leonard Reed the other night. Leonard stopped his act for a second and looked in the clown's direction and squelched him with this corker: "And that, ladies and gentlemen, is why we have birth control!".... An announcement via the A. Jarvis show for girls over 18 to work for 'your' telephone company." Negro girls' applications are ignored. Isn't that something for the FEPC to investigate?... Too many numbers racketeers are invading the city. The most noted ones are fugitives from Kansas City. Unless the gendarmes intervene, Los Angeles will be another Chicago.... Hunch Bet: Watch boxer Art Arregon. A coming champ.... Best looking chorus girl on Central is Mildred Boyd. She decorates the line at Shepp's Playhouse.... Have you guys oggled the chic chick at the Fawn Cafe? She stenog's there. She has one of those breathless shapes. Her name's Jean Herndon.... In last wk's communique, we item'd that Eloise Ford is in luff with a businessman-about-town. That was the col'm's first error. It shoulduve read: "THELMA Ford is having a wonderful time with a handsome young businessman-about-town." "Sorry, Eloise.... Most discussed chanteuse in nightlife circles here is a little doll named Pearl Something-or-other. She chirps in the Leonard Reed show....

THE RED CROSS SHOW

The other evng in one of the late spots, a few of us newspaper guys were sitting around discussin' the anatomy of dames. Someone changed the conversation to remark that "when JT dies he'll have the biggest funeral in Los Angeles!" That was because so many people stopped at the table to speak to us, I guess. Anyway, if I'm to have the biggest funeral in Los Angeles, I have a proposition to make to my many friends who will attend. Don't attend my funeral. Attend, instead, the benefit show given by the Eleven and One club Wednesday eveng at the Plantation. They need your support. I'll be dead, I won't. Getting serious for the moment, the benefit is the first the column has ever endorsed. It's because it is a legitimate benefit, and it's for a worthy cause. The date is Wednesday, September 27. There'll be stars galore plus three big bands. Count Basie will play from 9:00 until 11:30. I have never asked the support of my readers in anything before, but this, I feel, is a very worthy cause. It is for that reason I ask the support of all of you to be on hand to make this the biggest show in nightclub history!

NOTES FROM A NEWSBOY'S NOTEBOOK

Eddie Harrison is suffering from undue rapidity of the heart. Her name is Lucille Daniels. A dawncer.... I read in a book that Apollo was chasing a Nymph and she turned into a tree. Wotta lucky guy. Those I chase always turn into a nightclub or restaurant!... Sudden Thawt: Nertz to the doctor who says the best cure for a cold is peace of mind. G'wan, how'n 'ell can you have peace of mind when you have a cold?... There's only one thing wrong with sportsman J. B. Brown. His perfume stinks.... The hose manufacturers should use Celeste Moore for a Nylon ad. She fills 'em so nicely herself!... You don't mind baby-talk so much if the cooing comes from Vivian Carrington, the chorine.... The way Martha Tilton toys with "I'll Walk Alone" gives us goose pimples.... Joe Harrises (he's the writer) are having their own private war. They'll give their business to the California divorce courts....

Count Basie and Band to Play for Red Cross Show

Stars Galore to Donate Services September 27th

The town's biggest benefit yet, will be staged Wednesday evening, September 27th, at Joe Morris' Plantation club. In one of the finest gestures ever made, a newly-organized group of business and professional women known as the Eleven and One club will sponsor a Cabaret-Dance benefit, the entire proceeds of which will be turned over on the floor that night to the American Red Cross for the purchase of Christmas gifts for our boys in the armed forces overseas.

Mr. Bowen McCoy, manager of the Los Angeles Chapter, American Red Cross, sent a letter of approval for the benefit to Mrs. Celeste Moore, president of the club, and added that the Christmas gifts will be distributed through the Camp and Hospital committee of the Los Angeles Chapter, American Red Cross.

Also sending a congratulatory wire and permission for any member to donate his or her service, a letter was received from Mr. Edward Bailey, president of the Musicians' Union No. 767.

BASIE AND OTHER BANDS

With Clarence Muse and Ernie Whitman handling the M.C. chores, more than one hundred stars of stage, screen and radio will be on hand to donate their talents to this worthy cause. The elaborate program will also feature Lillian Randolph, Mantan Moreland, Rex Ingram, Nina Mae McKinney, the Lee Young band, Maxine Sullivan, Zutty Singleton, Tommy Dorsey, Edgar Hayes, Eddie "Duffy's Tavern" Green, Hedda Hopper, Dorothy Dandridge and numerous other celebrities.

Count Basie and his band will be on hand to play from 9 until 11:30, after which Ansell Hill and a white band composed of former Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw and Glenn Miller musicians, will take the bandstand to play for the remainder of the evening. The benefit will be broadcast over station KPAS, with Harry Schooler and Carl "Radio's Tallest Announcer" Bailey MCing the air show.

A star-studded cast is lined up for the occasion, and this show will undoubtedly go down as the greatest in nightclub history.

Columnist J. T. Gipson is general program supervisor, and festivities will get under way promptly at 9 p. m.

The date is Wednesday evening, September 27th.

The greatest show in nightclub history!

Shepp's Playhouse Rates Raves In Nightclub Editor's Review

Etta Moten (top) and William Franklin sang the title roles when the DuBose Heyward-George Gershwin folk opera, "Porgy and Bess," was presented on "This Is My Best," over CBS recently.

walked and danced into the audience to meet the people to the tune of "Let's Get Acquainted Tonight." The girls work hard and look exceptionally well.

On next was an Ella Fitzgerald-looking lass named Neave Peoples, who hushed the room with her clear, sultry-styled singing of "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't ,etc. She scored heavily.

BIGGEST EXCITEMENT OF SHOW

In their first cafe appearance on the West coast, Yo-Yo and Pearl, a handsome mixed team, ballroom their way thru two lively numbers. Gal is cute and stops the show cold with a voice as soft as the underside of a butterfly's wing. She sang "Indian Love Call," and had to encored again and again. She's the nightclub's answer to Lily Pons!

Torso Twister Marie Bryant had this mob howling with her "hostess" number. She's the hottest hip hurler in the night-

Opening night crowd at Shepp's Playhouse, newly opened bronzeville bistro, saw mink-clad matrons and devilish debutantes in attendance. Paced by drummer man Henry Tucker and the subdued trumpet artistry of Wendell Culley, the Bardu Ali band is made to order for the cozy big time nitery. Much improved and definitely in the "big time" class, they played the show to perfection, and satisfied the customers on hand with soft, swingy rhythms.

This colorful and restful dine and dance spot is the talk of the town. The floor show is a Leonard Reed production. In its opening sequence the Leonard Reed "Glamour" girls, who live up to their billing all the way, club circuit. The 2 Esquires contribute their share to the star-studded revue with intricate and torrid tappin'. They're dancesational.

Star of the show is Pha Terrel. His Sinatra-styled singing take house by storm. A singsational high light. If the guy would take his singing seriously, he would be able to grab a place in the show business akin to singer like D. Haymes, F. Sinatra, P. Como and others.

Leonard Reed's genial emceeing throughout, plus greeting of many of customers by name, goes over like the proverbial house-a-fire. Leonard is a born showman and won the hand of the evening. He dances with the girls, contributes a different tap routine on his own, and even pitches in with production vocals. The guy oughta be discovered by Hollywood. He's got what it takes to take what Hollywood's got.

A trio of beauts known as The Three Charms entertain downstairs in the cocktail lounge.

All in all, Shepp's Playhouse is definitely a playhouse. And the show, well—it tops any I've seen in this neck of the woods in ages!—J. T. GIPSON.

Sheriff's Show Cards 60 Acts

With a star-studded list of sixteen variety acts direct from New York and Hollywood musicals and night clubs, featuring such stellar performers as Belle Baker, Connie Haines and Pinky Tomlin, final plans for the Sheriffs' Show were presented to Sheriff E. W. Biscailuz by Producers Bud Abbott and Lou Costello and the comedians' manager, Edward Sherman.

Abbott and Costello, in addition to producing the Sheriffs' Show, will make their first West Coast stage appearance the first two nights of the show, to be held at the Shrine Auditorium October 4 to 11, in comedy acts from their latest pictures.

Tickets can be purchased at Mutual Ticket Agencies, Sheriff's Office, Marshal's Office, Sheriff's Stations, or from any deputy sheriff or city marshal."

Porgy and Bess Okay On CBS As Feature

Starring baritone William Franklin, "Porgy and Bess," George Gershwyn's monumental folk opera, was presented on radio on the "This Is My Best" program over CBS recently. Also in the radio adaption was Etta Moten, the lovely and singsational "Bess," and Avon Long, one of Harlem's better actors. The radio show was, to revert to vernacular of hep lingo, a "solid sender."

Porgy and Bess are playing to capacity crowds nitely at the Philharmonic auditorium.

"G.I. JAMBOREE"

A gala "G.I. Jamboree" Saturday night, September 30, will provide the means with which members of Sweethearts of Servicemen will furnish a day-room in a veterans' hospital, it was announced this week by offices of the American Youth for Democracy, of which the "Sweethearts" are a part.

Dorothy Maynor Will Sing at Roosevelt Rally

Dorothy Maynor, Negro concert soprano, and member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, will sing at a rally for the re-election of President Roosevelt to be held at Madison Square Garden, New York City, Thursday night, September 21.

The meeting will mark the opening of Vice-President Henry A. Wallace's campaign for re-election of the president. Bette Davis, screen star, is making a special trip from Hollywood to share the Garden platform. She will represent motion picture and theatrical personality members of the Independent Committee. Another speaker will be Serge Koussevitsky, conductor of the Boston Symphony.

Harlem Reporter Scribblin' Songs

The adage that "I swore I'd starve before becoming a reporter and I've been doing both ever since," was enough for Harlem columnist Ted Watson. He went right out and wrote a song that the great Duke of Ellington is plugging. It's a torchant titled "Smile Your Troubles Away."

According to people along swing pan alley, the popular columnist should coin a mint from the tune. It's supposedly that good!

'Porgy and Bess' To Close Sept. 30

"Porgy and Bess," George Gershwin's unforgettable American folk opera, will soon end its run at the Philharmonic Auditorium.

The last performance takes place Saturday evening, September 30, with special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

Capacity audiences are always in attendance and greet this masterful saga of the Catfish Row, which is so splendidly portrayed by Etta Moten as Bess, William Franklin as Porgy, Avon Long and others.

Tiny Brown's New Swing Combo Is Setting Hollywood On Fire

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Hollywood Trio must be doing some overtime gnashing of teeth since Tiny Brown popped on the musical scene. Currently appearing at Jim Dolan's, cozy nitery on the strip, the newly organized combo under the direction of Bass Fiddler Tiny Brown, is taking Hollywood by storm with their swingsational playing. Not since the King Cole trio appeared at the Florentine Gardens has a musical combo hit this neck of the woods with so much on the ball as the Tiny Brown boys.

With Baron LaRue on piano and Shelby Richards on guitar, they sell their songs solidly and with plenty of oomph in their swing.

In time to come (which ain't long, brother) they should have no trouble competing with the so-called "greats" of the Trio kingdom.

Angel City Press To Host Out-Of-Towners

Local newsmen and members of the Angel City Press club, prepared to join the party being planned for visiting newsmen Ralph Matthews of the Baltimore Afro-American and Julius J. Adams of the NY Amsterdam News, being arranged through the Public Relations Division of the California Negro Voters Committee—for Dewey and Bricker.

The two visiting newsmen are members of the press party aboard the DEWEY-FOR-PRESIDENT special bringing the GOP standard bearer here tomorrow.

Press Committeemen Herman Hill and Lawrence LaMarr say plans call for visits to key spots topped off by a special show at the Plantation club Friday evening.

TWO BANDS AND NEW FLOOR SHOW AT ALABAM

King Cole Trio—Benny Carter Show Breaking Records Galore

Fresh from a record-breaking week at the Howard Theatre, in Washington, D. C., the King Cole Trio-Benny Carter show will move into Chicago's Regal Theatre for a week's engagement beginning Friday, September 22. They have broken records in every theatre where they have appeared. Critics are raving about their show, saying it's the best to come out of Hollywood in many a moon—or, words to that effect.

Nat—King Cole

Your corpulent, and collapsable correspondent doesn't doubt that it's the best to come out of Hollywood in an age, and simply because it's a show crowded with class. In it is Timmie Rogers, the Harlem Neat-Wit; the lovely lady of song, Savannah Churchill; Benny Carter's band, and of course, the King Cole Trio.

The trio themselves alone, being worth the price of admission.

Letter from comic Timmie Rogers states: "Outside the DuSable hotel today (that's where I'm staying; OUTSIDE the DuSable hotel), hundreds of people rushed up for my autograph. Boy, were they mad when they found out I wasn't Rochester!"

Red Callender Much in Demand As Accompanist

Because good musicians who know how to compliment a singer are hard to find, Red Callender, the Esquire Poll-winning bass fiddle player (he tied with John Kirby for third place) has established a record of supporting probably more top-flight performers than any other bass man in the business.

Although he has worked behind such favorites as Hazel Scott, Ethel Waters, Ivie Anderson, The Delta Rhthym Boys, Dorothy Donnegan; and with Louis Armstrong's band; and recorded with The King Cole Trio ("All For You"), Red's most interesting supporting role was when he worked with Lena Horne along with Phil Moore at the Little Troc. In appreciation, Lena has had him among her supporting crew for most of her pictures at M-G-M.

Right now Red and his trio are appearing at the Cobra Club, the downtown spot which also features the singing of Mabel Scott accompained by Clara Lewis. This engagement is more or less of a reunion between Red Callender and his guitarist, Louis Gonzales, who played with him when the aggregation was featured at Cafe Society in New York. Duke Brooks, his piano player, is new to the combination, but according to Red, is a natural, having taken over the spot formerly filled by Chase Thompson.

KING KOLAX

NEW ORLEANS, La. — John Hammond, famous millionaire sportsman and music critic who is now serving in the armed forces, is planning a coronation for the mighty King Kolax here next Sunday when King Kolax and his band turn on their big "Bertha's" for the boys in the camp here. The girls all say he is the pin-up man of New Orleans.

Censorship of U.S. war production will be lifted when Germany falls, except for a few super secret projects.

Richard Wright On Purchase of U. S. War Bonds

By William Pickens

Richard Wright, the author of "Native Son," a best seller, and other books, has now written "American Hunger" (Harper & Brothers),—and sends the Treasury Department the following skit on War Bond Buying, for the benefit of the colored people:

Don't Wear Your "Sunday Best" Every Day.

Down South where I was was born we called our good clothes our "Sunday Best," and we wore them only on Sundays. Today we are all making big war money, but there aren't enough goods to buy. So I'd say let's put our money away in WAR BONDS until peace (Sunday) comes. Don't be a dude: All dressed up and nowhere to go. Dudes usually get into trouble. And you'll get into trouble—INFLATION—if you spend war dollars unnecessarily. The war is far from over; millions of boys overseas want to come back home. So pull off your "Sunday Best"—shed your dollars—and buy WAR BONDS. That's the sensible way to do it!

That is sound advice from a very famous and very sensible American writer.

Club Cosmos In India Presented to G. I.s By Red Cross

INDIA.—Redecorated throughout, Club Cosmos, serving U. S. troops in the China-Burma-India theater, was formally presented by the American Red Cross to the soldeirs at a recent ceremony followed by a dance.

The renovated club was presented to Gen. Cheves, who in turn presented it to Cpl. Charles Wilkinson, 814 33rd Ave., Tuscaloosa, Ala., representing the troops who will use the club.

Directed by Boyd Overton, of Cincinnati, first Negro Red Cross worker to reach the CBI, the club had been in operation since November, 1943. Renovation was started in March, and during repairs and redecorating the club continued to function.

A Real Pin-Up Girl

G. I. Joe's number one pin-up girl, the army nurse, is playing a significant part in the turmoil of today. Many of them will probably not see front-line service but they fight along with the returned veteran as he rapidly recovers from wounds received in battle, giving him the chance he needs to rejoin his unit. It is she who nurses the convalescent of World War II back to a healthy state. Many others like her, in this war and wars of yesteryear, have and are still performing their duties with utmost efficiency.

What's this? Two red hot bands are now being featured at the New Club Alabam, 4215 South Central avenue, and a brand new floor show for the entertainment of patrons. Roy Milton And His Solid Senders and "Big Six" And His Orchestra are the two bands. The brand new floor shows are to be caught at 10:15 p.m. and 12:15 p.m.

If you haven't been to the Alabam lately, by all means go now and drop in early. Last Saturday and Sunday crowds were turned away. The current attractions are the biggest yet attempted, so don't miss it!

New Lecture Series Will Begin Sunday

A new series of lectures will open the seventh big week at the Victory Auditorium corner of East 103rd and Compton Ave., next Sunday evening when the subject of "Is Mr. X Guilty?!" will be presented.

TRIAL BY JURY

This lecture will be presented in the form of a trial by jury. A jury will be chosen from the audience. Also there will be a ballot taken of the audience.

In the preliminary program, sound moving pictures will be shown for the early-comers. This will be followed by the Twilight Musicale which will feature a fine musical program.

PUBLIC INVITED

Meetings are held every night except Monday and Sautrday and are free to the public. Evangelists Lindsey and Troy are lecturing to large audiences of thinking men and women.

The auditorium seats are comfortable and well arranged. Heating equipment has been installed so that the pavilion can be heated on cool evenings.

Stars From Stage and Screen Judge Beautiful Brownskins

To the studios who are searching for "another Lena Horne," the beauty contest Friday night on the stage of the Lincoln Theatre is made to order for the talent scouts. Contest supervisor, Ted Merriman, announced that the prizes will be $100.00 in bonds, three loving cups and many other prizes for winners of the contest.

Not since the Angel City Press Club's recent sponsored "Miss Bronze America" contest has such an event attracted more attention as has the one scheduled for Friday night at the Lincoln.

We caught a sneak preview of some of the gals in their bathing suits (only in the line of duty; we were getting their measurements!) and some of them's got more appeal in their little fingers than most Hollywoodolls have in their, well—have all together.

California's 1,300,000 school children bought 47,550,637 in War Bonds and Stamps during the 1943-44 school year.

YMCA BEAN FEED to Launch Touch Football Loop Season

Twenty-eighth Street YMCA's gymnasium will be the scene of the Eastside Athletic Association's gigantic kick-off bean feed Thursday the 28th between 5 and 7 p. m. More than 400 youths of the community who compose the membership of the twenty-five team touch football league which will get under way the following week, are expected to be present.

Games will be played at Ross Snyder, South Park, Twenty-Second Street Pdaygrounds, Carver, Lafayette, Junior high schools. Participants will be in two classes, 13—15, and 16 and 18 years. B-Squad or varsity players are ineligible.

W. A. Lyone, Carver Athletic instructor and Carl Gross, 22nd Street Director are working out schedules and other details and acting as advisors.

Present will be a noted Pacific Coast conference coach and several members of the Los Angeles Mustangs, American pro league team.

The feed is being jointly sponsored by the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, Dining Car Cooks and Waiters local and H. A. Howard, president of the Golden West Realty Board.

The city is divided up into eight areas with William E. Pollard acting as co-ordinator for the eastside. Walter E. Lantz is the executive secretary of the Youth Project with Virginia McGregor supervisor for the project in area four comprising the eastside.

Leads Team to Baseball Victory

CAMP LEE, Va.—First baseman Shelton Matthews found four QM school pitchers to his liking and led the Ninth Regiment to an 8-0 victory and the championship in the camp baseball league last week. The QM school won the first half title and the Ninth gained the second half crown.

The Ninth Regiment won the opening game in the series, 2-1.

The victory gave the Ninth Regiment a season's record of 30 victories against 6 loses. During the second half the post champions scored 167 runs while allowing opponents only 37.

Ex-Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing declares there will be no postwar crime wave "if" returning soldiers get jobs.

Swim Carnival Held for G. I.'s

CAMP LEE, Va.—More than 5000 soldiers and civilians witnessed the "Aqua Follies of 1944" at Edmonds pool Monday and last night. Presented by Special Service, the cast consisted of soldier and civilian swimmers starring Miss Olivette Baugh and 1st Sgt. Albert Johnson.

The show opened with music by the 3p7th ASF band. The first water act was a tango swim by Cpl. W. F. Rainey. The number was dedicated to Miss Yvonne Booth, guest star who was unable to swim because of an injured leg.

Early in the show the former Ninth Regiment Double Octette, directed by Sgt. Harold Montague, presented a number, "When Stars Are Gone."

The theme of the show was a playlet "King Abdul and Princess Twilight," featuring Sgt. Johnson as king and Miss Baugh as queen.

Heavy Champ Joe Louis Lauds U. S Negro Air Fighter Group

15TH ARMY AIR FORCE—Joe Louis had a break in his routine of barn storming, and decided to spend the time with the Veteran Negro Fighter Group, commanded by Colonel Benjamin O. Davis Jr. The Heavyweight Champ arrived on the flat field, that the Flyers use for a base, with S/Sgt. Jimmy Edgar of Detroit, Mich., and Sgt. Jackie Wilson, of Los Angeles, Calif., two members of his troupe. They had lunch with one of the Squadrons in the Group and came down to the landing strip just in time to see the fighters come from one of their long range escort missions.

The Champ sat in a jeep alongside of the strip and watched the mustangs come in for their landing. "These fellows sure can fly," Joe said proudly to Lieut. William C. Wyatt, Group Special Service Officer. While the planes were still coming in Louis went over to the Intelligence Building to see Colonel Davis. The Colonel was wet with perspiration and visibly fatiqued, but he took the well known visitor into the Briefing Room, and pointed out on the giant map all the places the Group had flown. The World's Foremost Pugilist sat in on the critique of the mission and addressed the fliers at its conclusion.

"I am glad to see you fellows," the Champ said clearly showing no sign of his usual reticence, "I've been keeping up with you in the papers. I have visited many airfields and have spoken to a lot of pilots, they all speak well of you and give you all the credit." Joe spent the rest of the afternoon visiting the enlisted men and their club houses. Had dinner with one of the squadrons, and before he departed he said, "It sure was good seeing the fellows again. I had a swell time."

Ike Williams Wins Another

PHILADELPHIA.—Ike Williams, 135, Trenton, N. J., No. Iiams, 135, Trenton, N. J., No. 1 contender for the world's lightweight title, ran his win streak up to 13 straight Tuesday night when he knocked out Freddy Dawson, Chicago lightweight, winner of 36 consecutive bouts, in 1m. 35s. of the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round main event.

SAN BERNARDINO NEWS

ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Mary Greene and Mrs. Elizabeth Looper of Central Avenue entertained at a party in honor of Mrs. Sadie Brown who returned to San Antonio, Texas, after a two and a half month's stay with her sister, Mrs. Marie Muckelroy of 6th street. Guests at this delightful affair were Mrs. I. Reed, Mrs. E. Browning, Mrs. B. W. Ingham, Mrs. L. Talbert, Mrs. I. H. Faulkner, Mrs. C. A. Boston, L. J. Pinkney, Mrs. L. Williams, and Mrs. Marie Muckelroy. A delicious service of chicken salad, potato chips, ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barnwell of ninth street entertained at a beautiful lawn party in honor of Mrs. Byrd Lane, prominent socialite of Dallas, Texas. During the warm evening guests enjoyed themselves in the beautiful garden. As the evening grew cool, all gathered in the spacious living room for bridge and other games. Guests at this lovely party were Mrs. Eva Woods, teacher in Los Angeles, Mrs. L. C. Wesley, also of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ruby McAsee, Mr. W. Jones, Mrs. Margarhietta Hocker, Miss Fannie Watkins, Mrs. M. Reid, Miss Dorothy Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hockaday, Dr. and Mrs. W. Savage, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Diggs and Sgt. B. Watson.

The Christian Endeavor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church sponsored a skating party at the Coliseum on I street. Many young people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tapsico of 029 Spruce Street announces the marriage of their daughter, Esther Frances, to Sgt. Lenon Lyons of Texas on Sept. 11.

Those who listened to KFXM heard the melodious tenor voice of Sgt. B. Watson last Thursday night at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Dora Dean Gaines of Perris Street spent a most enjoyable vacation with her children, Nadine, Lee Jr., and Gordon in Needles, California as the guest of Mrs. Grace Neal.

Russell Howard, Jr. of Ann Arbor, Michigan, is in the city to spend several months with his aunt, Mrs. Naomi Raibon and family.

The Anna B. Garner Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Muckelroy on Spruce Street last week. The most interesting point in the meeting was the review of current topics by Miss Decolette, one of the new teachers at the Westside Nursery School. Final arrangements for the recital at which Mrs. Roena Savage will be presented were made.

We regret to report that Mrs. Letisha Inghram is confined to her home because of serious illness.

The Rev. A. L. Criglar, new pastor of St. Paul AME Church ocupied the pulpit for the first time last Sunday. Members and friends welcomed him with fervor. We wish for him and his family a successful and happy time during their stay in our community. Rev. Criglar comes from Annapolis, Maryland with the highest of honor for the great work he did there.

BOXING BRIEFS

JACK CHASE, former California middleweight champion, started training last weekend for his important 10-round battle with Lloyd Marshall, duration light-heavyweight champion, at Hollywood Baseball Park, Saturday, Sept. 30, under the promotion of the Victory Athletic Club.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Kenny La Salle, 156, Los Angeles, stopped Alonzo Williams, 155, Los Angeles, in the eighth round of a scheduled 10-round bout here last Friday night.

TURKEY THOMPSON is slated to become a member of Uncle Sam's armed forces in the near future.

NOLAN SHARP, 184, scored a TKO in the fifth round over Steve Ludman, 190, in the main event at Wilmington Bowl last Wednesday night. In the semi-final, Benny Cousins, 116, drew with Ponce Juarte, 118.

"SLUGGER" WHITE WINS

BALTIMORE.—Luther (Slugger) White, 134, pounded out a 10-round decision over Vince Dell'Orto, 131, Brooklyn, last Friday night.

From the State Athletic Commission of California comes the following information. Charley Burley, state middleweight champion, with an injured cheek, is out of action for 12 days. Mike McNulty has filed a contract as manager of Leon Zorrita for 3 years . . . Johnny Kelloff filed a contract as manager for five years of Allen Arnett.

LARRY LOVETT, Florida heavyweight champion, meets Elmer Ray on Oct. 3 at the Olympic Auditorium.

HUNTING

The Joint Wildlife Management Committee has strongly urged changes in federal regulations to permit a greater harvest of birds, as an aid to farmer as well as an addition to the domestic food supply. Some liberalization has been obtained. Ten days have been added to the shooting season and the bag limit has been increased on the species of ducks which do most of the crop damage. Last year's regulation limited the bag to ten a day and 20 in possession. The new regulation permits an additional five of mallard, widgeon, and sprigs, and an additional ten of these in possession, making it possible for the hunter, if he has at least five mallards, widgeons or sprigs, to take a total of 15 a day and have 30 in possession.

To meet the situation, the War Production Board has authorized nearly half a million shot gun shells, 45,500,000 rounds of center fire cartridges, and 891,000,000 cartridges of .22 caliber. Ammunition is now available in the counties and can be obtained by the farmers through the County War Boards.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico.—Carmen Ann has again proved that she is the most improved mare at the Caliente course, running in claiming races she made it five straight when she captured the Alsab handicap last Sunday over a good field. Atlantic City was the favorite in the Alsab handicap at one mile. At the break Jockey B. Fisk took Atlantic City to the front and he set the pace but tired in the stretch, and going wide turning for home let Carmen Ann through on the rail. The battle was then on between Barging Lady and the latter. Jockey T. Sens kept Carmen Ann steady and she won, running the mile in 1:39-3/5 and paying in the mutuels $5. In the secondary feature, the Pine Inn, at six furlongs, the good filly Ventura won going away by three lengths, paying $4.40. Running the fastest six furlongs of the season in the time of 1:11-4/5. The daily-double paid $117.20 while the quiniela also rewarded holders of the lucky combination of Iron Mike-Barbie Lass, paying $72. Jockey A. Fermin, veteran of the saddle, and apprentice A. Applebee were the riding stars of the day, both riding three winners. Four public choices won. Longshots stole the rest of the card. We were very sorry to learn that the father of our popular Generalissimo Eddie Nealis and his two brothers, Andy and Johnny, is ill. We wish him a speedy recovery. At this writing, Mr. Nealis, Sr., is resting well in the hospital. Armando E. Verdugo, director of personnel of Caliente, is expected back from a business trip to Mexico City. Horsemen and fans may receive good news from our director when he arrives. Ruben Verdugo, auditor of the track, is improving at Scripps hospital in La Jolla, which is real good news to his many friends. So until next Sunday . . . keep smiling, buy more bonds. So long. GEORGE.

GRID DOPE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—William A. Berry, 1252 Third Street, North, President of the Birmingham-Tuskegee Club, has announced that members of the club will sell a thousand tickets for the Tuskegee-Clark football game, which will be played at Rickwood Field, Friday night, October 6, on or before the second day of October.

Last year when Tuskegee and Clark met here Clark defeated Tuskegee, 7 to 0, but in the New Year's Day game, the Golden Tigers won by a score of 12 to 7.

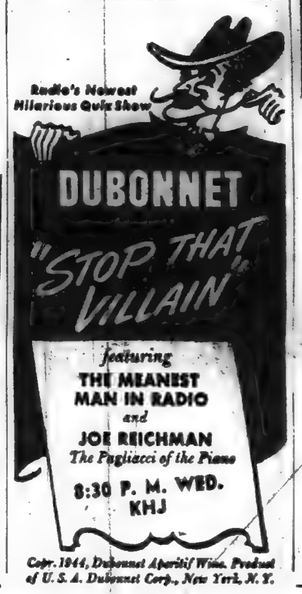
Save a Life Sunday Set for October 15 To Help Duarte Home

A galaxy of speakers and singers gathered at the home of Miss Pauline Slater for early Sunday morning coffee and to make plans for the "Save a Life Sunday" for the benefit of the Duarte Rest home.

The Save a Life idea was introduced by Mrs. Fannie Williams, with the hope that the ministers would appreciate the opportunity to save a life to save a soul.

SPECIAL SUNDAY DRIVE

Sunday, October 15th, has been set aside at which time all of the churches have been invited to participate by preaching on save a life. The Assistance League will send speakers and singers to sing, speak, and make appeals for funds to help complete the drive for the $10,000 needed to pay off the mortgage on the Rest Home.



Many of the Social Clubs are buying blocks of tickets and planning to go in groups to see the Jerry Moore—Freddie Dixon prize fight at the Olympic on Tuesday night, September 26th, for the benefit of the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

You can do a good deed by getting your club to join the hundreds of young people who will be out to root for their favorite fighter and at the same time help save a life.

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

THIS AND THAT — Kenny Washington seem to be in excellent condition last Sunday at Gilmore Stadium as he paced his mates to their victory over the L.A. Wildcats. From what I have seen of Washington he leads a clean life, absolutely essential for a man who wishes to indulge in a sport professionally. As the season get on Kenny will more than likely exhibit greater form . . . Curtis Sheppard, 198, Pittsburgh, decisioned Big Boy Brown, 262, Detroit, in a 10-rounder Monday night at Baltimore . . . The fine new auto belonging to John Thomas had a fender smashed recently. The popular local lightweight was seen taking a street car on Main Street last week and explained why he was favoring the L.A. Railway for transportation. John expects to be back on "rubber" this week. By the way, his planned bout with Juan Zurita for the N.B.A. lightweight title is practically signed, sealed and delivered. An announcement of the date should be made any day now.

FINALE ON MAJOR JONES . . . My erstwhile critic, Dr. Earl Gould, dropped me another letter this week in which he listed the boys that he thinks could beat Major Jones. In fairness to the doctor, I herewith publish his list: Eddie Hudson, Matt Oglesby, Bobby Yeager, Willie Joyce, Jimmy Doyle, Eddie Marcus, Ace Miller, Billy Hale, Nicholas Moran, Lupe Gonzales, Chuey Figueroa, Ray Lunney and Mike Delia. Doctor Gould has named the outstanding lightweights on the West Coast. It is true that quite a few on his list might take Major now. I assumed that he would name boys who were new in the pro game as Major is, not the cream of the crop. Jones, in about a year would eventually beat 99 per cent of that list but it wouldn't be strictly kosher to match him at the start of his pro career with he fighers mentioned above. A boy turning pro doesn't tackle the lads perched on the top rung of the ladder but is brought along slowly, meeting better and better fighters as he climbs upward. So, Doc scored on me there. A lot of these boys could beat Major now, but I was referring to beginners, not the top of the heap. In conclusion, a letter from Willie Bea Harmon, sports editor of the CALL, Kansas City, Mo., who read my article, also thinks it a good thing that Major was banned from fighting out here, knowing the kid's background. The Kansas City scribe thinks that the kid, who was a sophomore in high school, should resume his schooling. So do I, but even if allowed to continue fighting he culd have finished school by setting training hours that would not conflict with his schooling. Bubbles Klice, says Willie Bea, is the guy who made Major. Klice, the father of amateur boxing in Kansas City, took Major, an orphan, fed him and housed him and taught him the rudiments of boxing. Bubbles is now in France and, according to Willie Bea, the Major has been well exploited. I agree with the aforesaid writer that it is too bad that Major is now in the middle of boxing's nowhere. I still say that since the kid turned pro it is regretable that his career had to be halted.

Al Hart In One Round Fluke Kayo

The official boxing records will hereafter show that Al Hart, former Xavier University (New Orleans) athlete, now a fighter, knocked out Turkey Thompson of Los Angeles in the first heat of their scheduled ten-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night but this Scribe can sympathize with Turkey in the tragic fact that he either failed to beat the count after being clipped with a right by Hart or that he was a victim of a "short count" delivered by Referee Johnny Indrisano. The time of the knockout was 2m. 5s.

The Turk went down after receiving several stiff left jabs and then a right to the jaw. He rested on one knee prepared to take advantage of a nine count but as he arose Indrisano rushed over and hoisted Hart's hand in victory. Thompson protested that he had arisen at nine but it was too late. An investigation will probably be made at the request of Cal Working, manager of Thompson.

Hart weighed 228 to 212 for Thompson.

A crowd of 7000 saw the battle and the gamblers took a terrific beating who bet Thompson.

Arturo Barron, 138, defeated Willie Bowen, 131, in the six-round semi-windup.

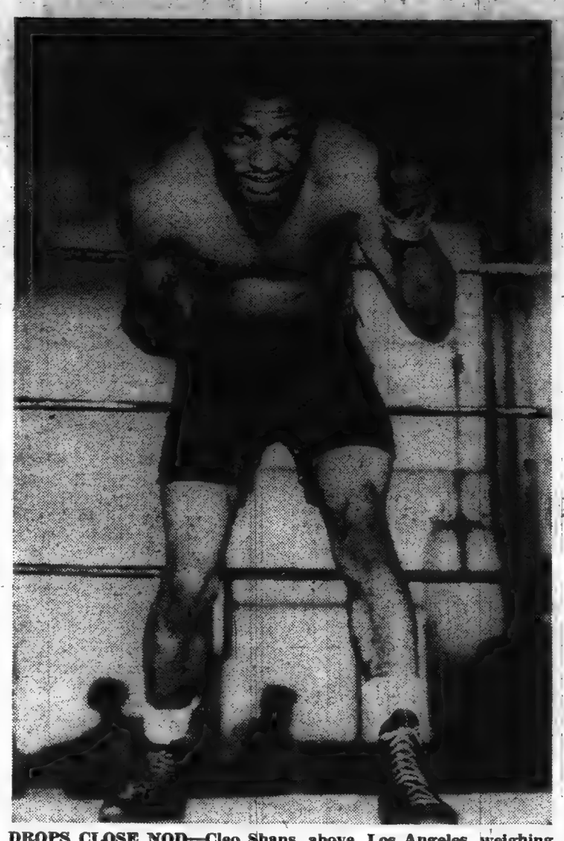
In the preliminaries Art Aragon, 132½, scored a two-round technical knockout over Gene Rooney, 134; George Fulton, 165, decisioned Al Williams, 158; Art Rojo, 133, and Eddie Castro, 136, fought four rounds to a draw while Fredie Della, 143½, a sawed-off giant, stopped Mike Dundee, 142, with a right to the chin in the first round.

MOORE VS. DIXON

Next Tuesday night Jerry Moore, classy welterweight glove tosser, will meet Freddy Dixon, who holds wins over Cecil Hudson. The bout will be staged at the Olympic Auditorium and a large crowd is expected.

Angustain Nods Starr

Frankie Angustain, 155, local middleweight prospect, got up from the canvas where he had been deposited by Roman Starr, 160, in the eighth round and put on enough steam to catch the eyes of the judges and referee at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night, gaining a unanimous 10-round decision over the Indian fighter.



In the semi-windup, Baby Gonzales, 126, nodded Bert White, 125½, in six rounds. The fours found Al Miller, 131, getting a TKO verdict over Stanley Jamison, 124, in the third heat, the referee stopping the battle when Jamison refused to mix it; Gene Rooney, 132, decisioning Ivan Jones, 130; George Fulton, 166, drawing with Frisco James, 165, and Bruce Williams, 164, nodding Al Williams, 163.

Bobby Yeager, Jimmy Hatcher Meet Sept. 29

Bobby Yeager, classy lightweight protege of the Lewis-Tolson fight stable, will trade punches with Jimmy Hatcher, capable Eastern lightie, in the feature bout at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night, Sept. 29.

Hatcher comes here well recommended and a fast and furious scrap is expected when these two top-notch lightweights meet in 10 rounds at the Film Capital.

On the same card fighting in a four-rounder will be Lloyd Battiste, bright new prospect of the Lewis-Tolson stable. In two pro fights Battiste won one by decision and the other by a kayo. He looks like a real comer.

DROPS CLOSE NOD—Cleo Shans, above, Los Angeles, weighing 134 pounds, dropped a close 10-round decision at Washington, D. C., Tuesday night to Pittsburgh Jackie Wilson, 130, former world's featherweight champion. The majority of fans thought that Shans was entitled to the nod and a loud chorus of boos went up as the verdict was announced.

Main Eventers Prep Hard For Outdoor Show Sept. 30

An aggressive, confident Jack Chase is rounding into top form for his important 10-round clash with Lloyd Marshall, duration light heavyweight champion, at Hollywood baseball park Saturday night, Sept. 30.

The bout shares equal billing with the Manuel Ortiz-Carlos Chavez ten round natural. Ortiz, world bantamweight ruler, fights Chavez, state featherweight king pin, at 126-pounds—over the weight.

Tickets are going fast at Hollywood ball park, according to head ticket man, Bill Loller. The Victory A. C. visions a gross gate of $50,000.

Chase blasted out a sensational one round knockout over tough Larry Anzalone a few weeks ago at Hollywood Stadium.

Odds makers have made Marshall a 7 to 10 choice, but in two fights with Chase at San Francisco, one ended in a draw and Chase won the other. Both were roaring fifteen round fights.

Marshall will open training Sunday or Monday at Willie Orner's Main street gymnasium.

The six round semi final looms as a real brawl. It pairs unbeaten Rene DeLeon and Chito Hernandez at 147 pounds. Hernandez is managed by Charley Williams. Roxie Eisen, the Patent Leather Kid of Boxing, is the manager of DeLeon. Roxie says he wouldn't take $5,000 for DeLeon's contract. He has turned down many offers for DeLeon's contract.

Hank Stops Aldo Spoldi In Second

ST. LOUIS.—Henry Armstrong, 141¾, Los Angeles, making up time on his current comeback, stopped Aldo Spoldi, 138½, New York, last Friday night before a crowd of 6000 fans at Kiel auditorium.

Hank caught Spoldi with a left hook to the chin after 2:43 of the second round and the Italian plunged face down and was still out when Referee Jimmy Parker completed the count.

The fight grossed $12,046. Armstrong received $4800 as his share. The former triple champion is slated to fight Pete Lello this week.

Kenny Washintgon Sparks Clippers to 20-13 Win

The San Francisco Clippers pulled a mild upset in pro football by defeating the favored Los Angeles Wildcats, 20 to 13, at Gilmore Stadium last Sunday afternoon before 14,000 fans.

Led twice by All-American Kenny Washington, the Clippers scored in the first quarter with Mulkey scoring the touchdown and kicking the extra point, and again in the second quarter when Washington carried the oval from the I yard stripe. Mulkey again converted. The visitors completed their scoring in the first half when Kenny passed 15 yards to Mulkey who scampered over for the tally. However he failed to convert and the score stood at 20-0.

Steiner scored for L. A. in the fourth quarter with a brilliant 54 yard run. Marefos converted. In the last few seconds L. A. scored again when Steiner leaped high into the air on the 8 yard line and flipped a pass to Marefos waiting over the goal line. The gun sounded as the pass was completed.

Moore vs. Dixon Will Top Benefit Card at Olympic

The Outdoor Health and Life Associat... ...of the Rest Home in Duarte in charge of Dr. Leonard Stovall, in a campaign to raise money to pay off the $10,000 debt on the home is sponsoring a boxing match at the Olympic next Tuesday night. Babe McCoy, genial match-maker and Cal Eaton, promoter, have graciously allowed the association to share in the profits of next Tuesday night's fight. The committee on raising money headed by John W. Fowler, has taken a large block of tickets to sell before the night of the fight. Out of the proceeds of these tickets the association receives a percentage for the home.

Babe McCoy has as the headline bout of the evening a sizzler between Jerry Moore and Freddy Dixon, the uncrowned king of the welterweights. Excellent prelims will precede the main event.

Freddy Dixon has been campaigning in Southern California for the past year and has lost only one fight and that was to Cecil Hudson who he whipped rather easily the last time they fought.

Jerry Moore is from New York, and since coming to the coast last year hasn't lost a fight.

The Outdoor Health and Life Association is asking all of the public to buy as many tickets in advance as possible. The project is a worthy one and each ticket bought means that another unfortunate will have a chance for life and happiness.

If none has approached you regarding buying tickets pleace call Mr. Fowler at Adams 9190 or any of the local newspapers. Many of the clubs are planning to buy blocks of tickets and the Assistance League is leading the parade. Don't miss this gala event. Buy your ticket NOW!

Zorrita Scores TKO Over Foe

Leon Zorrita, 158, pounded out a sixth round technical kayo over Bandit Villaverde, 158, Arizona, in Monday night's scheduled 10-round main event at the Ocean Park Arena.

The clever Zorrita outclassed his opponent all the way, dropping Villaverde for a 9-count in th fourth and for a short count in the sixth heat.

Tito Despaigne, 145, the Panama sensation, registered his fourth straight kayo by stopping Petey Whatstraw, 145, in Rowe, 135; Louis Alle, 148, de- the second round of the semi.

In other bouts, Sailor Joey Savidan, 136, decisioned Stakey cisioned Elmer Lewis, 150; Pee Wee Swingler, 127, drew with Paul Woods, 129, and Nate Gibson, 161, decisioned Bernie Torres, 153.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles will receive bids for furnishing all labor and material for the following work:

Kind of Work and Name of School—Re-roofing of the Main building, warehouse buildings Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, South Portion of Warehouse Number 6, and Garage at the Los Angeles City Board of Education Warehouse site.

Date of Bid Opening—October 5, 1944.

Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the Architectural Section of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 So. San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the office of said Architectural Section, upon the posting of a guarantee deposit, or deposits, of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars for each set, which deposits will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contracts which will be awarded the successful bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION

Foremen — All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than $1.00 per day more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices — May be employed in conformity with section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

CLASSIFICATION	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$1.35
LABORERS
General or construction, including all laborers not herein separately classified, on all types of construction	.875
ROOFERS
Roofer	1.31¼
SHEET METAL WORKERS
Sheet Metal Worker	1.50

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set-forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

The overtime rule establishing the rates of wages for overtime and holiday work shall be in accordance with the following:

Where a single shift is worked, eight hours of continuous employment, except for lunch periods, shall constitute a day's work beginning on Monday and through Friday of each week. Where work is required in excess of eight hours in any one day or during the interval from 5:00 P.M. Friday and 7:00 A.M. Monday, or on holidays, such work shall be paid for at 1-½ times the basic rate of wages.

The rates of wages including overtime and holiday rates above specified are subject to the effect, if applicable thereto, of executive orders of the President of the United States, and to any modification thereof and to any and all lawful orders of the President or any other authorized Federal officer or agency, in so far as the same may be applicable to this contract. In case of any inconsistency, the rates fixed by any such applicable Federal Order, whether higher or lower, shall govern.

Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him, to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on forms to be obtained at said Architectural Section of the Board of Education; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond (issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Purchasing Agent of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, on or before 2:00 P.M. on the dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and/or waive any informality on a bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles.

PROF. HERMAN The Astrologer
TO ASSIST YOU IN MAKING WISE DECISIONS

FREE: Your question will be answered in this column only when a clipping of this feature is enclosed with your question, your full name, birthdate and correct address. For private reply, send 25 cents in coin and stamped envelope for my Astrology Reading and receive by return mail my free opinions on any three questions. Address all communications to Prof. Herman, the Astrologer, care of The California EAGLE.

VICTORY

An individual who has never experienced misfortune and disappointments lacks a strong foundation upon which to build successfully.

One cannot expect to reach the pinnacle of success without trials and tribulations in this vale of tears. Constructive criticism and an encouraging word will do much to turn defeat into victory for our struggling girls and boys of today.

The Merchant Princes and Tycoons of today experienced false perception and poverty in the beginning, but they kept plugging until victory was theirs. You, too, can succeed. Keep fighting and your burdens will become lighter and your determination to go places in life, greater.

A.B. Dear Prof. Herman: I have been a customer of yours for years, and have always been pleased with the results of your wonderful products. I wish to inform you however, of my special delight in using your NEW products. I am telling my friends and passing your order blanks around for many are interested in your Astrology Readings.

Mrs. P. L. What became of my friend?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that you met this man on the train while making the trip south in July. It seems that he is still living in that vicinity and would enjoy hearing from you.

L.M.J. What shall I do?

Ans. It appears to me that you have two boy friends that are interested in you and both have asked you to be their wife, when you finish school. But, I recommend your treating them as friends and not placing too much confidence in them, for you are young and so are they and many things may intervene before you are old enough to marry.

M.A.W. Should I quit this job I am on?

Ans. My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals your being a little disatisfied with your present job. But I do not recommend your quitting until such time as you have definite promise of another, which meets with the requirements you have in mind.

Dear Sir: I am sorry it has taken me so long to write you. I received the Hindu Charm Bag and I have really enjoyed wearing it. In fact, I am very much pleased with your products and work and I'm constantly recommending you to my friends. Thanking you again for your services, I am very truly yours, O. R.

L. S. G. Does my husband love me?

Ans. Your lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate you and your husband as being a very happy couple. Don't let doubt and suspicion spoil your martial bliss. If you feel that something may be going wrong, check up on yourself, and try being a better companion and wife.

N. L. Will I receive the back pay that is due me?

Ans. I am of the opinion that you will receive this money soon. For a change in your financial condition is indicated in your Horoscope.

M.H.J. Have I missed my husband? Is he married? How can I get a husband?

Ans. Only one question is answered in the column due to the limited amount of space. I am sure I can help you, my friend. if you will write in for a private reply.

W.A.D. Will my plans be successful?

Ans. According to your Zodiacal Sign, your future achievements will be quite successful. Concentrate upon your plans and work toward that goal, for they will prove successful to you.

Madam, here's one TABOO you can forget when you want relief

You can thank your lucky stars that women are no longer squeamish about discussing their troubles. Otherwise you might never know of the 2-way help that CARDUI may bring when nervousness, headaches and cramp-like pain are due only to periodic functional causes.

Many women find that, started three days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI aids in relieving functional periodic discomforts. Used as a tonic, CARDUI often wakes up sleepy appetites, aides digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, and thus helps to build up resistance against the days it's needed most. Try it!

IF RHEUMATIC PAIN HAS YOU DOSING AND HOPING

Then Prove to Yourself What Effective Results You Can Get Now with this Medicine

Open your own way toward deliverance others have enjoyed. Make up your mind you're going to use something that gets to work to ease rheumatic pain. You want help you can feel and if you get it you will be grateful. So get C-2223, if you suffer from muscular aches and pains due to exercise or exposure (sometimes called rheumatic pain) or muscular lumbago. Don't be put off with ifs or buts. Don't keep on complaining and boring your friends with your troubles. Caution: Use only as directed. Remember you take no chances with your money. First bottle purchase price of C-2223 refunded if you're not satisfied. 60s and $1 sizes. Always demand C-2223.

A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

NEVER KICK A MAN WHEN HE'S DOWN—HE MAY GET UP!

Mrs Diane Roberts, county social worker of Upper Wall Street, took this writer to task for scribbling last week that Joe Gibson was the first sepia cop in Riverside. Mrs. Roberts says, "Uncle Henry Gordon, father of the Walter Gordon of Berkeley, was a policeman in Riverside when she was a little girl. Thank you, Mrs. Roberts. Big Joe is the law there now. He is in the radio car.

Officer Wilmer Bratton of the S. D. is confined to the General Hospital suffering from an old head injury. This writer is in his place temporarily. We like Judge Georgia Bullock. My Judge John Beasley, is on vacation.

LITTLE JIMMIE POLK IS IN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Mrs. James Polk, wife of the dashing young police officer is now lullubying her child to sleep with that swell tune penned by the hubby of Jeni LeGon, film actress and dance instructor, tagged, "Shoo-Shoo, Baby." Policeman Papa Polk is now off to the seven seas as a sailer in Uncle Sam's Navy.

Lest you forget, don't fail to buy a ticket to the Sheriff's Show at the Shrine Auditorium to staged Oct. 4th to Oct. 11th. Abbott and Costello will produce the show. They will appear the first two nights and then headline the show with other big times.

With the film folks... Lena Horne and that clever little tough guy, who dances his way into your heart were unopposed as directors of the Screen Actors Guild. Lena Horne like all people getting to the top had a hard way to go. But her fame was made in just one film, "Cabin in the Sky." Nina Mae McKinney, staging a comeback, set the world afire with "Halleuiah" Rex Ingram skyrocketed with his role as "De-Lawd" in "Green Pastures." If and when Hollywood condescends to make pictures of the Negro's part in this war, you will see some new stars—or at least those we have will work more regular. Col. Benjamin O. Davis recent winner of the Distinguished Flying Cross, as well as other sepia heroes should provide ample material for the writers, producers and directors. ....Tiger Jack Thompson, who is busy in Illinois, writes the colmun and says "hello." Especially to Clarence Muse. He gets his mail at 4342 E. P. O. Box 1112, Joliet, Ill.

HERE AND THERE

...Georgeous Naomi Johnson of the Allum Drug Johnsons is on vacation. Margaret Polk is trying to tie herself down long enough to pen a book. Roosevelt LaVoix Robertson of Chi is in town.

TAN YANKS

Lt. Everette M. Porter, former L. A. Attorney, is in the South Pacific. He is still a lawyer. Between Japs he defends peace breakers at court martials. Theodore A. Davis, who used to be on a General Hospital ambulance is now a staff sergeant in Camp Claiborne, La. He missed the boat twice going overseas.

IF BUSTED ROMANCES THRILL YOU—HERE'S A NEW BATCH

Was a little surprised over the great number of people who like gossip. Should I hold my tongue in my cheeks. Well, if you like it, it is your seven cents, you know and we are here to give you what you want. So here goes. Emily and Lionel Williams are telling it to the judge. Melvin and Clara Merriweather, found stormy weather in their wedded life. Christine and J. C. Houston are as far from each other as Hilter is from Russia. Then there is Flora and George Pope as well as Robie and Walter Dixon who have called it quits. Addie and Benjamin Parker are about as close together as Roosevelt and Dewey and that is like the bear-they ain't nowhere.

This is your little fat, almost bald-headed policeman, who answers the roll at the Sheriff's Department as Earl J. Morris, 5013 Wall Street, L. A., No. 11.

BAY REGION NEWS

By D. G. Gibson

Rev. G. Linwood Fauntleroy, baritone, new minister of Cooper A.M.E. Zion Church, Oakland, and his wife, Mrs. Ardelia M. Fauntleroy, soprano, both concert artists, were heard in a joint recital in the main church auditorium before a capacity audience recently. Miss Maxine Blackburn was accompanist.

Mrs. Ada Jackson, well known club woman, received flowers, as did the artists, for having sold the largest number of tickets.

Bishop William Cornelius Brown, was the distinguished guest speaker at the Cooper Zion Church recently. During his visit here he was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wilks.

Recent services at the McGee Avenue Baptist Church, Mt. Pleasant, climaxed the series of programs in commemoration of the 9th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. J. D. Wilson who is now vacationing in Elsinore, Calif.

Participating churches in the celebration included Beth Eden Baptist, Reverend Harris and assistant pastor Allen Temple; Baptist, Rev. G. J. Wildy, pastor; Rising Sun Baptist, Rev. H. Holmes, pastor; Calvary Baptist, Rev. C. E. Henderson, pastor; Phillip's Chapel CME, Rev. Jno. H. Dorn, pastor, and St. Paul A.M.E., Rev. M. L. Hawkins, pastor.

Among those public-spirited citizens who appeared on the program during the series were: Messrs. Chas. Baker, A. Fouche, Oakland business men, Issac Jackson of the De Luxe clothing firm, and Dr. and Mrs. G. Bonderant of Oakland.

Reverend and Mrs. A. O. Bell of the North Oakland Baptist church, Mrs. Ruth Coleman, widow of the late pastor of the North Oakland church, Dr. G. C. Coleman and Mrs. Cal Williams, also member of the mentioned church; Reverend and Mrs. Edw. Stovall of Progressive Baptist church, this city, all attended the National Baptist Meet in Nashville, Tenn.

The Art and Industrial club recently met at the home of Mrs. Cal Williams in Harper street, at which time Mrs. Hattie Bryant was hostess.

Mrs. Leezinka Cooper, past rpesident, was the installing officer. Mrs. Elizabeth Ridley was again reelected club president.

Native Daughters of California were hostesses at their 7th annual formal held at Melody Lane ball room recently with 300 guests attending. Ben Watkins' orchestra provided the music.

Mrs. Esther Breeden is president of the club. Other officers are: Mesdames Florence Hicks, vice presiden; Anna Mae Walker, recording secretary; Elizabeth Taylor, corrresponding secretary; Elma Patrick, treasurer; Victoria Francis, parliamentarian; Ambrosia Meyers, critic; B Simms, reporter.

Mrs. Lela Fayetta Moore, school teacher, and her mother, Mrs. Sapp, both of Los Angeles, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Frazier and Miss Lela Williams of 3024 Harper street, recently. While here, they were honorees at a luncheon given by Mrs. Eloise Rochon in Dohr street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Harris of Los Angeles, who spent two weeks in metropolitan Oakland, returned to their home Sept. 16. Here, they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Faulkner, 1121 Fifth Ave., Oakland. Mrs. Faulkner is the sister of Mr. Harris. Messrs. Thomas Mann, this city, and Charles Wright, Oakland, are Mr. Harris' brothers, with whom he shared his visit.

Topping the fall social season was the buffet bridge-po-keno luncheon which was hostessed by Mrs. Florence White and her cousin, Miss Alfreda Franklin, popular Oaklanders, at the Masonic Temple recently. Eighty guests attended, including Mrs. Hazel Carter of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Carrie Wilson of Omaha, Neb., house guest and relative of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lenear, Oaklanders; Mrs. Thelma Gray, a Texan, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haynes, Oaklanders; and Mrs. Inez Lamont, who with her distinguished husband, Dr. Lamont, of Baton Rouge, La., relatives of the Fulton Martins and the Beverly Barancos, Oaklanders, with whom they are sharing their visit.

Prize winners at bridge were Mesdames Mable Foster, Catherine Covington, N. Dawson, Pearl Blandin, Ida Terry. Winners at pokeno, which was directed by Bill White, were Mesdames Thelma Gray and Pearl Hoskins.

Mrs. Jane Hunley Blackburn, teacher, of Columbus, O., is the house guest of Reverend and Mrs. X. Runyan at their lovely home in Ashby ave. Mrs. Blackburn and Reverend Runyan are school mates.

Lucy R. Johnson was guest hostess to the Book Lovers' Study Club of Berkeley at her home, 1534 Ashby ave., last week. The retiring president, Mrs. Grace Temple, was presented by the club members. Mrs. Maggie R. Marshall, the new program chairman, gave an outline of the Year's study program. After an absence of several years, Mrs. Minnie Oubre again heads the organization. Mrs. G. Longrus was a special guest.

The amount of $1,146.75 was raised by the California Council of Negro Women during the 5th War Loan Bond drive to apply on the $2,000,000 S.S. Harriet Tubman fund.

Mrs. Lillie Wilkerson, president of the local council, was contacted by the national president, Mrs. Mary McCleod Bethune to lead the drive.

Thousands of Negroes in U.S. Mourn Death of Sister Aimee

A sincere friend of the Negro race is dead. Aimee Semple McPherson, noted pastor-evangelist of Angelus Temple and organizer of Four Square Gospel churches throughout the United States in which many Negro ministers and evangelists were trained, died suddenly of a heart attack at the Leamington Hotel in Oakland Wednes-day at 11:45 a. m. after taking sleeping tablets. She was 53 years of age.

Last night she was to have told "The Story of My Life" to a huge congregation in an Oakland branch of the Four Square Gospel.

She was preparing her sermon when the fatal attack occurred at 11:45 a. m. in the hotel.

Rolf McPherson, her son, found her unconscious in her suite and summoned two physicians, Dr. Norman Leet and Dr. E. M. Palmer, who pronounced her dead at noon.

The doctors announced she died from a heart attack while under the influence of sleeping tablets "and might accidentally have taken too many of them."

SON TO TAKE PLACE

The son, Rolf, who has been vice-president of the Four Square Gospel and now becomes head of the organization through arrangement with his mother, reported that she was "happy and thrilled over the response of her Oakland audience last night."

"She seemed unworried to me," he added.

MUSED ON DEATH

The Rev. Grover T. Owens, her personal public relations representative, revealed that Tuesday night Mrs. McPherson's thoughts touched fleetingly on death.

"She was standing in her

"WHOM THE GODS would destroy, they first make mad."

I don't think that there is a truer philosophy than this saying, but the individual who uttered it for the first time made a great contribution to oncoming generations. As for me I truly believe that if I did not keep it turning over in my mind, some of the unsigned letters that come to my desk would make me mad.

I have profound contempt for a person who pens a letter or an essay to which he is either ashamed or afraid to attach his name.

For instance this: Dear Mrs. Bass: Are you still a Styles supporter? Do you endorse him?

Yes, Shameface, I am still for Styles. The Examiner Ku Klux Klan expose made no impression on me. During my experience in political campaigns I have never seen it fail: where men and issues are favorable to Negroes, such mediums as the Los Angeles Examiner always resort to the Ku Klux Klan as a smear.

I could go down the line naming individuals who hold important city and county positions who, in political campaigns, were accused of being Klansmen.

The Negro people of the United States were pretty bitter when Chief Justice Black was named for the United States Supreme Court, because he had been a member of the infamous Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. Black admitted that he had been a member and a participant in Klan activities. But as a member of America's earliest Gestapo, when he realized how wicked were the tenets of the Klan he tore off the white hood and robe and attempted to convince the organization how wrong it was.

Now as a member of the United States Supreme Court Mr. Black has not only seen clearly on all the questions affecting the citizenship rights of America's despised group, the Negroes, but he has voted correctly on every measure destined to eradicate social, economic, and educational barriers in the path of every American's progress.

To you, my bother or sister who sent this note,

Judge Nye Grants Continuance

Finis Arbuckle, defense worker of 695 E. 21st St. was brought from his cell in the County Jail last Monday morning to face the charge of murder in Dept. 40 of the Superior Court. When asked whether he pleaded guilty or not guilty of the charge, his Attorney Curtis C. Taylor requested a week's continuance for the purpose of entering a plea. The request was granted by Judge Clement D. Nye who presides in Dept. 40. Arbuckle is charged with the murder of Don Castelberry on June 1st at the entrance to a Central Avenue cafe. He was not apprehended for about five days when he was arrested by Officer McGruder of the Newton Street Detective Bureau.

Charlotta A. Bass Named—

One of Ten National Leaders For FDR Non-Partisan Group

NEW YORK, N. Y.—In a strongly worded statement issued here today, 35 national Negro leaders announced the formation of the National Non-Partisan Committee for the Reelection of Roosevelt, and called upon Negro voters "to use every resource at our nation by those progressive foreign and domestic policies for which the Roosevelt Administration is justly renowned."

Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, chairman, in announcing the committee's formation, emphasized its non-partisan character. Quoting the committee's statement, she declared: "While retaining whatever party affiliations we may have, we believe that partisan considerations should not determine our vote in these crucial elections. We will work and vote for those men and those measures, which, irrespective of party labels, will best advance the welfare of our people. We urge that this same nonpartisan approach be followed by all our fellow citizens."

Regional vice-chairmen of the committee include: Mrs. Charlotta Bass, California Eagle publisher, Los Angeles, Calif.; Roscoe Dunjee, Oklahoma; Arthur Huff Fauset, Pennsylvania; William Harrison, Massachusetts; Rev. Charles A. Hill, Michigan; Carl Johnson, Missouri; Osceola McKaine, South Carolina; Captain Hugh Mulzac, New York; Carter Wesley, Texas; Bishop R. R. Wright, Jr., Ohio; and P. B. Young, Sr., Virginia.

Declaring "The time for neutrality has passed; and the time for clean-cut decision and vigorous action is here," the committee states: "It is our conviction that the best interests of the Negro people and of all America—both in the war and in the peace—can best be advanced by the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt as President, and by the election of Harry S. Truman as Vice-President."

To Fight Jim Crow...

N.A.A.C.P. Pledges Support to 5,000 Negro Boilermakers Here

Monday night at the regular meeting of the Executive Board of the local N.A.A.C.P., Walter Williams, young exponent of equal participation in the regular Boilermakers Union, appealed to the N.A.A.C.P. for moral, legal, and financial support. The earnest, straightforward manner in which Mr. Williams presented the workers' cause brought forth a hearty approval from the body.

By motion the Board voted $500.00 from the general fund, to be approved by the legal committee. It also pledged to help by staging a mammoth mass meeting to raise the two thousand dollars needed to fight the case.

The first man on his feet to respond to Mr. Williams' plea was Mr. L. G. Robinson.

Robinson's passionate plea for a united support in the boilermakers fight for justice and fair play in the Union, showed no signs of a "tired old man" who has no interest in the struggle being made by the younger generation to become full-fledged American citizens.

Mr. Robinson concluded his remarks by stating that he was ready not only to pledge his moral support, but likewise his financial backing.

Folowing Mr. Robinson was the Rev. J. Lyle Caston, popular pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, who pointed out that five thousand Negro boilmakers who are barred from Local No. 92 and the Boilermakers International, and denied the right to negotiate their contracts were fighting not only for equal participation in the Union for themselves, but also equal participation in the American way of life for all who are denied the same.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Rev. Caston warned the members of the N.A.A.C.P. Board not to let the people down. Said he:

Backs Roosevelt

NEW YORK, N. Y.—John Sengstacke, Publisher of the Chicago Defender, declared in a press interview in New York on Friday that "Dewey's election would throw the nation and the Negro back fifty years."

Prominent Leaders on Air Sunday Will Speak on FDR's Record and Negro People

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Vice-president Henry A. Wallace, Congressman William L. Dawson, Congressman-elect Adam Clayton Powell, and Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune will speak over a nation wide broadcast on Roosevelt's record and the Negro people on Sunday, October 1, on the Mutual network from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m. PWT.

The broadcast will come from the Golden Gate ballroom in Harlem where a mammoth rally is being staged to mark the opening of the Democratic campaign drive among the Negro people. Outstanding concert artists will also be featured.

The Democratic National Committee is sponsoring the rally and broadcast.

500 clerks are needed for approximately 2 weeks by the Register of Voters to work on addressing envelopes, the County Civil Service Commission announced this week, the work to start on or about Monday, Oct. 9th.

All interested persons are asked to sign up immediately at Room 102 Hall of Records in downtown Los Angeles. Further information may be obtained by calling MUtual 9211, Station 2912.

Bartender Absolved In Sailor's Slaying

At the preliminary hearing held on the 21st day of September, 1944, in Division 4 of the Municipal Court, Judge Leroy Dawson presiding, the case against Thomas Contee, bartender, for the murder of Aben Jones, a sailor on leave, was dismissed, when the autopsy surgeon testified that the sailor was intoxicated and the evidence pointed to the fact that Contee shot in self-defense.

The shooting arose out of an argument between Contee and the sailor when, the evidence showed, the sailor refused to pay for a drink. Evidence showed clearly that Contee secured the gun from under the cash register and fired the gun once, killing the sailor immediately.

The prosecution witnesses testified that Johns, at the time Contee fired the shot, had his arm in a raised position. Police officers testified that they found a knife by the sailor's body, indicating that he might have been attempting to use the knife when the shot was fired.

After considering all the evidence, Judge Leroy Dawson dismissed the murder charge against Contee. Contee was represented by Attorney C. A. Wright.

OUTSTANDING NEGRO ARTIST—Robert S. Pious, whose portraits of Marian Anderson and Roland Hayes won him national acclaim, and two of whose portraits have been purchased by Dublin University, has won new fame for himself through the weekly editorial cartoons which he draws for the Office of War Information, and which are available to every Negro newspaper in the nation. Pious, successful in his new career of commercial artist attributes his success to his wife, Ruth, whose love and devotion he has had for 18 years. A resident of New York City, Pious has studied at the Chicago Art Institute and the National Academy of Design.—(Calvin Photo).

Protest Against Liquor Store Opening Sustained

It was announced this week that the Board of Equalization had sustained the protest of a group of citizens in the Bronzeville vicinity led by Rev. Harold Kingsley, Pilgrim House director, Rev. L. B. Brown of First Street Baptist Church, and Rev. M. L. Brown of New Jerusalem Baptist Church who had complained of the opening of a new liquor store just about 100 feet from Pilgrim House. These civic-minded leaders are to be congratulated upon continuing their fight to a satisfactory conclusion.

Her First Vote For Roosevelt

PHILA., PA — For the first time, 100-year-old Mrs. Agnes Holmes of 2113 Carpenter Street, Philadelphia, Pa., who was a young girl at the close of the Civil War, will cast her ballot and she will vote for President Roosevet who "Next to John Brown is the greatest man that ever lived in this country."

Mrs. Holmes registered at the City Hill Annex last week and told reporters as she left, "Thank God, I'm going to vote for the first time. And I am just awaitin' to vote for President Roosevelt."

Headquarters Open For United AFL Group

Mr. A. B. Clay, well known barber of the Dunbar Barber Shop, and Co-ordinator of the 62nd Assembly District, United A. F. of L. Committee during the past week, opened campaign headquarters in the California Eagle Building, corner 41st Street and Central Avenue, upstairs. All Unions of the 62nd Assembly District have joined together as one, and they are working faithfully to see that every citizen is a registered voter. The United Committee plan to carry out a very strenuous campaign in regards to voting in this coming critical election, and to assist in explaining the Amendments on the ballot.

YOUR LAST CHANCE!

Today is your last chance to register in order to vote in the coming Presidential Election. Register now, at 4075 So. Central or in your own neighborhood. Tomorrow will be too late.

Ask Governor Of Florida To Stay Execution

NEW YORK CITY—More than forty leading clergymen, educators and labor, farm and civic leaders from every section of the country have urged Governor Spessard L. Holand of Florida to stay execution of three Negro boys sentenced to electrocution at Gainesville, Florida, it was announced this week by George Marshall, Chairman, Nation Marshall, Chairman, national Federation for Constitutional Liberties. The stay of execution was requested in order to permit an appeal to be taken from the Gainesville trial. Most of the messages expressed doubt as to the fairness of this trial.

Mariners Medals Are Awarded Posthumously

Mariners Medals last weekend were awarded posthumously to two Los Angeles men, in the name of Admiral Emery S. Land, United States Maritime Commission, for their heroic actions when their ships were torpedoed and sunk while engaging the enemy. Mrs. Birdie Lewis of 4018 Trinity St. received the medal for her husband Moses Lewis, Negro, who went down with his ship, the S. S. Cherokee. Mrs. Frances Linton of 918 West Olympic Blvd., received the award honoring her husband, Harold C. Linton, who was lost while aboard the M. S. Esso Williamsburg.

Butler St. YMCA Is Completed At Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, GA.—In a brief but impressive ceremony recently, the Butler Street Y.M.C.A. marked the completion of its building which was begun 22 years ago. Before a crowd of approximately 300 people, a brief ceremony of dedication was carried out on Sunday afternoon. The Invocation was given by the Rev. L. J. Baptiste, Pastor of Shaw Temple A. M. E. Z. Church. The keys to the building were turned over to the Board of Managers by Mr. W. L. Calloway, a member of the Building Committee and were accepted by Mr. T. M. Alexander, Chairman of the Board. Mr. Calloway and Mr. Alexander made brief but timely remarks indicating the work and effort which has gone into the completion of the building.

The dedicatory address was made by Colonel A. T. Walden, who for fifteen years was Chairman of the Board and who is still one of the most active members of the Board.

Home Protective Association Will Meet Friday Night

Plans for a public affair to help raise funds to carry the case of Henry Laws, who is threatened with eviction from his home as the result of residential restrictions on the east side, were made at the meeting of the Home Owners Protective Association in the California Eagle building last Friday night. Charlotta A. Bass, president of the group, pointed out that not only property owners should be interested in this fight against residence discrimination, since since it is a serious threat to taxpayers and rent-payers as well.

The Association will meet this Friday evening to organize for further action against the attempt to exclude Negroes from the area extending from Figueroa to Central and from Slauson to Manchester.

I admonish you to look before you leap to conclusions. This Examiner smear is not so much against Styles as against the C.I.O. Political Action Committee which the whole Fascist gang, even those on the Dewey band wagon, are out to get.

Don't you worry, my Black Brother, about who Sam was. What concerns you most is what Paul is. Hal Styles in his "Good Neighbor" radio program has never turned a deaf ear to the Negro's needs nor excluded him from his plea for justice for all mankind.

A very dear friend of mine, knowing that I had always been registered a Republican, asked me to state specifically why I am for the Roosevelt administration.

This question, I confess, caused me to think cross-eyed for a second.

I have been stating, now for several weeks or maybe months, why I deemed it wise and expedient for the Negro people to pledge their support in the coming campaign to re-elect President Roosevelt.

In answering my friend's question I quote from a printed statement made by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune:

"Under the Roosevelt Administration, the Federal government has tunnelled through to the lowliest rural areas of the South with helpful programs of public health and health education.

"We have but to look around us to see thousands of our finest Negro men and women at work in highly skilled jobs in government and private industry as a result of the establishment by Roosevelt of a national policy against job discrimination."

Expressing her profound faith in President Roosevelt's "sincere and fearless concern for the welfare of my people and of America," Mrs. Bethune concluded her statement by urging Negro women to cast their votes for Roosevelt:

"I have faith and more than faith, I have certain knowledge that Roosevelt has led my people to new gains of freedom in the past twelve years. I have as well the certain knowledge that in the next four years it will be his leadership that will bring us, the Negro Americans, into our just position as full and free citizens of the great American democracy. I shall vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt as I am sure millions of other Negro women will do in November."

I can and do echo these words of Mrs. Bethune. They explain my attitude exactly. The greater freedom we Negroes have gained, both politically and economically, under the Roosevelt administration should induce every one of us, both men and women, to do as Mrs. Bethune says she will do, and as I propose to do: VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT AND FOR ALL MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE WHO WILL HELP IN HIS GREAT HUMANITARIAN PROGRAM.

State Guard Wants Plenty Recruits

"NOW YOU CAN GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH." The common expression of the streets. But it is true. We are now recruiting for a machine Gun Company and we feel that it is what the old veterans have been wating for, and what the new recruits have been hoping for. As soon as the men are mustered in for this Company, all necessary equipment for the unit will be issued to the Battalion. You couldn't hope for more.

There will be a Bivouac, Saturday night, September 30, in a near area for the entire Battalion and Target practice on Sunday, October 1, on a nearby range. This is part of the training necessary for the success of theorganization.

There have been promotions and recommendations for promotions in the ranks since the last Officers' School at Camp Cronkhite at San Francisco. This shows the progress being made among the personnell. Every red-blooded man who is proud to be an American should be a member of the State Guard if he is not in the regular army. Get your application in now. Call at the Headquarters, 700 Exposition Boulevard any Thursday night for further details.

Mourn Death of Sister Aimee

room and suddenly looked out the window," he said, "gazed into the sky and remarked: 'I wonder if when I die it will be in a plane.'

"Her maid, Mrs. Sid, replied: 'Well, it would be a quick way to die.'"

Mrs. McPherson was born Aimee Kennedy on a farm near Ingersoll, Ontario, Canada, Oct. 9, 1890. Her mother handled the evangelist's business affairs until they quarreled.

Mrs. McPherson was founder of the International Church of the Four Square Gospel. More than 400 of her churches stretched across the United States and there were 200 mission stations abroad.

HEALED THOUSANDS

The erect, attractive blonde, the one-time Canadian farm girl who became a glamor girl of the revival trail, was regarded as not only a spiritual leader, but a miraculous healer by her literally millions of converts.

Thousands claimed to have been healed by her touch, by her very presence.

But of this she once said:

"I am not a healer. Jesus is the healer. I am only the office girl who opens the door and says 'Come in.'"

MOURNED BY ALL

The California Eagle, through its editor-publisher, Charlotta A. Bass, joins the sorrowing millions who mourn the passing of a truly great Christian woman. At Angelus Temple her close followers are grief-stricken over the sudden death of their leader.

N.A.A.C.P. Pledges Aid To 5,000

"This organization in this act has an oportunity to demonstrate its real value to this community."

Mr. Norman O. Houston, Golden State Insurance executive and also a member of the Board, supported the move and amended the motion to apeal to the parent body in New York for financial and moral support in this fight to resist the undemocratic rule of Local No. 92 which exercises complete control over all money handled by Local A-35, but denies the five thousand Negroes any voice vote or right to bargain.

A VITAL POINT

It is the opinion of the people of this community that the N.A.A.C.P. and every other organization should be alive to the fact that this Boilermaker's fight is a part of the win-the-war program of our commander-in-chief. To win this fight against discrimination in the Labor Union is equivalent to winning the first plank in the Fair Employment Practices Committee.

Memphis Dept. Store Replaces Negroes By Whites

Charging that "the action of the Brys Department Store, the largest in Memphis, Tennessee, in reconverting to prejudice, by discharging its Negro elevator operators while at the same time advertising for white operators, is the first example of the economic reaction facing Negroes as the war nears an end," Rev. Aron S. Gilmartin, national chairman of the Workers Defense League, wired Sen. Dennis Chavez and Rep. Mary Norton, chairmen of the Senate and House Committees in charge of the bill for a Permanent Fair Employment Practices Committee, urging them to report the bill to the Senate and House for immediate action.

Let's Set the Post-War Pattern

About one soldier in every ten in this man's army is a Negro. Wherever you go — from the beaches to the front — you see these lads doing their stuff.

Which leads up to the story of three G.I.'s—white boys—who were caught on the road one night with the gas needle angling toward the zero mark.
